TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY™

Founded in 1912, Tennessee State University has grown dramatically from a small college to two campuses: the 500-acre main campus and the downtown Avon Williams campus which is located in the heart of Nashville near the State capitol.

The diverse student population of more than 8,000 represents 46 states and 45 countries. TSU has been listed for 11 consecutive years in the U.S. News & World Report "Guide to America's Best Colleges."

Tennessee State University is a comprehensive, urban, coeducational land-grant university offering 45 bachelor degrees and 24 master's degrees. Doctoral programs include biological sciences, psychology, public administration, computer information systems engineering, administration and supervision, and curriculum and instruction. When you think about Tennessee State University, many things come to mind – a rich heritage and legacy in athletics, academics, entertainment, research and service.

Tennessee State University has long been a rising star among universities across the country. It is designated as one of the best public historically black colleges and universities in the nation, and it's not by accident.

Tennessee State University is among the few historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) with a chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, the oldest and largest freshman honor society in the United States and a Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the most prestigious honor society comprising all academic disciplines.

A great deal of focus has been given to improving the academic environment – strengthening our research reputation, attracting and retaining the best and brightest students, encouraging service-focused programs, engaging and supporting expert faculty in diverse fields, building on our student-centered philosophy and holding steadfast to our motto of "Think. Work. Serve."

PORTIA H. SHIELDS, PH.D.
INTERIM PPRESIDENT

Dr. Portia Shields was appointed to the presidency of Tennessee State University effective January 2, 2011 – the first female to assume the role of President in the history of the institution.

Shields assumed the executive post at Albany State University in 1996, becoming its first female president and retiring in 2005 after serving in the capacity for eight years.

As the seventh president of the university, Shields inherited a campus recovering from the destructive flood waters of the Flint River, which had consumed nearly two-thirds of the 204-acre campus in 1994.

Her leadership was critical to the university's comeback, as she spearheaded a $153 million rebuilding program that revitalized the institution. Perhaps her most notable achievement was the success in raising funds and external support for the University.

She was instrumental in securing an unprecedented $3-million donation from Georgia-born performing artist Ray Charles in 2002, and procured more than $25 million in external grant funds in the following academic year.

Prior to her leadership at Albany State, Shields served as Dean of the School of Education, Howard University, Washington, D.C. where she initiated the University's first comprehensive early learning and pre-college preparation program in health science. She previously served as director of medical education and biomedical communications in the University's College of Medicine where she led the design and build of state-of-the-art science and technology labs and enhanced the academic performance of medical students.

Most recently, Shields served as chief executive officer and chief academic officer of Concordia College in Selma, Ala., from November 2007 to December 2009.

Shields received her primary, secondary and college education in her native home, Washington, D.C. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from the District of Columbia Teachers College, one of three institutions later merged to form the University of the District of Columbia.

She earned a Master of Arts degree in Education from George Washington University, Washington, D.C., and the Doctor of Philosophy degree in Early Childhood and Elementary Education from the University of Maryland at College Park.

TERESA PHILLIPS
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Teresa Lawrence-Phillips became head of the Tennessee State University athletics department in April of 2002. As director, the athletic department has made tremendous strides on the playing field, campus, community and classroom.

Some accomplishments under the Phillips' administration include the launching of the first official website for TSU Athletics in August of 2002, the revitalization of the Big Blue Booster Club, the recognition of Ohio Valley Conference Scholar Athletes, and conference championships in volleyball, women's track including a PGA minority national championship in men's golf.

Phillips also has the distinction of being the first woman ever to coach an NCAA Division I men's basketball team en route to being named one of the "101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports" by Sports Illustrated in 2003.

She was also named as the Second Most Influential Woman in Sports in Tennessee by The Tennessean newspaper. In addition, she was named USA Today's National Coach of the Year in 1990 and was a three-time OVC Coach of the Year selection.

No stranger to athletic success, she was head coach of the Lady Tigers basketball program at TSU for 11 seasons from 1989-2000. Phillips guided the 1993–94 squad to the program's first-ever OVC regular season crown, the Ohio Valley Conference tournament championship, and the team's first appearance ever in the NCAA tournament.

Phillips and her staff enjoyed their most successful season in 1994–95 as the Lady Tigers (22–7, 12–4 OVC) shared the regular season title. TSU claimed its second consecutive tournament title and a trip to the NCAA tournament. She has been invited twice to serve as an assistant coach for USA Basketball (1995 and 1999) and was invited to serve as an assistant coach for the U.S. Olympic Festival North Squad.

Prior to her stint at TSU, Phillips was head coach at Fisk University for four years. She guided the Bulldogs to WIAC League and Tournament Championships in 1987 and 1988 and was tabbed WIAC Coach of the Year twice (1987, 1988). She compiled a 68-34 overall record with the Bulldogs.

She graduated from Vanderbilt University with a bachelor's degree in Economics before obtaining a Masters in Education from TSU in 1999. Phillips earned several honors as a three-year letter winner at Vanderbilt. She was the first recipient of the Lady Commodore Athlete of the Year honor, given to the best all-around female athlete. In addition, she received the Nashville Civitan's Sportsmanship Award in 1979 and 1980.

She is an inaugural member of the Girls' Preparatory School Sports Hall of Fame and a 2008 inductee of the Lookout Mountain Sports Hall of Fame. She lives in Nashville with her two sons, Micah and Kyle.

SEASON OUTLOOK

The Tigers return 38 letterwinners, including 16 starters, on a roster of 95 that currently lists 12 seniors, 15 juniors, 19 sophomores, 17 redshirt freshmen and 32 incoming freshmen. Five players also return that started all 11 games last season including three on defense and two on the offensive end.

In total offense, posted 355.5 yards per game. TSU averaged 20 points per game through the season scoring a total of 220 points while scoring 28 touchdowns in the mix. Their ability to score points ranked them seventh in the league. However, five players return that accounted for 126 points which is more than 50 percent of the points tallied in 2010.

Last season, under the direction of first-year offensive coordinator, Mike Jones, TSU posted 2, 090 rushing yards and 1, 820 yards passing to total 3, 910 yards. Among the rushing yards accumulated three players return that contributed 847 yards.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Returning for the 2011 season to anchor the offensive line is five-year veteran, redshirt senior, Justin Ridgeway (6-4, 270). Ridgeway saw action as a true freshman in 2007 but redshirted when he was sidelined for the entire 2009 season when he suffered an injury during the preseason. He is the last offensive lineman on the Tigers roster that has blocked for a 1, 000 yard rusher.

Last year, he helped contribute to the Tigers offense that amassed 3, 910 yards while averaging 355.5 per game.

Three other returning other starters from last year's offensive line will include redshirt junior, Sherman Carter (6-2, 315) at the center, sophomore Kadeem Edwards (6-4, 320) at tackle and junior guard Anthony Woods (6-4, 335). Other veteran players include junior Rogers Gaines (6-7, 320), senior Brent Davis (6-3, 305) and redshirt freshman Robert Myers (6-5, 315).

QUARTERBACKS

The Tigers will have their starting quarterback for a second consecutive season as senior Jeremy Perry returns after coming off his best year at the helm of the Tigers' offense. Last year, Perry started nine games played, only sitting out two games due to injury. In 2010, he passed for 1, 469 yards (131-244-6) and nine touchdowns. He finished the year with a 163.2 yds/game average with a pass efficiency of 111.5 while completing 53.7 percent of his throws.

The only other player projected at the quarterback position is redshirt freshman Michael German. As a high school senior, German passed for over 3,000 yard at Ely high school in Pompano Beach, Florida.

Entering the season, German is listed as the reserve quarterback but is expected to see more and more game action as he gets adjusted to the speed of the college ranks.

RUNNING BACKS

Senior Dante Thomas returns as the top rusher from the previous season. Thomas made five starts in 11 games played and rushed for a team best, 793 yards, on 155 carries with six touchdowns.

Redshirt sophomore Trabis Ward is expected to gain a starting role in the backfield this year. In his freshman season Ward made one start in eight games played finishing with 182 yards on the ground. He averaged 2.9 yards/carry averaging 25.1 offensive yds/game. In that season, 2009. In that year, numbers included 198 all purpose yards for a 24.8 per game average, two receptions for 16 yards (8 yds/rec.),

Redshirt junior, Johntae Gleaves returns as the team's legitimate starter at fullback.
In 2010, Gleaves chipped his way into the season stats finishing with more receptions out the backfield than any other running back. He hauled in eight catches for 70 yards for an 8.8 yds/rec. average.

Junior Ryan Berry is the only reserve running backs with game experience, but walk-on Martine Stevenson has shown promise in spring drills

RECEIVERS
After accounting for 51 percent of the Tigers' offense from the quarterback position in 2009, Calvin McNairl has made the transition to wide receiver.

Last season, McNairl hauled in 34 receptions for 429 yards averaging 39 yards/game and 12.6 yards/rec. He caught a season long of 84 yards on his way to one of four touchdowns. In five starts and 11 games played, he amassed 426 all purpose yards averaging 38.7 per game.

Redshirt junior wide receiver, Jeremy Pryor, finished last season third in receptions with 27 totaling 288 yards. Last season, Pryor averaged 10.7 yds/rec and 26.2 yds/game.

Junior London Davis becomes a crucial addition to the TSU attack at tight end. After transferring from Illinois at the beginning of the 2010 campaign, Davis hauled in seven receptions for 102 yards averaging 14.6 yards/rec. and 10.2 yards/game. He also accounted for 114 all purpose yards averaging 11.4 per game.

DEFENSIVE LINE
A key to the Tigers' success defensive front is their defensive line. Led by redshirt senior Donte'e Nicholls at defensive tackle, a transfer in 2009 from the University of South Carolina, registered 35 tackles, 5.5 for a loss, three pass break-ups with three pass deflections in 2009. Last year he finished with 25 tackles (11 solo) including six for a loss (-24) and 1.5 sacks. His efforts included a pass break-up, pass deflection and quarterback hurry.

In 2010, defensive end, Lamar Wallace, recorded a breakout season finishing fourth on the team in tackles with 47 (17 solo). His numbers listed him first at the position among the defensive front. In his first year as a starter, he finished as the team's co-leader in quarterback hurries with four while tacking on 5.5 tackles for a loss of 24 yards.

Wallace was named as honorable mention on the 2011 Consensus Draft Services FCS Preseason All America Team.

Redshirt sophomore and defensive end, Antonio Harper, will transition from playing the linebacker position a season ago. Last year, Harper posted 23 tackles (17 solo) and finished second on the squad in tackles for a loss, collecting nine (-28 yds). He added one sack in his first season with TSU after transferring from Troy where he received a redshirt.

The defensive line returns a seasoned group in reserves Tyler Lusk, Lawrence Peterson, Brent Davis and Michael Murphy. Peterson tacked on two sacks to go with 15 tackles playing as a true freshman in 2010. Davis finished with one sack and three tackles before suffering a season ending injury, Murphy notched 13 stops and Lusk added three tackles.

LINEBACKERS

Considered the strong point of the Tigers defense the unit will be led for a third consecutive season, by the play of senior middle linebacker, Rico Council. Council continues to spearhead a defense that finished in the top three in the OVC the last three seasons.

Council returning player in tackles, he finished last year with a career high of 79. He currently ranks second in career tackles at TSU with 209 behind head coach Rod Reed (406). He was named to the 2010 All Ohio Valley Conference Football Second Team Defense.

To open the 2011 season, Council was voted OVC Co-Defensive Player of the Year. It is his first OVC preseason selection adding to the list of many for the upcoming year including Phil Steele's FCS All OVC First Team.

Council's preseason selections include 2010 Consensus Draft Services, HBCU and Phil Steele's OVC Second Teams. In his first year with TSU, Council led the team in tackles as a freshman with 67 stops. He was named to the OVC Newcomer Team as well as the CDS FCS All America and All HBCU teams.

Rico Council

Redshirt senior, John Jones, Jr., will rejoin the Tigers defense after sitting out the 2010 season. Jones, a transfer from Florida. Jones lines up in the "WILL" linebacker position.

In his first season, 2009, Jones started and played in 10-of-10 games. He led the Tigers in tackles with 70 (41 solo) and was the co-leader in tackles for losses with 8.5. At the end of the year, he garnered both an All Ohio Valley Conference Second Team and Newcomer Team selection.

Sophomore and "SAM" linebacker Wilson Robinson enters the 2011 season after making six starts out of 11 games played as a true freshman. He was one -of-four true freshmen in the league named to the All OVC Newcomer Team.
Another talented linebacker counted on to make an impact this season is redshirt sophomore,

DEFENSIVE BACKS

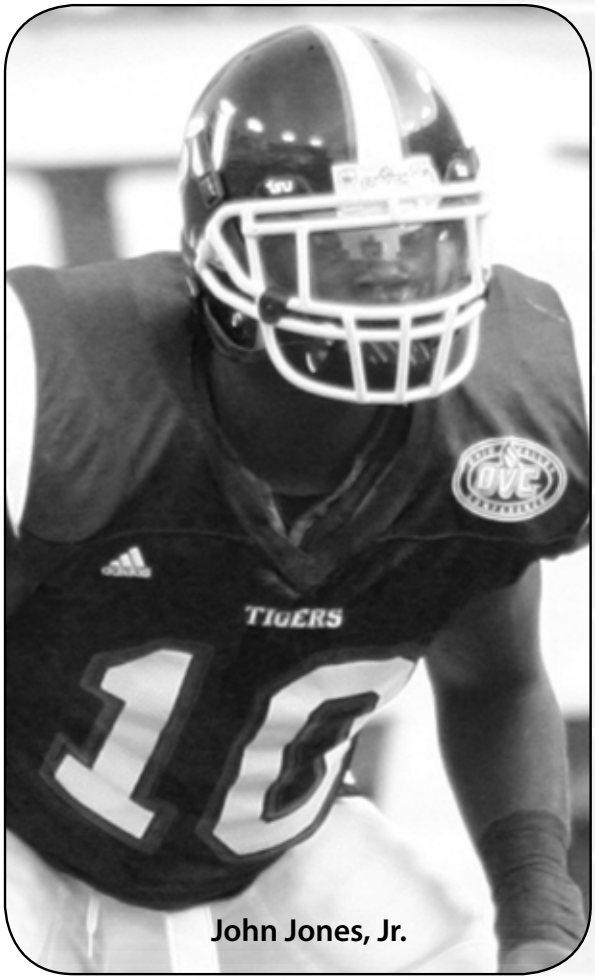

Redshirt junior, Justin Bather, will enter 2011 as the leader of the Tigers' secondary. Bather has played both safety and cornerback positions. In 2010, he made all 11 starts finishing with 35 tackles (29 solo) including three tackles for a loss (-10).

He is one of three returning defensive backs that recorded an interception. Last year, the secondary registered ten interceptions.

In 2011, senior free safety, Joe Wylie, a transfer from Miami, returns as one of the solid veterans in the secondary making seven starts in 10 games last season.

Last year, he tallied 33 tackles (20 solo) while recording two tor a loss (-20), including one sack. In addition, Wylie recorded a pair of pass break-ups, pass deflections, and quarterback hurries each.

Redshirt sophomore Andrew Taylor made an immediate impact after transferring from Colorado State last year Taylor served as one of the top reserves and TSU's primary nickel-back in his first season. Taylor saw action in all 11 games finishing the year with 21 tackles (14 solo), 4.5 for a loss (-20) and a sack. In addition, he tallied four pass break-ups, five pass deflections, one interception and recovered and forced a fumble.

Sophomores Harold Watson and David VanDyke join the veteran reserves Dare Ayoola, a redshirt freshman is expected to see considerable time in the secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Last year, Julian Mallory, in his first season on the football roster, used his track sprinter's speed to mark great numbers for the Tigers. He led the Tigers with 15 kickoff returns for 314 yards, posting a 20.9 yds/return average. He closed out the season with 416 all-purpose yards averaging 46.2 per game

Junior Ryan Berry battled injuries in the early part of the season but managed to assist in the special teams game plan late in the year.

Redshirt junior, kick returner and defensive back, Rayshawn Weatherspoon, sparked Rod Reed's first season as head coach returning the opening kickoff of the 2010 season with an 89-yard a touchdown return.

The kicking game has let down the Tigers past seasons, but, improvements have been made with the solid place-kicking by sophomore Jamin Godfrey, and the addition of true-freshman punter Matt Moseley.

Junior long snapper and tight end, Hunter Howard, will enter 2011 as the Tigers long snapper for a third consecutive season.

Entering its 64th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. In 2008, for only the second time in the past decade, the Conference expanded by adding Southern Illinois University Edwardsville as the league's 11th member. The move expanded the OVC's geographical footprint to the St. Louis market and marked the first change in membership since expanding to the state of Alabama (Jacksonville State, Samford) in 2003.

The OVC's proud past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year.

The playing field isn't the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. Six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the league annually presents one institutional Academic achievement Award, as well as separate team awards in each Conference-sponsored sport.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the OVC prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The OVC sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its sixth decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

COUNCIL VOTED CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

THOMAS AND EDWARDS ALSO NAMED TO PRESEASON TEAM

Nashville, Tenn. - For the upcoming 2011 football season, Tennessee State University was predicted to finish eighth in the Ohio Valley Conference team standings with three players voted to the All Preseason Team and one sharing the Defensive Preseason Player of the Year honor.

Linebacker, Rico Council, runningback, Dante Thomas and offensive lineman, Kadeem Edwards, received their first Conference preseason selections.

The last time the Tigers had more than two make the preseason list was in 2008.

The announcement was made during the 2011 OVC Football Media Day at the Holiday Inn on July 25. In the predicted order of finish, the Tigers received an overall count of 33 after finishing last in the final standings at the end of the 2010.

Council highlights TSU, sharing the Co-Defensive Preseason Player of the Year with Jacksonville State's defensive lineman, Monte Lewis. Council is coming off his best season in 2010.

Last year, he finished second on the team in tackles with a career season high of 79. He currently ranks second in career tackles at TSU with 209 behind head coach Rod Reed (406). He ended the season as a selection on the All Ohio Valley Conference Football Second Team Defense.

Last year, he led the team in sacks (4) and was named OVC Defensive Player of the Week twice It was the first time he made weekly honors in the Conference. To open 2011, Council was selected to Phil Steele's FCS All OVC First Team.

His other career preseason selections includes selections to the 2010 Consensus Draft Services HBCU and Phil Steele's OVC Second Teams. In the 2009 preseason, he received the same CDS honor in addition to a FCS second team selection.

In his first year with TSU, Council led the team in tackles as a freshman with 67 stops. He was named to the OVC Newcomer Team and was named to the CDS FCS All America Second and All HBCU First Team.

In 2010, Thomas moved into the starting role after last year's senior running back Preston Brown (2010 All OVC Second Team) was sidelined for the entire season after going down with a knee injury in week five.

He recorded five starts in 11 games playe rushing for a team best, 793 yards, on 155 carries, and six touchdowns. In addition, he tallied two receptions for 22 yards and 815 all-purpose yards averaging 74.1 yds/game. On the year, he finished with more than 100 all-purpose yards three times.

He averaged 72.1 yds/game on the ground, tying for fourth in the OVC, and is the league's second leading rusher at the running back position returning this season.

Thomas recorded a career high, 186 yards on 24 attempts, recording 7.8 yds/carry, finishing with 202 all purpose yards. As a result from his performance, he was tagged with an honorable mention by the College Football Performance Awards that week.

Edwards joins his teammates after starting in six games last year sharing the duties at left guard. He helped the Tigers improve on offense finishing second in the OVC in rushing with 2, 090 total yards averaging 190 yds/game.

As a member of the offensive line, Edwards made an impact on the line of scrimmage helping the Tigers amass 3, 910 yards while averaging 355.5 per game. His maturation last year helped TSU rank fourth in sacks allowed in the league with 13 and first in time of possession per game with 32:12.

Rico Council

There has been a Tennessee State University Football player on every Ohio Valley Conference pre and post-season squad since the Tigers became eligible for a championship in the league.

Anthony Pleasant highlights the list becoming the first preseason and post season All-OVC pick for the Tigers.

Jim Lackey was the first Tiger selected to three preseason squads while gaining post season honors twice.

The list of TSU All-OVC standouts continued when Tyrone Butterfield was selected to the first team in 1997 for two positions, wide receiver and return specialist. That season, he became the Tigers' first OVC Offensive Player of the Year.

Leon Murray would follow winning the OVC Player of the Year Award in 1998. The next season, Lamar Carter accomplished a similar feat. becoming TSU Football's first ever OVC Defensive Player of the Year in 1999.

Runningbacks Charles Anthony (2004) and Javarris Williams (2008) garnered OVC Offensive Player of the Year after receiving first team selections. They bring TSU's Player of the Year total to five.

In 2005, Williams became one of three OVC players to make either the first or second team in addition to the all newcomer squad. That season, the OVC began recognizing first-year players with post season honors.

In 2008, Eugene Clifford became the first TSU defender named to both the All-OVC Second and Newcomer Teams at the end of the season.

For 2011, Rico Council became the first Tiger to receive OVC Preseason Player of the Year honors. He was named the league's Preseason Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

Tigers open season with JMC win over Alabama A&M

TENNESSEE STATE - 27 • ALABAMA A&M - 14

Nashville, Tenn. - To mark the beginning of the Rod Reed era of Tiger Football, Tennessee State University opened the 2010 season with a 27-14 win over Alabama A&M in the 12th Annual John Merritt Classic.

More than 22, 000 fans showed up at LP Field with high expectations to witness a strong showing by the Big Blue. TSU racked up 234 total yards averaging 11.5 yards per completion while posting seven sacks on the defensive side.

The Tigers struck early when Rayshawn Weatherspoon returned the game's opening kick-off 89 yards for a touchdown. The score was the longest return and the first touchdown from a kick-off in Classic history.

TSU went on to add 20 more points in the first half including two touchdown-passes from Jeremy Perry to Joseph Hills and one on the ground courtesy of Preston Brown.

Perry, the Classic's Offensive MVP, connected 11-of-21 for 127 yards. He found Hills in the second quarter at the 14:46 mark for a 15-yard strike and with 30 seconds left, the two linked up again for a 17-yard score. Hills finished with five receptions for 67 yards and two touchdowns.

With 3:40 left in the second, Brown capped a 92-yard drive on 17 plays with a score from four yards out. Brown finished with 18 carries for 48 yards.

The Tigers held the Bulldogs scoreless in the first half while holding them to 68 yards on 28 plays before the break.

Defensively, Rico Council and Eugene Clifford led TSU. Council finished with nine tackles (4 solo, 5 assists) and 1.5 sacks with Clifford recording eight stops (5 solo, 3 assists) and an interception that led to a scoring drive for the Tigers. Clifford was named the Classic's Defensive MVP.

Donte'e Nicholls gathered two sacks to go with two tackles and Brandon Bather recorded his first career interception to put the brakes on the Bulldogs in scoring range.

AAMU finished with 276 total yards and got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter when Deunte Mason found Rashan Johnson with 9:54 left on a 9-yard score. Mason tacked on another when he rushed in from 1-yard out with under three minutes left to play.

Mason finished throwing 19-of-39 with two interceptions for 187 yards. He led the Bulldogs in rushing with 18 carries for 44 yards. For the AAMU's defense, Larry Lumpkin led the way with nine tackles (7 solo, 2 assists) with four stops for a loss.

SOUTHERN HERITAGE CLASSIC
LIBERTY BOWL - MEMPHIS, TENN.

Tigers drop SHC thriller to Jackson State
TENNESSEE STATE - 26 • JACKSON STATE - 33

Memphis, Tenn. - In what is starting to become a familiar sight during the Southern Heritage Classic, Tennessee State University and Jackson State once again battled down to the final seconds.

This time, the Tigers of TSU dropped a 33-26 loss to JSU in front of a Classic crowd of more than 44, 000 fans at the Liberty Bowl. The loss snapped TSU's seven game win streak over JSU. The game also marked six of the last seven games in which the outcome was separated by seven points or less.

With 1:32 left and an opportunity to send it to overtime, the Tigers (1-1) drove down to the JSU two-yard line. A pass interference call gave TSU another chance with two seconds left in the game but a pass in the end zone fell incomplete.

Preston Brown led TSU with a SHC record, 218 yards rushing on 33 carries for a 6.6 per carry average. Brown scored two touchdowns with a 6-yard run to open the TSU lead in the first quarter, 7-0, and a two-yard score to narrow JSU's lead with 5:07 remaining.

The Tigers' offense finished with 409 yards averaging 4.9 yards per play.

Jeremy Perry threw 14-of-36 and one interception for 185 yards. Devin Wilson hauled in a team high, four receptions for 50 yards, including a 41-yard catch to give TSU an opportunity to knot the game up with the clock winding down.

On defense, Joseph Wylie led TSU with eight tackles (5 solo, 3 assists) with Jamal Coleman, Marcus Broxie, and Brandon Bather, tacking on six stops apiece.

TSU trailed 21-7 in the third but scored 12 straight points behind Jamin Godfrey's first career field goal from 24 yards out, a safety from a JSU bad snap during a punt situation that fell out the back of the end zone and a two-yard run by Dante' Thomas.

With the JSU lead, 21-19, Jackson State (2-0) added to their score with touchdown passes from SHC MVP, Casey Therriault.

In the fourth, Therriault connected with Marcell Wilder (13:29) and help march 94 yards on seven plays, completing a 17-yard TD score to Renty Rollins with 8:54 left.

Therriault finished 23-of-38 for 284 yards and four touchdowns. He completed passes to nine different receivers while tossing scores of 26 and 23 yards early in the game.

E.J. Drewery tallied a game-high five receptions for 62 yards and one touchdown. On the ground, JSU was led by B.J. Lee averaging 6.2 yards per carry from 75 yards on 12 rushes. JSU totaled 422 yards with Milt Patterson leading all defenders with 12 tackles (8 solo, 4 assists).

HOUCK STADIUM - CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO.

Tigers' comeback held short at Southeast Missouri State

TENNESSEE STATE - 17 • SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE - 19

Cape Girardeau, Mo. - The Tigers scored 14 unanswered points in the second half but it was not enough to overcome a 16-point deficit at the break. Despite holding the Redhawks scoreless in the second half, Tennessee State University fell short, 19-17, to FCS No. 25 Southeast Missouri State in OVC play at Houck Stadium.

TSU (3-3, 0-2) finished with 299 yards on offense while giving up a season-high 439 total yards including 390 on the ground. The loss snaps a two-game win streak.

Dante' Thomas rushed for 118 yards on 22 carries (5.4 avg.), his second straight game over 100-yards, to lead the offense with Jeremy Perry connecting 16-of-28 for 147 yards throwing one interception.

Jeremy Pryor and Travis James finished with game-highs each, recording five receptions apiece. Pryor gathered 54 yards receiving and James recorded 26.

Terrence Wright scored the only two touchdowns for TSU finishing with 29 yards on nine touts. Wright reached the end zone on a 6-yard run in the third, capping a 13-play, 67-yard drive after the Tigers recovered a SEMO fumble.

In the fourth, TSU stayed alive when Wright scored again on a 9-yard run to end a 10-play, 82-yard drive, with 6:43 remaining.

The Tigers stopped SEMO's following possession with a first career interception by Andrew Taylor at the TSU 36-yard-line to give the offense an opportunity to take the lead. However, a costly penalty on a fourth-down attempt forced a punt with the Redhawks notching two first downs to run out the clock.

The first half was the deciding factor in the ball game when the Tigers gathered 103 yards of offense with a time of possession of 9:03. After trailing 12-0, the Tigers only score in the first half was a career long 42-yard field goal by Jamin Godfrey.

TSU's defense slowed SEMO down in the second behind career highs from Rico Council and Sidney Tarver. Council finished with a game-high, 15 tackles, (6 solo) with Tarver following with 11 stops (9 solo) posting the only sack of the game.

For the Redhawks (5-1, 4-0), the ground attack was spearheaded by Henry Harris and Matt Scheible gathering 258 yards before the break. Harris rushed for 188 yards (6.5 avg.) on 29 carries for one touchdown. Scheible added 137 yards on 16 attempts rushing for one touchdown and throwing for another. He connected with Cedric Cox with 33 seconds left in the second to help SEMO score all 19 of their points in the second quarter.

SNOW STADIUM - JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Tigers suffer shutout to No. 3 Jacksonville State

TENNESSEE STATE - 0 • JACKSONVILLE STATE - 24

Jacksonville, Ala. - The Tennessee State University Tigers dropped their second straight with a 24-0 loss at FCS No. 3 Jacksonville State in OVC play.

TSU (3-4, 0-3 OVC) posted 219 yards but racked up 14 penalties for 117 yards. The Tigers' offense could not get in gear going 2-of-12 on third down. It was the first time the Tigers had been shutout since 2005 when they suffered a 49-0 loss to Eastern Kentucky.

Dante' Thomas ran for 94 yards on 18 carries for a 5.2 average while Jeremy Perry passed for 7-of-17 completed and 65 yards with two interceptions.

On defense, the Tigers pulled in two picks with Eugene Clifford and Justin Bather each posting one apiece. Michael Murphy led all defenders with eight tackles and Marquez Hall racked up seven total tackles, all solo stops.

Playing solid defense, the Tigers only trailed 7-0 with less than three minutes left to play in the first half. After holding the Gamecocks to a three-and-out, a costly fumble by TSU on the punt return gave the ball back to JSU on the Tigers' 18-yardline with 2:09 on the clock.

It would only take one play for JSU (6-0, 4-0 OVC) to score when Coty Blanchard found James Shaw for an 18-yard score in the end zone.

Blanchard went 4-of-4 for 32 yards with Marques Ivory connecting 8-of-19 for 67 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Shaw led all receivers with three receptions for 40 yards.

After James Esco hit a 27-yard field goal to give the Gamecocks a 17-0 lead at the break, Ivory found Jeff Cameron in the end zone with JSU marching down for the score on their opening drive of the second half. The touchdown capped a six-play, 64-yard drive.

The Gamecocks finished with 273 yards of total offense behind Calvin Middleton's 86 yards on the ground from 12 carries for a 7.2 average. Middleton put JSU on the board in the first with a 32-yard touchdown run.

JSU tied the longest winning streak in conference play at 11 games and gives them their best start in the 1991 season. TSU also holds the longest streak in OVC play at 11 games a feat accomplished during the 1999 season.

The Gamecocks posted three sacks behind Rodney Garrott. Garrott finished with six tackles (4 solo) and one sack while Antonio Bonner finished with a team high seven tackles (5 solo).

LP FIELD - NASHVILLE, TENN.

Tigers slip out of York race with loss to Tennessee Tech
TENNESSEE STATE - 10 • TENNESSEE TECH - 21

Nashville, Tenn. - After dropping three conference games, Tennessee State University had hopes of staying in contention for the Sgt. York Trophy but slipped out of the race with a 21-10 OVC loss to Tennessee Tech at LP Field.

The game was critical for TSU in the Sgt. York Trophy series, which is contested between the four OVC schools from the state of Tennessee. The Tigers suffered a loss to Austin Peay early in the season and will face the final school in the running, UT Martin, on Nov. 13.

The Tigers (3-5, 0-4 OVC) outgained the Golden Eagles (4-4, 3-2 OVC) posting 361 offensive yards to TTU's 200, but scored once in the red zone on three visits.

Calvin McNairl led all receivers with a career high, nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown. It was the first time the Tigers had a receiver break the 100-yard mark this season.

McNairl scored on an 84-yard catch and run from Jeremy Perry late in the second quarter to give TSU a 10-7 lead. Perry finished with 203 yards from 20-of-32 passing throwing one interception.

Joseph Hills picked up five receptions for 27 yards and Dante' Thomas rushed for 75 yards on 18 touches for a 4.2 average. Terrence Wright added 59 yards on the ground on seven carries (8.4 yards/carry) and two catches for 16 yards.

The Tigers only other score came courtesy of a 21-yard field goal by Jamin Godfrey to put them on the board first midway through the opening quarter. Godfrey would miss two other attempts in the second half from 24 and 31 yards out.

On defense, Brandon Bather's game-high 11 tackles (6 solo) led the Tigers with Sidney Tarver and Lamar Wallace picking up seven stops apiece. Marquez Hall hauled in the Tigers' only interception and Lawrence Peterson added a solo sack.

The Golden Eagles win their third straight with Tre Lamb completing 10-of-18 for 99 yards while throwing three touchdowns and one interception. After the Golden Eagles recovered a blocked punt on the Tigers' 25-yardline, Lamb found Tim Benford from 22 yards out in the second quarter to give TTU a 7-3 lead.

TTU then answered the Tigers' score in 51 seconds with under a minute to play in the first half when Lamb connected with Zack Ziegler on a 6-yard pass. The score capped a seven-play, 51-yard drive, to take the lead at the break, 14-10.

Lamb and Benford linked up again in the third quarter with a three-yard score closing an 80-yard drive on 15 plays for the final score. Benford finished with three receptions for 38 yards Kelechi Ordu had a team high, eight tackles, and Will Johnson added seven.

HOMECOMING / SENIOR DAY
LP FIELD - NASHVILLE, TENN.

Homecoming heartbreak for Tigers in overtime loss to Eastern Illinois
TENNESSEE STATE - 28 • EASTERN ILLINOIS - 31 (OT)

Nashville, Tenn. - Tennessee State University watched a 28-7 halftime lead vanish, falling to Eastern Illinois, 31-28, in overtime during Homecoming/Senior Night in front of a crowd of 21, 596 at LP Field.

With the loss, TSU (3-6, 0-5 OVC) remains winless in conference play while nursing a four-game skid.

In overtime, EIU scored on the first possession with a 37-yard field goal from Cameron Berra. The Tigers looked to have an opportunity to seal the game on 3rd-and-9 when Dominic Grooms connected with Jeremy Pryor on a 23-yard reception on the Panthers one yard line.

However, during Pryor's one hand lunge for the goal line, the ball came loose with the fumble bouncing out of bounds in the end zone for a touchback giving EIU the win.

Grooms, Pryor and Terrance Wright recorded career highs to help the Tigers post 457 yards of total offense. Grooms passed for 15-of-29 for 270 yards and one touchdown. Pryor pulled in a game-high six catches for 121 yards and Terrence Wright rushed for 138 yards on 14 carries (9.6 yards/carry) and one touchdown.

TSU posted all their points in the first half with Calvin McNairl scoring two touchdowns with one under center on a 6-yard run to put the Tigers on the board first.

McNairl scored again late in the second on a 20-yard reception from Grooms for his second touchdown catch of the season. Dante' Thomas also added a score on a 6-yard run late in the first quarter.

EUGENE CLIFFORD | PRESTON BROWN | ALEX DAVIS | GERSHOM JORDAN | RICO COUNCIL | WILSON ROBINSON

Nashville, Tenn. - Six members of the Tennessee State University Football team were selected to the 2010 All Ohio Valley Conference team.

The All-OVC Football Team is selected by a vote of the Ohio Valley Conference head football coaches and sports information directors.

Leading the Tigers with first team honors was senior safety Eugene Clifford.

Four Tigers were named to the second team including running back Preston Brown, offensive linemen Alex Davis and Gershom Jordan, and linebacker Rico Council. Freshman linebacker Wilson Robinson was named to the All-Newcomer squad.

Eugene Clifford , a 6-2, 204 senior safety from Cincinnati, Ohio, transferred to TSU from Ohio State in 2008. Clifford is a first-team All-OVC selection for the second year in a row, following a second-team and newcomer team selection in 2008.

He capped his senior season with 83 tackles, four interceptions, 10 pass breakups and 14 pass deflections in 11 games (that ranked him 10th nationally in passes defended at 1.27/game).

Clifford was a national finalist for the Sports Network's FCS Buck Buchanan Award, emblematic of the Top Defensive player in the NCAA's FCS division of football.

Preston Brown, a 5-10, 191 lbs, a senior running back from Antioch, Tenn. (Antioch HS), rushed for 760 yards and six scores before suffering a season-ending knee injury in the fifth game of the season.

He rushed for over 100 yards in four of the five games, recording over 200 yards in two games.

Brown was named MVP in the Atlanta Football Classic after setting a rushing record of 233 yards on 28 carries. At the time of his injury, he led the OVC and was third in the nation (FCS) in rushing (152.0 ypg).

Alex Davis, a 6-2, 318 lb, senior offensive guard from Sarasota, Fla. (Riverview HS), was a four-year starter on the Tigers offensive line and played in every game this season.

His solid blocking and leadership helped pave the way for a TSU offense that led the OVC in rushing during the first six weeks.

Gershom Jordan, a 6-6, 325 lbs. senior offensive tackle from Nashville, Tenn. (Whites Creek HS), was playing his first year as an offensive tackle after switching from defensive line duties last season. In 2008, he played tight end.

Rico Council, a 6-1, 255 lbs, junior linebacker from Chattanooga, Tenn. (Howard HS), was the team's leader in sacks this season with 4.0 (18 yards).

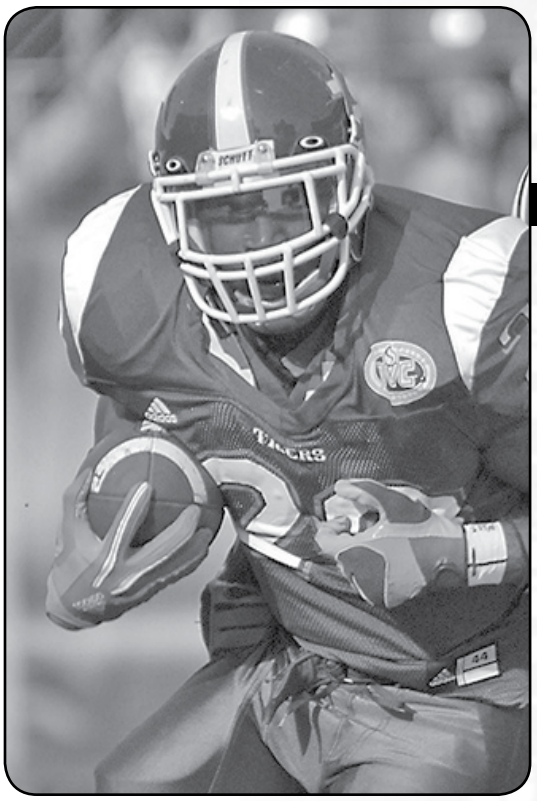

He was TSU's second leading tackler with 79 stops (39 solo) and registered six tackles for a loss (24 yards). Council was named to the All-Newcomer team in 2008.

Wilson Robinson, a 6-2, 218 lbs, freshman linebacker from Birmingham, Ala. (Spain Park HS) was named to the OVC All-Newcomer team.

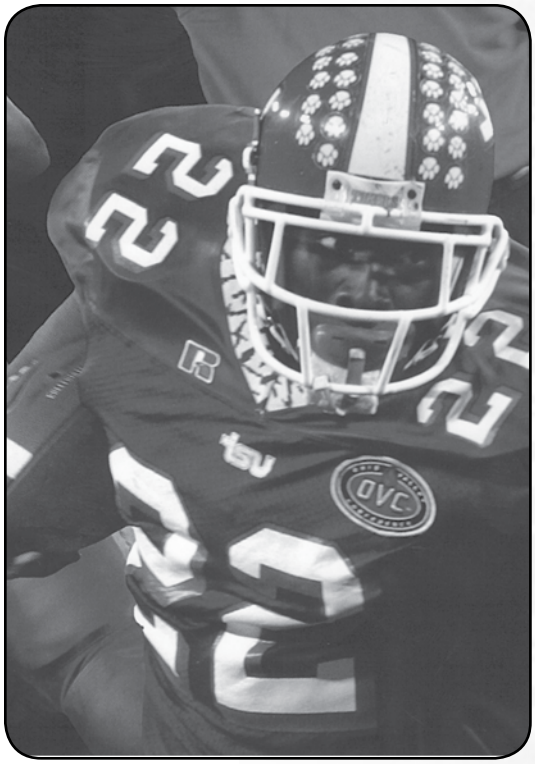

He played in all 11 games starting eight on the year. Robinson finished the season with 24 tackles (12 solo) including 2.0 sacks (11 yards) and 3.5 tackles for loss (16 yards).

TIGERS IN THE SUPERBOWL

Richard Dent played for the 1986 NFL Champions, Chicago Bears, and was named Super Bowl XX MVP.

In rookie season, Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie became the 17th TSU football alum to play for a NFL Championship, helping the Arizona Cardinals to Super Bowl XLIII in 2009.

Willie Mitchell (pictured left) and Fletcher Smith became the first Tigers to play in a Super Bowl. Both played in Super Bowl I in 1967 for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Jim Marsalis played in Super Bowl IV noting the last time the AFL played the NFL becoming the first Tiger to win a Super Bowl Championship. The following year, both leagues merged forming the NFL with two conferences, AFC and NFC.

Bennie Anderson captured the championship in 2001 with the Baltimore Ravens in Super Bowl XXXV. That was his first year in the league after being waived by the St. Louis rams during the preseason as a undrafted free agent in 2000.

Joe Gilliam, Jr., Ed "Too Tall" Jones, Anthony Pleasant, Mike Hegman and Randy Fuller are the only football Tigers to have played in more than one Super Bowl. Fuller made appearances with two different teams. Thus far, Jones has tallied more Super Bowl appearances with three.

Legendary Atlanta Falcon and Ring of Honor inductee, Claude Humphrey, played for the Falcons from 1968-1978. However, he made his only NFL Championship appearance in 1981 with the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XV.

Despite not playing in Super Bowl XLV, Anthony Levine was on the roster of the champions, Green Bay Packers. He was a member of the practice squad and was present during the trophy presentation. levine was seen during the post game touching the trophy and received a ring for his contibution during the year.

Tennessee State has been well represented on the rosters of 13 teams in 17 Super Bowls. Out of the 18 players who made Super Bowl appearances, nine have won a championship with their respective teams.

Former Tigers Willie Mitchell and Fletcher Smith were on the Kansas City Chiefs in the first ever Super Bowl in 1967. Bennie Anderson was the last former Tiger to win a Super Bowl ring, playing offensive guard on the world champion, Baltimore Ravens, in 2001.

Anthony Pleasant (New England Patriots), Joe Gilliam, Jr. (Pittsburgh Steelers), Ed "Too Tall" Jones (Dallas Cowboys), Mike Hegman (Dallas Cowboys) and Randy Fuller played in more than one Super Bowl. Fuller is the only Tiger to make appearances with two different teams playing with the Pittsburg Steelers and Atlanta Falcons while Hegman and Jones were teammates in Super Bowl XII and XIII. Thus far, Jones has tallied the most apperances with three. In Super Bowl XV, Claude Humphrey and Rodney Parker became another TSU pair to play for the NFL Championship with the Philadelphia Eagles.

As well as teammates, there are only two Tigers to sit across the field as opponents during the championship game. Joe Gilliam, Jr. played against John Holland of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IX.

TSU great Richard Dent is the only alum to be named game MVP , helping to lead the Chicago Bears over New England to conclude the 1985 season in Super Bowl XX. in his rookie season, Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie helped the Arizona Cardinals to their first NFL Championship in 2009 appearing in Super Bowl XLIII.

Last season, Anthony Levine joined the ranks of TSU's Super Bowl List when the Green Bay Packers won Super Bowl XLV. Levine was on the practice squad but was present during the trophy presentation.

Forrest Strange made history becoming TSU's First All-American in 1934.

Robert Drummond (40), Raymond Whitmon (12), William Washington (17), and Nathaniel Taylor (14) were named All-Americans in 1946 before repeating in 1947. Drummond became the first Tiger to recieve All-America honors in three seasons from 1945-47.

Colin Godfrey was named to six different All-America Teams in 1990 and was the first member of TSU Football to accomplish the feat. It would take 13 years before Charles Anthony mirrored the achievement in 2003.

LP FIELD

HOME OF THE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY TIGERS

The Tennessee State play their home football games in one of the nation's finest sports venues in LP Field, sharing the facility for home games with the National Football League's Tennessee Titans.

The state-of-the-art facility has served as home of the Tigers and the Titans since the 1999 season. LP Field is located on the east bank of the Cumberland River in downtown Nashville.

LP Field, which seats approximately 67,500 fans, boasts incredible amenities, ranging from spacious and tastefully appointed locker rooms to massive scoreboards. The natural grass field was rated as the fourth best playing surface in the NFL in a poll conducted among league players in 2001.

LP Field has 144 luxury suites and 9,600 club seats with access to the stadium club and club lounges. There are also approximately 7,500 parking spaces on the site.

LP Field grounds are also designed to help create a park-like setting along the Cumberland River, not just a showplace for bland concrete and asphalt. More than 205 trees have been planted on the 105-acre campus.

Tiger fans gather early and stay late to enjoy tailgating on LP Field grounds. In addition to games featuring the Tigers and Titans, LP Field also hosts the college football's annual Music City Bowl in late December. LP Field also hosts concerts and other special events during the course of a year.

In 2009, the Tigers will play their 12th season at LP Field. Since beginning play in the state-of-the-art NFL facility in 1999, the Tigers have posted a 31-21 record in games played at LP Field.

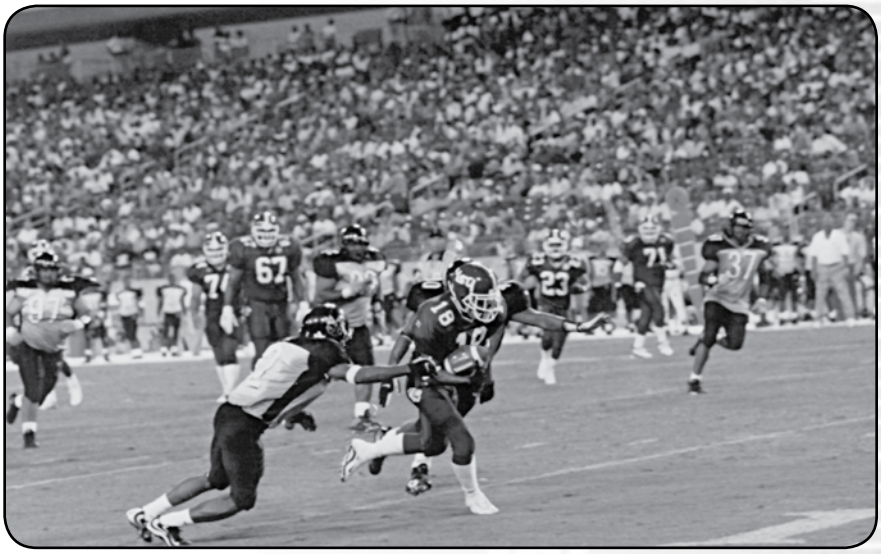

HOME OF THE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY TIGERS

- LP Field was built with the Tigers very own locker room
- Former names include Adelphia Coliseum (1999–2002) and The Coliseum (2002–2006)
- TSU posts a 31-21 record at LP Field moving into their 12th season at the stadium
- 144 luxury suites and 9,600 club seats
- 60 concession stands throughout stadium
- Three locker rooms
- Two scoreboards with video screens located on north and south ends of stadium
- Four suite elevators
- 7,500 parking spaces available with more than 20,000 existing parking spaces nearby
- Space for 400 wheelchair patrons and associated companion seats
- 80 parking spaces for disabled
- 26 men's restrooms, 40 women's restrooms
- Tifsport Bermuda sod, which grew for a year before being laid down. Each roll of sod weighed 2,000 pounds and was cut into 108-foot long, 42-inch wide strips that were 1.5 inches thick.

TSU opened play at LP Field, then called Adelphia Coliseum, with a 41-8 win over Alabama State in the first ever John Merritt Classic.

"THE HOLE"

WILLIAM JASPER HALE

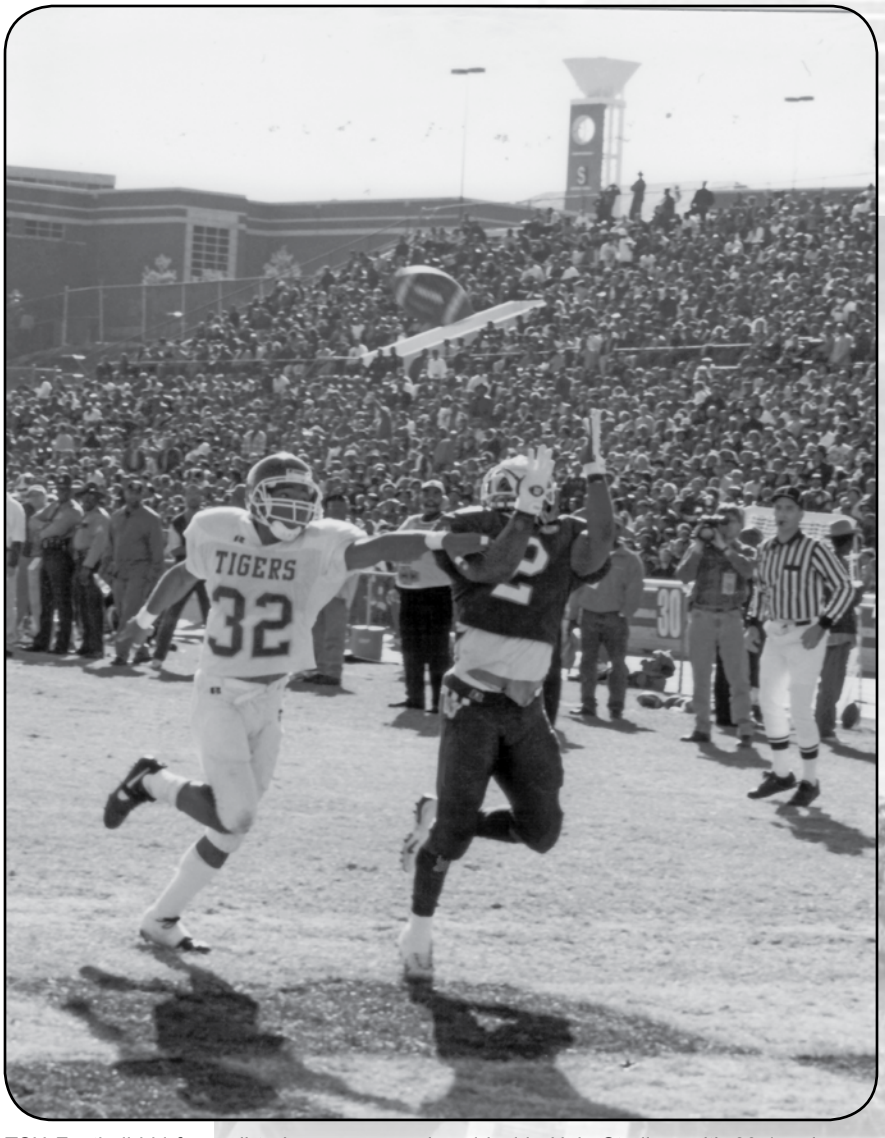

Hale Stadium is a 10,000-seat outdoor stadium located on the campus of Tennessee State University. Built in 1953 and affectionately nicknamed "The Hole", the stadium hosted TSU Tigers football games until 1999, home games were then moved to LP Field, home of the Tennessee Titans.

The stadium hosted a second-round NCAA Division I-AA playoff game in 1982, with the Tigers defeating Eastern Illinois University 20-19 in front of a crowd of 8,000.During their years at Hale, TSU Football went undefeated ten times, won ten championships in the now-defunct Midwestern Conference and claimed the Ohio Valley Conference championship in 1998, its final season in the stadium.

The last football game at Hale Stadium was a 28-14 Tennessee State win over Texas Southern University on November 21, 1998. The facility was named for William J. Hale, who served as TSU's first president. It remains in use as the site of TSU's annual spring football game, as well as hosting Homecoming festivities.

"THE HOLE"

TSU Football bid farewell to home games played inside Hale Stadium with 28-14 win over Texas Southern on November 21, 1998. Tyrone Butterfield catches a touchdown pass in front of a crowd of more than 16, 000 fans.

The John Merritt Classic, first played in 1999, honors John A. Merritt, the legendary TSU football coach who led the Tigers from 1963 - 1983. During 21 seasons, “Big John” won four undisputed national championships among historically black colleges ranked by the Sheridan Poll, while compiling a lifetime record of 172-33-1.

The JMC, one of only two football Classics solely hosted by a single NCAA FCS institution, is intended to allow Tennessee State to raise funds for scholarships and other related needs for TSU students. The Classic also provides an opportunity for community outreach with its weekend of activities.

The 1950 TSU Football Team holding “The Little Brown Jug”. The Little Brown Jug is the symbol of victory between Tennessee State and Kentucky State. On one side is a huge white “T” representing TSU and the opposite side a bright gold “K” representing KSU.

TSU players pose to promote the Lil’ Brown Jug Classic. (L-R) Val Gene Johnson, Lee Derrick, Lindale Massengale, and Charles Patton.
