LEGEND OF THE PHOENIX

Throughout history there is told the legend of the rare and remarkable Phoenix, a crimson and gold bird that lived 500 years. It was sleek, swift and strong – the most marvelous bird ever created by human imagination. At the end of its life, with death approaching, it built a nest in an oak tree and was consumed in flames ignited by the sun. From the ashes emerged the next Phoenix – reborn and renewed, with strength forged in fire.

Fire, too, has shaped the history of Elon University. The disastrous fire of 1923 all but destroyed Elon. Gone were college records, classrooms, the library and the chapel. Within days of the fire, trustees set in motion the plan for Elon to rise from the ashes, stronger than ever.

The Phoenix is a powerful leader and an emblem of immortality. It is a perfect symbol for a school that is constantly renewing and recreating itself.

THERE IS ONLY ONE

As there can only be one Phoenix at any time, please refer to the Phoenix in the singular.

HEAD COACH RICH SKROSKY

Rich Skrosky became the 21st head football coach in school history on December 12, 2013 and guided the Elon program as it made the move to the Colonial Athletic Association for the 2014 season.

Skrosky, who has 28 years of collegiate coaching experience, is in his second stint at Elon, returning to where he served as the team's offensive line coach (2006-08) as well as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2009-10). For the three seasons in between his tenures at Elon, Skrosky served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ball State University.

During year two of Skrosky's head coaching tenure, the Phoenix picked up four victories, including the program's first CAA Football win – a 17-13 decision over Towson. At the conclusion of the year, three Phoenix players earned all-conference accolades. Two players picked up CAA Football Player of the Week honors, including linebacker Corey Mitchell who became the first Elon player to earn a national player of the week award since 2012. The maroon and gold ranked 13th nationally by committing just 55 penalties during the 2015 season. The Phoenix's 41.09 penalty yards per game rated 10th in the country.

In Elon's first season as a member of CAA Football, Skrosky saw four players collect all-league accolades. The Phoenix led the league and ranked second nationally by committing just 45 penalties on the year. The team averaged just 30.0 penalty yards per game. Elon also ranked in the top 15 nationally in blocked punts and blocked kicks. The Phoenix also led the nation in fewest fumbles lost as the maroon and gold lost just three fumbles in 2014.

While at Ball State, Skrosky helped quarterback Keith Wenning to complete a school-record 313 passes in 2012. Skrosky's offense also churned out the third-best single-season rushing performance in Ball State history as Jahwan Edwards ran for 1,410 yards in 2012. The 2012 team went 9-4, including a 34-27 win against 25th-ranked Toledo, and appeared in the Beef O'Brady's Bowl.

In 2013, the Cardinals' offense has averaged 486.3 yards per game as the program has posted a 10-2 overall record that includes a victory over Virginia. The 2013 Ball State team will played in the GoDaddy Bowl and averaged 38.5 points per game. The Cardinals either ranked near the top of the MAC in first downs, passing offense, yards per completion, passing efficiency, total offense, red zone offense and completion percentage. Following its final regular season game of the 2013 season, the Cardinals had matched a school record by scoring at least 40 points in six games and established a new program mark by scoring 50 or more points in three contests. Six Ball State players were named to watch lists for national awards – Wenning, wide receiver Jamill Smith, wide receiver Willie Snead, wide receiver Jordan Williams, running back Jahwan Edwards and tight end Zane Fakes. Wenning was a sixth-round draft pick of the Baltimore Ravens in the 2013 NFL draft.

Twice Skrosky was a nominee for the Broyles Award that is presented to the nation's top assistant coach. In that same span, Skrosky's Ball State offense developed 16 All-MAC selections. The Cardinals' offense compiled the top two seasons in both average yards per game (476.8 in 2013 and 457.2 in 2012) and points per game (38.5 in 2013 and 36.4 in 2012) in program history. The team's 63 touchdowns in 2013 were the most ever scored by a Ball State team, while the 52 TDs scored a the previous season were the third-most.

In Skrosky's first season as Elon's offensive coordinator, the Phoenix led the Southern Conference and ranked sixth in the country with 291.50 passing yards per game in 2009. Elon also ranked among the top-20 nationally in passing efficiency and total offense as the maroon and gold made its first-ever FCS Playoff appearance. That year, Elon finished ranked ninth in the nation in The Sports Network's FCS Poll and 10th nationally in the FCS Coaches Poll with a 9-3 record. In 2009, Elon had five offensive players earn All-SoCon accolades and two – wide receiver Terrell Hudgins and offensive lineman David Harrison – collected all-America honors.

The following year, Elon rated eighth in the nation in total offense, putting up 435.18 yards per game. The team averaged 31.9 points per game that year to rate 14th in the nation and the passing game put up the second-most yards through the air in the country at 322.36 yards per outing. In 2010, wide receiver Aaron Mellette, quarterback Scott Riddle and offensive lineman Rodney Austin all earned all-America honors.

In Skrosky's offensive system, Hudgins would amass 5,250 receiving yards on 395 receptions, both NCAA Division I records. The wide out would establish 19 records, 10 of which were NCAA marks, and was named to 14 different All-America teams. He was the first NCAA Division I player to ever post four 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Riddle would pass for 13,264 career yards, the most ever by an Elon or SoCon player, and set a total of 41 NCAA, SoCon or Elon records. In his two seasons as Elon's offensive coordinator, the Phoenix had 10 players earn all-league honors.

Skrosky first came to Elon after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Columbia University for five seasons (2001-05) where he had 11 All-Ivy League selections and two all-Americans. Previously, he served eight seasons as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Monmouth University where he helped the squad capture two conference titles and coached 14 all-league picks.

Skrosky has previous head coaching experience as well, having served as the head coach at Ramapo College during the 1992 campaign after serving as that program's offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and tight ends coach during the 1990 and 1991 seasons. While Skrosky was at Ramapo he coached 17 all-league honorees.

He also turned in stints as the tight ends coach at Rutgers University for two seasons (1988-89) and as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Lodi (N.J.) High School for three seasons (1985-87). Skrosky was the defensive backs coach at St. Peter's Prep High School in Jersey City, N.J. in 1984.

The Lodi, N.J., native was an All-Bergen County defensive back at Lodi High and a safety on Ramapo's football squad. He graduated from Ramapo with a bachelor's degree in political science.

Skrosky is married to Suzanne Quentz.

The Last Meeting

Elon Phoenix 21, Gardner-Webb Runnin' Bulldogs 13 (30T) | Sept. 12, 2015 • Spangler Stadium • Boiling Springs, N.C.

With Elon leading 7-0 and time running out, Gardner-Webb quarterback Tyrell Maxwell hit Mike Estes for a one-yard touchdown as the clock hit 0:00. After both teams traded field goals in the first two overtime periods, the Phoenix got the ball to start the third OT session. On the first play, Connor Christiansen went deep for Corey Joyner who secured the ball against tight defense along the side of the end zone to put the maroon and gold on top. Christiansen then hit Doug Warrick for the two-point conversion and a 21-13 Phoenix lead. On fourth-and-11 on the ensuing Gardner-Webb possession, Julius Moore picked off a pass to seal the victory. Christiansen completed 15 of his 30 passes for 116 yards and the first two scores of his career. Joyner finished with four catches for 47 yards and two scores. Both Corey Mitchell and John Silas set new personal bests for tackles with 18 and 17, respectively. Elon recorded five sacks, including 2.0 from Rob Sullivan. David Petroni had an outstanding day punting, hitting four punts 50 or more yards, including a career-long 63-yarder. Elon improved to 3-0 all-time in multiple overtime games. The scoreless first half was the first in a game for Elon since a 0-0 tie at the break against Chattanooga in 2005.

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

The Phoenix football squad elected two captains for the 2015 season. Serving as captain for the second year in a row is senior linebacker John Silas (Powder Springs, Ga.). He will be joined by first-year captain, junior offensive lineman Ikenna Nwokeji (Randolph, Mass.).

Each week the Phoenix will also name a game-week captain. The list of those captains is below:

- Gardner-Webb – LB Warren Messer (Garner, N.C.)

WE HAIL FROM

Elon's 2016 roster sports 97 players total, including 46 from the state of North Carolina. The Phoenix roster also has players from 15 other states and Washington, D.C. – Alabama (1), Connecticut (2), Delaware (1), Florida (4), Georgia (11), Indiana (2), Massachusetts (3), New Jersey (8), New York (3), Ohio (2), Pennsylvania (1), South Carolina (3), Virginia (7), Washington (1), Wisconsin (1) and the District of Columbia (1).

A NEW FACE

Elon head coach Rich Skrosky had to replace Jerry Petercuskie who announced his retirement following two seasons as the Phoenix's defensive coordinator and linebackers. Skrosky promoted former defensive line coach Patrick Madden to the defensive coordinator and linebackers position before bringing aboard Gerald Chatman as the new defensive line coach. Chatman spent last season as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M and has made stops at Butler, Ball State and Wisconsin Oshkosh.

NESTING AT HOME

The 2016 season marks Elon's 95th year of football. In that time, the maroon and gold has posted an all-time record of 492-434-18 (.531) – including a sizzling 176-84-3 (.674) mark in 52 seasons of home games at Burlington Memorial Stadium. In its current home of Rhodes Stadium, the Phoenix has gone 37-47 (.440).

PLAYING THE BEST

Elon's 2016 schedule features six opponents, all members of CAA Football, that are ranked in the preseason top 25. Earning a spot in the STATS poll are Richmond (4th), William & Mary (9th), James Madison (12th), New Hampshire (22nd), Villanova (23rd) and Towson (24th). The coaches poll ranks Richmond (4th), William & Mary (10th), James Madison (11th) and Villanova (22nd) among the top 25. During its tenure at the FCS level, Elon has twice faced off with six ranked foes in a season – 2001 and 2008.

OPENING AT HOME

The Phoenix will get to play its first game of the season at Rhodes Stadium for the first time since 2009 when it hosts Gardner-Webb on Sept. 3. Elon has opened at an FBS opponent in each of the past six seasons since that 2009 victory over Davidson.

DISCIPLINED FOOTBALL

In Rich Skrosky's two seasons as Elon's head coach, the Phoenix has ranked in the top 16 nationally in both fewest penalties per game and fewest penalty yards per game. In 2014, Elon rated second nationally in both categories (3.75 penalties/game and 30.00 penalty yards/game). Last year, the maroon and gold was 16th with 5.00 penalties/game and 10th with 41.09 penalty yards/game). In that time, Elon has had one game (at James Madison in 2014) in which it was flagged for no penalties and one (at Maine in 2015) in which it was called for just one.

NEW LOOK D-LINE

The Phoenix must replace all four starters along its defensive line after the departure of seniors Rob Sullivan, Chris Jones, Marquise Wright and Alexander Dawson. Elon will turn to a quartet of juniors Dondre Howell (Mooresville, N.C.) and Nick Groll (Armonk, N.Y.), sophomore Daniel Everett (Williamston, N.C.) and red-shirt freshman Antwain Terry (Wake Forest, N.C.) in game one of 2016. Of those, Groll and Everett combined for eight starts.

JUST A POINT

In its history, Elon has played 34 games which have been decided by just one point. Elon is 21-13 in those games. The last such contest was a 33-32 loss at #23 Samford to end the 2013 season.

EXTRA, EXTRA!

Elon has played a total of 10 overtime games in its storied history, posting a mark of 5-5 in those contests.
