Fairmont State University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution.

The screenshot displays the website's header with the Fairmont State University logo and a schedule for Men's Basketball games. The schedule includes:

- JAN 07 7:30 PM: Men's Basketball vs. West Virginia Wesleyan
- JAN 10 4:00 PM: Davis & Elkins vs. Men's Basketball
- JAN 13 7:30 PM: West Liberty vs. Men's Basketball

The navigation menu includes: SPORTS, INSIDE ATHLETICS, FAN ZONE, TICKETS, SHOP, $1000 CLUB, and social media icons for Facebook and Instagram. Below the menu, there are links for MEN'S BASKETBALL, Schedule / Roster / Coaching Staff / Statistics / Media Guide / KOENIG RADIO.

The main content area features a large banner for MEN'S BASKETBALL with the text: "Fairmont State Earns Second Preseason National Ranking, Voted No. 20 by NABC Coaches". The banner includes a video player with a play button and a progress bar. To the right of the banner are three promotional tiles: "SIDELINE S", "WATCH L", and "$1000 CL".

ALL-AMERICANS

Team in 1972, 1973 and 1974. In 1973, Battle was selected the WVIAC Tournament's Most Valuable Player. Fairmont State won two WVIAC Tournament Championships during Battle's career, in 1973 and 1974. He also won the WVIAC Tournament's Individual Sportsmanship Award in 1972. Lerman holds the school record for most points scored by a freshman (636) at Fairmont State.

BILL LINDSEY 1975

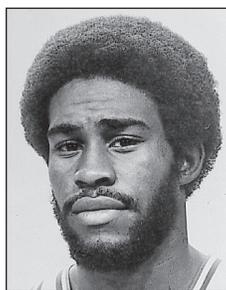

Bill played for Coach Joe Retton at Fairmont State from 1972-75. Lindsey was chosen All-American in 1975. He was selected first-team All-WVIAC in 1972, 1974 and 1975. He is Fairmont State's all-time leading career scorer, with 2,578 points. Lindsey is fifth in career rebounds, with 1,204 rebounds. He also holds the school record with 927 points scored in a single-season. In 1975, he averaged 25.1 points per game. Lindsey helped the Falcons to four straight conference titles from 1972-1975. Bill was selected the WVIAC Tournament 'Most Valuable Player' in both 1974 and 1975. Fairmont State won three WVIAC Tournament titles during Lindsey's career, in 1973, 1974 and 1975. He was selected first-team All-WVIAC in both 1974 and 1975. He is second in school history in career field goals with 1,031 field goals. Bill holds the FS record for most field goals made (378) in a single-season. He set the record in 1975.

DAVE MOORE 1976 & 1977

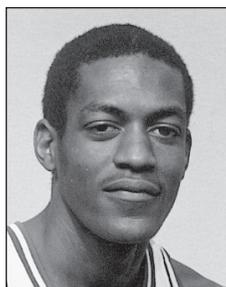

Dave is just the second Falcon to be selected All-American twice during his career at Fairmont State. He was an All-American in 1976 and 1967, while playing for Coach Joe Retton from 1974-1977. Dave was selected first-team All-WVIAC in 1975, 1976 and 1977. He is Fairmont's fourth all-time leading scorer with 2,255 career points. He averaged 22.4 points per game during the 1976 season. During Dave's career, Fairmont won four consecutive WVIAC Tournament titles, from 1974-1977. Moore was selected the WVIAC Tournament's Most Valuable Player in 1976. He was a three-time member of the WVIAC All-Tournament squad from 1975-1977. Moore is third on the all-time career field goals made list with 943 career field goals.

VANCE CARR 1978

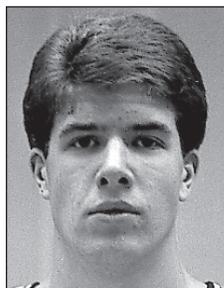

Vance played for Coach Joe Retton from 1975-1978. Carr was selected All-American in 1978. He became the eighth Falcon player to be named All-American. He was a three-time first-team All-WVIAC player, being named in 1976, 1977 and 1978. He scored 1,700 career points at Fairmont, placing him 15th on the all-time scoring list. His 1,114 career rebounds is the seventh best in Falcon history. Carr was selected to the WVIAC All-Tournament Team in 1976. During his career, Fairmont State won four consecutive WVIAC titles from 1975-78. The Falcons also won two WVIAC Tournament Championships during Carr's career, 1975 and 1976.

LEROY LOGGINS 1979

Leroy played at Fairmont State from 1979-1980 under Coach Joe Retton. He was a two-time first-team All-WVIAC player in both 1979 and 1980. In his two seasons at Fairmont, Loggins scored 1,279 points to rank 31st on the Fairmont State all-time scoring list. During the 1980 season, he averaged 22.1 points per game. Leroy scored 685 points in the 1980 season to rank seventh on the single-season points scored list at Fairmont State. His career field goal percentage of 57.7% ranks the third best at Fairmont. He also had a career free-throw percentage of 83.8% which the second best in Fairmont history. During Loggins' career, Fairmont won the WVIAC Championship in 1980. He was named to the WVIAC All-Tournament Team both in 1979 and 1980. In 1980, Loggins was named the WVIAC Tournament's Most Valuable Player after Fairmont State won the WVIAC Tournament title. In 1980, the Detroit Pistons drafted Loggins in the sixth round of the NBA draft. He opted to play professional basketball in Australia, where he became one of the best-ever players in Australian basketball history. Loggins was a member of two Australian Olympic teams. Inducted into the Fairmont State Hall of Fame in 2001.

TIM MURPHY 1985

Tim Murphy played at Fairmont from 1982-1985. In 1985, Tim was selected to the All-America Team. He played for both Coach Joe Retton and Coach Dave Cooper during his career. He is the last Fairmont basketball player to be named All-American. Murphy was twice selected first-team All-WVIAC, in 1984 and 1985, and was WVAIC Player of the Year as a senior. Murphy ended his career with 1,908 points, placing him eighth on the all-time scoring list. In 1985, he averaged 22.0 points per game for the Falcons. He was selected to the WVIAC All-Tournament squad in 1984 when he helped lead the Falcons to the WVIAC Tournament Championship. During the 1985 WVIAC Tournament, Murphy was the recipient of the Commissioner's Heart and Hustle Award. Tim holds the Fairmont record with 19 field goals made in a single-game against Geneva College in 1985.

THAD MCFADDEN 2009

In 2009, Thad McFadden became the first Fairmont State player to earn All-America honors since the school moved from NAIA to NCAA Division II. McFadden was named second team All-America by Daktronics. He was second in the nation in scoring averaging with 25.4 points per game as a senior, which also ranked as the fourth-highest season average in school history. McFadden was a two-time first team All-WVIAC pick and scored 1,367 points in his two-year career. He was twice named to the WVIAC All-Tournament team, and also claimed the Galperin Award as the conference tournament's leading (average) scorer twice. McFadden, coached by Fairmont State All-American Tim Murphy, set school records for single season and career three-pointers made.

MATT BINGAYA 2017

Matt Bingaya, a senior forward from Delaware, Ohio, was voted a consensus first team All-American after leading the Falcons to the NCAA National Championship Game in 2017. Bingaya earned first team All-American honors from D2CCA, NABC, Basketball Times and the D2 Bulletin. Bingaya led the team in scoring and rebounding, averaging 19 points and 7.1 rebounds per game – finishing the year with 19 games of 20-points or more. Along with being a consensus first team All-American, Matt was also voted the Mountain East Conference Player of the year, D2CCA Atlantic Region Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Bevo Francis National Player of the Year award.
