THE SETUP

GAME 45: UNC WILMINGTON

East Carolina | UNC Wilmington
Date: Apr. 17, 2024
Location: Wilmington, N.C.
Stadium: Boseman Field

PIRATES VISIT UNC WILMINGTON ON WEDNESDAY FOR MIDWEEK BATTLE

- East Carolina will remain on the road to begin the week as the Pirates will travel to UNC Wilmington on Wednesday for a midweek clash with the Seahawks at Boseman Field. First pitch is set for 5 p.m. and the game will be streamed via FloSoftball. ECU is coming off of a 10-2 defeat in six innings in its rubber match with Tulsa on Sunday. After falling 2-1 to the Golden Hurricane in the series opener, ECU downed Tulsa 5-2 behind Mary-Kathryn Scott's first home run with the Pirates but were unable to contain the American's leading offense on Sunday afternoon.
- Emma Jackson leads the Pirates at the plate, batting .424 (2nd in AAC) and tallying 64 hits (1st in AAC/t-5th in NCAA) along with 22 doubles (1st in AAC/1st in NCAA) and 44 RBI (1st in AAC). Jackson was named the 14th best outfielder in the country by Softball America for the month of April and is closing in on tying the single-season doubles program record of 26 set by Kate Manuse in 2004. In addition to Jackson, the Pirates have four other starters who are batting .350 or higher in Morgan Johnson (.368), Taylor Woodring (.363), Anna Sawyer (.359) and Kanisha Anderson (.353). Taylor Apple leads ECU in the circle with a 2.52 ERA and 92 strikeouts (3rd in AAC) to go along with seven complete games while Addy Bullis sports a 2.85 ERA with 46 strikeouts.
- UNC Wilmington enters Wednesday's contest off of a 2-1 loss to North Carolina A&T that snapped the Seahawks six-game winning streak. Cassidy Relay leads the Seahawks at the plate with a .359 batting average while Skylar Stockton has a team-high three home runs to go along with 17 RBI. The Seahawks have a strong one-two punch in the circle with Kara Hammock (1.80 ERA) and Emily Winstead (1.85 ERA) as the duo has combined for 21 of UNCW's 23 wins this season. The Pirates lead the all-time series with the Seahawks 82-22 and have won the last two meetings at Boseman Field, both of which took place last season as ECU won by a combined score of 16-2 in the two games.
- The Pirates return 12 positional players from last season's team that went 27-28, led by Anna Sawyer, Jayci Chamberlain and Logan Sutton while retaining the majority of their pitching staff, headlined by Addy Bullis and Jordan Hatch. ECU added 12 new faces to the 2024 roster, including transfers Morgan Johnson, Hailey Massaro, Annie Kate Dalton, Makenzie Mason, Mary-Kathryn Scott, Samantha Turnage and Emma Jackson. The team also welcomes in five freshmen, including three who were in Extra Innings Softball Top 100 in Taylor Apple, Kaleigh Ayscue and Devin Long.

About East Carolina University

Founded in 1907, East Carolina University is a public university nationally recognized for preparing teachers and primary care physicians as well as for its cultural and performing arts programs. It enrolls over of 29,000 undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students and is North Carolina's leading producer of initially licensed teachers and primary care physicians. Among the colleges and schools, East Carolina operates the Brody School of Medicine, School of Dental Medicine, College of Engineering and Technology, and a growing undergraduate Honors College. ECU is located near four major military bases, including Camp Lejeune and Fort Bragg, and won the Freedom Award from the United States Department of Defense for its support of military families and service men and women in 2010. East Carolina's economic impact is estimated at $3 billion statewide, with more than $2 billion in eastern North Carolina alone.

About Greenville, N.C.

There is so much that makes Greenville a great place to live, work, play, and visit. In recent surveys, more than 70 percent of residents and visitors rated Greenville as a great place to live and a great place for quality of life. Just a few of our city features include:

- A vibrant Uptown District that continues to grow and offers numerous retail, restaurant and entertainment options
- A variety of festivals and special events held throughout the year such as City-sponsored events like PirateFest and Freeboot Friday or events sponsored by other organizations such as East Carolina University
- Approximately nine miles of greenways
- A centrally located transportation hub (G.K. Butterfield Center) that provides multimodal public transportation connections

HEAD COACH SHANE WINKLER (THIRD SEASON, BUTLER '04)

Shane Winkler enters his third season as the head softball coach at East Carolina University after being tabbed as the Pirates' head coach in May 2021 following a successful three-year stint as head coach at George Washington University.

Winkler is the program's first male head coach and its fifth coach overall. In his first season at the helm, the Pirates complied an overall record of 20-36 and outfielder Taudrea Sinnie was named to the 2022 All-American Athletic Conference Second Team while pitcher Jordan Hatch received AAC All-Rookie Team accolades.

The Pirates showed improvement in Winkler's second season as the team won its most games since 2014 with a 27-28 overall record. For the second straight season, ECU had a player make an all-conference team and all-rookie team as Taylor Edwards was named to the 2023 All-American Athletic Conference Second Team and utility Mackenzie Kila earned AAC All-Rookie Team honors. Edwards was also tabbed to the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) All-Mideast Region Third Team, becoming the first Pirate to be named to an NFCA All-Region Team since 2014.

During his three years at GW, Winkler compiled a 91-43 record and captured the school's first two Atlantic 10 championships, sharing the title in 2019 before claiming the first outright championship this past season. The Colonials won both the regular season and tournament titles in 2021 to advance to the NCAA Championship for the first time and made their second overall postseason appearance.

GW participated in the National Invitational Softball Championship (NISC) Liberty Regional after claiming a share of the 2019 league title.

Winkler became the first Atlantic 10 Coach-of-the-Year in program history this past year after leading the Colonials to a 23-1 conference record in addition to a sweep of championship banners. GW was 38-8 in A-10 play during his tenure.

Under his tutelage, 12 student-athletes earned all-conference accolades highlighted by Jenna Cone, who earned A-10 Player-of-the-Year honors in 2019 and 2021, and Sierra Lange, who made history as the first Colonial to be named the conference's Pitcher-of-the-Year in 2021.

In addition, 11 players received all-region accolades, including a school-record seven this past year.

Winkler's teams set program records for runs per game (7.0), home runs (64), ERA (1.97) and fielding percentage (.977) in 2021, leading the A-10 in eight offensive and five pitching categories.

During his initial campaign at GW in 2019, the Colonials won a team-record 44 games and ranked third in the country with a .341 batting average, piling up 582 hits over 64 games, 89 more than the previous mark. GW ended the season among the national leaders in doubles per game (1.68, eighth), triples per game (0.31, 21st), on-base percentage (.405, 15th), scoring (6.02, 20th) and slugging percentage (.502, 22nd).

Before taking over the program at GW, Winkler spent a decade (2009-18) leading the softball program at Charleston Southern University. He totaled a program-record 261 wins with the Buccaneers and guided them to their first NCAA Tournament berth in 2014.

Winkler made his mark at Charleston Southern with three 30-win seasons and two Big South Championship final appearances highlighted by their breakthrough victory in 2014.

CSU ranked in the top 10 nationally in home runs in 2017 and was one of just two teams in the country, along with national champion Florida State, to rank in the top 30 in both home runs and steals in 2018.

Winkler's Buccaneers produced 35 All-Big South Conference honorees and 10 all-academic selections. The program also produced its first Big South Scholar Athlete-of-the-Year and had a recipient of the Christenberry Award for top academic student-athletes in the conference each of his final two seasons. He has amassed 372 career victories during his 14 seasons as a head coach.

Prior to his tenure at Charleston Southern, Winkler served three seasons (2006-08) as an assistant coach at Marshall where he was responsible for the outfielders and the offense. The Thundering Herd broke the program home run record twice on his watch and consistently ranked among the top offenses in Conference USA led by a four-time All-American catcher. During his three seasons, the Thundering Herd had a combined record of 91-78.

Winkler's first collegiate job came as co-head coach at Danville Area Community College (Ill.) for the 2005 season in which the Jaguars produced their first winning campaign in 12 years. He got his start coaching softball while in college working with a summer program in his hometown of Kentland, Ind.

Winkler has also been active with National Pro Fastpitch, where he served a summer season as the head coach of the Chicago Bandits in 2014. He tutored numerous Olympians and NCAA champions, including former All-America pitcher Jennie Finch, during his time on the pro circuit, which also encompassed stints as an assistant coach with the Bandits (2009) and the Akron Racers (2007).

On the baseball field, Winkler was an outfielder who played collegiately at Illinois Central College, Purdue and Butler. He earned his associate's degree in general education from Illinois Central in 2002 before earning a bachelor's degree in communication studies from Butler in 2004.

Winkler moved on to play professionally with the Florence Freedom (2004) and Washington Wild Things (2006) of the Frontier League, and the Amarillo Dillas (2006) of the United Baseball League.
