SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE

Emporia State won their first national championship in 2010, 12 years after making their first appearance in the national title game and have advanced to four Final Fours since 1998. The Lady Hornets are ranked #3 this week after opening the season #1 in the USA Today Sports/WBCA Coaches Poll. This is the fourth season Emporia State has earned a #1 ranking, first in 2004-05, again in 2006-07 and then after winning the 2009-10 national championship. The Lady Hornets are 17-5 all-time when playing as the #1 team in the nation. This is the 19th straight year the Lady Hornets received votes in the preseason poll and it is the 14th time they have been ranked in the top 15 nationally. The Lady Hornets have 19 straight winning seasons, the longest active streak in the MIAA. The Lady Hornets have won seven MIAA regular season championships in the last 16 years. They have made the NCAA Tournament 17 times in the last 19 years and their 36-16 record in the tourney is ranked fourth among active Division II schools in total wins. Emporia State has made six Elite Eight trips, the most of any team since 1997.

LET'S HANG SOME MORE

Aneta Kausaite, Jurgita Kausaite, Tara Holloway-Churchill, Emily Bloss-Carpenter, Michelle Stueve-Corpening, Cassondra Boston and Alli Volkens have had their jerseys retired in White Auditorium for earning All-American honors at Emporia State, graduating and playing at least two years for the Lady Hornets.

ALL-TIME ALL-MIAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Lady Hornets Emily Bloss, Tara Holloway and Jurgita Kausaite were named to the ten person All-Time All-MIAA Tournament Team by a panel of past and current sports information directors and media members prior to the 2007 Tournament. Bloss averaged 17 points in her twelve tournament games, including a tournament record 76 points as a senior. Holloway scored 151 points in her career. Kausaite scored 120 points in six tournament games.

MIAA TOURNEY EXCELLENCE

Emporia State has won the last three MIAA Tournament Championships and are the first team to have two different streaks of at least four straight championship games. The Lady Hornets won four straight championships from 1998-2001 and have been in five straight title games since 2011. They are the first team to be in five straight championship games since Missouri Western appeared in seven straight from 1997-2003. Emporia State is 37-13 all-time in MIAA Tournament play and the Lady Hornets are the only team to have streaks of three and four straight MIAA titles They have won nine straight conference tournament games.

NEWBIES

Kelly Moten became just the fourth freshman to earn All-Tournament honors at the 2014 MIAA Tournament. All four freshmen were Lady Hornets and Moten is the first to earn the honors coming off the bench. She joins Merissa Quick as the only two sophomores to earn Most Outstanding Player honors at the MIAA Tournament.

LADY HORNETS NCAA HISTORY

The Lady Hornets have made the NCAA Tournament for 17 times in the last 19 years and their 36-16 record in the tourney is ranked fourth all-time among active Division II schools in total tourney wins. Emporia State won the 2010 National Championship, were national runners-up in 1998, advanced to the Final Four in 1999 and 2015, and were also in the Elite Eight in 2000 and 2006. They have been to the regional final 12 times.

The Lady Hornets have scored at least 100 points on every MIAA school except the four newcomers

BY THE NUMBERS

The Lady Hornets have topped the 100-point barrier 67 times and have eclipsed the 110 point mark 27 times in their history. Since 1997-98, the Lady Hornets are 258-2 (.992) when scoring at least 80 points. The first loss was to North Dakota, 87-81 in the 1999 Final Four and the second came at West Texas A&M, 86-83 in the 2009 NCAA South Central Regional Semifinals. Emporia State was 167-22 (.884) in the previous 23 seasons when scoring at least 80 points. Conversely Emporia State is 142-2 (.986) all-time when holding opponents to 50 points or less. The 109-39 win over Science & Arts was the 86th time in school history the Lady Hornets scored 80 or more and held their opponent to 50 or less and the 11th time they have scored 100 and held their opponent to under 40 points.

LOCK DOWN

The Lady Hornets have not allowed a team to score 100 points against them since a 106-75 loss to West Texas A&M on Nov. 29, 1991 a streak of 746 games. They led the nation in blocked shots and field goal percentage defense and were third in scoring defense last season. Emporia State led the nation field goal percentage defense last year, allowing teams to shoot just .329 from the field against them. The Lady Hornets led the nation in scoring defense during the 2000-01 season, allowing just 50.6 points per game to rank 20th all-time in single season defense in NCAA Division II history.

HERE THEY COME

Emporia State has played in front of at least 1,000 fans in White Auditorium in every home game since January 2, 1999 - a span of 239 games. The Lady Hornets were second in the MIAA in average attendance last season at 2,110 and were ranked third in the nation. They were the best road and overall draw in the MIAA last season, averaging 1,972 in 13 road games and 1,941 in 34 total games last season. Emporia State's road average was better than 12 of the other 13 teams in the MIAA home average for attendance. The Lady Hornets national championship game drew a standing room only crowd of 3,405 to the St. Joseph Civic Arena in 2010. The Lady Hornets averaged a school record 2,684 fans over 13 home dates in 2005-06 to finish third in the nation and led the nation with an average attendance of 2,348 fans for their 15 home dates in 2004-05. Emporia State has been in the top six of the nation in attendance in each of the last 18 years.

NOT SUCH A HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Emporia State's victory over Ft. Hays State means the host team for the NCAA Regional the Lady Hornets compete in has won the tournament only once in the last 11 years. The first eight years of the streak were in the South Central Region. In that same time, the host team has advanced to the regional final only three times with Washburn falling to Emporia State in 2006 in Lee Arena, West Texas A&M defeating Central Oklahoma in 2009 in Canyon, Texas and Ft. Hays State falling to Emporia State in 2014.

MARCH MEANS SOMETHING

The Lady Hornets are 23-6 (.793) in March post season games under Jory Collins. Emporia State has made it to the championship game of nine out of ten post season tournaments under Collins, appearing in five MIAA Tournament and four NCAA Regional Tournament Championship games, while making the semifinals at the Elite Eight last year. Emporia State is 73-29 (.716) all-time in MIAA and NCAA Tournament games.

LADY HORNET SUCCESS ON THE COURT...

The Lady Hornets have the best record in MIAA play in the 21st century. ESU is 234-69 (.772) in MIAA play since the 2000 season and 411-107 (.793) overall in that time. The Lady Hornets are even better if you add two more years to the equation. Since the 1997-98 season, Emporia State is 266-70 (.792) in MIAA play and 474-111 (.810) overall. The Lady Hornets have been ranked in the top ten of the ESPN/USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll 176 times, the most of any NCAA Division II school. Emporia State has been to 17 NCAA Tournaments, made the Regional Championship or "Sweet 16" 12 times, has made six trips to the Elite Eight, four to the Final Four, two national title game appearances and won the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship. The Lady Hornets have won seven MIAA Regular season and seven Tournament Championships and are the only team to win four straight undisputed (untied regular season and tournament) MIAA Championships pulling the trick from 1998-2001. They have been in five straight MIAA Tournament Championships games, been to 12 of the last 18 MIAA Tournament Title Games and won seven tourney titles.

...AND IN THE CLASSROOM

Lady Hornets have been honored as Academic All-Americans three times since joining the NCAA. Michelle Stueve was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America second-team in 2007-08 and was a three-time Academic All-District VII performer. Emily Bloss was a three-time Academic All-American and was named the Academic All-American of the Year in 2001.

ON THE AIR

The Lady Hornets have been on national television five times in the last 14 years. They are 3-2 after their loss in the Final Four to eventual national champion California (PA) on the CBS Sports Network last year. They defeated Ft. Lewis 65-53 in the national championship game on ESPN2 in 2010. Emporia State's 97-94 overtime victory over then #1 Gannon was shown on ESPNU. The Lady Hornets 74-67 victory over Washburn in 2007 was televised nation wide on CSTV. It was the first time a basketball game was televised nationally from White Auditorium and the first time an MIAA regular season basketball game, men or women, had been telecast nationwide. The Lady Hornets national championship game against North Dakota in 1998 was seen on ESPN. The Turnpike Tussle game against Washburn in White Auditorium on Jan. 15, 2011 was available across Mid-America on the MIAA Broadcasting Network while the Lady Hornets have made five straight appearances on the MIAA Network as part of the conference championship game.

END GAME

The Lady Hornets are 282-6 (.979) when leading at the 5:00 mark since the start of the 2004-05 season and are 449-12 (.974) since 1997 with a lead at the 5:00 mark.

STREAKS AND SUCH

- The Lady Hornets have hit a three pointer in 309 straight games dating back to a zero for 14 effort at Washburn on Feb. 15, 2006.
- The Lady Hornets have held their last 746 opponents to under 100 points dating back to a 106-75 loss to West Texas A&M in Hays, Kan. on Nov. 29, 1991.
- The Lady Hornets have won 26 straight non-conference games in White Auditorium dating back to a 58-51 loss to Harris-Stowe on December 8, 2007.
- The Lady Hornets have won at least ten home games in 19 straight seasons.
- The Lady Hornets ended the longest winning streak in NCAA Division II history (51 games) with their 61-59 overtime victory over Washburn on March 13, 2006 in the South Central Regional final and the longest single season winning streak (37 games) with their 97-94 overtime victory over Gannon on March 24, 2010 in the national semifinals.
- The Lady Hornets have played in four straight regional championship games and have made it to the regional final in the last five NCAA Tournaments they have played in.
- The Lady Hornets have defeated the host team in their regional six times in the last 11 years (at Ft. Hays State 66-61 in 2015; at Washburn 65-58 in 2013; at Washburn 71-65 in 2012; at West Texas A&M 76-69 in 2010; at Washburn in 2006; and at Drury in 2005).
- The Lady Hornets have two six game winning streaks against nationally ranked teams in the last three seasons. They are the longest streaks since winning seven straight over the 1999-2000 through 2000-01 seasons and the longest single season streak since winning seven straight on the way to the 1998 national championship game.

TIP-INS

- The Lady Hornets have won 20 games in 13 straight seasons, 18 times in the last 19 years and 23 times in the program's 38 year history.
- The Lady Hornets have won 25 games 11 times in school history.
- The Lady Hornets have won 30 games four times in school history.
- The Lady Hornets are 836-372 (.692) overall in their 42nd year of action.
- The Lady Hornets are the only team to appear in the NCAA top twenty season records for scoring offense (17th - 90.0 in 1998; 8th - 91.3 in 1999; 18th - 89.9 in 2000) and scoring defense (18th - 50.6 in 2001).
- The Lady Hornets have had nine of the last 17 MIAA MVPs, six of the last 13 Freshmen of the Year and won the MIAA Defensive Player of the Year award in 2011-12.
