PIRATES FACE NO. 11 DUKE IN MIDWEEK DOUBLEHEADER

▶ East Carolina finishes up its five-game road swing on Wednesday when the Pirates visit Durham for a midweek doubleheader with No. 11 Duke inside Duke Softball Stadium beginning at 4 p.m. and the second game following at 7 p.m. Both contests will be televised via ACC Network Extra. The Pirates are coming off a 1-2 weekend at Houston in which ECU's offense surged to life tallying 21 runs, batting .310 as a team and almost equaling its previous season total in home runs (8) with seven. The Pirates are 0-2 against ranked opponents this season, falling to then-No. 11 Virginia Tech at the beginning of the campaign.

▶ Duke has won five of its last six games after defeating Elon 4-0 on Monday. The Blue Devils feature a potent offense with seven players batting at least .300 or better, led by D'Auna Jennings .410 average (6th in ACC) and team-high 43 hits. Ana Gold leads the club in home runs with 14 (t-1st in ACC, t-5th in NCAA) and with 43 RBI (1st in ACC, 10th in NCAA). Cassidy Curd has been Duke's top arm in the circle with a 1.56 ERA (4th in ACC) and 83 strikeouts for a spotless 9-0 record.

▶ Taylor Edwards leads the Pirates at the plate, batting .402 (5th in AAC), is second in the AAC with five triples (t-9th in NCAA) this season and has recorded multiple hits in 10 games to lead the Pirates. Fellow outfielder Taudrea Sinnie is second in the American in stolen bases with 17 and has been successful on every stolen base attempt. Logan Sutton leads the team in home runs with six and Addy Bullis holds a 13-8 mark in the circle with a 2.62 ERA and 82 strikeouts and is second in the AAC in innings pitched with 122.2 (27th in NCAA).

EAST CAROLINA/ECU PLEASE

Feel free to call us East Carolina or ECU. However, we respectfully ask that the erroneous designation of Eastern Carolina or flawed abbreviations such as E. Carolina, East Caro, ECaro, or EC never be used.

About East Carolina University

Founded in 1907, East Carolina University is a public university nationally recognized for preparing teachers and primary care physicians as well as for its cultural and performing arts programs. It enrolls over of 29,000 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students and is North Carolina's leading producer of initially licensed teachers and primary care physicians. Among the colleges and schools, East Carolina operates the Brody School of Medicine, School of Dental Medicine, College of Engineering and Technology, and a growing undergraduate Honors College. ECU is located near four major military bases, including Camp Lejeune and Fort Bragg, and won the Freedom Award from the United States Department of Defense for its support of military families and service men and women in 2010. East Carolina's economic impact is estimated at $3 billion statewide, with more than $2 billion in eastern North Carolina alone.

About Greenville, N.C.

There is so much that makes Greenville a great place to live, work, play, and visit. In recent surveys, more than 70 percent of residents and visitors rated Greenville as a great place to live and a great place for quality of life. Just a few of our city features include:

• A vibrant Uptown District that continues to grow and offers numerous retail, restaurant and entertainment options
• A variety of festivals and special events held throughout the year such as City-sponsored events like PirateFest and Freeboot Friday or events sponsored by other organizations such as East Carolina University
• Approximately nine miles of greenways
• A centrally located transportation hub (G.K. Butterfield Center) that provides multimodal public transportation connections

Shane Winkler was named head softball coach at East Carolina University in May 2021 following a successful three-year stint as head coach at George Washington University.

Winkler is the program's first male head coach and its fifth coach overall. In his first season at the helm, outfielder Taudrea Sinnie was named to the 2022 All-American Athletic Conference Second Team while pitcher Jordan Hatch received AAC All-Rookie Team accolades.

During his three years at GW, Winkler compiled a 91-43 record and captured the school's first two Atlantic 10 championships, sharing the title in 2019 before claiming the first outright championship this past season. The Colonials won both the regular season and tournament titles in 2021 to advance to the NCAA Championship for the first time and made their second overall postseason appearance.

GW participated in the National Invitational Softball Championship (NISC) Liberty Regional after claiming a share of the 2019 league title.

Winkler became the first Atlantic 10 Coach-of-the-Year in program history this past year after leading the Colonials to a 23-1 conference record in addition to a sweep of championship banners. GW was 38-8 in A-10 play during his tenure.

Under his tutelage, 12 student-athletes earned all-conference accolades highlighted by Jenna Cone, who earned A-10 Player-of-the-Year honors in 2019 and 2021, and Sierra Lange, who made history as the first Colonial to be named the conference's Pitcher-of-the-Year in 2021.

In addition, 11 players received all-region accolades, including a school-record seven this past year.

Winkler's teams set program records for runs per game (7.0), home runs (64), ERA (1.97) and fielding percentage (.977) in 2021, leading the A-10 in eight offensive and five pitching categories.

During his initial campaign at GW in 2019, the Colonials won a team-record 44 games and ranked third in the country with a .341 batting average, piling up 582 hits over 64 games, 89 more than the previous mark. GW ended the season among the national leaders in doubles per game (1.68, eighth), triples per game (0.31, 21st), on-base percentage (.405, 15th), scoring (6.02, 20th) and slugging percentage (.502, 22nd).

Before taking over the program at GW, Winkler spent a decade (2009-18) leading the softball program at Charleston Southern University. He totaled a program-record 261 wins with the Buccaneers and guided them to their first NCAA Tournament berth in 2014. Winkler made his mark at Charleston Southern with three 30-win seasons and two Big South Championship final appearances highlighted by their breakthrough victory in 2014.

CSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in home runs in 2017 and was one of just two teams in the country, along with national champion Florida State, to rank in the top 30 in both home runs and steals in 2018.

Winkler's Buccaneers produced 35 All-Big South Conference honorees and 10 all-academic selections. The program also produced its first Big South Scholar Athlete-of-the-Year and had a recipient of the Christenberry Award for top academic student-athletes in the conference each of his final two seasons.
He has amassed 372 career victories during his 14 seasons as a head coach.

Prior to his tenure at Charleston Southern, Winkler served three seasons (2006-08) as an assistant coach at Marshall where he was responsible for the outfielders and the offense. The Thundering Herd broke the program home run record twice on his watch and consistently ranked among the top offenses in Conference USA led by a four-time All-American catcher. During his three seasons, the Thundering Herd had a combined record of 91-78.

Winkler's first collegiate job came as co-head coach at Danville Area Community College (Ill.) for the 2005 season in which the Jaguars produced their first winning campaign in 12 years. He got his start coaching softball while in college working with a summer program in his hometown of Kentland, Ind.

Winkler has also been active with National Pro Fastpitch, where he served a summer season as the head coach of the Chicago Bandits in 2014. He tutored numerous Olympians and NCAA champions, including former All-America pitcher Jennie Finch, during his time on the pro circuit, which also encompassed stints as an assistant coach with the Bandits (2009) and the Akron Racers (2007).

On the baseball field, Winkler was an outfielder who played collegiately at Illinois Central College, Purdue and Butler. He earned his associate's degree in general education from Illinois Central in 2002 before earning a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Butler in 2004.

Winkler moved on to play professionally with the Florence Freedom (2004) and Washington Wild Things (2006) of the Frontier League, and the Amarillo Dillas (2006) of the United Baseball League.
