Rattler Football Outlook

Armed with cadre of hungry veterans and an impressive recruiting class, head coach Alex Wood and the Florida A&M University Rattlers are gearing up for a competitive revival in 2016.

The storied FAMU Program, winner of 12 National Championships and 38 conference title since 1938, has endured a rough patch over the past four seasons – all sub .500 campaign, aims to rebound from last year's 1-10 record, which was a fewest wins for the Rattler team since the 1920s.

But second-year head coach Alex Wood, whose work resume includes whistle stops on the collegiate and professional levels, made good use of the offseason to load up on talent via the recruiting route, while grooming the returning veterans to be the foundation for that revival.

Key returnees include All-MEAC guard/center Keonte Cash, a 6-1, 290 senior from Miami, who is moving to center after three years at guard, along with left tackle T.J. Jones, a 6-5, 295 senior from Myrtle Beach, S.C., both healthy after going in and out of the lineup with injuries last year, which impacted the overall effectiveness of the offensive line.

Sophomore halfback Devin Bowers, a 6-0, 180 freshman walk-on from St. Petersburg, Florida, a year ago wfinished as the club's rushing leader with 430 yards on 82 carries and two scores, with a scintillating 73-yard TD gallop against Samford that put him on the map to stay the rest of the season.

Quarterback play was critical to the Rattlers' lack of success last season, and Coach Wood and his staff searched far and wide for fresh talent at that position. Senior Carson Royal (6-2, 200, Yulee, Fla.), who got the majority of snaps under center was moved to tight end, while senior Kenny Coleman (6-1, 190, Hazelhurst, Miss.) remains in the rotation, which will have a traffic jam of newcomers along with redshirt freshman Ryan Stanley (6-3, 190, Pembroke Pines, Fla.).

Stanley showed signs of fully grasping the Rattler offense during offseason drills and may well be the opening day starter in September, but two newcomers, junior college transfer Vincent Jeffries (6-2, 191, Garner, N.C./Santa Rosa JC) and true freshman Tahj Tolbert (6-5, 220, Sugar Hill, Ga./Lanier HS) appear poised, along with Coleman, to duke it out in Fall Training Camp for the keys to the offense.

That bevy of quarterbacks will have a talented cadre of receivers to play pitch and catch with, headed by senior All-MEAC selection Montavious Williams (5-10, 175, Sr., Tallahassee, Fla.), who had 627 yards on 45 receptions and one score, and junior Brandon Norwood (6-1, 190, Jr., Atlanta, Ga.), who had 49 receptions for 442 yards and two TDs.

Defensively, graduation hit the Rattlers hard with the loss of linebackers Akil Blount, a two-time All-MEAC pick (now in the Miami Dolphins' camp) and Kashawn Butler, who accounted for 143 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and four interceptions, along with All-MEAC tackle Michael Lovejoy and cornerback John Boston.

Key returnees include linebacker turned defensive end Curtis Alexander (6-2, 245, Sr., Quincy, Fla.), who had 51 total tackles and 8.5 tackles for 22 yards in losses; All-MEAC free safety Jacques Bryant (6-0, 190, Sr., Tallahassee, Fla.), top the club's top returning tackler with 75 stops, one interception and five pass breakups; senior cornerbacks Braxton Brown (5-11, 185, Houston, Tex.), who finished with 45 tackles and four pass breakups, and Jules Dornevil (5-11, 185, Naples, Fla.), who had 38 tackles, six pass breakups and a pair of tackles for loss, and defensive end Elijah Price (6-3, 230, Jr., Jacksonville, Fla.), who recorded 31 tackles and 5.5 tackles for loss.

Senior punter/kicker Colby Blanton (6-0, 205, Jacksonville, Fla.) returns after a solid 2015 campaign when he added placekicking chores to his workload. One of the top punters in the MEAC with a 39.2-yard average on 80 tries, Blanton finished the year 7-of-12 on field goal tries with a long of 46 yards, while going a perfect 20-for-20 on point after kicks.

The buzz in the Rattler Football camp centers around the recruits which promise a much-needed infusion of talent and depth to a roster that was sorely lacking in both last year.

Of course, quarterbacks Vincent Jeffries (JUCO) and Tahj Tolbert (High School) are the two newcomers drawing the most attention, but Coach Wood and his staff worked hard to bring in at least one impact player at every position to cement this first full recruiting class as perhaps one of the best in years at FAMU.

FAMU opens the season Sept. 3 against the University of Miami, the first of three straight road games to begin the 2016 campaign, a stretch which includes a date at Coastal Carolina (Sept. 10) and a bout against old rival Tuskegee University in the Sept. 17 Fifth Quarter Classic in Mobile, Ala.

The Rattlers have back-to-back home games to open MEAC play against South Carolina State (Sept. 24) and Savannah State (Oct. 1), before returning to the road to face North Carolina Central (Oct. 8) and Delaware State (Oct. 15).

Hampton University will be the Rattlers' homecoming opponent for 2016 (Oct. 22), before FAMU heads to homecoming at North Carolina A&T (Oct. 29).

FAMU closes 2016 with two November games, at home against Morgan State (Nov. 12), and in Orlando against archrival Bethune-Cookman (Nov. 19).

Florida A&M University (FAMU) had five players named to the 2016 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference All-Star Football Team announced July 29 during its annual Football Media Luncheon.

Senior defensive end Curtis Alexander from nearby Quincy, Fla., and senior safety Jacques Bryant from Tallahassee, Fla., were first team selections.

Senior center Keonte Cash of Miami, Fla., and senior receiver Montavious Williams of Tallahassee were second team picks, while senior punter Colby Blanton of Jacksonville was third team selectee.

PRESEASON PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Courtesy: MEAC Media Relations

NORFOLK, Va. – North Carolina A&T State running back Tarik Cohen was selected as the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) preseason Offensive Player of the Year, while South Carolina State linebacker Darius Leonard was selected as preseason Defensive Player of the Year.

Cohen, the two-time defending Offensive Player of the Year, led the MEAC in rushing with 977 total yards in 2015. A two-time MEAC Offensive Player of the Week, Cohen led the conference with 122.1 rushing yards per game, carrying the ball 183 times, with nine touchdowns in eight games. He finished first in the MEAC in touchdowns and all-purpose yards (141.1 avg./g). He helped lead the Aggies to a share of the conference title and a win at the inaugural Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl. Cohen rushed for 295 yards for three touchdowns during the nationally televised win over Alcorn State.

Leonard was named to the 2015 All-MEAC First Team, as a linebacker. A one-time MEAC Defensive Player of the Week, Leonard finished the season recording 70 total tackles, one forced fumble, one recovered fumble, two quarterback hurries, four passes deflected and two breakups. He notched two interceptions, one for a touchdown, and 13.5 tackles for a loss. Leonard was second on the team in sacks (5.0) and interceptions.

PREDICTED ORDER OF FINISH

Defending Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl champion North Carolina A&T was picked to win the league in the annual preseason conference poll. Bethune-Cookman was picked second and North Carolina Central was selected third.

The Rattlers were picked to finish eighth in this year's race.

Rattler Football Game Notes

Rattler Football Turns 109: The FAMU Football Program marks its' 109th season of varsity play (dating back to 1906) this fall, and the Rattlers' 560-plus all-time wins place them in the Top 25 in NCAA Division I FCS in both overall wins and winning percentage.... FAMU has 12 national titles and 36 conference pennants to its' credit since winning its' first league football crown in 1937.... The program, which won the first-ever NCAA FCS national title in 1978, has won five playoff games all-time, the most of any FCS HBCU.

Year Six In FAMU History: 2016 marks several anniversary milestones in FAMU Athletics and the university at-large... This Fall marks the 70th anniversary of the world famous "Marching 100" Band, founded in 1946 by the late, legendary Dr. Patrick Foster....

On the weekend of September 23-24, FAMU celebrates the 40th Anniversary of its' Sports Hall of Fame, whose 1976 inaugural class featured the likes of tennis pioneer Althea Gibson, NFL Hall of Fame WR Bob Hayes, College Football Hall of Fame RB Willie Galimore, College Hall of Fame coach Jake Gaither, and Bill Lucas, the first African American major league team executive/general manager....

Speaking of Althea Gibson, it was in 1956 that she won her first major tennis title at the Australian Open.... Twenty years ago (1996), the College Football Hall of Fame inducted its' first-ever class of small college players, a group which included three-time Rattler All-American guard Tyrone McGriff...

In 1936 (80 years ago), FAMU hired Ohio State All-American guard Bill Bell as its' head football coach. He would partner two years later with a young coach, Jake Gaither to bring FAMU its' first national title in 1938. The duo would combine to bring three national titles (1938, 1940, 1942) to FAMU, before Gaither would take the reins in 1945, bringing home six (6) more national crowns...

Rugged Schedule Ahead For FAMU: With FAMU's storied history has come the proverbial bull's eye on their backs, as each week, the Rattler gridders have had to take the "A" game of their opponents who sought to get their licks in on the Men of Orange and Green...

The past four years have been especially tough on the Rattlers, who have won just 11 games during that span, including a one-win campaign a year ago....

Along with the zeal that opponents bring to every game comes the degree of difficulty of the FAMU schedules year in and year out....

2016 will be no different as the Rattlers open the season against FBS Miami, followed by a pair of 2015 playoff teams, Coastal Carolina and Tuskegee, both of which advanced to the national quarterfinals as at-large teams....

The Rattlers open MEAC play against league king pin South Carolina State, which has won 12 of the last 13 games in the series, followed by Savannah State, which will likely be aiming for a repeat of their 37-27 upset of FAMU a year ago...

The MEAC schedule for FAMU will be daunting all around, as they will face all five of the clubs which tied for the league title in 2014 – S.C. State, NCCU, Morgan State, North Carolina A&T and Bethune-Cookman... The B-CU 'Cats have especially enjoyed the recent reversal of fortunes on the gridiron against their in-state rivals, having won five straight against FAMU....

Pro Rattler Notes: Six Rattlers are either in NFL Training Camps or on active Canadian League Football Rosters as of this writing....

LBs Brandon Hepburn (Dallas) and Akil Blount (Miami) are vying for spots on the 53-man rosters of their respective NFL clubs.

Rattler Football Game Notes

along with wide receiver Brian Tyms (Indianapolis), while North of the Border, the trio of WR Kevin Elliott (Toronto), DL Padric Scott (Winnipeg) and DB John Ojo (Edmonton).

Homecoming for 20 Something

Rattlers: Long known as a hotbed for high school talent, Miami and the South Florida area are well represented on the 2016 FAMU Football team... Over a dozen players are of the first year variety as Coach Alex Wood and his staff begin the long rebuilding or rebooting process.... In addition to the young guns, FAMU has several starters from the South Florida area, including senior guard Keonte Cash, center/guard Osman Aguilera, defensive end Calvin Darville, and budding redshirt freshman quarterback Ryan Stanley

FAMU, UM crossing paths: The FAMU-UM series has always had a bit of a different flavor than most FBS-FCS matchups.... Before AppState escaped the Big House in Ann Arbor with their signature upset over Michigan in the late 1990s, FAMU's 16-13 win over the 'Canes at FSU's Doak Campbell Stadium in 1979 was one of the earliest (if not the earliest) upset.... New UM head coach Mark Richt was a freshman on that 1979 Miami team.... FAMU coach Alex Wood worked a four-year stint at UM (1989-92) as Receivers coach during which the 'Canes won national titles in 1989 and 1992.... Current UM Receivers coach Ron Dugans is no stranger to FAMU, as he played his high school ball at FAMU High School, which played its' home games at FAMU's Bragg Stadium... Dugans was one of the first FAMU High players to play across town at Florida State... Current Rattler tight ends coach Stephen Field was a member of the UM defensive staff from 2006 to 2008. He also served as head coach at area prep power Miami Northwestern High School (2011-14)....

PRIDE IS AT STAKE IN 2016:

The proud FAMU Football Program has endured four (4) straight losing seasons, something which had not happened since the program's early days in the 1920s... With the excellent recruiting class landed by Coach Wood and his staff last winter now in hand, coupled with their first class of recruits from 2015, expectations of improved play are driving the players and coaches this offseason.... One factor lighting a bit of a fire under the Rattlers is the fan support they received in 2015 during a tumultuous 1-10 season... FAMU finished #11 in Division I FCS in home attendance, averaging over 13,000 fans per home game, including crowds of better than 18,000 for their home opener after an 0-3 start, and 23,000 for Homecoming.

THE CITY OF MIAMI AND FAMU: The Rattlers and the City of Miami have a long-standing relationship dating back to the 1940s, when the fabled Orange Blossom Classic was transplanted into the venerable Orange Bowl

TUESDAY GRID PRESSER

On Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m., FAMU will host a Weekly Press Conference at the Lawson Center ground floor conference room, featuring Coach Wood and selected players... Light refreshments will be served.

Stadium in 1947.... Over the next three decades, the OBC became the true forerunner of the modern day Black College Football Classics, often doubling as the defacto HBCU championship game... Thanks to the massive numbers of FAMU alumni in Dade and Broward counties, FAMU games must see events, especially during the OBC's heyday in the 1950s and 60s, when HBCU powerhouses like Grambling, Tennessee State, Jackson State, Alcorn and Morgan State dueled with Jake Gaither's vaunted Rattlers... In 1983, the Pro Football Hall of Fame honored the Classic during its' 50th anniversary for its' role in showcasing Black College talent for professional scouts. Numerous players signed pro contracts following those games.

SNAKEBITES: FAMU head coach Alex Wood will be a media star of sorts prior to Saturday's game as he will tape a "throw back to the studio" spot for The Weather

Channel to air during their Saturday coverage.... Fox Sports NFL Sideline veteran Pam Oliver (a FAMU Track All-America in the 1980s) will be inducted along the members of the 1984 All-America 4x400 relay into the FAMU Sports Hall of Fame on Sept. 23.

WHAT'S NEXT: The Rattlers continue their comeback tour next week against aspiring FBS transitioner Coastal Carolina (7:00 p.m.).

Head Coach Alex Wood

ALEX WOOD

Head Football Coach * Florida A&M University University of Iowa, 1978 * Second Season

At first glance, Florida A&M University head football coach Alex Wood looks more like an erudite college professor than a football coach.

But beyond the personable, mild-mannered, intellectual persona that Wood projects to the public, is a fiercely competitive firebrand, who stresses discipline and accountability from his players both on and off the field.

A native of Massillon, Ohio, Wood was a product of the storied Ohio high school program that was once led by the legendary Paul Brown, who went on to coach the Cleveland Browns and later found the Cincinnati Bengals.

"I wasn't a supremely gifted athlete," Wood recalls. "But I worked hard, worked out hard, lifting weights. I was known as a tough guy, a try hard guy."

Wood, who was a walk-on running back and special teams performer at the University of Iowa, eventually earned a scholarship with the Hawkeyes.

It was in the crucible of his years as a dedicated and determined young athlete, that the idea of continuing in the game of football was born.

"Many of my coaches in high school and college inspired me during my playing career," Wood recalls. "Denny (Dennis) Green was one of my coaches at Iowa. He was an excellent coach, and he was also the first African American coach I ever had."

"I knew I didn't have the talent for the NFL," Wood said, "but I wanted to get something back for what I had put into the game, so I moved into coaching."

"Coaching keeps me in the game (football). I interact with other coaches, work clinics, growing and learning so I can pass along that knowledge. That in turn, allows me to teach the fundamentals of football, instill discipline, to teach life lessons, and place emphasis on character and perseverance," said Wood.

"Seeing some of those former players years later, some who may not been great athletes, but who have become great men is very rewarding, knowing you helped make a difference, that you touched the lives of young men," he concluded.

Wood, came to Florida A&M from the University of Buffalo, where he was offensive coordinator the last four seasons (2011-14), and interim head coach for the last half of the 2014 season.

During that four-year run, the Bulls averaged 35 points and over 4,000 yards in offense, finding a perfect balance between the run and pass.

His offensive philosophy was no doubt influenced by his various work stops in college, which ranged from championship teams at Miami (Fla.), and tours in FCS at James Madison and Southern (La.), to the professional level, in Minnesota, Cincinnati and Arizona.

Offensively, Rattler fans can expect to see a no huddle, hurry up pro style attack, that will utilize multiple personnel groupings and multiple formations, seeking that critical balance between the run and the pass, while pressuring opposing defenses with a relentless pace.

"We will snap the ball with 17 seconds on the play clock, seeking to average 95 plays or more every game. This will allow us to keep opponents vanilla, and not allow them to substitute much," promises Wood.

Rattler fans got a taste of an up tempo, fastbreak offense during the Gulf Coast Offense days under coach Billy Joe (1994-2004), and the possibilities of a return of those high-flying days has many FAMUans breathless with anticipation headed into 2015.

"The no-huddle is something we've always done, at first late in games, or when things were stagnant, to pump some life back into the offense.

"But now it is a full-time venture, with emphasis on a balanced philosophy. We don't want to be one dimensional, and being able to establish the run allows us to use play action more effectively as well," Wood added.

Defensively, stopping the run, which has been a challenge for the Rattlers in recent years, will be the top priority of Wood's GanGreen Defense.

"On offense, we want to be equally effective in the run game and through the air, while on defense, we want to make teams one dimensional, and stopping the run will be the key to success on that side of the ball."

Wood will employ multiple fronts on defense, with an aggressive, pressure style, that will cover well in the secondary, and seek to confuse the quarterback.

"We will play with pace on defense too, running to the ball like scalded dogs, being sound in our tackling and looking to create takeaways" Wood says.

With Fall training camp just days away, the first-year Rattler coach turned his expectations for the team in 2015, sounding very much like the 37-year coaching veteran he is.

"I expect us to play hard, play smart, play and a complete game with great excitement for four quarters," Wood said of his charges, who were in the final stages of a summer training regime that began in mid May.

The summer work regimen for the players placed equal emphasis on athletic training and academic excellence, and according to Wood, it was the first complete summer session the program has ever had.

"We are coming out of the summer training energized," Wood said. "I'm really looking forward to our seniors providing leadership for us this year, and they should be the most hungry to have a good year."

Rattler fans and opponents can expect Alex Wood to put his mark on the FAMU Football Program, such that it reflects the tenets of hard work, discipline and character that he has espoused over his long and fruitful career.

40 HARRIS Jr., Ronald LB JR

6'3 225 Raleigh, NC/Jireh Prep

@ 2015: Harris, in limited action, had nine (9) tackles, seven solos, but with the departure of a number of linebackers via graduation, may finally get a shot at regular duty at one of the outside linebacker spots...

43 BENNETT, Justin LB SR

6'2 225 Miami, FL/Flanagan HS

@ 2015: Bennett will be in the mix at middle linebacker this fall with the loss of several linebackers to graduation.... He has seven total tackles in eight games over the past two seasons, and will have to duel fellow senior Luke Helms for middle linebacking duties.

44 GALLON, Quenteze LB SO

5'10 205 Tallahassee, FL/Lincoln HS

@ 2015: This local product proved to be a quick study as he logged spot playing time as a true freshman... He played in six games with six tackles, one pass breakup and one tackle for loss... Expect him to be in the mix at outside linebacker.

Parents: Rebecca Burton

51 JONES, T.J. OL R-SR
6'5 295 Myrtle Beach, SC/Kentucky

@ 2015: Jones missed most of the season with leg troubles, but rehabilitation and a robust strength and conditioning program has the former Kentucky Wildcat ready to play mean and nasty at left tackle.... Jones started two seasons (2013, 2014) at left tackle, and would love to close out his career and get noticed by pro scouts with a strong finishing campaign.

52 HELMS, Luke LB `SR
6'2 225 Tallahassee, FL/N. Fla. Christian HS

@ 2015: Limited by injuries in 2015, local product Helms finished with 19 tackles (13 solos) and two tackles for loss... 2014: Helms had his best season at FAMU with 56 tackles (33 solos) and a pair of tackles for loss... 62 CASH, Keonte                      OL              SR
6'1              290              Miami, FL/Belen Jesuit HS

@ 2015: Cash is a 2016 Preseason All-MEAC selection after playing courageously hurt most of the 2015 season, at both guard and center.... 2014: Cash was a 2014 Preseason All-MEAC selection on the offensive line, and he justified those notices by starting all 12 games and left guard. He is the lone Rattler lineman to have started every game the past two seasons (2013, 2014)..... 2013: Cash started as a true freshman at left guard, enduring a baptism of fire, along with a number of his freshmen mates on a patchwork offensive line, maturing quickly into a reliable blocker... A youngster with all-star potential, look for him to lock down a starting role before opening day.... HIGH SCHOOL: Cash was a member of the Miami Herald First Team All-Dade Offense 6A-8A Football squad; a First Team Florida Class 6A selection; a 247sports.com two-star Offensive Lineman... was a 2013 District Champion Heavy Weight Division in Wrestling, and a 2013 Regional Finalist...
