DAN MONSON

Head Coach (1st season)

Dan Monson was hired as the 20th head coach in Eastern Washington men's basketball history on April 12, 2024. Monson has 27 years of Division I head coaching experience, with 445 wins, four NCAA Tournament appearances (1999, 2005, 2012, 2024), nine conference championships and four Coach of the Year awards. He has nine National Invitational appearances, winning seven games.

Monson arrives in Cheney after serving as the head coach at Long Beach State, leaving as the program's all-time winningest coach with 275 wins. He led the team to the '24 NCAA Tournament after winning the Big West Tournament as the No. 4 seed. In his 17 seasons at Long Beach, Monson coached four Big West Player of Year winners and 18 First-Team All-Big West honorees. He led the Dirtbags to the 2011-12 NCAA Tournament and had four NIT appearances during his tenure.

Prior to Long Beach, Monson spent eight seasons as the head coach at Minnesota. In the 2004-05 season, the Gophers won 21 games and went to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in six seasons. He had 118 wins, advancing to the Big Ten tournament five times. Minnesota made four appearances in the NIT during Monson's tenure, winning six games.

Monson is no stranger to Spokane County after coaching Gonzaga in the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons where he played a pivotal role in the start of the program's current success. Led by Monson, the 'Zags advanced to the 1999 Elite Eight, winning both the WCC regular season and conference tournament championships that season. Monsoon went 24-10 in his first season with the Bulldogs, advancing to the second round of the NIT after winning the regular season title. He was named WCC Coach of the Year in '98.

Along with coaching at the collegiate level, Monson was on the staff for two USA Basketball teams. Monson served on the 20-and-Under Word Championships in 2004 and the 1999 Men's World University Games, winning gold medals at both events.

Monson started his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach for the University of Alabama-Birmingham, where he spent two seasons with the Blazers. He earned his master's degree in education, emphasizing athletic administration from UAB in 1988. Monson earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Idaho in 1985.

Monson's dad, Don, was the head coach for Idaho and led the Vandals to the Sweet 16 in the 1982 tournament. Idaho also qualified for the 1981 NCAA Tournament after winning the Big Sky championship. Don started his coaching career at Cheney High School in the 1950s.

Monson and his wife, Darci, have two daughters, Mollie and McKeena, and two sons MicGuire and Maddox.

RYAN LUNDGREN

Associate Head Coach (1st season)

Ryan Lundgren comes to EWU after spending the last season as the head coach for Carroll College. In the 2023-24 season, the Saints went 12-3 in the Frontier Conference and 19-12 overall. Carroll defeated the University of Providence in the conference tournament semifinals to advance to the championship where they fell to Montana Tech. The Saints were then selected to play in the NAIA National Tournament against Cornerstone University (Mich.) in the first round.

Prior to Carroll, Lundgren was the associate head coach at the College of Southern Idaho from 2019 to 2023. In the 2022-23 season, Southern Idaho went undefeated (29-0) and finished as the No. 1 team in the NJCAA Rankings. The team won the regular season titles in 2023 and 2021, with the tournament title in '23. CSI qualified for the NJCAA national tournament in 2021 and '22 as well.

Lundgren's first head coaching job was at Vallivue High School from 2015 to 2019. He earned Idaho Press Tribune Boy's Athletics Coach of the year for the 2016-17 season after leading Vallivue to the Idaho 4A state title game. Vallivue also won the 2018-19 Southern IDaho Conference regular season title.

Lundgren began his coaching career at Boise State University as the Director of Player Development from 2011 to 2015. He graduated from Boise State with his Bachelor's Degree in Mass Communication/Journalism in 2012 and earned his Masters Degree in Educational Leadership in 2015.

LARRY ANDERSON

Assistant Coach (1st season)

Larry Anderson follows Monson from Long Beach to Eastern after working as an assistant coach for the 2023-24 season. This past season, Anderson was key in helping LBSU's run to the Big West Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament berth. With Anderson's guidance, LBSU ranked first in the Big West in scoring offense (77.4), offensive rebounds (12.5), blocked shots (4.2) and steals (7.9).

LBSU finished the season with a 21-15 overall record and 10-10 in the Big West. The team was the only school in the country to have a win over a Big 10 (Michigan), Big East (DePaul) and a Pac-12 school (USC). In the classroom, LBSU earned a 3.2 team GPA, the highest mark in program history.

Anderson also worked directly to develop three All-Big West players in forward Aboubacar Traore (First Team), forward Lassina Traore (Second Team) and guard Marcus Tshonis (Honorable mention).

Before working at LBSU, Anderson was an assistant coach at Cerritos College (Norwalk, Calif.) in the 2022-23 season. Anderson helped mentor student-athletes on the court and in the classroom to help them to pursue a degree at a four-year university.

Anderson is an alumni of LBSU, playing from 2008 to 2012 with the program. In 2012, Anderson was named Big West Defensive Player of the Year as the team won the conference and appeared in the NCAA Tournament. Anderson ranks seventh in LBSU history with 1,538 points, while ranking eighth in assists (362) and ninth in rebounds (591). He was just just the second player to have 1500 points, 500 rebounds and 300 assists.

Anderson played in the NBA G League from 2013 to 2014 with the Springfield Armor, now know as the Grand Rapids Gold. He also played overseas with Okapi Aalstar (Belgium), Leputan Korikobrat (Finland), Maccabi Raanana (Israel) and BC Nokia (Finland).

WILL TURGEON

Assistant Coach (1st season / 3rd on staff)

Will Turgeon arrives at Eastern after working as a Graduate Assistant at the University of Colorado the past two seasons(2022-24). While at CU, Will was responsible for creating scouting reports from film and managing road game operations. Will was involved in the Buffaloes' recruiting effort, with cutting and evaluating film for potential recruits. He also assisted with player development and outreach to alumni during his tenure.

Last season on head coach Tad Boyle's staff, Will was apart of the Colorado's 26-win season, the most wins in a single season in program history. The Buffaloes advanced to NCAA Tournament second round after defeating Boise State in the their First-Four matchup, followed by a win over Florida in the first round. Will helped with player development for 2024 NBA Draft Picks, Cody Williams, Tristan da Silva and KJ Simpson.

Will played his college career at The Catholic University of America(Washington D.C), graduating in 2022.

Will is originally from Kensington, Maryland playing at Gonzaga High School in D.C.

MICGUIRE MONSON

Assistant Coach (1st season / 4th on staff)

MicGuire Monson has joined Eastern with an impressive track record in basketball operations. Most recently, he served as a graduate assistant at Long Beach State, where he was instrumental in player development, booster relations, and navigating Name, Image, and Likeness (NIL) opportunities. During his time at Long Beach, Monson helped the team secure an NCAA tournament appearance and Big West tournament champions.

Before his time at Long Beach State, Monson was a student assistant at Boise State. There, he contributed to player development and player relations, gaining valuable experience that has shaped his approach to coaching and team management. His comprehensive background in both on-court and off-court aspects of basketball makes him a significant asset to Eastern.

G Angelo Allegri drives the lane at Washington State in the first round of the 2023 National Invitation Tournament (March 14, 2023; Bridget Mayfield). Eastern won, 81-74, marking the program's first-ever postseason win.

TOURNAMENT PIONEERS IN 2003-04

The 2003-04 Eagles made history as the first EWU team to earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament.

After a 3-9 start, they won the Big Sky regular season title and hosted the tournament at Reese Court. Coached by Ray Giacoletti, they rolled past Weber State and Northern Arizona for the Big Sky Championship before falling to Oklahoma State 75-56 in the Big Dance. Alvin Snow led the star-laden team as EWU's first All-American (Honorable Mention) at the D-I level and first Big Sky MVP.

WINS RECORD IN 2014-15

Eleven years later under coach Jim Hayford, Eastern went 26-9 to set program records for wins, conference wins (14) and road wins (11), winning the Big Sky Conference Tournament title. In the Big Sky title game, Eastern rallied from 11 points down with six minutes to play to stun host Montana, 69-65. The Eagles, who earlier in the season snapped the nation's third-longest non-conference home court winning streak at 43 by beating Indiana, fell to Georgetown 84-79 in the NCAA Tourney.

G Tyler Harvey led the team with 23.1 points per game while F Venky Jois added 16.7 points & 7.7 rebounds.

BUBBLE-BOUND IN 2020-21

In 2020-21, the Eagles rolled through the Big Sky Conference Tournament with a trio of victories, leading for a total of 108:19 out of 120 minutes (trailed for 8:25 and tied for 3:16). EWU led by as many as 12, 38 and 20 in the three wins, respectively. At the COVID pandemic-affected NCAA Tournament "bubble" in Indianapolis, the 14th-seeded Eagles led third-seeded and AP 12th-ranked Kansas for 20:47, ultimately losing 84-93.

The Groves brothers headlined a roster riddled with standouts. Jacob averaged 9.3 points and 4.2 rebounds, while Tanner led the team with 17.2 points and 8 boards per game, adding 1.3 assists.

HISTORIC STREAK IN 2022-23

In David Riley's 2nd year as head coach, the Eagles won 18-straight games starting in December, tying the Big Sky's overall record and setting a new record with a 16-0 start to conference play. Led by BSC MVP Steele Venters and 1st-teamer Angelo Allegri, the Eags upset Washington State on the road in the first round of hte National Invitation Tournament (NIT) before narrowly losing to Oklahoma State on the road. Riley became the 6th EWU coach to win the conference Coach of the Year Award.

EWU has had three players selected in the NBA Draft:

Ron Cox — EWU 1974-77
1977 6th Round, 121st overall (Cleveland)
One of two players with their number hanging on the wall at Reese Court, Cox established Eastern's career records for points (1,741), rebounds (1,273) and field goal percentage (62.9). He averaged 16.4 points and 12.0 rebounds in his career as the team went a combined 77-30 (.720) in the four years he played (1974-77). Cox led Eastern in scoring and rebounding all four seasons.

Rodney Stuckey — EWU 2005-07
2007 1st Round, 15th overall (Detroit)
Eastern's most notable basketball alumnus, Stuckey was the 2nd-highest draft pick in the history of the Big Sky at the time of his selection (now 3rd) and went on to play over 600 NBA games over 10 seasons; 7 with Detroit and 3 with Indiana. He was named to the 2008 NBA All-Rookie Second Team, averaged 10+ points in 7 of his 10 seasons and finished with a career average of 12.9 points per game.

Stuckey finished his collegiate career with 1438 points (4th in EWU history at the time) over just 59 games, averaging a school record 24.4 per game, a mark that still stands today. His 254 free throws attempted and 215 FT made in 2006-07 also remain a school record for a single season. He was Big Sky MVP that same season.

Tyler Harvey — EWU 2012-15
2015 2nd Round, 51st overall (Orlando)
A former walk-on turned Big Sky MVP, Harvey led the nation in scoring in 2014-15, averaging 23.1 points per game to lead the Eagles to their second-ever NCAA Tournament berth. He also led the nation in 3-pointers per game (4.0). He became the third player in program history to earn AP Honorable Mention All-American honors, joining Stuckey and Alvin Snow.

After being selected by the Orlando Magic in 2015, Harvey joined the Erie BayHawks of the NBA's Development League and played there for one year before transitioning to a very productive career overseas that included stops in Italy, France, back to the U.S., Germany and finally, Australia.

REESE COURT

Opened in 1975, Reese Court at the Special Events Pavilion has been the home of men's and women's basketball for nearly 50 years. It is named after William B. "Red" Reese, who coached several sports at Eastern including 31 years at the helm of the basketball team (1930-64), earning a career record of 468-302, 12 conference titles and three berths to the NAIB national tournament. He also coached EWU football and track and field teams, plus served as faculty and an athletics administrator. By some accounts, over 200 of his former players went on to coach basketball at some level.

Reese Court has served as an important event venue for a wide variety of EWU events outside of basketball and volleyball including graduations, concerts, high school competitions, gymnastics and fundraisers, among many others. It hosted the Big Sky Championships in 2004.

The Eagles boast an all-time record of 397-187 at Reese Court, including an incredible 106-22 mark since the 2013-14 campaign (10 seasons).

The facility has seen three basketball crowds of over 5000 people but none since 2000, when it happened twice (vs. Gonzaga, vs. Montana). There have been six additional crowds of over 4000, most recently against Montana in 2015.

NCAA TOURNAMENT GAMES

2004: #15 EWU 56, #2 Oklahoma State 75 (Kansas City, Mo.)
The game was tied 36-36 at half but OSU locked down their defense in the 2nd half, holding the Eags to just 20 points.

2015: #13 EWU 74, #4 Georgetown 84 (Portland, Ore.)
Tyler Harvey led all scorers with 27 but it wasn't enough against the Hoyas, who shot 52.1% from the floor and 47.8% from 3PT.

2021: #14 EWU 84, #3 Kansas 93 (Indianapolis, Ind.)
EWU led midway through the 2nd half but couldn't complete the upset despite outstanding efforts from the Groves brothers, with Jacob posting 23 points and 9 rebounds, and Tanner scoring 35 while adding 5 rebounds and 3 blocks.

IN THE BIG SKY TOURNAMENT

Eastern has made 21 Big Sky Conference Tournament appearances in 36 years as a member of the league, and has a record of 21-18 in its 38 games. The Eagles are 2-0 in the first round, 7-8 in the quarterfinals, 9-4 in the semifinals and 3-6 in the championship. Before winning the 2015 title, Eastern hadn't appeared since the 2011-12 and 2010-11 seasons, which were EWU's first since 2006. The Eagles qualified for each tournament from 1998-2006.

Eastern won Big Sky Conference Tournament championships and appeared in the NCAA Tournament in 2021, 2015 & 2004. The Eagles also advanced to the National Invitation Tournament in 2023 and 2003, and the College Basketball Invitational in 2016 and 2017. Eastern registered the school's first NCAA Division I postseason win with a 79-72 victory over Pepperdine in the first round of the CBI in 2016. The second came against Washington State in the first round of the NIT in 2023 (81-74).

The Eagles rolled through the 2021 Big Sky Conference Tournament with a trio of victories, leading for a total of 108:19 out of 120 minutes (trailed for 8:25 and tied for 3:16). EWU led by as many as 12, 38 and 20 in the three wins, respectively.

Eastern's 2014-15 squad won the title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a trio of victories in Missoula, Montana. Included was a come-from-behind 69-65 over the host Grizzlies in the championship game.

Before beating Montana for the 2015 title, Eastern had ended its season with losses to the Grizzlies in appearances in 2012, 2006 and 2005.

Although its streak of Big Sky tournament berths came to an end in the 2006-07 season, at the time Eastern was just the fifth school in league history to make nine-straight appearances in the Big Sky Conference Tournament. Eastern started the streak back in 1998 after making just one trip to the tourney in their first 10 seasons as a member of the conference. Interestingly, Montana's 77-69 victory over the Lumberjacks on Feb. 28, 2005, extended Eastern's streak and ended NAU's eight-season streak. Eastern's streak started in 1998 with an end-of-year victory at Montana. That "winner advance, loser eliminated" game ended Montana's 21-year streak.

In 2011, Eastern's season came to an end with a 79-70 loss at Weber State in the quarterfinal round of the tournament. That came just three days after the Eagles stunned WSU on their home court 75-59 to end the regular season. Because of the upset, the Wildcats lost their chance at a first-round bye and had to face the Eagles again. In the rematch, WSU outscored EWU 46-25 in the second half as the Wildcats overcame a 12-point EWU halftime lead and a 15-point deficit early in the second half.

In 2013-14, the Eagles were 15-16 overall and missed the Big Sky Conference Tournament with a 10-10 league mark. Interestingly, Sacramento State was also 10-10, but secured the final bid because of a tiebreaker advantage over EWU, which dropped its final game of the season to Weber State 82-78.

SINGLE SEASON TEAM HIGHS & LOWS

Note: *Statistical records are incomplete prior to the 1983-84 season when EWU moved to NCAA Division I. In some instances, statistics in some categories were not kept prior to that time. If different than the NCAA Division-I marks, all-time records from available statistics are marked with * below the NCAA Division-I record. Those marked with a ^ came during EWU's 2020-21 season which was limited to 24 games because of the COVID-19 pandemic.*
