BACK AGAIN

The #19 Hornets make their third trip in school history and second trip in three years to the NCAA Playoffs as they take on Minnesota State in Mankato, Minn. It is the third post season appearance for the Hornets in the last four years after winning the Kanza Bowl in 2012. All three NCAA Playoff games for Emporia State have been in Minnesota.

LAST TIME OUT

Needing a win to solidify their playoff chances, #19 Emporia State used a big third quarter to come away with a 52-34 win over Neb.-Kearney. The Hornets outscored the Lopers 24-7 in the third quarter to take control of the game. Brent Wilson finished the game 18 of 30 for 353 yards with five touchdowns and added 61 rushing yards and a touchdown on five carries. He connected with seven different receivers with Kavaski Ervin hauling in five passes for 125 yards with a pair of touchdowns. Williams had four catches for 67 yards and a touchdown while Buffalomeat had three receptions for 99 yards and a touchdown. AJ West led the Hornets with nine solo tackles, including two for a loss, and two pass break ups. Tre Dickerson added five tackles and an interception, while Kole Schankie and Brandon Gentz each had interceptions as well.

THE COACHES

Garin Higgins has compiled a career record of 102-58 in 14 seasons as a head coach. He is 51-49 in his ninth season at his alma mater and is 42-25 since the start of the 2010 season. He led the Hornets to the NCAA playoffs in 2013. He had a 51-9 career record as the head coach at Northwestern Oklahoma, including two trips to the national championship game. Higgins was a quarterback for Emporia State from 1987-90 and was on the 1989 national runners-up team. He was the offensive coordinator at Minnesota State during the 2005 season. This is his first meeting with the Mavericks.

Todd Hoffner is 58-15 in his sixth year at Minnesota State and 104-44 in 13 years as a head coach. This is his first meeting with Emporia State.

SCOUTING THE HORNETS

The #19 Hornets are ranked in the top 20 in the nation in third down conversions, completion percentage, first downs, team passing efficiency, passing offense and total offense. Brent Wilson is leading the MIAA in passing yards, touchdown passes, completion percentage, total offense, points responsible for and passing efficiency and ranked in the top 15 nationally in all of those categories. The Hornets are third in the MIAA in scoring offense and fifth in scoring defense. They are third in the MIAA and are 20th in the nation in sacks.

SCOUTING THE MAVERICKS

Minnesota State is 10-1 on the season and ranked #6 in the AFCA National Poll. They were the national runners-up last season, falling 13-0 to Colo. State-Pueblo in the national championship game at Sporting Park. They have the #2 scoring defense in the nation behind Northwest Missouri at 12.9 points per game. Nicholas Pieruccini is 109 of 172 for 1,593 yards with 11 touchdowns and nine interceptions and has gained 423 yards with nine touchdowns on 93 carries this season.

THE SERIES

This will be the first meeting between Emporia State and Minnesota State in football. The two schools have met in the postseason in several other sports over the years. They have met five times in the NCAA Baseball tournament with the Hornets holding a 3-2 edge. The Mavericks defeated the Hornets in the 2014 regional championship game in Russeleville, Ark. Emporia State is 2-0 against Minnesota State in softball regional play and eliminated the Mavericks from the 2014 regional in Mankato. In a matchup of former national champions the Lady Hornet basketball team defeated the Mavericks in the 2013 regional semifinals in Topeka, Kan.

UP NEXT

The winner will advance to play the winner of the game between Sioux Falls and Henderson State next weekend at the site of the highest remaining seed.

YOU HAVE TO SCORE TO WIN

The Hornets are 39-8 under coach Higgins when scoring 28 or more points with a 34-3 record in their last 37 games in which they have scored at least 28 points. Emporia State has averaged 41.6 points per game in their 26 wins and 19.5 points in their 13 losses since the Hornets last shutout - a 13-0 win over Lindenwood in 2012.

WILSON!

Quarterback Brent Wilson (Sr./Ponca City, Okla.) was named the Offensive Player of the Year in the MIAA and first-team All-MIAA. He is ranked second among active players in NCAA Division II in passing yards per attempt, fourth in completion percentage, fifth passing efficiency, seventh in touchdown passes, eighth in total offense per play, 12th in touchdowns responsible for, 14th in completions and passing yards, and 16th in total offense. He is ranked fourth in the nation in touchdown passes & completions per game, sixth in points responsible for, seventh in passing yards, eighth in completion percentage, tenth in total offense and 13th in passing efficiency. He is leading the MIAA in passing yards, touchdown passes, completion percentage, total offense, points responsible for and passing efficiency.

He has thrown a touchdown pass in 25 games, 24 as a starter, and has 16 games with at least three touchdown passes, ten games with at least four scoring passes, five games with at least five touchdown passes and holds the MIAA record with seven touchdowns against Central Oklahoma as a sophomore in 2013.

He was 18 of 30 for 353 yards with five touchdowns, no interceptions and no sacks against Neb.-Kearney. He went 25 of 36 for 267 yards with four touchdowns against Washburn. He was 22 of 38 for 274 yards and two touchdowns against Missouri Western. He went 27 of 41 for 247 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions at Ft. Hays State. He was 26 of 43 for 336 yards and four touchdowns and added 108 rushing yards on ten carries with a touchdown against Pittsburg State. He became the first Hornet quarterback to gain 100 rushing yards in a game since 2010 and is the first Hornet to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game since Emporia State joined the MIAA. He was 43 of 58 for 386 yards with three touchdowns at Lindenwood. The 43 completions are an Emporia State school record. He was 12 of 18 for 285 yards with five touchdowns in the first half against Northeastern State. He was 31 of 43 for 316 yards with a touchdown at Central Oklahoma. He was 35 of 46 for 446 yards with five touchdowns in the Hornets 45-34 win over Central Missouri and was named the USA College Football National Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts. He became the first Hornet quarterback to lead Emporia State to wins in three straight season openers when he went 25 of 36 for 330 yards with three touchdowns at Missouri Southern.

He was named to the USA College Football NCAA Division II Preseason All-American watch list this year. In the first four games before getting injured last year he averaged 320.0 yards per game with a 60.6% completion rate and ten touchdowns. He was injured in the fourth quarter of the Hornets 42-35 double overtime win at Northeastern State. He finished the game, tossing a game tying touchdown in the first OT and scoring the game winner on a rush in the second extra period. He finished 20 of 36 for 292 yards and four touchdowns at Northeastern State. He was 40 of 62 for 489 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions at Central Missouri. The 489 yards are second in Emporia State history to his own 522 yards against Central Oklahoma in 2013.

He was named second-team All-MIAA at quarterback as a sophomore. As a sophomore he set the Emporia State single season touchdown passes record with 33, was just the second Hornet to go over 3,000 yards of total offense with 3,381 yards, and was third in passing with 2,985 yards in just ten games on the season. He missed the Hornets NCAA Playoff game with a broken collarbone. He led his first fourth quarter comeback at Missouri Western and finished the game 21 of 31 for 244 yards with two touchdowns and an interception against the Griffons. He was named MIAA, D2Football.com and BSN National Offensive Player of the Week after setting MIAA records for passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes at Central Oklahoma as a sophomore. He was 38 of 47 for 522 yards with seven touchdowns against the Bronchos and added 49 yards rushing for a total of 571 yards. He was the first quarterback in Emporia State history to throw for over 300 yards in his first start as he went 21 of 29 for 301 yards and three touchdowns against Ft. Hays State and also ran for 74 yards on 13 carries with a pair of rushing touchdowns.

He is 617 of 943 for 7,797 yards with 78 touchdown passes and has gained 883 yards with nine touchdowns rushing for 8,680 yards of total offense in 34 career games. He is the Emporia State school record holder in career touchdown passes and total offense, and ranks second in school history in both and single season career passing yards and single season total offense. He needs 19 yards to break Tyler Eckenrode's single season school record of 3,742 yards of total offense, 323 yards to pass Eckenrode's single season record of 3,742 passing yards and 242 yards to break Eckenrode's career record of 8,031 passing yards. He is seventh in MIAA history in career touchdown passes and ninth in career passing yards.

LAST TIME IN PLAYOFFS
at Minn.-Duluth 55, Emporia State 13

Nov. 23, 2013

DULUTH, MINN.-The #14 Emporia State football team turn the ball over a season high five times in a 55-13 loss at #5 Minnesota-Duluth in 2013.

UMD score first on a 55 yard drive by Drew Bauer 44 seconds into the game. Two Eli Kuhns field goals tied the score at 6-6 with 5:39 left in the quarter. Austin Sikorski scored on a 56 yard run to give the Bulldogs a 13-6 lead with 4:12 left in the first. The Hornets answered with a 55 yard pass from Corben Jones to Austin Willis to tie the score with 2:29 left in the opening frame. It was the first action for Willis since injuring his ankle against Missouri Western on Nov. 2.

On the next possession UMD converted a fake punt on fourth and five at their own 29 yard line on the way to a nine play 76 yard scoring drive and a 20-13 lead with 13:14 left in the second quarter. On the next series Jones was intercepted at the Hornets 12 yard line and five plays later the Bulldogs took a 27-13 lead. UMD made it 34-13 on their only touchdown pass of the day with 3:42 left in the half. Another interception led to the Bulldogs final score of the half, a five yard run by Bauer to make it 41-13 at the half. The Bulldogs added two more rushing touchdowns in the third quarter for the final score of 55-13.

Jones went 12 of 31 for 173 yards and a touchdown to go with five interceptions. Ray Ray Davis ended with four catches for 46 yards while Austin Willis had one catch for 55 yards and a touchdown. The Hornets gave up a season high 476 yards rushing on the day.

MARCHING ON

Kicker/punter Justin Marcha (So./Edmond, Okla.) was an honorable mention selection at punter. He is sixth in the MIAA in punting average at 39.1 yards per punt. As a team the Hornets are third in the MIAA and are ranked 40th in the nation in net punting at 34.9 net yards per punt. Four of his 39 punts have gone at least 50 yards with long of 64 yards at Central Oklahoma and he has forced ten fair catches. He also kicks off for the Hornets and averages 60.3 yards per kick with 15 touchbacks on 67 kick offs.

He averaged 39.1 yards on eight punts at Northwest Missouri, forcing three fair catches, and had one blocked. He averaged 39.7 yards on three punts against Missouri Western. All five of his kick-offs went into the endzone at Ft. Hays State. He had a 50 yard punt against Pittsburg State and averaged 37.8 yards on five punts. He averaged 49.0 yards per punt at Central Oklahoma with a career long of 64 yards. His lone touchback against the Bronchos was muffed inside the five yard line before UCO recovered it in the end zone. He averaged 44.5 yards per punt with a long of 56 yards against Central Missouri. He averaged 43.8 yards on four punts at Missouri Southern. He also hit a PAT against the Lions.

Last year he averaged 56.2 yards with nine touchbacks on 49 kick-offs. He successfully executed two on-side kicks against Neb.-Kearney and another one against Northwest Missouri. He averaged 36.7 yards per punt on 46 punts. He has placed 15 punts inside the 20 and only one touchback while forcing eight fair catches.

THE POLLS SAY

The MIAA has two teams ranked in the top 25 in the AFCA national poll and D2Football.com polls this week. Northwest Missouri, Emporia State and Central Missouri are ranked in both polls.

INJURY REPORT

Tight end Reese Reichards (neck), receiver Justin Brown (leg), offensive lineman Gerron Anthony (knee) and receiver Drake Smithton (shoulder) are out for remainder of the season. Mitchell Foote (foot) is probable for the Minnesota State game after sitting out against Neb.-Kearney.

LOOKING BACK AT 2015

The Hornets missed 54 combined games from players expected to be on the two deep at the beginning of last season. The two players Emporia State took to the 2014 MIAA Media Day, quarterback Brent Wilson and middle linebacker Tariq Allen, combined to play in just five games for the Hornets last season. The Hornets had three different starting quarterbacks produce a win in MIAA play last year.

THE NFL EXPERIENCE

The Hornets have had 14 players play in one of the major professional football leagues. Two Hornets have won Super Bowl rings - Kelly Goodburn with the Washington Redskins and Leon Lett with the Dallas Cowboys. Adam Schiltz was on the Tennessee Titans practice squad in 2013 and was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs practice squad last year. Schiltz saw action in exhibition games with the Chiefs this year while Austin Willis played in exhibition action for the Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills. Harold Ayodele was a part of the Kansas City Chiefs during training camp and saw action in exhibition games in 2011. Garin Higgins has coached three players that have gone on to play in the NFL regular season - Lynn Scott with the Dallas Cowboys, Sam Breeden with the Green Bay Packers, and Patrick Crayton with the Cowboys and San Diego Chargers.

HEAD COACH GARIN HIGGINS

Former Hornet Garin Higgins is the 21st head football coach at Emporia State and is just the second to lead the Hornets to ten wins in a season. In 2013 he became just the second coach to take the Hornets to the NCAA Playoffs and is one of just six Emporia State coaches to take the Hornets to a post season game of any type. He is 101-58 as a head coach with a 50-49 record at his alma mater. He is 41-25 in the last five seasons and 35-15 over the last 50 games. He compiled a 51-9 record as the head coach at Northwestern Oklahoma State University before becoming the co-offensive coordinator at Minnesota State in 2005. He was the offensive coordinator at Northeastern State in 2006. He orchestrated one of the great turnarounds in Emporia State history. The Hornets have gone 31-13 over the last four years after going 19-36 in his first five seasons. The 19 wins in 2012-13 were the most in back to back seasons since going 19-5 in 1988-89, while Higgins was a quarterback for Emporia State.

With five more wins in 2012 than 2011, he led the Hornets to the biggest improvement in wins from one season to the next in Emporia State history. He had led the Hornets to within just one game of a post season berth in 2010 and 2011 before winning the Kanza Bowl in 2012. He is one of six Hornet coaches to win at least five games in four straight years.

While at NWOSU, he was named the Central State Football League Coach of the Year five straight years from 2000 through 2004. The Rangers won 31 consecutive games from 1998 through 2000 and were 15-3 against NCAA Division II schools under Higgins.

A native of Blackwell, Okla., Higgins graduated from Emporia State in 1992. He was a four-year letterman for the Hornets and helped lead the team to a national runner-up finish in 1989. He has been involved with four teams that have played for or won national championships as a player, coordinator or head coach. Higgins and his wife Heather, a 1995 graduate of ESU, are the parents of three children - son Halen and daughters Harlee and Gracyn.

DID YOU CATCH IT

The Emporia State football game at Northwest Missouri on Saturday, November 7 was selected for the DII Football Showcase on the American Sports Network, giving the Hornets three televised games this season. For the sixth year in a row, the Hornets had a home game featured on the MIAA Television Network in their 45-34 win over Central Missouri in the home opener on September 10. It was the first of two scheduled appearances on television for Emporia State as they later defeated Lindenwood 20-13 on October 3 on MIAA TV as well. Last year the Hornets played twice on the MIAA Network, dropping a 42-14 decision to then #7 Northwest Missouri following a 30-10 win at Missouri Western. In 2013 they defeated Southwest Baptist 63-17 on October 12 for Homecoming. The Hornets are third behind Missouri Western and Northwest Missouri for the most appearances on the MIAA Network over the last five years. The Thursday, Oct. 25, 2012 game against Missouri Western was the first televised match-up of nationally ranked teams from Jones Field at Welch Stadium. The Hornets have played 21 games on live television since 1997 with nine of the games coming from Welch Stadium.

LISTEN & WATCH LIVE

Video webcasts for all of Emporia State's regular season games are available on a pay per view basis from Stretch Internet as part of the conference wide webcast agreement. Each MIAA school receives credit for the games accessed through their portal.

Audio of all Emporia State games are available on KFFX 104.9FM and at www.kvoe.com with Greg Rahe, Chuck Samples and Ron Thomas providing the call. KFFX is in their 28th straight year as the radio home of Hornet Athletics, the longest active streak between a commercial station and an MIAA school.

OUTSIDE THE CONFERENCE

The Hornets have gone 10-2 in non-conference games under Garin Higgins and are 21-7 outside the MIAA in the 21st century. Since joining the MIAA, ESU is 30-12 in non-conference games and has lost only three games to unranked non-conference D-II opponents since 1996. The MIAA has sent eight different schools to the NCAA playoffs in the last eight years and has had a team in the national championship game eight of the last 11 seasons.

MIAA IN THE POSTSEASON

Since the MIAA first expanded in 1989 and the new teams became eligible for post season play in 1990, the MIAA has won six national championships and had a representative in 13 of 24 national championship games. The MIAA has been represented in eight of the last 11 national championship games. In that time the MIAA is 33-14 in the NCAA Playoffs and 10-5 in bowl games for a combined post season record of 43-19 against non-conference opponents.

A HORNET WIN WOULD...

- make Emporia State 10-2 overall, 9-2 in the MIAA;
- be the Hornets first win in the NCAA Playoffs and the first win against Minnesota State;
- give the Hornets a 13th game in a season for the first time since 1989;
- make Coach Higgins 52-49 at Emporia State and 103-58 overall.

A HORNET LOSS WOULD...

- make Emporia State 9-3 overall, 9-2 in the MIAA.
- be Emporia State's third straight loss in the NCAA Playoffs;
- make Coach Higgins 51-50 at Emporia State and 102-59 overall.

CONVERSIONS

The Hornets lead the MIAA and are tenth in the nation in third down conversions at 50%, converting 97 of 194 third downs. They are 43 of 62 or 69.3% on third and three yards or less. Brent Wilson is 89 of 131 for a completion percentage of 67.9% on third and fourth down with 70 first downs and nine touchdowns on the season.

WORKING OVERTIME

- The Hornets are 4-8 in overtime games with wins in four of their last six after dropping their first four extra period contests.
- The quadruple overtime game in 2006 between Emporia State and Pittsburg State was the first MIAA regular season game to go to four overtimes and the first involving an MIAA team since Northwest Missouri's 4 OT win against Carson Newman in the 1999 National Championship Game.
- Emporia State's 17 point deficit at the half against Missouri Southern in 2011 was the largest half-time spread the Hornets have overcome for a win since joining the MIAA and matched the greatest deficit ever overcome for a win as an NCAA school.
- Emporia State came from 17-0 at the end of the first quarter to defeat Ft. Hays State 24-17 to open the 1992 season.
