JMU ON THE COURT

- James Madison Volleyball has started 9-3 for the first time since 2018. The Dukes finished 22-7 (.759) that year and 13-3 in league play.
- JMU's first four games of conference play have gone 5, 5, 4, and 5 sets, respectively. This is the first time the Dukes have not played in a sweep in their first four CAA matches since 2013.
- Junior Sophia Davis has already earned CAA Defensive Player of the Week accolades twice in 2021. She leads the league in blocks per set with 1.36, totaling 64.0 for the season.
- Freshman Jaydyn Clemmer won CAA Rookie of the Week on Sept. 27 after racking up 29 digs in two matches against College of Charleston (3.22 digs/set). She has 102 digs on the season, second-most on the team.
- Junior Caroline Dozier leads the Dukes with 390 assists on the season, getting at least 40 assists in five matches. Dozier's 9.29 assists per set rank third in the CAA. She also set career-highs in kills (4) and points (7) in the win against CofC.
- JMU held College of Charleston to a .113 hitting percentage in their Sept. 26 win against the Cougars. This was the second lowest hitting percentage for a Dukes opponent in 2021. The lowest was Alabama State, who was held to .043 in the Dukes' Sept. 3 sweep.
- The Dukes have been held below a .200 hitting percentage in five of their last six matches.
- JMU has at least 12.0 total blocks in its last four matches, including a season-high 16.0 against Charleston.
- James Madison has 39 solo blocks on the season, compared to just 11 for its opponents.

SCOUTING ELON

- Elon has started 5-1 in league play for the first time as a member of the CAA.
- Senior Haylie Clark earned CAA Offensive POW honors on Oct. 4 after averaging 10.13 assists/set and totaling eight kills on a .438 hitting percentage in a weekend split against defending conference champions Towson.
- The Phoenix and their opponents have each totaled 701 kills on the season, but Elon has a .241 hitting percentage while holding opponents to .198 on the season.
- Elon is second in the league with 11.41 assists/set in 2021.
- Junior Jenn Krzeminski ranks second in the league with 1.25 blocks/set, totaling 69.0 blocks on the season.

SERIES HISTORY

- JMU leads the overall series 14-1.
- The Phoenix got their first-ever win over the Dukes in their most recent matchup - a four-set win on March 24, 2021.
- The two sides first met on Sept. 14, 2007, with JMU taking the match in three sets. All other matchups (2014-present) have occurred with both schools being members of the CAA.

HEAD COACH LAUREN STEINBRECHER

at JMU/Overall: 209-110

Hometown:

Huntsville, Ala.

Education:

Georgia Tech, 2005

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Kentucky Assistant Coach (2007-09)

- Lexington, Ky.

James Madison Head Coach (2010-pres)

- Harrisonburg, Va.

Lauren Steinbrecher, formerly Lauren Sauer, was named volleyball head coach at James Madison on Jan. 25, 2010. She has compiled a 206-109 record going into her 11th season as head coach of the Dukes and is the winningest coach in program history. Under her leadership, the Dukes have won one of their four Colonial Athletic Association championships.

In 2019 Steinbrecher led the Dukes to a record of 20-8 overall and 13-3 in Colonial Athletic Association play. She guided the team to the final round of the CAA Championship. Five Dukes earned All-CAA and four earned VaSID All-State honors. Freshman Sophie Davis was named VaSID Rookie of the Year and received AVCA All-Region honors.

Following a 22-7 season in 2018, Steinbrecher was named the Virginia Sports Information Directors Coach of the Year as she guided her team to a 13-3 conference record and a trip to the final round of the CAA Championship. Four Dukes earned All-CAA and VaSID All-State honors while M'Kaela White was an American Volleyball Coaches Association All-American Honorable Mention.

During Steinbrecher's eighth season she led the Dukes to a historic season. The Dukes earned a 23-6 record, tallying the most wins since 1999, and an 11-5 conference record securing a three seed for the CAA tournament. The Dukes took home CAA tournament title for the second straight year – the second time this feat has been accomplished.

Steinbrecher was able to lead the Dukes to a dominate CAA tournament performance. The No. 3 Dukes took down No. 6 Elon in five sets, No. 2 Towson in straight sets and went on to beat the top-seeded College of Charleston in straight sets. With the CAA conference championship, James Madison earned the CAA's bid into the NCAA tournament. The Dukes closed out the season with a first-round exit from the NCAA tournament with a loss to Colorado.

Steinbrecher coached four athletes to VaSID All-State Honors in 2017. Bryn Recker and White were named to the First Team, while Taylor Austin and Sarah Martin received Second Team nods.

In her seventh season leading the Dukes, Steinbrecher rallied JMU to an incredible turnaround season. After starting CAA play with a 3-5 mark, James Madison went undefeated in the final eight matches to win the regular-season title outright and finishing atop league standings for the second season straight season, marking the first time since 1998-99 that JMU has won back-to-back regular season titles.

Under her leadership, the top-seeded Dukes swept No. 5 Towson in Wilmington to advance to the CAA Championship match for the first time since 2002. JMU knocked off sixth-seeded Delaware in straight sets to win the conference championship for the first time since 2000, earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

The Dukes closed the 2016 season falling to Coastal Carolina in five sets during the first round of the NCAA Tournament as the Dukes won their first NCAA Tournament set in program history. JMU finished the season with a 21-11 overall record for its third consecutive season winning at least 17 matches.

Rounding out the 2016 highlights, Steinbrecher coached Janey Goodman and Austin to major awards as the duo was named CAA and ECAC Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively. Goodman, a candidate for the 2016 Senior CLASS Award, went on to receive AVCA honors being named to the East Coast All-Region and All-American Honorable Mention honors. Steinbrecher was named the VaSID Coach of the Year after the Dukes' 2016 success.

In her sixth season, Steinbrecher earned her 100th career win in a 3-1 victory over Northeastern on Oct. 9. With the program's best start since 1999 and claiming the regular season title, she was named the CAA Co-Coach of the Year for the second time in her career. Under her leadership, the top-seeded Dukes (12-4) hosted the CAA Volleyball Tournament for the first time since 2002. The Dukes finished the 2015 season reaching CAA Semifinals where they faced #5 Charleston. JMU finished the season with a 22-8 record highlighted by a 14-match win streak for the first time since 1987.

In 2014, the team advanced to its fourth semifinal round in the CAA tournament under Steinbrecher, finishing 8-8 in conference and 17-14 overall. Goodman, Lizzy Briones and Martha Stewart added to Steinbrecher's All-CAA players list.

Under her tutelage, 15 Dukes have received all CAA honors, highlighted by first team honors for Lindsay Callahan (2010), Natalie Abel (2011) and Briones (2013). Abel also added VaSID State Player of the Year in 2011, becoming only the second player in JMU history to receive that honor. Danielle Erb was named All-CAA in all three seasons she played for Steinbrecher, becoming just the second player in school history to be named All-CAA four times.

Steinbrecher had immediate success in her first year with the Dukes, compiling a 22-8 overall record and a 10-4 mark in Colonial Athletic Association play. Her team garnered the second-seed in the CAA tournament, their first appearance since 2007. For her efforts, she was named the CAA co-Coach of the Year as well as the VaSID Coach of the Year.

The 2010 JMU volleyball team recorded the seventh-best winning percentage in school history (.733) and the fifth-best since moving to Division I in 1986. The Dukes were especially strong at home where they compiled a 13-1 mark, which tied for the second-best home mark in school history.

Steinbrecher also authored one of the best turnarounds in the nation, taking over a team that went 11-19 in 2009 and guiding them to an 11-win improvement in 2010. That .11 win differential was the sixth-best turnaround in the country while the .366 improvement in winning percentage was the fourth-best in the nation.

In her second season with the Dukes, she led the team to its second consecutive 20-win season, finishing 20-11 overall. It was the first time the team posted back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1999-2000. In CAA play, Madison went 8-6 and reached the CAA tournament semifinals for the second straight year. In the quarterfinals, JMU swept Georgia State 3-0 for its first win in the CAA tournament since 2007.

JMU's third year under Steinbrecher was marred by injuries, dropping it to 13-16 overall and 5-7 in the CAA. The season was highlighted by taking a set off then-16th-ranked and national quarterfinalist Minnesota. In the CAA Championship tournament, the Dukes rallied from a 2-0 deficit to upset third-ranked Northeastern, 3-2.

Steinbrecher advanced the Dukes to the CAA tournament for the fourth straight season in 2013 after going 8-6 in CAA play to finish tied for third. It was the first time JMU advanced to four consecutive league tournaments since the 1997 through 2000 timeframe. The Dukes finished the regular season by winning three straight against CAA foes and four of their last five, including completing season sweeps against Hofstra and William & Mary.

Identified in 2009 by the AVCA as one of the "30 best coaches in the country under the age of 30," Steinbrecher came to JMU following three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Kentucky.

Steinbrecher joined UK head coach Craig Skinner's staff in the spring of 2007 and made her impact immediately, helping the Wildcats to steady improvement in each season. After a 19-12 season in 2006 prior to her arrival, Kentucky went 22-10 in 2007 followed by 26-6 with a 17-3 mark in the Southeastern Conference in 2008. In 2009, the Wildcats went 29-5 overall and 17-3 in the SEC. They advanced to the round-of-16 in the NCAA Championships and finished the year ranked 12th in the AVCA coaches poll. Steinbrecher's recruiting efforts included landing the 13th-ranked class in the country in 2009.

Prior to her time at Kentucky, Steinbrecher competed professionally for one year in Almeria, Spain, after a stellar four-year collegiate career at Georgia Tech. The Yellow Jackets reached the NCAA Tournament all four years of her career, including trips to the quarterfinals in 2003 and the round-of-16 in 2004. Georgia Tech won a pair of Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season
