Katie Lanz led UNCW's attack with 2.70 kills per set over the three matches. She had a team-high eight kills in the matchups with East Carolina and Coastal Carolina. Lanz also tallied 11 kills versus Radford. UNCW is the lone team that will not begin CAA play this weekend. The Seahawks will host the UNCW Landfall Classic in a final tuneup before their CAA schedule gets underway. UNCW will square off with Jacksonville on Friday, followed by a pair of matches with Campbell and UNC Greensboro on Saturday.

■ Northeastern (4-6, 0-0 CAA) fell to Boston College 3-1 and dropped a tough match to Villanova in five sets but bounced back with a victory in straight sets over Bryant and a five-set win over Harvard. Northeastern will begin CAA play on the road, taking on William & Mary for a pair of matches Saturday and Sunday.

■ Towson (12-0, 0-0 CAA) played 12 sets and won 12 this weekend, defeating Lehigh, FAU, Temple and Norfolk State. The Tigers have now won their last six matches in straight sets and won 10 of 12 matches this season in three sets. Fay Bakodimou led Towson offensively, averaging 4.00 kills per set on a .446 hitting percentage over three matches. Bakodimou had double-digit kills in all the matches she appeared in and led the match in kills versus Temple (13) and FAU (12). Wiers finished the weekend with 2.75 kills per set on a .473 attacking percentage. Towson will begin conference play this weekend traveling to Hofstra.

■ William & Mary (3-2, 0-0 CAA) won its home opener over Hampton in straight sets. It was an all-around team effort for the Tribe in the victory. Maddie Meyers recorded a match-high 16 kills on a .344 hitting percentage, while Lauren Merrill converted 12 kills on 20 attempts without an error (.600). Freshman Amy Shwem notched the first double-double of her career, tallying 37 assists and 10 digs, while Anna Porter was all over the court defensively, racking up a match-high 18 digs. William & Mary will host Northeastern this weekend to kick off its fall 2021 CAA schedule.

CAA PLAY BEGINS FRIDAY

■ Eight CAA teams begin conference play this weekend. The CAA has returned to a traditional 16-game conference slate this fall. Every team will face each other twice throughout the season, playing back-to-back matches either at home or on the road against a single opponent.

■ The first CAA conference match on the schedule this fall will feature Charleston hosting Elon. Despite being the first conference match of the fall, it is not the first CAA match of 2021, nor will it be the first time Charleston and Elon square off in 2021. Charleston won both matches against Elon last spring.

■ William & Mary will host Northeastern on Saturday and Sunday. It will be the first matchup between the programs since October 28, 2019. They did not play during the spring due to the divisional structure of the conference.

■ Delaware and James Madison are set for a showdown in Newark over the weekend. The teams played a home-and-home series during the spring, but they were not considered conference matches because it was a cross-divisional matchup. They split the contests, each team winning on the road.

■ Hofstra will host Towson, marking the first matchup between the teams since October 27, 2019. Despite both teams being in the north division during the spring, both matches between the Pride and Towson were canceled due to COVID.

EARN YOUR STRIPES

■ Two-time defending CAA champion Towson has won its last 23 regular-season CAA conference matches dating back almost two years.

■ Towson completed a 16-0 regular-season during its championship run in 2019, marking the first undefeated CAA regular-season since 2012. The Tigers played just two CAA regular-season matches during the shortened spring season, winning both before claiming their second straight title.

■ Towson's last CAA regular-season loss came on October 27, 2018, in a five-set defeat at Charleston.

ALL I DO IS WIN, WIN, WIN NO MATTER WHAT

■ Towson improved to 12-0 this season, winning all four matches this weekend. The Tigers have now won 36 straight regular-season matches. Towson's last regular-season loss came on September 13, 2019, versus Coastal Carolina.
