LEGEND OF THE PHOENIX

Throughout history there is told the legend of the rare and remarkable Phoenix, a crimson and gold bird that lived 500 years. It was sleek, swift and strong – the most marvelous bird ever created by human imagination. At the end of its life, with death approaching, it built a nest in an oak tree and was consumed in flames ignited by the sun. From the ashes emerged the next Phoenix – reborn and renewed, with strength forged in fire.

Fire, too, has shaped the history of Elon University. The disastrous fire of 1923 all but destroyed Elon. Gone were college records, classrooms, the library and the chapel. Within days of the fire, trustees set in motion the plan for Elon to rise from the ashes, stronger than ever.

The Phoenix is a powerful leader and an emblem of immortality. It is a perfect symbol for a school that is constantly renewing and recreating itself.

THERE IS ONLY ONE

As there can only be one Phoenix at any time, please refer to the Phoenix in the singular.

HEAD COACH RICH SKROSKY

Rich Skrosky became the 21st head football coach in school history on December 12, 2013 and guided the Elon program as it made the move to the Colonial Athletic Association for the 2014 season.

Skrosky, who has 28 years of collegiate coaching experience, is in his second stint at Elon, returning to where he served as the team's offensive line coach (2006-08) as well as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2009-10). For the three seasons in between his tenures at Elon, Skrosky served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ball State University.

During year two of Skrosky's head coaching tenure, the Phoenix picked up four victories, including the program's first CAA Football win – a 17-13 decision over Towson. At the conclusion of the year, three Phoenix players earned all-conference accolades. Two players picked up CAA Football Player of the Week honors, including linebacker Corey Mitchell who became the first Elon player to earn a national player of the week award since 2012. The maroon and gold ranked 13th nationally by committing just 55 penalties during the 2015 season. The Phoenix's 41.09 penalty yards per game rated 10th in the country.

In Elon's first season as a member of CAA Football, Skrosky saw four players collect all-league accolades. The Phoenix led the league and ranked second nationally by committing just 45 penalties on the year. The team averaged just 30.0 penalty yards per game. Elon also ranked in the top 15 nationally in blocked punts and blocked kicks. The Phoenix also led the nation in fewest fumbles lost as the maroon and gold lost just three fumbles in 2014.

While at Ball State, Skrosky helped quarterback Keith Wenning to complete a school-record 313 passes in 2012. Skrosky's offense also churned out the third-best single-season rushing performance in Ball State history as Jahwan Edwards ran for 1,410 yards in 2012. The 2012 team went 9-4, including a 34-27 win against 25th-ranked Toledo, and appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl.

In 2013, the Cardinals' offense has averaged 486.3 yards per game as the program has posted a 10-2 overall record that includes a victory over Virginia. The 2013 Ball State team will played in the GoDaddy Bowl and averaged 38.5 points per game. The Cardinals either ranked near the top of the MAC in first downs, passing offense, yards per completion, passing efficiency, total offense, red zone offense and completion percentage. Following its final regular season game of the 2013 season, the Cardinals had matched a school record by scoring at least 40 points in six games and established a new program mark by scoring 50 or more points in three contests. Six Ball State players were named to watch lists for national awards – Wenning, wide receiver Jamill Smith, wide receiver Willie Snead, wide receiver Jordan Williams, running back Jahwan Edwards and tight end Zane Fakes. Wenning was a sixth-round draft pick of the Baltimore Ravens in the 2013 NFL draft.

Twice Skrosky was a nominee for the Broyles Award that is presented to the nation's top assistant coach. In that same span, Skrosky's Ball State offense developed 16 All-MAC selections. The Cardinals' offense compiled the top two seasons in both average yards per game (476.8 in 2013 and 457.2 in 2012) and points per game (38.5 in 2013 and 36.4 in 2012) in program history. The team's 63 touchdowns in 2013 were the most ever scored by a Ball State team, while the 52 TDs scored a the previous season were the third-most.

In Skrosky's first season as Elon's offensive coordinator, the Phoenix led the Southern Conference and ranked sixth in the country with 291.50 passing yards per game in 2009. Elon also ranked among the top-20 nationally in passing efficiency and total offense as the maroon and gold made its first-ever FCS Playoff appearance. That year, Elon finished ranked ninth in the nation in The Sports Network's FCS Poll and 10th nationally in the FCS Coaches Poll with a 9-3 record. In 2009, Elon had five offensive players earn All-SoCon accolades and two – wide receiver Terrell Hudgins and offensive lineman David Harrison – collected all-America honors.

The following year, Elon rated eighth in the nation in total offense, putting up 435.18 yards per game. The team averaged 31.9 points per game that year to rate 14th in the nation and the passing game put up the second-most yards through the air in the country at 322.36 yards per outing. In 2010, wide receiver Aaron Mellette, quarterback Scott Riddle and offensive lineman Rodney Austin all earned all-America honors.

In Skrosky's offensive system, Hudgins would amass 5,250 receiving yards on 395 receptions, both NCAA Division I records. The wide out would establish 19 records, 10 of which were NCAA marks, and was named to 14 different All-America teams. He was the first NCAA Division I player to ever post four 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Riddle would pass for 13,264 career yards, the most ever by an Elon or SoCon player, and set a total of 41 NCAA, SoCon or Elon records. In his two seasons as Elon's offensive coordinator, the Phoenix had 10 players earn all-league honors.

Skrosky first came to Elon after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Columbia University for five seasons (2001-05) where he had 11 All-Ivy League selections and two all-Americans. Previously, he served eight seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Monmouth University where he helped the squad capture two conference titles and coached 14 all-league picks.

Skrosky has previous head coaching experience as well, having served as the head coach at Ramapo College during the 1992 campaign after serving as that program's offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and tight ends coach during the 1990 and 1991 seasons. While Skrosky was at Ramapo he coached 17 all-league honorees.

He also turned in stints as the tight ends coach at Rutgers University for two seasons (1988-89) and as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Lodi (N.J.) High School for three seasons (1985-87). Skrosky was the defensive backs coach at St. Peter's Prep High School in Jersey City, N.J. in 1984.

The Lodi, N.J., native was an All-Bergen County defensive back at Lodi High and a safety on Ramapo's football squad. He graduated from Ramapo with a bachelor's degree in political science.

Skrosky is married to Suzanne Quentz.

The Last Meeting

Elon 14, #16 Richmond 27 | Oct. 10, 2015 • Robins Stadium • Richmond, Va.

The Elon defense pitched a shutout after the first quarter and the Phoenix offense rallied from a 13-point deficit to claim a 17-13 victory over the Towson Tigers on a rainy Saturday at Rhodes Stadium. The win was the first in CAA Football for the maroon and gold. After allowing 13 first-quarter points, the Elon defense allowed the Phoenix offense to get the maroon and gold back in the game by not allowing another point. The Elon scoring began late in the first period when Connor Christiansen hit Tereak McCray for a 35-yard strike that just eluded a defender. Towson fumbled on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter and Elon's Jonathan Jackson recovered at the 26-yard line. Two plays later, Brandon Gentry toted the ball across the goal line from five yards out to put the Phoenix in front, 14-13. Later in the third, John Gallagher's 45-yard field goal hit the right upright, but bounced through to make it a 17-13 game. John Silas led all players with 16 total tackles, including a sack. The wet conditions led to a combined nine fumbles as Towson put the ball on the ground five times and Elon four times.

WE HAIL FROM

Elon's 2016 roster sports 95 players total, including 46 from the state of North Carolina. The Phoenix roster also has players from 14 other states and Washington, D.C. – Alabama (1), Connecticut (2), Florida (4), Georgia (11), Indiana (2), Massachusetts (3), New Jersey (7), New York (3), Ohio (2), Pennsylvania (1), South Carolina (3), Virginia (7), Washington (1), Wisconsin (1) and the District of Columbia (1).

YOUNG BIRDS

The 2016 edition of the Phoenix is a young one. The 95-player roster includes 31 true freshmen, 16 red-shirt freshmen and 21 sophomores. That means that nearly 72 percent of the squad are players competing in either their first or second season of collegiate games. Only nine seniors are on this year's team.

A NEW FACE

Elon head coach Rich Skrosky had to replace Jerry Petercuskie who announced his retirement following two seasons as the Phoenix's defensive coordinator and linebackers. Skrosky promoted former defensive line coach Patrick Madden to the defensive coordinator and linebackers position before bringing aboard Gerald Chatman as the new defensive line coach. Chatman spent last season as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M and has made stops at Butler, Ball State and Wisconsin Oshkosh.

NESTING AT HOME

The 2016 season marks Elon's 95th year of football. In that time, the maroon and gold has posted an all-time record of 494-440-18 (.528) – including a sizzling 176-84-3 (.674) mark in 52 seasons of home games at Burlington Memorial Stadium. In its current home of Rhodes Stadium, the Phoenix has gone 38-51 (.427).

PLAYING THE BEST

Elon's 2016 schedule features six opponents, all members of CAA Football, that were ranked in the preseason top 25. Earning a spot in the STATS poll are Richmond (4th), William & Mary (9th), James Madison (12th), New Hampshire (22nd), Villanova (23rd) and Towson (24th). The coaches poll ranked Richmond (4th), William & Mary (10th), James Madison (11th) and Villanova (22nd) among the top 25. During its tenure at the FCS level, Elon has twice faced off with six ranked foes in a season – 2001 and 2008.

NEW LOOK D-LINE

The Phoenix must replace all four starters along its defensive line after the departure of seniors Rob Sullivan, Chris Jones, Marquise Wright and Alexander Dawson. Elon turned to a quartet of juniors Dondre Howell (Mooresville, N.C.) and Nick Groll (Armonk, N.Y.), sophomore Daniel Everett (Williamston, N.C.) and red-shirt freshman Antwain Terry (Wake Forest, N.C.) in game one of 2016. Of those, Groll and Everett combined for eight starts prior to this year.

DISCIPLINED FOOTBALL

In Rich Skrosky's two seasons as Elon's head coach, the Phoenix has ranked in the top 16 nationally in both fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game. In 2014, Elon rated second nationally in both categories (3.75 penalties/game and 30.00 penalty yards/game). Last year, the maroon and gold was 16th with 5.00 penalties/game and 10th with 41.09 penalty yards/game). In that time, Elon has had one game (at James Madison in 2014) in which it was flagged for no penalties and one (at Maine in 2015) in which it was called for just one.

This season, Elon is averaging 48.13 penalty yards per game, ranking 26th nationally and fifth in the league.

JUST A POINT

In its history, Elon has played 34 games which have been decided by just one point. Elon is 21-13 in those games. The last such contest was a 33-32 loss at #23 Samford to end the 2013 season.

EXTRA, EXTRA!

Elon has played a total of 10 overtime games in its storied history, posting a mark of 5-5 in those contests.

WINNING ON THE ROAD

Three of Elon's four victories last season came on the road. That marked the most road wins for the Phoenix since winning three contests away from home in 2011. Elon is 1-2 on the road in 2016.

HOME STRETCH

The Phoenix played its first road game since a Sept. 24 victory at William & Mary when it visited Albany on Oct. 29. In between, Elon played three home games and had a bye week. It marked the longest stretch without a road game for Elon since 1994 when the maroon and gold played three home games and had a bye between road games on Oct. 8 and Nov. 12.

OFF THE BYE

Elon is 1-2 after its bye week under Rich Skrosky following a loss to Richmond this year. The Phoenix defeated Stony Brook 21-7 on the road last season and fell to North Carolina A&T 17-12 in 2014 after its off week. In the last six years, the Phoenix is 3-3 after a bye.

CHANGE OF DATE

Elon's game with New Hampshire was originally scheduled to be played on Saturday, Oct. 8, but was moved to Friday, Oct. 7 because of Hurricane Matthew. It was the first time in the program's NCAA Division I era that Elon played on a Friday. The team last had a game moved due to a hurricane was 1996 when Elon's season opener against Newberry was moved to Sunday, Sept. 8 because of Hurricane Fran.

TOP-10 VICTORY

Elon's 27-10 win over #8 William & Mary was just the second over an FCS top-10 opponent in the program's Division I tenure. The only other was a 24-13 win at #6 Wofford in 2007. It was also the first defeat of a ranked opponent since a 2011 win by a 42-34 victory at #17 Furman.

PICKING UP VOTES

Thanks to a 27-10 victory at #8 William & Mary, the Phoenix drew the eyes of the voters for the national polls. Elon earned 31 points in the STATS FCS poll, good enough for 41st place. In the coaches poll, the maroon and gold earned 12 points, rating 31st nationally. It was the first time that Elon had received votes since the 2011 preseason.

10 OR LESS

Elon has allowed 10 or fewer points in back-to-back weeks for the first time since the 2009 campaign when the Phoenix did it three straight games. Elon held Fayetteville State to just three points before limiting #8 William & Mary to 10 points in victories. In 2009, the maroon and gold allowed seven to The Citadel, 10 to Chattanooga and six to Wofford in three wins.

GOOD DEFENSIVE STARTS

In two consecutive games (at Charlotte, vs. Fayetteville State) Elon's defense did not allow a first down in the first quarter. That streak ended when William & Mary picked up a first down on its third drive of the first quarter. The Phoenix limited the 49ers to just 24 yards over the first 15 minutes, while the Broncos managed just 26 yards. In game one against Gardner-Webb, the Phoenix allowed 51 yards.

ONLY 3

Elon held Fayetteville State to just a first quarter field goal in a 26-3 victory over the Broncos. The three points allowed by the Phoenix were the fewest surrendered by the program since blanking Davidson 56-0 to open the 2009 campaign. Elon played 81 games in between the Davidson and Fayetteville State contests.

ELON VS. FBS OPPONENTS

Elon's week two contest at Charlotte marked the program's ninth against an FBS opponent. The first FBS meeting for Elon came in 2007 when the Phoenix dropped a 28-13 contest at South Florida. The Phoenix's other FBS games have come at Wake Forest (2009, 2015), at Duke (2010, 2014), at Vanderbilt (2011), at North Carolina (2012) and at Georgia Tech (2013).

OPENING AT HOME

The Phoenix got to play its first game of the season at Rhodes Stadium for the first time since 2009 when it hosted Gardner-Webb on Sept. 3. Elon had opened at an FBS opponent in each of the previous six seasons since that 2009 victory over Davidson.

SEASON BOX SCORES

Game 1

Sept. 3, 2016 | Elon, N.C.
Rhodes Stadium | 7,036

GARDNER-WEBB 31	ELON 6

The 2016 Elon University football season opened in front of a rowdy crowd at Rhodes Stadium, but the homestanding Phoenix came out on the wrong end of a 31-6 score against the visiting Gardner-Webb Runnin' Bulldogs on Saturday afternoon.

How it happened: After the two teams traded field goals in the first half, Gardner-Webb received the opening kickoff of the second half and marched 65 yards to take a 10-3 lead after a Khalil Lewis one-yard plunge.

The Phoenix got a 39-yard field goal from John Gallagher to cut it to 10-6 only to see the Runnin' Bulldogs put together a 7-play, 76-yard drive that saw Lewis rush for his second score of the contest. GWU would find the end zone twice more in the fourth period, including Lewis' third rushing score of the day to wrap the scoring.

Noteworthy: Gallagher's two field goals upped his career total to 37 made, moving him into third place on Elon's all-time chart ... Joyner's five receptions tied a career high; He finished with 46 receiving yards.

Game 2

Sept. 10, 2016 | Charlotte, N.C.
Richardson Stadium | 15,807

ELON 14	CHARLOTTE 47

The Elon University football team could not have asked for a better start, but the Charlotte 49ers got things going after the first 15 minutes as the Phoenix dropped a 47-14 decision against the FBS foe on Saturday night at Richardson Stadium.

How it happened: Elon forced Charlotte in to a three-and-out to start the game only to see the 49ers down the punt inside the Phoenix's one-yard line. The Phoenix promptly put together a 12-play, 99-yard drive that ended when Brandon Gentry ran it in from two yards out.

On the first Charlotte drive of the second quarter, the 49ers started at their own 15 and marched 85 yards in 11 plays to tie the game on a Kevin Olsen 12-yard pass to T.L. Ford II. The key play of the drive came when Olsen hit Austin Duke for a gain of 19 on a third-and-16 to move the chains.

Elon's ensuing drive came to an end on the fourth play when Kendrick Davis intercepted a Daniel Thompson pass. Six plays later, Charlotte grabbed the lead for good as Olsen lofted a one-yard pass to Kyle Hoffman. Charlotte would score once more to take a 20-7 at halftime.

The final Phoenix score capped a seven-play, 68-yard drive as Thompson ran it in from six yards out with 6:53 to play.

Noteworthy: Thompson set career highs with 29 completions, 50 passing attempts and 322 passing yards... The true freshman trio of Cole Taylor, Jeremiah Bridges and De'Sean McNair combined to catch 16 passes for 222 yards.

FAYETTEVILLE STATE 3	ELON 26

After seeing visiting Fayetteville State take a 3-0 lead, the Elon football team reeled off 26 consecutive points to defeat the Broncos 26-3 at Rhodes Stadium.

How it happened: After forcing Fayetteville State to punt on its first drive, the Phoenix was unable to secure the kick as the Broncos recovered ball at the Elon 21-yard line. FSU would take a 3-0 lead on a David Lamb 33-yard field goal.

The Phoenix answered with a 15-play drive to take a 7-3 edge on a Brandon Gentry two-yard rush. The drive started at the Elon 29 with Daniel Thompson connecting with Malcolm Summers for 11 yards. Summers would pick up another 14 yards on two carries before three consecutive totes by De'Sean McNair advanced the ball to the Broncos' 37. Elon would face a fourth-and-four when Thompson induced the defense to jump offside to move the chains. An eight-yard pass to Demetrius Oliver set the Phoenix up inside the five before Gentry's score.

Two John Gallagher field goals extended Elon's lead to 13-3 at halftime. The first career interceptions for Jack Williams and Malcolm Galloway set up the scores.

Elon's first second-half possession began with five runs, including dashes of 15 yards from Summers and 11 by Thompson. The lone pass was a 17-yard connection from Thompson to Jeremiah Bridges for the score.

Gallagher added field goals of 44 and 29 yards in the final 15 minutes to complete the scoring.

Noteworthy: The three points allowed by Elon were the fewest surrendered by the Phoenix since a 56-0 win over Davidson to open 2009... Gallagher matched his career high with four field goals... For the second straight week, Elon did not allow a first down in the first quarter.

ELON 27	#8 WILLIAM & MARY 10

An impressive defensive effort and the first career 100-yard rushing game for Malcolm Summers lifted the Elon Phoenix to a 27-10 victory over the eighth-ranked William & Mary Tribe. The win was the second for Elon over a top-10 program at the FCS level and the first since a 24-13 decision at sixth-rated Wofford in 2007.

How it happened: Elon took control of the contest early, forcing William & Mary to punt after just three plays. Demetrius Oliver knifed through the line and blocked the kick and the Phoenix turned that in to three when John Gallagher drilled a 35-yard field goal.

In the second quarter, Elon took over at the William & Mary 36 after a 15-yard punt return. Summers took a handoff and followed his blocks before darting around the end of the line on his way to a 21-yard touchdown. A bad snap resulted in Elon taking over at the six after Oliver and Cole Taylor brought down the punter and set up another score. Daniel Thompson lofted a pass to Taylor who caught his first career touchdown as the Phoenix took a 17-0 lead.

The Tribe put together a 12-play drive and got on the board thanks to a 43-yard Nick Dorka field goal late in the first half and then cut it to 17-10 as Steve Cluley completed a 77-yard touchdown pass to DeVonte Dedmon early in the second half.

Elon put together a 12-play, 80-yard drive to move its advantage back to two touchdowns. The final play was a two-yard touchdown run by the Summers. The maroon and gold's final score was a Gallagher 27-yard field goal.

Noteworthy: John Silas' 12 tackles moved him past Chris Worst (1978-81) into eighth place on the program's career chart (313)... The Phoenix intercepted three passes — one each from Adrian McClendon, Malcolm Galloway and Daniel Reid-Bennett... Elon's last win over a ranked foe was a 41-34 win at 17th-ranked Furman in 2011.

#14 VILLANOVA 42 ELON 7

In front of 10,424 fans at Rhodes Stadium on Family Weekend, the Elon University football team saw its two-game winning streak snapped at the hands of 14th-rated Villanova as the Wildcats downed the Phoenix 42-7.

How it happened: Villanova received the opening kickoff and quickly faced a second-and-15 from its own 25 when Zach Bednarczyk completed a 17-yard pass to Taurus Phillips to move the chains. The Wildcats would then convert a third-and-10 to move the stick again as the drive reached the Elon 44-yard line. A 29-yard completion set up a first down at the Elon 15 and two plays later, Aaron Forbes toted it in from eight yards out to give Villanova a 7-0 lead.

After forcing a three-and-out, Villanova marched 75 yards on 10 plays to grab a 14-0 lead when Bednarczyk hit Matt Gudzak for a 10-yard score. The Wildcats would add three touchdowns in the second quarter to build a 35-0 advantage at halftime.

Trailing 42-0, Elon put together an 11-play, 72-yard drive that lasted in to the fourth quarter. De'Sean McNair carried the ball nine times for 40 yards on the drive, including a one-yard plunge for his first career touchdown.

Noteworthy: Chris Blair recorded the 10th double-digit tackle game of his career... Marcus Willoughby added 10 total stops, his first career game with at least 10 tackles... Daniel Everett was credited with a pair of sacks, giving him three on the season... This was the first-ever meeting between Elon and Villanova.

NEW HAMPSHIRE 13 ELON 10

Having to play a day earlier than regularly scheduled, the Elon University football team's two-minute drive was stopped as the visiting New Hampshire Wildcats used two fourth-quarter field goals to defeat the Phoenix 13-10.

How it happened: Elon trailed 7-3 at the break, but was able to grab a 10-7 advantage when Daniel Everett recovered a Dalton Crossan fumble and returned it 21 yards for a TD late in the third quarter.

UNH was able to even things up with 10:07 to play as Morgan Ellman finished off a 14-play Wildcat drive with a 40-yard field goal.

The Phoenix returned the ensuing kickoff to the Elon 32. On third-and-three at the UNH 46, Daniel Thompson connected with Jeremiah Bridges for 14 yards to move the chains. Two plays later, Thompson tossed to John Luke Arrington for a gain of 16 to the UNH 16-yard line. The Phoenix would reach the 10 before John Gallagher saw his 27-yard try miss left as the game remained even at 10 with 5:33 showing on the game clock.

Crossan ripped off runs of seven, five, 13 and 30 yards on the first four plays of the UNH drive to take the ball to the Elon 25. The Wildcats picked up seven yards on the next three plays before Ellman snuck a 35-yard field goal inside the right upright with just 2:09 remaining.

Elon's final drive began at its own 27 and the Phoenix faced fourth-and-eight when Thompson and Bridges connected for a 21-yard gain. A 13-yard pass to Brandon Gentry on second down moved the chains to the UNH 37. On fourth-and-10 Thompson lofted a pass to the end zone for Cole Taylor, but Prince Smith made a leaping breakup to secure the game for UNH.

Noteworthy: Everett's return of a fumble for a touchdown was the first by an Elon player since Sept. 18, 2004... The Phoenix has played in 10 games decided by one score under Skrosky.

#6 RICHMOND 35

ELON 7

After 14 days without a game, the Elon University football team had its Homecoming festivities spoiled by the sixth-ranked Richmond Spiders as the Phoenix fell by a 35-7 score.

How it happened: Elon limited the Spider offense to just six first-half points as Griffin Trau hit field goals of 21 and 37 yards.

Richmond got the ball to start the second half and went 69 yards on six plays to grab a 13-0 advantage after Deontez Thompson ran the ball in from five yards out. The Spiders would score on all three of their third-quarter possessions to increase their lead to 28-0.

The Phoenix scored to make it 28-7 when De'Sean McNair found the end zone. The Elon drive covered 61 yards on eight plays. On the drive, McNair toted the ball six times for 51 yards.

Richmond answered right back after recovering Elon's on-side kick attempt and starting its drive at the Elon 27. A five-play drive ended with a James Pavik one-yard touchdown run.

Noteworthy: McNair's 18 carries and 77 yards were both career highs... Messer has now posted back-to-back games with double-digit tackles... John Silas broke a tie with Ernie Tootoo (1978-81) for seventh place on Elon's all-time tackles chart; Silas now has 331 career tackles.

ELON 3

ALBANY 27

Playing on the road for the first time since Sept. 24, the Elon University football team went back on the road and dropped a 27-3 contest against the Albany Great Danes.

How it happened: Elon fell behind 10-0 after Albany got a 23-yard field goal from Ethan Stark in the first quarter and a three-yard touchdown run by Elijah Ibitokun-Hanks midway through the second quarter.

The Phoenix put together a scoring drive late in the first half. Facing a third-and-18 from its own 11, Daniel Thompson was able to move the chains with a 26-yard pass to Corey Joyner. Elon would drive to the Albany 14 after a 14-yard pass to Josh Ramseur before moving to the five on a nine-yard completion to Brandon Gentry. The Phoenix was unable to move any closer and saw John Gallagher cap the drive with a 24-yard field goal with just over 30 seconds to play in the period.

Albany was able to push its lead to 17-3 late in the third quarter when, on third-and-inches, Thompson lost the handle on the ball on a quarterback sneak and Julian Cox recovered the fumble, returning it 12 yards for the touchdown.

The Great Danes added another field goal and returned an interception for a score in the fourth quarter.

Noteworthy: Warren Messer made a career-best 14 total tackles, his third consecutive outing with 10 or more stops... Corey Joyner set a new personal best with six receptions and matched a career high with 54 receiving yards... Elijah Ibitokun-Hanks toted the ball on 35 of Albany's 65 plays and set new bests in both attempts and yards.
