• Walt Jones

Title: HeadCoach
Year at ECU: second season
Alma Mater:
Nicholls State, 2008

Walt Jones joined the baseball staff as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator in November of 2020. On March 25, 2024, Jones was elevated to acting head coach after head coach Chris Prothro took an immediate medical leave of absence. On May 15, 2024, Jones was chosen to lead the program as head coach moving forward.

While leading the program for the final 33 games of the 2024 season, Jones guided the Colonels to their third straight appearance in the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament. ECU is one of only four programs to qualify for each of the past three league tournaments.

Outfielder Ron Franklin Jr. capped an outstanding 2024 season by earning first team All-ASUN recognition. Tait Nunnally was chosen to the ASUN All-Freshman Team. In league games only, Franklin ranked first in slugging, first in on-base + slugging (1.279), third in home runs, sixth in batting average and eighth in RBIs. Nunnally batted .283 with 15 doubles, 11 home runs and 46 RBIs.

Jones served as the hitting instructor, and coached base running and the outfielders as an assistant. He helped the Colonels to a championship season in 2022. ECU went 38-20 overall and claimed a share of the ASUN Conference West Division Championship with a 20-10 league mark. The 38 wins were the most in a season since the 1990 squad won 42. It was Eastern Kentucky's first conference title since 2012. The Colonels were picked to finish eighth in the ASUN Preseason Poll, but finished tied for the best overall conference record in the league.

Outfielder Kendal Ewell was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award, given each year to the top amateur baseball player in the country. He also earned multiple national player of the week honors.

Ewell joined catcher Will King on the ASUN All-Conference Team. King also earned a spot on the ASUN All-Tournament team after leading the Colonels to the semifinals. Ewell was rated by D1Baseball.com as the 34th-best outfielder in the country. King was on the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award watch list.

ECU followed the championship campaign with 29 more wins in 2023, making it the winningest two-year period for the program since 1989 and 1990. Logan Thomason and

King earned all-conference recognition.

Chase Alderman was chosen to the ASUN All-Freshman Team.

King, who was chosen to the ABCA Rawlings Midwest All-Region Team, was picked by the Atlanta Braves in the 2023 MLB Draft. In addition, incoming freshman left-handed pitcher Bradley Stewart, was drafted in the 17th round by the Detroit Tigers.

The drafting of an incoming player speaks to the program's recruiting success. ECU's 2023 recruiting class was recognized by Collegiate Baseball News and ranked higher than such programs as South Florida, Wake Forest, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas State, Middle Tennessee, Washington, South Alabama and Georgia Southern among others.

Eastern Kentucky won 17 more games in 2022 than the season before. As a team, the Colonels set a new record for fielding percentage (97.5 percent). The 2023 Colonels set a new program record for walks drawn in a season, surpassing a mark that had stood for 42 years.

In 2021, Jones helped the Colonels to victories over No. 15 Georgia Tech and No. 7 Louisville. Outfielder/designated hitter Caleb Upshaw was a first team all-conference selection that season.

Jones was a scouting director for the Prep Baseball Report-Louisiana and national JUCO scouting director for Prep Baseball Report-National from July 2019 to the fall of 2020. During his time with Prep Baseball Report he scouted amateur baseball throughout the state and country. He also booked, managed and marketed events, and assisted in all operations of Prep Baseball Report-Louisiana.

Before his time with Prep Baseball Report, Jones was the recruiting coordinator and associate head coach at Nicholls State University from 2014-19. While at Nicholls, Jones oversaw recruiting, coached the outfielders and hitters, and organized fundraising events.

Jones was an assistant coach at Chipola College from 2012 through 2013 where he coordinated camps and coached all position players, and the hitters. Before joining the Chipola staff he was at Nicholls State where he served a volunteer assistant coach and the director of baseball operations from 2009-12. As director of baseball operations from 2009-11 he assisted in all baseball operations. As a volunteer assistant from 2011-12 he was in charge of coordinating camps, coached the outfielders and assisted with the hitters.

Jones played baseball at Nicholls in 2007 and 2008 under head coach Chip Durham. Before going to Nicholls he played at Lurleen B. Wallace Community College in 2005 and 2006. He played football at the University of North Alabama in 2003 and 2004 under head coach Mark Hudspeth.

In October 2009 Jones participated in a Washington Nationals Minority Internship.

Jones earned his associate's of science degree from Wallace Community College in 2006, before transferring to Nicholls State. He completed his bachelor's of science at Nicholls in 2008.

• Blake Beck
Title: Pitching Coach

Year at ECU: first season

Alma Mater: Troy, 2014

Blake Beck joined the program as the pitching coach in the summer of 2024.

Beck most recently served as head coach at Muscle Shoals High School in Alabama. He was the pitching coach at Tennessee Tech during the 2021 and 2022 seasons. Beck also has experience at Jones College in Mississippi, Auburn University, Troy University and Mississippi State University.

Beck led the Muscle Shoals High School program for the past two seasons (2023 and 2024). He managed all aspects of the program including fundraising, community service, field maintenance, scheduling, and strength and conditioning.

"We couldn't be more excited to have coach Beck join our staff," ECU Head Coach Walt Jones said. "Throughout his career, he has been a part of several high achieving teams and pitching staffs. Blake's knowledge, work ethic and fearless desire to be great is just what our program needs. He is the perfect fit as a human and as a coach."

From the summer of 2020 through the 2022 season, Beck served as the pitching coach and oversaw all recruiting at Tennessee Tech. He also managed the operations budget, coordinated with athletic academic advisors and oversaw scheduling.

Left-hander Ty Fisher earned a spot on the Ohio Valley Conference All-Freshman Team under Beck's guidance in 2021. Fisher led the team in wins, ERA and strikeouts that season. Beck helped the Golden Eagles to a 30-win season in 2022.

During the 2020 season, Beck served as the pitching coach at Jones College. He was responsible for the overall management and development of the pitching staff.

Beck was the director of player development at Auburn from 2016 to 2019. He was part of a staff that led the Tigers to three NCAA regionals, two super regionals and a College World Series appearance in three seasons. Auburn averaged 39 wins per year. Beck assisted the pitching coach with day-to-day management of the staff, worked directly with pitchers in bullpen pitch design sessions, was responsible for all advance scouting of opponents and assisted with on-campus recruiting.

The Auburn pitching staff was anchored in 2017 and 2018 by No. 1 MLB Draft pick Casey Mize.

As the volunteer assistant coach at Troy during the 2016 season, Beck was the outfield position coach, coached first base and was responsible for on-campus recruiting. The Trojans won 32 games that season.

Beck's coaching career started at Mississippi State where he served as a graduate assistant and video coordinator from 2014 to 2015. He helped setup daily pre-practice, group work and bullpens, edited all drill work, team practice and game video, assisted the staff with video player analysis, and conducted advanced scouting of all opponents.

A native of Hamilton, Alabama, Beck was a starting pitcher for two years at Shelton State Community College, where he had a career 2.67 ERA for the Buccaneers, before becoming the video coordinator at Troy in 2012. Beck spent two years on the staff as a student assisting and participating in team practice, supervising team managers, and leading field maintenance operations. He worked with the 2013 Troy team that went 42-20, won a Sun Belt Conference Championship and earned a spot in the NCAA Regionals.

Beck completed a bachelor's of science degree in sport and fitness management at Troy in 2014. He received a master's of science in kinesiology with a concentration in sport pedagogy at Mississippi State in 2016.

• Bryant Bowen
Title: Director of Player Development

Year at ECU: fifth season

Alma Mater: Southern Miss, 2019

Bryant Bowen, a 2019 All-Conference USA selection, joined the Eastern Kentucky University program as a volunteer assistant coach in January 2021. In the summer of 2023, Bowen was promoted to a full time assistant coaching position. In the summer of 2024, he moved to ECU's director of player development.

In his role as director of player development, Bowen will continue working with the catchers and working closely with the pitching coach. He will now also oversee hitting development.

In 2024, Bowen assisted the Colonels in reaching their third straight Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament. ECU is one of only four programs to qualify for each of the past three league tournaments. Freshman catcher Silas Shaffer started 42 games, including 33 times behind the plate. In his final 18 games of the season, Shaffer hit .309 with two home runs and 12 RBIs.

In 2022, Bowen helped the Colonels to a championship season. ECU went 38-20 overall and claimed a share of the ASUN Conference West Division Championship with a 20-10 league mark. The 38 wins were the most in a season since the 1990 squad won 42. It was Eastern Kentucky's first conference title since 2012. The Colonels were picked to finish eighth in the ASUN Preseason Poll, but finished tied for the best overall conference record in the league.

Left-hander Will Brian was chosen as an All-American by three organizations in 2022. He was also a finalist for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award, ranked by D1Baseball.com as the No. 6 reliever in the nation and drafted in the 10th round by the New York Yankees. Brian joined catcher Will King on the ASUN All-Conference Team. King also earned a spot on the ASUN All-Tournament team after leading the Colonels to the semifinals.

ECU followed the championship campaign with 29 more wins in 2023, making it the winningest two-year period for the program since 1989 and 1990.

King earned all-conference recognition again in 2023, was on the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award watch list for the second straight season and was chosen to the ABCA Rawlings Midwest All-Region Team. He was picked by the Atlanta Braves in the 2023 MLB Draft. Chase Alderman was chosen to the ASUN All-Freshman Team.

ECU won 17 more games in 2022 than the season before. Brian broke ECU's single season individual saves record. As a team, the Colonels set a new record for total saves (19).

In 2021, Bowen helped the Colonels to victories over No. 15 Georgia Tech and No. 7 Louisville. Over the final 11 games of the season, the pitching staff had a 3.34 ERA. Starting pitcher Darren Williams and Brian were all-conference picks. The staff led the league in strikeouts.

Bowen earned second team all-conference honors as senior catcher at the University of Southern Mississippi following the 2019 season when he hit .341 with 43 runs, 11 home runs and 51 RBIs. He slugged .563 and had a .403 on-base percentage.

The Shreveport, Louisiana native spent the 2020 season as a graduate transfer at the University of South Carolina. He played in 15 games and started nine times during the abbreviated campaign, finishing with six runs scored, two home runs and seven RBIs. Bowen hit a home run in his first at-bat of his Gamecock career.

Bowen was chosen to the Conference USA All-Tournament Team in 2017 and 2019. He helped the Golden Eagles capture the 2019 conference tournament championship. Southern Miss finished 44-18 and won the regular season and tournament titles in 2018. The Golden Eagles went 50-16 in 2017, won the regular season championship and advanced to the title game of the Conference USA Tournament. Bowen helped the Golden Eagles to three NCAA Regionals (2017, 2018 and 2019).

Bowen earned a spot on the Conference USA Commissioner's Honor roll in 2016, 2017 and 2018. He completed a bachelor's of science degree in business administration at Southern Miss in May of 2019. He was pursuing a master's of health information technology at South Carolina.

• J.D. Davis

Title: Assistant Coach

Year at ECU: fourth season

Alma Mater: The Citadel, 2020

J.D. Davis first joined the ECU baseball program in the summer of 2021 as a graduate manager. He was promoted to a full time assistant coaching position in the summer of 2023.

Davis serves as infield instructor and team defense coordinator.

In 2024, Davis was part of a staff that guided the Colonels to their third straight appearance in the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament. ECU is one of only four programs to qualify for each of the past three league tournaments.

Outfielder Ron Franklin Jr. capped an outstanding 2024 season by earning first team All-ASUN recognition. Tait Nunnally was chosen to the ASUN All-Freshman Team.

In 2022, Davis helped the Colonels win a conference championship. ECU went 38-20 overall and claimed a share of the ASUN Conference West Division Championship with a 20-10 league mark. The 38 wins were the most in a season since 1990. It was ECU's first conference title since 2012. The Colonels were picked to finish eighth in the ASUN Preseason Poll, but finished tied for the best overall conference record in the league.

ECU followed the championship campaign with 29 more wins in 2023, making it the winningest two-year period for the program since 1989 and 1990.

Two players earned considerable national attention during the 2022 season. Kendal Ewell was a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award, given each year to the top amateur baseball player in the country. He also earned multiple national player of the week honors. Will Brian was chosen as an All-American by three organizations, was a finalist for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award and then drafted in the 10th round by the New York Yankees.

Ewell and Brian joined catcher Will King on the ASUN All-Conference Team. King also earned a spot on the ASUN All-Tournament team after leading the Colonels to the semifinals.

ECU won 17 more games in 2022 than the season before. As a team, the Colonels set a new record for fielding percentage (97.5 percent).

Accolades poured in after the 2023 season for the Colonels as well. Shortstop Logan Thomason, who helped the team finish fourth in the nation in double plays turned, was selected as the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. He and King earned all-conference recognition. King was chosen to the ABCA Rawlings Midwest All-Region Team and drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 2023 MLB Draft.

The 2023 Colonels set a new program record for walks drawn in a season, surpassing a mark that had stood for 42 years.

Davis started 121 games over his college career while playing three seasons at The Citadel and one at Nicholls State. He was in the starting line-up for every opening day of his career and played each infield position.

The Goose Creek, South Carolina native earned a degree in physical education from The Citadel in May of 2020 and completed a master's of business administration in the fall of 2021 at Nicholls State.

While at The Citadel, Davis served as a squad leader with the responsibility of leading six cadets in formations, inspections and academics. He also served as an athletic officer, overseeing 60 cadets and their fitness scores.

During the spring of 2020, Davis served as a volunteer assistant coach at Stratford High School.

Davis played in two summer leagues – the Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League and the Southern Collegiate Baseball League. He helped the Mohawk Valley Diamond Dogs capture a division championship.

• Andrew Stepp

Title: Assistant Coach
Year at ECU: first season
Alma Mater: Western Kentucky, 2016

Andrew Stepp, who spent four seasons as the head coach at McKendree University, joined the ECU baseball program as an assistant coach in July of 2024.

As an assistant with the Colonels, Stepp will assist with the hitters and base running while coaching the outfielders.

"I'm excited for the addition of Andrew Stepp to our staff," ECU Head Coach Walt Jones said. "Andrew is an outstanding person who will immediately build connections with our current players and on the recruiting trail with future Colonels. His coaching experience will be an asset to our program."

From 2019 to 2023, Stepp served as the head coach at McKendree, overseeing the school's varsity and junior varsity programs. In 2022, he guided the Bearcats to the third-most wins in McKendree's NCAA Division II era. The team went 15-13 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the first time the program posted a winning conference record in its D-II era.

During the 2023 season, Stepp tutored a pair of All-Midwest Region selections in Katom Parnell and Joey Kossina. In 2022 the team set a new program record for home runs, and Joseph Cope-land and Corey Price earned all-region recognition.

Academically, the Bearcats maintained a grade-point-average above 3.0 as a team during each of Stepp's four seasons as the head coach. The program had a total of 168 Academic All-GLVC honorees.

Stepp served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at McKendree during the 2019 season. In 2018, he was an assistant at Murray State University. Stepp was the director of operations and player development at Ohio University in 2017. He was part of a Bobcat program that won the Mid-American Conference Tournament and played in the NCAA Lexington Regional.

During the 2016-17 academic year, Stepp was a physical education teacher and head baseball coach at Walnut Grove High School in Missouri.

Stepp earned a bachelor's degree in education at Western Kentucky University in 2016. The Nixa, Missouri native played two seasons at WKU after beginning his playing career at Southwest Baptist University.

• Gaston Glasscock

Title: Director of Operations
Year at ECU: second season
Alma Mater: Western Kentucky, 2013

Gaston Glasscock joined the ECU baseball program as director of operations in the summer of 2023.

In 2024, Glasscock was part of a staff that helped the Colonels reach the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament for the third straight season.

Glasscock served as the director of operations at Western Kentucky University from 2015 to 2021. He was the fiscal manager of the team's operating budget, directed all logistical aspects of team travel, managed team inventory, supervised student managers and was the recruitment coordinator for prospective players and their families.

From August of 2021 to the summer of 2023, Glasscock served as an assistant coach with the Breckinridge County High School team. In June of 2022, he joined Prep Baseball Report Kentucky as director of analytics. Glasscock was responsible for Trackman setup and operation for showcases and games, setup and operation of Swift Performance Technology, and promoted high school baseball players throughout Kentucky and nationally.

Glasscock earned a bachelor's of science in sports management at Western Kentucky in 2013. He completed a bachelor's of science degree in finance at WKU in 2015. Glasscock served as a student assistant and manager with the Hilltopper baseball program during his time as a student from 2012 to 2015.

2025 Opponents In Bold

All-Century Team

The Eastern Kentucky University Department of Athletics unveiled its All-Century Baseball Team in a special ceremony at the annual Diamond Legacy Dinner on on Feb. 5, 2011 in the Keen Johnson Ballroom. Twenty-one of the 29 players and coaches on the team were able to attend the event, while two others were represented by family.

Infielders

 Frank Borgia (1966-68)

Borgia started at shortstop for Eastern for three seasons and was selected first-team All-OVC twice. He batted .475 in 1968 which still stands as the modern record at Eastern for highest single season batting average. He finished sixth in the nation in batting in 1968 and stole 18 bases in 19 attempts as a freshman in 1966.

 Jimmy Cain (1967-69)

Cain was a two-year All-OVC third baseman for the Colonels who batted .395 and .400 in those two seasons. His junior year, he finished second in the nation in home runs and runs batted in per game while being named the team's Most Valuable Player. He was also a member of the 1967 OVC championship squad.

 Lee Chapman (1997-2000)

Chapman started four years for the Colonels at first base and received All-OVC recognition his junior and senior seasons. Still the holder of five Eastern school records, he hit 52 career home runs and knocked in 210 runs at EKU, while stealing 47 bases and collecting a .329 batting average.

 Clay Elswick (1983-86)

Elswick was a four-year letterman and three-year starter for the Colonels at first base from 1983-86. His senior year, he posted totals of 20 home runs, 82 RBI, a .426 batting average and was selected OVC Player of the Year in leading the Colonels to a third straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

 Frank Kremblas (1986-89)

Kremblas was a two-time All-OVC performer that played both second base and catcher during his days at Eastern. He batted .381 as a junior with seven home runs, 43 RBI and 21 stolen bases, and he was a 23rd round draft choice of the Cincinnati Reds.

 Jayson Langfels (2008-10)

Langfels started at third base all three years he played for Eastern and was a first team All-OVC choice the past two years. EKU's all-time leader in triples with 18, he turned in a fantastic 2009 season when he hit .441 with six triples, 12 home runs and 72 RBI. He finished his EKU career with 203 hits, 32 home runs, 161 runs batted in and a .364 batting average. He was drafted by the Colorado Rockies.

 Arnold Nyulassy (1965-68)

Nyulassy was a three-time All-OVC first baseman who hit .378 as a junior in 1967 and was part of an Eastern infield that turned 38 double plays in 29 games.

Twenty-one of the 29 players and coaches on the All-Century Team gathered at the Keen Johnson Ballroom on Feb. 5, 2011

 Neil Sellers (2001-04)

Sellers was a three-time All-OVC third baseman and is listed in the EKU record books for RBI, hits, at bats, doubles and home runs. His career totals at Eastern include 41 home runs, 62 doubles, 279 hits and 214 runs batted in while compiling a four-year batting average of .353. Drafted by the Houston Astros, he is now a member of the Florida Marlins' organization.

 Jason Sharp (1997-2000)

Sharp was a four-year starter for EKU and received all-conference notice from the OVC in 1998 and 1999. He played both shortstop and third base in his career for the Colonels and had career totals of 32 home runs, 145 runs batted in and a .337 batting average.

Outfielders

 Josh Anderson (2001-03)

Anderson was the OVC Player of the Year in 2003 and Eastern's first-ever, first-team Louisville Slugger All-American choice after leading the nation in stolen bases with 57 and batting a national third-best .447 his junior year. He was a fourth round draft selection of the Houston Astros and has played for four major league teams. Anderson is also an EKU Athletics Hall of Fame member.

 Joe Banko (1989-90)

Banko was a two-time All-OVC player for the Colonels and was a member of the 1989 OVC champion and NCAA Tournament Eastern squad that won 39 games. An All-South Region performer, his two-year career statistics showed him with a .341 batting average, 17 home runs and 89 runs batted in while stealing 64 bases.

 Brandon Berger (1994-96)

Berger was drafted after his junior season at Eastern in the 14th round by the Kansas City Royals. He received all-conference recognition his last two seasons at Eastern and batted .301 with eight home runs and 38 runs batted in his final year as a Colonel.

 Earle Combs (1920)

Combs is the most decorated of anyone selected to the team as he was inducted into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in 1970. The highlight of his Eastern experience came in 1920 when he batted .596 and hit at least one home run in all 12 games the Maroons played. He later batted leadoff and played center field for the 1927 Murderer's Row Yankees' team.

 Robert Moore (1985-87)

A three-time first team All-OVC selection, Moore posted career numbers of 54 doubles, 11 triples, a .386 batting average and 67 stolen bases. As a junior in 1987, he had 12 consecutive hits, one short of the NCAA record and was named OVC Player of the Year. He was a 16th round draft choice of the Kansas City Royals.

 Sean Murray (1998-99)

Murray was a two-year All-OVC pick. In his two seasons with the Colonels, he had career totals of 29 home runs, 109 runs batted in and a .377 batting average after hitting a team-leading .402 as a junior and making the All-OVC Tournament team.

 Ron Pinsenschaum (1964-67)

A three-time All-OVC player in the Eastern outfield, Pinsenschaum was inducted into the ECU Athletics Hall of Fame posthumously last October. He was a member of two OVC championship teams and as a sophomore in 1965 reached base an amazing 68 times in 99 plate appearances.

Pitchers

 Jeff Cruse (1984-87)

A two-year All-OVC pitcher who was also a member of three NCAA Tournament teams at Eastern, Cruse still holds ECU's career record for victories with 30 against just six losses and recorded 208 strikeouts in 278 innings. He also owns ECU's career mark for complete games with 20 and collected a fantastic 10-1 record as a junior. He was signed by the Kansas City Royals after his senior year.

 Steve Engel (1981-83)

A two-time all-conference pitcher for the Colonels, Engel finished fifth in the nation in strikeouts per nine innings with his 11.1 strikeouts average per game as a sophomore. The third highest major league draft choice in Colonel baseball history, the left-hander was drafted following his junior season in the fifth round by the Chicago Cubs, pitching for the National League team at Wrigley Field in 1985.

 Don Feltner (1952-55)

Feltner pitched four seasons for ECU and compiled a 21-3 record on the mound. He was a member of Eastern's 1954 OVC championship team and his career included four shutouts and a 1.92 earned run average. The right-hander also threw one of six no-hitters in Colonel baseball history and was recently inducted into the ECU Athletics Hall of Fame.

 Christian Friedrich (2006-08)

Friedrich was OVC Rookie of the Year in 2006 and OVC Pitcher of the Year in 2008 while being selected first team all-conference for three seasons. The first team All-American posted gaudy three-year career stats of a 1.84 ERA, 327 strikeouts, an opponents' batting average of .174 and 20 victories. He was a first round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2008.

 Dave Quick (1960-63)

Quick was a two-time All-OVC pitcher for Eastern and was the OVC Player of the Year in 1963 when he posted a 1.38 ERA. A member of two OVC championship teams, one of the lefty's top outings in 1963 was a 12-inning, 2-0 masterpiece over Morehead State where he struck out 19 batters.

 Randy White (1986-89)

White was a two-time All-OVC player and the OVC Player of the Year in 1989 when he posted a 10-3 record with a 3.01 earned run average. In his four years at Eastern, the right-hander won 27 games, lost only 11, posted a 3.59 ERA and was a member of three OVC championship squads.

Catchers

 Blake Barthol (1992-95)

Barthol was a four-year starter for the Colonels and received All-OVC recognition his junior and senior years. Chosen in the 21st round of the 1995 Major League Draft by the Colorado Rockies, he batted .330 his senior year with six home runs and 46 runs batted in.

 Brad Brian (1982-86)

Brian was a three-year starter at catcher for the Colonels where he hit .356 with nine home runs and 42 runs batted in as a senior when he was named first-team all-conference. A career .337 hitter at ECU, he was drafted following his senior year in the 30th round by the Montreal Expos.

 Roger Roberts (1969-72)

Roberts was a two-time All-OVC performer and three-year starter at catcher who led the Colonels with 33 runs batted in in 1972.

Utility Players

 Brett Bolger (2003-06)

Bolger started four years for the Colonels and received all-conference notice three of those seasons. The pre-season OVC Player of the Year in 2006 by Collegiate Baseball magazine, he posted career totals at Eastern of 262 hits, 160 runs scored, 59 stolen bases and a batting average of .359, highlighted by his junior year when he led the conference in hitting with a .398 average.

 Ron Pezzoni (1987-89)

Pezzoni was a three-year all-conference performer for the Colonels and was one of the hitting stars for the 1989 NCAA Regional playoff team. He posted three-year career numbers of a .398 batting average and 91 stolen bases, which still stand as the second highest number of steals in school history.

Coaches

 Charles "Turkey" Hughes (1941-71)

Hughes served as head coach of the baseball program for 31 years. During that time span, he led ECU to 10 OVC championships and was voted OVC Coach of the Year in 1967. He is a member of the ECU, the OVC and the Kentucky Athletic Halls of Fame and coached five different sports at Eastern in his 43-year tenure with the ECU Athletics Department. The field the Colonels play on today is named in his honor.

 Jim Ward (1980-2001)

Ward served as head coach at Eastern from 1980-2001 and won 628 games, five regular season OVC titles and sent four Eastern teams to the NCAA Tournament. A member of the OVC and ECU Halls of Fame, he was five-time OVC Coach of the Year, coached five OVC Players of the Year and 64 All-OVC players. He finished his collegiate coaching career with 939 victories.
