2019 records

About the Owls

- The FAU softball program is celebrating its 26th season, all under direction of head coach Joan Joyce, who is seeking her 1,000th career win this year
- FAU was projected to finish 8th in the conference, as chosen by the league's head coaches. North Texas, co-regular season champions, was picked to finish at the top of the conference with nine first place votes
- Fayth Davis (OF) was picked to the C-USA Preseason Team after finishing the year batting .389 (.400 C-USA), which was third best in the conference and best among outfielders in the league. She also tallied 15 doubles and 2 home runs in her redshirt sophomore campaign
- FAU is looking to improve upon its 20-30 (7-17 C-USA) finish in 2019. The Owls missed the conference tournament for the first time
- The team welcomes 12 newcomers, as well as brings back 11 players and four everyday starters
- FAU has 12 conference championships and has made 11 NCAA Tournament appearances with the last one taking place in 2016

2019 Season Recap

- The Owls rounded out the league in 11th, just missing out on a berth in the Conference USA Tournament with a 20-30 (7-17 C-USA) record
- FAU endured one of the toughest schedules in program history, facing 11 teams that were ranked in the top 25 or received votes at one point of the season
- The Owls are led by returner Fayth Davis, who really came alive in the latter part of the season to finish the year batting .389 with a team's most 15 doubles in addition to 2 homeruns
- In the circle, the Owls were led by Skylar Whitty (8-6), who held a 3.15 ERA and tallied 54 strikeouts over 102.1 innings pitched. The Owls return pitchers Abigail Morgan (3.15 ERA) and Kara Lokeinsky (4.28 ERA) who also saw time in the circle last season
- Samy Lageyre (IF), Mia Olson (DP/UT) and Davis (OF) tallied Second Team honors on the All-Conference Team and Whitty made the All-Freshman Team
- Madisyn Palmer, the school record holder in single season (48) and career stolen bases (164), has since graduated and captured NFCA All-Region Third Team honors her senior year. Olson (P/DP) was also named to Third Team All-Region

Series History Wisconsin (4-2, FAU leads)

- Friday will be the seventh meeting between the Owls and Badgers
- FAU has won four out of the last five matchups, which have all been played in Boca Raton
- The last time FAU and Wisconsin played one another was in 2005 in a doubleheader. The

Badgers won the first game, 4-3 in 10 innings, while FAU bounced back in the second game to win 2-1

Indiana State (2-0, FAU leads)

- The Owls will play Indiana State for the third time in the series, as well as the first time in nearly 22 years
- FAU leads in the series, 2-0 in games that have both been played on neutral sites
- In the last meeting on March 6, 1998, the Owls beat the Sycamores 9-0 in five innings at the USF Speedline Invitational in Tampa

Northern Illinois (2-3, NIU leads)

- The Owls will face the Huskies for the sixth time in the series on Saturday
- FAU has won the last two games after dropping the first three
- The Owls played the Huskies twice in 2016 at the FAU Strikeout Cancer Tournament, where FAU captured their first two wins over the squad from up North
- In the first game, the Owls won 8-0 in five innings and followed that performance up with a 6-2 win

Purdue (6-3, FAU leads)

- The Purdue and FAU series has gone the Owls' way the last five games, as FAU has won the last five meetings
- FAU will play Purdue for the third consecutive year and 10th and 11th time total in the series
- The Boilermakers came down to FAU for the Parents Weekend Tournament last year, as the Owls won in a 4-0 shutout win

Eyeing the Competition Wisconsin

- The No. 25/23 Wisconsin Badgers are coming off a 43-14 season (15-8 B10), which included an NCAA Tournament berth and one of their best showings in Wisconsin softball history
- Wisconsin played at the Norman Regional and forced a game seven against the Sooners after stunning them 2-1. The Badgers would fall 2-0 in the final to be eliminated
- The Badgers' leading returner is Kayla Konwent who batted .459 with 21 doubles, 15 homers and 53 RBI. In the circle, Wisconsin returns all pitchers who saw time on the field last season. Kaitlyn Menz (21-9) pitched 164.1 innings last year with a 2.13 ERA and 109 strikeouts

Indiana State

- The Sycamores are coming off a 19-35 season (5-21 MVC)
- In the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament, ninth-seeded Indiana State upset Loyola and Missouri State, but could not get past Bradley after a 4-0 loss
- Senior Leslie Sims is coming off a season where she batted .400 along with 72 hits and 50 runs. Gabbi Schnaiter is the leading pitcher after going 9-14 last season with a 3.87 ERA and 88 strikeouts over 139.1 innings pitched

Northern Illinois

- The Huskies finished last season 27-25 (11-9 MAC), falling to Toledo 11-6 in the Mid-American Conference Tournament
- NIU is coached by Chris Sutcliffe, who is a member of the FAU Hall of Fame and is a FAU softball alum (1997-2001)
- Katie Keller led the team with a .424 batting average along with 56 hits and 26 RBI during her freshman season. Mackenzie Bryan returns to the circle after a 15-14 season where she tallied a 2.98 ERA and 127 strikeouts over 169.1 innings pitched

Head Coach Joan Joyce

25th Season
Chapman College '66
965-598-1

Florida Atlantic University Head Softball Coach Joan Joyce is one of those rare people to enjoy success as both a player and a coach. After concluding an illustrious playing career that spanned parts of four decades in numerous sports, Joan Joyce was named head coach at FAU in 1994. Joyce is the only head coach FAU softball has had in its 25-season history. Under Joyce, the program's accomplishments are unparalleled: eight-consecutive Conference Championships (1997-2004)--12 in all (2006, 2007, 2016, 2018)--and eight straight NCAA Tournament appearances (1997-2004)--11 in all (2006, 2015, 2016).

Joyce began planting the seeds of success immediately upon taking the reins of FAU softball. She spent nine months creating a program from scratch, and the result was an impressive 33-18 record in year one. Not only did that first year earn Joyce her first Atlantic Sun Conference Coach of the Year award, but she was also named Palm Beach County Coach of the Year.

The building effort continued in 1996, as the team finished 37-32 and advanced to its second-straight A-Sun tournament. That year also saw Joyce take on the role of Senior Woman Administrator at FAU, a position she held until 2001.

Her record run of championships began in 1997 with not only the program's first conference championship, but FAU's first A-Sun title in any sport. That success resulted in Joyce's second A-Sun Coach of the Year award. In 1998, the team repeated as A-Sun champions.

In 1999, the A-Sun was given an automatic bid to the NCAA postseason tournament for the conference champion. The Owls won their third straight A-Sun Championship and appeared in the NCAA Tournament for the first time. FAU posted a 49-20 record, good enough to earn Joyce another A-Sun Coach of the Year award and her entire staff the Southeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year award by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

FAU would win its fourth-consecutive A-Sun title and return to the NCAA Tournament in 2000. The season also featured an 18-game winning streak and another A-Sun Coach of the Year award for Joyce. The 2001 season ended with similar results, an A-Sun title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament while finishing 46-21.

In 2002, FAU set a team record and led the nation with 62 wins. It resulted in Joyce's fifth A-Sun Coach of the Year award and FAU received its first no. 1 seed, one of eight in the nation, for an NCAA Regional.

FAU won 31 of its last 41 games en route to the same postseason success in 2003. From 2003 to 2004, FAU's schedule was one of the toughest in the nation, as the Owls faced at least three teams that went on to the Women's College World Series.

FAU's defense of its 2003 A-Sun title was not an easy one, as it took a dramatic doubleheader sweep of UCF in the regular-season finale to clinch the top seed for the A-Sun Championships.

With so much success, sometimes a season simply cannot match the high expectations. For Joyce and FAU, that season was 2005, when the Owls went 37-32, clinched the second seed for the A-Sun Tournament but saw their streak of conference titles and NCAA berths come to an end. Of the 32 losses, 19 came against teams that eventually qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

The year 2006 saw a return to the top, as FAU captured its ninth conference crown in 10 years during its final A-Sun campaign. FAU returned to the NCAA Tournament where the team would advance to the regional finals, picking up a pair of shutout victories over the University of Florida.

FAU was undoubtedly one of the best programs during its time in the A-Sun Conference, claiming more championships (nine) than any program in the history of the A-Sun.

In 2007, the Owls came from behind to take the Sun Belt's regular-season title on the final day of conference play, and after being upset in the opening round of the conference tournament, won five straight games including a triple-header on the tournament's final day to edge Troy 1-0 in the championship game. This would mark the program's first Sun Belt Tournament championship.

FAU sought out to defend its Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles, and actually had a better conference record (17-7) than it did its first year in the conference (16-8). However, the Owls were supplanted as regular season and tournament champions by eventual Women's College World Series participant Louisiana-Lafayette.

In 2009 the Owls struggled to a 7th place finish in the Sun Belt during the regular season, but made a run all the way to the Championship Game of the Sun Belt Tournament. Coach Joyce had two players named to both the all-conference and all-tournament teams and Caitlyn Bliss was just the fourth player in program history to be named to the NFCA All-Region First Team.

The Owls earned the fourth seed in the conference tournament in 2010, where senior pitcher was named to the all-tournament team. Blair Bodenmiller, who was named First Team All-Sun Belt, became Coach Joyce's first Academic All-American and just the second in school history. Jessica Myers and Taylor Fawbush were named Second Team All-Conference that same season.

In 2011, the Owls advanced to the Championship Game of the Sun Belt Conference tournament for the third time in five years. Heather Barnes and Rose Gressley were named to the Sun Belt All-Conference and All-Tournament teams. Gressley was also named to the NFCA All-Region Team.

FAU had a 15-9 league record in 2014 to mark its first season in Conference USA. The team finished the season with a 33-22 overall record, marking its first winning season since 2011. Sophomore outfielder Melissa Martinez was named First Team All C-USA, while junior pitcher Samantha Messer earned Second Team All-Conference honors. Pitchers Amanda Wilson and Kylee Hanson were named to the C-USA All-Freshmen team.

In 2016, Joyce and FAU marked a return to championship form. The Owls won their first 12 games of the season, improving upon the previous year's start as the best in school history. FAU swept the Conference USA regular season and tournament titles, earning Coach Joyce Conference Coach of the Year honors for the seventh time in her career. Kylee Hanson and Madisyn Palmer were named Conference Pitcher and Freshman of the Year, respectively. Hanson led the nation in ERA and was named an All-American. FAU ended the regular season as just one of two teams in the nation with at least 50 wins and advanced to an NCAA Regional for the second straight season.

The Owls lost Hanson to a season-ending injury early in the 2017 campaign, but still managed to attain a 35-21 record, including Coach Joyce's 900th career win with a victory over WKU. Emily Lochten earned First-Team C-USA honors, while Delaney Rickey made the Third Team. Lochten would also go on to be named an NFCA All-American, just the third player in school history to achieve the accomplishment.

In 2018, Joyce received her eighth Conference Coach of the Year title after leading her team to a regular-season conference championship. The team went 15-8 in conference (30-26 overall), but fell short in the C-USA Tournament title game against Middle Tennessee, 6-7, ending their 2018 season. Senior Emily Lochten and junior Madisyn Palmer were named to the First Team All-Conference and senior Tatum Buckley was a second team selection. Lochten (1st), Palmer (2nd), Tatum (2nd) and Mia Olson (3rd) clinched spots on the NFCA All-Region Team.

Overall, Joyce has coached a number of All-Conference selections, including 40 on the First-Team, 40 on the Second-Team and nine on the Third-Team. Joyce has had five players named as Conference Player of the Year, three as Conference Pitcher of the Year and three as Conference Freshman of the Year. In her time at FAU, Joyce has had four All-America selections, as well as several players named to the NFCA All-Region Team, including four First-Team selections, six Second-Team choices and three Third-Team notables.

Fittingly, as one the best softball pitchers of all time, Joyce has built the FAU program on the foundation of strong pitching. She helped sculpt the career of Nikki Myers, who finished her four-year run in 2002. Myers twice received Second-Team All-America honors and finished her career third in NCAA history in strikeouts. Joyce coached four A-Sun Players of the Year, with Myers receiving the honor three times and Alana Klaus being recognized in the inaugural 1995 campaign. She has also coached an A-Sun Pitcher of the Year in Candice Freel and twice, the conference Freshman of the Year. In addition, she added a Sun Belt Pitcher and Player of the Year to her resume in 2007. Joyce earned Conference USA Coach of the Year award in 2016, as the Owls swept the C-USA regular season and conference titles. It was the seventh time and third different conference that she earned conference coach of the year, while leading Kylee Hanson to C-USA Pitcher of the Year and Madisyn Palmer to C-USA Freshman of the Year.

Joyce's duties at FAU have not been limited to softball and administration. From 1996-2014, she was head coach of the women's golf team. Much like the softball team, Joyce led the golf team on a continual path of improvement. She coached three A-Sun Golfers of the Year in Cecilie Lundgreen (1997), Jessica Polus (2002) and Natalia Navarro (2004), and one Freshman of the Year, Praewnapa Phol-Uayporn (2005).

Outside of FAU, Joyce has been involved both as a coach and as a player at the highest levels of softball. Her coaching experience includes a four-year stint in the women's professional softball ranks, winning the World Series in each of those seasons. She has also coached and played softball with many of the nation's top collegiate coaches.

A member of the National Amateur Softball Hall of Fame, Joyce holds a career pitching record of 753 wins and 42 losses. Included in her totals are 150 no-hit, no-run games and 50 perfect games. At the plate she posted a career batting average of .324. Joyce counts striking out Ted Williams in 1961 as one of her most notable achievements.

A multi-sport athlete, Joyce has now been inducted into 16 halls of fame. She has been welcomed into the ASUN Hall of Fame (2018), National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame (2013), Florida Sports Hall of Fame (2012), Palm Beach Sports Hall of Fame (2008), New England Women's Sports Hall of Fame (1999), International Sports Federation Hall of Fame

(1999), Connecticut High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame (1998), Palm Beach County Sports Hall of Fame (1995), National ASA Hall of Fame (1983), Connecticut ASA Hall of Fame, Women's Hall of Fame of Connecticut, Hank O'Donnell Hall of Fame, Connecticut Basketball Hall of Fame, Fairfield County Sports Hall of Fame and the Greater Waterbury Hall of Fame. Additionally, Joyce is one of a handful of Americans who have been enshrined into the International Women's Sports Hall of Fame.

Joyce has left an indelible mark on women's athletics and is creating a legacy that will help to define FAU, Owls athletics and collegiate softball for decades to come.
