Charlotte Smith

Head Coach

Sixth Season

Former University of North Carolina women's basketball standout Charlotte Smith was named the Phoenix head women's basketball coach by Elon University Director of Athletics Dave Blank on Wednesday, June 22, 2011. An assistant coach at UNC from 2002-2011, Smith is the sixth head coach in Elon women's hoops history.

Over five seasons, Smith has coached the Phoenix to a 87-70 overall record. In 2015-16, Smith led the Phoenix to an 18-13 season, including an 11-7 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association, and its second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT. The postseason appearance marked the fourth in the program's DI history and the third time in four years the Phoenix has played in a post-season tournament.

The season was highlighted by the program's first ever win over Atlantic Coast Conference opponent North Carolina State after a 69-66 final in Raleigh, N.C. Both Shay Burnett and Lauren Brown were honored as CAA Player of the Week throughout the course of the year, while Nikki McDonald earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors. Burnett became the first Phoenix player to earn a spot on the All-CAA First Team, while Brown and Autumn Carter earned CAA All-Academic Team honors.

In its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, Smith led the Phoenix to a 19-13 overall record and an 11-7 conference record. The team tied for third during the regular season and earned the No. 4 seed in the CAA Championship where the team fell just four points shy of advancing to the championship final. It marked the third straight trip to the conference tournament semifinals for the Phoenix. Elon's outstanding regular season allowed the team to earn the school's first ever bid to play in the WNIT.

During the season, Elon saw the freshman tandem of Burnett and Malaya Johnson earn CAA Rookie of the Week honors four and two times, respectively. Both Burnett and Johnson were later named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. Senior Sam Coffey earned the program's first CAA Player of the Week honor and was also named to the Academic All-District First Team for the second straight year. Off the court, Coffey, Zora Stephenson and Brown were selected to the CAA All-Academic Team.

In 2013-14, Elon went 10-8 in Southern Conference play during the 2013-14 season and advanced to the tournament semifinals for the second straight year. Smith saw three players earn all-conference accolades at the end of the regular season. Jennifer Rhodes was named the Freshman of the Year and earned a spot on both the coaches and media all-freshmen teams along with Brown. Kelsey Harris was named to the coaches' all-conference team and the media's all-conference second team, while also earning a spot on the SoCon all-tournament team. During the year, all three freshmen – Rhodes, Brown and Lenaira Ruffin – earned rookie of the week accolades with Rhodes receiving the honor three times.

In the classroom, Harris, Sam Coffey, Jessica Farmer and Zora Stephenson were all named to the SoCon winter all-academic team.

In 2012-13, Elon posted a 19-14 record, including its best ever Southern Conference mark of 14-6.

The maroon and gold earned a program-best three seed in the SoCon Tournament and advanced to the tournament semifinals. Smith took the Phoenix to its second postseason appearance of the Division I era in the 2013 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) as the team advanced to the tournament quarterfinals.

During the season, Elon held a 13-game home winning streak, dating from Dec. 15, 2012 – March 23, 2013. The team also went on a six-game winning streak during January, finishing the month with a 6-1 record. Smith coached the Phoenix to a win over all 10-league teams, including conference champion Chattanooga, handing UTC its only conference loss of the season.

Smith coached Ali Ford and Kelsey Evans to three-combined SoCon Player of the Week awards and all-conference honors, picking up first team honors from the coaches, while Ford was named to the media first team and Evans to the media second team. During the conference tournament, Evans earned second team honors.

Elon also saw success off the court as all five starters (Evans, Ford, Coffey, Harris and Stephenson) were named to the 2012-13 Winter All-SoCon Academic team. The Phoenix was the only program in the conference to have all its starters earn all-academic honors.

Smith led the Phoenix to a 16-14 mark in her first season (2011-12), the most victories by a first-year head coach in program history.

Elon had a total of three all-conference selections in Smith's first season, as Ford and Evans picked up first and second team honors, respectively. Coffey was also named to the league's all-freshman team.

As an assistant coach at UNC for nine seasons before arriving at Elon, Smith helped the Tar Heels to a 257-54 record, including a 100-30 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. UNC won four ACC titles during Smith's tenure, making seven appearances in the top-25 national rankings. The Tar Heels made the NCAA Tournament all nine seasons during Smith's tenure, making two trips to the Final Four as well as six Sweet 16 and four Elite Eight appearances. From 2005-2008, North Carolina earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

The most decorated player in North Carolina history, Smith was a four-year letterwinner for the Tar Heels from 1992-95 and is one of only two UNC women's basketball players to have had her jersey retired. The 6-foot forward who wore No. 23 was named National Player of the Year by ESPN in 1995 following a career in which she scored 2,094 points (fifth all-time at UNC) and grabbed 1,200 rebounds (second all-time at UNC).

Smith is perhaps best known for her performance in the 1994 NCAA Championship game, when her buzzer-beating three-pointer gave UNC the national crown with a 60-59 win over Louisiana Tech. She also had a championship-record 23 rebounds in the game and was named the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player.

The ACC Rookie of the Year in 1992, Smith earned All-ACC and ACC Tournament MVP honors in her junior and senior seasons as the Tar Heels claimed back-to-back conference crowns.

As a senior, she was named All-America by Kodak, the Associated Press and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. In 2002, she was named to the ACC's 50th Anniversary team as one of the top players in conference history. She also was honored as the 10th-best female athlete in the history of the league. Early in her senior season, she became just the second collegiate women's player to dunk in a game when

What Others Are Saying About Charlotte Smith

North Carolina Head Women's Basketball Coach Sylvia Hatchell...

"I am just so proud of Charlotte. She has been an incredible asset to Carolina women's basketball for two decades. Our program owes so much of its success to her hard work both as a player and a coach and she will be greatly missed. That said, I couldn't be happier for Charlotte to begin her career at an up-and-coming program like Elon. Not only are they getting an outstanding coach, but they are getting an even better person, and we wish her nothing but the best of luck."

Former North Carolina Director of Athletics Dick Baddour...

"Charlotte is an exceptional individual with strong values and a determination for success. I am confident she will not only be successful, but that she will develop that success in a first class way. We wish her all the best at Elon."

Women's College Basketball Analyst Debbie Antonelli...

"Charlotte Smith is an exciting hire for Elon and the Southern Conference. Charlotte has an impressive resume as a player and as a coach that's put her in every basketball experience with the exception of sliding over those '18 inches on the bench' to be called head coach. Her North Carolina pedigree as a player and assistant coach have given her the leadership, organization and communication skills and the winning intangibles that are needed to prepare a team and a program. The young women that she guides will excel at the highest levels in the classroom and on the court. The Elon basketball program will be an up-tempo and exciting style of play that will be fun to watch."

College and Professional Head Women's Basketball Coach Anne Donovan...

"Charlotte Smith is a landmark in the state of North Carolina. Her stellar reputation as a high school student-athlete, national champion, coach at UNC and role model for all young women is legendary. Kudos to Elon University for this tremendous hire!"

South Carolina Head Women's Basketball Coach Dawn Staley...

"Charlotte was the ultimate teammate and she has a great basketball IQ. It's a tremendous hire for not only the Elon women's basketball program, but for the community as a whole. Charlotte will be very instrumental in helping the campus grow on all levels, not just on the basketball court. She is a passionate, wonderful and spiritual person that will help take the Elon women's basketball program to the next level."

Cristy McKinney Assistant Coach Sixth Season

Cristy McKinney was named an assistant women's basketball coach on Charlotte Smith's staff on July 25, 2011. McKinney came to Elon with a wealth of coaching experience, having spent five seasons (2005-2010) as the head coach at Clemson University following 12 years as the head coach at Rice University. McKinney is Rice's all-time winningest coach with 216 career victories and led the Owls to two Western Athletic Conference titles and a total of six postseason tournament appearances.

"I am very excited to have Coach McKinney on board," Smith said. "She is a consummate professional and is well respected in the basketball community. Not only does she bring experience having coached on different levels, but she is also experienced in all aspects of coaching. She has a great basketball mind but more importantly she is passionate and invested in the well-being of the student-athlete. Coach McKinney is a great addition to the Phoenix family."

In 2015-16, McKinney helped the Phoenix to an 18-13 season, including an 11-7 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association, and its second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT. The postseason appearance marked the fourth in the program's DI history and the third time in four years the Phoenix has played in a post-season tournament.

The season was highlighted by the program's first ever win over Atlantic Coast Conference opponent North Carolina State after a 69-66 final in Raleigh, N.C. Both Shay Burnett and Lauren Brown were honored as CAA Player of the Week throughout the course of the year, while Nikki McDonald earned CAA Rookie of the Week honors. Burnett became the first Phoenix player to earn a spot on the All-CAA First Team, while Brown and Autumn Carter earned CAA All-Academic Team honors.

In its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, the Phoenix to a 19-13 overall record and an 11-7 conference record. The team tied for third during the regular season and earned the No. 4 seed in the CAA Championship where the team fell just four points shy of advancing to the championship final. It marked the third straight trip to the conference tournament semifinals for the Phoenix. Elon's outstanding regular season allowed the team to earn the school's first ever bid to play in the WNIT.

During the season, Elon saw the freshman tandem of Burnett and Malaya Johnson earn CAA Rookie of the Week honors four and two times, respectively. Both Burnett and Johnson were later named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. Senior Sam Coffer earned the program's first CAA Player of the Week honor and was also named to the Academic All-District First Team for the second straight year. Off the court, Coffer, Zora Stephenson and Brown were selected to the CAA All-Academic Team.

In 2013-14, Elon went 10-8 in Southern Conference play during the 2013-14 season and advanced to the tournament semifinals for the second straight year. The Phoenix saw three players earn all-conference accolades at the end of the regular season. Jenifer Rhodes was named the Freshman of the Year and earned a spot on both the coaches and media all-freshmen teams along with Brown. Kelsey Harris was named to the coaches' all-conference team and the media's all-conference second team, while also earning a spot on the SoCon all-tournament team. During the year, all three freshmen – Rhodes, Brown and Lenaira Ruffin – earned rookie of the week accolades with Rhodes receiving the honor three times.

In the classroom, Harris, Coffer, Stephenson and Jessica Farmer were all named to the SoCon winter all-academic team.

In 2012-13, Elon posted a 19-14 record, including its best ever Southern Conference mark of 14-6. The maroon and gold earned a program-best three seed in the SoCon Tournament and advanced to the tournament semifinals. The Phoenix made its second postseason appearance of the Division I era in the 2013 Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) as the team advanced to the tournament quarterfinals.

During the season, Elon held a 13-game home winning streak, dating from Dec. 15, 2012 – March 23, 2013. The team also went on a six-game winning streak during January, finishing the month with a 6-1 record. The Phoenix recorded a win over all 10-league teams, including conference champion Chattanooga, handing UTC its only conference loss of the season. McKinney helped coach Ali Ford and Kelsey Evans to three-combined SoCon Player of the Week awards and all-conference honors, picking up first team honors from the coaches, while Ford was named to the media first team and Evans to the media second team. During the conference tournament, Evans earned second team honors.

Elon also saw success off the court as all five starters (Evans, Ford, Coffer, Harris and Stephenson) were named to the 2012-13 Winter All-SoCon Academic team. The Phoenix was the only program in the conference to have all its starters earn all-academic honors.

The Phoenix went 16-14 in McKinney's first season (2011-12). Elon had a total of three all-conference selections during the season, as Ford and Evans picked up first and second team honors, respectively. Coffer was also named to the league's all-freshman team.

While at Clemson, McKinney led the Lady Tigers to a 58-93 record, including upset victories in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament in 2008 and 2009. The wins in the ACC Tournament marked the first time in 10 years Clemson won games in back-to-back ACC Tournaments. McKinney also led the Lady Tigers to a pair of victories over rival South Carolina in her final two seasons.

"I am very excited to come to Elon and work with Coach Smith," McKinney said. "She's a bright young coach who is going to be a great leader at Elon and I am looking forward to working with her and becoming part of the Phoenix family."

Coming out of high school I was going to come to Elon to play for Coach [Kay] Yow, but when she left for NC State when I was a senior in high school I ended up following her there. In a way, I feel like I'm coming back somewhere that I was coming to a long time ago and I'm very excited about the opportunity."

In 12 seasons at Rice, McKinney posted a 216-139 record and is the school's winningest women's basketball coach. In 2004-05, her final season at Rice, McKinney led the Owls to the Western Athletic Conference title and a 24-9 record, earning WAC Coach of the Year accolades. In all, McKinney led the Owls to six 20-win seasons, two NCAA Tournament appearances, four WNIT appearances and two WAC titles. In 2001, Rice posted a win over sixth-ranked Louisiana Tech, which remains the highest-ranked opponent Rice has ever beaten. In 1999, McKinney led Rice to the second round of the NCAA tournament after upsetting fourth-seeded UCSB in the first round. McKinney also served on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Legislative Committee for two years, as well as the WBCA Kodak All-American Committee. In October 2013, McKinney was inducted into the Rice Athletic Hall of Fame.

Prior to leading the Rice program, McKinney was an assistant coach at Western Kentucky University for nine seasons (1982-84, 1986-93). McKinney helped the Lady Toppers make seven NCAA Tournament appearances, including three berths in the Sweet 16 and a runner-up finish in the 1992 National Championship.

Before going to WKU, McKinney was the head coach at the University of Montevallo from 1984-86, where she was named District Coach of the Year following the 1985-86 season.

McKinney is a 1979 graduate of NC State, where she played four seasons under former Elon head coach and Naismith Memorial Hall of Famer, Kay Yow. McKinney scored 1,359 points and grabbed 600 rebounds, and still holds the freshman scoring record for the Wolfpack. She shot 78.3 percent from the free throw line during her playing career and was a member of NC State's first ACC regular-season championship team.

McKinney earned a bachelor's degree in math education from NC State in 1979 before earning a master's degree in physical education from Western Carolina University in 1982.

Formerly Cristy Earnhardt, McKinney was married to the late Robert McKinney for 25 years. Robert passed away in September 2011.

Josh Wick Assistant Coach Sixth Season

Elon University head women's basketball coach Charlotte Smith announced the addition of Josh Wick as an assistant coach on July 26, 2011. A 2001 graduate of the University of North Carolina, Wick came to Elon after spending the previous three seasons at East Tennessee State University.

"I am excited to welcome Josh Wick to the Phoenix women's basketball program," Smith said. "He has a vast knowledge of the game, excels in scouting, does a tremendous job of player development on the court and brings a great level of excitement when it comes to recruiting."

In 2015-16, Wick helped the Phoenix to an 18-13 season, including an 11-7 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association, and its second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT. The postseason appearance marked the fourth in the program's DI history and the third time in four years the Phoenix has played in a post-season tournament.

Both Burnett and Johnson were later named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. Senior Sam Coffey earned the program's first CAA Player of the Week honor and was also named to the Academic All-District First Team for the second straight year. Off the court, Coffey, Zora Stephenson and Brown were selected to the CAA All-Academic Team.

In its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, Wick helped the Phoenix to a 19-12 overall record and an 11-7 conference record. The team tied for third during the regular season and earned the No. 4 seed in the CAA Championship where the team fell just four points shy of advancing to the championship final. It marked the third straight trip to the conference tournament semifinals for the Phoenix.

Elon's outstanding regular season allowed the team to make its third post-season appearance in the program's DI history, earning the school's first ever bid to play in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). It also marked the second time in two years the Phoenix has played in a post-season tournament.

During the season, Elon saw the freshman tandem of Shay Burnett and Malaya Johnson earn CAA Rookie of the Week honors four and two times, respectively. Both Burnett and Johnson were later named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. Senior Sam Coffey earned the program's first CAA Player of the Week honor and was also named to the Academic All-District First Team for the second straight year. Off the court, Coffey, Zora Stephenson and Lauren Brown were selected to the CAA All-Academic Team.

The Phoenix recorded a win over all 10-league teams, including conference champion Chattanooga, handing UTC its only conference loss of the season. Wick helped coach Ali Ford and Kelsey Evans to three-combined SoCon Player of the Week awards and all-conference honors, picking up first team honors from the coaches, while Ford was named to the media first team and Evans to the media second team. During the conference tournament, Evans earned second team honors.

Elon also saw success off the court as all five starters (Evans, Ford, Coffey, Harris and Stephenson) were named to the 2012-13 Winter All-SoCon Academic team. The Phoenix was the only program in the conference to have all its starters earn all-academic honors.

The Phoenix went 16-14 in Wick's first season (2011-12). Elon had a total of three all-conference selections during the season, as Ford and Evans picked up first and second team honors, respectively. Coffey was also named to the league's all-freshman team.

In three seasons at ETSU, Wick helped the Lady Bucs to a 62-32 overall record, including a 49-11 mark in the Atlantic Sun Conference. While working primarily with the guards and perimeter players at ETSU, Wick coached a pair of Atlantic Sun Players of the Year and first-team All-Atlantic Sun honorees, as well as three Atlantic Sun All-Tournament Team selections. One of the players Wick helped coach was Siarre Evans. Evans, the third player to record 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in ETSU history, became the first player in conference history to be named First Team All-A-Sun for all four years, and the sixth player to win multiple Player of the Year awards. In addition to Evans, Wick also directed another 1,000-point club honoree – TaRonda Wiles. Wiles was a two-time First Team All-Atlantic Sun member and was named A-Sun co-Player of the Year along with teammate Siarre Evans in 2009-10. After seeing Evans lead the conference in scoring and rebounding as a junior, Wiles captured the scoring title in 2009-10, while Evans won the rebounding crown for the second consecutive season.

Prior to his arrival in Johnson City, Tenn., Wick spent the 2007-08 season coaching at UNLV. During his time with the Lady Rebels, he coached one of the best players to ever wear a Lady Rebel uniform, Sequoia Holmes. Holmes led the Mountain West Conference in scoring and became the third UNLV player to reach the WNBA.

Before his stint at UNLV, Wick spent three years at North Carolina where he gained valuable experiences under head coach Sylvia Hatchell as a video coordinator. In his time in Chapel Hill, the Tar Heels enjoyed an impressive run, as UNC went on to win three ACC Championships and made back-to-back Final Four appearances.

Wick began his coaching career in 1999, when he took over the reins at Cresset Christian Academy in Durham, N.C. During his three-year run, he guided the men's basketball team to a regular season championship and a perfect conference record.

Wick received his bachelor's degree in communication studies from North Carolina in 2001 and also earned a minor in exercise and sport science.

Tasha Taylor Assistant Coach Third Season

Tasha Taylor joined the Elon women's basketball staff as an assistant coach in October 2014. Taylor arrived at Elon after serving in the same role at Limestone College for two years.

In 2015-16, Taylor helped the Phoenix to an 18-13 season, including an 11-7 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association, and its second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT. The postseason appearance marked the fourth in the program's DI history and the third time in four years the Phoenix has played in a post-season tournament.

The season was highlighted by the program's first ever win over Atlantic Coast Conference opponent North Carolina State after a 69-66 final in Raleigh, N.C. Senior Sam Coffey earned the program's first CAA Player of the Week honor and was also named to the Academic All-District First Team for the second straight year. Off the court, Coffey, Zora Stephenson and Brown were selected to the CAA All-Academic Team.

In her time at Limestone, Taylor played a key role in guiding the team to its best two seasons in program history. She helped lead the Saints to a program-best 27-4 overall record in her first season before a 27-6 mark in 2013-14. During her tenure, Limestone clinched back-to-back Conference Carolinas Regular Season Championships, won the 2014 Conference Carolinas Tournament Championship, made two NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and advanced to the 2014 Elite Eight after claiming the NCAA Southeast Regional Championship. Taylor also directed and coordinated the operations for Limestone's women's basketball team camp.

Prior to Limestone, Taylor served as the assistant women's basketball coach at Lees-McRae College. She played a leading role in the scouting and recruitment of student-athletes, and was also responsible for the preparation of scouting reports and for the skill development of guards and post players. While with the Bobcats, the team's overall record improved in each successive season.

A four-year starter for the Clemson women's basketball program, Taylor played under Elon assistant coach Cristy McKinney from 2005-2009. She ranks fourth all-time in Clemson history with 433 career assists and fifth all-time with 3.70 assists per game.

Taylor led the Tigers in assists during her sophomore and senior campaigns and was named the team's Defensive Player of the Year in 2005-06, while also earning the Playmaker Award following the 2005-06 and 2008-09 seasons. Off the court, she represented the team for three years on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

A native of Columbus, Ga., Taylor graduated from Clemson University in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science in Parks, Recreation and Tourism Management with an emphasis in sports management and a minor in athletic leadership.

Morgan Oliver

Director of Operations

Third Season

Morgan Oliver joined the Elon women's basketball staff in September 2014 to serve as the team's director of operations. A 2013 graduate of Duke University, Oliver previously served as the head manager of the Duke women's basketball team.

In 2015-16, the Phoenix to an 18-13 season, including an 11-7 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association, and its second straight trip to the Postseason WNIT. ## 2016-17 Elon Women's Basketball

To The Media

It is our hope that you will find this publication useful while covering Elon University women's basketball during the 2016-17 season. Every effort has been made to include timely and pertinent information for your use.

Thank you for your coverage of Elon University women's basketball. We look forward to serving you this season.

Press Credentials

All media members and photographers wishing to cover a home Elon women's basketball game must submit a credential request via email to Paige Fredrickson.

All requests are screened to ensure a working press row with priority given to daily newspapers, radio/TV sports directors and other media who cover Elon and their opponents on a regular basis.

Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under the age of 18 will not be granted credentials. If you wish to bring a guest, please inquire regarding the availability of tickets.

Media Will Call & Parking

Credentials which are not mailed can be picked up at the Will Call table located in front of Alumni Gym in the Koury Athletic Center. Parking is located across from the Koury Center in the Oaks Parking Lot.

Photographers

In order to be permitted on the baselines, photographers must have a credential. Properly credentialed photographers will be allowed to shoot in compliance with NCAA rules. Photographers should shoot from the designated locations. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

Media Services

Game notes, flip cards and statistics are provided at every Elon home game. Post-game interviews will be conducted in room 125 of the Koury Center, which is located in the back left corner of the gym from the concourse entrance.

Wireless Internet Service

High-speed wireless internet access is provided free of charge on press row. Network information can be obtained from a Athletic Communications office staff member.

Radio

A phone line will be made available in Alumni Gym for an official radio broadcast for opponents.

Player & Coach Interviews

All player and coach interviews must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Communications Office and requests are asked to be made at least 24 hours in advance. Depending upon schedules and other time considerations, interviews will be scheduled before or after practice sessions. Player phone numbers will not be released to media members.

Practice Coverage

Elon women's basketball practices are open to the media, and the coaching staff will meet with any media members following the practice session. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office at (336) 278-6761 if you plan to cover a practice session so the proper arrangements can be made.

Radio Broadcasts

WSOE 89.3 FM in Elon will provide play-by-play coverage of all regular-season games during the 2016-17 season. Again this season, all Elon games can be heard over the internet at elonphoenix.com.

Phoenix All-Access

All home women's basketball games can be viewed for free on Phoenix All-Access. Any games not selected for TV will be broadcast exclusively on Phoenix All-Access.

Directions to Alumni Gym

If traveling on Interstate 85/40, take exit 141. Follow signs to Elon University. Upon entering the town of Elon and passing over the railroad crossing, you will reach the Haggard Avenue intersection. Continue through the light and the building on the right is the Koury Athletic Center, home of Alumni Gym. Parking is located across the street in the Oaks Parking Lot.
