EASTERN MICHIGAN WRESTLING

MAC Championships

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com)– The Eastern Michigan University wrestling has completed its regular season and now turns its sights to the Mid-American Conference Championships. The tournament will be held at EMU's own Convocation Center for the first time since 2009. The tournament takes place over two days, Saturday, March 5-Sunday March, 6.

Both days of the championships will be streamed live on ESPN 3 with Joel Godett providing the play-by-play and former Michigan State grappler Eric Olanowski giving the analysis. Live EMU results will also be posted on our Twitter account, @EMUWrestling

ALL-TIME AT MAC CHAMPIONSHIPS: Since joining the conference in 1971-72, EMU has captured one team Conference title and have had 25 individuals win a conference title. EMU's team title came in 1996 when it won five of the 10 weight classes. Its last individual champion came in 2009 when 197 pounder John McClure won the crown.

LAST SEASON AT THE MAC CHAMPIONSHIPS: Eastern secured an eighth overall place with 28.5 points, while No. 1 the University of Missouri took the title for the third-straight season with 139.5 points. The Tigers dominated the field with five individual champions, while No. 22 Old Dominion placed second with 97.5 team points.

Eastern earned one NCAA automatic bid when 197 pounder Anthony Abro took fifth place by going 2-2 in the championships.

LAST TIME HOSTING: The Eagles last hosted the conference's premier event in 2009 when it was held at the Convocation Center. That season EMU finished fifth with 36.5 points and had its first MAC champion since 2007 when John McClure won the 197 lbs. crown.

FIVE WRESTLERS RANKED BY NCAA: In the final NCAA Coaches Panel rankings, four EMU grapplers found themselves in the top-33. Nicholas Barber (No. 23, 149 lbs.), Jacob Davis (No. 32, 174 lbs.), Anthony Abro (No. 24, 197 lbs.) and Gage Hutchison (No. 27, 285 lbs.) were all ranked in the poll. The Coaches Panel is one of three measurements used to determine qualifying spots in the NCAA Tournament in March, along with winning percentage and ratings percentage index (RPI).

In the RPI, EMU also has four wrestlers ranked; Kyle Springer (No. 24, 141 lbs.), Barber (28th), Davis (33rd) and Abro (29th).

EMU MAC PRE-SEEDING: The Mid-American Conference announced its pre-seeding for the MAC Championships, March 1. Here is a look at where EMU stands going into the tournament.

125: Armando Torres (8/9)
 133: Shayne Wireman (8/9)
 141: Kyle Springer (7)
 149: Nicholas Barber (5)
 157: Devan Marry (7)
 165: Dakota Juarez (6)
 174: Jacob Davis (5)
 184: Derek Hillman (6)
 197: Anthony Abro (5)
 285: Gage Hutchison (2)

NCAA ALLOCATIONS: The NCAA announced its allocations at each weight class Feb. 25, with the MAC earning 41 spots, the third most in the country. Class-by-class the conference has 125 (4), 133 (6), 141 (4), 149 (5), 157 (5), 165 (4), 174 (3), 184 (4), 197 (5) and HWT (1).

EMU ENDS REGULAR SEASON WITH WIN OVER ODU: Eastern wrapped up its 2015-16 dual schedule with a thrilling 19-12 win over Old Dominion University Sunday afternoon, Feb. 14 in Mid-American Conference action. The Eagles broke a five bout-losing streak with the victory. The dual win wrapped up the 16th winning season in program history, and second in the last three years for Eastern.

EAGLES DROP DUAL ON THE ROAD TO CMU: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team fell to in-state rival, Central Michigan University, on the road, Feb. 5. Redshirt senior Anthony Abro and redshirt freshman Gage Hutchison recorded wins for the Eagles in the, 22-12, loss to No. 23 CMU.

EMU DEFEATED ON SENIOR DAY: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team fell in its final home dual of the season, 21-9, Saturday, Jan. 30 inside the Convocation Center. The loss moved EMU's record to 7-6 on the season, and 2-4 in MAC competition.

EMU won three duals on the day, while NIU took seven of the bouts. As an indicator of how close the dual was, none of the matchups yielded bonus points. The Huskies notched their first MAC dual win of the season, going to 1-3, and improved their overall record to 6-6.

LYSSIOTIS JOINS COACHING STAFF: EMU wrestling announced the hiring Tony Lyssiotis ('07) as a volunteer assistant coach, Jan. 21. He will join the team mat-side the rest of this season, primarily working with the heavier weight classes.

Lyssiotis was a four-year letterwinning starter for the Eagles, starting at 197 lbs. from 2004-07. The Oxford, Mich. native finished third in the Mid-American Conference Tournament his senior year, while earning Academic All-MAC honors his junior and senior years.

DOUBLE TROUBLE: Entering the final season of their storied careers, redshirt seniors Anthony Abro and Vincent Pizzuto are near the top of the EMU record book in career wins. Abro has 88 career wins, while Pizzuto has 81. This is good for sixth place and a tie for ninth place on the all-time list, respectively. Steve Brown is the program leader in victories, racking up 117 from 1984-88.

EAGLES EDGED OUT BY KENT STATE: Eastern Michigan dropped a heartbreaker dual to Kent State University, 19-14, Sunday Jan. 17, in Mid-American Conference action. The Eagles led almost the whole way before losing the lead in their final two bouts to drop the match.

In total the Green and White took four matches on the day, winning four of the first six to lead 14-6, before Kent raced back, winning the final four to secure the win. One of the EMU wins came on a technical fall at the heavyweight match while the Flashes notched one major decision.

EMU FALLS ON THE ROAD TO NO.4 MISSOURI: Despite leading 10-7 at the midway point of the dual, the Eastern Michigan University wrestling team dropped a tough match on the road to No. 4 Missouri, 24-10, Friday night, Jan. 15.

EMU won three matches on the night, including a major decision win at the heavyweight match from Gage Hutchison. Out of the seven bouts they dropped, five of them came against top-10 nationally ranked opponents.

EAGLES DROP FIRST MAC DUAL AT OHIO: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team dropped a tough match to No. 21 Ohio University, 19-12, in Athens, Ohio Friday night, Jan. 8. The Eagles moved to 7-3 on the season and 2-1 in the Mid-American Conference.

EMU took four duals on the night, all by decision. The losses they suffered included five by decision and one by major decision. With victories in their bouts, Dakota Juarez and Nicholas Barber moved to a perfect 3-0 in MAC duals this season.

MILESTONE WIN OVER NORTHERN IOWA: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team completed a milestone dual win by defeating the University of Northern Iowa, 22-14, in Mid-American Conference action at the Convocation Center Wednesday night, Jan. 6. The victory marked the first ever program victory over the Panthers for EMU in seven attempts.

The Eagles (7-2, 2-0 MAC) won six of the ten matches on the night, including one by major decision and another by pinfall in the final match of the night to secure the victory. Three other wins came from decisions, while the sixth came on a tiebreaker.

HUTCHISON PACES EAGLES AT THE MIDLANDS: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team wrapped up its 2015 schedule with a big time performance from redshirt sophomore Gage Hutchison at the 53rd annual Ken Kraft Midlands Championships, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 29-30. The heavyweight grappler took seventh place in his weight class out of 27 total wrestlers.

Hutchison's top-eight finish marked the second straight year in which EMU has placed a wrestler at The Midlands, as Brandon Zeerip placed eighth at 157 lbs. last year. It was also the 19th time Eastern has placed a grappler in the tournament's 53-year history.

In all, Eastern sent 10 wrestlers onto the mats over the two days. They racked up 12 total wins to finish in 27th out of 43, totaling 16.5 points.

EAGLES PLACE THREE AT RTOC: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team placed three wrestlers while finishing tenth as a team at the Reno Tournament of Champions, Dec. 20. In total, seven of EMU's grapplers advanced to at least the quarterfinals of their respective brackets.

Eastern traveled 14 wrestlers out west for the tournament. In total they notched 29 wins, while placing redshirt junior Nicholas Barber in fourth place, and junior Shayne Wireman and redshirt senior Anthony Abro in sixth place. This was good for 56 team points, and a tenth place finish out of 24 teams.

EAGLES SPLIT A PAIR OF MATCHUPS AT INDIANA

DUALS: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team wrapped up its non-conference schedule by splitting a pair of matchups at the Indiana Duals Sunday, Dec. 13. The Eagles defeated Manchester University, 46-6, while dropping a dual with host Indiana, 25-9.

In the first matchup of the day, despite the final score and final decision count (7-3), the dual was closer than it would indicate. EMU gave up one major decision and one medical forfeit, while only being outscored by just 12 points in the other five bouts.

Following the tough loss, EMU turned its sights on Division-III opponent Manchester. The Eagles made quick work of the Spartans, notching five pins, a technical fall, and two major decisions. The only points allowed were on a forfeit.

RUNNING WITH THE BULLS: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team continued to roll through its 2015-16 schedule by taking its Mid-American Conference opener over the University at Buffalo 30-3 Sunday, Dec. 6 at Bowen Field House.

The Eagles (5-1, 1-0 MAC) used the strength of three major decisions and six decisions to take down the Bulls (4-2, 0-1 MAC). It marked the third straight dual in which EMU won at least nine of its matchups, outscoring opponents 96-6 in that stretch.

EAGLES RANKED No. 26: In the National Wrestling Coaches Association/USA Today NCAA Division I Team Coaches Poll released, Dec. 8, the Eastern Michigan University wrestling team came in ranked No. 26 in the country. The Eagles received 15 points in the poll, which was just five points away from the No. 25 ranked West Virginia University.

The ranking represented the highest spot attained by the EMU wrestling program since it transitioned to Division-I in the 1971-72 season. The team has never breached the Top-25.

SPRINGER RETURNS TO IU: Making his return to the Hoosier State was redshirt sophomore Kyle Springer. In his return, Springer won his bout against IU, winning in sudden victory 10-8. Springer spent his first year in college on the wrestling team at IU, where he went 4-4 including three major decisions.

CLEAN SWEEP: Behind a dominating all-around performance from all 10 of their starters, the Eastern Michigan University wrestling team shutout Michigan State University 34-0 in a road dual, Wednesday, Dec. 2, at Jenison Field House.

The victory marked the first shutout for the Eagles since the 2012-13 season when the Green and White blanked Itasca Community College 57-0, Nov. 24. The Eagles earned four major decisions on the night.

EAGLES CLEAN UP AT CLEVELAND STATE: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team handled its first road match of the season with ease Friday night with a 32-3 win over Cleveland State University at the Wolstein Center, Nov. 20.

The Eagles controlled the dual from the start, winning the first eight bouts of the night to take a commanding 29-0 lead. Despite dropping the ninth match, they cleaned up in the final matchup to take nine of the ten on the night.

In total the Eagles won one bout via pin, while another was won on a technical fall. The other seven matchups ended in favor of the Eagles by decisions.

The David Bolyard File

The 2015-16 season marks the second year for David Bolyard as the head coach of the EMU wrestling team. In his first year at the helm he guided the Eagles to a 8-12 record and sent two grapplers to the NCAA Championships.

Bolyard brings nine years of NCAA Division I coaching experience to his new position. Prior to earning the head job at EMU, he spent seven years as the associate head coach with the Eagles. During those seven seasons, he coached 16 NCAA National Qualifiers and 33 All-Mid-American Conference placers. In addition, six-of-seven teams that he coached earned spots in the top-30 of the National Wrestling Coaches' Association (NWCA) All-Academic Team Award.

Prior to coming to Ypsilanti, Bolyard spent two years at his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach. At CMU, he saw two top-30 team finishes at the NCAA Division I Championships. In addition, he coached multiple individuals to stellar careers. The Chippewas were MAC Champions in both seasons that Bolyard coached and had 10 individual MAC Champions. On top of the success in conference action, Bolyard helped coach five All-Americans and 15 national qualifiers.

Before beginning his coaching career, Bolyard was a wrestling student-athlete at Central Michigan. As a Chippewa, Bolyard joined the CMU 100 Win Club and earned a spot in CMU laurels by recording the 10th most wins in Central Michigan history. Bolyard also set a then-record of 21 straight wins during his senior campaign. He was a four-time NCAA qualifier, while earning All-American status in 2004. The two-time NWCA Academic All-American won an individual MAC Championship in 2005, while also being named CMU's Chick Sherwood Most Outstanding Wrestler.

Bolyard graduated from CMU in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in entrepreneurship before continuing his education and earning a master's degree from Central in athletic administration in 2008.

EMU SMOOTH AT KEYSTONE CLASSIC: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team wrapped up a packed weekend with an impressive showing at the annual Keystone Classic in Philadelphia, Sunday, Nov. 22. The Eagles placed five wrestlers, all in the top four, including redshirt senior Anthony Abro, who took the title at 197.

In addition to Abro, the Green and White had redshirt junior Nicholas Barber finish second at 149, redshirt senior Vincent Pizzuto finish third at 125 in his season debut, and redshirt freshman Dakota Juarez, as well as redshirt junior Jacob Davis finish in fourth at 165 and 174 respectively.

EMU sent 14 grapplers to the mats throughout the day, garnering a total of 28 victories. In all, the Eagles totaled 92.5 points, good for a team finish of fourth place out of eleven teams.

EAGLES TAKE TWO AT EMU DUALS: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team opened its 2015-16 season, Saturday, Nov. 7, with a pair of wins over Clarion and Bloomsburg at the EMU Duals. EMU claimed victory over Clarion (28-12) and Bloomsburg (38-6) before falling to Purdue (30-13). Individually, redshirt junior Devan Marry won all three of his bouts at 157, while seven other Eagles won two matchups.

PIN 'EM UP: All three of Marry's wins at the EMU Duals came on pins, as the redshirt junior dominated his competition. Versus Clarion he put his opponent into submission at the 2:54 mark. He followed that up with a pin against Bloomsburg at the four minute mark. Finally he pinned the No. 13 ranked Doug Welch of Purdue in just 1:18.

GONSER HEADLINES EMU IN THE OPEN: Freshman Noah Gonser had a stellar debut for EMU at the EMU Duals, Nov. 7. In his first collegiate action, the Grand Blanc native went undefeated, 4-0, on his way to the 125 title. He had one pin and one major decision in his four victories.

Besides Gonser, sophomore Kayne MacCallum placed second at 184 while freshman J.J. Wolfe placed sixth at 149 and fellow freshman Jared Langley placed eighth at 197 in their Eagles debuts.

FRESHMEN IMPRESS AT MSU OPEN: A pair of freshmen continued to find success at their second competition, the MSU Open, Nov. 15. Noah Gonser and Jared Langley placed for the second time in as many tries for the Eagles, as Gonser placed third at 125, while Langley finished fifth at 197. In all, EMU claimed 27 total wins at the tournament.

2015-16 OUTLOOK: The Eagles enter the second year under the guidance of Head Coach David Bolyard. The squad, which finished 8-12 last season, is looking to build upon a promising 2014-15 campaign.

The team sent two wrestlers to the NCAA Championships in 2015 and return one of those athletes as redshirt senior Anthony Abro (Canton, Mich.-Canton) is back for his final year with the Green and White. In total EMU gets back eight of its ten starters from last season's squad, along with 13 total letterwinners, 10 of whom have prior starting experience.

HOSTING THE MAC CHAMPIONSHIPS: EMU has the special privilege of hosting the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championships to be held at the Convocation Center. It will be the first time the Eagles will play host to the conference's premier event since 2009.

FACING TOP COMPETITION: The Green and White will square off against six teams who were ranked in the preseason InterMat Division I poll. These teams include Missouri, who is ranked 10th overall, Ohio (16th), Northern Iowa (17th), Old Dominion (18th), Kent State (22nd) and Central Michigan (25th). EMU also matches up with three Big Ten Teams this season, with duals against Purdue, Michigan State and Indiana.

TWO EAGLES EARN PRESEASON RANKINGS: The Mid-American Conference wrestling coaches announced the 2015-16 preseason individual weight class rankings and team rankings in conjunction with the league office, Oct. 15.

Two Eagles earned top-four seeds in their weight classes, as reigning NCAA qualifier redshirt senior Anthony Abro (Canton, Mich.-Canton) ranked No. 3 at the 197 lbs. class, while redshirt sophomore Gage Hutchison (Buchanan, Mich.-Buchanan) came in at No. 4 in the heavyweight class.

EAGLES SIGN EIGHT FOR 2015-16 SEASON: The Eastern Michigan University wrestling team will welcome nine newcomers to the 2015-16 squad Head Coach David Bolyard and his coaching staff announced Friday, Aug. 14. The recruits hail from five different states, including three from Michigan. Zac Carson, Noah Gonser, David Kasper, George Lahar V, Jared Langley, Sa'Derian Perry, Christopher Poland and J.J. Wolfe will compete for the Eagles this upcoming season after signing their National Letters of Intent.

WRESTLING CLAIMS TOP SPOT IN NWCA ALL-ACADEMIC HONORS:

For the first time in Eastern Michigan University wrestling history, the Eagles garnered the top spot in the nation on the National Wrestling Coaches Association's All-Academic teams, announced by the NWCA Friday, May 22. The Green and White finished the 2014-15 academic year with a team grade point average of 3.382, which edged out second-place Harvard, who carried a 3.372 team GPA in the 2014-15 academic year and notched the title the past two seasons. Furthermore, the award marks not only the first time in EMU history that the grapplers had captured the honor, but the team is also the first-ever Mid-American Conference team to earn the honor since its inception in the 1990-91 academic year.
