PIRATES FACE RED-HOT SOUTH FLORIDA ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT IN MINGES

► East Carolina concludes its two-game homestand to close out the month of January on Wednesday evening when the Pirates welcome South Florida to Williams Arena at Minges Coliseum. The game is scheduled for a 7:00 p.m. ET tip and will be streamed via ESPN+ with Patrick Johnson (play-by-play) and Si Seymour (analyst) on the call. Wednesday's game can also be heard on the ECU Sports Network 107.9 FM or 9.43 The Game with Daron Vaught (play-by-play) and Michael Perry handling broadcasting duties.

► The Pirates are coming off another thrilling victory on Wednesday, this time rallying from an eight-point deficit with three minutes remaining to force overtime and defeat Temple, 70-64 behind RJ Felton's 24 points and 11 rebounds. The Pirates are off to their best eight-game start in AAC play since joining the league in 2014-15 and have won multiple back-to-back AAC games in a season for the first time. ECU is seeking to win three straight conference games for the first time since becoming a member of the American.

► RJ Felton leads East Carolina with 16.2 points per game (6th in AAC) and is fourth in the league in steals per game with two. Ezra Ausar and Brandon Johnson round out the Pirates' top scorers with 13.6 and 13.5 points per game respectively. Johnson leads the team on the glass with 8.7 rebounds per contest which ranks as third-best in the league. Bobby Pettiford Jr. leads the Pirates with 3.6 assists per game and leads the conference in assist-to-turnover ratio at 3.17 (t-20th in NCAA).

► East Carolina compiled a 16-17 overall record and a 6-12 mark in American Athletic Conference play during the 2022-23 season. The 16 wins were the most for the program since the 2013-14 season and the six league wins are tied for the most since the team joined the AAC prior to the 2014-15 season.

► TEAM NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

► RJ Felton scored a game-high 24 points and grabbed 11 rebounds as East Carolina overcame an off-shooting night and rallied to defeat Temple in overtime 70-64 inside Williams Arena at Minges Coliseum on Sunday evening.

► Bobby Pettiford Jr. and Jaden Walker added 12 and 10 points respectively for ECU (11-10, 4-4 AAC) who shot a season-low 31 percent from the floor but forced timely turnovers into baskets in the second half to force overtime.

KEY STAT TO WATCH

► One key stat that could determine the outcome of Wednesday's game is the free throw line. Both the Pirates and Bulls are two of the best teams in the conference as the Pirates average 15 makes per game and 21.5 attempts per game. The Bulls average 16.6 makes per night and 22.4 attempts.

► Ezra Ausar leads the Pirates' attack to the charity stripe with a team-high 150 attempts on the year (18th in NCAA). Per KenPom, Ausar is second in free throw rate at 92.1 and 24th in fouls drawn per 40 minutes at 6.9.

RJ THE ULTIMATE WARRIOR

► With 3:19 remaining and trailing 57-49, it looked as if the Pirates were staring down another disappointing and deflating loss on Wednesday night. The team was struggling to capitalize on the offensive side of the ball and Ausar and Johnson had combined to only make two shots.

► RJ Felton had different plans for the Pirates, converting on an and-one to help spark ECU's offense en route to a 9-2 run to force overtime. Felton grabbed a huge offensive rebound and sank two clutch free throws to send the game into the extra period as the Pirates captured their second win in a row.

► Felton has often been called the ultimate warrior by his coaches and teammates and Sunday's performance was just the latest demonstration of that. Felton said after the game, "It was a crucial possession and we had to get a rebound. I had to knock those two down and I knew we were going to get it done in overtime."

MINGES MAGIC

► East Carolina is scheduled to have 20 regular-season home games inside Williams Arena at Minges Coliseum this season, which is the most regular-season home games in program history. The Pirates played 21 home games during the 2012-13 season, in which four of the 21 games were part of the College Insider Tournament.

► The Pirates have benefited thus far from playing at home, as eight of the team's 10 wins have come in Minges Coliseum but the team has struggled in recent home games, dropping three of its last four played in Minges including the past two games.

10TH SEASON IN THE AMERICAN

► East Carolina enters its 10th men's basketball season as a member of the American Athletic Conference after previously spending 13 years as part of Conference USA. The Pirates are seeking to eclipse six conference victories for the first time since joining the American. ECU has tallied six league wins in four seasons, including back-to-back in the past two seasons (2021-22, 2022-23).

RECORD AGAINST AAC OPPONENTS (SINCE 2014-15)

Wichita State	2-7

QUICK POINTS

► The 91 points scored by East Carolina against Ferrum in the team's season opener marked the most points scored in the Mike Schwartz era. It was also the first time the Pirates had reached the 90-point mark since defeating Western Carolina 95-79 (Nov. 14, 2021).

► The Pirates' 12 steals against Wichita State marked the fifth time this season that the team has recorded 12 or more steals this year. ECU posted 14 steals against Campbell on Nov. 11, just four shy of tying the program record of 18.

► Felton's back-to-back 30-point performances earlier this season put him in good company as he became the first Pirate to achieve the feat since former Pirate and NBA player Theodore "Blue" Edwards did so back in 1989. Felton joins FAU's Johnell Davis and Memphis' David Jones as the only three players so far in the conference to record multiple 30-point games this season.

► RJ Felton recorded a career-high five steals against Tulsa on Jan. 7 becoming the second Pirate this season to snag five or more steals as Bobby Pettiford Jr. also recorded a career-high five steals against Florida on Dec. 14.

► Brandon Johnson notched his 19th career double-double on Saturday against UAB, tying him for eighth all-time in career doubles-doubles in program history. Johnson has also recorded a steal in 16 straight games.

FINDING WAYS TO WIN

► The Pirates have found themselves in a lot of close contests this season as ECU has played in 12 games this year where the margin has been within five points with five or less minutes to go in the game.

► Despite having back-to-back games shooting under 35 percent, the Pirates have found ways to turn those close losses into close wins as of late, defeating Wichita State 54-52 on the road and rallying past Temple in extra time 70-64 with stout defense forcing 33 combined turnovers over those two games.

LOOKING FOR THAT FOURTH SCORER

► The "Big Three" of RJ Felton, Brandon Johnson and Ezra Ausar for the Pirates are as good as any trio in the conference, scoring 59 percent of the team's points (869 of 1471). ECU is still looking for consistency behind those three in terms of scoring as the Pirates have only had two games this year that their leading scorer has not been one of those three.

► Before Sunday's game against Temple, the Pirates only had a player in four games other than Johnson, Ausar or Felton score 10 or more points in a game. Bobby Pettiford Jr. scored 12 against ETSU (Dec. 29), Quentin Diboundje tallied 13 at FAU (Jan. 2) and Cam Hayes scored 12 versus SMU (Jan. 13) and North Texas (Jan. 17).

► Jaden Walker (10 points) and Bobby Pettiford (12 points) stepped up to provide secondary scoring to help offset a combined 14 points from Brandon Johnson and Ezra Ausar.

ON THIS DATE

► ECU is 7-8 in games played on Jan. 31 since the 1960-61 season with the last game on this date coming during the 2018-19 season when the Pirates defeated Tulane at home, 66-65.

SERIES HISTORY

► South Florida leads the all-time series with East Carolina 14-12 and swept the season series last year before the Pirates eliminated the Bulls in the AAC Tournament, 73-58. ECU is 3-2 in its last five meetings with USF and is 7-6 all-time at home against the Bulls.

SCOUTING THE BULLS

► The Bulls come into Greenville on a five-game winning streak after defeating UTSA, 89-72, on Saturday as five players scored in double figures led by Kobe Knox's 18 points. The Bulls also drained a program-record 18 threes in the win. South Florida is 2-3 on the road this season while 10-2 on its home floor.

► Selton Miguel leads South Florida in scoring with 14.6 points per game (11th in AAC) and Chris Youngblood adds 14.2 points (14th in AAC). The Bulls are a team that can light it up from distance, averaging 8.5 made threes per game (4th in AAC).

DEFENSE TRENDING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

► While the Pirates' offense has been up and down through eight games of conference play, ECU's defense has been trending in the right direction since Jan. 2. After surrendering a season-high 86 points to East Tennessee State, the Pirates have not allowed an opponent to reach the 80-point mark since conference play began.

► The Pirates have held six of their conference foes under their scoring average entering that game with the one exception being the 75 points allowed against SMU (74.5 scoring average). In its past four games, the Pirates have held all three opponents under 70 points.

► ECU has held all teams played in league play below their season average in field goal percentage entering Wednesday's game and have forced 10 or more turnovers in five of those contests. The Pirates are currently fifth in the American in steals per game at 8.1.

THE AMERICAN

The American Athletic Conference, which has established itself as a preeminent NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision conference, enters its second decade poised to continue its remarkable ascension to national prominence.

As of July 1, 2023, The American consists of 15 prestigious institutions: the University of Alabama at Birmingham, the University of North Carolina Charlotte, East Carolina University, Florida Atlantic University, the University of Memphis, the United States Naval Academy (in football only), the University of North Texas, Rice University, the University of South Florida, Southern Methodist University, Temple University, the University of Texas at San Antonio, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, The American has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly entrenched among the elite conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, its football and basketball postseason victories, its expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, four New Year's Six bowl champions, two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 15 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

In the 2023-24 season, The American will be the only Division I conference to have a New Year's Six bowl winner (Tulane) and an NCAA Men's Final Four participant (Florida Atlantic) in its ranks.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl eight times in the league's first 10 football seasons, including the 2022 campaign, when Tulane capped the biggest one-year turnaround in major college football history with a thrilling win against USC in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Tulane went 12-2 and earned a top-10 final ranking in 2022. Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last eight years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, women's rowing, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country, men's track and field, and women's track and field.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes including Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds, who was fifth in 2015. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Ackers was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship and the 2015 US Amateur before enjoying a remarkable pro career that has included the 2020 U.S. Open title. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win five Grand Slam championships in men's doubles and mixed doubles. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis and reached the fourth round of the US Open in 2019.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+.

The first eight American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Powerful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

► HEAD COACH MICHAEL SCHWARTZ (TEXAS '99)

Michael Schwartz enters his second season as head coach of the East Carolina men's basketball program after being appointed the 24th head coach in program history on March 16, 2022.

In Schwartz's first season at the helm, the Pirates posted a 16-17 overall record and a 6-12 mark in conference play. The 16 wins were the most for the Pirate program in nearly a decade (2013-14) and the six conference victories tied for the most since the Pirates joined the American prior to the start of the 2014-15 season. ECU defeated South Florida 73-58 in the first round of the AAC tournament to win its first game in the tournament since 2017. Under Schwartz's guidance, Ezra Ausar led all AAC freshmen in field goal percentage at 56 percent (5th best in AAC) to become the first Pirate freshman since 2019 to be unanimously selected to the All-AAC Freshman Team. The Pirates were also one of the league's top offensive rebounding clubs at 12.2 per game and in rebounding margin at +2.1, led by Brandon Johnson's 8.1 rebounds and 10 double-doubles.

Considered one of the most versatile and well-rounded assistant coaches in college basketball, Schwartz spent the last seven seasons on staff at the University of Tennessee – including four as the associate head coach. In the fall of 2019, Schwartz earned feature placement on The Athletic's list of the nation's top-25 up-and-coming college basketball coaches.

Tennessee Head Coach Rick Barnes entrusted Schwartz with the role of defensive coordinator for each of the last five seasons, a move that yielded extraordinary results, as the Vols owned a 118-45 record dating to the start of the 2017-18 campaign. During the 2020-21 season, Tennessee posted the nation's fourth-best defensive efficiency rating, per KenPom.com—its second top-10 finish in four years. Additionally, Schwartz's schemes resulted in the Vols leading the Southeastern Conference in scoring defense in 2018 (65.7), 2021 (63.5) and 2022 (62.8). Schwartz's leadership was instrumental in helping guide the Big Orange to the 2022 SEC Tournament title, 2018 regular-season SEC Championship, an appearance in the 2018 SEC Tournament Championship Game and a No. 3 seed in the 2018 NCAA Tournament where the Vols advanced to the second round. Tennessee's defensive statistics during that 2017-18 season stood among the top programs nationally.

The Vols led the SEC in scoring defense and ranked sixth nationally in KenPom's defensive efficiency ratings. There was no drop-off in 2018-19. Tennessee led the SEC in field-goal percentage defense (.393) and blocks per game (5.4). The team's 199 total blocks stood as a school record. The Vols held 17 opponents to fewer than 70 points and eight opponents to fewer than 60. And three Vols who benefited from Schwartz's tutelage were selected in the 2019 NBA Draft. For four consecutive weeks—amid a school-record 19-game win streak—Tennessee stood atop the Associated Press Top 25 rankings. During that span, McDonald's All-American Josiah-Jordan James signed with UT, validating Schwartz's years of tireless effort as the elite guard's primary recruiter.

The Vols earned a No. 2 seed for the 2019 NCAA Tournament, advanced to the Sweet Sixteen and finished the season ranked fifth in the coaches' poll. In 2019-20, Schwartz's defensive schemes saw UT lead the SEC in blocks while ranking second in scoring defense during league play. Junior forward Yves Pons, another standout recruited by Schwartz, was named the 2020 SEC Defensive Player of the Year—the first Tennessee player ever to win the award. Tennessee finished the 2020-21 season with the nation's fourth-rated defensive efficiency, per KenPom, while ranking 13th nationally in defensive turnover percentage—forcing turnovers on 22.8 percent of its opponents' possessions. Schwartz has handled the scouting duties for numerous wins over the past five seasons, including triumphs over No. 3 Auburn, No. 15 Kansas and No. 18 Purdue, four wins over Kentucky (two on the road), a pair victories vs. Georgia Tech and a win against Wright State in the NCAA Tournament. An outstanding scout and floor coach, Schwartz played a key role in the development of Tennessee's 2016-17 freshman class, which was responsible for 44 percent of the team's scoring that season and finished the year as the highest-scoring crop of freshmen in program history (1,040 points). Forward Grant Williams anchored that class and developed into a two-time SEC Player of the Year, a consensus first-team All-American and a first-round NBA Draft pick.

Schwartz spent the 2015-16 season as an assistant coach, offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa, helping the Golden Hurricane advance to the NCAA Tournament. Prior to that, he spent four seasons as the lead assistant under Rodney Terry (another former Barnes assistant) at Fresno State, including one year as associate head coach.

Shouldering responsibility for Fresno's in-game coordination, recruiting, scouting and skill development, Schwartz helped guide the Bulldogs to their first 20-win season and postseason appearance in seven years—the finals of the College Basketball Invitational—in 2013-14. That same year, Paul Watson was named Mountain West Freshman of the Year and selected to the Kyle Macy Freshman All-American Team. Fresno State produced an NBA guard during Schwartz's time on staff there, as Tyler Johnson (2011-14) spent four seasons with the Miami Heat. During Johnson's three seasons with Schwartz on staff at FSU, his scoring average, field-goal percentage, 3-point percentage and free-throw percentage all improved each year.

Schwartz also helped spearhead the assembly of some of Fresno State's highest-rated recruiting classes. The Bulldogs beat out several Pac 12 schools to sign shooting guard Marvelle Harris, who in 2016 became Fresno's all-time leading scorer and the Mountain West Player of the Year as well as earning AP All-American acclaim.

No stranger to the Southeast and East Coast, Schwartz spent six years on staff at Miami (Fla.) in the Atlantic Coast Conference—the first two as coordinator of basketball operations and the final four as a full-time assistant coach.

As an assistant in Coral Gables, Schwartz helped lead the Hurricanes to an 83-52 record, appearances in the Top 25 rankings and three postseason appearances in four years. His impact was immense during Miami's historic 2007-08 campaign, which included the second-most wins in school history (23), a school-record 14 home wins and a program-best fifth-place finish in the ACC. Miami earned a No. 7 seed in the 2008 NCAA Tournament and defeated St. Mary's before falling to Barnes' No. 2-seeded Texas squad in the second round. In Schwartz's operations role at Miami, he handled video responsibilities, film breakdown, opponent scouting, oversight of recruiting mailings and served as a liaison with the program's managerial staff.

Schwartz's tenure in southern Florida was preceded by a one-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Texas at San Antonio, a position he attained after working as Barnes' video coordinator at Texas for two seasons.

While working in a full-time capacity alongside Barnes at Texas, Schwartz was a part of a Longhorns program that posted a two-year record of 51-15, produced a pair NBA Draft picks (guards T.J. Ford and Royal Ivey) and advanced to the 2003 Final Four and the 2004 Sweet Sixteen.

Following his prep career at Beverly Hills High School, Schwartz played two seasons of college basketball at Sonoma State University in Rohnert Park, California. He then transferred to Texas where he concluded his playing career and was a member of Barnes' 1999 Big 12 championship team. After Schwartz earned his degree in speech communication studies from Texas in 1999, Barnes appointed Schwartz to a graduate assistant position, which he held from 1999-2001.

Schwartz also boasts valuable experience with USA Basketball, having served in a support capacity for the 2000 USA Youth Development Festival, the 2000 USA National Select Team—coached by Mike Jarvis and Bob Huggins and featuring future NBA stars Shane Battier and Jason Richardson—and the 2001 Young Men's World Championship Trials.

► WILLIAMS ARENA AT MINGES COLISEUM

One of the most intimate and fan friendly arenas in all of NCAA Division I is Williams Arena at Minges Coliseum, home of East Carolina men's and women's basketball and volleyball. The cozy 7,100-seat arena gives the Pirates a distinct home court advantage.

Now in its 57th season of hosting Pirate basketball, the coliseum is connected to the second level of the Murphy Center by an indoor walkway. The floor inside Williams Arena at Minges Coliseum received a fresh look prior to the 2019-20 season with new designs and logos, while a new video boards and scoreboards were installed in previous years. Courtside seating was also instituted in recent years and prior to this season, new LED lighting was installed along with 422 chairbacks to further enhance the gameday experience for Pirate fans.

The men's basketball team has compiled an overall record of 487-283 in 56 seasons at Minges Coliseum and in the over the past 13 seasons, the Pirates have won at least 10 or more home contests per season highlighted by a 17-4 mark in 2012-13. The single-game record for attendance for a men's basketball game at Minges is 8,081 that saw ECU take down Dwyane Wade and No. 9 Marquette 73-70 on Dec. 30, 2002.

Constructed at a cost of $2 million, Minges Coliseum was dedicated on Jan. 27, 1968, in the name of the Minges family of Greenville, N.C. As owners of Pepsi-Cola bottling operations in Greenville, Kinston and New Bern, the Minges family has provided leadership and support of East Carolina University Athletics over the years, going back to the days when the late Dr. Ray Minges served as President of the Century Club (forerunner of the Pirate Club), from 1965-68. After 27 years of basketball, Minges Coliseum underwent a facelift prior to the 1994-95 season. The renovations, totaling almost $12 million, have made the arena one of the finest on-campus basketball facilities on the East Coast.

Williams Arena is named in honor and recognition of Walter and Marie Williams for their support of East Carolina Athletics over the years. As alumni of East Carolina College, Walter and Marie have endowed two Men's Basketball Position scholarships, the Spirit of the East Post-Eligibility Scholarship, and an unrestricted student-athlete scholarship on behalf of the University's athletics program. Further, through Trade Oil Company, the Williams family gave the first $1 million gift ever given to the Educational Foundation in support of ECU Athletics, through the Shared Visions Campaign. In addition to his financial support, Walter Williams has given his time unselfishly in support of the Pirate Club. During 1997-98, Walter served as Executive President of the Educational Foundation.

In addition to showcasing ECU basketball and volleyball, Williams Arena is also an outstanding venue for University and local high school graduation ceremonies, concerts and other entertainment events throughout the year. The arena previously served as home of the North Carolina High School Athletic Association (NCHSAA) Eastern Regional Boy's Championships. The Harlem Globetrotters, National Basketball Association (NBA) and World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE) have also visited Minges Coliseum throughout the years. Presidents George W. Bush and Barack Obama have also given speeches inside the coliseum.
