TO THE MEDIA

It is our hope you will find this publication useful while covering Elon University men's basketball during the 2017-18 season. Every effort has been made to include timely and pertinent information for your use.

Thank you for your coverage of Elon University men's basketball. We look forward to serving you this season.

CREDENTIAL PROCESS

All media members and photographers wishing to cover a home Elon men's basketball game must complete and submit the credential request form found on ElonPhoenix.com.

All requests are screened to ensure a working press row with priority given to daily newspapers, radio/TV sports directors and other media who cover Elon and its opponents on a regular basis.

Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under the age of 18 will not be granted credentials. If you wish to bring a guest, please inquire regarding the availability of tickets.

MEDIA WILL CALL & PARKING

Credentials that are not mailed can be picked up at the Will Call table located in front of Alumni Gym in the Koury Athletic Center. Parking is located across from the Koury Center in the Oaks Parking Lot and is available on a first come, first serve basis.

MEDIA SEATING

During the game, media will be seated at the press row tables opposite the scorer's table. Seating will be assigned and media members will be asked to sit where their name plate is located on press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

In order to be permitted on the baselines, photographers must have a credential. Properly credentialed photographers will be allowed to shoot in compliance with NCAA rules. Photographers should shoot from the designated locations. Tripods are not permitted on the court at any time. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

MEDIA SERVICES

Game notes, flip cards and statistics are provided at every Elon home game. Postgame interviews are available upon request through each team's SID. Request efforts should be made by the start of the fourth quarter. If the visiting team does not have a SID on site, requests can be made through the home SID.

All postgame interviews will be conducted in the Atkins Room. In most cases, the visiting head coach and players will appear first, followed by Elon head coach Matt Matheny and players. Locker rooms are not open to media unless otherwise notified by the team's SID.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE

The "pubic" Wi-Fi network is free and will be at your seat on press row. If you have any questions or issues connecting, please ask an Athletic Communications staff member for support.

RADIO BROADCAST LINES

A phone line and Ethernet hookup will be made available in Alumni Gym for an official radio broadcast for opponents. Cable, POTS and ISDN options are available upon request with prior notice. Lines are available for the official radio broadcast of the visiting team. All other requests must be submitted to Josh Gresh.

PLAYER & COACH INTERVIEWS

All player and coach interviews must be coordinated through the Athletic Communications Office. Requests are asked to be made at least 24 hours in advance. Depending upon schedules and other time considerations, interviews will be scheduled before or after practice sessions. Player phone numbers will not be released to media members.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Elon men's basketball practices are open to the media upon request only, and the coaching staff will meet with any media members following the practice session. Please contact Josh Gresh in the Athletic Communications Office at (336) 278-6865 with 24 hours notice if you plan to cover practice so proper arrangements can be made.

PHOENIX ALL-ACCESS

All home men's basketball games can be viewed for free on Phoenix All-Access. Any games not selected for TV will be broadcast exclusively on Phoenix All-Access. On the road against CAA opponents, games will normally be available through CAA.tv.

RADIO BROADCASTS

WSML 104.5 FM and 1200 AM in Elon/Burlington will provide play-by-play coverage of all regular-season games during the 2017-18 season. Again this season, all Elon games can be heard over the internet at ElonPhoenix.com. Elon is happy to have alumnus Taylor Durham '96 serving as the broadcast talent for the 2017-18 season.

ALUMNI GYM

Alumni Gym was dedicated on January 14, 1950 and has been home to Elon men's basketball for 77 years. With construction on the Schar Center nearing completion, the 2017-18 season marks the final season of competition for the Phoenix in Alumni Gym with the transition to the Schar Center set for the 2018-19 season.

The gymnasium honors Elon alumni who lost their lives in World Wars I and II. Five years after World War II, the Alumni Memorial Gymnasium replaced the Alumni Memorial Building, commonly called the North Dorm. When the new gymnasium was completed in January of 1950, a memorial plaque in the entrance foyer carried the names of four Elon alumni who died in World War I and 33 who gave their lives in World War II.

In 2010, Alumni Gym underwent renovations which included the addition of stadium-style seating in a horseshoe shape around the court. The updates also included new scoreboards and video boards along with new locker rooms and a new entrance at the south end of the facility. Alumni Gym currently has a capacity of 1,607 for the 2017-18 season.

Alumni Gym has played host to many notable games throughout the history of Elon basketball. On February 27, 2010, 1,934 fans packed the facility to watch the Phoenix men battle Davidson in a double-overtime thriller. On February 28, 2004, the Elon men defeated rival UNCG 112-108 in a triple-overtime contest.

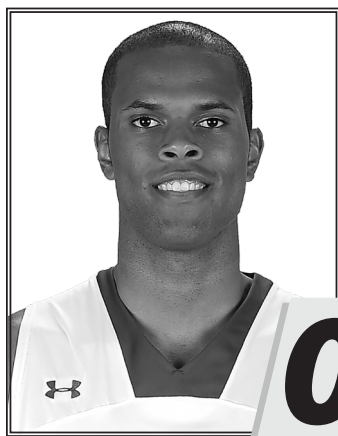

SCHAR CENTER

The Schar Center, named for Elon University parents Dwight and Martha Schar P'16, P'19, after their pledge of $12 million to name two new buildings on the Elon campus, is set to host the Phoenix women's basketball program starting with the 2018-19 season. The 160,000-square-foot convocation center will offer the Elon community a premier gathering space that will serve as a venue for convocations, speakers and major campus events while also serving as the new home for Elon's basketball and volleyball with triple the space of Alumni Memorial Gymnasium, a practice facility with two full courts, club-level seating and high-definition video boards.

A website - <http://www.elon.edu/scharcenter> - launched in May brings together renderings of the facility, a live construction cam tracking progress on the center, the latest news as well as photos from past project milestones. Visitors to the Schar Center website can also take a look inside and outside the center with fly-through videos offering detailed renderings of the complex. An interactive construction cam allows viewers to scroll back through construction photos and provides a time-lapse feature so viewers can watch the center take shape as crews make progress on the project.

Elon broke ground on the Schar Center in October 2016. Rentenbach Constructors Inc. is the general contractor for the project and Witsell, Evans & Rasco serves as lead architect in association with the sports division of Gensler architect.

HIGH SCHOOL

Moved to the United States for his senior year of high school, playing at Kimball Union Academy in New Hampshire under head coach Mike Olson • Was an All-New England selection as a senior earning NEPSAC Honorable Mention • Finished the year averaging 13.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per contest, and made 61 percent of his shots • Played basketball for club Split in Croatia prior to arriving at Kimball Union Academy.

PERSONAL

Full name is Duje Roko Radja • The son of Dino and Zeljana Radja • Born on June 27, 1997 • His father Dino Radja played for the Boston Celtics and was an NBA All-Rookie Second Team selection in 1994 • Dino Radja played for seven other European teams during his career • Looking to major in Engineering at Elon University.

QUOTING COACH MATHENY...

"Duje is new to the United States and has only been here for the one year, which he was able to spend at Kimball Union Academy. He made great strides during his year there and I think fits perfectly into the way we like our big guys in our system. He's a very good passer, he's got good hands, and he's also talented enough to score with either hand in the paint, and he can stretch defenses. His ceiling is very high."

NATHAN PRIDDY

Three-year starter at Hopkins High School under head coach Ken Novak from 2014-2017 and was a two-time All-Lake Conference selection • Guided Hopkins to an AAAA State Championship in 2016 and helped his team win the Lake Conference Championship in all three seasons • Put together the best season of his career as a senior in 2016-17, averaging 16 points and 11 rebounds per game • Helped Hopkins win the 2016 AAAA State Championship, averaging 11.5 points and six rebounds during his junior season in 2015-16 • Finished his career at Hopkins averaging 11.7 points and seven rebounds in three seasons • Played AAU with the Minnesota Comets under head coach Chris Lewis.

PERSONAL

Full name is Simon Andrew Wright • The son of Brian and Becky Wright • Born Feb. 24, 1999 • His brother Jake Wright currently plays basketball at Miami University (OH) after transferring from The Citadel • Looking to major in Finance at Elon University.

QUOTING COACH MATHENY...

"Simon was the first to commit and did it after a great visit last summer. The fact that he committed when he did says a lot to us about how attracted he is to Elon and how excited he is about being a part of the Elon community. He's had tremendous success with a state championship as a junior. He also had a great run in the Minnesota state playoffs as a senior. He comes to us from a very successful high school program and also had a lot of success in the summer circuit, so he's a winner. Simon has a great level of toughness and I'm excited about his versatility, being able to defend and play multiple positions."

MATT MATHENY

Head Coach | 9th Season
Davidson, 1992

Elon University head coach Matt Matheny enters his ninth season at the helm of the Phoenix program in 2017-18, as the maroon and gold begins its fourth year as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association. Matheny was named Elon's 17th head men's basketball coach in March of 2009 after serving on the men's basketball staff at Davidson College for 16 seasons.

Matheny has wasted no time changing the culture of Elon basketball during his tenure on campus. Over the last six years, Matheny has led the Phoenix to an impressive .670 winning percentage at home, going 59-29 inside Alumni Gym during that span. Matheny has helped the Phoenix continue to climb up one of the top mid-major conferences in the country the past three seasons, guiding the Phoenix to a fourth-place finish in the CAA during the 2016-17 season.

Named the 2013 Southern Conference Coach of the Year by the league's media members, his 126 wins as Elon's head coach entering the 2017-18 season are the third most in program history. Matheny is also the only CAA coach to have led his team to 15 or more wins in each of the last six seasons.

Under Matheny's guidance in 2016-17, the Phoenix finished fourth in the CAA, which was ranked the 11th-best conference in the nation. Elon got off to hot start and began the season with a 6-1 mark, the best start in 29 years for the program. The Phoenix cracked the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 Poll on Nov. 23, 2016, holding a spot at No. 23 for two straight weeks. Elon finished first in the conference only allowing CAA teams to shoot only 41.7% shooting from the floor. Opponents also shot 31.9% from three-point range, which ranked second in the league. Sophomore standout Tyler Seibring became the second player under Matheny to earn Academic All-America honors. Seibring was also named to the All-CAA Second Team and was selected as the CAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For the third straight season, the Phoenix shined in the classroom and had a league-high four student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. Elon also won the NIU Thanksgiving Classic, defeating Northern Illinois, UIC and Cal Poly to win the championship.

In his second season in the CAA, which was ranked the ninth-best league in the nation during the 2015-16 campaign, Matheny guided an Elon squad of 18 players with 10 underclassmen to 16 wins and an increase in total league victories. For the second time during Elon's Division I era, the team finished with a winning road record of 8-7 overall. Under Matheny's guidance, freshman forward Seibring earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie team, the 11th player in the program's Division I era and fifth under the head coach to earn the honor. The Phoenix shined in the classroom and had a league-high three student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. The senior class of Tanner Samson, Tony Sabato, Sam Hersherberger and Wes Brewer ended their career with 70 wins - the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era.

During its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, Matheny helped the Phoenix to a 15-win campaign following a season in which the team graduated four seniors with 1,000+ career points. Elon placed a league-high three student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. The senior class of Austin Hamilton, Kevin Blake and Ryan Winters ended their career with 69 wins, which at the time was the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era.

In 2013-14, Matheny helped the Phoenix to an 18-14 record, including an 11-5 mark against league competition. The team's eight-game winning streak tied the 2012-13 and 2005-06 teams for the longest winning streak during Elon's Division I era. Elon finished the year with four 1,000-point scorers on its roster in Lucas Troutman, Jack Isenbarger, Sebastian Koch and Ryley Beaumont, becoming only the third school in the nation to accomplish such a feat. Elon ended the year ranked first in the conference in free throw percentage (87th nationally) at 72.3 percent and second in the league (34th nationally) in threes per game at 8.0. Troutman earned first-team All-SoCon and All-District honors, while Koch also picked up all-league honors as well.

Matheny guided the Phoenix to its best season ever at the Division I ranks in 2012-13. Elon ended the year with a 21-12 record, the most victories in a single season by the program at the Division I level and most since the 1973-74 season. Matheny helped Elon win the Southern Conference North Division title in 2013, the program's first division crown since 2006. Matheny also helped Elon to its first postseason appearance at the Division I level, as the team earned an invitation to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) in 2013. He was a finalist for the Hugh Durham Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top mid-major coach by CollegeInsider.com. He also guided the Phoenix to a No. 25 ranking in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Poll during the week of Feb. 4, 2013.

Matheny helped the maroon and gold to 15 victories in 2011-12, the most wins for Elon since the team won 15 in 2005-06 en route to the SoCon North Division title. Matheny led the program to its first-ever win over a member of the SEC, as Elon defeated the South Carolina Gamecocks, 58-53, on November 15, 2011 inside Alumni Gym. Isenbarger was all-conference selection by both the coaches and media and an All-District selection, while Hamilton was named to the league's All-Freshman team.

Matheny's first season was spent establishing a new system and progress was evident as the team won the majority of its games in February and March. The new head coach started his career with a 91-86 win at Lipscomb, handing the Bisons their first ever season-opening loss in their home arena. The Phoenix swept defending SoCon Tournament champion Chattanooga and won an ESPN Bracketbuster game for the first time since it began competing in the event four years ago. The season culminated in a highlight victory over perennial SoCon power Davidson in the first round of the league tournament. It was Elon's first win over the Wildcats since the Phoenix joined the league in 2003-04.

In 2010-11, Matheny guided the Phoenix to 14 victories against one of the most challenging schedules that Elon has ever faced. The maroon and gold squared off with four ACC opponents - No. 1 Duke, Maryland, NC State and Wake Forest - and one SEC opponent in South Carolina. With the growth of the program, Elon has seen increased attendance at home games as four of the 13 games played in Alumni Gym were sold out. Following the year, the Southern Conference coaches selected senior guard Chris Long as a member of the all-league team, the first Phoenix player to earn All-Conference accolades since 2008. The coaches also named freshman Lucas Troutman to the league's all-freshman squad, the first for the program since 2006.

Prior to joining the Elon basketball program, Matheny spent 10 seasons (1993-2003) as an assistant coach for head coach Bob McKillop's Wildcats before being promoted to the associate head coach in 2003. After spending another six campaigns (2003-09) in that role, Matheny was involved in more victories than any other assistant coach in Davidson's history. He was part of 310 victories, 10 Southern Conference Division titles, five SoCon tournament championships, five NCAA tournament appearances and four postseason NIT trips. Matheny was instrumental in recruiting the best player in Davidson men's basketball history, NBA Champion and two-time league MVP Stephen Curry of the Golden State Warriors. He recruited and coached Curry during his time on staff, which led to Davidson's memorable run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight in 2007-08. Curry was a two-time All-American and a two-time SoCon Player of the Year under Matheny.

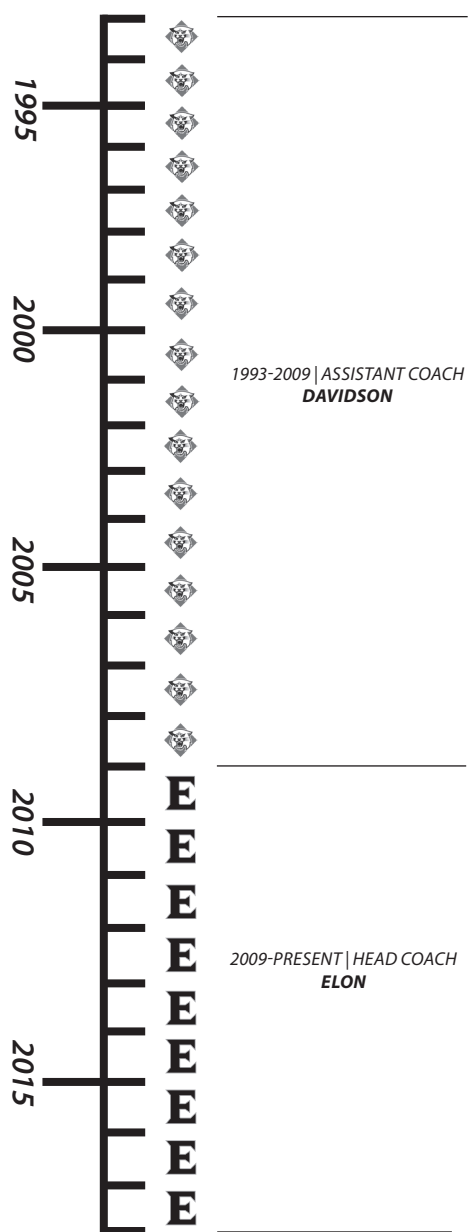

Matheny, who was born in Shelby, N.C., and grew up in Statesville, N.C., was a three-sport standout at North Iredell High School and was recruited to play football at Davidson. He lettered four years for Davidson's football team as a quarterback and wide receiver and two years as a point guard for the Wildcats' men's basketball squad before graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in History in 1992.

Following graduation, Matheny headed overseas to Germany to play a summer of American football. It was then that McKillop contacted him about an assistant coaching job, a position he didn't necessarily expect would become his life's work. Having always planned to go to law school after college, Matheny assumed the job would be a stopover before he furthered his education.

Throughout Matheny's time on the bench, Davidson produced 10 campaigns of 20 or more victories, three undefeated Southern Conference regular seasons, 26 All-SoCon players and six SoCon All-Freshman selections. McKillop has touted Matheny on numerous occasions for his excellent scouting and ability to communicate the information to the players. Matheny was a critical part of Davidson's memorable run to the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight during the 2007-08 season.

Matheny and the former Jennifer Collins were married in June 2001. They are parents of Brock, a son born in April 2004, and Ava, a daughter born in March 2009.

JACK WOOTEN

Assistant Coach | 9th Season
North Carolina, 2009

The 2017-18 season marks Jack Wooten's ninth season overall at Elon and his eighth year as an assistant coach, as the Phoenix enters its fourth year in the Colonial Athletic Association. A native of Burlington, N.C., Wooten served as the Director of Basketball Operations at Elon during the 2009-10 season after graduating from the University of North Carolina in 2009.

Wooten was one of 30 assistant coaches nationally named to the 2016 NABC Under Armour 30-under-30 Team, as announced by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, recognizing the top young and up-and-coming coaches in the nation.

During the 2016-17 campaign, the Phoenix finished fourth in the CAA, which was ranked the 11th-best conference in the nation. Elon got off to hot start and began the season with a 6-1 mark, the best start in 29 years for the program. The Phoenix cracked the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top-25 Poll on Nov. 23, 2016, holding a spot at No. 23 for two straight weeks. Elon finished first in the conference only allowing CAA teams to shoot only 41.7% shooting from the floor. For the season, opponents shot 31.9% from three-point range, which ranked second in the league. Sophomore standout Tyler Seibring became the second player under head coach Matt Matheny to earn Academic All-America honors. Seibring was also named to the All-CAA Second Team and was selected as the CAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For the third straight season, the Phoenix shined in the classroom and had a league-high four student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. Elon also picked up big wins during the season, earned a road win against South Florida and won the NIU Thanksgiving Classic, defeating Northern Illinois, UIC and Cal Poly to win the championship.

In its second season in the CAA, which was ranked the ninth-best league in the nation during the 2015-16 campaign, Wooten helped an Elon squad of 18 players with 10 underclassmen to 16 wins and an increase in total league victories. For the second time during Elon's Division I era, the team finished with a winning road record of 8-7 overall. Only the 2013-14 team finished with a winning record on the road with a 7-6 mark. Under the coaching staff's guidance, freshman forward Tyler Seibring earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie team, the 11th player in the program's Division I era and fifth under the head coach to earn the honor. For the second consecutive season, the Phoenix shined in the classroom and had a league-high three student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. The senior class of Tanner Samson, Tony Sabato, Sam Hershberger and Wes Brewer ended their career with 70 wins - the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era.

In its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, Wooten helped Elon to a 15-win campaign following a season in which the team graduated four seniors with 1,000+ career points. Wooten helped the Phoenix to the quarterfinals of the CAA Men's Basketball Championship after the maroon and gold topped Towson in the first round in overtime. Elon also shined in the classroom, putting a league-high three student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. The senior class of Austin Hamilton, Kevin Blake and Ryan Winters ended their career with 69 wins - the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era. Elon ended the year winning four of its last five games.

In 2013-14, Wooten helped the Phoenix to an 18-14 record, including an 11-5 mark against league competition. The team's eight-game winning streak tied the 2012-13 and 2005-06 teams for the longest winning streak during Elon's Division I era. In 2012-13, Wooten helped the maroon and gold to 21 victories and the Southern Conference North Division title. Elon also made its first-ever postseason appearance at the Division I level in 2013 when it earned an invitation to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT).

"Jack has already established an impeccable reputation in the Burlington community," said Elon head coach Matt Matheny. "He is bright and articulate and now is a national champion. I am thrilled that he will be an ambassador for Elon basketball and that our student-athletes will be able to learn from him."

Wooten was a two-year letter winner on the Tar Heel basketball team, earning a national championship ring in 2009. He was honored with the Athletic Director's Scholar-Athlete Award in 2009 as well as the Burgess McSwain Scholar-Athlete Award, an honor bestowed on the top scholar-athlete on the men's basketball team. Wooten also competed for two seasons on the UNC junior varsity basketball team, captaining the team to a combined 24-8 record as the starting point guard.

Elected Phi Beta Kappa as a senior, Wooten was a strong leader during his years at North Carolina. In the summer of 2008, he volunteered with Upward Sports Camp, joining 16 other Americans to run a weeklong camp in rural Kenya. Wooten designed and led the soccer portion of the camp for the 600 participants. In 2009, he was recognized with the Laurel Wreath Award as an Ambassador of Good Will in Athletics for North Carolina. On the dean's list throughout his career, Wooten graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.

"I am encouraged by and excited about the direction of our basketball program," Wooten said. "We are in the heart of basketball country, Tobacco Road, and have a community behind us that loves the game. More importantly, our guys care about each other and are willing to make the commitment to be great both on and off the court. From our athletic department to our community, players and staff, there is a genuine close-knit, family feel to Elon basketball."

Wooten lettered in basketball, soccer and track at Walter M. Williams High School. He earned all-conference accolades in both basketball and soccer and was a two-time city-county champion in the 400 meters. He married the former Berkley Webster in June of 2014.

Elon ended the year winning four of its last five games.

In 2013-14, Sanders helped the Phoenix to an 18-14 record, including an 11-5 mark against league competition. The team's eight-game winning streak tied the 2012-13 and 2005-06 teams for the longest winning streak during Elon's Division I era. Elon finished the year with four 1,000-point scorers on its roster in Lucas Troutman, Jack Isenbarger, Sebastian Koch and Ryley Beaumont, becoming only the third school in the nation to accomplish such a feat. Elon ended the year ranked first in the conference in free throw percentage (87th nationally) at 72.3 percent and second in the league (34th nationally) in threes per game at 8.0.

In 2012-13, Sanders helped the maroon and gold to 21 victories and the Southern Conference North Division title. Elon also made its first-ever postseason appearance at the Division I level in 2013 when it earned an invitation to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT).

Prior to returning to Elon, Sanders served as an assistant boys' varsity basketball coach at Cardinal Gibbons High School in Raleigh and the head coach of the Garner Road Basketball Club AAU 15U boys' team.

"We are very excited to have Monty Sanders as a part of our staff," said Elon head coach Matt Matheny. "Monty loves Elon and his knowledge of not only the school and the basketball program, but the Elon community, makes him a valuable addition to our team."

Sanders was a two-year letter winner on the Phoenix basketball team, serving as a team captain his senior year. He averaged 5.4 points and 2.9 rebounds per game in two seasons at Elon after transferring from the University of Richmond following the 2005-2006 campaign. Sanders scored a career-high 21 points while adding nine rebounds in a 2009 Southern Conference Tournament victory over Wofford.

"My time as a student-athlete at Elon was one of the best times of my life," commented Sanders. "I'm extremely excited to be back in this community and working with the program that I poured my blood, sweat and tears into."

Sanders served as a leader away from the basketball court at Elon as well, serving on the Student Athlete Advisory Council from 2007-2009. He was the brainchild behind the annual "Phoenix Field Day" for inner city youth of Burlington, a program that has continued to be successfully run by Elon student-athletes. Sanders graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a Concentration in Marketing.

"I couldn't have asked for a better opportunity in a better place, and I'm extremely lucky to have the opportunity to learn under such a great staff," said Sanders. "Coach Matheny has the ball rolling on something special here at Elon and I can't wait to contribute."

Sanders and the former Page Hall were married in May 2016.

CHRIS LONG

Assistant Coach | 5th Season
Elon, 2011

The 2017-18 season marks Chris Long's fourth at Elon, as the Phoenix enters its fourth year in the Colonial Athletic Association. Matt Matheny promoted Long to assistant coach after the former Elon standout guard spent the 2013-14 season as the team's director of operations.

"It is great to have Chris Long back with the Elon family after a successful professional career," Matheny said. "His toughness, knowledge of our system and professional playing experience will be extremely beneficial as he mentors our current players."

During the 2016-17 campaign, the Phoenix finished fourth in the CAA, which was ranked the 11th-best conference in the nation. Elon got off to hot start and began the season with a 6-1 mark, the best start in 29 years for the program. The Phoenix cracked the Collegiansider.com Mid-Major Top-25 Poll on Nov. 23, 2016, holding a spot at No. 23 for two straight weeks. Elon finished first in the conference only allowing CAA teams to shoot only 41.7% shooting from the floor. For the season, opponents shot 31.9% from three-point range, which ranked second in the league. Sophomore standout Tyler Seibring became the second player under head coach Matt Matheny to earn Academic All-America honors. Seibring was also named to the All-CAA Second Team and was selected as the CAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For the third straight season, the Phoenix shined in the classroom and had a league-high four student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. Elon also picked up big wins during the season, earned a road win against South Florida and won the NIU Thanksgiving Classic, defeating Northern Illinois, UIC and Cal Poly to win the championship.

In its second season in the CAA, which was ranked the ninth-best league in the nation during the 2015-16 campaign, Long helped an Elon squad of 18 players with 10 underclassmen to 16 wins and an increase in total league victories. For the second time during Elon's Division I era, the team finished with a winning road record of 8-7 overall. Only the 2013-14 team finished with a winning record on the road with a 7-6 mark. Under the coaching staff's guidance, freshman forward Tyler Seibring earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie team, the 11th player in the program's Division I era and fifth under the head coach to earn the honor. For the second consecutive season, the Phoenix shined in the classroom and had a league-high three student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. The senior class of Tanner Samson, Tony Sabato, Sam Hersherberger and Wes Brewer ended their career with 70 wins - the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era.

In its inaugural season in the CAA in 2014-15, Long helped Elon to a 15-win campaign following a season in which the team graduated four seniors with 1,000+ career points. Long helped the Phoenix to the quarterfinals of the CAA Men's Basketball Championship after the maroon and gold topped Towson in the first round in overtime. Elon also shined in the classroom, putting a league-high three student-athletes on the CAA All-Academic Team. The senior class of Austin Hamilton, Kevin Blake and Ryan Winters ended their career with 69 wins - the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era. Elon ended the year winning four of its last five games.

In 2013-14, Long helped the Phoenix to an 18-14 record, including an 11-5 mark against league competition. The team's eight-game winning streak tied the 2012-13 and 2005-06 teams for the longest winning streak during Elon's Division I era. Elon finished the year with four 1,000-point scorers on its roster in Lucas Troutman, Jack Isenbarger, Sebastian Koch and Ryley Beaumont, becoming only the third school in the nation to accomplish such a feat. Elon ended the year ranked first in the conference in free throw percentage (87th nationally) at 72.3 percent and second in the league (34th nationally) in threes per game at 8.0.

A four-year letterwinner at Elon from 2007-11, Long spent two years playing professional basketball in Poland and Romania after graduating from Elon. After signing with the Miercurea Ciuc basketball club in Romania in 2011, Long agreed to terms with Siarka Jerzioro in Poland in 2012.

"I am very excited for the opportunity to return to Elon University and be a part of the program and the special community that I spent four great years with," Long said. "I care deeply about the university and the great tradition of Elon basketball and look forward to helping in the continued growth of the program."

Long ended his career at Elon near the top of the charts in several categories. An All-Southern Conference performer and first-team all-state selection as a senior, Long finished his tenure at Elon with 528 assists, good for second in school history. His senior season, Long averaged 14.7 points and 6.0 assists per game. His assist numbers ranked in the top 20 in the nation and his 188 helpers in 2010-11 were the second most in a single season in Elon history. Long is one of 39 players in program history with over 1,000 career points, as his four-year total of 1,234 points ranks 22nd all-time in Elon history. In his final game inside Alumni Gym, Long scored a career-high 30 points and dished out 10 assists in a win over UNCG. He completed his career in the school's top five in three-pointers (172), assists (528) and steals (155).

Long earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from Elon in 2011.

J.B. TANNER

Director of Operations | 4th Season
North Carolina, 2009

The 2017-18 season marks J.B. Tanner's fourth year on Matt Matheny's staff at Elon. Prior to joining the Phoenix staff, Tanner spent three seasons as the director or basketball operations on the men's basketball staff at UNCG.

During the 2016-17 campaign, the Phoenix finished fourth in the CAA, which was ranked the 11th-best conference in the nation. Elon got off to hot start with a 6-1 mark, the best start in 29 years for the program. ademic Team. The senior class of Austin Hamilton, Kevin Blake and Ryan Winters ended their career with 69 wins - the most by a senior class during the school's Division I era. Elon ended the year winning four of its last five games.

Prior to his time at UNCG, Tanner spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at VCU. In 2011, Tanner helped the Rams to a remarkable run through the NCAA Tournament, which culminated with an appearance at the Final Four in Houston. Overall, the Rams won 55 games during Tanner's two seasons at VCU.

Before his time at VCU, Tanner was a student-athlete on the men's basketball team at North Carolina. Tanner played two seasons (2007-09) at UNC and helped the Tar Heels to the 2009 national title in Detroit. Tanner appeared in 39 games in two seasons, winning a pair of Atlantic Coast Conference championships under head coach Roy Williams. Tanner spent his first two years at UNC as a member of the junior varsity squad.

Tanner earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from North Carolina in 2009 before earning a master's degree in sport leadership from VCU in 2011. Tanner married the former Kristi Stricker on June 6, 2009.

Editor's note: Over the years, as schools' identities have changed, the names have also changed. In some cases, the former name is noted in parenthesis. Three North Carolina schools were also formerly recognized as Teachers College. Those schools are now Appalachian State, East Carolina and Western Carolina and are referred to as such throughout the year-by-year results.
