As a coach

- One NCAA National Championship appearance
- Two NCAA Final Four appearances
- Four NCAA Elite 8's
- 14 NCAA Tournament appearances
- 18 years of coaching basketball at the college level

Samantha Williams, led one of the biggest turnarounds in Division I basketball in her first year as the head coach at Eastern Kentucky University.

In year one, the Colonels showed mass improvement on their way to 11 wins, nine more than the year before. EKU increased their win total over D-I teams by 10. It was the third-best turnaround in the nation in 2019-20 and the largest win improvement by any first-year head coach.

Eastern picked up its first Ohio Valley Conference home win since 2018 and its first OVC road win since 2017. The Colonels got off to a 6-3 start, their best start since the 2014-15 season.

EKU picked up its largest victory over a D-I opponent since 2007 with a 68-38 victory over SIUE on the road. The Colonels broke the century mark for the first time since 2016, in a 102-65 win over Alice Lloyd.

Eastern picked up five victories when trailing in the fourth quarter including a comeback win over Big East foe Xavier.

Williams, helped Teri Goodlett and I'Liyah Green earn All-OVC selections.

Eastern had the best defensive improvement in the OVC, holding opponents to 9.2 fewer points per game in league contests.

Williams, who helped lead the University of Louisville to eight straight NCAA Tournament appearances, was chosen as the women's basketball head coach at EKU on March 27, 2019.

Over eight seasons, Williams assisted the Cardinals in reaching the Final Four twice, including an appearance in the 2013 national championship game, making four trips to the Elite 8 and advancing to the Sweet 16 six times. With Williams on the staff between 2011-19, Louisville compiled a 236-55 record and six top-10 finishes in the national polls.

In 2018-19, UofL was 32-4, earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, won a share of the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship for the second straight season, was ranked fifth in the nation and played in the Elite Eight.

"I'm excited about the opportunity to lead Eastern Kentucky University women's basketball and humbled to be entrusted to lead the program forward," Williams said. "I want to thank the EKU administration for their support and trust."

Williams coached four WNBA Draft picks at Louisville. She helped locate and sign the nation's top-ranked recruiting class in 2015, the No. 6 ranked class in 2016 and the fourth ranked class in 2017. Between 2014 and 2017, Williams and the Louisville staff signed nine McDonald's All-

Americans.

"This is a special opportunity, and I'm ready to lead the program back to a level of excellence," said Williams. "I'm confident that the University and Richmond communities are going to love what they see from our student-athletes on and off the court. I'm excited to get started!"

From 2007 to 2011, Williams was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Duke. She helped the Blue Devils capture two ACC regular season championships, two ACC Tournament titles and make two appearances in the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. Williams was instrumental in Duke compiling three top-five rated recruiting classes, including the top-ranked class in the nation in 2009-10. She worked primarily with the team's perimeter players, developing a pair of All-Americans who were picked in the first two rounds of the WNBA Draft.

Williams spent the 2003-04 season as an assistant at Auburn before spending three seasons (2004-07) as an assistant and recruiting coordinator at DePaul. She helped the Tigers to a 22-9 record and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. That team featured four WNBA Draft picks. Williams was on staff at DePaul during a stretch that included three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 trip in 2006. She coached four WNBA selections.

Williams began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Butler during the 1998-99 season. In 2002-03 she served as an assistant coach at Columbus State University, helping the Cougars to a 28-4 record, a Peach Belt Conference regular season championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

The Louisville, Kentucky native earned a bachelor's degree from Auburn University in 1996. Williams was a four-year starter with the Tigers and served as co-captain as a junior and a senior. She led Auburn to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including two Sweet 16 trips and an Elite 8 spot. Williams set the program record for career three-point field goals (161), and finished her career with 1,106 points, 495 rebounds and 323 assists.

While at Auburn, Williams played for the U.S. Junior National Team that won the bronze medal at the R. William Jones Cup in Taipei, Taiwan.

After her collegiate career, Williams played one season of professional basketball in the American Basketball League with the San Jose Lasers (1996-97).

Williams was a first-team Parade and Street and Smith All-American, in addition to a USA Today Super 25 honoree, while playing high school basketball at DuPont Manual High School in Louisville.
