Rob Murphy
Head Coach - Ninth Season at EMU
Central State, 1996

The 2019-20 campaign will mark Head Coach Rob Murphy's ninth season at the helm of the Eastern Michigan University men's basketball program.

In nine seasons since arriving from Syracuse University, Murphy has made great strides at Eastern Michigan. He has accumulated 154 wins, ranking second in the Division I era of EMU hoops behind Ben Braun (185 wins).

2017-18 saw the Eagles reach tremendous heights, finishing with an overall record of 22-13, an 11-7 mark in Mid-American Conference play, a trip to the MAC Tournament semi-finals, and an appearance in the CollegenInsider.com Tournament. The team's success was highlighted on the court by James Thompson IV, who was named All-MAC First Team, as well as All-MAC Defensive Team. Tim Bond was named the conference's MAC Defensive Player of the Year, while Elijah Minnie (3rd team), and Paul Jackson (Honorable Mention), also earned all-league honors. Thompson became just the third player to join the 1,000 point, 1,000 rebound club, while Bond became the all-time steals leader (238) and joined the 1,000 point club in his swansong.

The 2016-17 season saw the Eagles finish 16-17 overall and 7-11 in Mid-American Conference play. Sophomore James Thompson IV highlighted a spectacular season on the court with an All-MAC Second Team nod to go along with Academic All-MAC and MAC Distinguished Scholar Athlete honors. Junior Tim Bond was named to the Mid-American Conference All-Defensive team for the second consecutive season, while senior Raven Lee set the new single-game scoring record with 50 points at Central Michigan (Feb. 28).

In the 2015-16 campaign, the Detroit, Mich. native helped James Thompson IV to earn the Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year award. Thompson is just the EMU student-athlete to earn the award in men's basketball. Thompson was also named All-MAC Second Team after recording the third-most single season rebounds (352) in EMU history, along with the second-best single-season field goal percentage (.645) at Eastern, while Raven Lee nabbed All-MAC Honorable Mention accolades. Additionally, Tim Bond was named to the inaugural All-MAC Defensive Team after completing the season with the second-most steals (67) in a single season. As a team, Murphy's defensive philosophy continued to shine as the squad set a single season record in steals (312) and steals per game (9.5). In addition to its defensive prowess, the Eagles had an extremely successful offensive year as well, especially when it came to getting to the free throw line. EMU attempted the second-most free throws (854) in school history, while shattering the free throws made (616) record by 22 makes.

The Green and White saw its second-straight 20-or-more win season during the 2014-15 campaign as Murphy led the Green and White to a 21-14 mark on the year, capped by his second win over a Big Ten opponent when the Eagles knocked off the University of Michigan, Dec. 9, inside the Crisler Center in Ann Arbor, Mich. It was just the third time in EMU history that the Green and White have knocked off the Maize and Blue. In addition, Eastern made it to its second-straight postseason tournament when the Eagles qualified for the College Basketball Invitational (CBI). EMU held teams to a 38.6 field goal percentage, marking the 10th-best in NCAA Division I basketball during the 2014-15 season, while the Eagles saw one of its own make history for the second-straight season. Lee scored the second-most points in a single season by a sophomore when he totaled 586 points on the season. Not only did Lee garner that honor, but he became the 29th EMU student-athlete to reach the 1,000-point plateau. For his efforts during the 2014-15 season, Lee was named to the All-MAC Third Team after averaging 16.7 points per game, the most since Brandon Bowdry posted 19.9 points during the 2010-11 season. Thus far, Murphy has coached a trio of All-MAC Third Team award winners, in addition to a pair of All-MAC Honorable Mention student-athletes.

At the conclusion of the 2013-14 season after guiding the Eagles to a 22-15 record and the semifinals of the Mid-American Conference Tournament, Murphy was named a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award. The Eagles' 22 victories were the most since the 1996-97 season and tied for fourth-most in EMU history. Under Murphy, EMU reached the second round of the CollegenInsider.com Tournament (CIT), marking the first time the Eagles had competed in postseason play since the 1997-98 season. During the historic season, the Eagles led the nation in field goal percentage defense behind the 2-3 zone Murphy implemented upon arriving at EMU. In addition to the team success, Murphy coached Da'Shonte Riley into becoming Eastern's first ever MAC Defensive Player of the Year during the 2013-14 campaign. Along with Riley's award, Karrington Ward was named All-MAC Third Team, while Lee scored the most points by an EMU freshman with 380.

In Murphy's second season at EMU, the Eagles registered a 47-44 victory against Purdue. It was the first time since the 1996-97 season that EMU had beaten a Big Ten opponent. During the 2012-13 campaign, the Eagles used their stingy defense to beat Northern Illinois, 42-25. In that contest, the Huskies scored just four points in the first half and converted on 8-of-61 field goals, including holding NIU to just 1-of-33 3-pointers in the game. The Huskies 13.1 percent field goal percentage was the lowest in NCAA history since the shot clock was implemented. The season concluded with EMU winning two games in the MAC Tournament for the first time since the 1997-98 season to reach the quarterfinals.

After Murphy was hired on April 21, 2011, he and his staff worked tirelessly to implement his defensive philosophy and begin the process of reviving the EMU men's basketball program. During Murphy's inaugural season, 2011-12, the Eagles won Eastern's first-ever MAC West Division Championship.

For his efforts in leading the team to that West championship, Murphy was named MAC Coach of the Year and Co-Coach of the Year in the NCAA District 14 Division I ranks by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Coach Murphy has been on the staff of two outstanding college basketball programs and was also a highly successful high school head coach in Detroit, leading Crockett to the Class B State Championship in 2000-01 and was the associate head coach on the staff of the Detroit Central High School team that won the Class A state title in 1997-98.

Murphy took over the EMU job with a strong understanding of high school basketball in the state of Michigan. He spent six years coaching in the Detroit Public School League (1996-2002), four as the head boys basketball coach at Detroit Crockett Technical High School.

A graduate of Central State University in Wilberforce, Ohio, Murphy was a two-year starter on the basketball team and the team's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

After graduating from Central State, Murphy returned to his hometown of Detroit to begin his coaching career at Detroit Central High School as the associate head coach in 1996-98. Central won the state Class A championship in 1997-98 after finishing runner-up in 1996-97.

Murphy then moved over to become the head boys basketball coach at Crockett H.S. and after his first team posted a 5-13 mark, the Rockets improved to win three consecutive Class B District titles and captured the state championship in 2000-01. His Crockett teams had a 64-27 record and he was named All-Metro Coach of the Year by the Detroit Free Press in 2000-01.

From Crockett, Murphy joined the Kent State University staff for two seasons, 2002-03 and 2003-04, and the teams turned in back-to-back 22-9 seasons on the way to two Mid-American Conference East Division crowns. Both teams were invited to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

After that successful two-year stint as an assistant for the Golden Flashes, Murphy joined Head Coach Jim Boenheim's Syracuse University men's basketball program as an assistant. During his seven years on the staff, the Orange recorded a 180-67 overall record and played in the post season every year, with five NCAA appearances and two NIT stops.

A native of Detroit, Murphy attended Mumford High School where he lettered in both football and basketball, earning All-State honors in football.

VERSATYLE: Redshirt junior Ty Groce has proven to be a versatile player on the floor. He is leading the team with 171 points (12.2 ppg). The Ypsilanti, Mich. native has hit double-digits in 10 games during the 2019-20 campaign, and in seven of eight games (10 at UC Irvine, Nov. 30; 23 vs. Valpo, Dec. 3; 16 at Detroit Mercy, Dec. 7; 10 vs. Northeastern, Dec. 17; 12 at UNLV, Dec. 28; 11 vs. Concordia, Dec. 30; 13 vs. Akron, Jan. 4).

Groce has led the Green and White in scoring in eight games this season, including a career-high 23 points versus Valpo, Dec. 3. The guard also posted a career-best in rebounds (11) against UMBC, Nov. 22, in the Jersey Mike's Jamaica Classic, dished out a career-high in assists (5) versus Concordia, Dec. 30, and tied his career-best in blocks (3) at North Texas, Nov. 16.

During the 2018-19 season, Groce finished the season with 160 points and 101 rebounds; numbers that he is on pace to shatter this year, having already grabbed 53 rebounds.

FINDERS KEEPERS: The Eagles currently lead both the nation and Mid-American Conference with 11.4 steals per game. In-state foe Central Michigan is second in the league with 10.0. The Green and White have stolen the ball 160 times this season, including 22 times against Goshen, Nov. 11, which leads the MAC for single-game performances, and 18 times versus Concordia, Dec. 30. The 15 steals against UMBC in the Jamaica Classic, Nov. 22, are tied for the most in Classic history.

Redshirt junior Ty Groce leads the team with 2.0 steals per game (28 this season - ranks fourth in the MAC, followed closely by junior Yeikson Montero's 1.8 steals per game.

Seven players have double-digit steals on the season, which includes EMU's primary starting-five: Groce (26), Montero (21), junior Noah Morgan (21), redshirt senior Boubacar Toure (19), junior Darion Spottsville (17), freshman Chris James (14), and junior Chris Barnes has 11, respectively. Eastern Michigan and Central Michigan are the only schools in the MAC that have seven players with steals in double figures.

SHUT 'EM DOWN: The Green and White ranks second in the MAC and 31st in the nation holding their opponents to 61.3 points per game. Ball State leads the conference in scoring defense (60.9 ppg). The Eagles have held eight opponents to under 55 points in 2019. This fierce defense has outscored the opposition by double-digits in five games this season and is sixth in the MAC with a scoring margin of +5.0.

EMU has topped three opponents by 30+ points in the non-conference portion of its 2019-20 schedule (Siena Heights, Nov. 8; Goshen, Nov. 12; Concordia; Dec. 30). Eastern's largest victory margin was against Goshen when the Eagles won by 52 points (101-49). The 52-point margin is tied for fourth under the Rob Murphy era.

The highest victory margin under Murphy is 62 points when the Eagles defeated Siena Heights, 117-55, Dec. 11, 2016, inside the Convocation Center. This victory margin (+62) and points scored (117) ranks first in the EMU record books.

PRESSURE LEADS TO TURNOVERS: The Eastern Michigan defense is forcing opponents to turn the ball over 19.6 times a game, which leads the MAC and ranks sixth among Division I teams. EMU also holds a +4.1 turnover margin (19.6-15.4), which is good for second in the league and 25th in the NCAA.

Eastern holds a 6-3 mark (nine games) when it forces more opponents turnovers. In addition, the EMU's defensive pressure has forced 20+ opponent turnovers in six games this season.

The Eagles are protecting ball well as they have posted seven games with less than 15 turnovers and two with less than 10.

DARION DISHING DIMES: Junior Darion Spottsville is the general on the court for the Eagles, leading the team with 29 assists (2.1 apg) this season. In the Green and White's contest against Detroit Mercy, Dec. 7, the Phoenix, Ariz. native registered seven of the team's 12 assists in the game. The junior guard has led the team in assists four times this season.

BOXOUT: Eastern Michigan ranks fourth in the MAC in rebounding defense, holding the opposition to 34.6 rebounds per game this season. The league is led by Ohio with 32.7 and then followed by Ball State (33.6) and Northern Illinois (34.5), respectively.

The Eagles have outrebounded their opponents in eighth games this year, including two with a double-digit margin (+23 vs. Goshen, Nov. 12; +16 vs. Michigan-Dearborn, Nov. 14). In the four losses this season, EMU has been outrebounded by 10 or more in three of them (-10 at UC Irvine, Nov.30; -10 at Michigan State, Dec. 21; -20 at UNLV, Dec. 28).

.500 OR BETTER: The Eagles have two players that are shooting 50 percent-or-better from the field. The Green and White are led by redshirt senior Boubacar Toure, hitting at 66.3 percent on 55-of-83 shooting, which ranks among MAC players. The Dakar, Senegal native is followed by junior Jalen King at 58.3 percent (14-of-24).

Toure has shot over 70 percent from the field (min. 7 attempts) in seven games this season. His season-high of 77.8 percent (7-of-9) was hit against Michigan-Dearborn, Nov. 14 and Concordia, Dec. 30.

OVER THE LAST DECADE: Over the last 10 years (2010-2020), Eastern Michigan has won 163 games and 75 Mid-American Conference contests. The Eagles have finished in the top-three of the MAC West Division six times, including a first-place finish when head coach Rob Murphy took the helm during the 2011-12 season.

EMU has been to two CollegeInsider.com Tournaments (2013-14; 2017-18) and one College Basketball Invitational (2014-15) over the last decade, which included two postseason victories (March 18, 2014 vs. Norfolk State, 58-54; March 14, 2018 vs. Niagara, 86-65).

The Eagles have seen six student-athletes join the 1,000-point club (Ray Lee, 1,873; Brandon Bowdry, 1,856; James Thompson IV, 1,823; Carlos Medlock, 1,574; Justin Dobbins, 1,078; Tim Bond, 1,042). Thompson IV (1,452) and Bowdry (1,006) also found their way into the 1,000-rebound club as the only two in EMU history to have reached over 1,000 points and rebounds during their career.

IN HOT PURSUIT: The Eagles started the 2019-20 campaign with 10-3 record; which ranks second under the Rob Murphy era for a 13-game start to a season.

Prior to the UNLV loss, Dec. 28, EMU tied with Coach Murphy's 2014-15 squad for the best 11-game start to a season with a 9-2 record. In that season, the Eagles finished 21-14 overall and 8-10 mark in the Mid-American Conference. EMU eventually fell in the semifinals in the conference tournament and received a bid to the College Basketball Invitational.

However, EMU had its best 10-game opening to a season in the Murphy era before dropping a non-conference affair at Michigan State, Dec. 21, and matched the 1996-97 squad who reached the Mid-American Conference championship game, ultimately losing to Miami.

CREEPING TOWARDS THE POLLS: Eastern Michigan received points for the third-straight week for the Collegen Insider.com Mid-Major Top 25 Poll in its most recent release, the week of Dec. 30. The Eagles earned 21 points this week, 12 points the week of Dec. 23, and 32 during the week of Dec. 16.

The last EMU team to receive votes was the 2018-19 squad, which received 13 points on Dec. 3, 2018. The last time the Eagles cracked into the poll was during the 2017-18 campaign. EMU was ranked in the poll twice, hitting its best spot, No. 22, Nov. 20, 2017.

Three MAC teams have cracked the 2019-20 Mid-Major poll during the week of Dec. 30, with Kent State ranking 11th with Bowling Green and Buffalo ranking 19th and 23rd, respectively. Along with EMU (21 points), two other conference institutions received votes this week: Toledo (46) and Akron (43).

LAST TIME OUT: Eastern Michigan came up short its Mid-American Conference opener, falling 69-45 to Akron, Jan. 4. Redshirt senior Boubacar Toure notched his fourth double-double of the season and 12th of his EMU career as he finished with 11 points and a career-high 17 rebounds. Redshirt junior Ty Groce was the second Eagle to reach double-digits on the score sheet, tallying a team-best 13 points, while adding four boards and a pair of steals.

The Eagles (10-4, 0-1 MAC) struggled mightily on the offensive end, ending the afternoon with a 27.1 percent (13-of-48) field-goal percentage, while the Zips (11-3, 1-0 MAC) finished at a 52.2 percent (24-of-46) efficiency. EMU recorded more steals than Akron (9-6) and out-rebounded its MAC East opposition by a 35-29 margin, turning 16 offensive boards into 15 second-chance points.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE: EMU has won 109 of 143 games at home during the Rob Murphy era, and have started the 2019-20 campaign 6-1 at the Convocation Center. Under coach Murphy, the Eagles have opened the season 6-0 at home in six of his nine seasons as head coach. EMU posted a 7-0 start in the Convo in three seasons (2014-15; 2016-17; 2017-18).

BINELLI IN THE BUILDING: Junior Thomas Binelli has made an impact especially from beyond the arc. The Bologna, Italy native has scored in double-figures in three of his six games played this year. The junior is shooting 34.9 percent from deep and ranks third on the team in triples (15).

Binelli made his EMU debut, Dec. 3, against Valparaiso and immediately made his presence known. He went 3-3 on his first three shots, all from deep. Binelli ended the night 4-of-6, all from beyond the arc, and led the bench in scoring with his 12 points in nine minutes of action.

Less than a month later, Binelli posted another 12-point performance, all from behind the 3-point line against Concordia, Dec. 30. The junior currently averages 7.3 points per game and 2.1 three's a contest.

TWO WILL GIVE YOU 20: Two Eagles scored over 20 points to lead the team to a 85-79 victory, Dec. 3 against Valparaiso. Redshirt junior Ty Groce had a career-best performance to lead the Green and White, scoring 23 points, and hitting 9-of-10 free throws. Junior Noah Morgan was right behind the Ypsilanti, Mich. native, also with a career-high of 21 points and went 9-of-10 from the charity stripe.

The performances by Groce and Morgan was the first time Eastern had two players score 20+ since last season when Paul Jackson and Kevin McAdoo scored 21 and 20, respectively, at Central Michigan, Jan. 29, 2018.

HEATING UP: The Green and White had hot hands Tuesday, Dec. 3 against Valparaiso as they shot 61 percent (27-44) from the field in the contest. The 61 percent is not only a season-high for the Eagles, but also the highest team field-goal percentage in a game this season by any MAC team. Versus the Crusaders, EMU shot 56 percent beyond the arc (9-16), which is tied for the second highest in the league this year.

BRINGING HOME THE HARDWARE: EMU brought home the hardware from Jamaica, as they went 2-0 at the Jersey Mike's Jamaica Classic, Nov. 22-24. This is the first in-season tournament title for Eastern since it won its own event in 2014. The Green and White defeated UMBC, 62-45, Nov. 22, and then claimed victory over North Carolina A&T, 58-54, Nov. 24, to bring the Rose Hall Division Championship to Ypsilanti.

Two Eagles were recognized by the tournament for their performances. Junior Yeikson Montero was selected to the All-Tournament Team in the Rose Hall Division, as he totaled 20 points in the classic, including sinking the game clinching free-throws against North Carolina A&T, Nov. 24. Fellow junior Noah Morgan was the tournament's Most Valuable Player out of the Rose Hall Division. The Mount Vernon, N.Y. native led the team in scoring both games, posting 11 points against UMBC, Nov. 22, and tied his career-high with 12 points against NC A&T, Nov. 24.

MORGAN PRODUCES IN JAMAICA: Junior Noah Morgan led the Eastern Michigan men's basketball team to a 2-0 week and the championship of the Rose Hall Division of the Jersey Mike's Jamaica Classic, Nov. 22-24. Morgan and the Eagles used a strong defensive pressure to force 42 turnovers, while holding both squad's under 55 points. For the week, Morgan averaged 11.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists, and 2.0 steals in 36.0 minutes per contest. Against UMBC, Morgan poured in 11 points (4-of-10 shooting) in 32 minutes. He followed it up with a 12 point, five rebound, three steal performance against North Carolina A&T.

In the four games that Eastern Michigan played as a part of the in-season tournament, Morgan averaged 9.8 points, 3.0 rebounds, and 1.8 steals per contest, while leading the squad with seven three-pointers and 33.8 minutes on the floor. Eastern held its four opponents to just 52.2 points per game while out-scoring them by nearly 10-points a contest. Rob Murphy's team was masterful defensively with an average of 20.8 turnovers forced over the four-game span, while tallying 13.0 steals a game.

WHAT WAS LOST: After losing 1,674 points (75%) and 670 rebounds (89%) of production from the 2018-19 team, EMU is in search of new offensive leaders this season. The top returner in each category from last year's squad is redshirt senior Boubacar Toure (266 points, 243 rebounds), a likely candidate to be a production leader this season. Through 14 games, Toure is averaging 9.5 points, and 8.4 rebounds per game, while shooting 66.3 percent (55-83) from the floor. The redshirt senior's 8.4 rebounds a game is good for fifth in the MAC.

STARTING WITH A WIN: Eastern Michigan has compiled a 73-49 record in season openers over its 122 seasons of basketball, including an 9-1 record in opening games during the Rob Murphy era.

The Eagles beat Siena Heights, Nov. 8, 93-51, to start the 2019-20 season. Junior Ty Groce was one of six players to reach double-digits in points, as he matched his career-high and led the team with 15 points. Additionally, redshirt senior Boubacar Toure contributed 13 points and 10 rebounds en route to his first double-double of the season and the ninth of his EMU career.

SHOWING SOME INTERNATIONAL LOVE: Eastern is showing some international love with two new players joining the team from overseas; juniors Yeikson Montero, from the Dominican Republic, and Thomas Binelli from Italy.

Montero, originally from Santo Domingo, D.R., joins the Eagles by way of Pensacola State. He averaged 13.9 points per game during his two-year run with the Pirates, including a 16.8 average during his final season.

Binelli, from Bologna, Italy, joins EMU from Monroe College. During his two years with the Mustangs, he averaged 11.3 points per game and 4.7 rebounds a contest.

Redshirt senior Boubacar Toure (Dakar, Senegal-Phase One Academy (Grand Canyon)) logged his ninth-career double-double with the Green and White as he notched 13 points and a team-best 10 rebounds, including six on the offensive glass. Redshirt junior Ty Groce (Ypsilanti, Mich.-Lincoln) led EMU with 15 points while adding four boards and a pair of helpers, as fellow redshirt junior Chris Barnes (Compton, Calif.-Compton (Tulsa)) finished with eight points and a team-high six assists off the bench in his EMU debut.

Junior newcomers Yeikson Montero (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic-Redemption Christian Academy (Pensacola State)) and Noah Morgan (Mount Vernon, N.Y.-Mount Vernon (Northwest Florida State)) each tallied 11 points, with the latter contributing five assists. Freshman Chris James (Long Beach, Calif.-St. John Bosco) added 13 points off the bench, going 4-of-5 from downtown along with four boards and a pair of steals, while junior Jalen King (Pasco, Wash.-Kings Academy) notched 10 bench points, four boards, a team-leading three blocks, and two swipes.

EMU finished 57.1 percent (32-of-56) from the floor and made half of its 18 three-point attempts, while holding Siena Heights to a 33.9 percent (19-of-56) efficiency. The Eagles overmatched the Saints in steals (11-1), assists (20-9), points in the paint (44-14), points off turnovers (27-9), fast-break points (18-2), and blocks (6-3). The hosts also went 20-of-24 from the charity stripe, as SHU converted on just 4-of-15 free throw attempts.

The Eagles traded baskets with the Saints through the opening couple of minutes, but the Green and White grabbed the lead for good with 11 unanswered points to make it a 15-6 contest heading into the first media stoppage. EMU continued to pull away from SHU, as back-to-back corner threes from freshman Shamar Dillard (South Bend, Ind.-Riley (SPIRE Institute)) and James gave the hosts a commanding 25-9 lead with 11:59 left in the first half. In all, the Eagles erased an early two-point deficit with a 21-3 run lasting nearly seven minutes, and held a 49-26 advantage at the intermission.

After seven minutes cut EMU's lead to 18 in the second period, the Eagles erupted for a 20-3 run spanning more than seven minutes to jump ahead, 67-37, with 9:31 left in the contest. With the result well in hand, EMU posted a 9-0 run in the waning moments to earn a convincing 42-point win and rise to 5-0 all-time against the Saints.

GAME 4 • Nov. 16, 2019 • UNT Coliseum • Denton, Texas
	Eastern Michigan	56
	North Texas	51

DENTON, Texas, (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team remains undefeated in the 2019-20 campaign after posting a 56-51 victory over the University of North Texas Saturday, Nov. 16, at the UNT Coliseum. The win is the first for EMU in the Lone Star State in six chances under Head Coach Rob Murphy.

The first road test of the year for Eastern (4-0, 0-0 MAC), Murphy's squad fought back from deficits in both halves to defeat North Texas (1-3, 0-0 C-USA), a team that posted 20-plus wins in each of the previous two seasons.

Redshirt junior Ty Groce (Ypsilanti, Mich.-Lincoln) led EMU in scoring with 15 points, while also tallying three blocks and four steals. Groce has now recorded double-digit scoring efforts in three-of-four contests for the Green and White. Joining the Ypsilanti, Mich. native in double-digits was junior Yeikson Montero (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic-Redemption Christian Academy (Pensacola State)) who contributed 14 points, along with four assists and three steals. Montero's points and assist numbers tied career-bests for the first-year Eagle, matching his performances against Goshen, Nov. 12, and Michigan-Dearborn, Nov. 14, respectively. Redshirt senior Boubacar Toure (Dakar, Senegal-Phase One Academy (Grand Canyon)) pulled down a team leading eight rebounds and added two steals, anchoring a defensive effort that held the Mean Green to its second-lowest point total of the season.

As a team, Eastern Michigan shot 40.8 percent (20-49), while North Texas hit 37.5 percent from the field (18-48). Despite being out-rebounded, 34-31, and outscored in the paint, 20-18. The Green and White were able to collect 13 steals in the contest, helping to stifle the North Texas offensive attack.

The Eagles went back-and-forth with UNT the entire contest. Up one, 23-22, with just over one minute to play in the first half, Eastern used back-to-back triples by Montero and Groce to extend its lead to seven, 29-22, the score that would remain heading into the break.

EMU was met by a rejuvenated North Texas squad out of the first half recess. The Mean Green hit three shots in-a-row to pull ahead, 33-32, five minutes into the half. The two teams went on to trade punches for the middle portion of the second half, as evident by the knotted score, 38-38, with 10:32 remaining. With 7:48 left in the contest, Montero hit a trey to put the Eagles up by five, 46-41. UNT battled for the remainder of the contest, but EMU proved too powerful in the end.

GAME 9 • Dec. 7, 2019 • Calihan Hall • Detroit, Mich.
	Eastern Michigan	55
	Detroit Mercy	51

DETROIT, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team battled on the road to defeat the University of Detroit Mercy, 55-51, Saturday, Dec. 7, in non-conference action inside historic Calihan Hall.

The Eagles (8-1, 0-0 MAC) led the Detroit Mercy Titans (1-7, 0-0 HL) for the entire contest and led by as many as 13 points in the game. The Titans fought back in the second half, pulling to within four with 1:15 left in the game, but the Eagles defense closed out the contest.

The Eagles started the game hot by going on a 6-0 run with two lobs for dunks by redshirt senior Boubacar Toure (Dakar, Senegal-Phase One Academy (Grand Canyon)) and redshirt junior Ty Groce (Ypsilanti, Mich.-Lincoln). EMU led by as many as 13 in the first half and were led by junior Yeikson Montero (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic-Redemption Christian Academy (Pensacola State)) who scored 13 in the half, shooting 3-of-4 from deep. Groce was close behind, scoring 10 in the first half to go along with his five rebounds and two steals. A late 9-2 run by Detroit Mercy cut the Green and White's lead down to six. Eastern withstood the storm by the Titans with back-and-forth buckets to enter halftime still up by four.

Eastern continued to push in the second half, hitting 5-of-6 shots out of the break. On the defensive side of the ball, EMU held the Titans scoreless for 3:56, and allowed them to hit only 1-of-10 to start the second half. However, the Titans would not go away, going on a 5-0 run and pulling within four. UDM would not back down as they hit a three with 1.9 seconds left, but it was not enough as Eastern finished the game ahead, 55-51.

EMU closed out the game with Montero leading the way with a career-high 16 points, shooting 3-of-5 from deep and 5-of-6 from the charity stripe, while Groce also put up 16. The Ypsilanti, Mich. native shot 6-of-8 from the field, and added three steals and a block. Toure chipped in eight points with 10 rebounds and four blocks, which ties his career-high for the seven-foot center. The Eagles finished shooting 46.3 percent from the field and held UDM to shooting 23.3 percent. The Green and White also outscored the Titans in the paint, 24-9, as well as in points off turnovers, where Eastern bested Detroit Mercy 21-17.

GAME 10 ■ DEC. 17, 2019 ■ Convocation Center ■ Ypsilanti, Mich.

	Northeastern	55
	Eastern Michigan	60

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team needed all 40 minutes to tame Northeastern University when the two teams met for a Tuesday evening clash at the Convocation Center, Dec. 17. A down-to-the-wire affair, EMU eventually pulled away and won the contest, 60-55. Red hot to start the 2019-20 campaign, the victory propelled Eastern to a tie for a program-best 9-1 start to the season, marking the first time EMU has accomplished that feat since the 1996-97 season.

Tied at 48 with 4:25 left to play, Eastern (9-1) closed the game on a 12-7 run, outlasting its scrappy Colonial Athletic Association-competition to stay undefeated on the Convocation Center Floor.

The Eagles were led by junior Noah Morgan (Mount Vernon, N.Y.-Mount Vernon (Northwest Florida State)), who contributed a team-high 19 points on 7-of-15 shooting. The Mount Vernon, N.Y. native scored in double-digits for the seventh time this season. Teammate Ty Groce (Ypsilanti, Mich.-Lincoln), a redshirt junior forward, added 10 points and tied for the team lead with six boards.

Used to showing off its nationally ranked defense, it was the Eastern Michigan offense that began the game on a high note, as it took the Eagles just 27 seconds to get on the board. Morgan opened the scoring effort, cruising through the lane for a quick bucket on EMU's first possession. A back-and-forth bout in the first half, the Eagles trailed by four, 17-13, before making their best run of the opening stanza, a 12-point sprint to go ahead eight, 25-17. The run was initiated by a five-point stretch from Yeikson Montero (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic-Redemption Christian Academy (Pensacola State)). The junior guard drained a triple before swiping a Huskie pass and finishing at the other end.

Defensively, the Eagles remained disciplined. Another Huskie turnover led to an easy two-hand slam by EMU big man, redshirt senior center Boubacar Toure (Dakar, Senegal-Phase One Academy (Grand Canyon)). Up 18-17, Montero drew a charge to give EMU yet another possession. This time, it was junior sharpshooter Thomas Binelli (Bologna, Italy-Bergen Catholic (Monroe College)) that took advantage, draining a triple to extend the Eagle advantage, 21-17.

Despite falling down by eight, 25-17, Northeastern showed resolve, going on an 12-4 run of its own to tie the game at 29 apiece with 18 ticks left in the half. In all, the first frame featured five ties and eight lead changes. Despite the scoring swings, EMU took a two-point lead into the break, 31-29.

Out of the locker room, it was the Eagles that again struck first. Picking up where he left off in the first half, Morgan scored the first bucket in the final frame, putting the Eagles up four, 33-29, in the early going.

After another Binelli three extended EMU's lead to 43-37 with just over 10 minutes remaining, the Huskies again fought back and reclaimed the lead, 45-44. Undeterred, EMU struck back in its ensuing possession, when Toure again finished with a powerful dunk to give the Eagles the advantage, 46-45.

Although Northeastern tied the game with 18 seconds left, 48-48, the Eagles proved too strong, retaking the lead for good courtesy of a Groce put-back, 50-48, with 4:24 remaining in the game. The Huskies showed fight, but EMU eventually claimed the five-point win.

With the Green and White in front by a 17-8 margin, Binelli made a pair of triples as part of a 14-0 EMU run that built a 31-8 cushion with 9:46 to go in the first half.

The Eagles made quick work of their Washtenaw County counterparts, at one stage going on a 23-4 run to open up a 40-12 advantage with 5:38 to go in the first period. Morgan and Binelli went on to hit back-to-back triples to make it 55-22 with 1:57 remaining in the opening frame.

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – The Eastern Michigan University men's basketball team came up short in its Mid-American Conference opener, falling 69-45 to the University of Akron Saturday, Jan. 4, inside the Convocation Center.

Redshirt senior Boubacar Toure (Dakar, Senegal-Phase One Academy (Grand Canyon)) notched his fourth double-double of the season and 12th of his EMU career as he finished with 11 points and a career-high 17 rebounds. He also contributed an assist and a steal while leading the Green and White with 33 minutes of game action.

Redshirt junior Ty Groce (Ypsilanti, Mich.-Lincoln) was the second Eagle to reach double-digits on the score sheet, tallying a team-best 13 points while adding four boards and a pair of steals. From there, junior Noah Morgan (Mount Vernon, N.Y.-Mount Vernon (Northwest Florida State)) added six points, five boards, and a pair of helpers, while fellow junior Yeikson Montero (Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic-Redemption Christian Academy (Pensacola State)) recorded four points and showed a team-best three assists and four swipes.

The Eagles (10-4, 0-1 MAC) struggled mightily on the offensive end, ending the afternoon with a 27.1 percent (13-of-48) field-goal percentage, while the Zips (11-3, 1-0 MAC) finished at a 52.2 percent (24-of-46) efficiency. EMU recorded more steals than Akron (9-6) and out-rebounded its MAC East opposition by a 35-29 margin, turning 16 offensive boards into 15 second-chance points.

After Akron senior Tyler Cheese sank a pair of free throws to open the scoring, Morgan grabbed an offensive rebound and set up Toure on a layup to knot the score at two with 18:08 left in the first half. The Eagles prevented the Zips from making a field goal until senior Xeyrius Williams knocked down a triple to give the visitors a 5-2 lead with 16:20 left in the first frame, but Groce responded with a corner three on EMU's next possession to make it a 5-5 game with 15:42 left in the period.

Although the Eagles pulled down 11 offensive rebounds during the opening stanza, they struggled to keep pace with the Zips during the opening half. In total, the visitors connected on eight triples in the first half to open up a 38-20 lead heading into the locker room.

The Green and White started the second half on a positive note, starting the frame on an 8-2 run lasting more than four-and-a-half minutes. Still behind by double-figures, Morgan made both of his free-throw attempts to cut the deficit to 52-38 with 8:19 left in regulation, but Akron continued to pull away and left Washtenaw County with a perfect start to its MAC slate.
