Head Coach: Jane Worthington (Utah State, 1982), 28th season

Assistant Coach: Whitney Arion (Louisville, 2015), 5th season

Director of Player Development: Robyn Leighton (Morehead State, 2018), 1st season

• Jane Worthington

Title: Head Coach

Year at EKU: 28th season

Alma Mater:

Utah State, 1982

Jane Worthington is a rarity in college softball. Not only has she coached and been committed to the same university since 1993, but has also been the only coach Eastern Kentucky softball has ever known.

The 2020 season will be the 28th for the Washington, Utah native with the Colonels. She has guided the squad to two Ohio Valley Conference titles (2002, 2004) and two NCAA tournament appearances (2002, 2004).

In 2018, Worthington led the Colonels to a record setting 45 wins on the year with a 19-3 conference record and a regular season OVC Championship. Worthington was named 2018 OVC Coach of the Year.

In 2014, Worthington tallied her 600th career victory when the Colonels downed Tennessee Tech on April 26. She has led Eastern to a spot in 23 of the 26 OVC tournaments since the event began in 1994.

Since taking over the helm of the Colonels' program, Worthington has posted an impressive, winning record at 770-688 and an even more striking 374-250 mark in Ohio Valley Conference play. She picked up her 700th career win against Western Carolina in 2018.

Throughout her career, Worthington has produced several standout players as four Colonels have been named OVC Player of the Year and four players have earned Freshman of the Year recognition. 43 All-OVC first team players and 42 second team selections have worn an EKU jersey as well.

Under Worthington's guidance Leanna Pittsenbarger put together a record breaking career. Before the start of the 2015 season, Pittsenbarger was rated as the top NCAA Division I pitcher by Fastpitch News. She would go on to break the EKU record for career strikeouts.

In 2016, senior pitcher Hayley Flynn set a new program record with 26 strikeouts against Eastern Illinois. The hurler went on to become the first softball Colonel to ever sign a professional contract, playing for the Pennsylvania Rebellion.

During the 2017 season EKU boasted some of the top players in the league leading to more records being broken. In regular season Rachel Minogue claimed the batting crown with a .421, led in hits (69), was second in on-base percentage (.495), runs batted in (44), doubles (17) and total bases (98). The sophomore was only struck out nine times over 176 at-bats, making her one of the toughest to strike out in the league. She tied EKU's single-game record for RBIs when she went 5-for-5 with a grand slam and eight runs driven in at Tennessee State on April 14. The First Team All-Conference selection concluded a stellar sophomore campaign by being named Second Team All-Region. Johnkyria Alston led the conference in doubles (19) and RBIs (46). Meanwhile, Krislyn Campos took sole possession of the single-season (48) and career (152) records.

Worthington believes that the only way to improve is to play the best possible teams in the country. Her Eastern squads have faced numerous nationally-ranked opponents, which includes a 6-5 upset over No. 5 Missouri four years ago. In 2015, the Colonels took on No. 3 Alabama and beat 23rd ranked South Alabama 1-0. EKU also faced top-15 teams Kentucky and Tennessee. Other notable games include a 4-3 victory over No. 7 South Carolina in 1995 and a showdown with top-ranked UCLA in the 2002 NCAA regionals.

Worthington has built the program from the ground up, starting in her first year at EKU with the construction of Gertrude Hood Field. Eastern's first season of competition occurred in the spring of 1993 with Worthington leading the team to an 11-26 record. 24 years later she led the Colonels into a brand-new Gertrude Hood Stadium on April 8, 2017.

In just its third year, the program posted its first-ever winning season (31-29) and advanced to the finals of the OVC tournament. Worthington then led Eastern Kentucky to another winning season in 1998, ending with 38 wins, and reached a career milestone with her 200th victory in 2001.

The 2002 Colonels rolled through the league with a 16-2 conference record and captured the program's first OVC title with a 7-4 victory over Tennessee Tech. That win also propelled Eastern Kentucky to its first-ever NCAA tournament.

Two years later, EKU posted its most wins ever (42) on the way to another NCAA tournament appearance. Worthington won OVC Coach of the Year accolades in both 2002, 2004 and 2018.

Prior to Eastern Kentucky, Worthington spent two years as an assistant coach at Miami (Ohio) and one year as an assistant at Livingston University in Alabama. Before entering the collegiate coaching ranks, Worthington taught junior high school in Idaho.

Worthington, a 1982 graduate of Utah State, helped the Aggies capture the 1981 national championship with a win over Cal-State Fullerton in the finals. Winning a championship as a player, Worthington knows what it takes to be a winner and has successfully instilled those beliefs in her players. As a result, a large number of her former players have followed her lead and entered the coaching profession.

A strong supporter in the growth of fast-pitch softball in Kentucky, Worthington has provided numerous opportunities for individuals to enhance their softball skills at clinics and camps. On a yearly basis, she hosts player development clinics and camps to help fast-pitch softball develop throughout the state. Worthington believes in giving all players the chance to increase their skills and attempts to keep costs low so that everyone interested can attend. In addition, she believes in devoting personal attention to each participant and as a result, tries to keep the number of participants low by scheduling multiple events.

In 1996, Worthington was given the state's Citizen for Sports Equity Outstanding College Coach Award.

The Colonels' coach also stresses the importance of academics and expects her players to excel in the classroom. Worthington feels that a balance can be achieved, and with good management skills, her student-athletes can succeed in the classroom and on the playing field. In 2013, Worthington was honored by the EKU Department of Athletics with the Coaches' Academic Enhancement Award, which is given to a head coach who exceeds the standards and encourages academic excellence for his or her team. Hayley Flynn received the OVC Medal of Honor for recording a perfect 4.0 GPA in 2013-14. In 2002, Elise Burch became Eastern's first softball Academic All-American.

After graduation, Worthington's past players have entered the professional fields of law, criminal justice, education, business, aviation and coaching.

Worthington earned a master's degree in Sports Studies from Miami (Ohio) in 1991.

• Whitney Arion

Title: Assistant Coach
Year at EKU: 5th season
Alma Mater:
 Louisville, 2015

Whitney Arion joined the Eastern Kentucky program in the summer of 2015 after a stellar career at the University of Louisville.

In the 2018 season, Arion helped with the Colonels historic offensive outbreak. The Colonels ended as the fifth best home run hitting team in the country averaging 1.32 home runs per game. EKU ranked in the top five in the conference in batting average, doubles per game, home runs per game, scoring, slugging percentage and stolen bases.

She assisted in Paige Murphy having the best single season offensively in EKU softball history in 2018. Murphy posted a single season records in runs scored (67), hits (82), home runs (22), runs batted in (61) and total bases (167). Murphy finished the year ranked in the top 20 nationally in batting average, home runs per game, slugging percentage, runs per game, on base percentage, home runs, runs batted in, hits and total bases.

During the 2019 campaign the offense continued to flex its muscles behind Arion's lead. The Colonels offense ranked in the top five in the conference in batting average, home runs per game, on base percentage, scoring, slugging percentage and stolen bases per game.

Under the Indiana native's watch the Colonels were third in the conference in batting average with a .299 this season, missing the tie for first and second by .001. But, EKU claimed the conference doubles crown (93) and the second place spot in hits (461).

She also assisted in producing some of the leading offensive players in the conference who also broke EKU records in Rachel Minogue, Johnkyria Alston and Krislyn Campos. During the regular-season Minogue led the conference in batting average with a .421, the best by a Colonel in over 14 years, led in hits (69), was second in on-base percentage (.495), runs batted in (44), doubles (17) and total bases (98). The sophomore was only struck out nine times over 176 at-bats, making her one of the toughest to strike out in the league. She tied EKU's single-game record for RBIs when she went 5-for-5 with a grand slam and eight runs driven in at Tennessee State on April 14. The First Team All-Conference selection concluded a stellar sophomore campaign by being named Second Team All-Region. Alston led the conference in doubles (19) and RBIs (46). Meanwhile, Campos took sole possession of the single-season (48) and career (152) records.

In Arion's first year, the Colonels were second in the league, hitting .298 on the year. EKU's Paige Murphy and Kayla Joyce were first and second, respectively, individually hitting .395 and .390.

The EKU duo were also in the top three in hits, while Murphy's 42 runs scored were second in the OVC.

During her time at UofL, Arion was a four-year starter in the infield for the Cardinals. She earned All-Big East Conference honors as a freshman and a sophomore, was a second team All-American Athletic Conference choice in 2014 and capped her career by earning first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition as a senior.

"Whitney loves softball," said Worthington. "She has competed at the top level and brings that experience with her to EKU. She also brings outstanding intensity and energy."

As a senior, Arion hit .321 with four home runs, 27 RBIs and 32 runs scored. She had a .489 slugging percentage and a .466 on-base percentage.

"I'm excited to say I'm part of the family here at Eastern Kentucky University," Arion said. "I appreciate the opportunity that Jane Worthington has given me to help lead this program and I'm looking forward to working with her and her staff."

Arion played in the National Pro Fastpitch League with the Pennsylvania Rebellion in the summer of 2015. She appeared in 38 games and started half of them at shortstop. She posted a .208 batting average in 54 appearances and had a .963 fielding percentage. She plans to get back into professional softball in the near future.

Arion previously worked with Louisville softball camps, university tours and visits, First Assembly of God Mega Sports Camp and has done private hitting and defensive lessons.

On Dec. 14, 2005, Eastern Kentucky University announced the creation of an Athletics Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame's mission is to commemorate and honor student-athletes, other individuals and teams whose accomplishments have contributed to the esteemed tradition of Colonel Athletics and whose character has reflected positively on the University.

The inaugural class of the EKU Athletics Hall of Fame, featuring 38 distinguished individuals, was inducted during an evening ceremony on Nov. 3, 2006, in the Keen Johnson Ballroom.

The inaugural class was comprised of The Founders, a group of 25 who were previously honored at the 1974 Centennial Athletics Awards Banquet, and 13 members who were chosen by a selection committee.

Four former Colonel softball players are now a part of the Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2008, Jonelle Csora-Clark became the first EKU softball player to be inducted into the Athletics Hall of Fame.

The Department of Athletics accepts nominations for the Hall of Fame on a rolling basis. Nominations must be received by March 1 to be considered for that year's class.

Please visit www.EKUSports.com for more details or a nomination form.

Diana Barreras (inducted 2013)

Diana Barreras began her outstanding collegiate career in fine fashion by being named the 2001 Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year when she batted .296 with two home runs, 17 RBIs, 23 runs scored and was successful on 12 of 14 stolen base attempts, while sporting an impressive .970 fielding percentage. The shortstop also made the OVC all-tournament team as a freshman.

She followed that first year at EKU up with batting averages of .285, .307 and .330 her next three seasons while making first-team All-OVC notice her sophomore and senior years and being named to the second-team All-OVC unit her junior season. While being chosen as the 2004 OVC Player of the Year, she hit six home runs with 30 RBIs, while stealing 21-of-23 bases and had a nifty .962 fielding percentage that 2004 season.

Her career totals at Eastern include having played in 208 games with 204 hits in 669 trips to the plate for a .305 batting average. She also had 12 career home runs, 76 RBIs, scored 132 runs and collected 61 steals in 67 attempts. She is in the EKU record book as one of five Colonels who have knocked three doubles in one game.

Following graduation, she served one season as a graduate assistant coach and one season as assistant softball coach at EKU.

Jonelle Csora-Clark (inducted 2008)

The most decorated pitcher in EKU softball history, Jonelle Csora-Clark was a three-time all-conference selection and holds several program records. Csora earned Ohio Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year honors following her junior and senior seasons.

As a junior, she also earned OVC Tournament MVP recognition while leading the Colonels to the league championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Massillon, Ohio native earned all-conference and all-tournament honors in 2001, 2002, and 2003 and all-region second team honors in 2002.

She tossed two seven-inning no-hitters and a six-inning no-hitter during her senior season.

Csora holds EKU's career pitching records for games played (144), games started (105), complete games (75), wins (72), consecutive wins (9), innings pitched (740.2), earned run average (1.74), shutouts (30), strikeouts (754), and opponent batting average (.194).

The astounding numbers also account for program single-season records in complete games (28), wins (25), earned run average (0.97), shutouts (11), strikeouts (273), and opponent batting average (.166). Csora also holds the record for most strikeouts in a game (15).

She is married to former EKU assistant football coach Shawn Clark.

Jamie Parker Welt (inducted 2010)

Jamie Parker was a pitcher, designated hitter and infielder for three seasons for coach Jane Worthington's EKU softball team.

She was a three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference choice for the Colonels in 1994, 1995 and 1996 and still holds single season records for most hits (84) and most at bats (205). She also holds career records at Eastern for best batting average (.392) and on-base percentage (.450).

As a sophomore in 1994, Parker led the team in batting with her .363 average which included four home runs and 27 RBIs. She also pitched in 37 games that season, recording 12 wins with an ERA of 2.50. In 1995, as a junior, she again led the team in batting with her .410 average, four homers and 40 RBIs. As a senior in 1996, Parker was Eastern's top slugger, hitting .399 with three home runs and 14 RBIs. She also appeared in 27 games in '96 for the Colonels as a pitcher, collecting 10 victories, recording a miniscule 1.67 ERA.

Kim Sarrazin-Blouin (inducted 2009)

Kim Sarrazin played four years for coach Jane Worthington and was a three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference choice, while making honorable mention all-conference recognition her freshman season.

While compiling a .353 career batting average during her four seasons at EKU, Sarrazin finished among the league leaders in the OVC in six different categories her senior season, including batting average (.298) and runs batted in (29). She was also honored in 2000 as the OVC Player of the Year.

Sarrazin's name is all over the EKU record book, holding Eastern career marks for hits (235), doubles (46) and consecutive games with a hit (21), and EKU single-season records for most base stealers caught (24), batting average (.420) and triples (six). She was also a two-time OVC all-tournament team selection and won the OVC Academic Medal of Honor in 1996-97 as a freshman.

She continued her softball career after college by starting for both the Canadian National Team that placed ninth at the 2002 World Championships and for the 2004 Canadian Olympic Team that finished fifth at the Olympic Games in Athens, Greece. She is married to Patrick Blouin and they have one son, William.
