The Lead

The CAA slate passes its halfway point as the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team hosts Massachusetts on Saturday, April 16 at 1 p.m. Prior to faceoff, the Stags will recognize the six seniors who will be playing their final regular season home game. All of the action from Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium will be broadcast live on FairfieldStags.TV with J.J. Duke on the call.

Gameday Promotions

The first 400 students in attendance will receive a free Fairfield Stags tumbler. In addition, Fairfield Smiles will donate $2.00 to Relay for Life for every student that attends the game.

Fairfield Lacrosse season ticket holders will also be treated to a pregame reception on Saturday. Season ticket holders that did not receive details via e-mail are asked to contact Zach Dayton, Associate Director of Athletics for Marketing and Communications at zdayton@fairfield.edu.

Senior Day

Saturday's game marks the final regular season home contest in the careers of six seniors: Conor Dalton, Joe Guidarelli, Robert Popdan and 2016 team captains Conor Barr, TJ Neubauer and Charlie Schnider. The senior class has been a part of 35 Fairfield wins to date and was integral in the Stags' 2014 ECAC Lacrosse League and 2015 CAA regular season championships.

More information on each of the team's six seniors can be found in Saturday's game program.

Head Coach Andy Copelan

Eighth Season • Bucknell '03
2015 CAA Coach of the Year

The 2016 season is Andy Copelan's eighth at the helm of the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team. He has posted a 70-47 (.598) record with the Stags and owns a nine-year NCAA Division I head coaching record of 88-62 (.587).

Copelan was named the program's third head coach in varsity history on August 25, 2008 and has returned the Stags to the national conversation. Fairfield ranked as high as 18th in the polls last spring, having entered the national ledger in each of the last four seasons and six of Copelan's first seven years on the sidelines.

Copelan led the Stags into a new era in 2015, as Fairfield joined the nationally-prominent Colonial Athletic Association. The Stags made an immediate impact on the CAA, winning the regular season title and hosting the 2015 CAA Championship on newly-constructed Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. Copelan was tabbed as the CAA Coach of the Year for his efforts, leading Fairfield to a 9-6 record and producing 11 All-CAA honorees, including Rookie of the Year Will Fox '18.

2015's group of 10 graduating seniors was the winningest four-year class in Fairfield history, compiling 41 total wins and a .661 winning percentage - both program records for a four-year class during the varsity era (1993-present).

Following this past season, TJ Neubauer '16 was drafted into the professional ranks as the 34th overall pick in the MLL Collegiate Draft by the Rochester Rattlers. The midfielder was the second-highest draft choice in Fairfield history and represents the ninth Stag to have played for Copelan to join the MLL as a draftee or signee.

Fairfield made four consecutive ECAC postseason appearances from 2011-14, including three trips to the ECAC Championship Game. Along the way, the program has earned several landmark victories. Copelan's 2013 club recorded the Stags' first-ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team with an overtime triumph at No. 1 Denver, and the 2010 Fairfield team topped a Notre Dame club that went on to reach the NCAA National Championship Game. All told, the Stags have bested at least one ranked opponent in each of Copelan's seven seasons at Fairfield.

Copelan has seen his student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. During his stay at the helm, every student-athlete that has completed his eligibility has also earned a degree from Fairfield. The Stags had 39 student-athletes earn All-ECAC Academic Team honors under Copelan's tutelage, including a program-high 10 honorees in 2014. In 2015, Drew Federico '15 was named to the CAA All-Academic Team, with Max Buchanan '15 and Tristan Sperry '15 collecting USILA Scholar All-America distinctions.

Signs of the Stags' return to national prominence were immediate when Copelan took the reins for the 2009 season. His first team went 7-6 overall to earn the program's first winning record since 2005 and a winning mark (4-3) in the ECAC Lacrosse League for the first time since joining the league in 2006. Fairfield has continued its upward trend under Copelan; the Stags have never closed the year with a sub-.500 record overall or in conference play during his tenure.

Fairfield is the second head coaching stop for Copelan, who was the youngest head coach in the nation when he was hired to lead Marist College in 2004. In his first season with the Red Foxes, he was named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Coach of the Year following a MAAC Regular Season Championship and the program's first winning season in six years. In 2005, he led Marist to its first-ever NCAA postseason berth.

His two-year run with the Red Foxes produced nine All-MAAC honorees, including 2004 Offensive Player and Rookie of the Year Keith Detelj and 2005 Rookie of the Year Dan Needle.

After his stint at Marist, Copelan held an assistant coaching position at the University of Maryland from 2006-08, rising to the offensive coordinator position for his last campaign with the Terps. Maryland reached the NCAA Tournament in each of Copelan's three seasons, highlighted by a trip to the 2006 Final Four. Copelan also served as the recruiting coordinator for Maryland in his final two seasons, with great success. Inside Lacrosse ranked the Terps' 2007 incoming class as the second best in the nation, and the 2008 class was dubbed as a third-best in the country. Individually, Copelan helped the Terps to secure six of 2008's top-50 high school recruits.

KEEPING UP WITH THE COMPETITION

(through games played on Tuesday, April 12)

The Stags' 2016 opponents are a combined 91-73 this spring. Five teams are ranked in this week's edition of the USILA Coaches' Poll in addition to Bucknell, which is currently unranked but receiving votes.

Scouting UMass

After an 11-8 home loss to Towson last Saturday, the University of Massachusetts Minutemen stand at 4-6 overall and 0-2 in the CAA. UMass has played the second-toughest schedule in the nation to date, with four of its losses (along with two wins) coming to teams ranked in the current USILA national poll.

Nine players have totaled at least 10 points for the Minutemen, led by 15 goals and five assists from Buddy Carr. Brendan Hegarty has scored 11 goals to go along with four assists.

A trio of UMass goalkeepers has seen significant time in the cage this spring. Sean Sconone (10.40 GAA, .538 save percentage) has made the last two starts, with Dan Dolan (9.47 GAA, .527 save percentage) and D.J. Smith (10.50 GAA, .458 save percentage) also getting in on the action. Smith is the club's most experienced netminder after serving as backup to (current Stony Brook goalkeeper) Zach Oliveri in 2015.

The unit in front of the UMass cage is helmed by 2015 First Team All-CAA defenseman Kyle Karaska.

Stags vs. Minutemen

Fairfield and UMass split a pair of one-goal outings last spring, with the Stags taking a road win in the regular season and the Minutemen returning the favor on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium in the CAA Semifinals.

UMass leads the all-time series with the Stags, 8-3, but Fairfield has won three of the four meetings over the last three seasons. The 2014 meeting renewed a series that had been dormant since 2009.

Fairfield vs. Ranked Opponents

Fairfield has defeated at least one ranked opponent (in the USILA Coaches' Poll) in each of Andy Copelan's seven prior seasons at the helm - including a win at then-No. 1 Denver during the 2013 season.

Based on the April 11 edition of the national poll, the Stags have one more opportunity to extend this streak during the regular season with an April 23 visit to No. 7 Towson.

Neubauer Climbing the Ladder

After netting a hat trick on Saturday, TJ Neubauer leads the CAA with 2.60 goals per game (19th in the NCAA) and is fourth in the Association with 2.80 points per game. He also ranks third in the CAA - first among non-faceoff specialists - with 4.20 ground balls per game.

Neubauer has tallied 26 goals with a pair of assists this spring. He has totaled 116 career points and stands in fourth place on the Stags' all-time goals list with 104. Neubauer most recently surpassed Greg Downing '07 on the ledger and is two goals behind J.T. Groarke '99 for third place.

The senior co-captain of the Stags, who is a fourth round draft pick by the MLL's Rochester Rattlers, is also four points shy of joining Fairfield's all-time top 10 in total points.

An Immediate Impact

After scoring two crucial second-half goals in the comeback win over Drexel, Colin Burke claimed his fifth CAA Rookie of the Week honor of the spring. Burke has recorded two or more points with at least one goal in each of his first 12 games as a Stag.

Burke ranks second in the CAA with 2.58 goals and leads the Association with 3.58 points per game. On the national level, he ranks third among freshmen in goals per game (20th overall) and fourth among freshmen (36th overall) in points per game. Burke also ranks fourth in the CAA with 1.00 assists per outing.

With three regular season contests still to play, Burke has netted 31 goals with 12 assists for a total of 43 points. He is chasing a pair of Fairfield Athletics Hall of Famers in the program record book. Spencer Steele '00 scored a rookie-record 38 goals in 1997, while the program's overall freshman scoring record belongs to J.T. Groarke '99, who racked up 53 points (26 goals, 27 assists) in 1996.

Chuckling Out Assists

The duo of Charlie Schnider and Charlie Horning has combined to dish out 35 assists this spring. Schnider leads the CAA with 24 assists and 2.00 assists per game (17th in the NCAA). He has also scored eight goals to rank sixth in the CAA with 2.67 points per contest. Schnider has a pair of five-assist games in Fairfield victories this spring.

Horning has doled out 11 assists, ranking sixth in the CAA in assists per game, to go along with seven goals in his first season with the Stags. All 18 of his points have come in the last nine games after being kept off the board in his first three outings of the spring.

Fox and Friends

Reigning CAA Rookie of the Year Will Fox ranks third in the CAA with a .535 win percentage (100-of-187) as the Stags' primary faceoff man. Fox won a career-best 20 draws (on 25 attempts) in the win over UMass Lowell on March 1. He also ranks second on the team with 34 ground balls.

Joe DeLasho adds a .541 win percentage (33-of-61) in his first full season of action as a specialist. DeLasho's numbers are bolstered by an 11-of-11 showing against No. 4 Yale, one of four perfect performances in the nation this season (minimum 10 attempts) and 21 in NCAA Division I history since faceoff statistics were recorded beginning in 1999.

The sophomore duo of Fox and DeLasho has combined to rank third in the CAA with a .523 winning percentage at the faceoff 'X'.

Behring Down

Tyler Behring made a career-best 23 saves against Bucknell on Feb. 20, the most in the nation since Detroit's Jason Weber made 28 saves on March 4, 2015.

This spring, Behring ranks eighth in the nation and second in the CAA with 11.67 saves per game. He slots third in the CAA with a .547 save percentage (17th in the NCAA) and with a 9.90 goals-against average (31st).

On Lockdown

Andrew Eidenshink has been tasked with marking two of the CAA's top attackman in each of the last two weeks. After limiting 2015 CAA Player of the Year Sam Llinares to one goal (man-up) in the win at Hofstra, Eidenshink held Cole Shafer, another 2015 All-CAA attackman and Drexel's top scorer, without a point on Saturday.

CAA = Close As Always

Including the 2015 CAA Championship, 12 of the 24 games between CAA teams since the start of the 2015 season have been decided by one goal.

Fairfield has been a part of seven of those 12 one-goal affairs. The Stags defeated Drexel, 7-4, in their first-ever CAA game last spring, marking their only CAA contest to date to be decided by more than one goal.

Goodbye Ruby Tuesday

With only weekend (Friday and Saturday) games remaining on the schedule, the Stags wrapped up the midweek slate with a record of 3-0. Fairfield posted Tuesday wins over UMass Lowell, Georgetown and Quinnipiac during the month of March.

Becoming a 'Regular' Occurrence

After winning the 2015 CAA regular season championship in their first season as a member of the conference, the Stags have won the regular season crown in each of the four conferences that Fairfield has called home during its tenure as an NCAA program.

The CAA title marked back-to-back championships for the Stags, who were regular season champs of the ECAC Lacrosse League in 2014.

Previously, the Stags won three consecutive regular season titles in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference from 1996-98 and shared the Great Western Lacrosse League regular season title in both 2002 and 2005 en route to a pair of trips to the NCAA postseason.

Overtime Odds & Ends

Fairfield's double-overtime win against Delaware last April marked the Stags' return to their winning ways when a game exceeds 60 minutes of action; the March 2015 loss at No. 6 Yale ended a six-game winning streak for Fairfield in overtime contests. The Stags are 8-3 in overtime games under Head Coach Andy Copelan.

Road Warriors

The Stags will play a pair of road games to cap the regular season, starting with a trip to No. 7 Towson next Saturday, April 23. The Tigers and Stags currently share the top of the CAA standings at 2-0.

Fairfield concludes the regular season on Friday, April 29 at Delaware.

Game 1: Fairfield vs. Richmond

Stags Edged by Richmond, 11-10, in 2016 Opener

Schnider and Burke each net hat tricks on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – The Fairfield University men’s lacrosse team opened its 2016 campaign with an 11-10 loss to visiting Richmond on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. The contest was a matchup between the defending regular season champions of their respective conferences – the Stags of the CAA and the Spiders of the SoCon.

“Honestly, all that today’s loss means is that we’re not going undefeated this year,” said Head Coach Andy Copelan. “It’s never how you start a season, it’s how you finish.”

Copelan’s Stags were edged by Holy Cross, 10-9, to open the 2015 season and went on to win the CAA regular season crown. Dating back to the 2014 campaign, Fairfield’s last eight losses have been decided by one goal.

In today’s action, Charlie Schnider led the Stags (0-1) on the offensive end with three goals and two assists. Colin Burke also recorded a hat trick and picked up an assist in his collegiate debut. Jake Knostman, Joe Rodrigues, TJ Neubauer and Conor Dalton added goals for the hosts, and Drew Murray joined the scoring column with an assist.

Tyler Behring made 15 saves in goal for the Stags.

After Fairfield grabbed a 2-1 lead on goals from Schnider and Burke (man-up), Richmond put together the stretch that ultimately decided the game. The Spiders ran off the next five goals, keeping the Stags off the board for a span of 17:28 to build a 6-2 advantage. Dalton converted a man-up chance in the final minute to send the Stags into the locker room with momentum, though trailing Richmond by a 6-3 count.

The Spiders controlled the action in the first half, winning 9-of-11 faceoffs. That mark, guided by Peter Moran at the ‘X’, also propelled that hosts to a 17-4 advantage in ground balls.

The Stags improved in both categories after the intermission, corralling 14 ground balls to Richmond’s 11 in the second half and nearly splitting the draws – Richmond won seven with the Stags coming away with five.

“There’s no quit in that locker room. The guys came out in the second half and fought tooth and nail,” said Copelan, the reigning CAA Coach of the Year. “We won the ground ball battle in the second half, which obviously was one of our shortcomings in the first half.”

The Stags’ offense also found its stride in the second half, with Neubauer, Schnider and Burke each netting a third-period goal. However, the Spiders answered each marker with one of their own within the next two minutes. The parity was enough to keep Richmond in front, 9-6, entering the final 15 minutes of play.

Schnider completed his hat trick with a man-up goal – assisted by Burke – to start the scoring in the fourth quarter. Burke rounded out his hat trick with 9:48 to go, pulling Fairfield to within one goal at 9-8. Richmond would tack one on at 7:42, but this time Rodrigues had the answer with a mark just 17 seconds later.

The Spiders’ final tally was insurance goal that proved to be the difference. Mitch Goldberg buried his fifth goal of the day at 6:08 to extend the margin to 11-9. Knostman provided the answer for Fairfield at 4:59, but neither team would score again as the 11-10 tally held up as a final.

Goldberg led the Richmond offense with five goals and an assist. Benny Pugh went the distance between the posts and made six saves.

The Stags continue their home slate this Saturday, Feb. 20 for a visit from Bucknell. Faceoff on Conway Field is slated for noon. The Bison are 2-0 on the young season with a 13-5 home win over Delaware last Saturday, Feb. 6 and an 11-10 victory over Bryant on Sunday, Feb. 14 in a contest played indoors in Taunton, Mass. due to inclement weather.

“We’ve got the pieces right now, but we’re still trying to put things together,” Copelan added. “But I believe in that group of guys. I wish we could be 1-0, but we’ll move on.”

Game 2: Fairfield vs. Bucknell

Bucknell Stops Stags, 13-8

Tyler Behring makes a career-high 23 saves for Fairfield

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – Tyler Behring made a career-high 23 saves in goal for the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team, but the Stags were upended by visiting Bucknell by a 13-8 count on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. TJ Neubauer led the offense with three goals and an assist.

"There's certainly things to work on which made today an uphill climb," said Head Coach Andy Copelan. "But, with all that said, we had a one-goal lead at halftime and we just weren't able to close. We just have to continue to get better."

In addition to Neubauer's hat trick, the Stags benefitted from two Joe Rodrigues goals as well as markers from Charlie Schnider, Colin Burke and the first career tally from Nico Panepinto. Burke, who is the reigning CAA Rookie of the Week, also handed out two assists.

Behring's 23-save performance marked the best in the nation since Detroit's Jason Weber turned away 28 offerings from Mercer on March 4, 2015. It was also the most saves by a CAA netminder since Austin Kaut made 25 stops for Penn State against Massachusetts on March 19, 2011.

A Second Team All-CAA honoree last season, Behring also picked up one ground ball and recorded a caused turnover. He made 15 saves in Monday's meeting with Richmond.

"We believe in Tyler. He's dependable and we know what we're going to get from him," said Copelan of his junior goalkeeper.

In front of Behring, Matt Borda led the defensive effort with three ground balls and two caused turnovers. Logan Williamson also collected three ground balls.

In addition to his four-point day, Neubauer had a team-best four ground balls as Fairfield nabbed 17 to Bucknell's 36. The Bison were bolstered in that department by a 19-6 advantage at the faceoff 'X'.

Bucknell was guided on the offensive end by three goals and two assists from Sean Doyle. Will Sands and a goal and two helpers, and Tommy O'Connor netted a pair for the unbeaten Bison. Christian Klipstein protected the Bucknell cage and came away with six saves.

Game 3: Fairfield at Rutgers

Host Rutgers Holds off Stags, 12-6

Burke, Murray and Schnider each net two goals for Fairfield

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Charlie Schnider registered his second five-point game of the season – two goals and three assists – and Colin Burke and Drew Murray also scored two goals apiece, but the Fairfield University men’s lacrosse team was topped by host Rutgers, 12-6, at High Point Solutions Stadium.

Fairfield (0-3) made a run in the second half, eventually cutting a six-goal deficit in half at 9-6 with 12:35 to play, but the Stags would not score again as Rutgers tacked on three late scores to round out the 12-6 final tally.

Schnider, who also turned in a five-point performance in the season opener against Richmond on Feb. 15, now leads the Stags in points (12), goals (6, shared with Burke) and assists (6). Murray’s two goals were his first of the 2016 campaign and included a man-up tally in the opening frame.

Reigning CAA Rookie of the Year Will Fox returned to form in the faceoff ‘X’, winning 14-of-22 draws on the day. He also collected a game-high six ground balls. Schnider added four ground balls to the Stags’ transition effort.

Tyler Behring got the start in the cage and made 11 saves with three ground balls. Logan Williamson led the defensive effort in front of the junior goalkeeper with two ground balls and a pair of caused turnovers.

Rutgers (3-0), which was unranked but receiving votes in both major national polls this week, was led by a goal and five assists from Scott Bieda. The nation’s leading goal scorer, Adam Charalambides, tacked on three more to his season total (13) and doled out an assist. Max Edelmann worked the first three quarters between the pipes, making seven saves to earn the win for the Scarlet Knights.

The home team claimed a 35-23 advantage on ground balls, and 45-33 edge in total shots. Both clubs converted one man-up opportunity.

Game 4: Fairfield vs. UMass Lowell

Six Stags Score in 12-10 Win over UMass Lowell

Knostman and Murray each net hat tricks, Schnider dishes out five assists

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – Six different Stags found the back of the net for Fairfield University men's lacrosse team in a 12-10 victory over UMass Lowell on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. Jake Knostman and Drew Murray each registered a hat trick for the Stags.

The victory saw Fairfield (1-3) respond to an 8-7 deficit in the third period with a five-goal run to reclaim the lead for good. The Stags kept the River Hawks off the board for 14:28 of clock time, opening up a 12-8 edge before the visitors scratched out a pair of late markers to round out the final tally at 12-8.

With a season-high six Stags contributing goals in the win, Fairfield was also led offensively by a player that didn't rattle the cage on Tuesday. Co-captain Charlie Schnider recorded a career-high five assists on the day – the most by a Stag since Colin McLinden '15 handed out six helpers in the overtime win over Yale on March 8, 2014. Despite being held without a goal for the first time in 2016, Schnider registered his third five-point day through Fairfield's first four games of the campaign.

Knostman registered his second career hat trick and dished out an assist to set a new career standard with four points. Murray's four points were also a personal best for the sophomore, who added an assist to the Stags' attack.

Colin Burke continued the strong start to his collegiate career with two goals and an assist. Joe Rodrigues added a pair of scores to notch the third multi-goal day of his tenure with the Stags. Rounding out the Fairfield offense were Dave Fleming with his first goal of the year, and the first goal and first assist in the Fairfield career of Charlie Horning.

Reigning CAA Rookie of the Year Will Fox had a career day at the faceoff 'X', winning a personal-best 20-of-25 draws and collecting nine ground balls. J.B. Smith was also integral to the faceoff and defensive success of the Stags with a career-high six ground balls.

Matt Borda led the back line with three ground balls, while Andrew Eidsensink picked up two ground balls and a caused turnover. In the cage, Tyler Behring made four saves to go along with three ground balls and a caused turnover.

UMass Lowell (0-4) was led by four goals from Sam Klingsporn and a five-point showing (3g, 2a) by Sean Tyrrell. Grant Lardieri made nine saves for the River Hawks.

No. 18 Stony Brook Pushes Past Stags, 9-8

Neubauer nets a trick for Fairfield

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – A five-goal third quarter proved to be the difference as the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team was clipped by No. 18 Stony Brook, 9-6, on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. TJ Neubauer netted a hat trick for the Stags, and Tyler Behring made 12 saves.

In addition to the 11th hat trick of Neubauer's career, Fairfield benefitted offensively from two Colin Burke goals and a Joe Rodrigues marker. Charlie Horning dished out an assist for the Stags.

Behring made 12 saves to helm the defensive side of the field. Spencer Noonan scooped up three ground balls in front the junior goalkeeper, and J.B. Smith had five ground balls in the midfield with a caused turnover.

At the faceoff 'X', Will Fox posted a 7-for-14 mark and Joe DeLasho won two of his four draws attempted. Fox also gathered a trio of ground balls.

Stony Brook started the contest with an Alex Corpolongo marker, but the Stags responded with the next three tallies. After Burke evened the score, Neubauer followed his own miss with a quick scoop-and-score to put Fairfield in front, 2-1. Joe Rodrigues then wrapped around the cage and tallied his sixth goal of the spring to end the first quarter with the Stags holding a 3-1 edge.

Neubauer struck again early in the second period to extend the margin to 4-1, but the Seawolves' Matt Schultz answered less than a minute later. Neither team would find the back of the net for the final 12:28 of the frame as the Stags carried a 4-2 advantage into the intermission.

In total, the scoreless drought on both sides spanned 19:52 of clock time. Stony Brook ended the spell with a Corpolongo marker and struck again 61 seconds later – this time on a Ryan Bitzer tally – to knot the contest at 4-4 at the 6:35 mark of the third frame.

Fairfield responded again as Neubauer converted a Horning feed to round out his hat trick and stake the Stags to a 5-4 lead. However, two Stony Brook goals in 14 seconds gave the nationally-ranked visitors a lead that they would not relinquish at 6-5. The Seawolves added another marker in the closing minute of the third to carry a 7-5 advantage into the final quarter.

Stony Brook's run was capped at four straight goals with a Justin Pugal tally with 8:45 to go. Burke ended the run with his second goal of the day – and team-leading 10th of the season – but Fairfield would not score again. Jeff Reh tacked on an insurance goal for the Seawolves and neither team would score over the final 7:05 as the 9-6 tally held up as final.

Corpolongo, Schultz and Bitzer each scored two goals for Stony Brook. Zach Oliveri started in goal and made three saves for the Seawolves. Brandon Maciejewski worked the second half in the cage, stopping six Fairfield shots to earn the win.

Game 6: Fairfield at Georgetown

Stags Surge to 13-9 Win at Georgetown

Burke and Neubauer each score four goals for the Stags

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Led by four goals apiece from Colin Burke and TJ Neubauer, the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team knocked off host Georgetown, 13-9, on Cooper Field in our nation's capital. Neubauer also dished out an assist to round out a five-point performance.

Fairfield records its first-ever win over the Hoyas and its first road victory of the 2016 campaign. Georgetown was unranked but receiving votes in both the USILA Coaches' Poll and Cascade/Maverik Media Poll this week and previously stood as high as No. 13 on the national ledgers. The Hoyas had most recently defeated CAA club Hofstra – then-unbeaten and ranked No. 8 in the USILA poll – by an 11-6 score.

In today's win, the Stags also notched their highest scoring total since topping Colgate by an identical 13-9 count last March on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium.

With his five-point showing today, Neubauer eclipses the career 100-point plateau at 101. He also moves into eighth place at the Stags' all-time goals list with 89 – surpassing the 87 markers recorded by John Snellman '12 in his Fairfield career. Neubauer sits one goal behind his former teammate Sam Snow '13 for seventh all-time and is 11 tallies shy of becoming the fifth Stag to hit the century mark. On the 2016 season, Neubauer has scored 11 goals with two assists.

Burke's four goals set a new career standard for the freshman – also tying his personal-best in points – and move him into the team lead with 14 goals and 18 total points this spring. He has scored at least one goal and racked up at least two points in each of the first six contests of his collegiate career.

Neubauer and Burke were two of a season-high seven Stags to score goals as Liam DaRos, Charlie Horning, Jake Knostman, Joe Rodrigues and Charlie Schnider each added a marker. Rounding out the Stags' attack, Dave Fleming dished off two assists and Horning served up one.

On the other side of the field, Tyler Behring made 14 saves en route to earning the win in the cage. Andrew Eidenshink led the defense in front of the junior goalkeeper with two ground balls, and long-stick midfielder J.B. Smith collected three.

Will Fox helped control the action from the faceoff 'X' with a 14-for-23 mark. The reigning CAA Rookie of the Year went 14-for-20 in the final three quarters after the Hoyas won all six faceoffs against Fox and classmate Joe DeLasho in the first period to take a 3-2 edge in the contest.

The Stags scored the first goal of the contest for the first time since the season opener against Richmond on Feb. 15. Burke did the honors with an unassisted tally at 11:38 in the opening quarter, and Rodrigues added a goal at 8:55 to stake Fairfield to a 2-0 advantage.

However, the Stags would not score again in the first frame as the Hoyas ran off three goals to take a 3-2 lead after 15 minutes of play.

Schnider's goal just 37 seconds into the second quarter was the start of a dominant 30 minutes for Fairfield. The marker set the Stags off on an 8-2 run than spanned both the second and third quarters. When all was said and done, Fairfield had doubled-up Georgetown and carried a 10-5 lead into the final stanza of action.

Georgetown snapped the run with a goal at 14:42 in the fourth, but Neubauer answered with a scoop-and-score on a loose ball in front of the net to rebuild a five-goal cushion at 11-6. The Hoyas kept the game within reach with a three-goal run in the fourth quarter, but the Stags continued to win draws at the 'X' and worked the clock on their ensuing possessions.

Georgetown has shaved the margin to 11-9 with 3:46 to play, but Burke capped his four-goal day just over a minute later to extend the lead with 2:43 left. Neubauer followed suit, netting his fourth goal at the 1:29 mark of the fourth quarter to round out the score at its final count of 13-9 in favor of the Stags.

Peter Conley, a 2014 First Team All-Big East honoree who played only seven games last spring due to injury, led the Hoyas offense with two goals and two assists. In the cage, 2015 First Team All-Big East goalkeeper Nick Marrocco made seven saves.

Game 7: Fairfield vs. No. 4 Yale

No. 4 Yale Holds off Stags, 10-5

Connecticut rivalry game draws record 2,456 fans to Rafferty stadium

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – The Fairfield University men’s lacrosse team turned in a strong second half against No. 4 nationally-ranked Yale on Saturday afternoon, but was unable to overcome an early deficit in a 10-5 loss to the Bulldogs. The contest was televised on SportsNet New York (SNY) and in front of a live crowd of 2,456 fans – the largest crowd in the two-year history of Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium.

Fairfield was led offensively by a hat trick from Colin Burke. The freshman attackman, who has scored at least one goal with two or more total points in each of the Stags’ first seven games, leads the club with 17 goals and 21 points this spring.

Another new Stag – sophomore Charlie Horning – also contributed a three-point day to the offense with a goal and two assists. All eight of his points on the season have come in Fairfield’s last four contests.

Rounding out the scoring was Jake Knostman with a man-up goal, and two assists from Charlie Schnider. Schnider leads Fairfield with 13 helpers on the year.

In the cage, Tyler Behring made 14 saves for the second consecutive game. The defense in front of the junior goalkeeper was led by three ground balls from Matt Borda and a pair scooped up by Spencer Noonan.

At the faceoff ‘X’, Joe DeLasho went a perfect 11-for-11. Will Fox also won two draws as the Stags went 13-for-17 on the day. Fairfield came away with all 10 faceoffs in the second half as it looked to mount a comeback against the Bulldogs.

Yale (5-0) was led by a five-point showing from Ben Reeves with two goals and three assists. Michael Keasey added a first-half hat trick for the Bulldogs.

Helming the goal for Yale was Phil Huffard. The national leader in goals-against average made 14 saves today with a strong defensive effort in front of him pressuring Fairfield into 17 turnovers. Yale has not allowed more than eight goals in a game this season.

A defensive-minded first quarter saw Keasey put Yale on top with two early goals. After his second marker at 8:37 in the opening frame, neither team would rattle the cage for the ensuing 16:48 of clock time. At that point, four different Bulldogs scored goals as a part of a late run that sent the visitors into the locker room with a 6-0 lead.

Fairfield came out firing in the second half, disrupting the shutout on a Horning goal at 13:04. After another stretch of over eight minutes without a goal, Yale scored at 4:22 in the third quarter. The Stags quickly responded as Burke’s first of the day moved the score to 7-2 heading into the fourth frame.

Yale struck first in the final quarter, but back-to-back tallies by Burke and Knostman (man-up) cut the deficit to 8-4 with 6:19 to play. Yale thwarted the run with a Michael Bonacci goal, followed by Burke completed his hat trick to run the score to 9-5 with 2:57 left.

However, time continued to tick down on the Fairfield comeback attempt, and Reeves added a goal with 58 seconds to play against the vacated cage as Behring looked to force a turnover to round out the final score at 10-5.

Game 8: Fairfield at Colgate

Strong Start Powers Stags Past Colgate, 12-7

Burke racks up five points, Neubauer and Horning tally four apiece

HAMILTON, N.Y. – A seven-goal run in the first half proved to be decisive as the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team knocked off defending Patriot League Champion Colgate, 12-7, in Hamilton, N.Y. Colin Burke scored four goals with an assist for the Stags, while TJ Neubauer netted four goals and Charlie Horning totaled four points via a goal and three assists.

Fairfield (3-5), which bested the Raiders for the second consecutive season, also got goals from Drew Murray, Dave Fleming and the first career tally by Matt Borda. Charlie Schnider handed out a pair of assists, and Joe Guidarelli distributed the first helper of his career.

Fairfield was outshot by the Raiders, 36-30, but put 21 tries on goal to the host's 17.

Tyler Behring helmed the cage and made 10 saves in addition to four ground balls and a caused turnover. Neubauer added five ground balls for the Stags and Horning collected three. As a unit, the Stags won the battle for ground balls, 26-20.

At the faceoff 'X', Will Fox won 7-of-15 draws and Joe DeLasho scooped up three of his six attempts.

Sam Cleveland and Peter Donato each had three point performances for Colgate (3-5), while Brandon Burke made nine saves on the defensive end of the field.

Though the Raiders opened the scoring in the contest, the first quarter belonged to the Stags. Peter Donato's marker at 12:08 was the lone goal for the hosts in the frame as Fairfield answered with five first-quarter tallies. A transitional goal started the run as Guidarelli picked up his first career assists with a long feed to Horning who converted in front to knot the score at 1-1. Two Burke goals sandwiched around a Fleming marker extended the margin, and Schnider connected with Neubauer in the closing seconds of the period to round out the 5-1 advantage for the Stags after 15 minutes of action.

The momentum continued into the second quarter as the Stags converted their first extra-man opportunity of the day with Neubauer again finishing a Schnider feed. Colin Burke then capped his hat trick and reached the 20-goal mark for the season as the lead grew to 7-1.

Sam Cleveland's goal at 9:37 ended the Colgate scoring drought after more than 17 minutes, but the Stags had a quick answer as Drew Murray got on the board exactly one minute later as Fairfield re-established a six-goal advantage. Both defenses clamped down from that point forward, capped by the Stags fending off a long Raiders' possession in the closing minute of the half, as the 8-2 margin held into the intermission.

The squads traded goals in the third quarter with Fairfield supplying the answer to both Colgate tallies to maintain a six-goal lead. After Chase Wittich got on the board for the Raiders, Borda notched his first career goal for the Stags. The junior defenseman was unmarked and carried the ball the length of the field, stopping his run in front of the crease and rattling the cage for a goal. After a Cam Williams tally, the Stags ended the quarter with Burke's fourth goal in the closing seconds on a Horning assist to take a 10-4 lead into the final stanza.

With Fairfield slowing the pace offensively, the margin was more than sufficient for the Stags to keep the Raiders at bay in the fourth quarter. Neubauer scored twice in the final frame, while Colgate put home three goals to round out the final score at 12-7.

Game 9: Fairfield vs. Quinnipiac

Neubauer and Burke Lift Stags Over Quinnipiac, 13-7

Duo combines for nine goals in victory over in-state rival Bobcats

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – TJ Neubauer and Colin Burke combined for nine goals as the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team raced past visiting Quinnipiac, 13-7, under the lights on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. Neubauer added six ground balls to his five goals scored for the Stags.

Fairfield has now won back-to-back games for the first time in 2016 following up on Saturday's 12-7 victory at Colgate. The Stags look to move to .500 this weekend when they travel to nationally-ranked No. 6 Villanova.

With a season-high five goals today, Neubauer moves past Michael Bocklet '07 and Devin Laden '98 into fifth place all-time at Fairfield with 98 career goals. The senior co-captain of the Stags has scored a hat trick or better in five of his last six games. This spring, he has totaled 20 goals in seven contests.

Burke rattled the cage four times to improve his team-leading total to 25 markers. He has scored four goals in three contests this season with at least one marker and two total points in each of the first nine games of his collegiate career. Burke entered the day ranked fourth in the nation among freshmen in goals per game.

Neubauer and Burke are now the top two goal scorers in the CAA with 2.86 and 2.78 goals per game, respectively. Burke also leads the Association with 3.33 points per contest.

In tonight's contest, Joe Rodrigues added two goals with Charlie Horning and Conor Dalton each netting one. Charlie Schnider dished out two assists to improve his CAA-leading total to 17. Rodrigues, Jake Knostman and Drew Murray also distributed assists for the Stags.

On the opposite side of the field, goalkeeper Tyler Behring ceded a season-low seven goals for the second straight game and made eight saves.

The Stags dominated the possession game this evening, winning 17-of-24 faceoffs. Will Fox went 15-of-19 at the 'X' with four ground balls and Joe DeLasho won a pair of draws.

For the first time this season, Fairfield never trailed in the game as unassisted goals from Burke and Neubauer (man-up) staking the hosts to a 2-0 edge. Quinnipiac would tie the score early in the second frame, but the Stags rattled off six unanswered markers – including two more from the crosse of Neubauer – to enter the half with a 7-2 lead.

Burke kept the momentum rolling with a goal to start the action in the third quarter, and Fairfield would add three more in the period to carry an 11-3 advantage into the final 15 minutes of action. Quinnipiac would chip away with four four-quarter markers, but the Stags worked the clock with long, deliberate possession as Neubauer and Dalton added insurance goals in the period to round out the 13-7 final count.

Foster Cuomo and Anthony Carchietta each scored two goals with an assist for Quinnipiac to lead the Bobcats' offense. Jack Brust made 11 saves in the cage for the visitors.

Game 10: Fairfield at Villanova

Stags Fall at No. 6 Villanova in Non-Conference Finale

Fairfield visits Hofstra to open CAA action next Saturday

VILLANOVA, Pa. – The Fairfield University men’s lacrosse team saw its string of two consecutive wins stopped by No. 6 Villanova. Colin Burke racked up four points for the Stags, but the host Wildcats continued their strong play this spring with a 15-9 win.

Burke, who entered the day at the CAA leader in points per game, netted his team-leading 26th goal of the campaign and handed out a career-high three assists to improve his overall point total to 34.

Charlie Horning (a first-year transfer from Villanova), Jake Knostman and Nico Panepinto each scored a pair of goals for the Stags, and Charlie Schnider doled out two assists to increase his CAA-leading total to 19 helpers. Drew Murray and TJ Neubauer each added one goal, with Horning and Murray both handing out an assist to round out the Fairfield attack.

Tyler Behring made the start in the cage and recorded nine saves. Brad Nordstrom took over in goal in the fourth quarter and turned away all four shots that he faced.

Joe DeLasho led the away at the faceoff ‘X’ with a 9-for-18 mark and three ground balls. Will Fox added four wins on the draw, and Neubauer corralled four ground balls in the midfield.

Devin McNamara led Villanova (6-1) to its sixth consecutive win with four goals and two assists. Christian Cuccinello added five points – two goals and three assists. Dan Willis made eight saves for the Wildcats.

Game 11: Fairfield at Hofstra

Stags Open CAA Slate with 9-8 Win at Hofstra

Burke racks up six points for the Stags

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. – Colin Burke had a career day with six points to lead the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team to a 9-8 win at Hofstra. The contest was the Colonial Athletic Association opener for both squads.

The Stags, who are the defending regular season champions of the CAA, improve to 5-6 on the season with a 1-0 CAA mark. Hofstra falls to 6-4 overall and 0-1 in the Association. Hofstra entered the contest unranked but had risen as high as No. 8 in the national polls earlier this spring.

Burke netted a hat trick – his sixth of the spring – to improve his CAA-leading total to 29 goals, while the second consecutive three-assist game for the freshman improves his point total to 40.

With four regular season games remaining, Burke is in striking distance of a pair of Fairfield freshman records. He is nine goals short of the freshman goals record of 38 established by Spencer Steele '00 in 1997 and 13 points away from the 53 (26 goals, 27 assists) amassed by J.T. Groarke '99 in 1996. Both Steele and Groarke are Fairfield Athletics Hall of Famers.

Also getting into the scoring act for Fairfield were TJ Neubauer and Joe Rodrigues with two goals apiece. Conor Dalton added a goal and an assist and Jake Knostman netted one goal. Charlie Horning also dished out an assist for the Stags.

With his pair of goals, Neubauer became the fifth Stag to reach the 100-goal mark. His 101 tallies tie him with Fairfield Athletics Hall of Famer Greg Downing '07 for fourth all-time in program history.

Will Fox led the efforts on the draw with five wins, and Joe DeLasho came away with four faceoffs. Fox's final win was the biggest of the day, reclaiming possession for the Stags with 30 seconds to play after Hofstra scored to cut the deficit to 9-8.

Also in the transition game, Neubauer scooped up a team-leading four ground balls. On the defensive end, Logan Williamson and Matt Borda each collected three ground balls and Andrew Eidenshink reeled in two.

Tyler Behring picked up the win in the cage with 13 saves, nine of which came in the second half.

The Fairfield defense stifled Hofstra's potent scoring duo of Josh Byrne and Sam Llinares, keeping Byrne off the board and limiting reigning CAA Player of the Year Llinares to one goal. Korey Henderickson picked up the slack on the offensive end for the Pride with six goals.

Jack Concannon made 16 saves in the cage for the hosts.

Game 12: Fairfield vs. Drexel

Stags Rally Past Drexel, 8-7, at Rafferty Stadium

Schnider collects six points, Neubauer nets a hat trick in the CAA win

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – The Fairfield University men’s lacrosse team used a five-goal run in the second half to surge past visiting Drexel, 8-7, in Colonial Athletic Association action. Charlie Schnider racked up six points for the Stags, and TJ Neubauer netted a hat trick before a crowd of 1,321 at Rafferty Stadium and a nationwide audience watching on ESPN3.

“I give credit to Drexel; they came out ready to play” said Head Coach Andy Copelan. “But we’re a resilient group, and we chipped away one play at a time. We’re still a work in progress, but I’m proud of our guys for an outstanding effort in the second half.”

Schnider matched a pair of career highs this afternoon with five assists and six total points. The senior leads the CAA with 24 assists (2.00 per game) and slots fifth in the Association with 2.67 points per contest.

Schnider facilitated two of Neubauer’s three goals as the senior co-captain ran his season total to 26 goals. Neubauer also claimed sole possession of fourth place on the Stags’ all-time list with 104 tallies. He is two goals behind J.T Groarke '99 for third on the career ledger.

Reigning CAA Rookie of the Week Colin Burke added two goals – improving his CAA leading total to 31 – and dished out an assist. The freshman is also the CAA’s point leader with 43 following today’s effort. Burke has scored at least two points with at least one goal in all 12 games this season. Rounding out the Fairfield scoring on the day were Drew Murray with two goals and Charlie Horning with one assist.

In the midfield, Neubauer and Horning led the effort with six ground balls. Three of Neubauer’s grabs came on the draw, where Will Fox went 5-of-12 and Joe DeLasho added a 2-of-6 day. Joe Guidarelli also collected a pair of ground balls for the Stags.

Tyler Behring helmed the cage and made seven saves to earn the win. He also picked up four ground balls and had a pair of caused turnovers. Guidarelli also caused two turnovers on the defensive end.

Drexel struck first with a marker less than 90 seconds into the game, and both defenses that held pat until the final minutes of the first quarter. After Fusco rattled the cage to extend the Dragons’ lead to 2-0, Fairfield got on the board as Neubauer fired and beat the buzzer with a goal as the period expired.

Two quick Drexel goals in the second quarter extended the lead to 4-1 before Schnider converted a feed from Burke to trim the margin. However, the Dragons closed the first-half scoring on a transition goal from Fusco the snuck past Behring to run the score to 5-2 heading into the intermission.

It appeared that Drexel maintained its momentum into the third quarter with a goal at 14:38 in the period, but that marker was the starting point of a more than 23-minute drought for the Dragons as Fairfield surged into the lead.

Murray provided the first answer at 12:48 in the third and Neubauer once again scored in the final seconds of a period as the Stags headed into the fourth quarter facing a 6-4 deficit.

Fairfield earned an extra-man opportunity early in the fourth frame, and Murray struck again to cut the deficit 6-5 with 13:26 to play. The equalizer then came from the stick of Burke, who worked his way in front of the net and beat Granito to even the score at 6-6. Just 75 seconds later, the Stags took advantage of another man-up chance as Burke cashed in a feed from Schnider to stake Fairfield to its first lead of the day at 7-6.

Fairfield went 2-for-4 on its extra-man opportunities, converting both of its 60-second chances and coming up empty on two 30-second tries.

Drexel leveled the score at 7-7 on Rainoldi’s second goal of the day with 6:16 to play, and the Dragons came away with the ensuing faceoff. However, Fairfield forced a turnover to reclaim possession, and Neubauer rattled the cage with the marker that stood as the game-winner with 3:20 to play.

The visitors from Drexel would once again win the faceoff, but Matt Borda scooped up an errant pass as the Stags cleared the ball and looked to run out the clock. Though a 30-second clock violation gave the Dragons a final possession in the closing the seconds, the Fairfield defense locked down as time expired on an 8-7 victory.
