100 Years of Football

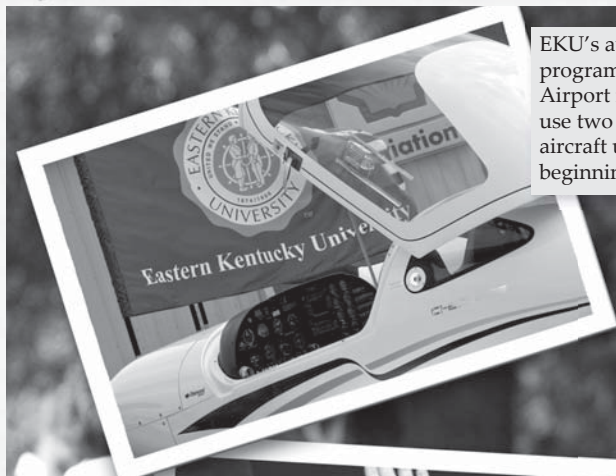

Eastern Kentucky University will celebrate '100 Years of Football: A Century of Excellence' this fall. Some of the planned activities are listed below:

- Announcement of the All-Century team prior during Homecoming weekend (Oct. 16-17)
- Commemorative tickets, coins and helmets
- '100 Years of Football' video
- A specific web page dedicated to '100 Years of Football.' Please check www.EKUSports.com for more details

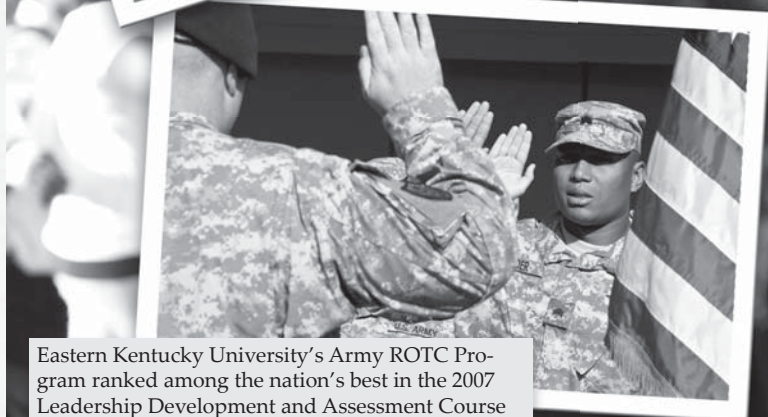

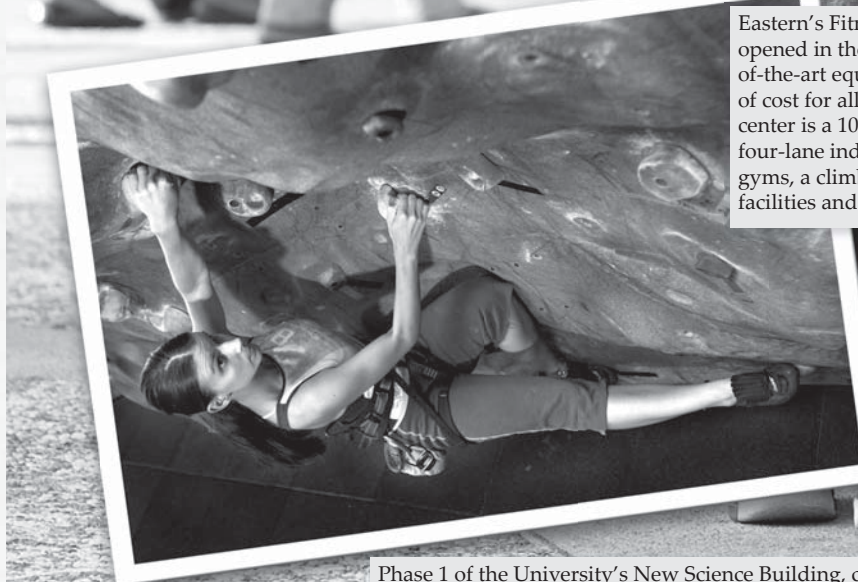

THE UNIVERSITY

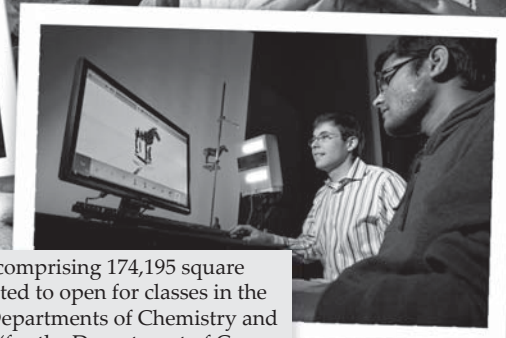

EKU's aviation program, the only university-based program in Kentucky, returned to Madison County Airport in 2008. Students have the opportunity to use two new Diamond DA-20 trainers, the same aircraft used by the U.S. Air Force Academy for beginning flight instruction.

Eastern Kentucky University's Army ROTC Program ranked among the nation's best in the 2007 Leadership Development and Assessment Course (LDAC). Among 132 institutions in the Eastern Region, ECU tied for first in basic rifle marksmanship, tied for second in peer evaluations, ranked 13th on the Army physical fitness test and 23rd in land navigation. In overall leadership, ECU ranked 13th and earned an excellent rating. ECU scored above the national average in every category.

Eastern's Fitness and Wellness Center opened in the fall of 2004 and features state-of-the-art equipment which is available free of cost for all ECU students. Included in the center is a 10,000-square foot weight area, a four-lane indoor track, two multi-purpose gyms, a climbing wall, locker and shower facilities and a lounge area.

Phase 1 of the University's New Science Building, comprising 174,195 square feet at a cost of approximately $64 million, is expected to open for classes in the Fall 2011 semester. The first phase will house the Departments of Chemistry and Physics & Astronomy as well as science education (for the Department of Curriculum and Instruction) classrooms and laboratories.

THE CAMPUS BEAUTIFUL

Eastern Kentucky offers 168 degree programs including a bachelor of science degree in apparel design and merchandising.

Eastern's Program of Distinction is its College of Justice and Safety, which attracts students from all over the world.

CITY OF RICHMOND

Richmond is home to many interesting and convenient activities. Whether it's arts and entertainment, recreation, or shopping and dining out you are looking for, Richmond has it all.

With more than 100 buildings in Richmond on the National Register of Historic Places and three areas on the National Register of Historic Districts, it is one of Kentucky's finest restored 19th Century commercial districts.

Arts and entertainment take center-stage with the Eastern Kentucky University theatre program. They offer several shows each year from classical theatre to modern musicals. Local artistic talents are on display year round at Gallery On Main. This is a perfect showcasing of local talent and an opportunity for community involvement.

There is never any lack of recreational activities in Richmond. An array of parks and recreational centers across the city offers something for everyone. Lake Reba Recreational complex includes golf, little league baseball and softball fields, soccer, fishing and a water park which opened in the summer of 2008.

If it's shopping you want, downtown Richmond can accommodate you. Locally owned businesses line the historic streets of downtown Richmond with everything from fine antiques to exquisite jewelry. There is a wide variety of stores at the brand new Richmond Centre as well. The outdoor mall offers shoppers convenience and style.

Dining isn't hard to find either. Family-owned and major chain restaurants give Richmond a unique variety of menus. Local hot spots include Madison Gardens, which is uniquely Richmond, to restaurants such as Applebee's, Logan's Roadhouse, O'Charley's and Outback Steakhouse. Whatever your pallet craves, Richmond dining offers a variety of tastes made to satisfy.

Never far from mainstream, Richmond offers the comforts of simplicity with the convenience of the city.

Only 29 miles from Lexington and the Bluegrass Airport, Richmond is easily accessible to all travelers. Interstate 75 is a major artery of both state and national motor transportation. Richmond's location on I-75 makes it an important factor in making the city a commercial hub.

In fact, the ease of travel to and from Richmond makes the city an ideal spot for those who enjoy outdoor activities.

Fort Boonesborough State Park is located only 12 miles from ECU's campus, while Natural Bridge State Park (63 miles) and Cumberland Falls State Park (100 miles) are located nearby.

Also within easy driving distance of Richmond are the Kentucky Horse Park, the state capital in Frankfort, Herrington Lake, My Old Kentucky Home at Bardstown, White Hall State Shrine and thoroughbred horse racing at Keeneland.

A Brief Richmond History

Richmond was founded in 1798 by Colonel John Miller, a Revolutionary War soldier. In 1798, the Kentucky Legislature authorized the moving of the Madison County seat from nearby Milford to land owned by Colonel Miller.

The move was bitterly opposed by about 300 residents of the Milford area and a fight to retain the seat resulted between Dave Kennedy, who represented the Milford location, and William Kearly, who represented the new site.

Although history does not record the results of the brawl, the county approved the move in March of 1798 and two acres of land were purchased from Colonel Miller. Court was held in his barn.

On July 4, 1798, the site was officially named Richmond in honor of Miller's birthplace, Richmond, Va.

Valhalla Golf Club in Louisville hosted the 2008 Ryder Cup.

The Kentucky Derby takes place on the first Saturday in May at historic Churchill Downs in Louisville.

The state capital of Frankfort and Lexington are both within an easy hour drive from campus.

The National Corvette Museum is located in Bowling Green.

UNBRIDLED SPIRIT

ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

On Dec. 14, 2005, Eastern Kentucky University announced the creation of an Athletics Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame's mission is to commemorate and honor student-athletes, other individuals and teams whose accomplishments have contributed to the esteemed tradition of Colonel Athletics and whose character has reflected positively on the University.

The inaugural class of the ECU Athletics Hall of Fame, featuring 38 distinguished individuals, was inducted during an evening ceremony on Nov. 3, 2006, in the Keen Johnson Ballroom. Almost 300 people attended the induction ceremony. The honorees were also recognized prior to ECU's home football game against Murray State the following day.

The inaugural class was comprised of The Founders, a group of 25 who were previously honored at the 1974 Centennial Athletics Awards Banquet, and 13 members who were chosen by a selection committee.

The Department of Athletics accepts nominations for the Hall of Fame on a rolling basis. Nominations must be received by March 1 to be considered for that year's class.

This year's induction ceremony will be held on Friday, Oct. 30 with the inductees also honored the next day at the home football game against Southeast Missouri.

Including the 2009 induction class, there are 23 football players enshrined in the ECU Athletics Hall of Fame – Chad Bratzke, Jimmie Brooks, Charles Bryant, Wally Chambers, Danny Copeland, Don Daly, Fred Darling, George Floyd, Jim Guice, Myron Guyton, John Jackson, Aaron Jones, Roy Kidd, Roy King, Aaron Marsh, Buddy Pfaadt, Charles Shuster, Everett Talbert, Teddy Taylor, Markus Thomas, J.W. "Spider" Thurman, Cliff Tinnell and Fred Troike.

Please visit www.EKUSports.com for more details or a nomination form.

Josh Anderson – Baseball

Danny Copeland – Football

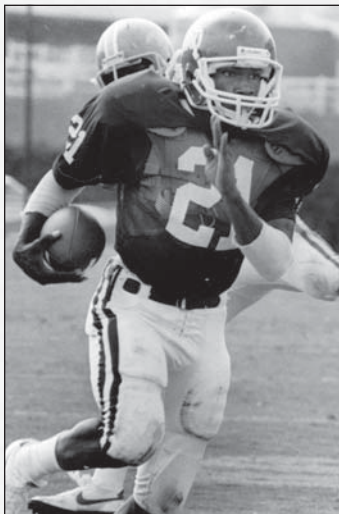

Kim Mays – Women's Basketball

Ralph Richardson – Men's Basketball

Kim Sarrazin – Softball

Everett Talbert – Football

1979 national championship football team – Team of Distinction

Danny Copeland (1984-87)

Everett Talbert (1973-76)

Joined by former ECU Athletics Hall of Fame player and coach Roy Kidd, football stand-outs (l-r) Fred Troike, John Jackson and Markus Thomas were a part of the 2008 ECU Athletics Hall of Fame class.

History of the Colonel

Eastern Kentucky University athletic teams were known as the Maroons until 1966 and even survived one attempt to alter the school mascot to the Leopards.

In 1963, Eastern Kentucky University President Robert Martin was at a loss as to how he could create a physical "Maroon" to excite the audience. A man of vision and intelligence, Martin began searching for a mascot that would embody the glorious Bluegrass State.

He found it in the honorable Kentucky Colonel.

The military title of "Colonel" had begun being used as an honorary title in the state by the late 1800s and by 1931 the now-famous Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels had been formed.

The finger-lickin' Colonel Harlan D. Sanders himself was inducted in 1935.

Like Minutemen of Massachusetts and Sooners of Oklahoma, the Kentucky breed of Colonel was a unique symbol of the state and so Martin selected it to accompany the school color as Eastern's mascot.

Further cementing the connection with Eastern was the fact that Centre College's mascot was already the Colonel and a faction of that school had occupied the Richmond campus before Eastern's founding.

ECU unveiled a new set of athletic logos in the spring of 2006 and followed by designing a new mascot that was ready for the 2006 football season.

SEASON OUTLOOK

The Eastern Kentucky University football team has its sights set on a third straight Ohio Valley Conference title in 2009. It has been more than 20 years since an OVC team accomplished that feat. Not surprisingly, ECU was the last OVC team to win back-to-back-to-back titles from 1986 to 1988.

"What we did last year will have no bearing on what we are going to do this year," Eastern Kentucky head coach Dean Hood said. "If we don't have the right perspective, it could actually hurt us. What will determine if we can win in 2009 is how hard we work, the chemistry we have within the team and how much the players trust the coaches."

For the current group of Colonels to win a third consecutive title, the team will have to lean on a new quarterback and replace more than half of the 2008 starting defensive unit.

Eastern's offense came on strong towards the end of the season last year under new offensive coordinator Mike Springston. The Colonels scored at least 29 points in five of the final six regular season games, including a season-best 38 points in a victory over nationally-ranked Jacksonville State on Oct. 11. Balance was a premium for the offense as ECU averaged 32.4 rushes and 28.7 pass attempts per game in 2008.

"The thing I noticed about the offense in the spring is the huge improvement in our line," Hood said. "Overall, our offensive line has more depth and played much more physical [than the previous fall]. That unit may even be our biggest strength this season."

Hood, who also serves as the defensive coordinator, employs a 4-3 defensive scheme that emphasizes technique and gap responsibility. Eastern Kentucky forced a league-high 32 turnovers one year ago, including five in the regular season finale at UT Martin, which helped determine the OVC champion.

"We are going to need guys to step up on the interior of the defensive line and at safety – right down the middle of the defense," Hood said. "We lost three of our top inside defensive linemen from last year and we don't have a safety who has ever played a snap in this defense."

Quarterbacks

The biggest story line for Eastern heading into preseason camp is the battle at the quarterback position. Several candidates, led by sophomore Trevor Hoskins and redshirt freshman T.J. Pryor, are responsible for filling the shoes left behind by 2007 OVC Offensive Player of the Year Allan Holland. Hoskins has seen limited action behind center in his two years as a Colonel, while Pryor used his redshirt season in 2008.

The two quarterbacks split time during the spring session with Pryor earning a slight edge heading into preseason camp due to his performance in the spring scrimmage. Pryor completed 13-of-20 passes for 202 yards and two scores while rushing for 48 more yards and another touchdown against the defense. Meanwhile, Hoskins was held to a 50 percent completion rate with two interceptions.

"Both players had up-and-down springs kind of like the stock market," Hood said. "But overall their performances steadily improved throughout the spring."

Junior Cody Watts, one of the most athletic players on the team, could be used under center although the coaching staff would prefer to keep him outside as a wide receiver. Marshall University transfer Chris Smith may also be in the mix depending on how quickly he learns the offensive system.

Running Backs

C.J. Walker is one of the top returning ball carriers in the OVC. The senior paced the Colonels with 706 rushing yards and seven touchdowns in 2008, which was his first year as the starting running back. Walker's 229 yards on the ground in the win over Murray State last season was the best rushing performance by a Colonel in more than four years.

"We looked really good in this area during the spring, but due to some injuries, the running back position could be an area of concern for us this fall," Hood said.

Junior Aaron Bradley was hoping to compete for the starting job until he suffered a knee injury in the spring scrimmage. Bradley went down with a knee injury early in the 2008 campaign as well. He was hurt in the season opener at Cincinnati and proceeded to miss the ensuing three games. When healthy, Bradley gives the Colonels one of the top running back combinations in the OVC.

Bradley will likely miss most, if not all, of the 2009 season which means sophomore H.B. Banjoman has to fill the void. Banjoman is bigger than both Walker and Bradley, but is still blessed with a deceptive amount of speed. Even though he was utilized mainly on special teams last year, Banjoman tallied 43 rushing attempts as a freshman, including 14 in the victory over Murray State.

Senior Phillip Herbst will fill the fullback role in short-yardage situations.

Wide Receivers

Eastern Kentucky's spread option attack often employs four wide receivers at a time and luckily the Colonels have plenty of depth at that position. Senior Garnett Phelps along with juniors Evan Cromer, Shannon Davis and Watts are all expected to be major contributors to the offense this year.

Phelps led Eastern with a season-high 62 receiving yards in the 2008 NCAA playoff game at Richmond. His 48-yard reception in the second quarter against the Spiders set up Eastern Kentucky's lone touchdown. Statistically speaking, Davis is the team's top returning pass catcher. The speedy wide out, who also runs for the track team, finished second on the squad in receptions (36) and receiving yards (479) in 2008. In the spring game, Davis recorded four catches for a game-high 94 yards, including a 50-yard touchdown catch.

Junior Cody Watts (#5) and senior Derek Hardman would enjoy celebrating a few more touchdowns together in 2009.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Watts moved to wide receiver a year ago after spending his first two seasons as a quarterback. This versatile player hauled in a 61-yard touchdown reception against Cincinnati in his first game at wide out last year as well as two touchdown catches in the 2008 OVC championship game at UT Martin. Cromer, who missed most of the spring season with a back injury, hopes to regain his form from his freshman year when he posted 25 catches for 233 yards.

"I think Evan Cromer will be our comeback player of the year," Hood said. "He was a ghost at times last year, but I see a sparkle in his eye this season."

There are numerous other players looking to push the starters for some action at the edges including junior Ryan Aldrin and redshirt freshmen Tyrone Goard and Orlandus Harris. A hamstring injury bothered Aldrin through much of the spring, but he should be ready for the start of preseason camp. One addition to the team, Syracuse transfer Trey Fairchild, is hoping to fit in the mix at the inside receiver position.

Offensive Linemen

Four of the five starters on the 2008 offensive line are back for another year together which should make this unit one of the strongest in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Senior left tackle Derek Hardman, who enters the year with 35 consecutive starts, anchors the group. Hardman is expected to push for All-American honors this fall and has already been noted by NFL.com as one of the top Division I FCS offensive tackles eligible for the 2010 NFL Draft.

"We are certainly going to miss Sammy Reid at center, but Hardman gives the line a leader to follow," Hood said.

Two other seniors – Michael Howard and Andre Barbour – join Hardman on the starting offensive line. Howard will play center this year after splitting time between right guard and right tackle in 2008. Barbour, a transfer from North Carolina, saw action in every game last year while starting the final five contests at right tackle.

Junior Chris Krack rounds out the returning starters at left guard. Krack started all 12 games as a sophomore and helped the Colonels eclipse 300 yards of total offense seven times last fall.

Junior Shannon Davis has the ability to stretch defenses deep down the field.

Two redshirt freshmen appear to be in the running for the final starting position at right guard. O.J. Enabosi and Paul Henry will most likely battle for the starting spot throughout preseason camp.

Junior Tejon Washington, sophomores Josh Miller and Wesley Woods, and redshirt freshmen Aaron Adams and Patrick Ford give this unit plenty of quality depth.

Defensive Linemen

Lots of changes will be evident in the 2009 defensive line. Gone are three of the top four interior linemen plus two-time All-OVC pick Chris Coy.

Junior Andrew Soucy, the lone returnee in the middle of the line, has the potential to earn all-league honors. His coming out party in 2008 came at Tennessee Tech when he tallied an interception and fumble deep in TTU territory which quickly led to 10 Colonel points. Soucy finished with 9.5 tackles for loss as a sophomore, including three in the NCAA playoff game at Richmond.

"Soucy didn't get a lot of mention last year because he was a young player, but he's a really good player," Hood said. "Hopefully, these other guys will rise up and help him."

Sophomore Emory Attig, West Virginia transfer Uriah Grant and Eastern Michigan transfer David Dick are names the coaching staff think could fill the rest of the rotation in the middle of the trenches. Attig missed a significant portion of last year's schedule with a broken foot, but is completely healthy heading into preseason camp.

A handful of names were mentioned by Coach Hood that could make some noise on the line's edge. Senior Chris Hall, another all-league candidate, is a match-up problem for the opposition due to his size and speed on the outside. He led ECU in sacks (six) and tackles for loss (13) one year ago. In the pivotal regular season finale at UT Martin, Hall produced one of his best games of the year with 3.5 tackles for loss.

Junior Yameen Thomas has a wealth of potential, but is still looking to turn his talents into successful game day performances. Thomas, along with sophomore David Ogunlari, redshirt freshman Chris Cunningham and senior Josh Turner will battle for playing time at defensive end as well.

Linebackers

For the second straight year, there will be a noticeable turnover at the linebacker position. Two of the three starters from the 2008 team were seniors while another key reserve was also a senior.

Junior Jordan Dalrymple is the lone constant in this unit. He started nine games at the weakside position last year, but is expected to move into the middle in 2009. Dalrymple finished fourth on the team in tackles (68) as a sophomore and sealed the 38-35 win over Jacksonville State with his first career interception with two minutes left in the game.

Fellow junior Antonio Fredrick saw plenty of action on the field last season with two starts and double-figure tackles in three games. This hard hitter could move into a full-time starting role this year at weakside linebacker.

Senior Jake Tamaska, a converted fullback, and Toledo transfer Tyson Patrick will most likely see some playing time at the inside linebacker positions as well.

One of the most critical positions in the Colonel defense is the strongside linebacker. Tyjuan Jones filled the role admirably in 2008 with team highs in tackles (102) and forced fumbles (four).

"Most of the other positions have to be good at one or two things," Hood said. "Our strongside linebacker has to rush the passer, drop into zone coverage and play man coverage. Because we ask that person to do so many things, that's what it makes it such an important position."

Sophomore Chris Moore and redshirt freshman Nick Vicini got plenty of repetitions at this position in the spring. The duo combined for nine tackles in the spring game. Those two players plus transfer Jasper Williams will most likely be in the hunt for the starting spot this fall. Williams spent a year playing at Air Force Academy Prep before transferring to Mississippi State.

Defensive Backs

Unlike most teams, the ECU defense relies on the defensive backs to call the coverage and schemes for the entire unit. The Colonels have both starting corner backs from 2008 returning, but have to fill a gaping hole at safety due to the losses of all-conference performers Brandon Gathof and Zach Denton.

Sophomore Patrick McClellan, junior Marcus Williams and junior Robert Dees are the likely candidates to step into the starting rotation at safety. McClellan looked like he was going to have a productive season as a reserve defensive back and special team's standout last year until he injured his knee in the season opener. He returned to action this spring and impressed the coaching staff with his instincts and work ethic.

Williams is a transfer from Coach Hood's previous team, Wake Forest. He played corner for the Demon Deacons, but because of his knowledge of the defense, he has changed positions to help fill the void at safety. Dees has steadily improved his play at Eastern and has the chance to earn the starting role as well.

The Colonels have numerous athletic players at corner back led by sophomore Jeremy Caldwell. As a redshirt freshman, Caldwell started 10 games and returned a fourth quarter interception 66 yards for a score to seal the win at Southeast Missouri. He also tallied an interception and six tackles in the NCAA playoff game at Richmond.

"We went into last season with a bunch of rookies and puppies at corner," Hood said. "Those guys got battle tested and better every week. Now, they have gone through another spring together and I think they could be the most improved unit on the defense."

Senior Andre Evans and junior Jaren Gooden will battle for the other starting corner back spot. Both players saw significant time on the field one year ago and should again in 2009.

Special Teams

The coaching staff is hopeful that junior Logan O'Connor, who handled the punting and kick-off duties as a sophomore, will be used only as the placekicker this season. O'Connor split time with Taylor Long as the field goal kicker two years ago with O'Connor handling most of the long-range attempts. He nailed 3-of-6 field goal attempts, including a 48-yarder at Murray State, in 2007.

Redshirt freshman Jason Nicholson and Aussie newcomer Jordan Berry will push for the starting punting role.

Senior Jacob Claycomb will be in his third year as a starting long snapper. Claycomb, also the team's best holder, could be used as a holder in field goal situations if the team can identify a short snapper. Redshirt freshman Jonathan Sharp might be able to fill that role for the Colonels.

Numerous players are in the running for kick-off return duties including junior Shannon Davis, sophomore Jeremy Caldwell and redshirt freshman Orlandus Harris.

Heading into fall camp, the punt return spot is up for grabs. Caldwell and senior Garnett Phelps split time returning punts in 2008.

Senior Chris Hall and junior Andrew Soucy (#99) are two important pieces on the Colonel defensive line.

The Schedule

The 2009 schedule could be one of the most challenging in recent ECU history.

For the second consecutive year, Eastern opens the 11-game schedule on a Thursday night (Sept. 3), this time at BCS member Indiana. This will be the first meeting between ECU and the Hoosiers as well as Eastern's first ever contest against a Big Ten opponent.

Following an open weekend, the Colonels open their home schedule against OVC-foe Tennessee Tech on Sept. 19. The Saturday night game will be the first on Eastern Kentucky's new synthetic turf surface.

After two more road games at Murray State (Sept. 26) and Eastern Illinois (Oct. 3), ECU returns to Roy Kidd Stadium against Tennessee State on Oct. 10. The Tigers handed Eastern its lone OVC loss one year ago, a 34-20 decision in Nashville.

"I think the conference is better due to the overall play at the quarterback position," Hood said. "We are going to play as hard as we can and see what happens regardless of whom or where we are playing."

Homecoming could turn out to be the most exciting contest of the season. The Colonels host UT Martin on Oct. 17 in a rematch of last year's OVC title game. Eastern Kentucky is 19-0 all-time against the Skyhawks, but survived 33-31 last fall thanks to a blocked field goal attempt on the final play of regulation.

Games against conference opponents Austin Peay (Oct. 24) and Southeast Missouri (Oct. 31) round out the month of October.

The Colonels then step out of OVC action for two games against Kentucky (Nov. 7) and Western Carolina (Nov. 14). This will be just the third ever meeting between ECU and UK. Eastern is 3-1 all-time against Western Carolina, a member of the Southern Conference, including a 45-21 victory two years ago.

Finally, Eastern Kentucky wraps up the regular season at OVC rival Jacksonville State on Nov. 21. The two teams have split six meetings since the Gamecocks joined the OVC in 2003.

Colonels in the Community

Despite all of the athletic and academic demands placed on Colonel football players, they still find the time to give back to the community that supports them as their way of saying thanks.

During the 2008-09 school year, the Colonels were involved with numerous community service projects including Habitat for Humanity, Richmond Police Department youth camp, reading days at local elementary schools, ECU move-in day, American Red Cross Heroes Campaign, Kingston Elementary's Dad Breakfast, Bowl for Kids Sake, B. Michael Caudill Middle School football camp and the Empty Bowls Project sponsored by First Baptist Church.

This past spring, the football team's blood drive collected more than 110 pints of blood in its most successful blood drive to date. In late April, 12 players along with assistant coach John Revere spent an evening spreading joy at the Shriners Hospital for Children in Lexington.

The Empty Bowls project helped raise money to feed the hungry in Madison County through numerous food bank organizations. The Bowl for Kids Sake event raised money to support the local chapter of Big Brothers, Big Sisters.

Dean Hood

Title: Head Coach

Year at ECU: Second season (8-4)

Alma Mater: Ohio Wesleyan, 1986

- ◆ 2008 OVC Coach of the Year
- ◆ 2008 Eddie Robinson Award Finalist

The expectations for the Eastern Kentucky University football team always seem to be high and in 2008, first year head coach Dean Hood delivered as the Colonels claimed their 20th Ohio Valley Conference title. The challenge in 2009 will be for Eastern to replace 10 starters, including seven all-conference performers.

"It doesn't matter if you are coaching a game in Death Valley versus Clemson or here versus Morehead State," Hood said. "It's all the same. The kids are starting to understand that point and the culture we are trying to create at ECU. They can't play to the best of their athletic ability until they know exactly where they are supposed to be and what they are supposed to do on the field."

Hood, 45, took over ECU program in January 2008 after working at Wake Forest University for seven seasons. Under Hood's direction, the Wake Forest defense was known for creating turnovers and scoring touchdowns. The Demon Deacons forced 186 turnovers from 2001-07, more than two per game. In 2007, Wake Forest led the Atlantic Coast Conference with 35 turnovers forced on its way to going 9-4 and capturing the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

"Dean Hood is a wonderful blend of several characteristics we were looking for in a head coach," ECU Director of Athletics Mark Sandy said. "He's a great teacher, excellent recruiter, a person of high character, and someone who has been part of the ECU football heritage."

From 1994-98, Hood spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky under College Football Hall of Fame coach Roy Kidd. He served all five years as the secondary coach and the last two seasons as the defensive coordinator. In Hood's first stint at ECU, the Colonels captured two Ohio Valley Conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Division I FCS playoffs three times.

"This was a big deal for me," Eastern Kentucky University President Dr. Doug Whitlock said. "I have been an Eastern football fan for almost 50 years; so I wanted us to find someone who would fit in with the community, had the kind of values that our football program has traditionally been built upon, and hopefully had been a part of the ECU football tradition. And, yes, we wanted someone who has been and will be a winner. Dean Hood fills all those particulars."

At Wake Forest, Hood and the rest of the Demon Deacons broke every program record imaginable in 2006 and set many other milestones. WFU won the ACC title for the first time since 1970 by shattering the program record with 11 victories. The Demon Deacons earned a berth in a BCS bowl game, taking on Louisville in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

Much of the credit for Wake Forest's 2006 league championship fell to the defense. The Demon Deacons allowed just 15.4 ppg to rank second in the ACC and 21st nationally. Against the run, Wake yielded just 105.8 yards per game to rank 21st nationally, the third lowest total in Wake Forest history. Against the pass, the Demon Deacons recorded 22 interceptions, second most in the nation.

Hood's defenders earned All-ACC mention 14 times. That list includes four NFL draft picks – Calvin Pace, Montique Sharpe, Eric King and Josh Gattis.

Hood entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Fairmont (W.Va.) State College, where he worked with the defensive backs during the 1987 and 1988 seasons. The 1988 team won the WVIAC championship and led the nation with 31 interceptions. Hood then spent the 1989 campaign at Colgate University.

From 1990-93, Hood coached at Glenville (W.Va.) State College, the last three of which he served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. In 1993, Glenville finished 10-3 and advanced to the NAIA Division I championship game. Also that year, Hood's defense led the nation in scoring defense (9.2 ppg), passing defense (118.0 ypg), and total defense (223.0 ypg).

Hood moved to Ohio University for two years (1999-2000) where he met current Wake Forest head coach Jim Grobe. At Ohio, Hood was in charge of the defensive backs. That unit recorded 17 interceptions in 1999, the most in more than a decade. The following year, Ohio ranked 20th nationally in scoring defense (18.9 points per game) as the Bobcat defense was one of only five units in Division I-A that did not allow more than 30 points in a game throughout the entire season.

This is Hood's first head coaching position and he is just the third ECU head football coach in the last 44 years.

COACHING STAFF

"Knowing first-hand what Coach Kidd built here, this is one of the best jobs in the country," Hood said. "I remember when I was here the first time thinking how many guys in the history of athletics are still coaching in a facility named after them. That is rare. It is exciting to be at the helm of this program."

"Dean is a tremendous role model for our student-athletes," Sandy said. "He has worked with two of the best people who have ever served as mentors for young men – Roy Kidd and Jim Grobe. I am sure our current players, recruits, and fans will be impressed."

Hood was a three-time All-North Coast Athletic Conference selection during his playing days at Ohio Wesleyan University. He was also named a first team All-American defensive back during his senior year and served as team captain his final two seasons. The native of Ashtabula, Ohio, was inducted into the OWU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

Hood graduated from Ohio Wesleyan in 1986 with a degree in biology. He went on to earn a master's in physical education from West Virginia University in 1989.

"We are very excited to be back," Hood said. "My wife is from here and we are happy to have our kids near her family. I am looking forward to the challenge of being Eastern's head coach. As you progress in this profession, you always think about doing things your own way. This is a chance to implement those thoughts."

Hood is married to the former Crystal Ramsey of Richmond, Ky. The couple has four children – two sons, Trey and Daven, and two daughters, Jada and Cordia.

What Others Are Saying About Dean Hood

"It doesn't get any better than Dean Hood. He is not only a great football coach, but just as good a person. He was invaluable to our success at Wake. He not only did a great job with our defense, but more importantly, was a great team member. Dean is totally unselfish and his whole concern is with the well-being of the players. He has the ability to get kids to be real good football players on the field and also to be great citizens off the field. We'll miss Dean, but I couldn't be happier for him."

--Jim Grobe, Head Coach, Wake Forest University

"It was an honor to play for Coach Hood. I can't say enough good things about him. He is an unbelievable coach and a great person. As someone who played for him and who is now a coach, I can tell you how much he cares for and takes care of his players both on and off the field. He is a tireless worker and has a great family. EKU did a great job in hiring Dean Hood, he is a great fit."

--Bob Head, played three years for Coach Hood at EKU, 1994-96, DB

"Coach Hood is one of the best defensive minds in the game. He coached me and taught me about life. He is very enthusiastic and works hard. Coach Hood is a family guy who cares about his players and coaches."

--Tony Gibson, Assistant Head Coach/Secondary, University of Michigan

"Dean Hood is a good person and a solid football coach. He is really enthusiastic and works very hard at recruiting. I remember when he was here how encouraging he was to the guys on the sideline."

--Roy Kidd, Former Head Coach, Eastern Kentucky University, 1964-2002

Dane Damron

Title: Tight Ends/Special Teams Coach
Year at EKU: First season
Alma Mater: Georgetown College, 1994

Dane Damron rejoined the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff in January. He will serve as the special teams and tight ends coach this fall.

Damron most recently served as Kentucky Christian's head football coach. He spent three years building the program at Kentucky Christian which culminated with the school's first-ever varsity football season in 2008.

"When you are a head coach at the collegiate or high school level, you have to know how to coach a little bit of everything," Hood said. "Dane has an extensive football background and we're excited to have him as a part of our staff."

Damron began his collegiate coaching career at Eastern Kentucky in 1995. He served two years as a graduate assistant and wide receivers coach under Roy Kidd. Damron earned his master's degree in sports administration from EKU in 1996.

Following a coaching stint at Morehead State, Damron moved to the high school ranks where he coached for nine years. From 2002-05, he was the head coach of Boyd County where he helped the Lions advance to the second round of the KHSAA playoffs three straight years.

Damron played collegiate football at Georgetown College from 1990-94. The quarterback was a two-time NAIA All-American and led the Tigers to the 1991 NAIA national championship.

Damron and his wife Delisha have two children – Hanna (9) and Derek (5).

Garry Fisher

Title: Linebackers Coach

Year at ECU: First season

Alma Mater: Bowling Green, 2002

Garry Fisher joined the ECU coaching staff in March. He will serve as the linebackers coach in 2009.

Fisher, a native of Columbus, Ohio, spent the previous year as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Kentucky State.

"We're certainly very excited to have Garry on staff," Eastern Kentucky head coach Dean Hood said. "He came highly recommended and with his extensive defensive background, especially at the linebacker position, this seemed like the perfect fit for us."

Fisher was a four-year letterwinner at Bowling Green (1998-01) as an outside linebacker before transitioning into the Falcons coaching ranks in 2002. After serving two years as a defensive assistant at BGSU, Fisher moved to Utah where he served as an offensive assistant for the 2004 Mountain West Conference and 2005 Fiesta Bowl champions. At both of his first two coaching jobs, Fisher served under current Florida head coach Urban Meyer.

Following a one-year stint at Heidelberg College (2005) as the special teams coordinator, Fisher landed at Shenandoah University for two years (2006-07) as the defensive coordinator.

Fisher graduated from Bowling Green State University in 2002 with a degree in sociology. He then earned his master's degree in exercise and sport science from the University of Utah in 2006.

Fisher has two children – Amari (five) and Rece (three). He is engaged to Lucretia Hughes who has one child – Tseday (six).

Tony Hatmaker

Title: Defensive Backs Coach

Year at ECU: Second season

Alma Mater: Union College, 1993

Tony Hatmaker is in his second year on the Eastern Kentucky staff and is in charge of the Colonel defensive backs.

The ECU secondary accounted for 16 interceptions last year, helping the Colonels finish with a plus-14 turnover ratio. However, Eastern heads into the 2009 season having to replace two all-conference safeties as both Brandon Gathof and Zach Denton concluded their ECU careers last fall.

"Tony is a tireless worker who pays attention to detail and coaches with a lot of energy and passion," head coach Dean Hood said. "We are excited about him being a part of our staff."

Hatmaker's résumé includes more than 10 years of collegiate coaching experience. From 2005-06, he served as the assistant head football coach at Southeastern Louisiana. Hatmaker coached the linebackers, offensive line, snappers, punter and kickers as well as served as the NFL liaison in his two years with the Lions. Two of the three starting linebackers came away with all-conference honors in 2005.

Hatmaker also spent six years on the staff at Southwest Baptist (Mo.) University. He was the defensive coordinator for five of those seasons and helped the Bearcats earn their first winning record in 10 seasons in 2001. Southwest Baptist then recorded a program-record 18 interceptions in 2002. While at Southwest Baptist, Hatmaker logged three seasons (1999-01) as the head softball coach as well.

The Kentucky native began his coaching career in 1992 at Union (Ky.) College after playing four years as an outside linebacker for the Bulldogs. Hatmaker was a four-year starter at Union and twice earned all-district honors. In addition to playing football, he was the starting catcher for the baseball team and helped the Bulldogs win their first championship since 1976.

Hatmaker and his wife, Laura, have two sons – Abe (2) and Tyler (infant).

Ben Hodges

Title: Wide Receivers Coach

Year at ECU: Fourth season

Alma Mater: Central College (Iowa), 2006

Ben Hodges is in his fourth year on the Colonel coaching staff and second year coaching the wide receivers.

"We felt like Ben was the best available person around to coach our wide receivers and he hasn't done anything at all to disappoint," head coach Dean Hood said. "He studies the game and wants to be a good football coach. I think he has a very bright future in the business."

There will be plenty of competition at the wide receiver position this fall. Four receivers return to the roster that posted at least 10 catches in 2008. Junior Cody Watts led ECU with five touchdown catches one year ago while junior Shannon Davis tallied 36 receptions, which ranked second on the team. Senior Garnett Phelps and junior Evan Cromer give the Colonels experience and depth on the outside.

In his first two years on staff as an offensive assistant, Hodges worked with the tight ends and also served as the video coordinator.

Hodges came to the Colonels from Central College in Iowa where he served as a student assistant for four seasons. While at Central, he helped the Dutch capture two Iowa Conference championships. In 2005, Central went 9-1 in the regular season to advance to the NCAA Division III playoffs.

Hodges spent much of his time at Central breaking down opponent film and putting together scouting reports. He was the scout team coordinator while assisting with the linebackers for three years and the offensive line for a season.

A 2006 summa cum laude graduate of Central College, Hodges earned his bachelor of arts degree in economics. He completed his master's degree in sports administration from ECU in December 2007.

Former Eastern Kentucky players Allan Holland (offensive) and Jules Montinar (defensive) will serve as the Colonel graduate assistant coaches in 2009.

Holland is beginning his first season as a graduate assistant.

The native of Hazard, Ky., was named 2007 OVC Offensive Player of the Year after leading the Colonels to their first league title in 10 years. The quarterback finished his ECU career with 4,695 passing yards which ranks third in program history.

Montinar is now in his second season as a graduate assistant. The former ECU linebacker played in all 12 games with nine starts in 2008. He finished fourth on the squad with 72 tackles and equaled a personal high with 10 stops at Western Kentucky. The native of Naples, Fla., was also the special teams captain as a senior.

Carson Jeffers

Title: Offensive Line Coach

Year at ECU: Second season

Alma Mater: Concord College (W.Va.), 1997

Carson Jeffers is in his second year on the Eastern coaching staff. He will serve as the offensive line coach and director of operations in 2009 after working as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator one season ago.

The ECU offensive line returns four starters including 2008 All-OVC tackle Derek Hardman.

"Carson came very highly recommended by a variety of people who have seen him coach several positions," Eastern head football coach Dean Hood said. "He has been on both sides of the ball as well as special teams. Carson is a great addition to our staff."

Jeffers has worked at five colleges throughout the South before arriving at ECU. For three years, Jeffers served on the coaching staff at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss. The 2006 Wolfpack captured the Mississippi Junior College South Division title and went on to defeat Georgia Military College in the Golden Isle Bowl. In 2007, Jeffers was promoted from offensive line coach to co-offensive coordinator.

Jeffers was also the offensive coordinator at the University of Charleston (W.Va.) (2003), where he worked with Eastern Kentucky offensive coordinator Mike Springston, and Cumberland University (1998). For three-and-a-half years, Jeffers was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of the South (1999-02).

He began his collegiate coaching career in 1995 at his alma mater, Concord College. During his football career, Jeffers was honored as an all-conference player and a Dean's List student. He proceeded to earn his master's degree in education from Cumberland University in 2000.

Jeffers is married to the former Lauren Newton of Ripley, W.Va. The couple has a one-year old son – Kaden Blake Jeffers.

Jake Johnson

Title: Defensive Line Coach

Year at ECU: Sixth season

Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 2002

Former Colonel Jake Johnson is in his sixth season on the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff and fifth as the team's defensive line coach.

"I'm very impressed with Jake's command of things at such a young age," head coach Dean Hood said. "Players enjoy being around him and work hard for him."

Two of the four starters from 2008 are returning to the defensive line this fall. Senior Chris Hall led Eastern with six sacks and 13 tackles for loss one year ago. Meanwhile, junior Andrew Soucy was a force in the interior of the line last season with 33 total tackles and nine tackles for loss. One other key contributor will be back in uniform to give the line some added depth – junior Yameen Thomas who started three games at defensive end and chipped in with three sacks.

After graduating from Eastern in 2002 with a bachelor of arts degree in geography with an emphasis in global studies, Johnson spent a year at Wingate University as an assistant coach. His duties there included serving as the Bulldogs' full-time tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach, while also aiding in player recruitment and game-day planning. Johnson then returned to Eastern Kentucky in 2004 as a graduate assistant coach.

A three-year starting offensive lineman during his collegiate career, Johnson garnered All-Ohio Valley Conference accolades at center in 2001. That same year, Johnson served as the Colonels' offensive team captain and was named the squad's offensive lineman of the year.

Johnson earned four letters from 1997-2001 and was a freshman on the 1997 Colonel team which captured an OVC championship. He found success on and off the field at ECU, earning two spots on the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll and five Colonel Scholar awards.

Johnson married the former Kate Lyon, a four-year volleyball letterwinner at Eastern who was named team co-MVP in 2000, in the summer of 2007.

John Revere

Title: Running Backs Coach

Year at EKU: 13th season

Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 1976

If anybody ever fit the description "life-long Colonel," it's John Revere. He played for the Colonels from 1972-75 before returning to his alma mater as a member of the coaching staff 13 years ago.

"John Revere, by far, has recruited more people in our two-deep to this program than any other coach," head coach Dean Hood said. "He is a knowledgeable person that can and has coached several different positions on the field."

Over the past decade, Revere has spent time coaching the wide receivers and running backs. This will be the fifth consecutive year he will be in charge of the running backs, a position which could be an area of concern for Eastern Kentucky this fall.

Eastern has a potential all-conference performer returning in the form of senior C.J. Walker. Walker posted the most rushing yards of any Colonel last year including a personal-high 229 yards in a win over Murray State. However, EKU's depth at running back will be tested due to junior Aaron Bradley's knee injury which occurred during the spring game. Bradley was expected to compete with Walker for the top running back position.

Besides his coaching duties, Revere serves as a liaison for housing, meals and walk-on players.

Prior to returning to Eastern, Revere was an assistant coach at LaGrange (Ga.) High School from 1982 to 1996. There he coached six players that went on to NFL careers including Walt Harris (San Francisco 49ers), Tyrone Poole (Oakland Raiders), Quentin McCord (Atlanta Falcons), John Johnson (San Francisco 49ers), Tony Stargell (New York Jets) and Marty Carter (Detroit Lions).

Revere has also had a hand in developing several professional players while coaching at Eastern Kentucky. Alex Bannister, a wide receiver with the Super Bowl XL participant Seattle Seahawks, learned under Revere. Dialleo Burks, who also played for Revere at LaGrange High School, went on to play for the Dallas Desperados in the Arena League, while Corey Crume went on to play for the Saskatchewan Rough Riders in the Canadian Football League.

On the recruiting front, Revere's tireless work along with his countless high school contacts have helped land numerous successful student-athletes at Eastern. Among Revere's standout recruits are Antwaun Molden, a third round pick of the Houston Texans in the 2008 draft, and Sean Dumford, a 2008 free agent signee with the Baltimore Ravens. Some of his other former recruits include Larry Turner, a seventh round selection of the St. Louis Rams in the 2004 draft, Terry Ennis, who inked a contract with the British Columbia Lions of the CFL and former Colonel linebacker Justen Rivers, the 2004 OVC Defensive Player of the Year.

Revere was a standout during his collegiate playing career, starting at flanker for four seasons under legendary EKU head coach Roy Kidd. During those four years, he hauled in 95 passes for 1,501 yards and 13 scores. He also rushed 53 times for 419 yards and two touchdowns. A dangerous punt and kickoff return man, Revere tallied 459 career yards on 65 punt returns while racking up 1,212 yards and a touchdown on 59 kick-off returns.

Revere was honored as a first team All-OVC selection during his junior season after earning second team all-league accolades

COACHING STAFF

Mike Springston

Title: Offensive Coordinator/QBs Coach

Year at ECU: Second season

Alma Mater: West Virginia Tech, 1981

Mike Springston, who has 10 years of head coaching experience, joined the Eastern Kentucky coaching staff as the offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008.

"Mike and I worked together in the early 1990s at Glenville State College under Rich Rodriguez," ECU head coach Dean Hood said. "Mike brings a very creative and innovative offensive system that is hard to stop. More importantly than that, he is a good teacher who cares about kids."

The ECU offense will have a new look behind center in 2009 due to the departure of two-year starter and 2007 OVC Offensive Player of the Year Allan Holland. There will be plenty of competition to run the spread-option attack. Junior Cody Watts, sophomore Trevor Hoskins and redshirt freshman T.J. Pryor are all viable candidates to assume the quarterback role.

Springston was the head coach and athletics director at West Virginia Tech from 1999-02 before taking over as head coach at the University of Charleston (W.Va.) for two years. While the head coach at West Virginia Tech, Springston took a program that had won six games in 10 years and developed it into a contender. The 2002 Golden Bears ended their season 6-5 overall and tied for second in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC).

After four years at West Virginia Tech, Springston took on a new challenge by revitalizing the Charleston football program. The Golden Eagles had not fielded a football team since 1956, but Springston and his staff put together a competitive squad that earned three victories in 2004.

Springston's other collegiate coaching stints include offensive coordinator positions at Concord College (1992), Glenville State College (1991) and West Virginia Tech (1990). He also served two years as the head coach at Thornridge High (Dalton, Ill.) in 1994-95 and Linden McKinley High (Columbus, Ohio) in 1985-86.

Most recently, Springston served three years as a special education teacher at Parkland High School in Winston-Salem, N.C. There, he volunteered his time with the football team for two years.

Springston earned his bachelor's degree from West Virginia Tech in 1981.

Springston and his wife, Sharon, are the parents of three grown children – Chris Springston (31), Paul Tromp (31) and Lisa Tromp (28).

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Jon-Michael Davis

Title: Strength & Conditioning Coach
Year at ECU: Sixth season
Alma Mater: Appalachian State, 2000

Chad Scott

Title: Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coach
Year at ECU: Sixth season
Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 2002

Housed in the Moberly Building is Eastern Kentucky University's varsity weight room, a state of the art facility which provides ECU's student-athletes the opportunity to enhance their abilities by making use of top-of-the-line equipment.

"All lifting and conditioning is done to implement football movements and patterns," strength and conditioning coach Jon-Michael Davis said. "We don't create athletes, we help improve them."

The 5,000-square foot weight room contains 16,000 pounds of total weight. Built in 2001, the facility features Eleiko model Olympic weights, York dumbbells with two sets each from five to 150 pounds and Nebula power stations and racks. Tools such as bands and medicine balls are used as well to help round student-athletes into peak shape.

"We do Olympic-based lifting and use multi-joint movements with an emphasis on speed and changing direction," Davis said. "It is aggressive lifting with explosive movements. We try and create fast-twitch muscles and improve fitness and flexibility."

Davis, along with full-time assistant Chad Scott and graduate assistant Tony Sarver, oversee all of ECU's nearly 300 student-athletes. Their efforts, however, are supplemented by the four-person training room staff which is also housed inside the Moberly Building, allowing athletes the opportunity for fast and convenient treatment.

With year-round lifting for football, Davis has designed regi-

The Jack Ison Varsity Weight Room

mented workout schedules for the Colonels, which allows the athletes to focus on different muscle groups on specific days. Charged with the care of all 17 of Eastern's varsity athletic programs, Davis is in the office by 5:30 a.m. each day and rarely leaves before 7 p.m.

"Jon-Michael and his staff have a unique bond with our players," ECU head football coach Dean Hood said. "They are able to push the players to their limits, but still have a good time in the process."

Davis was a tight end for Appalachian State from 1996-99 before graduating in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion. He then spent two years at Stephen F. Austin as a graduate assistant where he earned a master's degree in kinesiology. After returning to ASU for 18 months as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, Davis took his current position at Eastern Kentucky in December of 2003.

Scott played fullback and long snapper for the Colonels from 1998-01. The native of Louisville, Ky., earned his bachelor's degree in political science in 2002 and went on to complete his master's degree in exercise and sport science from ECU in 2005.

Certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), Davis and Scott are able to mentor prospective strength coaches.

EKU PRESIDENT

Dr. Doug Whitlock

Title: University President

Year at EKU: Third year

Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 1965, '66

Dr. Doug Whitlock's love affair with Eastern began when he arrived on his hometown campus as a first-generation undergraduate student in 1961.

It continued unabated throughout a 38-year career in various administrative and teaching roles at EKU, including a five-year stint as Vice President for Administrative Affairs, from 1998-2003. His last three years of service were as a half-time faculty member in the Department of Computer Science.

As he addressed faculty and staff at a campus-wide convocation on Aug. 15, 2007, just two days after being named President for the interim, Dr. Whitlock recalled the tremendous difference the institution he cherishes has made in his own life.

(The Eastern faculty) "largely made me what I was then and am now," he said.

"I will admit to you that I love Eastern, and when my service in the presidency is finished, if I have helped more of you love her too, then I will have done my job."

– President Whitlock –

On Oct. 22, 2007, the interim label was removed and now, as EKU's 11th President, Dr. Whitlock is devoted to upholding the rich tradition of his alma mater while guiding her to even greater heights of excellence.

After earning two degrees from Eastern – a bachelor's degree in history and social science in 1965 and a master's degree in history a year later – Dr. Whitlock earned his doctoral degree in higher education from the University of Kentucky in 1981.

EKU President Dr. Doug Whitlock and his wife, Joanne.

In February 2009, Dr. Whitlock was on hand at the State Capitol to announce the partnership between Eastern Kentucky University and General Atomics to examine the potential for a cellulose-derived biodiesel fuel industry in Kentucky.

After two years of active duty with the U.S. Army, Dr. Whitlock returned to Eastern in 1968 to serve as Director of Publications. Three years later, he was named Director of Public Information.

In 1976, he was tapped by President J.C. Powell to serve as Executive Assistant to the President, continuing in that role through the administration of President Hanly Funderburk.

As Vice President for Administrative Affairs, Dr. Whitlock was responsible for Facilities Services, Public Safety, Information Technology and Delivery Systems, Media Resources, and University Farms. For a portion of his tenure, he also served as the institution's chief financial officer.

Dr. Whitlock has long been an active participant in community life, serving since 1999 on the Madison County School Board, including two terms as chair. He also has served as a consultant with the Kentucky School Boards Association. He is an Elder and past board chair in the First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

He and his wife, Joanne, have been married 39 years and have two grown children, Robert and Janet.

At his first convocation as President, Dr. Whitlock offered faculty and staff one gauge by which his stint as President may be judged:

"I will admit to you that I love Eastern, and when my service in the presidency is finished, if I have helped more of you love her too, then I will have done my job."

Did You Know . . .

... Dr. Whitlock holds two degrees from Eastern Kentucky University – a bachelor's degree in history and social science as well as a master's degree in history.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mark Sandy

Title: Director of Athletics

Year at ECU: Fifth year

Alma Mater: Concord College, 1974

In four years under Mark Sandy's guidance as Director of Athletics at Eastern Kentucky University, the Colonels have enjoyed success at both the national and conference levels while also achieving in the classroom.

During the 2008-09 school year, the Colonels captured their first OVC Institutional Sportsmanship Award, while four sports won their respective league championships – men's cross country, women's cross country, football, and women's tennis. In addition, the football and women's tennis teams earned a spot in their respective sport's NCAA championships. Individually, two student-athletes qualified for national postseason tournaments and several Colonels received OVC Player of the Year honors.

"Success can be defined in many terms throughout the vast enterprise known as collegiate athletics," Sandy said. "Team accomplishments and individual honors just begin to tell the story of what I am most proud of after my fourth year as ECU's Director of Athletics. Success is our student-athletes developing into contributing members of society. Success is our coaching staff and their dedication to our student-athletes."

In the most recent NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) released in the spring of 2009, Eastern Kentucky boasted several quality rankings. Four ECU programs – football, men's golf, women's golf, and men's tennis – either met or exceeded the national average in the multi-year APR, a measure of eligibility and retention of scholarship student-athletes. Meanwhile, football's multi-year APR score of 968 was the highest among all Division I institutions in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Ohio Valley Conference. Men's cross country, men's tennis, and women's golf received perfect scores of 1,000 on the APR for the 2007-08 academic year.

"Our department's goal is to create a student-athlete experience worthy of the proud ECU tradition. We intend to win with class, achieve success in the classroom, and strive for NCAA postseason competition in every sport."

– Mark Sandy –

2008-09 ECU Athletics Highlights

- 40 student-athletes earn their collegiate diploma
- Women's soccer captures its fourth-straight OVC sportsmanship award
- Women's tennis qualifies for the NCAA tournament for the very first time
- Men's and women's cross country each capture the OVC title for the third straight year
- Football reaches the NCAA FCS playoffs for a record 19th time
- Softball player Shyenne Hussey earns All-OVC accolades for the third consecutive season
- Men's basketball player Mike Rose leads the nation in three-point shooting at 48.1 percent
- Trey Bowling (men's golf) and Joseph Maina (men's track & field) each qualify for the NCAA championships

Under Sandy's guidance, Eastern Kentucky completed three facility upgrades within the last year. Synthetic turf replaced the natural grass football field at Roy Kidd Stadium. Gertrude Hood Field, the home for ECU softball, underwent a series of improvements which included a new scoreboard and a new backstop. Finally, the Colonel Golf and Learning Center opened for business next to Arlington Golf Course in the middle of June.

Alumni Coliseum received a facility enhancement in the summer of 2006 with a newly branded court and scoreboards, while a new series of athletics marks were created and unveiled in April 2006. In December 2005, the University and department of athletics announced the creation of an Athletics Hall of Fame to commemorate distinguished individuals and teams on their accomplishments and contributions to the tradition of Colonel athletics.

On May 31, 2005, ECU announced the hiring of Mark Sandy as Director of Athletics. Prior to Eastern Kentucky, Sandy served as senior associate athletics director for external operations at the University of Richmond for five years.

While at Richmond, Sandy secured commitments of more than nine million dollars toward a $20 million Spider athletics campaign, and increased giving by 94 percent, while serving as an administrator for the men's and women's basketball programs.

From 1997 to 2000, Sandy served as associate athletics director at Miami (Ohio) University, where he was responsible for marketing and major gifts. He began his career as a high school mathematics and history teacher, in addition to coaching basketball and baseball, and went on to serve as an assistant basketball coach at the University of Evansville, Wake Forest University and Virginia Military Institute.

Upon being hired, Sandy vowed that his priority would always be to enhance the student-athlete experience, adding that increasing financial resources through fund-raising, ticket sales and corporate partnerships would also be a focal point of the effort.

Sandy was an all-conference baseball player and captain of the basketball team at Concord College in West Virginia, where he earned a bachelor's degree in 1974. He went on to earn a master's of education degree from Lynchburg College.

He and his wife, Kitty, have two children, Kraig and Madison.

The women's tennis team earned its first-ever trip to the NCAA championships after going undefeated against OVC opponents in the spring of 2009.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Corey Bray

Title: Assistant AD – Administration
Year at EKU: Fifth year
Alma Mater: Pacific Lutheran, 1995

Corey Bray is in his fifth year as Assistant Athletics Director for Administration at Eastern Kentucky after spending the previous six years working at the National Collegiate Athletic Association headquarters (NCAA) in Indianapolis, Ind.

Among his many duties at EKU, Bray is responsible for overseeing the timely fulfillment of NCAA required reports, preparing, updating and monitoring athletics department policies and procedures, while acting as a department liaison to campus committees, the academic services department and the Ohio Valley Conference. Bray is also involved in the administration of the NCAA Student-Athlete Special Assistance Fund, Student-Athlete Opportunity Fund and the Academic Enhancement Fund. In addition, he coordinates the student-athlete experience survey, the bi-annual Title IX compliance review and serves as an administrator for designated men's and women's sports.

Bray began working with the NCAA in 1998, spending one year as a research assistant before being promoted to research coordinator in 1999. Bray served the NCAA in that manner until 2002, when he was named Assistant Director of Research. His title changed again in 2003, as he was promoted to Associate Director of Research. Bray spent the final five months of his tenure with the NCAA national office (2004-05) working as a consultant in Greensboro, N.C.

Prior to joining the NCAA, Bray spent a couple of years at North Eugene High School in Eugene, Ore., where he served as a volunteer assistant track and field coach (working with sprinters), an assistant varsity and junior varsity basketball coach, and a volunteer head freshman basketball coach in the summer, all while earning his undergraduate and graduate degrees.

Bray graduated summa cum laude from Pacific Lutheran University in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in coaching. The Eugene, Ore., native went on to earn a master's degree in the social psychology of sports and exercise from the University of Oregon in 1998.

A member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) since 2002, he resides in Richmond with his wife, Leslie, and son, Luke.

Simon Gray

Title: Associate AD – Advancement
Year at EKU: Fifth year
Alma Mater: Richmond, 1998

Simon Gray, in his fifth year at Eastern Kentucky, was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Advancement in 2006. In this capacity, Gray oversees the department's external relations – the Colonel Club, media relations, marketing and promotions, and ticket operations – as well as broadcast and internet properties, and serves as sport administrator for men's basketball.

In his four years at EKU, Gray has helped orchestrate the new athletics marks and accompanying branding initiative, organization and implementation of the Athletics Hall of Fame, and raised membership in the Colonel Club. Gray has planned and executed a comprehensive membership drive for the department's fundraising arm, aimed at reengaging former student-athletes and friends of the program.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Richmond, Gray came to EKU after serving as the Director of Athletic Public Relations for four years at his alma mater. In this capacity, Gray managed all PR activities for the 19-sport department as well as coordinating the print advertising campaigns. In addition to his duties as the primary contact for the men's basketball and football teams, Gray served on the University Communications and Spider Club Auction committees.

Gray coordinated several public relations plans at Richmond, including the Spider Caravan, a community outreach program that encompassed student-athletes, coaches and administrators giving back to the community that so proudly supported them.

Hired at Richmond by current Eastern Athletics Director Mark Sandy, Gray previously served as the Director of Athletic Media Relations at East Tennessee State University. During his tenure in Johnson City, Tenn., Gray oversaw the creation and implementation of a new athletics web site and served as the primary contact for all 17 varsity programs over a two-year period.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Gray is married to the former Anne Christine Alessandra of Grasse, France. Anne, the 1997 Southern Conference Women's Golf Freshman of the Year, graduated from East Tennessee State with the lowest scoring average in program history. The couple along with their two daughters, Emilie and Elisabeth, reside in Richmond.

Dan McBride

Title: Assistant AD – Operations
Year at EKU: 11th year
Alma Mater: Eastern Kentucky, 1989

Now in his 11th year at EKU, Dan McBride serves as the Assistant Athletics Director for Operations. McBride's duties include overseeing all athletic facilities, all home game operations, supervising four team sports as well as Strength and Conditioning and Sports Medicine, and assisting with marketing and promotions. McBride previously served as the Assistant Athletic Director for External Operations and coordinated the Colonel Club.

A native of Richmond, Ky., McBride is a graduate of Model High School and Eastern Kentucky University. He is also very active in campus and community affairs, having served as a past President of the Richmond Kiwanis Club, former President-elect of the Richmond Area Arts Council and currently serving as Vice-Chair of The Richmond Parks and Recreation Board. McBride also emceed several community events each year and has served as host for local cable television broadcasts.

Prior to coming to EKU, McBride worked for Commonwealth Broadcasting as the General Manager of three local radio stations and also served as EKU's Athletic Ticket Manager for five years. McBride spent four years in the broadcast booth announcing as part of the EKU Radio Network providing analysis and play-by-play for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball.

McBride also currently serves as the Ohio Valley Conference Representative for the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA).

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

Tracy Scott

Title: Assistant AD – Compliance/SWA
Year at ECU: Sixth year
Alma Mater: Eastern Michigan, 1988

Tracy Scott is in her sixth year as the Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance and Senior Women's Administrator at ECU.

In her position at Eastern Kentucky, Scott is responsible for the coordination of a multitude of compliance related activities including, but not limited to, monitoring NCAA eligibility information, creating and issuing grant-in-aid contracts, facilitating required communication processes with the NCAA eligibility center, and serving as a liaison between the ECU athletic department and other University services by maintaining and providing student-athletes' scholarship/eligibility information. She also provides interpretations of NCAA rules and regulations, conducts rules education sessions and chairs the compliance work group.

Scott currently serves as a member of the NCAA Amateurism Cabinet, an appointment within the NCAA governance structure. She also serves on the NCAA eligibility center advisory group.

Prior to ECU, Scott was the Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Eastern Michigan University. She was responsible for all aspects of compliance, including conducting rules education sessions for coaches and personnel.

Scott has also served as the Director of Compliance for the Mid-American Conference where she was responsible for coordinating and monitoring NCAA special assistance and coaches certification programs.

While working at the MAC, Scott performed conference compliance reviews, facilitated preseason practice dates for various sports and presented educational presentations regarding conference work.

After receiving a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Eastern Michigan, Scott went on to earn a master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State.

The Niles, Mich., native currently serves on four committees at Eastern Kentucky – the Student Loans, Scholarship and Financial Aid Task Force Committee, the University Diversity Committee, the Multicultural Advisory Committee and the Equal Opportunity Committee. Scott is also an active member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators.

What is an Extra Benefit?

The NCAA defines an extra benefit as any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a representative of the institution's athletics interest (booster) to provide a student-athlete, or a student-athlete's relative or friend, a benefit that is not generally available to other Eastern Kentucky University students and their relatives and/or friends or, is not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation. Therefore, please be aware of the following:

- A student-athlete cannot accept anything from a booster or an employee of ECU that would be considered an extra benefit not available to the general student body. Examples include the use of a car, clothing, gifts, money, tickets, entertainment, etc.

- A student-athlete cannot accept free or reduced-cost room and board from any ECU employee or booster of ECU. A student-athlete cannot accept free or reduced merchandise or services from any merchant unless that free or reduced cost item is also available to the general public and/or student body.

- A student-athlete cannot receive a special discount arrangement or credit on a purchase (e.g., airline ticket, clothing) or service (e.g., laundry, dry cleaning) from an employee of ECU or a booster.

- A student-athlete cannot eat at a restaurant as the guest of an athletics booster or an employee of ECU.

- On infrequent, special occasions (e.g., birthday), a student-athlete may accept an invitation to the home of an employee of ECU or booster for a meal.

- A student-athlete cannot use a Department of Athletics' copy machine/fax machine or make long distance phone calls using departmental equipment or the long distance access code of an employee of ECU or a booster.

- A booster or employee of ECU cannot type reports, letters, papers, etc., for a student-athlete.

- An ECU employee or booster cannot provide a student-athlete with a loan of money, a guarantee of bond, the use of an automobile or the signing of a note to arrange a loan.

- A student-athlete may accept frequent flyer points and/or miles earned while traveling to and from intercollegiate practice and/or competition.

For more information about permissible and impermissible booster activities, please call Tracy Scott in the ECU Compliance office (859-622-8541) or send an e-mail message to tracy.scott@eku.edu.

ATHLETIC SUPPORT SERVICES

Bratzke Student-Athlete Academic Success Center

Dr. Randy Kennedy
Director of Bratzke
Center

The Chad Bratzke Student-Athlete Academic Success Center serves all student-athletes as a comprehensive academic resource center. The Bratzke Center and staff, located in Alumni Coliseum, is designed to aid EKU's student-athletes in all facets of their academic pursuits. Our goal is for student-athletes at EKU to have a great athletic and academic experience, and graduate with Colonel pride.

Student-athletes at EKU continue to excel academically, with almost 50 percent of all student-athletes earning a 3.0 GPA. In the 2008-09 school year, 136 student-athletes were recognized at the Academic Awards breakfast for their accomplishments in the classroom, including the Bratzke Award of Excellence, Presidential Scholar, Dean's List and the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll. EKU also continues to lead the OVC and all state programs in football APR (Academic Progress Report) scores which is determined by retention and eligibility.

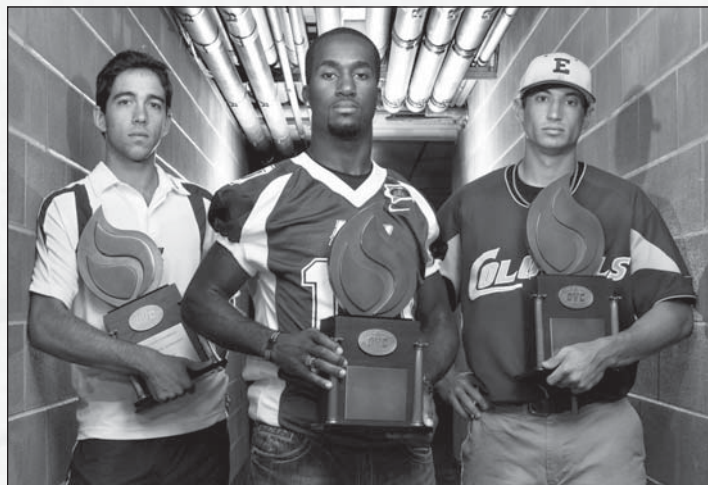

Named after Chad Bratzke, the former EKU All-American and Indianapolis Colts' defensive lineman whose generous donation helped make the center possible, the Bratzke Center meets the needs of current EKU student-athletes. The 3,000-square foot Bratzke Center includes a tutoring center, a 27-station computer lab, an academic advising office suite, a teaching classroom and quiet study area.

Student-athletes at EKU come in and utilize the center for studying, requesting and meeting with tutors, checking their e-mail or stop by for advising. The professional staff is trained to work with student-athletes in advising, class scheduling, monitoring academic progress and assisting student-athletes with academic success strategies.

The Bratzke Center employs tutors trained to assist student-athletes in many different subjects. These tutors are a free service to EKU student-athletes and can be requested at any point throughout the semester. Tutors are trained to work with students and assist them in study skills, individual course instruction and encourage academic success. In addition, EKU has several tutoring labs on campus that are available to all students as well.

In addition to the computer lab, EKU student-athletes also have access to a scanner and duplex printer in the lab, as well as laptop computers which are available to check out for team travel. These electronic resources assist EKU student-athletes to be successful while their team is in season. As a part of the departmental computer lab agreement, student-athletes are also able to access licensed software products such as SPSS, SAS, Adobe Photoshop and other useful programs.

Many student-athletes participate in the Work Intensely Now (WIN) mentoring program, designed to help students find academic success

EKU annually finishes among the leaders in the Ohio Valley Conference's Commissioner's Cup standings and the Colonels have won the prestigious OVC Academic Achievement Banner eight times (1988-92, 1994-95, 1997-98, 1999-00, 2001-02).

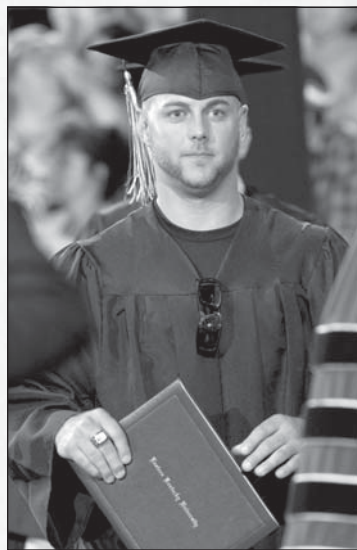

early in their academic career. These students meet once a week with a trained mentor and discuss time management skills, organizational skills, as well as track upcoming assignments through weekly WIN reports. This information is helpful to the student-athletes but is also shared with the coaching staff to keep them updated on the students progress.

Student-athletes with disabilities or barriers to learning may be in the WIN program but the Bratzke staff also assists with their registration with the Office of Disability Services (ODS) to make sure students are provided with proper documentation.

Academic monitoring entails ensuring that student-athletes are making progress towards a degree as specified by the NCAA and OVC, and successfully monitoring class participation through communication and early alert programs. Faculty report grades twice a semester to the Bratzke staff to help avoid potential problems and pitfalls. In addition, EKU faculty post midterm grades so that students at EKU can track their course progress.

The Bratzke Center also communicates regularly with student-athletes through the EKU Bratzke Center web site, as well as e-mail messaging about important information.

The Bratzke Center is headed by Dr. Randy Kennedy, Director of Athletic Academic Advising. He is assisted by Jennifer Parsons and Jenna Sample.

Former Colonels standout Zach Denton was one of eight football players to earn their bachelor's degree in the spring of 2009.

Football Athletic Trainer

Eastern Kentucky's student-athletes benefit from one of the finest athletic training facilities anywhere in the country.

The training room is located in the Moberly Building adjacent to the athletic weight room and is open for use by any ECU student-athlete.

The large space is occupied by the most modern training and rehabilitation equipment available. The training room features several tables used during treatment and rehabilitation, taping tables, a wet room that features whirlpools and a four-foot-deep rehab pool that includes a submerged treadmill for aquatic rehab exercises. The area also features all of the latest modalities, helping get injured athletes back into the game as quickly as possible.

The athletic training room also houses an examination room used by team doctors. The physicians are regularly on site and perform evaluations, while assisting the training staff in ensuring the health of every student-athlete.

Director of Sports Medicine David T. Green supervises all of ECU's efforts, and is joined by full-time assistants David Brajuha, Tiffany Napier and Tim Pike, as well as a host of graduate assistants and students who are involved in the University's athletic training program. Pike, the head football athletic trainer, is in his third year at ECU after working three years at the University of Kentucky while also serving as the head athletic trainer for the Lexington Horsemen.

"Tim is totally committed to his job and is always available no matter what time of day," ECU head coach Dean Hood said. "He really cares about the welfare of our student-athletes and is a great asset to this university."

For those sports that are primarily located in Alumni Coliseum, there is a satellite training room area that features a treatment and taping area as well as rehabilitation equipment.

The Colonel Club

The Colonel Club operates within the same principles of Eastern Kentucky University – an institution entering its second century as a school of opportunity. The Department of Athletics' development organization helps provide an elite experience for more than 300 of the University's most dedicated students.

The generous financial support provided by the Colonel Club facilitates the department's overall mission of graduating student-athletes, developing individuals who display integrity at all times, winning Ohio Valley Conference championships and participating in postseason competition.

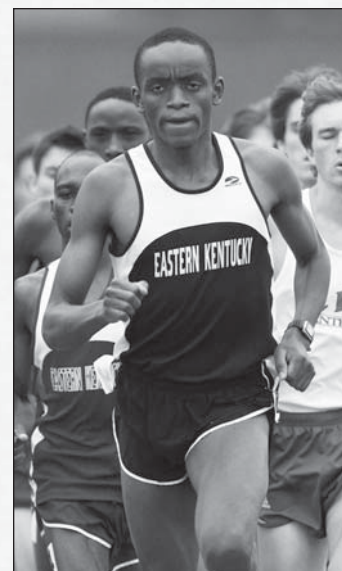

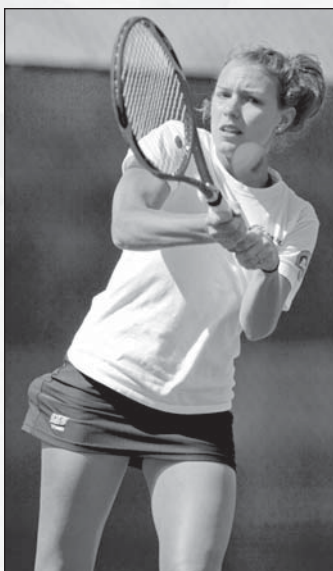

Colonel Club members – loyal alumni, parents and friends – are proud that their tax-deductible contributions provide vital resources for all aspects of Colonel Athletics, including scholarships, travel expenses, equipment, academic support and many other areas.

In addition to the pride of knowing that they have helped improve the student-athlete experience, Colonel Club members can receive benefits including, but not limited to:

- Invitations to annual Colonel Club events, including the golf tournament, Fish Fry and much more
- Priority seating at Roy Kidd Stadium and Paul McBrayer Arena
- Priority for purchasing post-season tickets
- Preferred parking for football and basketball events
- Colonel Connection – a daily e-mail chronicling ECU Athletics
- Membership card and window decal

Methods of support include direct contributions, matching gifts, gifts of securities, gifts-in-kind and planned gifts. All gifts to the Colonel Club are recognized on a July 1st to June 30th fiscal year.

For more information about joining the Colonel Club and being an essential part of the esteemed tradition that is Eastern Kentucky University Athletics, please contact the ECU Colonel Club office by calling 859-622-2046 or e-mailing Treka Adams at treka.adams@eku.edu.

Anouk Faure (left) helped lead the Colonels to their first ever NCAA championships berth last spring while Joseph Maina helped ECU capture its third straight men's cross country title in 2008.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

#20 Eastern Kentucky - 7 at Cincinnati - 40

Aug. 28, 2008 • Nippert Stadium (26,913)

CINCINNATI, Ohio – Eastern Kentucky opened its 2008 season with a 40-7 loss at Big East Conference opponent Cincinnati Thursday evening. Senior Allan Holland was 12-of-17 for 141 yards and tossed a touchdown pass. Sophomore Cody Watts caught three passes, including the scoring toss, for 97 yards.

Cincinnati scored touchdowns on its first three possessions and never looked back.

The Bearcats took their first possession at their own 28-yard line and proceeded to march 72 yards in 12 plays to grab a 6-0 lead. Quarterback Dustin Grutza scampered out of the pocket and down the right sideline for a 10-yard gain to the two yard line. Three plays later Grutza, from the 15-yard line, connected with Mardy Gilyard on the right sideline. Gilyard spun and then dove from the four yard line for the touchdown. ECU's Chris Harris blocked the extra point attempt.

Cincinnati put together another extended drive on its second possession, this time covering 80 yards in 14 plays over 6:25. Grutza capped it with another touchdown pass, finding Dominick Goodman from 21 yards out. The Bearcats failed to convert the extra point again, and led 12-0.

Cincinnati didn't have nearly as much ground to cover on its third possession, beginning at the ECU 34-yard line. After three plays, Cincinnati had a 19-0 lead following John Goebel's one-yard touchdown run.

The Colonels finally responded with a 51-yard kickoff return by Jeremy Caldwell. Back-to-back completions by Holland, the first for 17 yards to Watts, moved the Colonels to the Cincy 24-yard line. Walker's 22-yard run to the seven was waived off due to a holding penalty and Eastern was ultimately forced to attempt a 40-yard field goal that fell short.

Cincinnati tacked on two more touchdowns in the third quarter, including a 20-play drive that took 9:16 and covered 78 yards. Trailing 40-0 with 58 seconds left in the quarter, Holland found Watts all alone on the left side for a 61-yard scoring pass and Eastern's first touchdown of the season. Watts caught a 19-yard toss on the first play of the two-play drive.

Linebacker Antonio Fredrick led Eastern with 12 tackles. Caldwell finished with 10 stops.

Western Kentucky - 37 at #24 Eastern Kentucky - 13

Sept. 6, 2008 • Roy Kidd Stadium (18,500)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky trailed Western Kentucky by only three points at halftime, but the Hilltoppers (1-1) shutout the Colonels (0-2) 21-0 in the second half for a 37-13 win in the Battle of the Bluegrass on Saturday at Roy Kidd Stadium.

WKU took the opening kick and drove 81 yards in 18 plays for an early 7-0 lead. Marell Booker found the end zone from four yards out to cap the drive.

The Colonels answered by moving the ball deep into WKU territory. Cody Watts caught a nine-yard pass from Holland to move the ball to the 22-yard line, but a personal foul backed ECU up. Eastern settled for a career-long 46-yard field goal by Taylor Long that cut the deficit to 7-3 with 4:19 left in the first quarter.

Western Kentucky used its ground game to manufacture a 13-play, 68-yard scoring drive on its next possession. The Hilltoppers covered 43 yards on the ground and kept it on the ground for the final nine plays of the drive. Hayden finished it off with a one-yard touchdown run.

The Colonels refused to be the first team to punt. ECU answered Western's ground game with an air show. After an incomplete pass and a rush for one yard, Holland completed three straight passes to cover the final 66 yards. He opened with a big third down completion for 37 yards to Stephon Fuqua. Sizemore hauled in back-to-back passes, the final for 16 yards and a touchdown. Long tacked on the point-after for a 13-10 score with 11:35 remaining in the second quarter.

The two teams exchanged field goals to keep it at a three-point game, 16-13, at halftime.

WKU mixed up the pass and run to generate a 10-play, 74-yard scoring drive late in the third quarter. David Wolke completed passes of 11, 12 and 17 yards. Hayden and Derrius Brooks picked up gains on the ground of 13 and 17 respectively. Brooks' 17-yard touchdown run gave the Hilltoppers a 23-13 advantage.

A fumble by the Colonels on the ensuing kickoff gave the ball back to Western Kentucky at the ECU 20-yard line. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Wolke found Tristan Jones from two yards out to extend the Hilltopper lead to 30-13.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

Morehead State - 8 at Eastern Kentucky - 16

Sept. 13, 2008 • Roy Kidd Stadium (8,200)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky's defense led the Colonels to their first win of the 2008 season, beating Morehead State Saturday, 16-8. The EKU (1-2) defense held the Eagles (1-2) scoreless for almost 55 minutes and forced three turnovers, including an interception in the closing minutes to secure the victory.

Sophomore Yameen Thomas led the Colonel defensive charge with five tackles, two sacks and a fumble recovery.

Eastern took the opening possession of the game and got on the board with a 22-yard Taylor Long field goal to cap a 17-play, 74-yard drive. During the drive, senior Allan Holland completed five passes to Shannon Davis for 55 yards.

With the Colonels leading 3-0 early in the second quarter, Morehead State looked to be in a situation to tie or push ahead. On 1st-and-10 from the Eastern 32, Morehead's Michael Kearns carried the ball to the 28 before Eastern's Ryan Viana forced a fumble. Sophomore Jaren Gooden recovered for EKU to put a stop to the Eagle threat.

Two possessions later, Long converted his second field goal attempt from 22 yards out to put the home team in front 6-0.

On the opening possession of the second half, the Eastern Kentucky defense came up big again. On 3rd-and-7, Morehead State quarterback Evan Sawyer was sacked for a seven-yard loss and fumbled the ball. Thomas picked up the ball for the Colonels.

Later in the third quarter, Walker broke loose for a 17-yard touchdown run. The point-after gave Eastern a 13-0 lead. Walker also had a 10-yard run on the 68-yard drive.

Long added his third field goal, this time from 28 yards, in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter for a 16-0 EKU lead.

A Morehead State touchdown and two-point conversion with 4:18 left in the game cut the deficit in half. Sawyer found Jerrod Pendleton in the corner of the end zone from 11 yards out for the touchdown. Sawyer then completed a pass to Feldman in the back of the end zone for the two-point conversion.

The Eagles then recovered the on-side kick and drove into EKU territory. On 2nd-and-10 from the 40, senior Brandon Gathof intercepted a long pass down field to put a halt to Morehead's comeback bid.

After totaling only 90 yards of offense in the first three quarters combined, Morehead picked up 112 yards in the fourth quarter.

Eastern Kentucky - 20 at #25 Tennessee State - 34

Sept. 20, 2008 • LP Field (8,276)

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Host Tennessee State piled up 543 yards of offense and held off Eastern Kentucky in a shoot-out Saturday night, 34-20. The #25 Tigers (4-0, 1-0 OVC) earned their first win over the Colonels (1-3, 0-1) since 1999.

Tiger quarterback Antonio Heffner threw for 314 yards and three scores while in helping TSU reach the 30-point plateau for the fourth time in four games. Running back Javarris Williams finished with 117 yards on the ground, including a 48-yard touchdown run to open the scoring.

For Eastern Kentucky, senior Allan Holland went 21-for-37 for 244 yards and two scores. The native of Hazard, Ky., now has 3,378 career passing yards and moved up to sixth on the Colonel all-time passing list.

The Colonels trailed 20-13 at the half, but the defense came alive early in the third quarter by forcing turnovers on Tennessee State's opening two possessions. However, the EKU offense could not capitalize and went three-and-out on each occasion.

Tennessee State then broke through on its third possession with a six-play, 54-yard touchdown drive. Heffner capped the drive with a third-down, 19-yard touchdown strike to Brandon Belvin.

Eastern Kentucky answered right back to cut the deficit back to seven, 27-20. Redshirt freshman Jeremy Caldwell ignited the rally with a 40-yard kick-off return. Holland moved the Colonels into the red zone with an 18-yard completion to senior tight end Stephen Sizemore. Junior C.J. Walker finally finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown catch.

The Tigers rebuilt their 14-point cushion on their ensuing possession at the start of the fourth quarter. Tennessee State converted three third downs on the drive, including third-and-goal when Heffner threw his third touchdown pass, a three-yard strike to Ronald Evans.

Eastern Kentucky never threatened the rest of the way. The Colonels were held to nine yards rushing for the game. Walker, who ran for a personal-high 138 yards last year against TSU, averaged 1.2 yards per rush Saturday night.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

Austin Peay - 10 at Eastern Kentucky - 13

Sept. 27, 2008 • Roy Kidd Stadium (7100)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Senior Taylor Long connected on a 27-yard field goal in overtime to lift Eastern Kentucky to a 13-10 win over Austin Peay Saturday afternoon at Roy Kidd Stadium. Austin Peay tied the game, 10-10, with one second left in regulation when kicker Isaac Ziolkowski hit a 43-yard field goal.

In the overtime, the Govs (0-5, 0-2 OVC) received the ball first but had their drive stall at the Colonel 19-yard line. On 4th-and-4, Ziolkowski tried a 36-yard field goal and missed wide right, opening the door for the Colonels (2-3, 1-1). On EKU's first play of the extra period from the 25-yard line, junior running back C.J. Walker took the ball 14 yards to the Gov 11-yard line. Three plays later, Long drilled his game-winning field goal.

Eastern got scoring underway quickly in the opening quarter, scoring on its first play from scrimmage following a 62-yard kickoff return by redshirt freshman Jeremy Caldwell. Sophomore wide receiver Cody Watts took a lateral from Colonel quarterback Allan Holland and fired a 29-yard scoring strike to sophomore Shannon Davis to put EKU up 7-0, just 16 seconds into the game.

Long added a 27-yard field goal with 3:52 left in the first quarter to put the Colonels ahead 10-0.

Austin Peay kept the game close when it came up with a fumble recovery by defensive back Jason Vanatta who fell on a Walker fumble on the Govs' one-yard line with just over three minutes left in the first half.

Austin Peay got on the scoreboard to open the third quarter when quarterback T.C. Jennings found receiver Lanis Frederick wide open for a 37-yard scoring pass, cutting the EKU lead to 10-7. The Govs' defense stiffened throughout the second half and only allowed 90 yards to the Colonels.

EKU was paced on offense by Holland who hit 17-of-28 passes for 211 yards, but he was intercepted three times. Senior wide out Stephon Fuqua had six receptions for 104 yards, while Walker led Colonel rushers with 46 yards on the ground in 10 carries. Linebacker Ryan Viana led all players with 14 tackles.

Austin Peay was led by Jennings who was 12-for-23 passing for 90 yards and one touchdown. Frederick had six catches for 97 yards and one score. Tailback Theo Townsend totaled 68 yards in 18 carries.

Eastern Kentucky - 33 at Tennessee Tech - 12

Oct. 4, 2008 • Tucker Stadium (6,599)

COOKEVILLE, Tenn. – The Eastern Kentucky defense forced three turnovers and the special teams added a blocked punt to spark the Colonels to a resounding 33-12 win over host Tennessee Tech Saturday night at Tucker Stadium. The Colonels (3-3, 2-1 OVC) earned their first road win of the year while handing TTU (3-3, 1-1) its first home loss.

Six EKU defenders posted a tackle for loss while senior Zach Denton and sophomore Andrew Soucy recorded interceptions. Senior linebacker Tyjuan Jones tied for the team lead with seven tackles while adding a sack and a forced fumble. The Colonels finished with 17 points scored off three Tennessee Tech turnovers.

Eastern Kentucky got on the scoreboard first thanks to a blocked punt midway through the first quarter. Senior wide out Stephon Fuqua blocked the punt, giving EKU the ball at the Tennessee Tech 27-yard line. The Colonels pushed ahead for one first down before settling for senior Taylor Long's 38-yard field goal.

In the second quarter, the Eastern defense forced two turnovers inside the Tech red zone which resulted in 10 Colonel points. With seven minutes left in the half, Jones caused a fumble when he sacked TTU quarterback Lee Sweeney at the 20-yard line. Soucy fell on the ball, setting up Long's third field goal of the game, a 37-yarder, and stretching the lead to 9-0.

Four minutes later, Soucy was involved in another turnover deep in Golden Eagle territory. Junior Chris Hall hit Tech quarterback Josh Lowery at the goal line forcing an errant throw which Soucy grabbed at the five-yard line. Two plays later, sophomore Aaron Bradley tallied a two-yard rushing touchdown to push the advantage to 16-0.

Sophomore Cody Watts stepped in at quarterback for senior Allan Holland in the second half and directed three scoring drives. In Watts' first drive under center, the Colonels went 61 yards in six plays to go ahead, 23-0. Bradley capped the drive with a 19-yard scoring run.

Following a Tennessee Tech interception, Watts led Eastern Kentucky on another touchdown march to make the score, 30-0. A 39-yard pass play between Watts and sophomore Anthony Burnes ignited the drive.

#18 Jacksonville State - 35
at Eastern Kentucky - 38

Oct. 11, 2008 • Roy Kidd Stadium (6,100)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky intercepted five passes and held off a late rally by #18 Jacksonville State in a 38-35 win Saturday night at Roy Kidd Stadium. The Colonels (4-3, 3-1 OVC) handed the Gamecocks (4-2, 2-1 OVC) their first conference loss of the season.

Senior Brandon Gathof intercepted two passes for ECU which raised his career total to 11. In addition to picking off five passes, the ECU defense held Jacksonville State to 64 net rushing yards. The Gamecocks entered the game averaging 212 yards per game on the ground.

With JSU driving for the tying, or go-ahead score with 2:12 left in the game, sophomore Jordan Dalrymple intercepted Ryan Perrilloux, an LSU transfer, at the ECU 31-yard line and returned it 20 yards into Gamecock territory. Junior Kelvin Turner's ensuing 34-yard run allowed the Colonels to run out the clock.

Eastern Kentucky had built a 31-14 lead in the third quarter following C.J. Walker's 19-yard touchdown run. Gathof then intercepted his second pass of the game to end JSU's next drive. The pick marked the fourth straight Gamecock possession that ended with an interception.

Jacksonville State cut the deficit to 10 points late in the third quarter. Perrilloux completed a 13-yard pass on 4th-and-10 at the ECU 34-yard line. Perrilloux then covered the final 21 yards with a pair of runs.

The Gamecocks closed the gap to three, 31-28, with 9:41 left in the game. After forcing ECU to punt from its own end zone, Maurice Dupree returned the kick 27 yards to the Eastern eight. On the first play, Brandon George found his way to the end zone along the right sideline.

The Colonels answered the Jacksonville State momentum. On 3rd-and-9 from the JSU 37, Shannon Davis laid out for an Allan Holland pass over the middle to the one-yard line. Holland pushed the ball across the line on the next play and an extra point made it 38-28 with 7:13 remaining in the game. Davis also had a 22-yard reception earlier in the drive.

Jacksonville State kept the pressure on with a 10-play, 60-yard drive that ended in a Perrilloux four-yard rushing touchdown.

Eastern Illinois - 7
at Eastern Kentucky - 20

Oct. 25, 2008 • Roy Kidd Stadium (8,800)

RICHMOND, Ky. – Eastern Kentucky's defense forced three turnovers and held Eastern Illinois to 81 yards rushing in a 20-7 Homecoming win Saturday afternoon at Roy Kidd Stadium. The Colonels have now won four straight to move to 4-1 in Ohio Valley Conference play and 5-3 overall.

Four Eastern Kentucky running backs combined for 108 yards led by C.J. Walker's 44. Senior Allan Holland completed 18-of-29 passes for 193 yards. Holland moved to third on ECU's all-time career passing yards list with 4,058 yards. Sophomore wide out Shannon Davis caught six passes for a game-high 76 yards.

Eastern Illinois (3-5, 1-3) missed on a pair of prime scoring opportunities in the first half as ECU built a 17-0 halftime lead.

On the Panthers' first possession of the game, the visitors drove to the ECU four-yard line. On 3rd-and-1, Bodie Reeder's pass to the end zone was dropped. On the next play, Tyler Wilke missed a 22-yard field goal.

The Colonels answered with a 17-play, 80-yard drive the chewed up 8:04 off the clock. Sophomore Aaron Bradley contributed 32 yards on the ground during the drive. Holland capped off the drive with a seven-yard touchdown run.

After Eastern Illinois was forced to punt, Eastern Kentucky manufactured another scoring drive. An 18-yard pass from Holland to senior Stephon Fuqua took the ball to the EIU two-yard line. Bradley polished off the 11-play, 79-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run.

The Panthers appeared ready to answer when they drove inside Eastern Kentucky territory on their next possession. However, on 3rd-and-1 from the ECU 25, Desmin Ward fumbled and the Colonels recovered.

Eastern Illinois finally got on the board in the third quarter. Travorus Bess and Chevon Walker picked up 18 and 13 yards on the ground, respectively, on back-to-back plays. Reeder connected with Alicus Nozinor from five yards out and the point-after cut the deficit to 17-7.

That would be as close as EIU would get as Taylor Long tacked on a career-long 50-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to set the final score.

Eastern Illinois entered the game as the least penalized team in the conference and the OVC leader in turnover margin. However, the Panthers were flagged for 53 yards, compared to 41 for the Colonels, and lost the turnover battle, 3-0.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

Eastern Kentucky - 29 at Southeast Missouri - 16

Nov. 1, 2008 • Houck Stadium (3,420)

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. – Trailing 16-7 midway through the third quarter, Eastern Kentucky rallied for a 29-16 victory over host Southeast Missouri. The Colonels have now won five straight to move to 5-1 in Ohio Valley Conference play and 6-3 overall.

The Colonel defense forced four turnovers, including two interceptions by senior Zach Denton. Redshirt freshman Jeremy Caldwell returned an interception 66 yards for a score in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

The Redhawks (3-6, 1-4) took a 13-7 lead into halftime and had two chances to extend the lead in the third quarter. Southeast Missouri moved the ball into field goal range on its first drive, but missed a 42-yard field goal.

SEMO linebacker Phillip Klaproth then intercepted a Holland pass and returned it to the Eastern Kentucky 30-yard line. The home team pushed inside the Colonel 10-yard line before settling for a 19-yard field goal to make the score 16-7 with 4:14 left in the third quarter.

The Colonels responded on their ensuing drive to cut the deficit to 16-14. Fuqua kept the drive alive on 3rd-and-10 with a 23-yard catch to the Eastern 45-yard line. Nine plays later on 3rd-and-six, Holland hooked up with senior tight end Stephen Sizemore for a 14-yard touchdown.

Following Southeast Missouri's first punt of the game early in the fourth quarter, ECU put together another long drive, this time 10 plays for 84 yards to take the lead for good, 21-16. Holland completed all five pass attempts on the march and capped the drive with a 22-yard scoring pass to sophomore Cody Watts.

Eastern Kentucky put the game away on Southeast Missouri's next possession when Caldwell stepped in front of a SEMO swing pass and took the interception 66 yards to pay dirt to stretch the Colonel advantage to 29-16 with 6:06 remaining.

Eastern Kentucky scored its only points of the first half on the opening possession of the game. The Colonels converted two third downs on the drive before Walker burst through the line for a 37-yard touchdown run, which happened to be the Colonels longest run of the season.

Murray State - 7 at Eastern Kentucky - 34

Nov. 15, 2008 • Roy Kidd Stadium (2,200)

RICHMOND, Ky. – On a cold, windy and rainy Saturday afternoon at Roy Kidd Stadium, Eastern Kentucky concluded its 2008 home schedule with a convincing 34-7 victory over Murray State. The Colonels have now won six straight to move to 6-1 in Ohio Valley Conference play and 7-3 overall.

Junior running back C.J. Walker had a career day, finishing with a personal-high 229 yards on the ground, including 196 yards in the first half. Walker scored on touchdown runs of 16, 51 and 60 yards, and became the first Colonel to reach 200 yards rushing since C.J. Hudson ran for 202 yards at Samford in 2004.

The Colonel defense forced two turnovers and held Murray State to just 188 total yards of offense.

For Murray State (4-7, 3-4 OVC), Paul McKinnis tallied 63 rushing yards and accounted for the Racers' lone points late in the third quarter.

Eastern Kentucky reached the end zone on its first three possessions and never looked back. After the Colonel defense forced a Murray State punt, ECU responded with six-play, 55-yard drive to jump ahead, 7-0. Walker capped the drive with a third down, 16-yard touchdown run.

On the Colonels' second drive, Walker burst through the middle of the defense for a 51-yard score to extend the lead to 14-0 less than 10 minutes into the contest. Redshirt freshman H.B. Banjoman then gave Eastern a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown run.

This was the 64th consecutive season Eastern Kentucky and Murray State have met on the football field. Both schools are original members of the Ohio Valley Conference which was formed in 1948. ECU has now won seven of the last eight meetings and leads the all-time series, 39-25-4.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

Eastern Kentucky - 33 at #18 UT Martin - 31

Nov. 22, 2008 • Graham Stadium (7499)

MARTIN, Tenn. – Eastern Kentucky blocked a 45-yard field goal attempt as time expired to hang on for a thrilling 33-31 victory over #18 UT Martin. With the win, the Colonels (8-3, 7-1 OVC) clinched their 20th Ohio Valley Conference title and earned a spot in the upcoming NCAA FCS playoffs.

Eastern's defense forced five first half turnovers which led to 24 points. In the second half, EKU blocked a UT Martin (8-4, 6-2) PAT attempt and returned it the distance for two more points.

Senior Brandon Gathof led EKU with 12 tackles and two interceptions. He returned the second interception 50 yards for a score in the second quarter. Gathof capped his stellar day by blocking UT Martin's game-winning field goal attempt.

UT Martin opened the game by turning the ball over on its first three possessions. Eastern Kentucky capitalized on the miscues to build a 17-0 lead. Gathof tallied his second interception and returned it for a touchdown to make the score 24-6 at the half.

The Skyhawks came out on fire in the second half, scoring on two of their first three possessions to claw within a touchdown, 26-19. However, the Eastern Kentucky offense answered with a 66-yard touchdown drive to extend the advantage to 33-19. Holland completed all four pass attempts on the drive including a 30-yard scoring pass to Watts.

From there, UTM added two more field goals to close the gap to eight points, 33-25. Late in the fourth quarter, the Colonel offense looked to put together one more scoring drive to clinch the victory, but the Skyhawks recovered an EKU fumble and ran it back 44-yards for a score to make the score, 33-31, with 4:24 left.

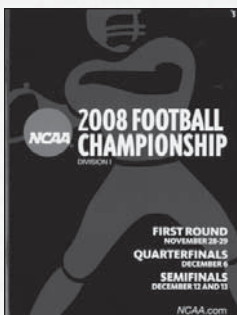

UT Martin had one final possession to try and finish the comeback. The Skyhawks started from their own 20-yard line with 1:08 remaining in regulation. Thompson extended the drive with a key fourth-down 17-yard completion to the Colonel 38-yard line. UTM then moved the ball 10 more yards to set up the winning field goal attempt with four seconds showing on the clock.

#21 Eastern Kentucky - 10 at #7 Richmond - 38

Nov. 29, 2008 • Univ. of Richmond Stadium (2,994)

RICHMOND, Va. – Eastern Kentucky played host Richmond to a 10-all tie in the first half, but the Spiders responded with 28 unanswered second half points to tally a 38-10 win in the opening round of the 2008 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs Saturday afternoon at UR Stadium. The #21 Colonels conclude their season with an 8-4 overall record.

The #7 Spiders (10-3) advance to the FCS quarterfinals and will play at #2 Appalachian State (11-2) next weekend.

Eastern Kentucky took a 10-7 lead late in the first half when senior quarterback Allan Holland found junior wide out Garnett Phelps for a 48-yard completion down to the Richmond one-yard line. On the next play, Holland ran into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown. The Spiders quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal on the last play of the first half to make the score 10-all at halftime.

Two EKU turnovers early in the third quarter led to 14 Richmond points. The Spiders opened the half with a six-play touchdown drive to go ahead, 17-10. On Eastern's first possession, Richmond linebacker Patrick Weldon stepped in front of a Holland pass and returned the interception to the Colonel 20-yard line. A few minutes later, Tre Gray caught a 14-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 24-10.

The Colonels looked poised to answer on their next drive, but Holland was sacked and fumbled on the Richmond 47-yard line. Richmond recovered the fumble and proceeded to march right down the field again before Gray caught his second touchdown pass to make the score 31-10.

Spider quarterback Eric Ward finished 16-of-23 for 245 yards and three touchdowns. The Colonels held running back Josh Vaughan to 16 yards in the first half, but he bounced back to tally 90 rushing yards and two scores.

Holland concluded his EKU career by going 20-of-35 for 181 yards. Sophomore Cody Watts led the Colonels with 35 rushing yards.

This was the second straight year Eastern Kentucky and Richmond met in the first round of the playoffs. The Colonels have made 19 playoff appearances, most in the nation, but have not won a playoff game since 1994.

OHIO VALLEY CONFERENCE

Kyle Schwartz
Asst. Commissioner for Media Relations

Entering its 62nd year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. For only the second time in a decade, the Conference expanded by adding Southern Illinois University Edwardsville as the league's 11th member in 2008. The move expanded the OVC's geographical footprint to the St. Louis market and marked the first change in membership since expanding to the state of Alabama (Jacksonville State, Samford) in 2003.

For the 2009-10 school year the league will see a change in leadership as the seventh Commissioner in league history will be announced in late July/early August. The last three commissioners of the league have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

Through the past 61 years, 14 teams have won or shared the league's football title. The list is led by Eastern Kentucky, winner of 20 outright or shared football crowns, including both the 2007 and 2008 championships, as they compiled a 15-1 league record over that time period. Only one other Football Championship Sub-division school (UMass) has won more Conference titles than the Colonels. Among OVC teams, former member Middle Tennessee is next with 11 titles, followed by Tennessee Tech with nine, and Murray State and former member Western Kentucky with eight apiece.

Murray State and Evansville tied for the initial football championship, and the Racers participated in the first-ever bowl game by an OVC team, tying Sul Ross State 21-21 in the 1948 Tangerine Bowl. From 1948 to 1975, OVC teams played in 15 bowl games, winning eight of them. Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky were also participants in the NCAA Division II playoffs in the early and mid-1970s prior to the NCAA's reclassification of football programs into Division I-AA. The term "I-AA" lasted until the end of the 2006 season when it was changed to Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

The first Division I-AA/FCS football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them – Eastern Kentucky and Murray State – were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh.

A sampling of former OVC football stars, some of whom were All-Americans during their collegiate careers before achieving stardom at the professional ranks, include Jim Youngblood and Larry Schreiber (Tennessee Tech), Phil Simms (Morehead State), Virgil Livers and Dale Lindsey (Western Kentucky), Myron Guyton and Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Cortland Finnegan (Samford), Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (Tennessee State) and Tony Romo (Eastern Illinois).

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

EKU FOOTBALL HISTORY

Eastern Kentucky University possesses one of the richest traditions in all of college football, and the future appears to be just as bright as the past. Now in its second century of football, the current group of Colonels hopes to leave its mark in the ECU annals just as the first 100 teams put together 'A Century of Excellence.'

ECU football has come a long way since the first organized game was played in 1909 on Steland Field, and much of the credit is given to Roy Kidd, an All-American quarterback at Eastern in 1953, who returned to his alma mater in 1963 and proceeded to build a national powerhouse.

Kidd's 39-year record at Eastern concluded in 2002 with 315 wins, 123 losses and eight ties, for a remarkable .716 winning percentage. He was twice chosen National I-AA Coach of the Year and was recently inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as well as the Ohio Valley Conference Hall of Fame.

The popularity of Eastern football grew so rapidly in the 1960s that Hanger Stadium, the home of the Maroons (the school's nickname later became Colonels) since 1936, was too small for the large enthusiastic crowds. Eastern paid "old" Hanger a fitting farewell in 1968 as it thrashed rival Morehead State, 35-7. A new era in ECU football began the following year when the Colonels moved to Hanger Field, a modern 20,000-seat facility. Eastern christened its new playing field with a 29-10 drubbing of Austin Peay. In 1990, the stadium portion of the football complex was named in honor of Roy Kidd. The Colonels defeated the University of Central Florida that day, 24-12.

There have been many memorable moments in the rich heritage of Eastern football. One came in 1967 when ECU, the OVC champion, won the NCAA Midwest Regional championship by defeating Ball State, 27-13, in the Grantland Rice Bowl. Another occurred in 1954 when Eastern's third regular season undefeated team (the first was in 1940) made the school's first bowl appearance only to fall to the University of Omaha, 7-6, in the Tangerine Bowl.

Under the guidance of Coach Kidd on Dec. 18, 1982, ECU capped a perfect 13-0 season by defeating Delaware in the NCAA Division I-AA title game, 17-14, for the University's second national championship.

That victory marked Eastern's fourth-straight appearance in the Division I-AA championship game, having also won the title in 1979 while taking the runner-up trophies in both 1980 and 1981.

Kidd's status among the coaching profession was well-known, but Eastern has had other successful coaches during its football history. Previous coaches include James Park (1909), Clyde Wilson (1910-11), Charles Keith (1912), Ben Bernard (1913-16), Clyde McCoy (1919-21), George Hembree (1922-28), Charles "Turkey" Hughes (1929-34), Rome Rankin (1935-42, 1945-46), Tom Samuels (1947-53), Glenn Presnell (1954-63), and Danny Hope (2003-07).

Dean Hood, the program's 13th head coach, took his current position in January 2008. The former Eastern Kentucky defensive coordinator had previously served five years (1994-98) as an assistant coach under Kidd. Just like Kidd and Hope, Hood has vowed to maintain the winning tradition that has become synonymous with Eastern football.

Under Hood's guidance in 2008, Eastern Kentucky captured its second consecutive Ohio Valley Conference crown, and 20th overall, after holding off UT Martin in the regular season finale in dramatic fashion thanks to a game-ending blocked field goal. ECU was among the national leaders in turnover margin (+14) last year and capitalized by turning five turnovers into 24 points against UTM in the de facto OVC championship game.

Since the OVC was organized in 1948, Eastern has won 16 regular season titles outright (1954, '67, '68, '74, '76, '81, '82, '83, '84, '88, '91, '93, '94, '97, '07 and '08), shared four titles (1962, '86, '87 and '90) and to date ranks first in the conference all-time standings with a 290-109-7 record.

ECU football has produced 53 All-Americans and has had 40 players drafted into the professional ranks. Two of the best known former Eastern players are 1972 All-American Wally Chambers, who was voted 1973 NFC Defensive Rookie of the Year as a tackle with the Chicago Bears, and 1993 All-American Chad Bratzke, who spent 11 years with the New York Giants and Indianapolis Colts as a pass-rushing defensive end.

Former ECU head coach Roy Kidd and the Colonels celebrate their first national championship after defeating Lehigh, 30-7, on Dec. 15, 1979.

NCAA FCS HISTORY

The 2009 year marks the 32nd year for the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) (formerly Division I-AA) play-offs, and a 16-team bracket will again be used for the championship. More than 120 schools (including provisional members) play FCS football and more than half of those have been in the playoffs at least once. Only Georgia Southern (six), Youngstown State (four), Appalachian State (three) and two-time champs Eastern Kentucky, Marshall and Montana have won the title more than once.

The Football Championship Subdivision playoffs provides for a maximum field of 16 teams. Four teams will receive seeds. Teams will play first-round games on the campuses of competing teams. Eight conferences (Big Sky, Colonial Athletic, Mid-Eastern Athletic, Missouri Valley Football, Ohio Valley, Patriot, Southern and Southland) have been granted automatic qualification for the 2009 championship. The remaining eight teams will be selected at large by the FCS Football Committee.

In the 32-year history of the championship, the title game has been played at eight different sites. The championship will be played at the campus of Tennessee-Chattanooga for the 13th straight year in 2009, after five straight years at Marshall Stadium in Huntington, W.Va.

Only four teams qualified for the NCAA FCS playoffs in the event's first three years. The field expanded for the 1981 championship (eight teams), the 1982 championship (12 teams) and the 1986 championship (16 teams). The championship format has remained at 16 teams since.

In 2010, the playoff field will expand to 20 teams as the Northeast and Big South conferences will receive automatic bids for the first time.

ROY KIDD STADIUM

Roy Kidd Stadium, Hanger Field and the Robert B. Begley Building, the home of Colonel football since 1969, is one of the most unique, architecturally-designed academic-athletics complexes in the nation.

Average attendance at football games has been around 10,000 fans in the last five seasons, highlighted by a crowd of 22,700 which watched the Colonels take on Western Kentucky in 2004 (the fifth-largest crowd in Roy Kidd Stadium history).

The stadium portion of the Begley Complex was named in honor of former head football coach Roy Kidd. The dedication took place on Sept. 8, 1990, when the Colonels defeated Central Florida, 24-12. Eastern opened the stadium in 1969 defeating Austin Peay, 29-10. Hanger Field was officially dedicated on Sept. 26, 1970 when the Colonels downed East Tennessee, 10-6. The field itself continues to bear the name Hanger Field.

The nine-story structure provides seating on its slanted roof for 16,000 football spectators while an additional 4,000 can be seated in bleachers across the field. Hanger Field underwent a transformation from natural grass to synthetic turf this past spring.

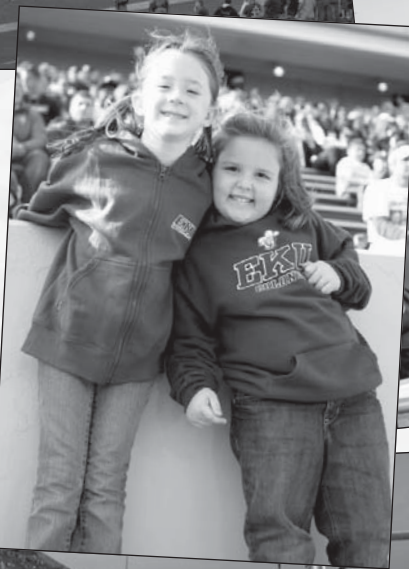

The Colonels have found Kidd Stadium to their liking during its 40-year history. Entering the 2009 season, Eastern has won 188, lost 40, and tied 1 (.823 winning percentage), and had a home undefeated streak of 36 games which began on Sept. 23, 1978, and was brought to a halt Nov. 27, 1984. ECU also ran off 27-straight wins at Hanger Field from 1985-89 and had a Roy Kidd Stadium OVC consecutive game winning streak of 22 games dating back to 1977 broken in 1984 and another 20-game OVC win streak stopped in 1990.

The single-level pressbox, which towers 94 feet above the playing field, has working space for 87 media representatives, including private coaching booths, radio booths and film areas. A new full-color video scoreboard was unveiled for the stadium in 1999.

Facilities inside the stadium include offices for the athletics staff, locker rooms, media interview room and a modern training room. The structure also has 10 racquetball courts, two basketball courts, a gymnastics area, two cardiovascular rooms and classroom space to serve 2,000 students simultaneously.

Eastern Kentucky defeated Austin Peay in the inaugural game at then Hanger Field, 29-10, on Oct. 4, 1969.

EKU FOOTBALL HISTORY

There have been many successful years of Eastern Kentucky football, but a few truly stand out as memorable and historic seasons.

Hall of Fame coach Roy Kidd took over an EKU program in the 1960s in need of a spark. In just his fourth season at the helm, the Colonels won the 1967 NCAA Mideast Region championship. A decade later, Kidd led Eastern to four straight national championship game appearances while capturing the 1979 and 1982 national crowns. In those four years, Eastern compiled a 46-7 record, was continually ranked No. 1 in the nation, finishing at the top spot in the country in both the 1981 and 1982 seasons.

Those championship seasons also set in motion a string of 17 Division I FCS playoff appearances during the next 19 seasons for the Colonels that three times – 1986, 1988 and 1991 – ended just short of national title games with close semifinal round losses.

Today's Colonels, now led by second-year head coach Dean Hood, hope to make some history of their own in 2009 and build upon the successes of past EKU championship squads.

1967 Mideast Region Champions

In the 10 years prior to 1967, Eastern Kentucky had managed only two winning seasons. However, Coach Kidd and the Colonels tallied a respectful 7-3 record in 1966, setting the stage for the first EKU championship team.

"This team got the championship tradition started at Eastern," said Kidd, who coached the Colonels to 315 victories in 39 years, won 16 OVC titles, two national I-AA crowns and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003. "They have always been and will always be one of my favorite teams."

Things started out on a sour note that season when the Colonels opened their 10-game schedule with a 16-0 loss to a tough University of Dayton team on the road in a contest that saw EKU held to just 34 yards rushing, while the Flyers piled up 231 yards on the ground.

This was the last game that the Colonels would lose that year.

"The success for this program really began with the groups ahead of us. Guys like (quarterback) Larry Marmie and (middle guard) Ron DaVingo ... we learned a lot from them. Coach Kidd had the vision and we all bought into it."

– Jim Guice, Grantland Rice Bowl MVP –

The second game of the year was a 35-7 decision for the Colonels over OVC rival East Tennessee that produced the emergence of freshman tailback Jack McCoy. He finished the game with 74 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Sophomore quarterback Tim Speaks, subbing for an injured Jim Guice, directed the Colonels to a 37-0 win over Austin Peay in the third game. The EKU defensive unit, known as the 'Headhunters,' lived up to their moniker by shutting out the Bucs as tri-captain Chuck Siemon and all-conference linebacker Ron Reed combined for 16 tackles and 20 assists in the win.

Eastern's quality depth at quarterback again proved to be too much for opponent number four that season as Speaks started at signal-caller for the Colonels, while first team All-OVC and All-American candidate Guice was used in passing situations only, as Eastern edged Middle Tennessee, 14-7. Eastern's last non-conference game came the following week when 15 records fell for the Colonels in a 55-0 trouncing of Northwood (Mich.) College. Guice was 17-of-30 in this game for 260 yards and four touchdown tosses.

The stage was set for the game of the year for who else but cross-state rival Western Kentucky who was visiting EKU for what would turn out to be its last appearance at the antiquated Hanger Stadium that stood in the middle of campus.

Every seat in the stadium was filled and many spectators stood on the hillside in the east end zone to form the record-setting 15,000 crowd in attendance that sunny Saturday afternoon.

One of the most memorable goal-line stands in Eastern history occurred in this game as the Headhunters stopped Western's All-American tailback Dickie Moore six out of seven times from the just outside the one-yard line, before Moore finally punched it in on the eighth try for a touchdown.

Eastern countered this score when fullback Bob Beck's 10-yard touchdown run was followed by Guice's two-point conversion run for the tying points, 14-14. A late would-be game-winning touchdown pass from Guice to Don Buehler was overthrown by inches as the game ended in a tie.

Three more easy victories and a tie with Morehead State in the regular season finale left Eastern with a 7-1-2 record. The Colonels were then chosen to make the University's second bowl appearance against Indiana Collegiate Conference champion Ball State University in the Grantland Rice Bowl in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

This bowl game was being held to decide the NCAA Mideast Regional Championship, which included a 10-state and 100 team area, one of four such college division championships set up by the NCAA that year.

Eastern went into the game shorthanded as the NCAA would not allow freshmen to play, which kept running backs McCoy and fullback Butch Evans on the sidelines. Kidd countered this ruling by moving All-American receiver Aaron Marsh to tailback.

This move paid off as Marsh made a huge contribution in the first half, picking up 46 yards on the ground, grabbing three passes and totaling 39 yards on two punt returns, before being forced from the game with a back injury.

After the Colonels were leading 13-7 at the break, it was time for one of the biggest plays in Colonel football history when All-American nose guard Teddy Taylor burst through the line, stole the ball from Cardinal quarterback Doc Heath and ran 39 yards for a score that put Eastern up, 20-7.

Ball State, ranked fifth in the nation heading into the Grantland Rice Bowl, responded by reaching EKU's nine yard-line before the Colonel defense stiffened and stopped the Cardinals' drive. The next few minutes was vintage Guice. He sliced and diced the Ball State defense, hitting six straight passes for 64 of the 91 yards in the drive, and culminated the back-breaking sequence of events with a 28-yard scoring pass to Ted Holcomb that provided the Colonels with an insurmountable 27-7 lead.

Co-captain defensive end Chuck Siemon earned All-OVC honors in 1967.

EKU FOOTBALL HISTORY

In the jubilant ECU locker room following the 27-13 victory over Ball State, the tri-captains for the '67 Colonels – Harry Lenz, Siemon and Marsh – presented the game ball to their elated coach, Roy Kidd, signifying his first championship season at Eastern.

"Coach, you are the best coach in the OVC, the Mideast Region and anywhere else that anybody plays football," Lenz said.

In addition to Guice, Marsh and Holcomb's heroics and the overall play of the Headhunters in the Bowl victory, John Tazel concluded his fabulous ECU career with a remarkable performance that included 11 pass receptions for 127 yards and a touchdown.

"Ball State was a very good team," Kidd said. "The thing that bothered me the most was their size. They were not only one of the biggest, but also one of the quickest teams we had ever faced."

Guice, who was chosen MVP of the game, set a Grantland Rice Bowl record for passing percentage (15-of-19, .788), throwing for 136 yards and two scores.

"When you talk about what got it all started for the tremendous success this program has enjoyed for the past 40 years, you have to start here with this 1967 Eastern team," former ECU head football coach Danny Hope said.

All-OVC fullback Dale Patton ran for 121 yards to help the Colonels capture their first national championship, a 30-7 victory over Lehigh in 1979.

1979 National Champions

Eastern's entry in national football prominence began ominously during spring break in 1979 when Colonel offensive lineman Don McKinnon tragically lost his life quickly with a bout with meningitis on March 11, 1979. ECU's football family responded to this unpredictable loss to its football family by wearing McKinnon's No. 68 on their helmets and by having the No. 68 painted in the corner of each end zone at Hanger Stadium for the 1979 year.

The 1979 season began on the heels of an 8-2 1978 campaign when ECU opened the season at NCAA Division I-A opponent Kent State. A goal line stand late in the game gave Eastern a hard-fought 17-14 win over the Golden Flashes and signaled to the football world that this '79 team could indeed be something special.

"That 1979 team was a group of kids that never gave up ... If you believe in destiny, I believe that team was destined to be winners from the very first game of that season."

– Roy Kidd, former ECU head coach –

Eastern won four of its next five contests, defeating Troy State, Austin Peay, Middle Tennessee and Division I-A Cal-State Fullerton, losing only to East Tennessee, 27-20. This quick start propelled the Colonels to a 5-1 record and a No. 1 national ranking coming into ECU's annual Homecoming battle with arch-rival Western Kentucky.

The 54th renewal of the state's oldest football rivalry on Oct. 20, 1979, between Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky lived up to its billing. The game produced the biggest crowd in Roy Kidd Stadium history as 25,300 football fans filled every inch of stadium, bleacher and hillside seating available on a beautiful 75-degree sunny afternoon.

Fifty-nine minutes into the contest the scoreboard read Eastern 8, Western 6 with the difference being a two-point conversion pass from ECU quarterback Bill Hughes to tight end Cris Curtis. However, the Hilltoppers were driving and obviously setting up what the Red and White faithful surely figured would be a game-winning field goal.

With just seconds remaining, Western lined up for the 18-yard chip-shot boot that would give the 'Toppers the victory. However, senior All-Ohio Valley Conference defensive back Danny Martin had other ideas as he broke through the line and blocked the kick, preserving the two-point victory.

Elation was short-lived, however. The emotional victory took its toll as the Colonels traveled to Murray State the next weekend for an ABC televised contest that ended with the Colonels on the short end of a 24-7 Racer victory.

Eastern rebounded with three straight impressive victories — 35-0 over Tennessee Tech, 27-21 over No. 2 ranked Jackson State and 34-7 over conference rival Morehead State. These three wins, coupled with Grambling's loss to Southern, caught the I-AA football committee's attention and Eastern entered the four-team playoff for the national championship as an at-large representative.

ECU made the most of its invitation, hosting the game and ABC television in what was called by one veteran network announcer as "the most exciting football game I have ever seen." The Colonels were pitted against No. 1 ranked Nevada-Reno and its outstanding tailback Frank Hawkins in the opening round game.

Once again, much like in the Western Kentucky contest played earlier that season at ECU, it seemed as though a last-minute kick was going to send Eastern to defeat. With Nevada-Reno having reeled off 20 straight points to tie the score at 23-all with 39 seconds left, All-American noseguard Joe Richard took a page out of Danny Martin's 'kick-blocking book' and stormed through the line to block the extra point, leaving the score knotted at 23, keeping ECU's national title dreams alive.

In the first overtime period, both teams scored a touchdown and kicked the extra point. In the second overtime, Eastern's defense stiffened and held the Wolfpack scoreless on its possession.

After moving the ball to the one-yard line, Kidd called on the reliable David Flores who booted the winning 17-yard field goal that gave the Colonels the 33-30 victory and sent Eastern packing to Orlando, Fla., for an appearance at the Citrus Bowl Stadium and a match-up with the nation's best I-AA defense — the Engineers of Lehigh University in the national championship game.

EKU FOOTBALL HISTORY

"That 1979 team was a group of kids that never gave up," Kidd said. "They kept getting better and better as the year wore on and kept plugging until they reached their goal of winning it all. If you believe in destiny, I believe that team was destined to be winners from the very first game of that season."

Eastern literally ran all over the vaunted Lehigh defense, totaling 288 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns. All-OVC fullback Dale Patton and tailback Alvin Miller led the way with 121 and 81 yards, respectively, on the ground. Miller was named MVP of the national championship game, as he totaled 144 all-purpose yards in the Colonels' dominating 30-7 win.

The jubilant EKU locker room underneath the massive Citrus Bowl stadium was filled with tears of joy and tears of remembrance as Don MacKinnon's mother and sister made their way through a host of well-wishers, members of the media and Colonel players and coaches to where Coach Kidd stood with the coveted national championship game ball.

As Don's mother, Elizabeth MacKinnon, accepted the game ball, thoughts went back to the goal-line stand in the season opening victory against Kent State, to Danny Martin's blocked field goal against Western Kentucky, to Joe Richards' blocked extra point against Nevada-Reno and to other "big-time" plays that kept the dream alive.

"I really think his [Don MacKinnon] memory was an inspiration to this team," Martin said, whose No. 7 jersey will long be remembered as always being around the football and making big play after big play. "I know that sometimes when I was down and things weren't going well, I'd find myself thinking about him."

Miller echoed the thoughts of his teammate.

"I gave my best for Don and so did everybody else," said the always affable Miller.

"We were really a close bunch of guys in '79 that had a lot of fun playing football together," Hope remembered. "I believe as I look back on our football history this team might have been extra special for the University because this was the first time that they got to take Cinderella to the Ball. There's always a lot of memories and pride felt when you talk about that first national championship team."

Linebacker Alex Dominguez led EKU in tackles in 1980 and 1982.

As EKU was returning to the hotel after the game, the marquee at the team's headquarters in Orlando told the story of a very exciting 1979 football season –

"Congratulations! Eastern Kentucky No. 1 National Champs."

1980 National Finalists

Thirty-three lettermen returned for Kidd as the Colonels tried to defend their national crown in 1980. The season began with a shockingly close 24-21 come-from-behind victory over Kentucky State and, seven games into the season, Eastern stood with a 5-2 overall record and 2-2 conference mark. Much like the year before, it was time to make a statement, and the Colonels did just that, reeling off four straight wins over Murray State, Tennessee Tech, Division I-A East Carolina and Morehead State to secure its second straight at-large bid into the four-team I-AA playoff field.

Instead of opening at the friendly confines of Eastern's Hanger Field, the I-AA committee sent the Colonels to Bethlehem, Pa., for a rematch of the 1979 national championship contest to do battle with the then-ranked No. 1 Lehigh Engineers. In a tight contest, Colonel tailback Anthony Braxton's 40-yard run down the near sideline gave EKU the boost it needed in a 23-20 upset victory.

This set up a second straight national championship game – this time in Sacramento, Calif., in the Camellia Bowl versus the Boise State University Broncos. A long touchdown pass from quarterback Chris Isaac to split end David Booze gave Eastern the 29-24 lead with just 55 seconds left until a second consecutive national title.

Boise State, however, methodically advanced the ball downfield and faced a fourth and goal from the Colonels' 16-yard line. Bronco quarterback Joe Aliotti was able to elude the Colonel pass rush and found an open receiver in the end zone for the game-winning touchdown. The 31-29 final verdict was gut-wrenching and difficult to accept on the foggy, drizzly California day as the 1980 Colonels had to settle for the national runner-up trophy.

EKU FOOTBALL HISTORY

1981 National Finalists

Kidd, who was honored at the conclusion of the 1980 season as the Chevrolet and ABC Sports I-AA National Coach of the Year, welcomed back 36 lettermen for the 1981 season as EKU went 10-1 through regular season play with the only blemish coming at Division I-A Navy.

Following the loss to the Midshipmen in the third game of the year, sophomore tailback Terence Thompson's effort against the University of Akron started the Colonels on a 10-game winning streak that would send EKU into the national title contest with a 12-1 record. On that day in September, Thompson rushed for a then-school record 293 yards and tied another school mark in that same game as he found paydirt four times on runs of 18, 66, 78 and 93 yards.

Eastern's 19-11 victory at Hanger Field over Western Kentucky gave the Colonels sole possession of first place in the OVC.

That win was preserved when defensive tackle Randy Taylor sacked Hilltopper quarterback Ralph Antone late in the game. Two weeks later, EKU clinched its seventh conference crown and first since 1976 when the Colonels demolished Tennessee Tech, 63-20.

In the first round of the playoffs which had expanded that year to three rounds, EKU hosted Tubby Raymond's Delaware Blue Hens in a shootout. Colonel quarterback Chris Isaac hit flanker Ranard McPhaul on a 32-yard scoring pass midway through the final quarter to give Eastern the lead. Later, defensive back Gus Parks ended any Delaware hopes of springing the upset with an interception as EKU held on for a 35-28 victory, sending Eastern into a rematch of the 1980 national title game with a semifinal contest at Boise, Idaho, against the BSU Broncos.

On a windy, snowswept lake-blue color Astro-turf field before 22,000 rabid Bronco fans, Eastern avenged its devastating loss the year before to BSU by handing Boise State a 23-17 defeat on the strength of three Jamie Lovett barefoot-kicked field goals.

For the third straight year, Eastern found itself in the national championship game, this time in Wichita Falls, Texas, in a Pioneer Bowl appearance against Idaho State. Bengal quarterback Mike Machurek's accurate touch was too much for the Colonel defense as he completed 29-of-44 passes for 330 yards and four scores as Idaho State won the national crown with a 34-23 decision over the Colonels.

A remarkable season that was highlighted among other exciting plays by flanker Jerry Parrish's 87-yard run on a reverse for a score in Eastern's 14-3 win over Dayton; senior roverback and 1999 College Football Hall of Fame inductee George Floyd's game-saving interception in a 24-20 defeat of Murray State, one of a school-record 10 interceptions that season; and the emergence of "The Bruise Brothers" at linebacker – junior Alex Dominguez and sophomore David Hill – had come to its conclusion with Eastern finishing the year ranked No. 1 in the nation with a final 12-2 overall record.

"You really can't be sad about this season," recalled EKU offensive line coach Tom Jones. "You've got to realize not everyone gets to the finals ... especially three years in a row."

1982 National Champions

The string of four straight national championship game appearances would end in 1982 during the most magical of seasons which culminated in an undefeated 13-0 record, a No. 1 national ranking and the school's second national football crown.

The '82 year began with a nail-biter at Orangeburg, S.C., against South Carolina State. Eastern was trailing 19-17 late in the game when defensive end Allen Young blocked a Bulldog punt, setting up Lovett's game-winning 39-yard field goal.

"We tried to keep the ball in the middle of the goal posts," Kidd said. "We noticed that the ones he had missed were from the hashmarks."

Before the game-winning kick, Lovett groomed his spot to attempt the field goal by pulling the tall grass from the turf, leveling a smoother surface in which to kick. His quick work brought the needed result as his field goal fluttered through the uprights to start the Colonels on their undefeated year.

This win featured quarterback Tuck Woolum in his first start for the Colonels and he responded with a 14-of-28 afternoon passing for 209 yards, including a 70-yard strike to tight end Tron Armstrong.

In the fifth game of the year, a 35-10 win over Middle Tennessee, split end Steve Bird was named OVC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Blue Raiders which included six receptions for 127 yards and two touchdowns. Tailback Eddie Hairston aided the cause by rushing for 155 yards and a score as the Colonels solidified their No. 1 ranking and set up the daunting task ahead of going to Bowling Green and doing battle with Western Kentucky.

For the first time since 1968 when Eastern defeated Western 16-7 in the dedication game of the Hilltoppers' L.T. Smith Stadium, the Colonels came away with a victory. A Woolum-to-Bird 49-yard touchdown pass got the scoring underway for EKU, as Terrence Thompson returned from an ankle injury to rush for four scores and 143 yards in the 35-21 Colonel win.

The Eastern defense, led by Taylor, Dominguez, Hill, nose-guard Mike McShane, Parks and defensive back Anthony Jones shut down the Western attack that afternoon with the win running the Colonels' record to 6-0.

And then it was time for "The Game" – the contest that is still talked about and etched in the memory banks of all diehard Colonel fans.

Murray State was the opponent, a national TV audience watched on the SuperStation TBS and 18,100 fans were in attendance on a beautiful October night.

To win this game and keep its record unblemished for the year, Eastern had to mount a 16-play, 73-yard drive that featured an

"You really can't be sad about this season [1981]. You've got to realize that not everyone gets to the finals ... especially three years in a row."

– Tom Jones, former EKU offensive line coach –

Quarterback Tuck Woolum threw for 1,923 yards and 14 touchdowns in the undefeated 1982 season.

unheard-of three fourth-down conversions, including one fourth-down run by fullback Nicky Yeast that netted eight inches on a fourth and six-inch situation.

In a highlight-reel type game, it was once again the combination of Bird and Woolum that eventually put the game in the "W" column for the Colonels. This time, their six-yard touchdown hook-up with 14 seconds left gave Eastern a 21-20 lead. The students were so involved that twice they rushed on to the field with excitement, once when Bird's score had tied the game at 20-all and once when Lovett's extra point gave Eastern the lead.

After Eastern was assessed 27 yards in penalties for the fans rushing onto the field, Lovett had to kick off from the 13-yard line, setting up the Racers near midfield after the return. Not until Anthony Jones made an interception near the goal line did EKU pull off one of the most memorable wins in school history.

"We had lost our starting middle guard [McShane] and had an offensive tackle [Mark Willoughby] playing defensive tackle," Kidd said in support of his team's defensive effort.

After EKU clinched the OVC championship with a 34-17 win over Tennessee Tech and rounded out the regular season with a 20-3 defeat of rival Morehead State, Eastern was set to enter the I-AA playoffs with a spotless 10-0 record.

In the opening game of the playoffs, the Colonels gave coach Roy Kidd the best birthday present they could when they defeated coach Dennis Erickson's Idaho Vandals, 38-30, on a warm December 4th night at Hanger Field. Offensively, Bird highlighted the playoff win with seven receptions for 154 yards and two touchdowns, including one catch of 48 yards where his body was fully extended parallel to the ground to haul in the slightly overthrown Woolum pass.

"This was the best game I've ever seen any individual have," said Kidd as he talked about the All-American receiver Bird who hails from Kidd's hometown of Corbin. The game was sealed when Jones made an interception with 38 seconds remaining to end the last Vandal scoring attempt.

The second round of the playoffs found Eastern hosting the big, fast, talented Tennessee State Tigers who featured arguably one of the best teams to ever play at Hanger Field with players like defensive end Richard Dent, running back James Hunter and fullback Larry Kinnebrew on the roster.

Somehow, with zeros showing on the clock at the end of the fourth quarter, Eastern had escaped with a 13-7 victory. Longtime TSU coach John Merritt had boldly predicted at the two team's combined banquet the night before the game that "we were going to cage the bird." And TSU was able to do that, but yet failed to put but seven points on the board, as EKU won its 12th straight game of the season and its 31st consecutive home game.

The Delaware Blue Hens were now all that stood between EKU and a second national title. The venue – Wichita Falls, Texas, and a second straight appearance in the I-AA Pioneer Bowl.

In the title game, Parks blocked his sixth kick of the season, this one a Delaware field goal attempt which was scooped up by defensive end Richard Bell who romped 77 yards for a touchdown as EKU ran out to a 17-0 lead over the Blue Hens. Although Delaware scored 14 fourth-quarter points, the Colonel defense held firm and Eastern had its second national football title.

"Tuck became a super player and was a real leader that year," Kidd said. "And our defense played its best two games of the year in the playoffs against Tennessee State and Delaware."

In those final two games, Eastern held the nation's top two scoring teams to a combined total of just 21 points.

"The 1982 season was simply amazing," Bird said, who signed with the NFL St. Louis Cardinals upon graduation. "Everybody on that team brought something to the table and we all believed in each other. We went into that huddle. There was no funny business. We each had a job to do and we went out and did it and I'm talking about all 11 guys on every play."

"Tuck was great and he deserved to be the captain," continued Bird. "He was always there for everybody, both on and off the field. Everybody loved him and he just kept proving people wrong with the way he played. I've been around a lot of teams and that was a unique bunch of seniors that refused to lose."

Four years ... 53 games ... 46 wins ... four straight national championship games ... two national titles ... numerous weeks of being ranked No. 1 during those four seasons ... two conference championships ... the 1982 season culminating with a perfect 13-0 record ... first OVC team to win 13 games and one of the first in the history of college football to reach that win total in one season.

Can we say the word DYNASTY?

NFF HALL OF FAMERS

George Floyd (inducted 1999)

George Floyd, former defensive back for Eastern Kentucky University from 1978-81, was among the 1999 Divisional Class of Inductees for the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Induction ceremonies were held in South Bend, Ind.

"We're very happy George was chosen for such a high honor," former ECU head football coach Roy Kidd said, who joined Floyd in the Hall in August 2003. "I know one thing, that young man could play the game of football. And one of the things I liked best about George was that he didn't mind hitting people. He was always around the football and was certainly a big reason for our success those four years he played for us."

Floyd was a member of Eastern's first I-AA national championship team (1979) and played for two other Colonel teams (1980, 1981) that went to the national championship game before losing. He was a first-team All-American those last two years he played for ECU.

The defensive back was a four-year starter and served as the team co-captain in 1981. Floyd was selected as the 1980 Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year after recording five interceptions, one of which he returned 100 yards for a touchdown. While at Eastern, Floyd set several school records, two of which still stand – career interceptions (22) and career interception return yardage (328).

"We are proud of the Divisional Hall of Fame program, now in its fifth year, which continues to positively impact college football by honoring players and coaches from the divisional level with the ultimate honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame," stated Chairman of the National Football Foundation, Jon F. Hanson.

Floyd played four years (1983-86) of professional football for the National Football League's New York Jets. He is currently an assistant principal at Boone County High School in Florence, Ky.

Included in the 1999 Divisional Hall of Fame Class were George Bork, quarterback, Northern Illinois (1960-63); Randy Trautman, defensive tackle, Boise State (1961-64); Willie Galimore, halfback, Florida A&M (1953-56); Jim LeClair, defensive tackle, North Dakota (1970-71); Teel Bruner, defensive back, Centre College (1982-85); and Floyd.

Coaches in the '99 Hall of Fame Class were Billy Nicks, Morris Brown (1930-42) and Prairie View A&M (1945-47, '52-65) and James Sochor, California-Davis (1970-89).

Roy Kidd (inducted 2003)

The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame inducted legendary former Eastern Kentucky football coach Roy Kidd into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

Kidd, who retired from his coaching duties at ECU, his alma mater, after the 2002 football season as the sixth all-time winningest coach in NCAA Division I or I-AA football history, coached the Colonels for 39 years, compiling a 315-123-8 (.715) overall record.

During his tenure at Eastern from 1964-2002, he led the Colonels to 16 Ohio Valley Conference titles and made a record 17 NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances. ECU appeared in four consecutive NCAA Division I-AA national championship contests, winning the 1979 and 1982 national titles.

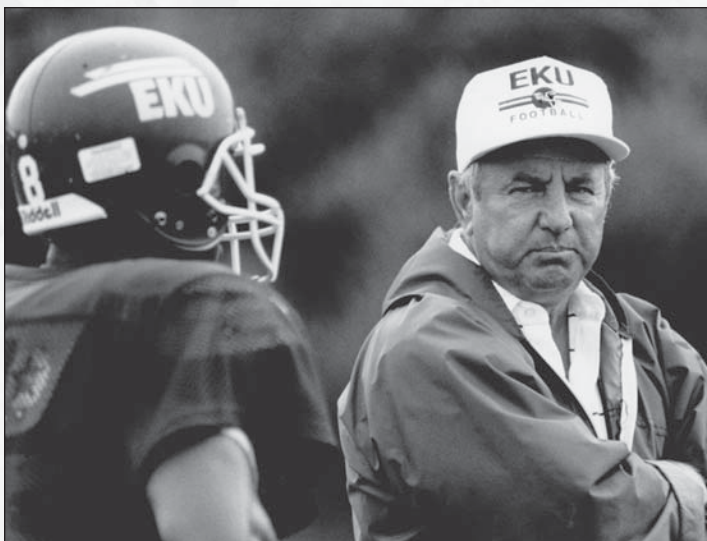

A two-time Division I-AA National Coach of the Year and 10-time OVC Coach of the Year, Kidd has the third most victories at a single school among all divisions in NCAA history. In 39 seasons, his teams recorded 37 non-losing seasons, including a current streak of 25 consecutive seasons with a winning record.

Kidd, who has coached 41 players who have gone on to sign with National Football League teams, 55 All-Americans and 202 first team All-OVC selections, is a member of the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame and has had the ECU football stadium named in his honor.

A past president of the American Football Coaches Association, Kidd has been a two-time Lexington Herald Sportsman of the Year.

The Kentucky High School Athletic Association's highest football award each season, given to the best high school football player in the state of Kentucky, is named the Roy Kidd Award. Beginning with the 2003 season, the OVC Coach of the Year award was named the Roy Kidd OVC Coach of the Year Award.

Kidd was inducted into the Ohio Valley Conference Hall of Fame on May 30, 2003, at the league's Honors Luncheon held in Nashville, Tenn.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Editor's Note

The following list was compiled from various sources during the spring of 2007. Although all cautions were taken to avoid errors, we do realize that names were most likely omitted due to the immensity of the task. Rosters were missing from the 1909-36 seasons along with some rosters from the 1940s and 1950s. Redshirt years were not included. If you have additions, or find errors in the list, please contact the Athletic Public Relations office.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Press Box

Eastern Kentucky University working press facilities are located atop the home stands at Roy Kidd Stadium. The ninth level houses space for sports writers, home and visiting radio, home and visiting coaches and public address. Only working press, coaches and game administration personnel with valid credentials will be admitted to this level.

Press Passes

All requests for working press credentials should be directed to the Athletic Public Relations Office. Passes not furnished by return mail must be picked up in person at the "Press Will Call" window located in front of Roy Kidd Stadium.

Photographers

Photographers must secure sideline passes from the Athletic Public Relations Office and adhere to a working area designated as "any area along the sidelines, except between the 30-yard lines, and beyond the end zones."

Parking

Media parking is located on the north end of the stadium in the lot next to the Student Wellness Center.

Services

Game programs, flip cards and statistics are provided at every Eastern Kentucky home game. A meal and drinks will also be served prior to every contest. Post-game interviews will be conducted in separate defined locations outside of each team's locker room. Wireless internet is available in the press box.

Player Interviews

Phone interviews will be arranged at the player's convenience, but it is asked that all player interviews (in person or via phone) be arranged through the Athletic Public Relations Office. During game weeks, all player interviews must be conducted by the end of practice on Thursday. Requests are asked to be made at least 24 hours in advance.

Coaches' Interviews

The best time to interview Coach Hood or any member of the football coaching staff is in the mornings. Please call the Athletic Public Relations Office to set up all interviews.

Weekly Press Conference

Head coach Dean Hood will conduct a press conference every week prior to an Eastern Kentucky game. The conference day, time and location will be announced to media members prior to the beginning of the season. A few select players will be available for interviews at the weekly press conference as well.

Eastern Kentucky's official colors are maroon (PMS 209) and white.

MEDIA INFORMATION

All three Lexington network television stations (WKYT-27, WLEX-18 and WTVQ-36) cover ECU home football games at Roy Kidd Stadium.

Radio Coverage

Radio station WCYO (100.7 on the FM dial) will serve as the flagship station for the 2009 ECU Football Network. WCYO "The Coyote" is the flagship station for Wallingford Broadcasting of Richmond and Irvine. With 25,000 watts of power, The Coyote signal reaches more than 625,000 people.

This year's broadcast team will again be headed by longtime play-by-play announcer Greg Stotelmyer, who will be serving his 26th season as "The Voice of the Colonels" and his 30th season overall covering ECU football.

Stotelmyer has been employed the past 21 years as a reporter for WTVQ-TV in Lexington and also serves as the producer and host for the Coach Dean Hood Show and Coach Jeff Neubauer Show seen on Channel 36.

Joining Stotelmyer in the booth as the analyst for the seventh season will be Greg McClellan, who had handled the field reporting duties from 1997-2000.

In addition to the radio broadcasts, the ECU Football Network features pre-game interviews with coaches and players, and Hood joins Stotelmyer on the field after each game for the informative Coach Dean Hood Post-Game Show.

EKUSports.com

Eastern Kentucky's Athletic Department unveiled its new web site in the summer of 2008.

The site, which is powered by Internet Consulting Services, features the latest news on all the ECU athletic teams. Live stats, feature stories, rosters, photo galleries and up-to-date schedules are just a few of the things that can be easily accessed through the site.

The site also features streaming audio for each football game, streaming video for all home games, press conference video clips and breaking news as it happens.

Fans can also sign up for an e-mail newsletter service through the site that will allow them to stay up-to-date on all their favorite Colonel squads.

Perhaps the best feature for ECU fans is the fact that audio from all football games will be streamed live via EKUSports.com at no charge to the fan.
