Fairfield, Conn. • Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium

The Lead

On the heels of a Tuesday victory over Quinnipiac, Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse hosts its second consecutive in-state foe on Saturday as #10/11 Yale comes to Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium for a 1 p.m. faceoff. All of the action will be broadcast by the Stags Sports Network on Facebook Live.

Fairfield's Last Time Out

Fueled by a five-point day from Jack Brennan and 13 saves by Sean McKee, the Stags raced out to a 6-0 lead en route to a 9-6 win over visiting Quinnipiac on Tuesday at Rafferty Stadium. Joe Rodrigues added two goals to extend his team-leading total to 13 markers on the year, and the quartet of Liam DaRos, Taylor Strough, Brendan Quinn and Charlie Curran each scored one.

Also helping to facilitate the scoring were DaRos, Strough, Dylan Beckwith, Colin Burke and Charlie Horning with one assist apiece.

Will Fox played his part in keeping Fairfield on the attack with a 14-for-19 showing at the faceoff X. Fox, who entered the day ranked sixth in the nation with 9.00 ground balls per game, maintained that CAA-leading average with nine more pick-ups on Tuesday. Jake Tymon also helped to control the action in the midfield with a career-best four ground balls and a caused turnover.

Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse

Head Coach Andy Copelan

10th Season • Bucknell '03
2015 CAA Coach of the Year

The 2018 season is Andy Copelan's 10th at the helm of the Fairfield University men's lacrosse team. He has posted an 80-62 (.563) record with the Stags and owns an overall NCAA Division I head coaching record of 98-77 (.560).

Copelan was named the program's third head coach in varsity history on August 25, 2008 and has returned the Stags to the national conversation. Fairfield has entered the USILA national rankings in seven of Copelan's nine years on the sidelines and defeated a nationally-rank foe in eight of his nine campaigns with the Stags.

Copelan led the Stags into a new era beginning in 2015, as Fairfield joined the nationally-prominent Colonial Athletic Association. The Stags have made an immediate impact on the CAA, winning back-to-back regular season titles. Fairfield hosted the 2015 CAA Championship on newly-constructed Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. In 2016, the Stags advanced to their first-ever CAA Championship Game.

Copelan was tabbed as the CAA Coach of the Year in 2015. In three seasons with CAA Lacrosse, the Stags have collected 20 All-CAA honors, highlighted by 2015 Rookie of the Year recognition for Will Fox '18 and 2016 Rookie and co-Player of the Year nods for Colin Burke '19.

Fairfield student-athletes also continue to gain the national and regional spotlight. Burke and TJ Neubauer '16 were USILA All-America Honorable Mentions in 2016 with Neubauer also garnering All-New England First Team distinction for the third straight season.

Neubauer was also drafted by the Rochester Rattlers in the fourth round of the Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft. Neubauer was the highest-drafted Stag since Greg Downing '07 was tabbed as the sixth overall pick and only First Round selection in program history in 2007. Neubauer was the 10th Stag during Copelan's tenure to be drafted or signed as a free agent into the MLL ranks.

The 2014 edition of the club boasted a final record of 12-4, tying the program's single-season wins mark. The campaign began with a record-setting 7-0 start and included the team's first-ever ECAC Lacrosse League Regular Season Championship and a trip to ECAC Championship Game.

Fairfield made four consecutive ECAC postseason appearances from 2011-14, including three trips to the ECAC Championship Game. Along the way, the program earned several landmark victories. Copelan's 2013 club recorded the Stags' first-ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team with an overtime triumph at No. 1 Denver, and the 2010 Fairfield team topped a Notre Dame club that went on to reach the NCAA National Championship Game.

Copelan has seen his student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. During his stay at the helm, every student-athlete that has completed his eligibility has also earned a degree from Fairfield. The Stags had 39 student-athletes earn All-ECAC Academic Team honors under Copelan's tutelage, including a program-high 10 honorees in 2014. In 2015, Max Buchanan '15 and Tristan Sperry '15 collected USILA Scholar All-America distinctions following their senior campaigns.

Signs of the Stags' return to national prominence were immediate when Copelan took the reins for the 2009 season. His first team went 7-6 overall to earn the program's first winning record since 2005 and a winning mark (4-3) in the ECAC Lacrosse League for the first time since joining the league in 2006. Fairfield has continued its upward trend under Copelan; the Stags have never closed the year with a sub-.500 record overall or in conference play during his tenure.

Fairfield is the second head coaching stop on Copelan's resume, who was the youngest head coach in the nation when he was hired to lead Marist College in 2004. In his first season with the Red Foxes, he was named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Coach of the Year following a MAAC Regular Season Championship and the program's first winning season in six years. In 2005, he led Marist to its first-ever NCAA postseason berth.

The Matchup: Fairfield vs. #10/11 Yale

Scouting Yale

The Yale Bulldogs have won their last three games to claim #10 in the Inside Lacrosse Maverik Media Poll and #11 in the USILA Coaches' Poll entering this weekend. Yale started the campaign with an overtime loss to Villanova before reeling off wins over Michigan, UMass and Bryant. The Bulldogs went 10-6 last spring to claim the Ivy League Championship and a berth in the NCAA postseason, where they fell at Syracuse in the opening round.

Yale is led offensively by First Team All-America attackman Ben Reeves, who has justified his place as a Tewaaraton Award contender with 14 goals and 10 assists through four games. Jack Tigh adds 14 points with eight goals and six helpers.

First-year goalkeeper Jack Starr started the first three games in the cage, posting a .475 save percentage and 10.13 goals-against average. Brody Wilson got the start in Yale's most recent outing at Bryant and made 10 saves with eight goals allowed in the winning effort.

Connor Mackie shoulders the load at the faceoff X, winning 50 percent (46-of-92) of his draws to date with 26 ground balls. Mackie was an All-America Honorable Mention and First Team All-Ivy League honoree last spring.

All-Time Series vs. Yale (Yale leads 10-1)

Despite Yale's 10-1 lead in the all-time series, recent meetings have been defined by close games. The Stags and Bulldogs have played three overtime contests in the last four encounters with Fairfield taking an overtime win in 2014 and Yale claiming double-overtime decisions in both 2015 and 2017.

The Bulldogs are the only team against whom the Stags have played more than one multiple-overtime game, and the squads have met in a Fairfield program record four overtime contests.

In total, five of the 11 all-time meetings in the series have been decided by one goal.

Fairfield vs. Ranked Opponents

Saturday's game will be Fairfield's second meeting this spring with a nationally-ranked opponent. The Stags fell to #13/15 Rutgers on Feb. 24. Vermont was unranked for its visit to Rafferty Stadium but has since risen to #15/15 in the national polls.

Following last April's win over #15 Towson, Fairfield has defeated at least one ranked opponent (in the USILA Coaches' Poll) in eight of Andy Copelan's nine prior seasons at the helm of the Stags.

Not Settled in Sixty

Fairfield's 11-10 double-overtime loss at #15 Yale last season marked the third time in the last four campaigns that the Stags and Bulldogs have played an extra session. At 66:46 of game time, the contest at Yale was the Stags' longest outing since a triple-overtime win (69:53) at Hofstra on Feb. 28, 2012.

The longest game in Fairfield Lacrosse history is a 7-6 triple-overtime loss at #14 Rutgers that clocked in at 71:48 on April 1, 2004.

Scoring Streaks

After another two -goal outing in Tuesday's win over Quinnipiac, Joe Rodrigues has rattled the cage in 11 straight games dating back to last spring. That stretch includes nine multi-goal efforts.

The longest active point streak for a Stag is a 17-game run for Dylan Beckwith. Beckwith, who posted at least one goal or assist in each of the final 11 games of 2017, kept the streak alive with an assist against the Bobcats.

Rodrigues currently leads the Stags in goals (13) and points (15). Beckwith is the team's top facilitator with eight assists to go along with his five goals this spring.

Stags on the Run

Fairfield scored the final five goals of last Saturday's game against Stony Brook then notched the first six tallies of the Tuesday win over Quinnipiac. The Stags kept their opponents off the board for a total of 43:29 of gametime with eight different Stags contributing a goal or an assist during that run.

Man-Up Magic

Fairfield went 5-for-5 on its extra-man opportunities last Saturday against Stony Brook. Jack Brennan netted two of the goals scored on the advantage, while McKay Sheahan, Taylor Strough and Joe Rodrigues accounted for one apiece.

The team's perfect performance on the EMO is the first unblemished, single-game showing of at least five chances in the nation this season. Five man-up goals also marks the most by a Fairfield team in a game since netting six (on eight opportunities) in a win over Manhattan on Feb. 22, 2014.

Fairfield went on to score on the first two of its three man-up situations on Tuesday against Quinnipiac to run its streak to seven straight goals on the EMO. The Stags currently rank ninth in the nation with a .526 (10-for-19) success rate on extra-man opportunities. Of the eight teams to currently sport a better EMO percentage than the Stags, only North Carolina (.696, 16-for-23) has done so while earning more total man-up chances than Fairfield. UMass Lowell leads the country in man-up offense with a .700 (7-for-10) percentage.

'X' Marks the Spot

Will Fox currently ranks eighth in the nation and second in the CAA with a .647 faceoff win percentage (86-for-133). His 9.00 ground balls per game currently slot him atop the CAA and sixth in all of Division I.

Fox's .810 win percentage (17-for-21) in the Feb. 17 win at Saint Joseph's was the best by a Stags' faceoff man (minimum 20 attempts) since Michael Roe had a 20-for-23 (.870) day against Vermont in 2012.

In addition, with 14 ground balls picked up against Saint Joseph's, Fox matched the known program record set in a win over Holy Cross in 2002 by Fairfield and Major League Lacrosse faceoff standard bearer Peter Vlahakis '04.

Fox has won at least 50 percent of his attempts on the draw in seven consecutive games dating back to the end of the 2017 campaign.

Senior CLASS Award

Fox has been recognized as one of 20 candidates nationwide for the Senior CLASS Award, and honor focused on the total student-athlete and encouraging students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

To go along with his prowess on the lacrosse field, Fox is a Dean's List and CAA Commissioner's Honor Roll student as a Psychology major. He is one of Fairfield's representatives on the MAAC Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Climbing the Charts

After a two-goal outing at Rutgers on Feb. 24, Colin Burke rose to 10th in Fairfield Lacrosse history with 75 career markers. Burke most recently dished out an assist in Tuesday's win over Quinnipiac to move into 12th all-time at Fairfield with 114 career points.

When Burke eclipsed the 100-point mark in Fairfield's 2017 season-ending win over Delaware - his 31st career game - he became the fourth fastest to attain the milestone in program history.

The Rookie Rundown

The Fairfield roster includes 13 newcomers, seven of whom have made their Fairfield debuts in 2018: Curran, Strough, Labetti, Tymon, McAuliffe, Elmquist and Friedt.

The baker's dozen of new student-athletes represent every position on the field as well as nine different states. The newcomers that traveled the farthest to get to campus are Max McGuire from Del Mar, California and Lucas Pedersen from Bainbridge Island, Washington.

Also of note, freshman Zane Friedt is the first-ever NCAA Division I men's lacrosse player to hail from the state of Idaho.

Stag Watching

The Stags Sports Network on Facebook Live is the flagship broadcast entity for Fairfield Lacrosse this season. A total of 14 men's and women's lacrosse home games from Rafferty Stadium are on the slate to stream for free at Facebook.com/FairfieldUathletics.

The Fairfield men's home games against Penn State on March 17 and UMass on April 21 have been tabbed by the Lax Sports Network as the CAA Game of the Week.

Up Next

Another opponent currently appearing in the national rankings is on deck next Saturday, March 17 when the Stags welcome #20/20 Penn State to Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium for a 1 p.m. opening faceoff.

Game 1: Vermont 12, Fairfield 5

Stags Stopped by Vermont in 2018 Season Opener

Rodrigues nets two goals to lead the Fairfield attack

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse opened the 2018 campaign this afternoon on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium, dropping a 12-5 decision to visiting Vermont. Joe Rodrigues netted two goals to pace five Stags that registered points on the day.

Fairfield falls to 0-1 with the loss, and Vermont improves to 3-0 on the season after sweeping a southern road trip last weekend at Furman and Mercer.

Joining Rodrigues in the scoring column were Travis Ford, Drew Murray and Spencer Noonan with one goal apiece, while Dylan Beckwith handed out an assist.

The visiting Catamounts came out firing at Rafferty Stadium, netting the contest's first eight goals. Noonan ended the drought for the Stags with his first career goal. The senior defenseman corralled a ground ball off of a faceoff and went coast-to-coast for the marker less than two minutes before the half. The tally was also Fairfield's first man-down goal since Colin McLinden converted while the Stags were shorthanded in a win at UMass on April 4, 2015.

After a quick Vermont tally to start the third quarter, Fairfield put together back-to-back goals for the first time, starting with Murray finishing a pass from Beckwith to cut the deficit to 9-2. Less than 70 seconds later, the Stags struck again as Rodrigues – a Second Team All-CAA selection last spring – rattled the cage for the first time to make it a 9-3 contest with 12:15 remaining in the third.

Neither team would score until the final stanza, when Vermont converted off of the opening draw to extend the margin back to 10-3. Once again, it was Rodrigues who offered the rebuttal as he withstood a push from behind to finish off his second goal of the day. However, the Catamounts responded with back-to-back markers to thwart the potential for a Fairfield run.

In the closing minutes of action, Ford – who hit the post and the crossbar on consecutive shots earlier in the game – found the back of the cage for the first time in 2018 to round out the final score at 12-5.

Will Fox handled the duties at the faceoff 'X', starting his senior campaign with a 14-for-21 showing with a team-leading seven groundballs. Beckwith and Adam Riestis each added three ground balls in the midfield.

Sean McKee and Sam Gindhart split the effort in the cage for the Stags, both making their collegiate debut today on Conway Field. McKee made three saves in the opening half of action and Gindhart turned away six shots after the intermission.

Vermont was led by three goals and two assists from All-America attackman Ian MacKay, who was the 2016 America East Offensive Player of the Year but missed all of 2017 due to injury. Ben French also netted a hat trick for the Catamounts. Nick Washuta made 13 saves over the first 54:33 of action to earn the win in goal, with Ryan Cornell stopping three shots to close out the day in relief.

The Stags now begin a two-game road swing next Saturday, Feb. 17, with a noon visit to Saint Joseph's in Philadelphia. After a trip to Rutgers the following Saturday, the Stags start a six-game homestand on Tuesday, Feb. 27 against in-state foe Hartford.

Game 2: Fairfield 11, Saint Joseph's 6

Stags Shutdown Saint Joseph's for First Win of 2018

Fox dominates the X with 14 ground balls, 1 goal as part of a 17-for-21 showing

PHILADELPHIA – Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse picked up its first win of 2018 on Saturday afternoon with an 11-6 victory at Saint Joseph's. Three Stags recorded three points on the day, including a hat trick for Brendan Quinn.

With the win, Fairfield improves to 1-1 on the young season. Saint Joseph's drops to 0-1.

In addition to Quinn's three goals – the first three of his career – Dylan Beckwith handed out three assists and Colin Burke notched three points by way of a goal and two helpers. Taylor Strough added the first two points of his Fairfield career with a goal and an assist, and Joe Rodrigues also recorded one goal and one assist. Rounding out the attack were single goals from Drew Murray, Travis Ford, Charlie Curran (first career goal), Jack Brennan and Will Fox.

In addition to his first career goal, Fox was dominant at the faceoff X to keep the Fairfield offense on the field. The senior went 17-for-21 and collected 14 ground balls to match the known program record set by Fairfield and MLL faceoff standard bearer Peter Vlahakis '04. Vlahakis went 18-for-27 on the dot with 14 ground balls in a 14-9 win at Holy Cross on Feb. 23, 2002.

The goals for Brennan and Strough this afternoon were man-up as the Stags went 2-for-4 on extra-man opportunities. Burke assisted on both man-advantage tallies.

Defensively, Fairfield held the host Hawks to their lowest scoring output in 12 games dating back to last season. The Stags forced 14 Saint Joseph's turnovers with seven different players recording a caused turnover, and held the Hawks to a 1-for-5 day on extra-man chances. Sean McKee earned his first career win in goal with 12 saves to go along with two ground balls and a caused turnover.

Mike Rastivo and Kyle Cain each potted two goals for the Hawks. Cain also distributed an assist, while Chris Blewitt had a pair of helpers. Mike Adler made 10 stops in the cage for Saint Joseph's.

The Stags are back at it next Saturday, Feb. 24, for a noon faceoff at #7 Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took their first loss of 2018 this afternoon, falling by a count of 9-7 at #12 Army West Point.

Action returns to Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium on Tuesday, Feb. 27 when the Stags host in-state foe Hartford at 3 p.m. The Hawks lost their season opener today – a 14-12 setback at St. John's – and will host Bryant next weekend before visiting Fairfield.

#13/15 Rutgers Makes Late Run to Top Stags, 12-7

Rodrigues racks up four points, Burke nets a pair for Fairfield

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Trailing 8-5 with just 15 minutes to play, Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse scored back-to-back goals to climb within one of #13/15 Rutgers on Saturday afternoon. However, it was the host Scarlet Knights who made the game's final run to pull away for a 12-7 decision at High Points Solution Stadium in Piscataway.

With the loss, the Stags fall to 1-2 on the season. Rutgers improves to 3-1.

Joe Rodrigues led the Fairfield attack with three goals – including one of the two fourth-quarter markers – and an assist. Colin Burke added a pair of goals, with Dylan Beckwith and Frankie Labetti each netting one. Labetti's goal in the final frame of action was the first of his career. In addition to Rodrigues's helper, Charlie Curran dished out a pair of assists and Brendan Quinn distributed one.

With their performances today, Rodrigues extends his streak to eight straight games with a goal – a run that has featured six multi-goal efforts – while Beckwith continues his stretch of 14 consecutive outings notching at least one point.

In the midfield, Will Fox went 11-for-22 on faceoff attempts and scooped up a team-best five ground balls. Adam Riestis added a pair of ground balls from the defensive midfield.

Sean McKee helmed the Fairfield cage and made a career-best 13 saves. His performance included six stops in the second quarter and four in the final frame to help facilitate a pair of scoring runs for the Stags.

All-America attackman Jules Heningburg led the Rutgers offense with four goals and two assists, while Christian Mazzone added two goals and two helpers. Max Edelmann made 11 saves to earn the decision in the Scarlet Knights' cage.

Rutgers outshot the Stags, 39-34, and held a 32-22 advantage in ground balls. The Scarlet Knights also nabbed a slight edge in faceoffs, winning 12 draws to Fairfield's 11. The Stags went 16-for-19 on the clear, while Rutgers was 18-for-20.

Action returns to Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium on Tuesday, Feb. 27 when the Stags host in-state foe Hartford at 3 p.m. The Hawks (0-2) fell to Bryant, 15-10, this afternoon and previously took a 14-12 setback at St. John's.

Next Tuesday's game starts a six-game homestand for the Stags that will also feature contests with Stony Brook, Quinnipiac, #11/11 Yale, #15/16 Penn State and NJIT.

Fairfield Lacrosse fans can purchase a $40 LaxPass for admission to all eight remaining regular season home games. Single-game tickets are also on sale now at FairfieldStags.com/TIX.

Game 4: Hartford 16, Fairfield 11

Tuesday Matinee at Rafferty Stadium Goes to Hartford, 16-11

Dylan Beckwith posts career highs with four goals, six total points

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – A seven-goal third quarter outburst for visiting Hartford proved decisive as Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse was on the short side of a 16-11 decision on Tuesday afternoon on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium. Dylan Beckwith led the Stags' attack with four goals and two assists.

Beckwith, who set new career highs in both goals and total points, was one of three players with at least three goals for Fairfield (1-3). Joe Rodrigues netted three markers to extend his team lead to nine goals on the season, while Charlie Curran rang up the first hat trick of his career. Beckwith and Rodrigues now share the team lead with 11 points apiece.

After today's efforts, Rodrigues has put together a nine-game goal scoring streak dating back to last spring – a run that includes seven multi-goal games. Beckwith owns the team-best active point-scoring streak with a goal or assist in 15 consecutive outings.

Also rattling the cage today was Brendan Quinn, who also dished out a pair of assists. Colin Burke, Travis Ford and Taylor Strough round out the attack with one assist apiece.

The matchup at the faceoff X featured Will Fox squaring off with Hartford All-American Dylan Protesto. Fox went 11-for-18 against Protesto, who entered the day ranked third in the nation in win percentage on the draw, and finished at 18-for-31 overall with a team-best 11 ground balls.

Fox's performance led the Stags to a 37-27 overall lead in ground balls. Samuel Murphy and Spencer Noonan each had three pick-ups in the midfield, and Curran scooped up three to keep possession alive in the attacking end.

Sean McKee started in goal and made 11 saves in addition to three ground balls and a caused turnover. Sam Gindhart completed the day in the cage with a pair of second-half saves.

Hartford's (1-2) Alex Smith led all players with five goals, while Justin Huggins potted four for the Hawks. Ryan Vanderford earned the win in goal with 10 saves.

The Stags held a 52-29 lead in shots – Fairfield's most since sending 55 attempts at Providence on Feb. 21, 2004 – and committed 12 turnovers to Hartford's 13 giveaways. Fairfield was 12-for-13 on the clear, while the Hawks posted a 15-for-19 mark on clearing attempts.

Today's game was the first of a six-game homestand for the Stags. The Stags continue their Rafferty Stadium residency on Saturday, March 3 for a 1 p.m. visit from Stony Brook. Tickets are on sale at FairfieldStags.com/TIX.

Rally Runs Out for Stags in 11-9 Loss to Stony Brook

Fairfield finishes the day on a 5-0 run

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse scored the last five goals of the day, but it would not be enough to overcome visiting Stony Brook on Saturday afternoon as the Seawolves left Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium with an 11-9 decision. Jack Brennan, Charlie Horning and Joe Rodrigues each scored two goals for the Stags on the day.

Brennan added an assist to his two-goal day to ring up a career-best three points. Both of his markers came in man-up situations as Fairfield (1-4) went 5-for-5 on extra-man opportunities. The performance on the EMO is the first perfect showing of at least five chances in the nation this season. Five man-up goals marks the most by a Fairfield team in a game since netting six in a win over Manhattan on Feb. 22, 2014.

Rodrigues' two goals, which came just 25 seconds apart near the end of the third quarter, extend his team-leading totals to 11 goals and 13 points this spring. He has scored at least one goal in 10 consecutive contests dating back to 2017 – a run that includes eight multi-goal efforts.

Horning's two goals also both came in the second half as the senior put home his first two markers of the year. Rounding out the attack were Drew Murray, Taylor Strough and McKay Sheahan with one goal apiece. Sheahan's goal was the first of his collegiate career.

Colin Burke dished out three assists to move into a tie for 12th all-time (with Rob Scipioni '02) with 113 career points. Murray also handed out a pair of helpers for the first two-assist day of his career. Brennan, Strough, Dylan Beckwith and Liam DaRos each had one assist on the day.

At the faceoff X, Will Fox went 12-for-19 with eight ground balls to register his sixth consecutive game at 50 percent or better on the draw. Joe De Lasho added one faceoff victory, and Samuel Murphy aided efforts in the midfield with two ground balls.

Sean McKee helmed the cage and made 11 saves to go along with three ground balls and a caused turnover. J.B. Smith and Andrew Murrow picked up three and two ground balls, respectively, on close defense and Spencer Noonan collected a ground ball and caused three turnovers from the starting LSM spot.

Stony Brook (1-4) was led on the attack by Patrick Kaschalk with three goals and two assists. Michael Bollinger earned the win in goal for the Seawolves with 13 saves.

The Stags outshot Stony Brook, 33-26, and the visitors held the edge in ground balls, 40-38. Both teams committed 17 turnovers.

The Seawolves got off to a fast start with four consecutive goals before Sheahan's first goal as a Stag – and Fairfield's first man-up goal of the day – cut the margin to 4-1 late in the first quarter. Stony Brook would add five more in the second frame, however, with man-up goals by Brennan and Strough pushing the halftime score to 9-3 in favor of the Seawolves.

Fairfield got on the board first after the intermission as Horning finished a Beckwith feed just 61 seconds into the third stanza. After nine scoreless minutes of action, Stony Brook struck with two goals in just seven ticks as Kaschalk scored and Tyler Anderson won the ensuing faceoff, carrying it coast-to-coast and rattling the cage for a goal. Fairfield responded in kind as Joe Rodrigues scored with the flag down with 1:15 left in the frame. The Stags took advantage one again of the extra-man opportunity as Fox won the faceoff and Murray found Rodrigues 25 seconds later for another goal as the third quarter expired with Fairfield trailing 11-6.

All three tallies in the fourth quarter went to the Stags – courtesy of Horning, Brennan and Murray – as McKee made two stops and the defense forced five turnovers over the final 15 minutes. However, the deficit proved insurmountable as time expired on an 11-9 final.

"This team hasn't had any quit in them since day one," said Head Coach Andy Copelan. "But we all need to do a better job of transitioning what we do in practice and in film sessions to what we do on gameday."

Up next, Fairfield hosts its second in-state foe of the spring when Quinnipiac comes to Rafferty Stadium on Tuesday, March 6 for a 3 p.m. contest.

Game 6: Fairfield 9, Quinnipiac 6

Strong Start Propels Stags to 9-6 Win Over Quinnipiac

Fairfield nets the first six goals to top its in-state foe at Rafferty Stadium

FAIRFIELD, Conn. – Fairfield University Men's Lacrosse scored the first six goals of the day against visiting Quinnipiac on Tuesday on Conway Field at Rafferty Stadium and kept the Bobcats at arm's length en route to a 9-6 victory. Jack Brennan racked up a career-best five points to pilot the attack. Fairfield (2-4) snaps a three-game losing skid with its first home victory of the year, while the Bobcats fall to 2-3.

"We certainly didn't talk about today as a 'must win' game and we haven't talked about being 1-4 going into the game all that much," said Head Coach Andy Copelan. "In my heart of hearts, I expected us to be better than 1-4 after five games, but the analogy that we've used is that we can't live in the rearview mirror right now. Everything has to be about the road ahead, and I was proud of the guys for having the ability to do that."

Brennan netted a personal-best three goals and distributed two assists to account for his five points – all of which came in the first half as the Stags built the 8-1 lead that they would ride to victory. Joe Rodrigues added two goals to extend his team-leading total to 13 markers on the year, and the quartet of Liam DaRos, Taylor Strough, Brendan Quinn and Charlie Curran each scored one.

Also helping to facilitate the scoring were DaRos, Strough, Dylan Beckwith, Colin Burke and Charlie Horning with one assist apiece.

Will Fox played his part in keeping Fairfield on the attack with a 14-for-19 showing at the faceoff X. Fox, who entered the day ranked sixth in the nation with 9.00 ground balls per game, maintained that CAA-leading average with nine more ground balls this afternoon. Fox won the first seven draws of the game as Fairfield built its 6-0 lead and came away with 10-of-11 first-half faceoffs in total.

Jake Tymon also helped to control the action in the midfield with a career-best four ground balls and a caused turnover.

At the other end of Conway Field, Sean McKee had his best game in the cage as a Stag with 13 saves compared to just six goals allowed. McKee made seven of his stops in the fourth quarter to squash the Bobcats' late comeback attempt and also swiped three ground balls.

"Sean is an uber-talented player, and there has been something there all year long," Said Copelan of his first-year starting goalkeeper. "Part of it is game experience. He has to go through those transformative moments – both good and bad – and as long as he can grind through and keep his eyes on the finish line, it's never going to be a talent shortage for Sean. I'm proud of how he has responded and how the guys around him have responded. They haven't lost faith or confidence in him and, as a result, I think we're seeing a more confident Sean McKee out there."

Quinnipiac spread out its scoring with six different Bobcats accounting for the team's six goals. Sam Witt had one of those markers as well as one assist to set the pace for the visitors. Joe Zukauskas played the majority of minutes in goal – save for a 2:16 stretch in which he was spelled for an injury timeout – and made 10 saves.

Brennan played a role in the Stags' first four goals – netting two and assisting on two others – as Fairfield took control of the first half action. The Stags went on to score the contest's first six markers while the defense kept Quinnipiac off the board for the first 23:25 of action. In total, Fairfield ran up an 8-1 advantage over the game's first 30 minutes to take that sizable lead into the intermission.

Fairfield's six-goal second quarter including a pair of man-up goals just 59 seconds apart. Those markers – finished by Brennan and Strough, respectively – ran the Stags' streak to seven consecutive conversions on extra-man opportunities. Fairfield went 5-for-5 on the EMO in Saturday's meeting with Stony Brook to post the first and only perfect game on the advantage (with a minimum of five chances) in the nation this spring.

Quinnipiac found more success on the attack in the second half, but the Stags kept those scoring chances spread out over the final 30 minutes of action to maintain their lead. The Bobcats never trimmed the deficit to less than three goals, and DaRos added his first goal of the season for the Stags in the fourth quarter to punctuate the 9-6 victory.

Quinnipiac outshot the Stags, 37-31, and the ground ball effort was even at 32-32. Fairfield committed 11 turnovers to the Bobcats' 12 giveaways, and the Stags were a perfect 22-for-22 on the clear while the visitors converted 19 of their 22 clearing attempts.

The Stags are back in action on Saturday, March 10 for another in-state showdown as #10/11 Yale makes the trip to Rafferty Stadium for a 1 p.m. outing. The Bulldogs are 3-1 on the season following an 11-8 victory at Bryant this past Saturday.
