STORYLINES

THE SERIES. BYU and East Carolina are meeting for the fourth time in the series. The Cougars trail 1-2 overall and lost the only contest in Greenville, back in 2017. After being tied 10-10 at halftime, the Pirates pulled away thanks to two fourth quarter touchdowns from future NFL quarterback Gardner Minshew to win it 33-17. The two schools last met in 2022 where ECU kicked a game-winning field goal as time expired to beat the Cougars 27-24 in Provo.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE. BYU is facing an opponent from the American Athletic Conference for the 21st time. The Cougars are 14-6 against the AAC. BYU last faced a team playing in the American in the 2022 New Mexico Bowl when SMU was still a member of the league, winning it 24-23.

NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE. After opening with Portland State, and FCS team, BYU hosted the Stanford Cardinal from the Atlantic Coast Conference in Provo. The Cougars got an early bye and now travel across the country to East Carolina of the American Athletic Conference on Sept. 20 to wrap up their non-conference schedule for 2025. Now in its third year in the Big 12, BYU has yet to lose a non-conference game (8-0).

YEAR 3 IN BIG 12. BYU begins its third season in the Big 12 Conference after taking a big leap in year two to compete for the league title. After a 5-7 overall finish in 2023 and a 2-7 mark in the Big 12, the Cougars flipped the script in 2024 by going 11-2 and 7-2 in the Big 12, tied for first place in the conference with Arizona State, Iowa State and Colorado. Now BYU starts its third lap in the Big 12, making road trips in league for the first time to Colorado, Arizona, Iowa State, Texas Tech and Cincinnati. In the Big 12, the Cougars host West Virginia, Utah, TCU and UCF.

IN SEARCH OF 3-0 STARTS. With a win over East Carolina, BYU would move to 3-0 to start the season for the third year in a row fifth time in six seasons. BYU has never gone three consecutive seasons starting out 3-0. In its history, BYU has had 18 3-0 starts. Under Sitake, when starting 3-0, BYU has finished with double digit wins three times (2024, 2021, 2020).

FIRST ROAD GAME. BYU is playing its first road game of the 2025 season. Under Kalani Sitake, BYU has won its first true road game of the year seven consecutive seasons, winning at Arizona (2018), Tennessee (2019), Navy (2020), Utah State (2021), South Florida (2022), Arkansas (2023) and SMU (2024). The Cougars are 25-22 in true road games, not including regular season neutral site games, under Sitake since 2016.

REMEMBERING LAVELL EDWARDS

Legendary BYU head football coach LaVell Edwards passed away Dec. 29, 2016 at the age of 86 surrounded by his wife Patti and their family.

Edwards, a coaching icon in college football, led the Cougars for 29 seasons from 1972 to 2000. He amassed 257 victories, which ranks eighth in NCAA Division I history. In addition, Edwards led BYU to the 1984 National Championship and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. Before Edwards, BYU had won just 173 games in over 49 seasons and had never been to a bowl game. Since Edwards, the Cougars have won 456 games and attended 41 bowl games.

Known for his stoic sideline demeanor and quick-witted humor, Edwards was once labeled by USA Today as a "national coaching treasure." Beloved not only in coaching circles and all of Cougar Nation, but especially by the many hundreds of players under his tutelage, including current head coach Kalani Sitake who was a fullback and team captain for the Cougars.

BYU 150

October 2025 marks the 150th anniversary of the founding of Brigham Young University. As a campus community, we are excited to both honor our past and envision our future, to remember the many people who have built this school into what it is, and to celebrate and share the divine gifts of light that BYU cultivates in all of us.
For all things BYU 150, visit 150.byu.edu.

BYU'S HISTORY

The establishment of the Brigham Young Academy in 1875 offered an academically stimulating and gospel-oriented education to 29 students. The one-acre school grounds presided over by Karl G. Maeser have since developed into nearly 600 acres and more than 300 buildings. From its inception, the goal of Brigham Young University has been to offer "a new kind of education" for Zion, one based on precepts "revealed by the Lord," as Maeser once remarked. Today, BYU provides an outstanding education in an atmosphere consistent with the standards and principles of its sponsor, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. The University is widely recognized for its deep commitments to inspired religious values and rigorous intellectual learning.

BYU MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Brigham Young University — founded, supported, and guided by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints — is to assist individuals in their quest for perfection and eternal life. That assistance should provide a period of intensive learning in a stimulating setting where a commitment to excellence is expected and the full realization of human potential is pursued.

All instruction, programs, and services at BYU, including a wide variety of extracurricular experiences, should make their own contribution toward the balanced development of the total person. Such a broadly prepared individual will not only be capable of meeting personal challenge and change but will also bring strength to others in the tasks of home and family life, social relationships, civic duty, and service to mankind.

AIMS OF A BYU EDUCATION

BYU seeks to develop students of faith, intellect, and character who have the skills and the desire to continue learning and to serve others throughout their lives. These are the common aims of all education at BYU. Both those who teach in the classroom and those who direct activities outside the classroom are responsible for contributing to this complete educational vision. A BYU education should be:

- Spiritually Strengthening
- Intellectually Enlarging
- Character Building
- Leading to Lifelong Learning and Service

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Brigham Young University is owned and operated by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the missionary program is one of its most recognized characteristics. Latter-day Saint missionaries can be seen on the streets of hundreds of major cities in the world as well as in thousands of smaller communities.

The missionary effort is based on the New Testament pattern of missionaries serving in pairs, teaching the gospel and baptizing believers in the name of Jesus Christ (see, for example, the work of Peter and John in the book of Acts).

56 members of the current team have served a Latter-Day Saint mission. Members of the team have served in 22 different countries, speak as more than 10 languages and have served on six of the seven continents around the globe. BYU currently has several members of the team (previous signees or on roster) that are currently serving in the mission field.

More than 74,000 full-time missionaries are serving missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Most missionaries are young people under the age of 25, serving in 407 missions throughout the world.

56 Kicker Will Ferrin made a career-long 56-yard field goal vs. Portland State to tie the BYU school record set by Owen Pochman vs. New Mexico in 2000. Last year Ferrin made a 54-yard field goal at Baylor and had three more of 50+ in 2024.

44.8 2024 Ray Guy Award Watchlist punter Sam Vander Haar (Melbourne, Australia) is averaging 44.8 yards on four punts while placing 3 inside the 20. Last year he flipped the field with a career-long 70-yarder to the Baylor 3-yard line in BYU's win over the Bears. He also ran 22 yards on a fake punt to convert 4th-&-10.

44 Two BYU players had returns of 44 yards vs. Stanford (Tiger Bachmeier, punt ret. & Cody Hagen kick ret). All-American punt returner Parker Kingston has a long of 31 yards this year vs. Portland St. Last year he returned a punt for a 90-yard TD vs. K-State, BYU's first punt return TD since JD Falslev's 71-yd score vs. Middle Tennessee in 2013. He added a 64-yard punt return for a TD in last year's Alamo Bowl to become the first BYU player with two punts return TDs in a season since James Dye in 1996; just the sixth player in program history with multiple touchdowns on punt returns in a season.

KALANI SITAKE - HEAD COACH

kah-lah-nee
see-tah-kay

YEARS AT BYU: 10th year at BYU (74-43) YEARS OVERALL: 10th year as head coach, 25 years in coaching

Kalani Sitake (kah-lah-nee see-tah-kay) is entering his 10th season overseeing the BYU football program in 2025.

In his 25th overall season as a coach, Sitake leads the program he once played for under legendary Hall of Fame coach LaVell Edwards. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake is the 14th head coach in BYU history and just the fourth since 1972, when Edwards took over the program. Sitake is the first former player under Edwards to be named head coach at BYU.

Sitake and his program moved from the ranks of FBS independents to join the Big 12 Conference in 2023 to take another step forward in the Big 12 Conference. A former Cougar running back (1994, 1997-2000), Sitake has guided BYU to a 72-43 (.626) overall record during his first nine seasons, including an 11-2 record in 2024 while finishing Blg 12 play at 7-2 in a four-way tie for first place atop the conference standings. Sitake has guided BYU to double-digit victory seasons in three of the past five years while achieving a 45-18 (.714) record to boast the No. 8 winning percentage among all FBS coaches in that span.

This past season the American Football Coaches Association named Sitake its 2024 Region 4 Coach of the Year and a finalist for AFCA National Coach of the Year. He was also a semifinallist for the prestigious George Munger Award from the Maxwell Football Club given to the nation's top coach. He was named to the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award Watchlist and the Dodd Trophy Midseason Watch List.

The Cougars finished the year ranked No. 13 in the nation after earned a 36-14 victory over No. 23 Colorado in the Valero Alamo Bowl in front of the most-watched game in the modern era of BYU football with 8 million viewers on ABC—the most-watched bowl game outside of the College Football Playoff in the 2024 season. A capacity crowd of 64,261 also watched the game in person—the second-highest for a Valero Alamo Bowl that did not include a Texas team (other was Oklahoma State and Ohio State in 2004) and the highest attended bowl game outside of the CFP in 2024.

With the invitation to the 2024 Alamo Bowl, Sitake has been part of 15 bowl games during his coaching career. He has been on the winning side 12 times those 15 bowl games, including a 5-2 mark as a head coach at BYU.

Before joining the Big 12 during his tenure in independence, Sitake helped the Cougars achieve notable wins over Arkansas, Baylor, Wisconsin, Michigan State, Mississippi State, Tennessee, USC, Utah, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State and Boise State, among others. He has also championed BYU's Built4Life career development and NIL program. Built4Life is designed to support BYU student-athletes in developing critical life skills, facilitating professional development opportunities and connecting classroom learning directly to relevant employment opportunities.

Named BYU's head coach on December 19, 2015, Sitake returned to his alma mater from Oregon State, where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 2015 under head coach Gary Andersen. Sitake took the helm at BYU after 15 years in the college coaching profession, which included seven seasons serving as a defensive coordinator and four years as an assistant head coach.

Prior to Oregon State, Sitake spent 10 seasons at the University of Utah under head coach Kyle Whittingham, also a former Cougar. Sitake started at Utah in 2005 as the linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009 before also being named assistant head coach in 2012. While at Utah, Sitake coached several Pac-12 and Mountain West Conference honorees, including Morris Trophy winners Star Lotulelei (2011) and Nate Orchard (2014).

During his career, Sitake has helped mentor 33 NFL Draft picks, including 13 Cougars since taking over the program. Last year's draft saw left tackle Kingsley Suamataia selected by the Kansas City Chiefs. In 2023, three Cougars drafted included Blake Freeland (4th round), Jaren Hall (5th round) and Puka Nacua (5th round). Nacua earned All-Pro status while finishing as the Offensive Rookie of the Year runner-up after a record-breaking first season in the league. In 2022, RB Tyler Allgeier went to the Atlanta Falcons, where he set a Falcon's rushing record for a rookie with a 1,000-yard season. Allgeier followed the footsteps of other recent Cougar draft picks under Sitake, such as No. 2 overall pick Zach Wilson and offensive tackle Brady Christensen among five players drafted in the 2021, linebackers Sione Takitaki and Fred Warner in 2019 and 2018 and running back Jamaal Williams in 2017. Among their many accomplishments, Williams, BYU's all-time rushing leader, also rushed for more than 1,000 yards in 2022 while leading the NFL in rushing touchdowns, while Warner again earned All-Pro honors being widely regarded as one of the top linebackers in the NFL.

Sitake began his coaching career in 2001 as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Eastern Arizona before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at BYU in 2002 under Gary Crowton. Sitake then joined the staff at Southern Utah where he coached running backs, tight ends and offensive line during the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

He began his BYU playing career in 1994 prior to serving a two-year mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Oakland, California. After returning and redshirting in 1997, Sitake was a three-year starter at fullback for the Cougars from 1998-2000 under Edwards. A team captain as a senior, Sitake's last game as a player was also the last game coached by the legendary Edwards, who was a great mentor for Sitake.

Born in Nuku'alofa, Tonga, and raised in Laie, Hawai'i and Provo, Utah, Sitake is the nation's first FBS head football coach of Tongan descent. He graduated from BYU in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in English. He and his wife Timberly have four children.
