THE OPENING TIP

Fairfield University Men's Basketball takes a two-game winning streak on the road to Albany to meet the MAAC-leading Siena Saints on Sunday, Jan. 22. Opening tip from MVP Arena is slated for 2 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT: FAIRFIELD 67, CANISIUS 58

Jake Wojcik netted a season-high for the third straight game with 18 points to lead four players in double figures as Fairfield U surged past visiting Canisius, 67-58, in front of a crowd of 3,219 at Mahoney Arena on Friday evening. Supreme Cook recorded his fifth double-double of the season in the MAAC victory.

Wojcik's 18 points included four three-pointers, highlighted by a buzzer beater in transition to put the Stags on top at the half. Cook shot 6-for-11 from the line on his way to 15 points and pulled down a game-leading 12 rebounds, including six from the offensive glass. Allan Jeanne-Rose also poured in 15 points, and Caleb Field was the fourth Stag in double figures with 10 in his return to the lineup after a two-game absence due to injury.

In addition to Cook's dozen rebounds, Wojcik and Fields each hauled in five boards as the Stags gained a 34-29 victory on the glass. The Stags also won the turnover battle, 13-12, turning those 13 Canisius miscues into 16 points.

Fairfield held its opponent below 60 points for the eighth time this season, including five times during the MAAC slate. The Stags are 7-1 in those eight contests.

FOUR SCORE

In Friday night's win, four Stags scored in double figures in the same game for the third time this season. Previously, Fairfield had four players net 10 or more points on Nov. 11 at New Hampshire and in the Dec. 3 home win over Saint Peter's.

THE MATCHUP

FAIRFIELD VS. SIENA

THE SIENA COLLEGE SAINTS

Siena welcomes the Stags to Albany as the MAAC frontrunner at 7-1 as part of a 13-6 overall record. The Saints bounced back from their first conference loss -- a 66-62 setback at Canisius -- with a 72-57 win over Mount St. Mary's on Friday at MVP Arena.

Siena ranks third in the MAAC with 70.8 points per game, guided by 16.5 per contest by Javian McCollum and a 14.1 per outing from Jackson Stormo. McCollum also rates third in the MAAC with an even 4.0 assists per game.

Defensively, Siena is eighth in the conference, conceding 67.6 points per game.

LAST MEETING

After trailing by as many as 18 points in the first half and by 16 with 13:09 left in the second period, Fairfield climbed back to within two points of visiting Siena, 63-61, with 2:15 remaining on Jan. 1 at Mahoney Arena. However, the Stags would not score again as the Saints pulled away to escape with a 70-61 decision. TJ Long led all scorers with 19 points.

Two days after scoring 19 of a career-high 25 in the second half of a win over Marist, Long scored 17 of his 19 after the break, knocking down five three-pointers with Fairfield on the comeback trail. Conversely, Allan Jeanne-Rose had 12 of his 15 before the intermission, keeping the Stags afloat while the offense struggled to find its stride.

Supreme Cook was the third Stag in double figures with 10 points along with five rebounds. Jeanne-Rose and Caleb Field were the Stags' leaders on the glass with eight caroms apiece as Fairfield was edged, 35-34, on the boards.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Siena has won nine straight and 12 of the last 14 meetings to hold a 47-32 lead in an all-time series that dates back to 1959. Fairfield's best run in the series came from 1995-98, winning seven of eight encounters. The Stags' last win came in Albany in 2018 as a part of a home-and-home series sweep for Fairfield.

Aside from conference newcomer Mount St. Mary's, Siena is the only MAAC team that Head Coach Jay Young has never defeated as leader of the Stags.

PRESEASON ALL-MAAC

Supreme Cook and Jake Wojcik have been named to the 2022-23 Preseason All-MAAC Team, as voted upon by the league's 11 head coaches. Cook was tabbed for the Preseason All-MAAC First Team with Wojcik nabbing Third Team laurels for the second straight season.

Cook collects a First Team nod after scoring 10.1 points and ranking second in the MAAC – and first among MAAC returners – with 8.3 rebounds per contest last season. Cook was also among the conference's top 10 with a .508 field goal percentage. He racked up seven double-doubles, scoring in double figures in 20 of 33 games and hauling in 10 or more rebounds in nine contests.

Wojcik ranked third on the Stags with 9.5 points per game, burying a team-high 60 three-pointers. His average of just under two triples per game tied for sixth in the MAAC overall and third among players returning to the conference this season. Wojcik shot 34.5 percent from beyond the arc, which slotted 18th in the MAAC but jumps up to fourth among players with as many as his 174 attempts (or more) from downtown.

Cook is Fairfield's first Preseason All-MAAC First Team pick since Tyler Nelson was named MAAC Preseason Player of the Year prior to the 2017-18 campaign. The Stags last placed multiple players on the Preseason All-MAAC Team in 2011-12, when Derek Needham and Ryan Olander both grabbed First Team accolades and Rakim Sanders was voted to the Second Team.

Manhattan's Jose Perez, who had not yet transferred to West Virginia, was named the Preseason Player of the Year after leading the MAAC and ranking in the top 50 nationally with 18.9 points per game last season.

In the Preseason Poll, the Stags were tabbed for fifth place with 77 points, just three points behind Quinnipiac for the fourth spot. Last season's regular season champion Iona was the near-unanimous favorite with 10 of 11 first-place votes and 119 points, while Manhattan garnered the remaining first-place tally to claim second place at 104. Rider grabbed 101 points to round out the top three.

After Quinnipiac and Fairfield, Siena's sixth-place position marks the midway point on the ledger. The bottom half consists of Marist, Niagara and Saint Peter's (tied), newcomer Mount St. Mary's and Canisius.

2022-23 MAAC Preseason Coaches' Poll

1. Iona..... 119 (10)
2. Manhattan..... 104 (1)
3. Rider 101

WHAT OTHER PEOPLE THINK

Fairfield has been picked fourth by the Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook, which tabbed Supreme Cook for Preseason All-MAAC and projected Caleb Fields as the MAAC Newcomer of the Year.

The Almanac named Brycen Goodine as MAAC Newcomer of the Year with Cook on its preseason First Team and Goodine on its Second Team. The Stags were slotted fourth by that publication.

Lindy's had the Stags in seventh place on the ledger.

Tri-state outlet Daly Dose of Hoops chose Cook for the Second Team and TJ Long on the Third Team, with the Stags landing fourth in the preseason poll.

Sam Federman's exhaustive MAAC preview has Fairfield at third behind Iona and Rider.

All outlets selected Iona as the favorite in their prognostications and selected either Iona big man Nelly Junior Joseph or then-Manhattan standout Jose Perez as Preseason Player of the Year.

NEWS & NOTES

FACTS, FIGURES AND MORE

SECOND TIME AROUND

With a win over Saint Peter's on Jan. 15, the Stags are 1-0 this season when seeing an opponent for the second time. The Stags went 6-6 in return games last year - 5-5 during the MAAC regular season and 1-1 in Atlantic City. Those six wins include two "payback" victories over opponents who had earned a result over Fairfield earlier in the campaign.

THEY DON'T ASK HOW, THEY ASK HOW MANY

The Stags' 56-52 win at Saint Peter's on Jan. 15 was a rarity in a pair of statistical categories. The Sports-Reference.com database provided the following information.

Saint Peter's attempted 76 field goals to the Stags' 37. The last time a Division I team won a game despite attempting at least 39 fewer shots from the floor than their opponent was in 2018 when LIU (47 FGAs) topped St. Francis (86 FGAs), 81-76.

Fairfield grabbed four offensive rebounds while allowing 29 SPU offensive boards. The last time, and only other instance this decade, that a Division I team overcame a -25 offensive rebounding deficit to win was in 2015 when Marist earned a victory at Canisius, 75-67, despite nabbing just two offensive boards while conceding 27 to the Griffs.

BEATING THE ELITE

The Stags completed the season sweep of Saint Peter's for the first time since 2012-13. The two wins over the Peacocks also mark the first time that Fairfield has swept the home-and-home from the reigning MAAC Champion for the time since taking two from defending champ Saint Peter's in 2011-12.

Additionally, the Dec. 3 win over Saint Peter's was the first time that the Stags have ever defeated an Elite Eight team from the prior season. Fairfield had not challenged a reigning Elite Eight team since meeting defending National Champion Louisville, led by current Iona head coach Rick Pitino, in the 2013-14 campaign.

With the Cardinals' tournament run from that season having since been vacated by the NCAA committee on infractions, Fairfield last "officially" played an Elite Eight team from the season prior in 2011-12 when they played against defending National Champion UConn.

vs. Canisius	Fields	Wojcik	Leach	Jeanne-Rose	Cook	4	10 (1)

The Stags have utilized seven different starting lineups this season featuring a total of nine different players garnering at least one start. Supreme Cook is the lone player to have started every game to date this season, with Allan Jeanne-Rose missing one and Caleb Fields missing two, all in games where they were unavailable. With Fields returning from injury on Friday, the Stags returned to their most common lineup of the campaign, trotting out that starting five for the 10th time.

The starters are accounting for 70.3% of Fairfield's points and 71.2% of the Stags' rebounds while playing 68.4% of the available minutes. At least one player outside of the starting lineup has played 20 minutes or more in every game except the Dec. 12 meeting with Yale.

NEWS & NOTES

FACTS, FIGURES AND MORE

NOT TOO LATE IN THE SLATE

After Sunday's game, the Stags have played both ends of the series with both Saint Peter's and Siena before opening this season's home-and-home against MAAC foes Mount St. Mary's, Quinnipiac and Rider.

Conversely, Fairfield did not play Saint Peter's in 2021-22 until the 16th game of the conference calendar after already playing two contests against six MAAC foes.

FILLING OUT THE STATSHEET

By tallying 16 points, six rebounds and seven assists at Iona on Jan. 13, Jake Wojcik became the first Stag to score double figures and register at least six boards and six helpers since Neftali Alvarez racked up 12 points, six rebounds and seven assists in 2019 - also at Iona.

With Allan Jeanne-Rose adding seven points, eight boards and five assists last Friday in New Rochelle, AJR and Wojcik became the first Fairfield teammates to each post a "5-5-5" statline in the same game since Taj Benning (7-5-5) and Jesus Cruz (14-5-5) in the Nov. 9, 2019 meeting with UMass at Webster Bank Arena.

AIN'T LIFE GRAND

Jake Wojcik scored a season-best 16 points last Friday to run his career total to 1,002 points. He most recently scored 18 points in the win over Canisius to boost his career total to 1,037. Wojcik scored 346 points in two seasons at Richmond from 2018-20 and has netted 691 points to date in three campaigns with the Stags. In doing so, he joins a unique list of student-athletes who tallied their 1,000th career point in a Fairfield uniform but did not score all 1,000 of those tallies as a Stag.

Kim Fisher (1,338 points - 593 at Essex CC, 745 at Fairfield)
Danny Odums (1,305 points - 628 at Austin Peay, 677 at Fairfield)

Caleb Green (1,085 points - 633 at Holy Cross, 452 at Fairfield)

Jake Wojcik (1,037 points - 346 at Richmond, 691 at Fairfield)

Richie O'Connor (1,001 points - 550 at Duke, 451 at Fairfield)

In addition, Rakim Sanders was already a 1,000 point scorer when he came to Fairfield, having netted 1,048 points in three seasons at Boston College and then adding 615 points to his total in his 2011-12 season at Fairfield that resulted in All-MAAC First Team honors.

SUPREME'S COURT

Supreme Cook is averaging a team-leading 13.3 points per game and slots third in the MAAC with 8.6 boards per contest. Cook is also fifth in the MAAC in field goal percentage (.547) and 16th in free throw percentage (.681). He tops the MAAC in free throws made and attempted, ranking 37th nationally with 113 tosses from the charity stripe. Cook did not attempt a free throw at Iona last Friday, marking the only game this season in which he didn't go to the line.

FREE THROWS LEAD TO FREE HOOPS

Jake Wojcik's two clutch free throws to tie the game with "00.1" showing on the clock on Jan. 6 against Niagara was the latest the Stags have scored in regulation to win or tie a game since Taj Benning's layup at the horn to send Fairfield into an extra session of last season's win over Canisius.

Between an official review and a Niagara full timeout, Wojcik waited four minutes of "real time" between the initial foul call and receiving the ball for his first free throw, but calmly swished both tosses to send the contest into overtime tied at 63-63.

A FISTFUL OF TRIPLES

With five three-pointers apiece against Marist (Dec. 30) and Siena (Jan. 1), TJ Long is the first Stag to hit five from distance in back-to-back games since Landon Taliaferro sank eight three-pointers against Rider followed by five treys at Iona in January of 2019. Taliaferro is also the last Stag to knock down five or more from deep in three straight games, doing so against LIU (5), Wagner (6) and Longwood (5) earlier in the 2018-19 campaign.

STAGS ON THE RUN

The turning point in the Dec. 30 win over Marist came just before halftime when Marist took a 24-21 lead on a Patrick Gardner layup with 4:02 remaining. That bucket marked the last Red Fox points for a span 8:55, as the Stags scored the last seven of the half and continued to roll out of the intermission. The run grew to 16-0 with five different Stags contributing to the scoring as Fairfield claimed a 37-24 lead with 15:36 to go before Marist would score again.

SETTLE FOR SEVEN

With the Dec. 22 game against Drexel postponed and not currently rescheduled, Fairfield did not set play a program-record eight-game homestand as originally anticipated. However, the seven-game stretch of home contests from Dec. 3 to Jan. 6 ties the program standard established in the 1986-87 MAAC Championship season. That run saw Fairfield host La Salle, Lehigh, Fordham, Saint Peter's, Manhattan, Iona and Yale in succession. However, only six of those games were played to completion at Alumni Hall, as the Jan. 10 meeting with Fordham was suspended and later finished in the Bronx on Feb. 7.

JUST STOPPING HOME

With their seven-game homestand to open Mahoney Arena in the rearview mirror, the Stags are not scheduled to play back-to-back home games for the remainder of the season.

JAMES JOHNS JR: MAAC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

James Johns Jr. was named the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Rookie of the Week after averaging 9.5 points and 5.5 rebounds per game as the Stags split a pair at Mahoney Arena against in-state foes Yale and Coast Guard.

ONE AT A TIME

Supreme Cook shot 13-for-16 from the free throw line on Dec. 12 against Yale on his way to a team-leading 17 points. The last Stag to make 13 free throws in a game was Jesus Cruz, who was a perfect 13-for-13 against Canisius on Jan. 26, 2020 en route to 21 points in a win at Alumni Hall.

Cook's 16 attempts from the stripe against the Bulldogs marked the most by a Stag since Marcus Gilbert went 14-for-16 on charity tosses to account for half of his 28 points against Saint Peter's on Feb. 7, 2015.

OUR TOWN

The Dec. 7 win over Sacred Heart moved the Stags to 9-0 all-time against their crosstown foe. The teams had never met within the town of Fairfield prior to last season's meeting at the Pitt Center, with the seven previous encounters all held at Webster Bank Arena or a neutral location as a part of the Connecticut 6.

THE FINAL COUNTDOWN

Caleb Fields' game-winner with 0.9 seconds left against Sacred Heart was the latest game-winning basket for the Stags when trailing or tied since Allan Jeanne-Rose sank the game-winning layup with 0.2 seconds to play in a 55-53 win over Monmouth on Feb. 4, 2020 at Webster Bank Arena.

A LONG TIME COMING

Prior to their debut at Leo D. Mahoney Arena on Dec. 3, the Stags last played on campus AND in front of fans on March 1, 2020, which was a span of 1,004 days.

Fairfield played the entirety of the 2020-21 season on campus but with no fans permitted due to Covid-19 protocols and then played all of 2021-22 at Webster Bank Arena in Bridgeport during the construction of Mahoney Arena.

FACTS, FIGURES AND MORE

ROAD WARRIORS

The Stags were among the last teams in the nation to tip-off in front of a friendly crowd when they made their debut at the new on-campus Leo D. Mahoney Arena on Dec. 3. Only three Division I teams will play their home opener later than Fairfield's Dec. 3 game. South Carolina State plays its first home contest on Dec. 13 after 11 road games, Alcorn State begins the home slate on Jan. 2 after 13 games away from home, and Jackson State played 14 straight road games before beginning its home schedule on Jan. 7 as the last Division I squad to host a regular season game in 2022-23.

Gardner Webb and Alabama State also played their home openers on Dec. 3, but both tipped off in the afternoon prior to Fairfield's 7 p.m. start.

SECOND CHANCE U.

Fairfield grabbed 22 offensive rebounds on Dec. 1 at Manhattan, the most since also collecting 22 from their own glass at Niagara on Jan. 4, 2010. Two days earlier, that Stags' team hauled in 27 offensive boards in a road triumph at Canisius.

SOME ENCHANTED MTE-VENING

Fairfield finished the Hostilo Hoops Community Classic multi-team event ("MTE") in Savannah with a 2-1 record. The Stags earned a win over previously unbeaten Towson on Nov. 25, took a two-point loss to Mercer on Nov. 26, and ended the slate with a win over Evansville on Nov. 27.

Fairfield, Towson, Mercer and South Alabama all went 2-1 at the event. Evansville went 1-2 in its three outings and Robert Morris was winless in Savannah at 0-3.

THE STAGS WENT DOWN TO GEORGIA

In 75 seasons of varsity basketball, Fairfield had played just one game in the state of Georgia prior to this season. Led by 15 points from Derek Needham, the Stags knocked off host Savannah State, 41-39, on Dec. 2, 2010. Including this Thanksgiving weekend in Savannah, in which the Stags defeated Towson and Evansville while falling to Mercer, Fairfield is now 3-1 all-time in the Peach State.

THE 2022-23 STAGS

Fairfield returns 11 student-athletes from 2021-22, including six players who appeared in 30 or more of the Stags' 33 games. The returners include Preseason All-MAAC First Team selection Supreme Cook and Third Team honoree Jake Wojcik as well as 2022 All-Rookie Team pick TJ Long.

Head Coach Jay Young's list of newcomers features freshmen Anthony Davis Jr., James Johns Jr. and Michael Rogan as well as transfers Caleb Fields (Bowling Green) and Brycen Goodine (Providence).

2022 DEBUTS

Bowling Green transfer Caleb Fields scored a team-high 14 points in his Fairfield debut on Nov. 7 at Wake Forest. Brycen Goodine, a transfer most recently from Providence who began his career at Syracuse, also debuted against the Demon Deacons. Four days later, James Johns Jr. made his first appearance with the Stags at New Hampshire and poured in 13 points off the bench.

COUNT ON CRUZ

Jesus Cruz never missed a game during his Fairfield career from 2017-22. Cruz played in a Fairfield and MAAC record 156 contests beginning with a Nov. 11, 2017 win over Penn at Webster Bank Arena and wrapping up in the 2022 MAAC Championship Quarterfinals against Saint Peter's on March 9, 2022. While Cruz won't be checking in at the scorer's table for any additional contests, he will keep his streak alive in 2022-23 as Coach Young's Director of Basketball Operations.

As a student-athlete, Cruz poured in 1,476 points in his career to rank 11th all-time in program history and also totaled 611 rebounds, 217 assists and 158 steals. He was a member of both the 2017-18 and 2020-21 teams that advanced to the MAAC Championship Game.

Cruz began his professional career in the summer of 2022 in Baloncesto Superior Nacional – the first-tier pro league in Puerto Rico – playing 37 games and averaging 7.8 points per contest for his hometown Gigantes de Carolina squad.

UP NEXT

The Stags make their first time to Emmitsburg, Md. since 1949 for their first-ever MAAC meeting at Mount St. Mary's on Thursday, Jan. 26.

HEAD COACH JAY YOUNG

FOURTH SEASON • MARIST '86

A respected veteran within college basketball, Jay Young became the 13th Head Coach of Fairfield University Men's Basketball on April 3, 2019. Young came to Fairfield after most recently spending three seasons as an assistant coach in the Big Ten at Rutgers University.

In 2021-22, the Stags finished 15-18 overall and 8-12 in the MAAC. The non-conference slate featured a win over Sacred Heart in the first-ever meeting played on the SHU campus, as well as a comeback victory over Stony Brook at Webster Bank Arena. During the MAAC portion of the schedule, the Stags swept the conference "Buffalo trip" for the sixth time in program history as a part of a season sweep of both Canisius and Niagara. Fairfield also swept the home-and-home from Rider and picked up road victories at Marist and Manhattan.

In the postseason, the Stags earned their third win of the campaign over Canisius to reach the quarterfinals, where the year came to a close at the hands of eventual MAAC Champion and NCAA Elite Eight squad Saint Peter's.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Young helped Fairfield navigate a unique schedule to split the final five conference series heading into the MAAC Championship. The Stags went on to win three games in Atlantic City, including back-to-back victories over second-seeded Monmouth and third-seeded Saint Peter's. During the regular season, Fairfield was one of just three MAAC teams to defeat eventual conference champion Iona. The 15-point victory for the Stags at Alumni Hall was the Gaels' largest margin of defeat during the league portion of the slate and second largest overall.

In his first season with the Stags, Fairfield established itself as the top defensive team in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). The Stags led all 11 conference teams by yielding 62.9 points per game overall and 62.1 points per game in MAAC contests.

Young owns a 37-55 overall record and a 23-35 MAAC tally through his three seasons at the helm of the Stags.

While at Rutgers, Young helped lead the Scarlet Knights to their best-ever Big Ten finish in 2018-19, recording wins over nationally-ranked conference foes Ohio State and Iowa with one of the youngest rosters in the nation. Young, who coordinated the Rutgers defensive strategy for Head Coach Steve Pikiell, was also integral in bringing the highest-ranked freshman class in program history to Piscataway.

Rutgers set a new standard for Big Ten wins in each of Young's three seasons with the Scarlet Knights. The Scarlet Knights earned their first Big Ten postseason win in 2017 and then reached the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinals for the first time in the 2018 campaign. KenPom.com ranked Rutgers as the most improved Power 6 conference program in the nation this year, jumping 71 positions since the beginning of the 2018-19 season.

Prior to patrolling the sidelines at Rutgers, Young rose to the role of Associate Head Coach at Stony Brook University, where he was a member of Coach Pikiell's staff for many of the most successful seasons in Seawolves history. Stony Brook reached the NCAA postseason for the first time in its Division I history in 2016 after winning the America East Tournament and Regular Season Championship. The Seawolves also received bids to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) three times during Young's tenure as the America East Regular Season Champions.

Young also directed the recruiting efforts that brought Jameel Warney to Long Island. A three-time America East Player of the Year, Warney is Stony Brook's all-time leader in points, rebounds and blocked shots. He is currently a member of the Westchester Knicks of the NBA G League. Young recruited three of the top four all-time leading scorers at Stony Brook during his tenure with the Seawolves.

Previously a Head Coach at the University of New Haven, Young took the reins of a team that had just one winning season in the prior eight years and led them to back-to-back NCAA postseason bids in 2003-04, including the Chargers' first victory on the national stage since 1988. He went 78-66 (.542) in his five seasons at New Haven, wrapping up his tenure with four consecutive winning campaigns.

Young's first head coaching stop was in the junior college ranks at Newbury College, where he was a two-time NJCAA Regional Coach of the Year and 1995 NJCAA District VI Coach of the Year. Young guided his team to postseason play in three straight seasons, highlighted by a trip to the 1995 NJCAA Division III Final Four.

Young has also made assistant coaching stops at Northeastern, Salem State, and Fitchburg State in a collegiate coaching career that spans more than 30 years.

A 1986 graduate of Marist College with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science, Young played three seasons of lacrosse for the Red Foxes. He earned First Team All-Conference honors in his senior campaign.
