THE HEAD COACH

MIKE HOUSTON (Mars Hill '94) completed his 13th year as a collegiate head coach with a 104-59 (.638) mark, while he is 24-34 (.414) after five seasons at East Carolina. When he officially became the Pirates' 22nd all-time head football coach on Dec. 4, 2018, Houston finished a three-year stint directing the James Madison program. Houston signed a contract extension with the Pirates securing his position through the 2026 season.

Houston guided the Dukes to a 37-6 mark, which included three NCAA FCS postseason appearances (2016 national champions, 2017 national runner-up, 2018 second round) and a pair of Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) titles. He was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach-of-the-Year in 2016 after JMU turned in a 14-1 campaign.

The appointment to the top Dukes' football position followed brief head coaching assignments at Lenoir-Rhyne (2011-13) and The Citadel (2014-15). He led the Bears to a 29-8 ledger and a pair of NCAA Division II playoff showings before guiding the Bulldogs to a 14-11 record, a Southern Conference co-championship and a venture into the FCS playoffs in 2015.

Houston, a Franklin, N.C. native, began his collegiate coaching career as defensive coordinator at Brevard College in 2006 before serving in a similar capacity at L-R from 2007 to 2010.

HOUSTON IN THE POST-SEASON

The 2022 TicketSmarter Birmingham Bowl marked the second consecutive bowl appearance for Mike Houston and his staff at East Carolina ... While the 2021 Military Bowl served as his first FBS post-season game, it was canceled due to COVID-19 protocols within the Boston College program ... Houston does own an impressive 13-5 (.722) mark in post-season matchups at the NCAA Division II and NCAA FCS levels with four different programs - Lenoir-Rhyne (DII/4-2), The Citadel (FCS/1-1), James Madison (FCS/7-2) and East Carolina (FBS/1-0) ... SHUTOUT-STREAK SNAPPED AT 322 GAMES

East Carolina entered the Navy contest boasting a streak of 322 games without a shutout (ranking Top 10 nationally) ... However, it was snapped in Annapolis (Nov. 18, 2023) with a 10-0 loss to the Midshipmen ... The streak stood as a school record besting the previous mark of 110 set from 1971-78 ... Prior to the Navy game, the last time the Pirates were blanked was on Oct. 4, 1997 (56-0 at Syracuse) ... Florida stands first with 446 heading into their final regular season game against Florida State.

AT DOWDY-FICKLEN STADIUM

East Carolina's all-time record at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium is 201-119 (.628) ... The Pirates opened the facility on Sept. 21, 1963 with a 20-10 win over Wake Forest in front of 17,000 fans, celebrated the stadium's 50th anniversary in 2013 and recently hosted its 300th game vs. Tulane in 2020 ... ECU played seven home games in 2022 posting a 4-3 record ... Before a 4-2 clip in 2021, a 1-3 record two years ago and a collective 13-19 mark from 2015-2019, ECU was 5-1 in 2014, 2013 and 2012 (15-3) and won a combined 10 of 12 home matchups in 2009 (6-1) and 2008 (4-1) ... With its 34-13 win over UCF (Oct. 22, 2022), ECU posted 41 winning campaigns at DFS since 1963.

ON THE ROAD

Since becoming a conference member in 1997, East Carolina is 67-103 (.394) when playing away from Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium ... This season, the Pirates are 1-5 following a 10-0 loss at Navy ... Last year they posted a 4-2 road slate (wins at South Florida/Boca Raton, Fla., BYU, Temple and Coastal Carolina/Birmingham, Ala.; losses to Tulane and Cincinnati) ... From a non-conference standpoint, ECU snapped a seven-game skid when it topped Old Dominion 24-21 on Sept. 28, 2019 but has only played five road non-AAC tilts since (2-3).

NON-SATURDAY MAYHEM

East Carolina is 23-31 in non-Saturday games since 2000 ... Oddly, the Pirates have fared better on the road (16-15; 7-16 at home) ... In terms of days (including bowls), ECU is 5-1 on Sundays, 1-1 on Mondays, 3-1 on Tuesdays, 0-3 on Wednesdays, 8-13 on Thursdays and 6-12 on Fridays ... Most recently, ECU is 12-16 when deviating from the normal Saturday routine since 2010 ... The Pirates had one non-Saturday game in 2023 hosting SMU inside Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium on Oct. 12 (loss/31-10) ... In 2022, ECU played three non-Saturday contests posting a 2-1 ledger (win at BYU/27-24, win vs. Coastal Carolina/53-29; loss at Cincinnati/27-25) ... With their win in Provo, Utah the Pirates became bowl eligible for the second-straight year under Mike Houston.

A SINGLE-GAME RECORD-BREAKER

With an attendance total of 51,711 against NC State on Sept. 3, 2022, ECU established a single-game home record - surpassing the 51,082 clip who watched the Pirates beat North Carolina on Sept. 20, 2014 ... LOOKING FOR MORE LOOT

East Carolina finished -0.42 in turnover margin in 2023 (ECU 21, Opponents 16) ranking 101st nationally ... The Pirates tied a program-best record with eight forced fumbles against Gardner-Webb recovering five (most in the Mike Houston era) - a feat that they last accomplished on Nov. 23, 2002 against TCU (span of 253 games) ... The Pirates also scored three defensive touchdowns on the season (2 at Appalachian State, 1 at UTSA) ... A year ago, the Pirates finished with a +13 turnover margin forcing 10 fumbles, recovering nine and picked off 11 passes for 154 return yards ... Against UCF, ECU forced a season-high four turnovers (3 INTs, 1 fumble) and had five multi-turnover games on the year ... Despite its impressive 45-3 win, East Carolina's 16-game streak of forcing at least one turnover came to a halt against Temple on Nov. 6 (2021) ... The run, which began on Oct. 3, 2020 at Georgia State and produced 36 takeaways (22 interceptions, 14 fumble recoveries), was the program's longest since a 33-game streak (from 2007 to 2010) ... In all, ECU still has at least one takeaway in 39 of the last 43 (and 50 of 57) contests, as well as 20 of 25 games dating back to the start of the 2022 campaign.

Michigan (Rose, CFP National Championship), Marshall (Frisco), Appalachian State (Cure), Rice (First Responder), SMU (Fenway), UTSA (Frisco) and Tulane (Military) ... The Wolverines became Pirates' fifth opponent they faced during the regular season that went on to win a "true" national championship joining Miami (Fla.) in 1983, 1987, 1989 and Penn State in 1986 - all five games were on the road.

IN THE FINAL POLLS ... Four of ECU's opponents finished or received votes in college football's two major polls (Associated Press and USA Today/AFCA Coaches) - Michigan (1/1), AAC Champion SMU (22/24), Tulane (-/RV) and UTSA (-/RV).

CONRAD SETS SCHOOL MARK; TIES NCAA RECORD

East Carolina place kicker Andrew Conrad had career game in the Pirates 22-7 win at Florida Atlantic (Nov. 11) ... The sophomore connected on all-five field goal attempts (a new ECU single-game record) and converted on one PAT for a personal-best 16 points, which ranks as the third most points by a place kicker in program history ... Conrad tied an NCAA record for most field goals made in a game of 40 or more yards (46, 47, 43, 46, 40) and became the second player in AAC history to connect on five FGs of 40-plus yards in a contest ... His mark is also tied for the second-most FGs in a game by an AAC kicker and his performance was the seventh time at ECU that a kicker posted a 100.0 percent accuracy rate in a single game with at least four attempts ... For his performance at FAU, Conrad was named The American Special Teams Player of the Week and College Football Network Special Teams Player of the Week ... More on Conrad's record setting day:

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - East Carolina's hopes for a big day in the "Big House" took an ominous turn early Saturday and never recovered.

Michigan, coming off its first-ever 13-win season and ranked second nationally, converted an early interception into a touchdown then rode the hot hand of junior quarterback J.J. McCarthy to a decisive 30-3 win in the 2023 opener for both teams on a warm and sunny day at Michigan Stadium.

Andrew Conrad's 33-yard field goal on the game's final play provided the Pirates' lone points and extended a streak of 313 consecutive games without being blanked while also denying the Wolverines their first season-opening shutout since 1978 (31-0 over Illinois).

ECU, which finished with 235 total yards, managed only two other legitimate threats against a stout Michigan defense. Conrad hooked a 51-yard field goal left of the upright just before halftime, then the Pirates came up short on fourth down after reaching the Wolverines' 14 in the final seven minutes.

The Pirates' defense held Michigan's vaunted running attack in check, allowing 2 yards or less on 10 of 12 first-half attempts and 122 yards overall. Consensus All-American Blake Corum, who has 12 career 100-yard games, managed 73 yards on 10 carries, highlighted by a 37-yard dash that set up a first-half touchdown.

But the steady McCarthy stole the show, connecting on 26 of his 30 passes for 280 yards and matching a career high with three touchdown passes before sitting out the fourth quarter. McCarthy completed 16 of 18 in the first half, including 15 straight as Michigan seized control.

The 6-3, 202-pound second-year starter particularly burned the Pirates on third down, hitting on 5 of 5 passes for 72 yards and two scores.

ECU, meanwhile, tested a pair of quarterbacks as it moves on from record-setting Holton Ahlers. Redshirt sophomore Mason Garcia made his second start but first since 2020, completing 11 of 18 passes for 80 yards and rushing for a team-high 36 yards on eight carries.

Redshirt junior Alex Flinn completed 6 of 11 passes for 52 yards and netted 14 yards on three carries.

"Mason made some mistakes early," ECU fifth-year head coach Mike Houston said. "Alex played really well in the second quarter. Alex made some mistakes in the third quarter, and I was really excited about how Mason finished the ballgame."

Garcia exited after being picked off by Mike Sainristil on the Pirates' second series but returned for the entire fourth quarter and looked more at ease. ECU led the nation in fewest turnovers last season, finishing the season on a seven-game streak without coughing the ball up.

A first-half Flinn pass initially ruled an interception was overturned by replay.

Replay also played a factor in several other plays. McCarthy clearly crossed the line of scrimmage on his first touchdown pass that gave Michigan a 7-0 lead, but a review deemed the play legal.

"Me and the officials on our side thought he was (over the line of scrimmage) but I guess his back, right toenail was still behind the line," Houston said.

Late in the third period, replay overturned a touchdown run by Donovan Edwards, then ECU stuffed a fourth-down attempt when McCarthy mishandled the ball on a fake handoff.

The Pirates did get an exceptional effort from punter Archer Trafford, whose first punt traveled 67 yards and pinned Michigan at its 2-yard line. For the day, Trafford averaged 49 yards on five punts with two planted inside the 20.

An uncharacteristic 10 penalties for 88 yards plagued the Pirates, one of the least penalized teams in the nation last year. A pair of 15-yard penalties - one for targeting and a late hit out of bounds - aided the Wolverines' only scoring drive of the second half.

By then, Michigan already had the game in hand.

After a three-and-out from inside their 5 on the opening series, the Wolverines scored on four consecutive possessions to take a 23-0 lead to intermission. McCarthy teamed up with receiver Roman Wilson for 14 and 10 yards for two of the scores. Corum punched in from the 2 for his 32nd career touchdown, and Louisville transfer James Turner kicked a 50-yard field goal.

Michigan controlled ball 13 minutes of the third quarter, scoring on another McCarthy-to-Wilson pass while limiting ECU to four plays for a 30-0 cushion.

"I felt good about the way our kids competed most of the day," Houston said. "A little disappointed in the lull we had in the third quarter. But I thought from a competing and physicality standpoint, I thought we held our own at times. Too many missed opportunities, too many mistakes. And we talked about it all week that a team like that - they take your mistakes, and they capitalize on them. And our missed opportunities is the reason we weren't able to get down in the red zone any more than we did in the first half and we weren't able to get points on the board in the first half."

"... So we got to grow up pretty fast because come tomorrow, we gotta get ready for Marshall, we gotta get ready for a home opener. So nobody's getting time to hang their head or feel sorry for themselves or anything like that because we have a big ball game next week."

GREENVILLE, N.C. - On a night filled with lightning-quick changes and long delays, Marshall struck the decisive blows to spoil East Carolina's 2023 home opener.

The Thundering Herd scored 21 fourth-quarter points in big-play fashion to pull away for a 31-13 victory, their first in eight trips to Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. The momentum shift came in a stunning sequence after ECU seemed in command following a delay at halftime of nearly two hours due to storms in the area.

"I was disappointed in the way the game ended," said fifth-year head coach Mike Houston, who is now 1-4 in home openers at ECU. "It turned pretty quickly and pretty extremely.

"The kids played really, really hard. We had control of the ball game, driving deep in Marshall territory with the lead in the fourth quarter. From that point we just made way too many huge mistakes and had some huge busts that you can't have."

Perhaps the biggest came when Marshall's sputtering offense reached into its bag of tricks and connected on a 75-yard double pass from Charles Montgomery to fellow wide receiver Caleb McMillan. Before that strike, Marshall managed just 16 yards on 13 second-half plays.

"We knew it was something they had in their arsenal," Houston said. "We literally talked about it right before we took the field for that snap. We had a defense called where it should have been protected. We had a huge bust, which you can't have."

The score obviously deflated the Pirates, who used a pair of big plays in the first half to erase a 10-0 deficit and pushed ahead 13-10 with a dominant third quarter. Andrew Conrad's miss of a 45-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter kept the margin at three before Montgomery took a backward pass from quarterback Cam Fancher and found McMillan all alone at the 35.

"It kind of knocked a little too much air out us, but that's a natural thing when that happens," said ECU senior outside linebacker Jeremy Lewis, who had 1.5 tackles for loss and recovered a fumble. "Trick plays happen. ... We practice things, but everything doesn't always come out the way you expect it, so you've got to be able to bounce back."

Senior defensive back Julius Wood also felt the momentum shift. "That was big for them," Wood said. "That was something that they needed to take the lead. We've just got to do better executing."

Marshall, which opened the season with a 21-17 win over Albany, was hardly finished. On the Herd's next possession, Fancher completed a 29-yard pass to Jayden Harrison to convert a third-and-16, then running back Rasheed Ali sprinted 56 yards two plays later for a touchdown and a 24-13 lead.

The Pirates stymied Ali much of the night, limiting the 6-0, 209-pound junior to a mere six yards on his first 15 carries before ripping off Marshall's first run of night for more than 15 yards. He added a 14-yard touchdown run after the first of two Micah Abraham interceptions and finished with 85 yards on 18 carries.

For much of the night, the two opposing quarterbacks generated the bulk of the offense. Fancher, now 8-1 as a starter, amassed all but 16 of Marshall's first-half yardage, throwing for 125 and picking up 44 on the ground. He finished 15 of 28 for 178 yards and netted 30 yards on 15 carries.

Mason Garcia, who split time with Alex Flinn in last week's opening loss at Michigan, directed the offense until being replaced in the fourth quarter. Garcia's 103 yards (84 rushing, 19 passing) accounted for all but 18 of ECU's first-half production. He finished with a career-high of 118 yards rushing on 16 carries and completed 10 of 23 passes for 62 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Flinn connected on 3 of 8 passes for 61 yards with one interception. Houston said Garcia got the nod because he felt he gave ECU the best chance to win.

"He gave us a great chance to win for a lot of the ballgame," Houston said. "No matter which quarterback you go with, you're going to have to go through some stuff to get acclimated. He made some mistakes, but some other guys out there on the field did too. So, we've got a lot to clean up."

Among the chief area is penalties. ECU, one of the least penalized teams in the nation a year ago, drew 11 flags for 112 yards a week after being penalized 12 times for 118 yards.

"We've got to clean that up, and the kids know it too," Houston said. "We'll address that this week."

A couple of those penalties proved costly in the first half as Marshall built a 10-0 lead. The Herd struck first with a 12-play, 79-yard drive to push ahead 7-0, then tacked on a field goal after three ECU penalties aided a 68-yard drive.

But the flow of a first half controlled by Marshall changed dramatically on two pivotal plays. On the first play after Kameron Lake's 20-yard field goal made it 10-0 lead with 6:03 left in the half, Garcia broke loose on a 57-yard run down the right sideline to the Marshall 18, injecting some life into the Pirates.

ECU could push no closer, and Conrad came on to boot a career-best 39-yard field goal.

The Pirates' defense then made a statement. With the Herd backed up to their 10, Chad Stephens delivered a jarring hit on Ali, forcing a fumble that Lewis recovered at the 3.

On third down, Garcia rolled to his right and zipped a pass to Shane Calhoun to tie it at 10-10

After the extended halftime, ECU seemed poised to reward the remaining fans of a turnout of 38,211 with a victory until the Marshall flipped the script.

"I told the kids all week, told them at halftime, this game's going to go down to the wire, and that's the way it was headed," Houston said. "Good football teams can't make those mistakes, can't have stretches where they play like that and expect to win.

"I know the first three quarters weren't perfect, but our kids were playing hard and giving us a chance. So, I was disappointed in the end of the ballgame."

BOONE, N.C. – A change at quarterback couldn't alter the path of a disappointing start to East Carolina's 2023 football season.

Alex Flinn made his first career start at quarterback and provided a spark Saturday against in-state foe Appalachian State, but three interceptions and a Mountaineer second-half offensive surge led to a 43-28 loss.

A week after seeing Marshall reel off 21 straight points to erase a 13-10 second-half deficit, the Pirates surrendered 21 unanswered points to App State after leading 28-22 nearly seven minutes into the third quarter. ECU falls to 0-3 for the first time since 2017 and dropped its second in a row to the Mountaineers in the teams' first meeting in Boone since 1979.

"I knew coming into this we had a challenging non-conference schedule," said fifth-year head coach Mike Houston, whose team opened the season at No. 2 Michigan. "Now, we have hurt ourselves. But we have seen improvement. That's what I told the kids in there: There's a good football team in that locker room. We've got to continue to push to put it all together."

The Pirates showed flashes in an excitement-filled duel before a record Kidd Brewer Stadium crowd of 40,168, matching blow for blow in a game featuring six lead changes, five turnovers, four scoring plays of at least 34 yards and a pair of defensive touchdowns – both by ECU.

East Carolina, averaging just 8.0 points per game coming in, led by as much as 21-10 behind an effective mix of a balanced offense directed by Flinn, an aggressive defense and the punting of Luke Larsen but could not keep pace with the quick-strike Mountaineers (2-1). App State finished with a dominant 465-240 advantage in total yards, holding ECU to 79 yards rushing while piling up 224.

ASU took the lead for good at 29-28 on Joey Aguilar's 35-yard pass to Milan Tucker with 8:18 left in the third quarter. Aguilar, who threw for 241 yards and three touchdowns, added a one-yard run with nine seconds left in the quarter then delivered the dagger with a 6-yard toss to David Larkins with 5:44 to play.

"I thought our defense was on the field too much there in the third quarter, and it got to us there in the fourth," Houston said. "We weren't able to keep up with them when they made a run and got the momentum. We were trying really hard to get back to a one-score game, and we never could do that in the fourth quarter."

ECU maintained the upper hand much of the first half as Flinn, starting in place of Mason Garcia, directed 10-play, 75-yard drive on the opening series. The redshirt junior completed 17 of 31 passes for 158 yards with three interceptions but also was victimized by several dropped passes.

App State's blitzing defense recorded four sacks and forced two passes ruled intentional grounding. Overall, ECU had double-digit penalties for the third-straight game to begin the season (11 for 80 yards).

The Pirates did show more explosiveness of offense, chalking up three plays of 20-plus yards after two total in the first two games.

Houston said he saw positives from Flinn, who played a backup role in the first two games and all but the final series of the first half on Saturday.

"For the most part it was very positive," Houston said. "The first interception is on him. We'll look at the other two. All things considered, I thought he did a lot of positive things, a lot of things to build on."

Rahjai Harris provided some punch with 56 yards on 12 carries and a pair of touchdowns, but the Pirates managed just 79 yards total. App State, spearheaded by Nate Noel, racked up 224 yards on the ground to go with 221 through the air.

Noel finished with 178 yards on 26 carries, his 12th career 100-yard game and fourth in a row. He broke free on a 68-yard dash on the Mountaineers' second snap to tie it at 7-7, but ECU limited him to seven yards on his next seven carries in the first half. Noel had 103 yards on 18 second-half carries.

While ECU's offense sputtered at times, an opportunistic defense kept the Pirates in the game. Freshman Antione Jackson's pick six propelled ECU in front 14-10 after Larsen's 35-yard punt pinned App State at its one-yard line. Jackson, a 6-1, 175-pound defensive back from Lauderhill, Fla., jumped an out route on a third-down pass from Aguilar, snared the ball at the eight and easily strolled in for his first collegiate score.

Shavon Revel gave ECU its last lead at 28-22, scooping up a fumble forced by B.J. Davis and sprinted 57 yards to the house.

"Antione made a nice break on the ball; big-time play right there by him," Houston said. "And then Shavon was able to not only recover the fumble but to take it back for a score – certainly those two plays were huge."

But App State quickly answered for a 29-28 edge then cashed in Omari Philyaw's interception to essentially seal ECU's fate.

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Nothing like a win can change the mood of a football team and its coach.

East Carolina, desperate to put an 0-3 start in the rear-view mirror, cast a bright spot on an otherwise dreary day in eastern North Carolina by steamrolling mistake-riddled Gardner-Webb 44-0 on Saturday night. Despite Tropical Storm Ophelia dumping several inches of rain on the area Friday night and throughout Saturday and hanging around to create misty and windy conditions, a crowd of 40,589 got rewarded with the Pirates’ first shutout in 23 years.

ECU dominated in practically every phase, forcing five turnovers, stuffing the Runnin’ Bulldogs’ potent offense and building some much-needed confidence heading into next week’s conference opener at Rice.

“What a phenomenal performance by our young men,” fifth-year head coach Mike Houston said. “Just really ecstatic for them; really pleased to see us go out and play a complete ball game. We talked about it all week, and then that was the big emphasis today when we met. We went through each piece of the game, playing a complete four quarters.”

After being outscored 55-13 in the second half of the first three games, the Pirates made good on an emphasis to finish strong. They never allowed the Bulldogs (1-3) even a glimmer of hope in recording the first shoutout since a 38-0 season-opening win at Duke on Sept. 2, 2000.

Gardner-Webb managed just 107 total yards (30 passing) and penetrated the ECU 30 only once. Along with the five turnovers, the Bulldogs had five three-and-out series and turned the ball over twice on downs.

“It’s fantastic,” Houston said of the first shutout in a span of 284 games. “I’m glad I was part of it; I’m glad these kids were part of it. It’s good to get. We’ve had a couple that were close the last couple of years, but it feels good to get it.”

Quarterback Alex Flinn welcomed the first win he has experienced as a starting quarterback. Flinn split time with Mason Garcia on Saturday, leading ECU to a 23-0 halftime lead.

“It’s big,” Flinn said. “You always want to get that first one. We’re always talking about getting the monkey off your back. Once you get that first one, you hope they start rolling in after that.”

Flinn threw the first touchdown pass of his career, finishing 8 of 18 for 94 yards. Garcia completed 9 of 12 passes for 89 yards and added 18 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

“I thought they both did some good things,” Houston said. “The ball was really, really slick, so it was tough to throw it. I thought Alex did a really good job with decision-making. I thought Mason came in and gave us a spark. I thought he ran the offense very well. You worked all week with the things that we were doing with him tonight with the quarterback run because we thought that might be something we had to do against that defense.”

ECU benefited from tremendous field position – a bonus given the wet conditions – starting seven of their 15 possessions in Gardner Webb territory.

“The defense played so well tonight,” Flinn said. “It’s easier to play offense when you’re getting the ball in the red zone like that.”

It’s also easier with an effective running game. Junior Rahjai Harris, freshman Javious Bond and sophomore Kamarro Edmonds each scored and led a rushing attack that ground out 182 yards – providing a perfect complement to 184 yards through the air.

Bond finished with a team-high 65 yards on nine carries. Harris had 64 yards on 16 carries and added his first career receiving touchdown. Edmonds took advantage of his four carries, gaining 28 yards and scoring twice.

“It was from the jump that we were running the ball pretty well,” Houston said. “It was really good to get the backs going, get Rahjai going, getting Javious going, and then Kamarro, I thought he gave us a spark there in the second half.”

Harris credited the offensive line with paving the way for the backs to get on track. “A big shout out to the O-Line,” Harris said. “They give us so much confidence. We respect them boys so much. When you have an offensive lineman look at you and just say, ‘Follow me,’ I’m going to follow him. That’s what they were doing all night, and we were just following them, making runs, making people miss.”

Harris accounted for the first two touchdowns as ECU surged to an early 13-0 lead. After an opening three-and-out series, the Pirates scored on four straight possessions, taking advantage of a poor Gardner-Webb punt and two fumble recoveries.

Flinn found a rhythm on a six-play, 72-yard, completing all four of his passes highlighted by a 35-yard strike to Jsi Hatfield and capped off by an 11-yard toss to Rahjai Harris.

Harris found the end zone again with a 2-yard run after the Pirates took over the Bulldogs’ 45 following a short punt.

J.D. Lampley set up the Pirates’ next score by dropping quarterback Matthew Caldwell for a 12-yard loss while jarring the ball loose, then pouncing on it. Andrew Conrad cashed the turnover in for three points with a 44-yard field goal.

The Bulldogs muffed the ensuing kickoff, and Jonathan Jones recovered at the 14. Four plays later, Garcia ran in from the 2 for a 23-0 lead.

The Pirates then leaned on their defense and avoided mistakes to cruise through the second half.

“We met first thing this morning, and I said a few key things,” Houston said. “I said, ‘The conditions are going to be awful tonight. Whichever team does the best job with the ball, and not just offense: offense, special teams, defense, whoever does the best job with the ball is going to win the ballgame.’”

HOUSTON, Texas – East Carolina head coach Mike Houston cannot remember a more frustrating loss than what transpired Saturday night in Rice Stadium.

The Pirates, playing their American Athletic Conference on a sultry night before a sparse crowd, saw chance after chance produce little to nothing through three quarters then could not capitalize on three possessions in the final six minutes and fell 24-17.

Despite churning out a decided advantage in nearly every offensive category, ECU managed just three first-half field goals and a lone second-half touchdown while turning the ball over four times on downs and once on an interception. One drive ended at the Rice one with the Owls clinging to a 10-9 lead.

“We just had too many missed opportunities to win it.” Houston said. “You’re going to be able to look back at several big plays where we had a chance and couldn’t make the play, and that’s the difference in winning and losing.”

ECU, 1-4 for the third time in seven years, dropped its third game this season in which it led or shared the lead in the second half. Junior defensive lineman Chad Stephens, who had 2.5 of the Pirates’ nine tackles for loss, said “the little things” need to be corrected before an Oct. 12 game against SMU.

“Going into the bye week we’re just going to focus on those little things, get healthy and come back and get the next one.”

ECU did essentially what it needed to win the first meeting with Rice since 2010 when both were members of Conference USA but simply could not convert opportunities into touchdowns. The Pirates outgained the Owls (3-2, 1-1 AAC) 391-277 while also putting up a big advantage in first downs (25-14), plays (83-54) rushing yards (145-37) and time of possession (34:58-25:02).

Freshmen Javious Bond and Chase Sowell turned in breakout performances to help keep ECU’s hopes flickering. Bond had a team high on the ground for the second straight week, finishing with 72 yards on seven carries, and Sowell put up personal bests of seven catches for 88 yards and also hauled in a game-tying two-point conversion with 8:24 to play.

Quarterback Alex Flinn set career highs for completions (21), attempts (44) and passing yards (246) but connected on just one of his last seven passes and threw his fifth interception of the year.

“We did some good things and then at the same time, you obviously had a costly interception,” Houston said. “You’ve got to get a little more consistency not only with his play, but we had too many drops. You had some big drops tonight.”

ECU’s defense, meanwhile, help Rice well below its season averages of 4-5.8 yards and 35.3 points but did surrender five plays of at least 24 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown off a screen pass the proved to be the game-winner.

Quarterback J.T. Daniels, who has had stops at USC, Georgia and West Virginia, battled through an ankle injury and completed 18 of 32 passes for 232 yards with one touchdown and one interception. The Pirates shut out leading receiver Luke McCaffrey in the first half. He finished with three receptions for 44 yards, including a key 33-yard catch to set up a third-quarter touchdown.

“We bracketed him most of the night,” Houston said. “I thought out kids played really hard and did a good job with our plan there.”

ECU trailed 10-9 at the half, settling for three Andrew Conrad field goals, despite outgaining the Owls 205-89. Conrad, who had converted four of seven attempts coming in, knocked through field goals of 35, 27 and 38 yards after three scoring threats fizzled. Another drive reached the 18 before a holding penalty and an interception.

Tim Horn countered Conrad’s first field goal with a 41-yarder to tie it at 3-3. A 4-yard pass from Daniels to Rawson MacNeil made it 10-3 before Conrad brought ECU within 10-9 at the half.

Flinn directed an impressive drive to start the third quarter, throwing passes of 12 yards to Sowell, 17 to Shane Calhoun and 34 to Jsi Hatfield, but Rice stuffed the Pirates on consecutive plays from the 1 to take over on downs.

The Owls dug out of the hole by driving 55 yards and milking five minutes off the clock before punting. Their next possession resulted in a touchdown and a 17-9 lead when backup quarterback Chase Jenkins weaved and spun in from the 4.

ECU answered with its longest touchdown drive of the year to pull even, covering 80 yards in 17 plays and consuming 7:19. Flinn converted a pair of third-and-10 throws and Rahjai Harris picked up 21 on a third-and-3.

A pass interference penalty at the goal line kept the drive alive, and Harris bulled in on third down. Flinn’s toss to Sowell, who leaped to make a contested catch tied it at 17-17.

The Pirates’ momentum lasted briefly, however. Rice quickly regained the lead in just four plays, forging ahead when Landon Ransom-Goelz took a bubble screen along the left sideline and scampered 44 yards for his first career touchdown.

ECU would get three final chances but could not cash in. Josh Percy’s jarring hit at the Rice 29 stopped Sowell four yards short on fourth down. The Pirates turned it over again at their own 24 when the next possession gained nothing.

After Horn missed a 42-yard field goal attempt and a Rice penalty, ECU got last shot from its 39. A pass to Jhari Paterson moved the ball to midfield, but two incompletions and a pair of sacks ended ECU’s hopes of an AAC opening win.

“We’re all going to look at this and find plays that we could have made, should have made,” Houston said. “But the big thing is we’ve got to keep pushing ourselves to improve so we make those plays and make those correct decisions. Right now, we’ve got to stick together.”

“I thought the kids played very hard. There’s no doubt they wanted to come in here and win this ball game. We had a good week of preparation, The desire is there, the want-to is there. We’ve got to make the plays when we have opportunities to make the plays.”

GREENVILLE, N.C. – The combination of an open date, Thursday night prime-time TV appearance and “blackout” could not stir up quite the recipe to get East Carolina back in the win column.

SMU rode the brief hot hand of quarterback Preston Stone to two first-quarter touchdowns and converted a pair of second-half turnovers into points on the way to a 31-10 American Athletic Conference win before a Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium crowd of 33,444 and ESPN audience.

ECU (1-5, 0-2 AAC) mustered very little on offense despite running 16 more plays and a nearly nine-minute advantage in time of possession, punting 11 times to go along with the two costly turnovers. The Pirates came up empty on their final 10 possessions, including all nine in the second half, after drawing within 14-10.

“We obviously have a lot of things we’ve got to clean up and do better, and that’s what is getting us,” fifth-year head coach Mike Houston said. “A lot of the same issues that have gotten us in several games continue, and those issues will continue to be addressed, and we’ll continue to search for people that will come through and make those plays.”

One of the biggest searches remains at quarterback, where both Alex Flinn and Mason Garcia have taken snaps in each game. Flinn started for the fourth straight game but exited after two series, completing 2 of 4 passes for 7 yards.

He returned after three series in the third quarter and finished 6 of 13 for 38 yards through the air and added 14 yards on four carries.

Garcia directed a pair of scoring drives, completing 12 of 26 passes for a career-high 155 yards and rushing for a team-high 38 yards on 12 carries, including a 6-yard touchdown run.

“We had planned to play Mason the third or fourth series; we had talked about it coming into the game,” Houston said. “He knew that; Alex knew that. I thought the way the game started it was the right decision to go with Mason at that time, and I thought he gave us a great spark.”

Despite who directed the offense, the Pirates’ season-long drought of hitting big plays continued. Garcia’s 45-yard pass to Chase Sowell accounted for the only play of more than 15 yards on the night. ECU came into the game with just 12 plays of 20-plus yards on the year and has not registered a touchdown-scoring play of more than 11 yards.

All told, the Pirates managed 97 yards on the ground on 38 carries, an average of 2.6 per try. Sowell emerged as the lone bright spot on offense with his second-straight seven-reception game for a career-high 120 yards.

“We were extremely explosive last year, and now we’re not as explosive,” he said. “If we can get some better consistency with our execution, there is some explosive plays there. We’ve got to execute better and all be on the same page.”

ECU’s defense, meanwhile, did enough to keep the score within striking distance until the fourth quarter. After surrendering two early touchdown passes, the Pirates put the clamps on Stone and the Mustangs (4-2, 2-0 AAC) for the better part of two quarters.

Stone, effective at scrambling and dodging pressure, put the Mustangs up 14-0 with touchdown passes of 21 yards to Key'Shawn Smith and 24 yards to Roderick Daniels, connecting on seven straight tosses after and 0-for-3 start. The first score capped a 69-yard drive highlighted by a diving 39-yard grab by Smith – the first big play after a sluggish start by both offenses.

The sophomore quarterback then misfired on 14 of his next 21 passes before finishing 19 of 38 for 276 yards, capping the night with a 43-yard touchdown pass to RJ Maryland with 2:29 to play. The Mustangs found no headway in the running, gaining only 58 yards on 23 carries.

“We prepared for it all week, talked about it all week,” defensive back Shavon Revel said of the defensive effort. “I feel like we played that good.”

As the defense settled in, Garcia helped engineer a rally to get ECU within 14-10. A 14-play, 44-yard drive ended in Andrew Conrad’s career-best 49-yard field goal, then Garcia barreled in from 6 yards to finish off a season-long 81-yard drive.

The two teams traded punts on the first seven possessions of the second-half – there were a combined 20 punts on the night – before the Mustangs seized control with 10 points off a pair of turnovers. The first came when Kobe Wilson stripped the ball from Flinn at the end of a 14-yard run – a play that was revealed by a review.

Collin Rogers, who missed earlier from 38 yards, booted a 50-yard field goal for a 17-10 lead. Then with 7:22 to play, Jonathan McGill picked off a Flinn pass and sprinted 34 yards to make it 24-10.

That interception thwarted any thoughts of a comeback.

“The receiver saw it one way, and the quarterback saw it another,” Houston said. “It’s an option route. Obviously, they’ve got to be on the same page. You can’t throw that pick. It’s 17 to 10. It’s very much a ball game, so that one hurt.”

And it followed a script of nearly every game this season except the opener at No. 2 Michigan. The Pirates have faltered in the second half after leading or being within one score.

“That’s the difference between winning and losing, finishing ballgames and playing when the pressure’s on,” Houston said. “We’ve been able to do that a lot in the past, but we haven’t been able to do that this year. We’ve got to find a way to do that, and we have a great opportunity next Saturday.”

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Despite virtually no offensive production and little going its way for the bulk of four quarters, East Carolina still had a chance to escape with a victory Saturday afternoon against Charlotte.

When Andrew Conrad’s 48-yard field goal attempt sailed wide of the left upright with 34 seconds showing, the final hope vanished as the 49ers escaped with a 10-7 win. The loss on a beautiful but breezy fall afternoon left a Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium crowd of 39,842 disappointed on Homecoming and Hall of Fame weekend. More importantly, it dropped the Pirates to 1-6 overall and 0-3 in the American Athletic Conference.

For Charlotte, it marked the 10-year program’s first win as a new AAC member and raised its record to 2-5 overall.

“I thought that it would be a close game,” fifth-year ECU head coach Mike Houston said. “They’ve been in a lot of those just like us this year. We had our opportunities. We did not play great in the first half. We’ve got to do a better job there. I thought the kids, the second half, played very hard to give us a chance. But we were not able to convert and take advantage of some opportunities.”

ECU’s limited opportunities before the final drive came via a couple of crucial Charlotte turnovers. Julius Wood’s second-quarter interception and 29-yard return, along with a 15-yard penalty, set the Pirates up at the 49ers’ 13. But three plays netted only six yards, and Conrad banged a 24-yard field goal attempt off the right upright.

ECU scored its only touchdown after a muffed punt at the 10, which Kingston McK-instry recovered. Quarterback Alex Flinn, who came on in relief in the second half, fired a 10-yard pass to Shane Calhoun to get ECU within 10-7.

The Pirates still had life after Jake Larson missed a 45-yard field goal attempt – his second miss of the game – and a three-and-out series. ECU took over with 2:29 left and quickly marched to the Charlotte 29 before Michigan transfer Eyabi Okie-Anoma dropped Flinn for an 8-yard loss.

Conrad came on after a 6-yard pass on third down but could not knock through the game-tying kick.

“We’ve got to do a great job there,” Houston said. “We had the field position to at least have a field goal attempt. I think we were well within his range. We’ve got to be better in that situation right there. I hate that it all came down to that one situation, but we had a shot right there. Obviously, we’ve got to improve.”

The 49ers, sparked by quarterback Jalon Jones, amassed 323 total yards and held onto the ball for 41:15 of the 60 minutes. But they self-destructed time and again with nine penalties for 90 yards, two turnovers and the two missed field goals.

The Pirates mustered just 49 total yards in the first half and 127 yards for the game – the fewest ever allowed by Charlotte and the lowest output for an ECU offense since 104 against N.C. State in 2018. ECU averaged just 2.5 yards per play, finished with 10 first downs, rushed for 39 yards and converted only two of 14 third-down attempts.

“They’ve stymied a lot of people this year in the run game,” Houston said of the 49ers’ defense. “That’s a good front that we’re facing – good front and good line-backers. I didn’t think that we responded very good in the first half, and that made it difficult. We just need to do a better job of coaching the kids and preparing them for that and do a better job of giving ourselves a shot there.”

Mason Garcia, relegated to a backup role the last four games, started at quarterback and played the entire first half and first series of the second. He completed just 4 of 14 passes for 19 yards and gained 12 yards on five rushes.

Houston said he felt Garcia was ready to step back into the starting role after a good week of practice.

“Boy he had a great Thursday,” Houston said. “It was really sharp. And he’s in a good place. We all see the talent right there, and he’s a phenomenal young man. I’m going to support him, and I’m going to help him all that I can.”

Flinn provided a brief spark in the second half and hit on 11 of 18 passes for 69 yards but faced constant pressure from the Charlotte rush.

“I felt like Alex, at that point, gave us the best chance to win the ballgame, and he did respond and did some really good things,” Houston said. “He had some stuff that he’s got to improve on also.”

Jones, a senior transfer from Bethune Cookman, gave the 49ers a lift after sitting out last week’s 14-0 loss to Navy. He craftily ran the option, finishing with career highs in both carries (26) and yards (127). He also completed 11 of 18 passes for 144 yards to account for all but 52 of Charlotte’s total yards.

“You can see why he was as highly recruited as he was,” Houston said. “He’s a special talent. I think he played really well today.”

Charlotte scored on its opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal by Lawson after a review ruled a lateral as a forward pass and backed up Charlotte from the 4.

Jones scored from the 1 on the opening drive of the second half for a 10-0 lead. The 49ers wasted several chances to put the Pirates away from there, but ECU failed to take the gift.

The Pirates have five games remaining, including three on the road.

“The one thing is it’s my job to get it fixed, and that’s one thing I told the kids in there in the locker room,” Houston said. “We’re not going to start pointing fingers, we’re not going to start trying to find someone to blame. It’s my responsibility to take care of things, so I’ve got to look at everything and I’ve got to make the decisions that are best to give our program a shot to be successful.”

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – Coming off one of its most lackluster performances in the Mike Houston era, East Carolina found some life early Saturday in the Alamodome but simply couldn't keep pace with big-play Texas San Antonio and fell 41-27.

The Pirates led 17-14 after an impressive first quarter before an aggressive USTA defense cranked up the pressure and put the clamps on quarterback Alex Flinn and the ECU offense the rest of the way. ECU (1-7, 0-4 American Athletic Conference) amassed 169 yards in the first quarter – surpassing last week's total output of 127 yards in a 10-7 loss to Charlotte – but managed only 197 yards in the final three quarters.

The Roadrunners (5-3, 4-0 AAC), meanwhile, piled up a season-high 516 total yards as they recorded their 14th consecutive conference win and stayed in the chase for the AAC regular-season title. ECU did limit USTA to 151 yards in the second half – 87 of which came on three plays.

Despite the loss, Houston believes the effort is a positive step with nationally ranked and AAC contender Tulane coming to town next Saturday.

"It was a challenging weekend last weekend," Houston said of the aftermath of the home loss to Charlotte. "There were a lot of hard discussions this week. I told the kids I love 'em. I have a phenomenal group of young men. They went out and competed at the level I expect them to every single week. We saw so many guys make plays today that they have not been making. My hope is they can build on that and get some confidence from that."

Flinn, back in a starting role, turned in a gritty performance against a USTA defense that registered 13 hurries and sacked him five times – three by two-time AAC defensive player of the week Trey Moore. He completed a career-high 23 passes on 43 attempts for 225 yards and set a personal best with two touchdown passes – a 13-yarder to senior Jaylen Johnson in the first quarter and a 4-yarder to freshman Chase Sowell with 15 seconds to play.

Johnson, who finished with eight catches for 105 yards, not only accounted for the first touchdown reception by a receiver this season but also the longest scoring play of the year.

Flinn also had a team- and career-high 20 rushing attempts for 53 yards. "I thought he showed a lot of toughness and just a lot of tenacity," Houston said. "There's a half a dozen plays that he's going to look at that are the difference in winning and losing the game. I told him it's tough. The pressure's on the quarterback, the pressure's on the head coach, but if you don't want to be that guy, then don't be that guy."

"He played very well for the bulk of the day, and he's going to look at those half a dozen plays, and we've got to help him make a better decision in those situations. Then all of a sudden, you're sitting here throwing for over 300 yards and a much different outlook of the game."

Flinn's counterpart, seventh-year senior Frank Harris, burned the Pirates for several big plays but also threw one costly interception that Dontavious Nash returned for a touchdown and was sacked four times. Harris, who holds 38 school records, completed 20 of 32 passes with season highs of 395 yards and four touchdowns.

He and Flinn each had a hand in a bevy of momentum-shifting big plays highlighted the first half and kept a loud Homecoming crowd entertained. ECU, which had produced only 14 plays of 20-plus yards through seven games, reeled off three in the first quarter and four overall. USTA countered with eight chunk plays that covered at least 43 yards.

The quick started early with Flinn connecting with Sowell for 39 yards on the opening play, but the Pirates came up empty on the drive when Andrew Conrad missed a 53-yard field goal. The Pirates would penetrate USTA territory four times on seven first-half possessions and turn three trips into points.

The Roadrunners took a 7-0 lead when Tykee Ogle-Kellogg hauled in a 1-yard toss from Harris for the first of two scores on the day. USTA apparently scored two plays earlier on a leaping 43-yard reception by Devin McCuin, but replay ruled his knee down inside the 1.

The Pirates answered with Flinn's 13-yard pass to Johnson, but USTA needed just two plays and 34 seconds to regain the lead, scoring on a 10-yard Robert Henry run after a 65-yard catch and run by Joshua Cephus. Cephus, the school's all-time leading receiver, finished with a career-best 183 yards on just four catches.

Conrad knocked through a 33-yard field goal to bring ECU within 14-10, then Nash picked off Harris and returned it 36 yards to propel the Pirates in front 17-14.

Chase Allen tied it with a 27-yard field goal two plays into the second quarter. The Roadrunners took the lead for good on their next possession, scoring in a flash with Cephus taking a pass from Harris and racing 84 yards for a 24-17 lead.

Harris teamed up with Oscar Cardenas on a 7-yard score for a 31-17 lead with 2:11 left in the half. Conrad booted a career-long 51-yarder with 20 seconds showing to make it 31-20.

USTA's defense made sure the Pirates would get no closer. Allen tacked a 36-yard field goal and Harris threw a 43-yard pass to Ogle-Kellogg to stretch the lead to 41-20. Flinn's pass to Sowell with 15 seconds made the final more respectable and could add more confidence heading into next week.

"Let me make one thing crystal clear: I am never, never happy losing a ballgame – ever," Houston said. "There are no good losses. But we had a lot of positive things we can build on from this game today."

GREENVILLE, N.C. – A dominant first quarter put East Carolina in prime position to knock off nationally ranked Tulane on a sun-splashed fall Saturday at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium, but the Pirates simply could not generate the big play on either side of the ball and fell 13-10.

The Green Wave, ranked No. 21 and tied atop the American Athletic Conference, rallied from a 10-0 deficit and stuffed ECU's upset hopes with a time-consuming, ball-control offense on the way to their seventh consecutive win. The Pirates (1-8, 0-5 AAC) dropped their fifth in a row.

"It had a chance to be a pretty special night," fifth-year ECU head coach Mike Houston said. "... Our kids gave us a chance to knock off a nationally ranked opponent, and we just couldn't score when we needed there at the end."

That has been the case in six of eight the losses this season in which the Pirates either led or were within one score in the second half. Houston couldn't hide the pain of the mounting losses but vows to keep fighting.

"It's frustrating," Houston said of not being able to get over the hump. "It also says a lot about our kids. I know there's somebody sitting in a recliner somewhere that has pure hate in their heart and is going to say all kinds of stuff, and I get it; I know what our record is. But we have a good program. Those kids are good kids. Yes, we have not made plays to win those ballgames. But we have a good bunch of tough-ass, hard-nosed kids in that locker room, and they're going to fight, and I'm going to fight."

Senior defensive back Julius Wood echoed his coach's frustration.

"Every loss is complicated to deal with," Wood said. "Nobody likes losing. You've just got to keep pushing. In life, that's how it goes. You're going to lose sometimes. Everything ain't always going to go your way. In life you've always got to keep pushing." Junior running back Rahjai Harris, who had a team-high 52 rushing yards, said the Pirates need to put four consistent quarters together.

"It's good that we're right there, but we've just got to finish," Harris said. "That's what it comes down to. You can't win a game in the first half. It's four quarters. We've got to play all four quarters like our hair is on fire."

ECU played that way in the first quarter Saturday against Tulane (8-1, 5-0 AAC) before hitting the wall offensively. The Pirates came out methodical and efficient, scoring on their first two possessions in dominant fashion, racking up a 149-23 advantage in total yards, while running nine more plays and hanging on to the ball for 10:18 of the opening 15 minutes.

The offense went dormant in the final three quarters, managing just 47 total yards on 22 plays and owning the ball a mere 11:30. ECU ran just seven plays in Tulane territory in the final 45 minutes and never got inside the Green Wave 44.

Flinn, who connected on 7 of 9 passes for 105 yards in the first quarter, completed just three passes for 15 yards the rest of the way.

"We knew we were facing a very good defensive football team," Houston said. "They've been a challenge all year for a lot of people. We just never could get consistency going with drives, couldn't generate a big play in the second half."

A lack of opportunities presented a challenge Saturday. ECU's offense took the field just five times after taking the 10-0 lead, ending four possessions on punts and the last one on downs.

"You go against Navy and teams like that you know you have limited possessions," Flinn said. "Tulane, you really weren't expecting to not have that many possessions. It just goes to show that each possession matters."

Tulane made just enough of its possessions to escape but had to recover from its first quarter deficit of the season.

ECU struck early by hitting three chunk plays – a pair of 32-yard passes and another for 22 – but would only register one more double-digit play the rest of the night.

The Pirates' opening drive covered 71 yards in 13 plays and milked more than six minutes off the clock. Andrew Conrad booted a 27-yard field goal after the drive stalled at the 10.

Gerald Green put ECU up 10-0 with a 1-yard plunge to cap off a 78-yard drive. Flinn connected with Jsi Hatfield for a 32-yard gain, and Chase Sowell made a tremendous lunging grab for 22 yards to move the ball to the 1.

Tulane turned the tables in the second quarter, outgaining the Pirates 156-6 and pulling even.

The Green Wave put together its longest drive of the season in terms of plays (14), yards (92) and time of possession (8:37), converting three third downs to make it 10-7. Michael Pratt flipped a 9-yard pass to Lawrence Keys III for the score, giving the junior quarterback at least one touchdown pass in 23-straight games and 41 of the 42 he has played at Tulane.

Pratt, who hit on just one of his first four passes before completing nine-straight, should have had another just before the end of the half, but Jha'Quan Jackson dropped the ball with one second to go. Valentino Ambrosia then came on for a 21-yard field goal to tie it.

Ambrosia missed a chance to put Tulane up on the first possession on the third quarter, missing a 31-yard attempt after head coach Willie Fritz called a timeout (Ambrosia made the kick after time was called).

Ambrosia responded on his next chance, putting the Green Wave up 13-10 with a 26-yard kick just 46 seconds into the final quarter. ECU would only get two more possessions with the last one ending on an incomplete pass from the 45.

Tulane then ran off the final 7:17 behind Pratt and freshman running back Makhi Hughes, who finished with 105 yards on 25 carries for his fifth-straight 100-yard game.

A fourth-down sneak by Pratt from the 5 sealed the game and ECU's hopes for an upset.

"We're all hurting right now because everyone in this building continues to invest heavily each day for each other," Houston said. "That's the special something that we have right now. I have no doubt that they're going to continue to go out and they're going to play their tails off. That's just who they are."

BOCA RATON, Fla. - The major goals for the season may be gone, but East Carolina proved Saturday that the desire and effort remain.

The Pirates took a major step toward a strong finish to a frustrating season, riding a stout defense and a superb performance on special teams for a 22-7 victory over Florida Atlantic at FAU Stadium. The Pirates, winning for the first time since Sept. 23 against Gardner-Webb, ended a six-game skid to move to 2-8 overall and 1-5 in the American Athletic Conference.

For fifth-year head coach Mike Houston, a post-game celebration was long overdue. "We had a huge group of Pirate fans down in the corner of the end zone. It was a great scene on the field down there with our players and our fan base," Houston said. "It's special to have that kind of interaction between the two. And then that locker room, it was a special one."

A swarming defense that bottled up the Owls (4-6, 3-3 AAC) all day combined with a blocked punt and Andrew Conrad's school-record five field goals made it possible. For the third straight week, ECU got off to a strong start, but this time never relented.

"We talked about it yesterday and again this morning," Houston said. "We've been close, we've been close, we've been playing better, but we hadn't made it over the hump and put one away. It may have not been the pretty thing at times, but I'm telling you what, it was a vary decisive victory here tonight in Boca."

The Pirates' defense, which has shouldered its load much of the year, smothered an

FAU offense that scored at least 38 points in three of the last four games and boasted the nation's leading receiver in terms of total receptions.

The Owls struggled from the outset, failing to pick up a first down until early in the second period and finishing with 172 total yards, including just 21 on the ground. ECU chalked up season highs in both tackles for loss (10) and sacks (five by five different players).

FAU's only scoring drive started at the ECU 41. The Owls turned the ball over on down on their final four possessions.

Leading receiver LaJohnney Wester, coming off a career-best 219 yards against UAB, finished with six catches for just 36 yards. The redshirt junior entered with six 100-yard games this season and 11 for his career.

Quarterback Daniel Richardson, a Central Michigan transfer under pressure all day, completed 24 of 35 passes for 151 yards. He was intercepted once.

"A lot of those guys have been playing since they were freshmen, and they've been built over a lot of tough times," Houston said of his defense. "The one thing I said coming into the season that I knew about this team is we had a tough, physical, hard-nosed defense. That's just the way those kids are built. You know what you're going to get every single week. It was as good as ever tonight against a very talented team."

Conrad was better than ever. The sophomore from Kernersville, who had converted 11 of 17 field goals this season, nailed all five of his field goals Saturday - all from at least 40 yards, including a pair of 46-yarders and two from 47. ECU kickers have booted four field goals in a game 11 times, the most recent by Jake Verity against William & Mary in 2019.

"We have a lot of confidence in Andrew," Houston said. "I've trotted him out there for some long field goals. He missed a couple, but he doesn't blink, and he's a real competitor. He has talent, so that combination right there makes him a guy that go out there and be unfazed."

ECU's defense flexed its muscle in a dominant first quarter, forcing four consecutive three-and-outs. The Owls did not pick up a first down until three minutes into the second quarter, and that came with the aid of a facemask penalty that erased a third-down sack.

The Pirates' special teams also pitched in with a huge play to set up the game's first score. Julien Davis darted in from the left side and got a hand on the punt of Logan Lupo, and Jackson Barker recovered at the 27.

Gerald Green, seeing his most extensive action of the season (15 carries, 33 yards), gained 5 yards on first down then slipped through the right side of the line on third down and raced the final 18 yards for his second touchdown of the year and ECU's longest scoring play of the season.

Conrad booted the first of his two 47-yard first-half field goals for a 10-0 lead just 52 seconds into the second quarter.

FAU cashed in excellent field position following a 28-yard punt by Luke Larsen, taking over at the Pirates' 41 and scoring in six plays to get within 10-7. Backup quarterback Michael Johnson Jr. scored from the 3 on a keeper.

Conrad's second field goal with 2:37 left in the half made it 13-7 and sent ECU to its second halftime lead of the year and first since game four against Gardner-Webb.

Conrad added a 43-yarder on the second play of the fourth quarter to extend the margin to 16-7 after the Pirates saw a couple of breaks fall their way in the third period.

On the opening series of the second half, Darius McClendon returned an apparent fumble by Jsi Hatfield for what was initially ruled a touchdown, but a review overturned it. Later in the quarter, Carter Davis missed a 36-yard field goal following a sack by Suirad Ware on a third-down play from the 11.

Conrad's fourth and fifth field goals came FAU fourth-down gambles in its own territory failed His 46-yarder with 7:05 to play put ECU up 19-7 lead, then he tacked on a 40-yarder with 3:13 left to make it 22-7.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – East Carolina’s stout defense contributed its part to a bid for a second straight win, but season-long struggles on offense led to a 10-0 loss to Navy on Saturday at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

ECU (2-9, 1-6 American Athletic Conference) finished with 189 total yards, committed three first-half turnovers and also gave up the ball in its territory when Luke Larsen dropped the ball while attempting a rugby-style punt. The Pirates failed to piece together more than a five-play drive in their first 12 possessions and did not amass more than 29 yards on any series until their last (39 yards).

“I’m not pleased with our production, obviously, and not pleased with our three turnovers,” fifth-year head coach Mike Houston said. “I think we’ve got to be better. We’ve got to coach better; we’ve got to play better; that’s obvious. There are obviously some things I’ve got to get addressed significantly.”

Alex Flinn started again Saturday and never found a rhythm against Navy’s constant pressure, completing 24 of 38 passes for 151 yards and a pair of interceptions.

Flinn led ECU in rushing with 41 yards on 12 carries. Javious Bond, Gerald Green and Rahjai Harris netted a mere 16 yards on six carries. All told, the Pirates had a season-low 34 yards on the ground and rushed for less than 100 yards for the sixth time this season.

“The biggest thing is they shut our run game down,” Houston said. “It was very frustrating not being able to run the football; made us very one-dimensional. We made too many mistakes to keep drives going.”

The Pirates’ defense, meanwhile, kept Navy in check in a sloppy game that featured almost as many tackles for loss (20) as first downs (22), five turnovers, one missed field goal, one blocked field goal and 14 punts.

Senior Xavier Arline, Navy’s fourth starting quarterback this season, completed

10 of 11 passes for 155 yards and rushed for 68 yards on 18 carries but also fumbled twice. His 39-yard scamper in the first quarter set up the game’s only touchdown.

“We felt like if we made them operate and put stress on the quarterback, we can create some situations just like what happened in the first half with a couple of deals where he’s trying to pull it late and we’ve got somebody right in his face. That’s what causes those fumbles,” Houston said. “It’s just very frustrating that we gave the ball right back to them. That’s what we couldn’t do. We could not turn the ball over if we wanted to win this ballgame.”

Navy (5-5, 4-3 AAC), which has now forced 22 turnovers this season, picked off an overthrow by Flinn on the game’s opening series and again late in the first half, but did not score.

The only first-half score came when Navy cashed in excellent field position on its third series, taking over at the 47 and finding the end zone in just two plays for their seventh scoring drive in less than a minute this season. After a first-down penalty, Arline sprinted 39 yards down the right sideline to the 19.

Alex Tecza, who had a game-high 94 yards on 24 carries, also found a crease on the right side and ran untouched for the score.

ECU could not answer after forcing fumbles on Navy’s next two possessions and taking over near midfield. Jason Shuford gave the Pirates their first opportunity when he pounced on a fumble at the Navy 48. A 16-yard keeper by Flinn moved the ball to the 32, but the drive stalled there, and Andrew Conrad pulled a 49-yard field goal attempt left of the upright.

Taylor Jackson stripped the ball from Arline on Navy’s next series after the Midshipmen reached the ECU 37. Elijah Morris scooped up the bounding ball and rumbled to the 47. Three plays later, Clay Cromwell blindsided Flinn and knocked the ball loose, and Justin Reed made his fourth recovery of the year.

Neither team mounted a serious threat in the third period until Arline hooked up with Eli Heidenreich for a 49-yard pass – Navy’s longest pass play of the year. But Shavon Revel, who had eight tackles, blocked a Nathan Kirkwood field goal attempt to keep the Pirates within one score.

The Midshipmen did not let their next chance go to waste. After recovering Larsen’s fumble at the ECU 18, Navy extended its lead to 10-0 with Kirkwood’s 27-yard boot.

Now the Pirates turn their attention to one final chance for a win, hosting Tulsa next Saturday at 2 p.m.

“We have a chance to finish things off on a positive note with a win at home next week against a very talented Tulsa team,” Houston said. “I know what kind of effort we will get this week in practice from our players. Our coaches are going to work their tails off to make sure we’re prepared, and we want to try to win the last one on Dowdy-Ficklen and send our seniors off the way they deserve.”

GREENVILLE, N.C. - East Carolina stood less than three minutes away from a Senior Day victory celebration Saturday, but an unfortunate turn of events resulted in a 29-27 season-ending loss to Tulsa.

After a defensive stand, the Pirates owned a 27-26 lead and the ball at the Golden Hurricane 24 with just 2:31 to play. Disaster then struck on first down when running back Rahjai Harris mishandled a direct snap, and Tulsa's Ben Kopenski recovered at the 33.

Tulsa, looking to end a six-game losing streak, then drove in position for Chase Meyer to knock through a 37-yard kick with 1 second left, spoiling the day for 14 ECU seniors on a chilly Saturday afternoon at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium. Meyer's first miss of a point-after kick this year in the first quarter loomed as a large point throughout the day, and he also had a field goal attempt blocked before converting three second-half field goals.

"Tonight should not have ended the way it did," fifth-year ECU head coach Mike Houston said. "We should be celebrating and singing the fight song right now. I hate it for all of our players. It's not just the way it should have happened."

Quarterback Alex Flinn, who threw a pair of touchdowns as well as two interceptions, said the Pirates (2-10, 1-7 AAC) simply did not execute.

"We've had that planned all year," said Flinn, who completed 12 of 18 passes for 184 yards and rushed for 51 yards on 11 carries. "We've repped it in practice. It was a direct snap, and the snap was just a little bit to the right. We've just got to execute better in that moment."

The call wound up being the final one for offensive coordinator Donnie Kirkpatrick, who will not return next season. Houston did not elaborate on the play choice but said it ultimately is his responsibility.

"I was looking at the kill the clock sheet and turned around; it just looked like we dropped the snap," Houston said. "Not ideally what you want in that situation."

"I'd like to see us put the game away," Houston said. "That's why I said we shouldn't be in this situation right here. It's on me. I'm the head football coach here. I'm responsible for everything that goes on, on the field."

Before the bitter end, the Pirates put together many of the ingredients to produce a win. They rushed for a season-best 225 yards en route to a season-best 409 total yards and had their highest-scoring half of the year, striking on four of five first-half possessions for a 24-20 lead.

ECU produced both its longest scoring plays by ground and by air for the year, getting a 50-yard run from Harris in the first quarter and a 31-yard reception by senior Jsi Hatfield in the second. Harris, who carried just once for minus-1 yard last week at Navy, ground out a season-high 145 yards on 21 carries. Transfer Chase Sowell led the receiving corps with five catches for 108 yards.

"We haven't had that feeling pretty much all year, so to have that momentum going into the half, it definitely felt great," Sowell said.

Houston credited establishing the running game early. The Pirates had 143 yards on the ground and 268 yards overall by halftime.

"I think the ability to run the football set everything up," Houston said. "That opened up the passing game and allowed us to extend drives. It's more of what we've been accustomed to the last couple of years with the ability to drive the football."

Tulsa (4-8, 2-6 AAC) countered behind true freshman quarterback Kirk Francis, the fourth starter for the Golden Hurricane this year, and bullish senior running back Anthony Watkins. Francis completed 23 of 37 passes for 297 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Watkins rushed for 106 yards on 18 carries -- the third 100-yard game this season and fifth of his career.

Although it finished with 446 total yards, Tulsa hurt itself with three personal foul penalties, two penalties on fourth-and-1 situations that forced it to punt, one interception, a missed PAT and a blocked punt.

After their fast start, the Pirates managed just an Andrew Conrad field goal in the second half and turned the ball over on three of six possessions.

The two teams traded blows in an entertaining and somewhat unexpected offensive show in the first half.

Tulsa needed just four plays to score on its opening possession with Francis floating a 31-yard pass to big-play senior receiver Kamdyn Benjamin, who finished with six catches for 143 yards.

ECU answered with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Flinn to Jayden Johnson and a 50-yard sprint by Harris for a 14-6 lead. Tulsa forged ahead 20-14 with a 15-yard pass from Francis to Luke McGary and a 1-yard run by Bill Jackson.

Hatfield's touchdown grab and a 29-yard field goal by Conrad put ECU up 24-20 at the half. Meyer kicked a 28-yard field goal to trim the lead to 24-23 then put Tulsa up 26-24 with a 26-yard field goal with 3:15 left in the third quarter. That boot came after a review reversed an apparent interception by Isaiah Brown-Murray in the end zone.

"It looked good from what I saw," Houston said of Brown-Murray's diving pick. "They said he did not have complete control of the ball through the ground. We'll have to look at the film and see, but obviously that's three points."

ECU still had its chance to walk away with a victory. Conrad put the Pirates in front 27-26 with 12:12 to play with a 26-yard field goal.

The Golden Hurricane could not muster a threat on the next three possessions and turned the ball over on downs with 2:31 to go when a fourth-down Francis pass fell incomplete.

"It's really tough, but I know this is a team game," said junior Shavon Revel, who collected his first career interception and blocked a field goal. "I was doing it for the seniors. For us to get that loss in a close game hurt me. Even though I'm not a senior it hurt me because I know how they felt."
