FRED CASTRO

HEAD COACH ~ SIXTH SEASON AT EMU
OKLAHOMA, 2004

Fred Castro begins his sixth season at the helm of the EMU women's basketball program in 2021-22. A rising star in coaching, Castro has spent the past 19 years climbing the ranks from student manager to now the eighth head coach in EMU program history. During his career, he has worked tirelessly to learn and has held nearly every position within a women's basketball program including serving as offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator, video coordinator, and travel coordinator.

Castro has been a part of 10 squads that have participated in the postseason since the 2001-02 campaign, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament Final Four. In 19 years of coaching, his teams have combined to post a 348-233 record (.599 winning percentage) and eight seasons of 20-or-more victories.

Last season, Castro led the program through the unprecedented challenges that came as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. Despite numerous cancellations and season-altering factors outside the team's control, the Eagles were still able to produce a 10-10 record, including a 7-7 mark in conference play, which qualified the team for play in the annual Mid-American Conference Tournament in Cleveland, Ohio. Season highlights included Eastern's upset road win over Central Michigan, Jan. 20, as well as 69-66 triumph over MAC East Division-foe Ohio University. As a unit, The Eagles allowed just 62.2 points per game in 2020-21, which was the best of any team in the league. EMU's field goal percentage defense was also first, as opponents shot just 37.1 percent against the Green and White.

Individually, Castro helped guide two Eagles to postseason honors in redshirt senior Areanna Combs and redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes. Combs collected Second Team All-MAC honors, and was also named to the MAC All-Defensive Team. 2020-21 marked consecutive seasons that Combs had been recognized on those teams, as she was named to both respective lists following the 2019-20 season. In 2019-20, she became the first EMU women's player to earn either honor since the 2015-16 campaign when Cha Sweeney and Janay Morton were honored in the two categories, respectively. Combs is just the second Eagle in program history to earn all-defensive honors, and brings home the school's 18th nod on the Second Team All-MAC list in 2020-21.

Skanes, playing for the first time during the 2020-21 season after transferring to EMU at the beginning of the 2019-20 campaign, collected Third Team All-MAC honors for her outstanding play this season. She is the eighth player in program history to collect the recognition, and first since Danielle Minott did it in 2017-18.

Castro has also established one of the most successful transfer destinations in the Mid-American Conference. Eight current Eagles began their careers elsewhere before finding a home in Ypsilanti, including three that came to EMU after stints at traditional "Power Five" institutions. Additionally, many of the transfers were earning significant minutes at their previous institutions, and had earned all-conference recognition. Combs and Skanes are two players that fall within that category. In 2019-20, Castro led the Eagles to their first winning season during his tenure, patrolling the squad that finished with a 16-15 overall record, including a 9-9 mark in conference play. Castro's best win to date came in the team's final appearance during the 2019-20 campaign, when it bested the No. 2 overall seed, Ball State, in the MAC Tournament quarterfinal round. Unfortunately, the team's semifinal game was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Individually, Castro oversaw the impressive development of redshirt senior guard Areanna Combs. Combs competed in 24 games for the Green and White during the 2019-20 campaign, scoring in double figures in each of them. Combs was one of just two players in the conference to accomplish such a feat. Additionally, she finished in the league's top-10 in points per game with her 17.8 average.

In addition to his on court contributions to the game, Castro also joined Coaches 4 Change, a platform derived from recent social injustices and advocating for change through teaching and empowering their student-athletes. Castro is joined by two other former EMU women's basketball assistant coaches, Texas Christian's Abi Olajuwon, and Minnesota's Carly Thibault-DuDonis, as part of the 49-member group.

In 2018-19, Castro and company proved to be one of the top defenses in the Mid-American Conference. Overall, the Eagles tallied 84 blocks, the 10th-most in EMU single-season history, while ranking in the top-five in the conference in field goal percentage defense (39.6 - fourth), scoring defense (65.1 - fourth), steals per game (8.2 - fourth), and turnovers forced (16.81 - fourth).

Individually, Castro and company coached 2019 senior Danielle Minott to an All-MAC Honorable Mention nod, making her just the sixth Eagle in program history to earn All-MAC honors multiple times in a career. A MAC Player of the Week selection, Minott set the Convocation Center record for points scored when she poured in 43 against Buffalo, Jan. 9, 2019. For her career, Minott finished her two-year career ranked 30th in scoring with 892 points. The Green and White also saw the emergence of Corriore Cardwell and Jenna Annechiarico. Cardwell put together a career year, blowing her freshman year marks out of the water and scoring the seventh-most points (402) by an EMU sophomore all-time. Meanwhile, Annechiarico dished out a team-best 100 assists, the second-most by an Eastern freshman in two decades, while also becoming the first freshman to lead the MAC in assist-to-turnover ratio since the 2005-06 season.

Castro's squad left its mark in the EMU record book during the 2017-18 campaign. Collectively, the Eagles scored the ninth-most points in program history (2,150) and made the seventh-most field goals (810) in EMU laurels in large part to the impact of Castro's first recruiting class.

Under the tutelage of Castro and his staff, Danielle Minott and Courtne Lewis reeled in postseason accolades. Minott, a two-time MAC West Player of the Week honoree, was named to the All-MAC Third Team after an outstanding first season in Ypsilanti. Minott rewrote the record book with an electric performance against the University at Buffalo, Jan. 27, breaking the program record with 44 points. She also knocked down 14 shots, the seventh-most in EMU history in the Eagles' overtime battle against the Bulls. For the season, Minott finished fifth in points by an EMU junior and ranked 13th in EMU annals with 483 points scored. Meanwhile, Lewis pieced together one of the best freshman seasons in EMU history. An All-MAC Honorable Mention and a MAC All-Freshmen Team selection, Lewis scored the second-most points by a freshman in EMU history, while finishing the season top-10 nationally among freshmen in points per game. Her 435 points also ranked as the 21st-most in EMU single-season history overall, while her three-point percentage (.405) was eighth-best at Eastern Michigan. Lewis also became the only freshman in the country to hold shooting percentages of at least 44-40-75 (field goal-three-point-free throw).

The Eagles also saw the careers of four seniors come to a close, most notably Sasha Dailey. Dailey finished her time in the Green and White ranked second in games played (131), tied for fifth in steals (243), seventh in field goal attempts (1,306), tied for 10th in field goals made (507) and steals average (1.9), and 15th in minutes played (3,018) and scoring (1,247). She finished her career as one of three players in program history to have scored at least 1,000 points, grabbed 350-or-more rebounds, and racked up 200+ steals.

In his first season leading the Eagles, Castro coached Phillis Webb to the best season of her career. Webb posted career-highs in points (454), rebounds (261), free throws made (75), three-pointers (37), field goals (171), and minutes (1,076). The Brooklyn Park, Minn. native also became just the seventh player in Eastern Michigan University women's basketball history to grab 700 rebounds and score 1,000 points in their career, eclipsing both marks under the guidance of Castro.

Castro came to Ypsilanti following a three year stint in Seattle as an assistant coach with the University of Washington, in which Huskies posted a 69-35 record and a trip to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Final Four. He worked with the guards and acted as the team's offensive coordinator as the Huskies defeated 14 top-25 programs during his tenure.

A storybook 2015-16 campaign saw Washington post a 26-11 record and the program's first Final Four appearance. Dealing with a short bench due to injuries, the Huskies utilized a six-woman rotation as it tore through the NCAA Tournament, including beating No. 4 Stanford, 85-76, to win the South Regional. Washington finished the year ranked in the top 50 in 11 statistical categories including: free throws made (521 - 6th), free throw percentage (78.0% - 6th), three-pointers made (271 - 17th) and rebounds (1,437 - 23rd).

Castro tutored USBWA All-America honoree Kelsey Plum, who was fourth in the nation in scoring at 25.9 points per game, while leading the country in total points with 960. In addition to her scoring prowess, Plum averaged 3.7 rebounds and 4.2 assists, while leading the nation in both free throws made (266) and attempted (299). The junior guard broke the Washington record for points in a season, while also setting the Pacific-12 Conference record for career free throws made.

He arrived at Washington from the University of Tulsa where he served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-13. When Castro arrived at Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane were coming off just five wins, but in 2013 they won the Conference USA Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Castro helped put together a pair of top-50 recruiting classes at Tulsa, while also assisting with on-floor coaching, including practice planning, player development, and scouting. His final recruiting class was ranked 39th nationally and fourth amongst mid-majors.

In 2012, Castro was first invited to the Nike Villa 7 Clinic for the top 30 assistant coaches in the country. He attended the clinic yearly from 2012-15.

In addition to Castro's duties at Tulsa, he worked as an advance scout for the WNBA's Atlanta Dream.

Castro worked as an assistant coach at the University of Albany during the 2010-11 season. He was responsible for on-the-floor coaching, game scouting, recruiting, game scheduling and served as the liaison to academic and athlete support services. Castro helped coach the Great Danes to their first winning season since becoming a Division I program in 1999.

Prior to his stint at Albany, Castro was an assistant coach at Mercer University for two seasons (2008-10), where he helped coach the second-best turnaround in the country during the 2008-09 season with a 17-13 record, improving from the 2007-08 season by 12 wins, and earn the No. 2 seed in the Atlantic Sun Conference a year later.

Castro was an advance scout for the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx in 2009-10.

Previously, Castro was an assistant men's basketball coach at Rogers State University, an NAIA program in the Sooner Athletic Conference, during its inaugural season in 2007-08 where they went 20-11.

He also held various positions for the University of Oklahoma women's basketball program from 2001-07, including video/travel coordinator (2005-07), volunteer coach (2004-05) and manager/scout team player (2001-04). While with the Sooners, Castro was part of six consecutive NCAA Tournament teams, including a Final Four squad in 2002 and back-to-back Sweet Sixteen teams. Oklahoma captured four Big 12 Conference Tournament championships and three regular-season crowns as well during his time on campus.

Castro, who hails from Denton, Texas, is a graduate of Oklahoma with a bachelor's degree in aviation, and was an instructor in the Aviation Department in 2004-05.

He and his wife, Cindy, have a daughter, Aliya and a son, Alonzo.

CLOSING IN ON WEBB: Senior Courtne Lewis, a veteran for the Eagles and 1,000-point club member, is moving up the all-time point list at EMU. Lewis boasts 1,119 career points, good for 20th in program history. She sits just behind former Eagle Phillis Webb, who produced 1,125 points between 2013-17. EMU great Tavelyn James (2008-2012) owns the top spot in program history, having accumulated 2,470 career points.

BEHIND THE LINE: Eastern Michigan hit 40 percent (8-of-20) of its shots from deep against Ball State, Jan. 12. The game was the fourth this season that EMU has hit the 40 percent mark. Last season, Eastern only accomplished the feat one time.

PAINTING THE STAT SHEET: EMU dropped 32 points in the paint on Ball State, Jan. 12, the fifth time this season the team has notched at least 30 paint points in a game.

FOUR CAN SCORE: EMU got 10+ points from four different Eagles in its last contest, Jan. 12. The game was the fifth this season of the sort and second in-a-row for the club.

GIVE ME 50: Eastern shot 50.8 percent (27-for-53) from the floor against Ball State, Jan. 12. The game was the second this season in which EMU shot better than 50 percent (66.7% - vs. Grace Christian, Nov. 18).

TURNING THEM AWAY: EMU forced 18 turnovers against Ball State, Jan. 12. For the Cardinals, 18 turnovers is tied for the second-most in a game this season. The Eagles have been disruptive all season, causing opponents to commit 16 turnovers per game. The game against BSU also marked the seventh time this season Eastern forced 15-or-more turnovers against a Division I team.

THE FIRST 20 MATTERS: Eastern Michigan's first-half play has been largely illustrative of the team's win-loss record this season. All four of Eastern's wins have seen the Eagles take a lead into the intermission, while each of the squad's six setbacks has included a halftime deficit. In the Eagles' 80-60 win over Central Michigan, the Green and White scored 44 points in the first half, their most against a Division I institution this season.

EMU is 40-15 in games in which it held a halftime lead since the onset of the 2016-17 season, and 17-75 in games where it has trailed at the break in that same span.

PLAYING DISCIPLINED: Eastern has been one of the most disciplined teams in the country in the early portion of the 2021-22 season. The Eagles are second in the MAC and rank 38th in the country in fewest fouls (173). Additionally, EMU ranks first in the league and 26th nationally in fewest turnovers (159).

HIGH PERCENTAGE SHOTS: Eastern has been one of the best shooting teams in the nation this season. The Eagles have hit 44.7 percent (264-of-590) of their shots from the field this season, good for second in the league and 47th nationally. EMU's current best mark under Head Coach Fred Castro came in the 2017-18 campaign when the Green and White shot 40.1 percent from the floor for the season.

LIKE BONNIE AND CLYDE: Eastern Michigan's defense has been full of thievery this season. The Green and White are sixth in the league, averaging 9.2 steals per contest. That number is on track to be the second-best mark under Fred Castro (2016-Pres.). The 2017-18 EMU squad racked up 9.7 steals per contest.

JUICE IN JANUARY: January has been a month-of-moving for EMU under Head Coach Fred Castro. The Eagles have picked up 20 wins during the New Year month since 2017, the most in any month for the team during that span. EMU has finished with a winning record (5-3) three times during that stretch (2018, 2020, 2021).

Additionally, the month has been the best for the program as a whole. EMU has 167 total wins in the month of January, more than any other month.

DEEP THOUGHTS: EMU boasts a three-point percentage of 36.1 in 10 games this season. In the same stretch last year, the Eagles were hitting just 26.2 percent. The 36.1% mark from beyond-the-arc ranks second in the Mid-American Conference and 23rd in the nation. Meanwhile, the team is seventh in the league in three-pointers made per contest at 6.9.

There were only two games last season where the Green and White shot 35 percent-or-better from deep (at Southeast Missouri State, 40.0%, Dec. 6, 2020; vs. Toledo, 39.3%, Feb. 21). So far this season, Eastern has sunk 35 percent-or better in the category in six of 10 games.

First poll ranking is the Associated Press and the second number is the ESPN/USA Today poll

TWENTY PIECE: Redshirt senior Areanna Combs remains the Eagles' top-scoring threat as the guard dropped 23 points against Ball State, Jan. 12. For Combs, her performance against the Cardinals marked her second 20-point outing this season and 21st while donning the Green and White.

DEATH, TAXES, DOUBLE DIGITS: If one thing is as certain as can be, it's that Areanna Combs will score 10+ points. Including her 10 performances of the nature this season, Combs has now recorded double-digit scoring efforts in 52 of her 54 career games with the Green and White (96.3%). That number is the highest percentage in the Mid-American Conference.

COOKIES: Redshirt senior Areanna Combs ranks fourth in the MAC in steals per game (2.7) and fifth in total steals (27) this season. Her steals per game average is the 30th-best mark in the nation. Combs set a career-high with 10 steals against Grace Christian, Nov. 18, to help her achieve her first ever triple-double (12 points, 11 assists, 10 steals).

SKILLED SKANES: Redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes has been skilled around the basket this season for the Eagles, leading the Mid-American Conference in field goal percentage 54.9% (50-of-91). Her efficiency this year surpasses her work last year, finishing the 2020-2021 season shooting 49.4% (119-of-241) from the floor. Skanes has shot over 50% from the floor in six outings so far this season, highlighted by a season-best percentage of 70% (7-for-10) against Ball State, Jan. 12.

WHEN IT RAINS, IT POURS: EMU has put an emphasis on the three-ball this year, and no one member of the Green and White has been better than redshirt senior Danielle Rainey.

Rainey has hit 32-of-71 (45.1%) from downtown and has hit at least three shots from beyond the arc in eight contests.

The Washington, D.C. native's three-point percentage is No. 2 in the MAC and 16th in the nation. Rainey is third in the league in treys made per game (3.2), good for seventh in the country.

LAST TIME AGAINST KENT STATE

Jan. 2, 2021 • Convocation Center • Ypsilanti, Mich.
	Kent State	67
	Eastern Michigan	61

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) – Although basketball was the sport being played, the atmosphere inside Eastern Michigan University's Convocation Center felt more like a heavyweight bout as EMU's women's basketball team sparred with Kent State University in Mid-American Conference action today, Jan. 2. Despite impressive individual efforts across the board, it was the Golden Flashes who came out on top, 67-61, in Ypsilanti.

With the setback, Eastern (4-4, 1-2 MAC) moves to 4-4 on the season and drops to one game under the .500 ledger in conference play. For Kent State (4-2, 3-0 MAC), the victory moves them to an impressive 3-0 mark in league play, and moves it to 7-1 over EMU in the last eight matchups between the squads.

EMU was led by impressive play from a number of individuals, but none was better than redshirt senior guard Areanna Combs (Oklahoma City, Okla.-Putnam City West (Oklahoma State)), who finished the game with a season-high 29 points on 9-of-25 shooting. She also knocked in 11-of-13 free throws while recording seven boards and four steals. Combs was joined in her efforts by junior guard Natalia Pineda (Miami, Fla. – John. A. Ferguson), who also turned in a season-best point total (10). The Miami native was dialed-in for the entirety of the game as she hit 3-of-4 shots, including a 2-for-2 mark from downtown. Redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes (Oklahoma City, Okla.-Putnam City West (Florida International)) was outstanding as well. Her 14-point, 11-rebound performance is her conference-leading fourth double-double of the season.

The EMU defense was strong out of the gate as it forced Kent State into a shot with just two seconds on the shot clock and immediately thereafter forced a three-in-the-key call. Kent did get on the board first via two shots from the charity stripe, but Combs quickly answered with a superb up-and-under move of her own to knot the game at 2-2. The two teams played with an inside-out approach at the onset of the game, as the contest's first 11 points came inside the paint or from the free throw line.

The game's first momentum swing came prior to the first media timeout. Although it started 1-for-3 from the floor, EMU fell victim to just 1-for-5 shooting over its next six attempts. Kent subsequently hit 4-of-5 shots, which enabled it to take a 12-7 lead with 4:30 remaining. Resilient yet, the Eastern defense forced a shot clock violation in the first possession after the breather. Down, 14-9, Skanes finished a challenging shot through contact, and finished the three-point play with a free-throw make. That play happened with just over two minutes remaining in the quarter. Pineda got in on the action just seconds later when she stole a Kent State in-bound attempt and went the length of the floor to score an and-one. That bucket put the Eagles ahead, 15-14. With Eastern again down, 18-15, a few moments later, it was Pineda who came through again. She nailed a three to tie the game at 18-all with under one minute remaining in the quarter.

Neither team could find the bottom of the net as play began in the second. Eastern cracked the 1:56 scoring drought first when Combs hit three at the line. Those shots gave Eastern its largest lead of the game, five points, 23-18. Combs was the impact player of the half. She finished with 15 points, the best total of any player in a half this season, to keep Eastern within five, 34-29, at the break.

Whereas the game began with stellar defense, the beginning of the third quarter featured at-will scoring. The Eagles and Golden Flashes traded 16 points, eight-apiece, in just four minutes out of the intermission. After falling behind by nine, 42-33, with seven minutes remaining in the third, the Eagles put together a short run of their own to pull within three, 42-39. Undeterred, Kent State regained traction and took a double-digit lead, 50-39, with three minutes left. Unwilling to quit, Eastern was able to score five of the final seven points to cut the margin in five, 52-47.

The first two minutes of the fourth quarter were pivotal as Eastern was able to sustain the momentum it had built at the tail end of the third. Leading the charge was none other than Combs, who scored five straight points to pull the Green and White within one, 52-51, with eight minutes left to play. Kent State quickly added a layup, a free throw, and a deep three to go ahead by five, 58-53. Although there was still plenty of time left to complete the comeback, the triple make with 5:50 on the clock switched the momentum back in favor of the Golden Flashes, which it never gave back. Kent went on to build the lead back to seven before closing the game out with a six-point margin of victory, 67-61.

Most recently, the Green and White dished out 12 assists against Ball State, Jan. 12, five of which came from Combs. Additionally, EMU has recorded 14-or-more assists in three games this season. Eastern achieved 14-or-more assists a total of three times in the entire 2020-21 season.

CAN'T LET THEM SCORE 70: Although many factors contribute to the end result of a game, one thing is for certain; 70 is kryptonite for Eastern Michigan. Last season, the team went 0-4 when allowing 70 points in a game. The team is 0-4 in 2021-22. Moreover, EMU is 8-60 when allowing 70+ points since the start of the 2016-17 season.

RING CHASING: Eastern is in search of its first conference championship since 2012. That year, the Eagles captured both the MAC West and MAC Tournament titles.

As a program, EMU has claimed four division crowns (2004, 2006, 2008, 2012) and two tournament championships (2004, 2012).

ON THE HORIZON: Eastern Michigan will not play again until Saturday, Jan. 22, when Northern Illinois comes to town. EMU was scheduled to play at Western Michigan Tuesday, Jan. 19. That game has been rescheduled to February due to COVID-19-related circumstances.

SATURDAY NIGHT FIVE: Eastern Michigan saw five Eagles score in double-digits against the Chippewas, Jan. 8: redshirt seniors Areanna Combs (16) and Danielle Rainey (15), redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes (14), freshman Lachelle Austin (11), and senior Courtnie Lewis (11). The last time EMU had five-or-more players score in double-digits against a Division I opponent was against Miami University, Jan. 15, 2020.

DOUBLE-DIPPING THE CHIPS: The Eagles have now won two-straight games over Central Michigan, dropping the Chippewas 80-60, Jan. 8, and 70-67, Jan. 20, 2021. This marked the first time since the 2014-15 season in which the Green and White have bested CMU twice in-a-row. Prior to the last two victories over Central, Eastern had dropped 13 consecutive matchups.

USE THE FORCE: EMU forced 20 turnovers against CMU, Jan. 8. For the Chippewas, 20 turnovers is tied for the second-most in a game this season. The game against Central also marked the second time this season Eastern forced 20-or-more turnovers against a Division I team, the other was against Detroit Mercy, Nov. 13, 2021 (20 turnovers).

CHASING 200: The Eastern Michigan women's basketball program has racked up 197 total wins inside the George Gervin GameAbove Center (renamed Dec. 11, 2021) since it opened for play in the 1998-1999 season. EMU can get to 200 all-time with seven home wins this season. The Eagles have averaged just over six wins at home each season since 2016-17, but have twice hit nine home wins.

AT LAST: Eastern Michigan broke a 26-day hiatus when it took on Toledo, Jan. 5, in the Glass City. That stretch (Dec. 10 through Jan. 4) was the largest in-season break between games in program history.

JUANITA'S HUSTLE: Redshirt junior Juanita Agosto had a profound impact on the court versus Central Michigan, Jan. 8. In 23 minutes of play, the guard scored eight points, recorded five rebounds, and had a pair of assists and steals. Moreover, the Seattle, Wash. native was +31 on the afternoon. Her plus-31 outing is the highest of any Eagle against a Division I opponent this season. Additionally, the +31 performance translates to +51.88 per 40 minutes of action.

FIRST YEAR, FIRST DOUBLE-DOUBLE: It only took seven games for "true" freshman Lachelle Austin to record her first double-double, dropping 12 points and hauling in 10 rebounds against Binghamton, Dec. 10. The Redford, Mich. native scored six of Eastern's final 18 points in the 66-62 win for the Eagles.

Austin's performance makes her the fourth member of the Green and White to record a double-double this season, joining redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes, redshirt senior Areanna Combs, and redshirt junior Juanita Agosto.

YOU READ IT RIGHT: EMU put up a program-record 133 points against Grace Christian, Nov. 18. The effort is the second-best by any team in the NCAA this season (Stephen F. Austin - 137 vs. Arlington Baptist, Nov. 20).

DOUBLE, DOUBLE-DOUBLE: EMU saw two players have double-doubles in the same game for the 30th time in program history, Nov. 18. Areanna Combs and Juanita Agosto recorded the accomplishment.

QUITE THE DIFFERENCE: EMU defeated GCU, 133-45. The 88-point margin of victory is the largest in program history (record kept since 1998). Prior to the game on Nov. 18, EMU had not won a contest by 30+ points since defeating Olivet College, 95-38, Nov. 8, 2019. That game was also the last, prior to the contest against Grace Christian, in which EMU had put up 20+ points in each quarter of play.

Additionally, the effort was the first 100+-point game for Eastern since it put up 104 against Madonna, Dec. 18, 2015.

RECORD-SETTING EFFORT: EMU set a program record in field goal percentage at 66.7% (54-of-81), against Grace Christian, Nov. 18. That number topped the previous record of 62.5%, which was set at Chicago State, Dec. 19, 1998. Additionally, the effort was the best by any team that has ever played in the GGGA Center.

HECK OF A HALF: The 71 points by the Eagles in the first half of its game against Grace Christian is the second-most in program history, falling just short of the 72 points the Eagles put up in a game against Marygrove, Nov. 14, 2011.

BIG BUCKETS: The 54 made field goals against GCU, Nov. 18, is the second most all-time at the George Gervin GameAbove Center, just behind the 57 made shots EMU recorded against KSU-Tuscarawas, Nov. 14, 2014.

STEAL THE DEAL: EMU recorded 26 swipes in its most recent game, against Grace Christian, Nov. 18. That number, the third-most in GGGA Center history, is the second most by any team in the MAC in a single game this season (WMU - 31 vs. Olivet, Nov. 23).

CAREER-NIGHT FOR COMBS: Redshirt senior Areanna Combs recorded a triple-double for the first time in her career in EMU's 133-45 win over Grace Christian University, Nov. 18. Combs produced 12 points, 11 assists, and 10 steals to become the fourth player in program history to achieve a triple-double, joining former Eagles Stephanie Smiley (11 points, 14 rebounds, 12 assists - Jan. 26, 2000), Ryan Coleman (21 points, 10 rebounds, 10 assists - Feb. 12, 2005), and Cassie Schrock (11 points, 10 rebounds, 12 assists - Nov. 16, 2009). Additionally, her triple-double marked just the seventh of the year in by any player in the Division I ranks.

The Oklahoma City native's assists (11) and steals (10) are both career-highs.

THE RIDICULOUS SIX: Eastern Michigan saw six players score in double-digits in the team's 133-45 victory over Grace Christian, Nov. 18 in redshirt senior Danielle Rainey (21), freshman Treasure Thompson (20), redshirt senior Areanna Combs (12), redshirt junior Juanita Agosto (12), freshman ZaNiya Nelson (11), and redshirt senior Courtne Lewis (11).

The scoring frenzy against the Tigers marked the first time the Eagles had five players reach double-digits in scoring since falling to Akron in double overtime, 88-81, Feb. 1, 2020.

ROARING 20s: Freshman Treasure Thompson and redshirt senior Danielle Rainey scored 20 points apiece in EMU's 133-45 win over GCU, Nov. 18. Both numbers are career-highs for the members of the Green and White.

The duo's 20-plus point performances were also the first since former Eagle Corrione Cardwell and then-sophomore Courtne Lewis both put up 20 at Western Michigan, Feb. 23, 2019.

BIG NIGHT FOR NITA: It took 80 games, but redshirt junior Juanita Agosto achieved her first career double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds against Grace Christian University, Nov. 18. Agosto's double-digit scoring outing was her first since dropping 11 on Western Michigan, Feb. 8, 2020. Additionally, the Seattle native paced the team in rebounding against the Tigers, the 10th time in her career that she's led the team in the category.

CAREER-HIGH FOR SKANES: Areanna Combs is not the only player who has shown an increased awareness for passing the rock this year. Redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes dished out a career-best three helpers against Detroit Mercy, Nov. 16.

REMEMBER THE TITANS: With its 76-66 victory over Detroit Mercy, Nov. 13, Eastern has now won four-straight over the Titans. For EMU, the winning streak is the best stretch for either team in the series during the modern statistical era (1998-Pres.). Moreover, the Green and White's win evens the all-time series between the two institutions at 15 victories apiece.

A DOUBLE-DIGIT DISPLAY: Four Eagles recorded double-digit efforts in a 76-66 victory against Detroit Mercy, Nov. 13. Ce'Nara Skanes led the way with 19 points, followed by Areanna Combs (18), Danielle Rainey (16), and ZaNiya Nelson (12).

The last time four Eagles recorded double-digit scoring efforts was against Ball State, Jan. 23, 2021. In the game, Combs scored 19, Skanes dropped 14, former Eagle Jenna Annecchiarico had 12, and Natalia Pineda put up 11.

Additionally, the Detroit Mercy contest was the first time three members of the Green and White scored 15+ points since Combs recorded 23, former Eagle Corrione Cardwell dropped 20, and Skanes had 19 at Central Michigan, Jan. 20, 2021.

Youngstown State	70
Eastern Michigan	67

YPSILANTI, Mich. (EMUEagles.com) -- The Eastern Michigan University women's basketball team dropped a hard-fought, 70-67, decision to Youngstown State University today, Nov. 9, inside the Convocation Center.

The Eagles (0-1, 0-0 MAC) had two players score in double figures, led by redshirt senior Areanna Combs (Oklahoma City, Okla.-Putnam City West (Oklahoma State)), who had 19 points, eight rebounds, seven assists, and two steals. Redshirt sophomore Ce'Nara Skanes (Oklahoma City, Okla.-Putnam City West (Florida International)) tacked on a double-double with 11 points and 14 rebounds while freshman Lachelle Austin (Redford, Mich.-Wayne Memorial) added nine points and two steals.

How It Happened

Both teams got off to a slow start in the first period of action, however, redshirt senior Danielle Rainey (Cedar Park, Texas-Vista Ridge (Florida)) and junior Kylee O'Hara (Ajax, Ontario-Henry Street (Florida International)) each added a triple as the Eagles trailed 17-13 to close the first. The Penguins grew their lead to 28-15 halfway through the second quarter, its biggest lead of the afternoon, before the Eagles made it a 34-29 YSU advantage heading into the locker rooms.

The Green and White bounced back in the third, taking a 48-46 lead late in the period thanks to a layup from redshirt junior Rayjon Harris (Euclid, Ohio-Euclid) and jumper from Rainey. The game continued to swing back-and-forth, with Youngstown State holding on to a 53-52 edge going into the final period. In the fourth, O'Hara drilled a three-pointer with an assist from Combs while Austin nailed another three-ball under pressure to make it a two-point game, 67-65. The Eagles were unable to overcome the deficit, falling to Penguins 70-67.

The Eagles continued to fight, but BSU managed to hold on for the 83-73 win. Eastern Michigan fired away from deep in the final stanza, knocking down four shots to account for 12 of its 27 points.

Game Notes

- » The Eagles shot well from three-point range, knocking down 8-of-20 (40%) long-range attempts. The game was the fourth this season that EMU has hit the 40-percent mark. Last season, Eastern only accomplished the feat one time.
- » The Eastern Michigan defense forced 18 turnovers. The 18 takeaways marked the seventh time in the 2021-22 season that the Eagles have forced 15-or-more turnovers.
- » The Green and White produced 32 points in the paint, the fifth time this season the team has notched at least 30.
- » EMU got five rebounds apiece from Combs, Skanes, and redshirt junior Juanita Agosto (Seattle, Wash.-Garfield).
- » Combs' 23 points marked the second time this season and the 21st time in her career that the redshirt senior has notched the 20-point plateau.
- » Skanes had 16 points on 7-of-10 shooting. It marks the fourth time this season the center has shot 70 percent from the field (minimum of four shots taken).
- » Four Eastern Michigan players produced double-digit point totals marking the fifth such time this season that has happened.
- » EMU shot 50.8% from the field, 27-for-53, only the second time this season the team has shot better than 50 percent and the first time versus a Division I opponent.
- » Eastern had three players with multiple steals on the night as Combs, Skanes, and Rainey each tallied two. Tonight marks the fourth time this season three Eagles have recorded multiple steals in a contest (Binghamton, Dec. 10; Oklahoma, Dec. 7; Detroit Mercy, Nov. 13).

Historical Notes

- » Tonight marked the 86th all-time meeting between the Eagles and the Cardinals. Eastern still leads the all-time series, 45-41.
- » With 23 points tonight, Combs is now just eight points away from eclipsing the 1,000-point mark.
