1990 NAIA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 2010 season marked the 20th anniversary of Elon's NAIA Men's Tennis Championship. Coached by fifth-year head coach Tom Parham, Elon clinched the outright title when Roland Thornqvist and Stefan Hagar rallied for a 7-5, 6-2 doubles victory over North Florida's Adam Kework and Stafan Cambal in the semifinals of the national tournament. The victor of the NAIA Tournament was determined by total points, based on the number of singles and doubles matches won.

After clinching the team title, Thornqvist went on to earn the individual crown with a 6-3, 6-2 victory of Sandeep Mulay of Atlantic Christian. The freshman was unbeaten in 37 matches on the year and was the first-ever Parham-coached player to win the individual championship. Just two short hours later, Thornqvist and Hager added the doubles title for the Fightin' Christians. The third-seeded pair from Elon earned a 3-6, 7-6, 6-4 victory over top-seeded Yue Wang and Jie Chen of Brigham Young-Hawaii.

Thornqvist was selected the recipient of the Ward-Ballinger Award presented annually to the most outstanding player of the tournament. Parham was named the Penn-NAIA Coach of the Year and was later inducted into the NAIA National Hall of Fame.

Also a major contributor on that 1990 national title team was current Elon head coach Michael Leonard. Leonard helped Elon to the South Atlantic Conference title and the District 26 crown in addition to the NAIA championship.

There were four players native to North Carolina who each played a vital role in the championship season by getting points in both the singles and doubles draw. Those players are: Leonard, Billy Scott, Craig Stone and Jeff Gagnon. Thornqvist, Hager and Leonard earned All-American honors for their performances.
