On-Campus Parking:

Parking for fans is available on a first come, first served basis. Visitors are advised that they park at their own risk. Due to the volume of spectators at select events, fans may be directed by Public Safety personnel to designated parking areas. Fans are asked to observe all parking signs as they relate to handicapped, reserved or restricted parking. Please note that the Walsh Athletic Center/Rafferty Stadium parking lot is closed to the general public during men's and women's lacrosse home games. Handicapped parking is available in all lots for those with proper permits on a first come, first served basis. Those in need of additional assistance are encouraged to contact Fairfield Athletics at 203-254-4000 ext. 2208 to ensure that proper accommodations are met.

General Tailgating Rules listed below:

1. Tailgating allowed at designated surface lots only (see attached map). Tailgating within Kelley parking garage is strictly prohibited.
2. Tailgating parking lots will open two (2) hours prior to the start of the event or contest. Tailgating must discontinue 15 minutes prior to the start of the event or contest. All tailgating lots must be cleaned and fully vacated 90 minutes following the conclusion of the event or contest.
3. Consistent with the Athletic Department Policy, the only alcohol permitted in Rafferty Stadium is through purchase through Aramark, our concessionaire.

4. The athletic department strongly discourages the consumption of alcohol at tailgate events while in the presence of student athletes, pre- or post-game regardless of age. In accordance with Connecticut State Law, there shall be NO UNDERAGE DRINKING. Tailgate lots will be monitored by security to enforce.
5. Glass bottles and large containers (1/2 gallon or more) of hard liquor and spirits including but not limited to kegs and beer balls are prohibited. Premade servings of hard alcohol including but not limited to Jell-O or party shots are prohibited.
6. Tents or canopies (may not exceed 10' x 10') are permitted. They must be secured by weights or otherwise safely anchored and may not obstruct fire/safety lanes, sidewalks, drive lanes, pedestrian walkways or other parking spots.
7. Open flames are not permitted in any tailgate or parking area. Small Tailgate propane grills with cylinders 20 lbs. or under are allowed.
8. Pets are limited to certified service animals with proper documentation. All others will be asked to be removed from campus.
9. All trash must be placed in trash receptacles located in tailgating locations or carried out. The disposal of grease or hazardous materials onto the grounds or into storm drains is strictly prohibited.
10. All event or contest attendees are expected to be respectful of University property, the property of neighbors surrounding the University, and fellow participants around them. Offenders and accompanying individuals may be subject to arrest, removal from the Campus, reimbursement for the cost of damage and/or other applicable disciplinary actions.
11. Tailgating events requiring indoor space and/or support must be approved and coordinated through University officials. Contact our Conference and Event Management Office at (203)254-4000 x2377. Any and all costs associated with the event will be passed to the event sponsor.
12. The Visiting Tailgate lot is located in lot 30C→

Policies, Compliance and Eligibility:

Non-Discrimination and Harassment Policy –

Fairfield University adheres to all federal and state civil rights laws and regulations prohibiting discrimination in private institutions of higher education.

Fairfield University provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment and does not discriminate against any employee, applicant for employment, student, or applicant for admission on the basis of: race, religion, hearing status, color, sex, pregnancy, political affiliation, source of income, place of business, residence, religion, creed, ethnicity, national origin (including ancestry), citizenship status, physical or mental disability (including perceived disability), age, marital status, family responsibilities, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran or military status (including disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, active duty wartime or campaign badge veteran, and Armed Forces Service Medal veteran), predisposing genetic characteristics, domestic violence victim status or any other protected category under applicable local, state, or federal law, including protections for those opposing discrimination or participating in any resolution process on campus, with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the State of Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities, or other human rights agencies. University policy is committed to affirmative action under law in employment of women, minority group members, individuals with disabilities, and protected veterans.

This policy covers nondiscrimination in both employment and access to educational opportunities. Therefore, any member of the University community whose acts deny, deprive, or limit the educational or employment or residential and/or social access, benefits, and/or opportunities of any member of the University community, guest, or visitor on the basis of that person's actual or perceived membership in the protected classes listed above is in violation of the University policy on nondiscrimination. Unlawful discrimination includes harassment based on an individual's membership, or perceived membership, in any legally protected category.

When Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 applies to alleged conduct, the Sexual Misconduct Policy and not this policy will govern. Similarly, discrimination based on disability status will be addressed through the ADA/Section 504 Grievance Procedure.

Procedures –

To file a complaint pursuant to a violation of this policy, contact Megan D. Monahan, director of Title IX and equity compliance at mmonahan@fairfield.edu or (203) 254-4357.

Sportsmanship –

The NCAA and Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference promote good sportsmanship by student-athletes, coaches and spectators. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants and officials in a positive manner. Profanity, racial, sexist or abusive comments or intimidating actions directed at officials, student-athletes, coaches or team representatives will not be tolerated and are grounds for removal from the venue. The Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference thanks you for your cooperation and invites you to enjoy the game.

Media and Broadcasting:

Live Streaming –

The Stags Sports Network will broadcast live Fairfield University Athletics events and more on a variety of platforms throughout the academic year. The in-house network broadcasts more than 100 live events on an annual basis, utilizing Facebook Live and the ESPN family of networks in addition to the flagship Stags Sport Network platform.

The Stags Sports Network ("The Flagship"):

The flagship Stags Sports Network is located at FairfieldStags.com/Watch. Live games and other content on this platform are always FREE to our viewers.

Facebook Live:

Located on the Fairfield Athletics Facebook Page (Facebook.com/FairfieldUAthletics), Facebook Live broadcasts are always FREE to our viewers.

The ESPN Family of Networks:

The Stags Sports Network will produce multiple events on the ESPN family of networks. The specific platform for each event will be determined by ESPN. All events can be found at ESPN.com/Watch.

Media Information –

Information & Interviews:

Requests for interviews, photographs and information should be directed to the Office of Athletic Communications. Interviews will not be granted unless first approved and arranged by the Office of Athletic Communications. Interviews will not be granted prior to competition on game day.

Working Credentials:

All media credential requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of home competitions. In the event of space limitations, priority will be given to those outlets that cover the participating teams on a regular basis. To request a credential, please contact the Athletic Communications contact of the specific sport. Credentials will be held at the Will Call area or at the venue's ticket entrance.

Outlets wishing to cover a Fairfield team at a road contest are also asked to contact Fairfield's Office of Athletic Communications. However, please note that the request is subject to the policies and procedures of the host institution or organization.

Media Services:

A complete statistics package will be provided to the media shortly after the conclusion of competition. Halftime and in-game stats will also be provided when available. Post-game interviews will be conducted at a location designated by the Athletic Communication staff following the NCAA-mandated cooling off period.

Internet Access:

Wireless Internet access is available at all campus venues. Log-in information will be provided upon request on gameday. Those requiring hard-wired Internet or a telephone line are asked to submit their request to the Office of Athletic Communications with as much notice as possible. All requests are subject to availability.

Photographers:

A credential is required to photograph (video or still photography) all Fairfield University sporting events. Photographers may secure a pass by contacting the Office of Athletic Communications at least 24 hours in advance of the scheduled contest. Credentialed photographers must be working for a media outlet (full-time or freelance) or on behalf of one of the participating teams.

Field/court-level access will not be granted to those without a proper credential. Photographers are not allowed in the team bench area of any sporting event. Photographers or their equipment may be re-positioned or removed if necessary by Fairfield staff, venue staff or game officials.

Fairfield University Visiting Team Form:

Please submit this form 1 week prior to competition so we can properly prepare for your arrival. Be sure to contact Athletics Ops GA, Lanyon Henwood at (970)314-1567, 15 minutes before getting to campus to be greeted/escorted. The link below will take you to the form. Looking forward to having you on campus!
