* - Centennial Conference | ! - Homecoming & Family Weekend/ % -ECAC Game

Today's Game: Juniata (3-0, 2-0 CC) at Franklin & Marshall (1-2, 1-1 CC)

Coaches: John Troxell enters his eighth season as F&M's head coach with a record of 37-39. He has guided F&M to winning seasons in three of the last four years and three ECAC bowl game appearances. The Diplomats posted a 7-4 mark in 2012 and hosted the ECAC Southeast Bowl, while Troxell led the squad to back-to-back ECAC bowl games and winning seasons in 2009 and 2010, marking the first consecutive winning seasons at F&M since 1995 and 1996.

In 2009, Troxell guided the Diplomats to a 9-2 season that was capped by an ECAC South Atlantic Championship victory. Troxell was named the Centennial Conference's Coach of the Year and was one of five national finalists for the highly coveted Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award. The 9-2 season marked the Diplomats best campaign since 1996.

Longtime Juniata College coaching veteran Tim Launtz is entering his third season at the helm of the Juniata College football program after leading the Eagles to their most successful season in nearly a decade. He continues to rebuild the Eagle football the program that he was a part of as both an undergraduate and for 15 years as an assistant coach. He became the 22nd head coach in Juniata football history, after being named to the position on March 2, 2011.

Series History: Today's game marks the 10th time these schools have convened on the gridiron and the sixth time since Juniata attained associate membership status in the Centennial Conference. F&M has won all six meetings since the Eagles have landed in the league. Prior to that, the home team had won each meeting. F&M's 27-12 win in Huntingdon in 2007, rekindled the rivalry after 21 years and ended the home team dominance. The first two contests were played in Lancaster - 61 years apart. The Diplomats won the first game between the schools played back on Oct. 18, 1924, by a 27-0 margin. It wasn't until Sept.
