TOURNAMENT TIME

Fairfield University Men's Basketball heads to Atlantic City, N.J. as the seventh-seeded team in the 2022 MAAC Basketball Championship. The Stags begin the tournament against 10th-seeded Canisius on Tuesday, March 8 at 7 p.m. at Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall. The advancing team meets second-seeded Saint Peter's on Wednesday at 9:30 p.m. in the quarterfinal round. The entirety of the tournament will be broadcast on the ESPN family of networks.

THE STAGS IN THE MAAC CHAMPIONSHIP

Fairfield's trip to the MAAC Championship Game last March was the ninth finals appearance in program history. The Stags hoisted the MAAC Championship Trophy in 1986, 1987 and 1997.

LAST TIME OUT

The MAAC's top defensive team lived up to its billing on Saturday as Saint Peter's stifled Fairfield for much of the afternoon in a 57-41 setback. Jesus Cruz paced the Stags with 11 points and Supreme Cook added 10 points with eight rebounds in the regular season finale.

Cruz went 5-for-9 from the floor to account for his 11 points, including one of the Stags' four three-pointers. He also nabbed five rebounds before fouling out. Cook added two blocks to his near double-double.

Rounding out the scoring, Caleb Green hit a pair from downtown to finish with six points, Jake Wojcik scored five, Taj Benning had four, TJ Long scored three and Chris Maidoh capped the effort with two.

Cook's eight boards and Benning's seven led the Stags to a 40-36 advantage on the glass, though Saint Peter's held a 7-5 edge in second chance points. The Peacocks also turned 15 Fairfield turnovers into 25 points, with the Stags converting only six points from 12 takeaways.

THE MATCHUP

FAIRFIELD VS. CANISIUS

THE CANISIUS COLLEGE GOLDEN GRIFFINS AT A GLANCE

Canisius finished the regular season in 10th place in the MAAC with a 7-13 conference record as a part of an 11-20 overall tally. The Griffs finished strong with three straight wins: a road triumph at Quinnipiac and a home weekend sweep against Marist and Siena.

Armon Harried leads the Griffs offensively with 11.3 points per game to pace three players in double figures. Jordan Henderson adds 11.1 points per game and Malek Green has poured in 11.0 points per contest. As a unit, Canisius ranks sixth in MAAC with 69.1 points per game.

On the defensive end, Canisius slots ninth in the conference, ceding 71.5 points per outing.

LAST MEETING: FAIRFIELD 80, CANISIUS 76 (OT, 2/14/22 at Webster Bank Arena)

Taj Benning hit a layup at the buzzer to force overtime and Caleb Green sank the go-ahead jumper to beat the shot clock in the final seconds of the extra period to carry Fairfield to an 80-76 win over visiting Canisius on Valentine's Day at Webster Bank Arena. Jesus Cruz netted 14 of his career-high 25 points in the second half and overtime to pace the Stags in their second straight MAAC home win.

In addition to Cruz's 25 - which included a career-best five three-pointers on six attempts - Benning scored 17 and Green finished with eight.

Supreme Cook's pivotal overtime bucket marked the last of his 10 points to go along with eight rebounds. The Stags were edged on the boards, 32-27, which the Griffs converted to a 16-10 lead in second-chance points.

Fairfield made up that difference in the turnover battle where, despite an uncharacteristic 14 giveaways to the Griffs' 12, the Stags were the more opportunistic squad with an 18-14 advantage in points off turnovers.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Fairfield's sweep of the Griffs during the regular season moved the all-time series to 52-40 in favor of the Stags dating back to 1962. Fairfield has won five of the last six meetings coming off of a stretch in which the Griffs won four of five encounters. The Stags' most successful run was a streak of nine straight over Canisius from 2009-12. The Griffs also put together a stretch of nine consecutive wins in the series -- a run that was halted by Fairfield's victory in the 1997 MAAC Championship Game.

THE THRICE IS RIGHT

The old adage says that it's tough to beat a team for a third time. On 17 occasions, the Stags have played a team in the MAAC Championship that they swept during the regular season and are 11-6 in those contests.

Notably, the Stags have been on both sides of this bit of conventional wisdom during a pair of their title runs. In 1986, Fairfield swept Manhattan, Saint Peter's and Holy Cross in the regular season and competed the trifecta against all three foes at the Meadowlands en route to the MAAC Championship. Eleven years later, Fairfield was swept in the regular season by Iona, Saint Peter's and Canisius, but avenged all three losses to claim the 1997 conference crown.

NEWS & NOTES

FACTS, FIGURES AND MORE

TJ LONG: MAAC ALL-ROOKIE TEAM

TJ Long has been named to the MAAC All-Rookie Team, as voted upon by the league's 11 head coaches. Long finished the regular season ranked second among MAAC freshmen at 7.2 points per game to garner a spot among the conference's top five rookies.

Long's 7.2 points per game slot him at sixth on the Stags. He has come off the bench in all 31 games – one of four players to appear in every contest to date – averaging 17.2 minutes per game. Long has amassed his scoring totals on the back of .438 shooting from the floor, a team-leading .400 shooting percentage from downtown and a .750 success rate at the free throw line. His 48 made three-pointers are good for second on the team.

In addition to ranking second in rookie scoring, Long leads all MAAC freshmen in both made three-pointers per game (1.54) and three-point shooting percentage.

COMEBACK KIDS

The March 3 win over Rider was the Stags' seventh victory this season after trailing in the second half. Fairfield also played from behind during the final 20 minutes in the wins over Sacred Heart, Stony Brook, Holy Cross, Marist, Canisius and Manhattan. The overtime victory over Stony Brook featured the largest deficit that the Stags faced in an eventual win, trailing by 11 points in the second half. The Feb. 14 win over Canisius marked the latest that the Stags trailed in an eventual win as Fairfield was behind 72-70 when Taj Benning's layup went down as time expired in regulation.

TJ FROM... DEEP

TJ Long hit his first seven three-point attempts in the March 3 win over Rider. The rookie sharpshooter finished 7-for-9 with a career-high 23 points in the victory. The last Fairfield freshman to knock down at least seven three-pointers was Jerry Johnson Jr., who also went 7-for-9 in a win over Marist on Feb. 15, 2016.

FEBRUARY HIBERNATION

Fairfield played just three road games as a part of nine total outings in the month of February. The Stags started the month at Monmouth for the finale of a three-game road swing on Feb. 4 and then played six consecutive home games before returning to the road to challenge Iona on Feb. 20 and Manhattan on Feb. 27.

The shortest month of the year also included a stretch of eight MAAC games in just 17 days from Feb. 4-20.

MAIDOH MAKES IT (MOST OF THE TIME)

Chris Maidoh is currently shooting .670 (65-97) from the floor. While he does not have enough attempts to officially qualify for the Stags' record books, his shooting percentage is currently the secondbest all-time in a single season for any Fairfield player with more than five field goal attempts behind Jonathan Kasibabu's 104-for-154 (.675) performance from the floor in 2017-18.

The official Fairfield single-season record (min. 200 attempts) belongs to Hall of Famer Mark Young, who shot .629 (149-237) from the field in the 1977-78 campaign.

A SUPREME STAT LINE

Supreme Cook's 11 points and 10 rebounds on Feb. 20 at Iona polished off his seventh double-double of the season, the most since Amadou Sidibe posted nine in 2016-17.

SEE YOU (MUCH) LATER

The Stags saw Saint Peter's for the first time on Feb. 18 in their 16th MAAC game of the season. This scheduling quirk has only happened once before at Fairfield in seasons with a 20-game MAAC slate (excluding the "back-to-back" schedule format employed in 2020-21). In the 2014-15 campaign, Fairfield did not meet Niagara for the first time until the 17th MAAC game of the season.

ONE AT A TIME

Manhattan claimed the win over the Stags on Feb. 16 on the back of 30 free throws on 33 attempts. Only Providence (24-36) has had more attempts from the stripe this season. The last time an opponent scored 30 or more of its points from the foul line was in 2014-15, when it happened on three occasions: at Marist (37-44), vs. Quinnipiac (31-51) and at Monmouth (30-40).

BANK HOLIDAY

The Stags played an unprecedented six-game homestand spanning from Feb. 6-18. The stretch was the longest homestand comprised only of conference games in both Fairfield and MAAC history, excluding the "back-to-back" scheduling model that was used due to Covid-19 during the 2020-21 season.

The streak was also the longest ever at Webster Bank Arena and the longest overall for the Stags since a program-record seven consecutive home games during the 1986-87 season. That run saw Fairfield host La Salle, Lehigh, Fordham, Saint Peter's, Manhattan, Iona and Yale in succession. However, only six of those games were played to completion at Alumni Hall, as the Jan. 10 meeting with Fordham was suspended and finished in the Bronx on Feb. 7.

ACCEPTING CHARITY

The 17-of-18 showing at the free throw line against Canisius on Feb. 14 was Fairfield's best outing of the season at the charity stripe. The performance was also the Stags' best (min. 10 attempts) since canning 21-of-22 free throws in the 2018 MAAC Championship Semifinal win over Quinnipiac.

COOK CLEANS UP

Supreme Cook pulled down a career-best 16 rebounds on Feb. 9 against Quinnipiac, the most for a Stag since Amadou Sidibe collected 19 boards (to go along with 19 points) in a non-conference victory over Army on Nov. 26, 2016. In addition, his eight offensive rips tied his career high, previously set in the Dec. 8, 2021 win over Holy Cross at Webster Bank Arena.

JY IN OT

Fairfield is 6-3 in nine overtime games since Head Coach Jay Young took the helm of the Stags beginning in the 2019-20 season. The Stags have played three overtime games this season. Fairfield hosted and defeated Stony Brook and Canisius in extra sessions and was on the short side of a 77-73 overtime loss at UMass on Dec. 19.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

The 53 points allowed by the Stags against Niagara on Feb. 12 represent Fairfield's best defensive showing against a MAAC opponent and second-best overall performance this season. The Stags ceded 53 points or less on five occasions during the 2020-21 season, including a 67-52 rout of eventual MAAC Champion Iona and a 52-47 win over Saint Peter's in the MAAC Championship Semifinals.

In addition, the Stags had not defeated a MAAC opponent by 20 or more points since topping Marist by the same final score of 73-53 just over five years ago on Feb. 9, 2017.

THE SIXTH MAN STEPS IN

After 32 straight appearances as Fairfield's sixth man, Jesus Cruz moved into the starting five beginning on Feb. 6 against Siena. The fifth-year Stag has spent considerable time as a starter and reserve, making 82 starts and 71 appearances off the bench in his career.

SEEING 20/20

In the Jan. 28 win at Rider, the Stags were fueled by a career-high tying 24 points from Taj Benning along with 20 from his backcourt mate Jake Wojcik. The duo became the first pair of Fairfield teammates to net 20 or more points in the same game since Tyler Nelson dropped 23 and Jonathan Kasibabu scored 20 in a 69-66 win over Monmouth on Feb. 24, 2018.

1,000 POINT TRIO

Taj Benning scored his 1,000th career point on Jan. 20 against Monmouth to become the 45th member of the Stags' 1,000 Point Club. His six points against Rider this past Thursday have pushed him to 1,137 career tallies. He sits in 30th place all-time.

In addition, Caleb Green reached 1,000 career points on Jan. 16 at Quinnipiac. He scored 633 in his two seasons at Holy Cross and has put home 436 to date in two active campaigns at Fairfield for a total 1,069 points.

Jesus Cruz netted his 1,000th point last season to become the 44th member of the 1,000 Point Club. He has since climbed the ladder into 11th place on the career charts with 1,440 points. He is 46 points shy of tying George Groom (1,486) to join the all-time top-10 in program history.

SECOND TIME AROUND

Last season, the Stags went 8-5 when seeing an opponent for the second (or third) time. In addition to the MAAC "back-to-backs" that comprised the majority of last season's schedule, this record also includes the second non-conference meeting with Hartford as well as seeing Manhattan, Saint Peter's and Iona for a third time in the MAAC Championship.

The Stags went 5-5 in return games during the MAAC regular season this year.

WOJ BOMBS

Jake Wojcik set a new career high with eight three-pointers against Iona on Jan. 11 at Webster Bank Arena. The Fairfield record is 10 treys, established by Landon Taliaferro as a part of a career-high 34-point day in the upset win over Texas A&M in Orlando during the 2019-20 season.

DOUBLE DOUBLE-DOUBLES

Supreme Cook's weekend against Marist and Siena on Jan. 7-9 made him the first Stag to post consecutive double-doubles since Jonathan Kasibabu had back-to-back double-doubles against Oakland (17 pts. 12 rebs.) and Old Dominion (13 pts., 15 rebs.) during the 2018-19 season.

Prior to Cook, the last Stag to register a double-double in consecutive MAAC games was Amadou Sidibe, who achieved the feat against Rider (12 pts., 10 rebs.) and Quinnipiac (16 pts., 12 rebs.) during the 2016-17 campaign.

CLOSE NEIGHBORS

Eight of the 19 all-time meetings between Fairfield and Quinnipiac have been decided by one possession and/or in overtime. Seven of those close encounters featured either a game-winning or game-tying basket scored within the final five seconds of regulation. In total, the 19 games in the all-time series between the Connecticut foes have been decided by an average of just 6.2 points.

HOT SHOT STAGS

As a team, the Stags shot 26-of-51 (.510) from the floor and 13-of-26 (.500) from three-point range on Jan. 11 against Iona. The showing marked the first time that Fairfield shot .500 or better from the field and beyond the arc since the MAAC Championship Quarterfinal win over Monmouth last spring. The Stags had not shot .500 both from the field and from downtown in a loss since a 77-69 non-conference defeat at Drexel in 2011.

THE IRON MEN OF FAIRFIELD HOOPS

The Jan. 11 game against Iona was the 139th appearance as a Stag for Jesus Cruz, breaking the program record of 138 held by Colin Nickerson. Cruz, who has never missed a game in his career dating back to 2017, is also the MAAC record holder with his 154 games played and counting.

In addition, Taj Benning will take the court for the 144th time as a Stag on Tuesday, standing in second place in Fairfield history only behind Cruz. Benning is also only the 16th player since 1981 (when relevant data became available) to make 100 or more starts for the Stags. Fairfield's all-time leader in games started in Derek Needham, who was in the starting five for all 131 games of his career from 2009-13.

CLOSE GAMES, QUANTIFIED

Nineteen of Fairfield's 31 games this season have been decided by fewer than 10 points, including five where the final margin was one possession or determined in overtime. In MAAC play, the Stags are winning an average of 8.0 points per game and losing by an average of 8.3 points per contest.

Average Margin of Victory/Defeat

EARLY SEASON STREAKS

The Dec. 19 overtime loss to UMass in Amherst ended several significant winning streaks for the Stags. Fairfield had won five games in a row overall for the first time since the 2017-18 season, and had also registered five consecutive road triumphs for the first time since the 2012-13 campaign.

Fairfield has notched a pair of three-game winning streaks against non-conference foes this season after not winning three straight games against non-MAAC competition since 2016-17.

STAGS SWEEP THE BUFFALO TRIP

The stretch from Dec. 3-5 marked Fairfield's 23rd proper version of the conference's infamous "Buffalo trip" -- playing both Canisius and Niagara on the same visit to Western New York. With the wins over Canisius and Niagara, the Stags brought home just the sixth 2-0 record from the trip in program history. Fairfield has swept the Western New York swing in three of the last six occurrences.

In addition to the six sweeps, Fairfield has gone 1-1 on the trek in eight seasons and has been swept in Western New York nine times.

NEWS & NOTES

FACTS, FIGURES AND MORE

PROTECT BALL, WIN GAME

Taking care of the basketball has proven vital in the Stags' success this season. Fairfield is averaging only 9.6 turnovers per game in its 14 wins compared to 12.7 giveaways per game in its 17 losses.

LOCK DOWN DEFENSE

Fairfield's 47 points allowed in the Dec. 12 win at William & Mary are the fewest the Stags have conceded in a game since limiting Saint Peter's to 47 in last season's MAAC Championship Semifinal win in Atlantic City. In addition, the 23-point margin of victory over the Tribe is Fairfield's largest against a Division I foe since a 78-49 win over Manhattan in 2016-17.

NON-CONFERENCE WRAP-UP

Fairfield capped its non-conference schedule with a mark of 6-5. The Stags' six non-league wins this season are the most since the 2015-16 team went 6-4 (postseason not included). Fairfield has not won seven or more regular season non-MAAC games since the 2012-13 team finished 8-5 outside of the MAAC.

PITT STOP

The Nov. 20 win at the Pitt Center marked the first time that Fairfield and Sacred Heart clashed on either team's campus. The prior seven encounters were all held at either Webster Bank Arena or Mohegan Sun Arena, primarily as a part of the Connecticut 6. The Pioneers were slated to visit Alumni Hall last season, but the game was canceled due to Covid-19 protocols. The squads are tentatively scheduled to play at Fairfield's new on-campus Arena and Convocation Center next season.

Fairfield is 8-0 all-time against their crosstown rivals.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

Fairfield returns every player that checked into the MAAC Championship Game in Atlantic City and is one of four teams in the nation to welcome back more than 99 percent of its scoring and 99 percent of its minutes from last season. The 14 returners to the Stags from the 2020-21 campaign accounted for 5412 of 5450 minutes (99.3%) and 1663 of 1668 points (99.7%). The returning Stags also hauled in 680 of 686 rebounds (99.1%) and dished out all 271 of Fairfield's assists on the season. The other teams to return over 99 percent of their points and minutes are Delaware (100% of both), Saint Mary's (100% of both) and Saint Francis.

HEAD COACH JAY YOUNG

THIRD SEASON • MARIST '86

A respected veteran within college basketball, Jay Young became the 13th Head Coach of the Fairfield University Men's Basketball program on April 3, 2019. Young came to Fairfield after most recently spending three seasons as an assistant coach in the Big Ten at Rutgers University.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Young helped Fairfield navigate a unique schedule to split the final five MAAC series heading into the MAAC Championship. The Stags went on to win three games in Atlantic City, including back-to-back victories over second-seeded Monmouth and third-seeded Saint Peter's. During the regular season, Fairfield was one of just three MAAC teams to defeat eventual conference champion Iona. The 15-point victory for the Stags at Alumni Hall was the Gaels' largest margin of defeat during the league portion of the slate and second largest overall.

In his first season with the Stags, Fairfield established itself as the top defensive team in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). The Stags led all 11 conference teams by yielding 62.9 points per game overall and 62.1 points per game in MAAC contests.

Young owns a 22-37 overall record and a 15-23 MAAC slate through his two seasons at the helm of the Stags.

While at Rutgers, Young helped lead the Scarlet Knights to their best-ever Big Ten finish in 2018-19, recording wins over nationally-ranked conference foes Ohio State and Iowa with one of the youngest rosters in the nation. Young, who coordinated the Rutgers defense for Head Coach Steve Pikiell, was also integral in bringing the highest-ranked freshman class in program history to Piscataway.

Rutgers set a new standard for Big Ten wins in each of Young's three seasons with the Scarlet Knights. The Scarlet Knights earned their first Big Ten postseason win in 2017 and then reached the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinals for the first time in 2018. KenPom.com ranked Rutgers as the most improved Power 6 conference program in the nation this year, jumping 71 positions since the beginning of the 2018-19 season.

Prior to patrolling the sidelines at Rutgers, Young rose to the role of Associate Head Coach at Stony Brook University, where he was a member of Coach Pikiell's staff for many of the most successful seasons in Seawolves history. Stony Brook reached the NCAA postseason for the first time in its Division I history in 2016 after winning the America East Tournament and Regular Season Championship. The Seawolves also received bids to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) three times during Young's tenure as the America East Regular Season Champions.

Young also directed the recruiting efforts that brought Jameel Warney to Long Island. A three-time America East Player of the Year, Warney is Stony Brook's all-time leader in points, rebounds and blocked shots. He is currently a member of the Westchester Knicks of the NBA G League. Young recruited three of the top four all-time leading scorers at Stony Brook during his tenure with the Seawolves.

Previously a head coach at the University of New Haven, Young took the reins of a team that had just one winning season in the prior eight years and led them to back-to-back NCAA postseason bids in 2003-04, including the Chargers' first victory on the national stage since 1988. He went 78-66 (.542) in his five seasons at New Haven, wrapping up his tenure with four consecutive winning campaigns.

Young's first head coaching stop was in the junior college ranks at Newbury College, where he was a two-time NJCAA Regional Coach of the Year and 1995 NJCAA District VI Coach of the Year. Young guided his team to postseason play in three straight seasons, highlighted by a trip to the 1995 NJCAA Division III Final Four.

Young has also made assistant coaching stops at Northeastern, Salem State, and Fitchburg State in a collegiate coaching career that spans more than 30 years.

A 1986 graduate of Marist College with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science, Young played three seasons of lacrosse for the Red Foxes. He earned First Team All-Conference honors in his senior campaign.
