FAU RECORD BOOK - YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1981
Under Head Coach Steve Traylor, the Owls finished 15-16 in their inaugural season. FAU won its first six games, including a 12-8 victory against St. Thomas University in the season opener. Shortstop Darryl Powell, the team's Most Valuable Player, led the Owls offensively, hitting .383 and driving in a team-high 41 runs. On the mound, righthander Bill Cobe was voted the team's Most Outstanding Pitcher, leading the club with five victories and 61 strikeouts.

1982
The 1982 campaign began a string of seven consecutive winning seasons, as the Owls finished 42-14. After finishing the regular season with a record of 38-12, FAU was ranked 10th in the final NAIA poll and earned a berth in the NAIA District 25 Tournament, where the team advanced to the championship game before losing to Georgia College 7-4. Individual standouts for FAU included first baseman Mike Ryan, who led the club with 16 home runs, 73 RBI and a team-record .418 batting average, and pitchers Pat Murphy and Jorge Vega. Murphy, who was named the team's Most Outstanding Pitcher, finished the season 6-3 with a team-leading 2.66 ERA, while Vega led the club with 10 wins. Left-hander Tommy Clark, who posted a 4-0 record, threw the Owls' first no-hitter.

1983
The Owls posted a record of 49-16, winning the NAIA District 25 Championship and ranking fifth in the final NAIA poll. After taking the NAIA District 25 Title, FAU advanced to the NAIA Area Five Tournament, where they were eliminated in the semifinal round. The Owls, who won 18 consecutive games in midseason, set team records for the most hits, home runs, doubles and triples in a single season. Catcher Keith Foley, who led the nation with 95 hits while batting .396, was named to the NAIA All-America Second Team.

1984
Following the 1983 season, FAU moved into NCAA Division II. In the 1984 season opener, the Owls showed they belonged by defeating the University of Florida 4-3. They then went on to win their next four games, including an 11-10 win over the University of Miami. FAU finished the season at 40-15 and was ranked eighth in the final NCAA DII poll. First baseman Mike Ryan led the club with 19 home runs and was named to the NCAA DII All-America Third Team. Right-handed pitcher Jim Hanrahan also had an outstanding year, winning eight games, including a no-hitter against Illinois Tech in mid-March.

1985
FAU finished eighth in the final NCAA DII poll and earned a bid to play in the South Regional Tournament against No. 1 Florida Southern. In its first NCAA postseason appearance, the Owls lost the best-of-five series to the Moccasins, who went on to become Division II Champions. FAU, which finished the season 44-15, had several players finish among the nation's statistical leaders. Catcher Doug Gonring, who signed with the Toronto Blue Jays after the season, finished 13th in the country in RBI, and Jeff Forney, a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Reds, finished seventh in stolen bases and eighth in triples. Right-handed pitcher Luis Merino, a seven-game winner in 1985, threw a no-hitter against Florida Memorial, the third in the program's history.

The Owls finished 44-10 in 1986 and won 12 of 13 games against Division I opponents, their only loss coming on the last day of the season against Miami. Following the season, FAU was ranked 11th in the final NCAA DII poll. Several Owls earned postseason honors, including centerfielder Scott Hay, First-Team All-South Region, who hit .403 with 57 RBI and a team-leading 32 stolen bases. The Owls also had three players selected to the All-South Region Second Team: shortstop Dave Conner, catcher Marty McDaniel and pitcher Scott Halama. Right-hander Jim Drancsak finished the season with a team-record 1.29 ERA, third best in the country. He also threw a no-hitter, the fourth in FAU history.

1987
FAU finished the 1987 season with a record of 34-21-2. The season was highlighted by victories against Division I schools La Salle and Northeastern. Team MVP Gonzalo Carcache and third baseman Jack Penrod led the Owls offensively. Carcache topped the club with a .379 batting average and 16 stolen bases, while Penrod paced FAU with 14 home runs. Scott Halama, who set new FAU single-season records with 66 strikeouts and three shutouts, led the pitching staff. The 1987 season marked the end of Coach Steve Traylor's career at FAU. Traylor, who compiled a record of 268-105-2 with the Owls, left to become head coach at Duke University.

1988
FAU won its 300th game in program history, a 9-1 win over Nova University, which was its last win of the season. Under new Head Coach Kevin Cooney, the Owls finished 32-19-2. Several players enjoyed record-breaking seasons, led by All-American Jack Penrod, who hit .418 to tie the FAU single-season batting record. Penrod also set a new single-season home run record, belting 22 round trippers, while driving in 64 runs. With a team-leading 62 strikeouts, left-hander Mike Fascetti became the FAU all-time strikeout leader with 138. Another record breaker was right-hander Joe Peede, who tied the single-season record for starts with 16.

1989
FAU finished the season with a 30-23-2 record, which included a season-ending four-game win streak, which tied the longest streak that season. The team earned big victories against Florida Southern (8-6), Lynn (8-6) and Coach Cooney's former team, Montclair State (6-5). Four players hit above .300, with junior Wayne Stofsky leading the team at .376. Dro Ormrod hit .348, Tom Horincewicz hit .338 and Brian Covin hit .312. The pitching staff was led by Rob Mascarella, who tallied a 2.66 ERA. Junior

Steve Taylor led the team in victories, with nine, and strikeouts, with 116 in 22 appearances.

The Owls compiled a 28-25 record behind the hitting of junior Pat Murray. Murray tallied a team-leading 71 hits and a .335 batting average. Also hitting for average were Wayne Stofsky at .326 and Brian Covin at .323. Tom Horincewicz rounded out the .300 hitters with a .309 average. Senior Steve Taylor led the team with a 2.78 ERA, which included 74 strikeouts. Steve Lawson led the team in innings pitched with 126.1.

1991
Rocky times saw FAU post a 24-31 record. That mark was the program's second losing season and the first losing season for Coach Kevin Cooney. Roster deletions and injuries plagued the season. FAU was led by Rick Seider's .393 average. Craig Shotten and Charles Aristy hit .330 and .325, respectively. The pitching staff was led by Matt Kramer's six victories and 3.53 ERA.

1992
FAU finished the season with a 27-27 record and was just two games away from a postseason appearance. The Owls were paced by First-Team South Region selection Anthony Bellinato's .371 average. Matt Kramer led the team in innings pitched (96.3) and victories (seven). Tim Holley led the team with 60 strikeouts. The season concluded with a Washington D.C. road trip. FAU posted victories against Florida Southern, La Salle, Purdue, Army and Georgetown. Tom Lane, Tim Harikkala and Matt Jones received professional contracts.

1993
A second NCAA Division II postseason appearance for FAU was earned after a 41-17 record. Both Kevin Morgan and Eric Riebel earned First-Team South Region honors, while Marty Reinhardt received Second Team starter honors and Aaron Reid made Second Team as a closer. Morgan and Ron Ripppo were named to the South Regional Tournament Team as an outfielder and DH, respectively. FAU pulled off several outstanding victories, including a 2-0 victory against the University of Miami. Riebel led the team in both average (.346) and doubles (17). Reinhardt and Brian Merkey led the team with perfect records (6-0). Pitcher Tim Holley led the team with a 3.03 ERA. Merkey and Reid posted 1.94 and 2.43 ERAs, respectively, as closers. The team was listed in several national categories, including leading the nation in double-plays turned. Catcher Kevin Lewis was drafted by the New York Mets.

FAU finished its first season of NCAA Division I competition with a 31-23 record and several individual and team accolades. John Sammon opened the 1994 season with a 13-0 complete game no-hitter during the first series of the season against Florida A&M. That performance earned Sammon National Pitcher of the Week honors by Baseball America. The season continued with an outstanding performance when Kevin Connacher set a new consecutive-game hit streak record of 24. Connacher finished the season with a .359 average, just five points lower than team leader Kevin Morgan (.364), and Freshman All-American honors by Baseball America. FAU again pulled off big victories at Florida (4-2), Michigan State (11-7), Army (16-6), UCF (11-1) and Florida International (7-0). FAU batted .310, tallied 32 homers, 88 doubles and 14 triples. The pitching staff held a 3.70 team ERA and recorded six shutouts, three saves and three complete games.

FAU finished its second season of Division I competition and its first as a full member of the Atlantic Sun Conference with a 27-31 overall record and a 17-13 A-Sun record. FAU was one of four A-Sun teams to be invited to the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament. In FAU's first game, the squad defeated Florida International, ranked no. 9 at the time, 1-0 in 10 innings. FAU was the only team in the state to face every Division I Florida team in 1995. FAU defeated Florida 11-3 in Gainesville and had several victories against top 30 opponents. Gene Manning was picked Preseason All-A-Sun as a DH. Nick Presto, who led the squad with a .349 batting average, was named as the First-Team All-A-Sun shortstop. Roger Walker was named to the District III Academic All-America Team. Ken Wagner, who led the team with a 2.98 ERA, tallied 10 complete games to tie the school record and pitched 129.2 innings.

1996

FAU finished its third season of Division I competition with its best Division I record to that point, most competitive schedule, highest conference finish and its highest MLB draft selection. Shortstop Nick Presto completed his four-year career with many school records and was drafted in the fifth round by the Cincinnati Reds. The team defeated the University of South Florida and projected number one draft pick, 11-4. FAU also hosted Kentucky, earning a 12-inning victory and grabbed a 13-inning win over Michigan State. In Atlantic Sun play, FAU finished as the tournament runner-up and placed five members on the All-Tournament Team: Nick Presto, MVP; Rich Ozarowski, Kevin Connacher, Garry Kamphouse and Tony VonDolteren. Connacher was named First-Team All-Conference at second base while Presto and Joe Cali were named Second-Team All-A-Sun. Presto led the squad with a .374 average while Cali, who finished the season third nationally with 14 saves, led the team with a 3.19 ERA in 62 innings of work. Coach Cooney also earned his 400th career coaching victory.

1997

The team finished third in the Atlantic Sun Conference regular season. Five players were drafted and six signed professional contracts. Outfielder Billy Brown was drafted third by the Toronto Blue Jays, marking the highest June draft selection in the program's history. Four-year letterman Kevin Connacher (Chicago White Sox) and Brennan Hervey (Detroit Tigers) were also drafted. Junior college transfers Rich Ozarowski (Detroit) and Charlie Jones (Arizona Diamondbacks) were also selected.

1998

FAU finished fifth in the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament and third in the regular season A-Sun South Division. Injuries plagued the pitching staff, with three starters lost before March. Todd Moser opened the season strong with a 36-pitch (five inning) victory over Bethune-Cookman. FAU played in the Florida Marlins' Tournament, which featured Washington, Oregon State and Santa Clara. The big victory of the season came at Clemson, ranked ninth at the time, after FAU almost defeated Auburn. Due to team injuries, Dickie Hart stepped up to play three positions (second, short and third). He also led the team offensively and was voted Team MVP. The team finished 29-30.

1999

The 1999 squad rewrote the university's record books and broke into the national spotlight by tying Texas' 1977 record for most consecutive victories (34). Coach Cooney also earned his 500th career victory in a season that saw the team post a 54-9 record and make their first trip to a Division I NCAA Regional Tournament. Team records set that season: most victories (54), fewest losses (9), highest winning percentage (.857), most three-game sweeps (10, A-Sun 7), most consecutive shutout innings (22 at Regional Tournament). A-Sun records set: longest winning streak, most overall victories, fewest losses. FAU individual records set: Dan Jackson (game-high 15 strikeouts), Ryan Withey and Zack Roper (single season hit by pitcher, 18), Todd Moser (15 victories, 130 strikeouts, and 33 career starts), and Mick Celli (135 career walks). Moser was named 1999 FAU Male Athlete of the Year, Baseball Weekly All-American, College Baseball Insider All-American, TPX All-American, NCBWA All-American, 1999 Super Team NCBWA Honorable Mention All-American, and ABCA All-Atlantic Region; Anthony Doubt was ABCA All-Atlantic Region First Team as a DH; Paul Stryhas was ABCA All-Atlantic Region Second Team; and Chris Winsett ABCA All-Atlantic Regional Second Team. Moser was also named A-Sun Player of the Year and Kevin Cooney A-Sun Coach of the Year. Eight players earned All-A-Sun Honors, Stryhas was named to the A-Sun Championship Team and Roper, Clint Conway and Doubt were named to the Regional Tournament team.

On the heels of a historic 1999 season, 2000 proved FAU was legitimate with the team earning a top 30 ranking. The team went through several turning points. The first was a 3-2 victory over Ball State, courtesy of a great defensive play to hold onto the game in its final innings. The second was the first home conference series, during which FAU captured two one-run games from Jacksonville to win the series and open the A-Sun season 4-2. Next was a 2-1 last inning trick play victory over UCF before 2,825 fans in the first regionally televised game played at FAU. The squad continued the season by winning its last three conference series and holding a number-two seed heading into the A-Sun Tournament, a tournament filled with upsets. The season ended with the team's second consecutive trip to the NCAA Regional Tournament, again hosted by the University of Miami. The tournament began with a 14-6 victory over Florida International, keeping hopes alive of moving through the tournament, despite an injury-depleted pitching staff. FAU fell in the final two games to end the season with a 43-19 record.

With only three starting position players returning and one starting pitcher, FAU either had to prove it could continue its legacy or call it a rebuilding year. But several big wins during the year made FAU a team to look out for. The biggest win came in the second game of the season against eventual National Champion Miami. FAU can boast that it was the only team during the 2001 season to beat Miami on the road. Several other wins against top 25 opponents marked the rising of a young team. Back-to-back wins against No. 20 Eastern Carolina and No. 23 Rutgers readied the team for conference play against ranked opponents Stetson and UCF. In the A-Sun Championship, FAU edged by Stetson with a 2-1 win in the first round. The season also saw Kevin Cooney earn his 600th career victory and remain listed among the winningest active coaches by percentage.

2002

A win over the national No. 3 seed to capture an NCAA Regional was a great way to garner nationwide attention, but Florida Atlantic's season had several other highlights along the way to a No. 15 ranking. The team traveled the country and gained playing experience when it made its first trip to the West Coast to take on UCLA for the first time in history. A chilly March trip to play Minnesota, Tennessee and Alabama in the Metrodome in Minneapolis gave FAU an early look at an eventual NCAA Regional opponent. Returning to Florida, the team began a 27-game winning streak before falling to Miami on April 24, going 48 days without a loss. FAU's offensive output for the season was second only to the 1999 season. The team displayed its offensive power on February 23 when it broke a school record and scored 31 runs in a shutout over Hartford. An at-large bid to the NCAA tournament for the third time in four seasons saw the team go 3-0 to advance to the Regional Championship. What followed was a thrilling 6-5 victory in the ninth inning against Alabama to give FAU its first NCAA Regional Championship and a berth in the Super Regional to play Georgia Tech.

2003

FAU hit the field with high expectations for the season. After gaining recognition in the preseason polls for the first time, the squad went on to post the second most victories in FAU history, 47, second only to the 54 victories recorded in 1999. FAU captured its first Atlantic Sun Title since 1999 with a 25-8 conference record and spent 14 weeks ranked in the nation's top 25. The pitching staff held opponents to a 3.42 ERA and finished the year with the 12th lowest ERA in the nation. The offense did its part and finished 44th in the country with a .313 batting average and finished behind only 28 other teams with a scoring average of 7.6 runs per game.

FAU RECORD BOOK - YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

Left-handed pitcher Randy Beam finished with 13 victories and was named Second Team All-America by CollegeBaseball-Insider.com and Sports Weekly and Third Team by Louisville Slugger and Baseball America. Head coach Kevin Cooney picked up his 700th career victory as FAU defeated Georgia Southern 12-2 on May 9. FAU's regional selection placed the team in the Coral Gables Regional for the third time in four appearances. The squad defeated Florida before suffering a devastating 1-0 loss to Miami. That same evening FAU lost a 22-14 contest to Florida to end the season with a 47-16 record.

The team got off to the best start in school history with 11 straight wins and opened up the DoubleTree Diamond Classic in Boca Raton by hosting four top 30 teams. As the No. 12 ranked team in the nation, the team finished the weekend 2-1, the only loss to No. 10 Notre Dame by one run. The team finished the conference season on a high note as FAU captured its first Atlantic Sun Tournament Championship. The Owls swept through the tournament with a 4-0 record and moved on to its fifth NCAA Regional in six seasons. A familiar trip down I-95 to Coral Gables resulted in a trip to the championship game but the team would end the season with a 47-17 record. A unique experience occurred in March as the players got to experience the big leagues for an afternoon when the squad played the St. Louis Cardinals at the team's spring training facility in Jupiter.

2005

The Owls earned its fourth consecutive trip to an NCAA Regional after finishing second in Atlantic Sun play by closing out conference action on an 8-1 run. The squad then advanced to the championship game of the A-Sun Tournament. The turning point of the season came against no. 6 Georgia Tech. FAU fell to the Yellow Jackets in game one of the three-game series in the 10th inning and won the third game of the series by shutting out the team for the first time in seven years on their home field. Freshman pitcher Mickey Storey picked up Third-Team All-America recognition and was named Collegiate Baseball's Freshman Pitcher of the Year after he tallied a 1.70 ERA and 10-1 record.

2006

FAU had high expectations for the season, ranked in the top 20 in the national pre-season polls and were chosen to win the Atlantic Sun Conference in its final season in the league. With two top 25 teams on the schedule in the first month, the Owls had to be on the top of their game from the start. But the injury bug quickly claimed three starters in the first month of the season. Going into the conference tournament, the Owls were without five original starters. FAU made the tournament by sweeping East Tennessee State in the final weekend of the regular season and earned the no. 4 seed. Mickey Storey threw FAU's first no-hitter in 12 years when he defeated Campbell 2-0 on Mar. 31. He was named Louisville Slugger's Player of the Week and to the College Baseball Foundation Honor Roll.

2007

The Owls entered its first season in the Sun Belt after 13 seasons in the Atlantic Sun. Prior to conference play the squad registered wins over Boston College, No. 17 Oklahoma State and a three-game sweep of Cincinnati. The Owls clinched a spot in the conference tournament with a four-hit shutout of Florida International on the final weekend of the regular season. Robbie Widlansky was named Sun Belt Player of the Year and First-Team All-American by Louisville Slugger and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

2008

The team enjoyed its 10th straight winning season, finishing 32-27-1 and making a legitimate run at the Sun Belt Conference Tournament title, advancing to the tournament semifinals in Lafayette, Louisiana. It was the last year for long-time head coach Kevin Cooney, who announced his intentions to retire after the season on April 24, 2008. FAU started the season 16-6 and beat No. 1 Miami in Coral Gables on April 9, 2008. Senior rightfielder Mike McKenna finished a remarkable four-year FAU career by establishing new school records in RBI (185) and total bases (444). McKenna was named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and drew national attention as a Collegiate Baseball 'Louisville Slugger' Third Team All-America selection and one of 50 semifinalists for USA Baseball's Golden Spikes Award. Seven student-athletes went on to play professional baseball for Major League affiliates in the summer of 2008, including pitcher Mickey Storey, who finished his career second on FAU's all-time list for both wins (23) and strikeouts (292).

2009

FAU's baseball team won 30 games in 2009, posted its 11th straight winning season and knocked its rival out of the postseason tournament. In Head Coach John McCormack's first season, the Owls finished with a mark of 30-26, racing out to a 13-3 record which included a victory over nationally-ranked Florida in Gainesville - one of five FAU wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Catcher Mike Albaladejo, who would go on to earn All-Tournament honors, went 7-for-12 in FAU's three postseason tournament games in Troy, helping the Owls rout FIU 16-6 and advance into the tournament quarterfinals before losing to eventual league champions Middle Tennessee.

2010

The Owls got back to national prominence in John McCormack's second season as head coach in 2010. They went 37-24, winning their first Sun Belt Conference regular-season championship and earning McCormack the league's Coach of the Year Award. The team culminated that season by advancing to the championship game of the NCAA Gainesville Regional. Andy Mee hit .378 to lead the squad, with Dan Scheffler just behind him at .371, adding 15 home runs and 65 RBI. The two were named First Team All-South Central Region, and Mee was Second Team NCBWA All-American. Mike Gipson (8-2) and Ryan Garton (7-3) headed up the pitching staff, and Gipson and reliever Ryan Bernal were MLB draftees.

2011

The 2011 squad wrapped with a 32-25 record. The trio of Alex Hudak, Raymond Church and Nick Delguidice were among the league leaders in hitting, with Hudak pacing the squad with a .360 average. Church was at .351 and Delguidice .341. Paul Davis had a superb season on the mound, pitching to a 10-1 record and a 2.87 ERA, and was the team's highest of four draft picks, in the 17th round. Those four, along with reliever Hugh Adams, who led the Sun Belt in saves, earned All-Conference honors.

2012

The Owls captured their second Sun Belt Conference title in a three-year span in 2012, winning 19 league games and ending the season with an overall mark of 32-22. The season began with a three-game road sweep of Alabama in Tuscaloosa, and the team led wire-to-wire for the conference regular season championship. Four team members were All-SBC: Ryan Garton, R.J. Alvarez, Mike Albaladejo and Mike Spano, and Alvarez would go on to earn All-South Central Region honors as well before being taken in the 3rd round of the MLB Draft. Teammates Kyle Newton and Garton joined him as selections.

2013

The Owls ended the 2013 season with a 42-22 record, capturing its third Sun Belt Conference Tournament title, and were ranked No. 20 by Baseball America and Perfect Game, No. 22 by ESPN and No. 24 by Collegiate Baseball. The NCAA Regional finale marked the second time under John McCormack's direction that FAU has advanced to an NCAA Regional final and his first 40+-win season as a head coach. The Owls won 14 of their last 16 games, captured the Sun Belt Conference Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Chapel Hill Regional. They first downed the nation's No. 1 seed and tournament host North Carolina to stay alive, and then forced a 13-inning battle in the regional championship game that saw the Owls return home but not before becoming the No. 1 topic trending on Twitter by night's end. Individually, Hugh Adams earned All-American honors, Brendon Sanger received regional recognition and Michael Sylvestri earn a selection in the 2013 major league draft, marking the 15th season in a row that an FAU player has been selected. Following the draft, three additional players signed with independent teams.

2014

FAU joined Conference USA and ended the season just under .500 in league play, but 28-25 overall. Brendon Sanger hit .332 and was an All-C-USA selection, while freshman Stephen Kerr had a sterling debut year, joining him as All-Conference and being named as a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. Austin Gomber had the team's lowest ERA by a starter, 3.26, and he and Mitch Morales were chosen in the MLB Draft.

2015

The 2015 squad made yet another NCAA Regional appearance and earned national recognition as the Owls ranked as high as No. 12 in the polls. FAU's 42-19 mark is the best in over a decade, as the Owls finished second in Conference USA and earned the No. 2 seed in the Gainesville regional. FAU saw six players drafted and a seventh sign a professional contract. Brendon Sanger and Ricky Santiago paved the way for in the lineup with Sanger leading the Owls in average for the third consecutive season and Santiago launching home runs effortlessly. On the hill, a rotation formed of Kyle Miller, Drew Jackson and Brandon Rhodes led the Owls to the fourth-best season ERA in school history at 3.52. As the regular season came to a close, the Owls found themselves in title contention at Western Kentucky, thanks in part to a 19-game hitting streak by sophomore CJ Chatham, who led C-USA in batting for much of league play. A pair of wins over the Hilltoppers bumped FAU up two spots in the standings to earn the No. 2 seed in the team's first ever Conference USA Tournament. Santiago and Sanger earned All-American honors while the All-Conference USA teams featured six Owls, including Sanger as the Player of the Year.

2016

In 2016, the Owls provided John McCormack with more bullet points on his lengthy resume, with a 39-19 overall mark, the team's first Conference USA regular season championship, and an NCAA Regional appearance. The squad had eight wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including three ranked No. 1 throughout the year. The Owls had five players drafted and six in total join Major League farm systems, including shortstop C.J. Chatham, the highest pick in program history. He was chosen in the second round, No. 51 overall, by the Boston Red Sox. That came on the heels of possibly the most decorated seasons ever by an Owl, as he was named Conference USA Player of the Year, C-USA Defensive Player of the Year and as a First Team Louisville Slugger All-American. He was also a Golden Spikes Award semifinalist and Brooks Wallace semifinalist. In addition to Chatham, the pitching trio of Brandon Rhodes, Marc Stewart and Cameron Ragsdale earned All-C-USA honors, and pitcher Nick Swan and catcher Tyler Frank were chosen to the conference's All-Freshman squad. Ragsdale and Chatham also earned All-Region honors. Brett Lashley was chosen as the C-USA Scholar Athlete baseball representative as well.

The Owls brought a mix of youth and experience into the 2017 campaign and paired them together to the tune of 35 wins, advancement to the final four at the Conference USA Championships, and numerous conference- and region-wide accolades. The year began on a high note, as a 2-1 series win over Rice marked the first in program history, and the Sunday clincher vs. the visiting Owls provided Head Coach John McCormack with his 300th career victory. Four Owls received Conference USA honors. Shortstop Tyler Frank, who made the move from behind the plate to play every single inning of every game at short in 2017, was chosen First Team All-Conference. Designated hitter Jared Shouppe and closer Cameron Ragsdale were voted All-C-USA Second Team, and first-year outfielder Eric Rivera was named to the All-Freshman team. In addition to Rivera, another fantastic newcomer to the squad was fellow outfielder David Miranda, the team's top power hitter. He garnered an ABCA/Rawlings All-South Region Second Team nod, with Frank chosen to the First Team. Frank too was invited to take part in the USA Baseball Tryout Camp for the Collegiate National Team, and made the 15-5 squad. They were 10-4 against international competition, including winning the 41st USA vs. Japan Collegiate All-Star Series to wrap play.

The Owls notched their most victories since 2004, advanced to the NCAA Gainesville Regional championship, and made a boatload of history in the process. The 43-19-1 squad finished third overall in the C-USA standings, and would go 3-0 in elimination games to eventually finish as the league's runner-up during C-USA's postseason championship. Gainesville was a similar track, winning three straight, including a victory on the final day of the regional over No. 1 Florida to force a deciding game against the homestanding Gators. All told, the Owls won 12 series in 2018, eight by sweeps, including for the first time ever over perennial powerhouse Miami. They went 7-2-1 in conference series, 23-6 at home, and won 70 percent of their neutral site games, all in postseason play. Tyler Frank was named C-USA Defensive Player of the Year, and alongside Jake Miednik, David Miranda and Zach Schneider, was first team All-Conference, while Drew Peden was Second Team. Frank was chosen by three outlets as All American, and Schneider was NCBWA Second Team, while that duo was both named All-Region as well. Six Owls would go on to be drafted, including Frank in the second round by the Tampa Bay Rays.

The 2019 campaign saw the Owls achieve back-to-back 40-win seasons for the first time in 15 years and the team's fifth NCAA regional bid in the last seven years (and fourth in five). Picked to finish third in the C-USA preseason poll, the Owls defied those expectations by being the best team in the league for 10 weeks, going 22-8 to capture the 2019 regular season crown. The 22 wins is the most since joining C-USA and most in any league since 2003. Overall, FAU would go 41-21, with the 40th win coming in the C-USA semifinals, at the same time giving McCormack his 400th career victory. McCormack would be named C-USA Coach of the Year, while the Owls' bats led the league in most every offensive category, which bestowed hitting coach Greg Mamula Assistant Coach of the Year honors. Catcher Pedro Pages notched the program's third C-USA Defensive Player of the Year award in four years, was Second Team All-C-USA and First Team All-Central Region by the NCBWA. He would also be the team's top draft pick, among six total. Joining him with All-Region honors was Second Teamer and second baseman Francisco Urbaz. Andru Summerall was chosen as Second Team All-C-USA, and two first-years were lauded by league voters as well, earning C-USA All-Freshman accolades: outfielder Mitchell Hartigan and shortstop/pitcher Jacob Josey. Hartigan would also go on to earn national honors, as a Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball. The team's leading hitter, and another junior draft pick, was centerfielder and leadoff hitter for every single game, Eric Rivera. On the pitching side, consistency was key. Blake Sanderson and Mike Ruff made every single weekend start – with Sanderson earning First Team All-C-USA recognition – and both too were rewarded by hearing their name called in the MLB Draft. A third arm was taken in converted reliever Vince Colletti, the bridge to closer Zach Schneider. Schneider's 16 saves made for the most in C-USA, fifth-highest in the nation, and second-highest in FAU program single-season history. He also became the first repeat All-American in FAU history as the NCBWA voted him to their Third Team, and was First Team All-C-USA as well.

The 2020 campaign was unique to say the least, canceled after just 16 games due to the global coronavirus outbreak. The Owls started out the season 7-0 before embarking on one of the toughest stretches in program history, five games in six days, all against opponents ranked in the top 10 nationally. FAU ended that stretch with a convincing win over No. 6 Miami. The shortened season ended exactly a week later, with the final game coming on March 10, a shutout win over Ivy League favorite Penn.

2021

The 2021 season started off with the Owls winning seven of their first eight, including a road win over then-No. 6 Florida at the Gators' brand new ballpark. At that point, many publications had the team ranked. A couple of stumbles ended non-conference play, but the opening Conference USA weekend was a four-game sweep of Marshall at home. C-USA was tough sledding in the next couple of series, and the league would end up being one of the better conferences in the country, with four eventual NCAA regional invites. The Owls would rebound by either splitting or outright winning the final five sets, including against No. 19 Southern Miss (followed by a road midweek win at Miami) to cap the regular season, to finish third in the East Division and earn the league's No. 5 seed. In Ruston, at the C-USA Championship, three of the four games came against ranked foes, including a win over No. 16 Charlotte to eliminate the league's regular season champions. But a Saturday loss to eventual tourney winners Old Dominion ended the Owls' hopes of any further postseason play. Three Owls – Hunter Cooley, B.J. Murray and Nolan Schanuel – earned All-C-USA honors, all being voted to the Second Team, while Schanuel was C-USA All-Freshman as well. He would also go on to being twice named Freshman All-America (by Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game) as well as Second Team ABCA All-Region.

JOHN MCCORMACK

31 Seasons
(13 as Head Coach)

443-274-2 (.618)
Lynn, 1990

John McCormack completed his 13th year atop Florida Atlantic University baseball as head coach in 2021, and 31st season with the program. He had previously served 11 years as associate head coach and seven years as an assistant coach, beginning in 1991.

In 2021, the Owls finished with 32 victories and a third-place finish in the C-USA East Division. The season started off with the team winning seven of their first eight, including a road win over then-No. 6 Florida at the Gators' brand new ballpark. At that point, many publications had the team ranked. A couple of stumbles ended non-conference play, but the opening Conference USA weekend was a four-game sweep of Marshall at home.

C-USA would end up being one of the better conferences in the country, with four eventual NCAA regional invites. The Owls would split or win the final five league sets outright, including against No. 19 Southern Miss (followed by a road midweek win at Miami) to cap the regular season, finishing third in the division and earn the league's No. 5 seed. In Ruston at the C-USA Championship, three of the four games came against ranked foes, including a win over No. 16 Charlotte to eliminate the league's regular season champions.

Three Owls – Hunter Cooley, BJ Murray and Nolan Schanuel – earned All-C-USA honors, all being voted to the Second Team, while Schanuel was C-USA All-Freshman as well. He would also go on to being twice named Freshman All-America (by Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game) as well as Second Team ABCA All-Region. As a team, the Owls were the top defensive squad in the C-USA, with a .978 fielding percentage, and set a new season low in errors with 42 in 57 games (the previous lowest mark was 52 in 2016).

The 2020 campaign was unique to say the least, canceled after just 16 games due to the global coronavirus outbreak. The Owls started out the season 7-0 before embarking on one of the toughest stretches in program history, five games in six days, all against opponents ranked in the top 10 nationally. FAU ended that stretch with a convincing win over No. 6 Miami. The shortened season ended exactly a week later, with the final game a shutout win over Ivy League favorite Penn.

In 2019, McCormack led the Owls to a 22-8 mark – the most wins since joining C-USA, and in any league since 2003 – to earn the outright Conference USA regular season title and No. 1 seed in the C-USA Championship. For his efforts, he was voted as the Keith LeClair Coach of the Year, his first honor since the Owls joined C-USA, and he would also be selected as ABCA/Diamond Regional Coach of the Year for the Central Region, one of just eight coaches nationwide presented with the honor.

Overall, the Owls would finish 41-21, earn McCormack his 400th career win – in the C-USA semifinal round – and eventually put the team in position to be selected for another NCAA postseason berth. The team was chosen as the No. 2 seed in the Athens Regional, playing into June for the second straight year, also marking their fourth NCAA appearance in five years (and fifth in seven).

Six members of the team earned All-Conference honors, including First Teamers Blake Sanderson and Zach Schneider, and Pedro Pages was chosen C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. Pages and Francisco Urbabaez would go on to be named ABCA/Rawlings All-Region, Schneider was recognized as NCBWA All-American (his second straight season earning national honors), and Mitchell Hartigan was selected as part of the Collegiate Baseball Freshmen All-American Team.

Five Owls would also go on to hear their name called in the 2019 MLB Draft, beginning with Pages' sixth round selection. Also chosen were Mike Ruff (11th round), Eric Rivera (14th), Vince Coletti (17th) and Blake Sanderson (31st), while Zach Schneider signed a free agent deal. Departures from the championship squad include the three junior draftees (Pages, Rivera and Ruff) along with 10 players honored on Senior Day.

Throughout the season, McCormack served as the NCAA Division I Chair for the American Baseball Coaches Association and this summer, was a manager for USA Baseball's 13U Athlete Development Program in Cary, North Carolina.

In addition, McCormack was inducted in late March to the Palm Beach County Hall of Fame, and will be a member of the FAU Athletics Hall of Fame's Class of 2019 as well.

The year prior, 2018, proved to be one of the best years in McCormack's tenure, as the Owls notched their most victories since 2004 (thus, the most since McCormack took over as head coach), finishing 43-19-1. They were 19-8-1 and slotted in third place in the Conference USA regular season standings, and later earn a bid into an NCAA Regional for the 13th time history, for the fourth time in the last six years, and fifth time under McCormack.

At both postseason venues, the team went a combined 6-0 in elimination contests to make it to the decisive game at the respective sites. The Owls finished as C-USA Championship runners-up, and were second as well at the NCAA Regional in Gainesville, topping No. 1 Florida to force a winner-take-all matchup.

Tyler Frank finished his three-year FAU career with his third straight season earning C-USA accolades. He would not only be voted C-USA First Team, but also became the second Conference Defensive Player of the Year in program history. He earned ABCA First Team All-Region honors for the second consecutive year, and was named Third Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball. The junior became the second-highest draft selection in FAU history, going in the second round at No. 56 overall to the Tampa Bay Rays.

He was not alone, as six Owls in total were selected in the 2018 MLB Draft, the five others being: Cody Wilson (13th round), Kyle Marman (13th), Jake Miednik (20th), David Miranda (25th) and Matt Harris (33rd). That now makes 30 during McCormack's head coaching stint, and 94 all-time.

Miranda and Miednik, along with junior Owls' closer Zach Schneider, all picked up First Team All-C-USA nods as well, while Drew Peden was voted Second Team. Schneider would go on to join Frank as First Team All-Region, and become the 19th All-American in FAU history, as a Second Team choice by the NCBWA.

In 2017, McCormack picked up a milestone victory, when after an 8-2 win vs. Rice to clinch the series on April 2, he moved his career mark to 300-190-1. The Owls finished third in Conference USA during the regular season (18-12), and wrapped the year at 35-21-1 after advancing to the C-USA semifinal round. Four Owls earned conference recognition: Tyler Frank as a First Team member, Cameron Ragsdale and Jared Shouppe to the Second Team, and Eric Rivera as All-Freshman. Frank too became just the second player in FAU history to earn a tryout for the Team USA Collegiate National Team and would go on to be the first Owl to don a Team USA uniform, while he (First Team) and David Miranda (Second Team) earned ABCA/Rawlings All-South Central Region Honors. Third baseman Austin Langham was a Gold Glove Finalist by that same organization.

Junior righthander Alex House became the 24th Owl drafted since McCormack took over as head coach, and 88th in FAU history, when he was selected in the 24th round by the Houston Astros. Seven members of the Class of 2017 departed the program with multiple accolades.

In 2016, McCormack added more bullet points to his lengthy resume, with a 39-19 overall mark, the team's first C-USA regular season championship, and an NCAA Regional appearance. The squad had eight wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including three ranked No. 1 throughout the year.

The Owls had five players drafted and six in total join Major League farm systems, including shortstop C.J. Chatham, the highest pick in program history. He was chosen in the second round, No. 51 overall, by the Boston Red Sox. That came on the heels of possibly the most decorated seasons ever by an Owl, as he was named Conference USA Player of the Year, C-USA Defensive Player of the Year and as a First Team Louisville Slugger All-American. He was also a Golden Spikes Award semifinalist and Brooks Wallace semifinalist.

In addition to Chatham, the pitching trio of Brandon Rhodes, Marc Stewart and Cameron Ragsdale earned All-C-USA honors, and pitcher Nick Swan and catcher Tyler Frank were chosen to the conference's All-Freshman squad. Additionally, Ragsdale and Chatham earned All-Region honors, and Brett Lashley was chosen as the C-USA Scholar Athlete baseball representative as well.

McCormack led the 2015 squad to yet another NCAA Regional appearance and national recognition as the Owls ranked as high as No. 12 in the polls. FAU's 42-19 mark was to that point the best record under McCormack's direction as the Owls finished second in Conference USA and earned the No. 2 seed in the Gainesville regional. FAU saw six players drafted and a seventh sign a professional contract.

In FAU's first season in Conference USA in 2014, McCormack recorded his 200th win at the helm on May 16, defeating No. 30 UAB 3-1 in Boca Raton. Two players from that squad were drafted and two more signed professional contracts. The Owls also produced two All-Conference USA players in Brendon Sanger and Stephen Kerr, and Kerr earned Freshman All-American for his efforts.

The team ended its 2013 season with a 42-22 record, capturing its third Sun Belt Conference Tournament title, and were ranked No. 20 by Baseball America and Perfect Game, No. 22 by ESPN and No. 24 by Collegiate Baseball. The NCAA Regional finale marked the second time under McCormack's direction that FAU has advanced to an NCAA Regional final and his first 40+ win season as a head coach.

The Owls captured their second Sun Belt Conference title in a three-year span in 2012, winning 19 league games. The team led wire-to-wire for the conference championship in 2012. Two years prior, in McCormack's second year as head coach, he guided FAU to its first Sun Belt Conference regular-season championship. This achievement earned McCormack the league's Coach of the Year Award. The team culminated that season by advancing to the championship game of the NCAA Gainesville Regional.

In between, he led the team to a season-series victory over nationally-ranked Miami in 2011 -- the first time since the 1984 campaign that FAU had won the season series against the Hurricanes, and in 2018, swept the Hurricanes for the first time in program history.

During those early seasons as head coach, McCormack's teams featured a slew of strong bullpens, including first-team All-Sun Belt Conference selections Austin Gomber (2013), Andy Mee (2010), Hugh Adams (2013, 2011) and R.J. Alvarez (2012). Starting pitchers Mike Gipson (2010), Paul Davis (2011) and Ryan Garton (2012) all were drafted after earning postseason All-Conference honors.

To this point, a total of 131 FAU players that McCormack has recruited or coached at FAU have continued their professional baseball careers, including Austin Gomber, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2014 MLB Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals. Additionally, 32 of the 35 draftees were not drafted out of high school, continuing McCormack's outstanding track record of developing players after they come to Boca Raton.

A big part of FAU's success has been that passion for the Boca Raton area and the university, allowing the program to attract some of the best players in Florida. Having lived in Boca Raton for more than 30 years, McCormack realizes what a great area South Florida is and what it can provide student-athletes. In many cases, the talent was evident only to McCormack. FAU's baseball program has been built around the premise that McCormack would find athletes with the desire to win. The coaching staff would develop talent and the players would become better.

McCormack began this trend by playing an essential role in developing FAU's nationally-recognized program when he acted as recruiting coordinator for 16 seasons. During that time, his efforts brought in nine players that earned All-American honors, six that were named Freshmen All-American and three conference Player of the Year selections. As of 2019, 11 of his former players have played in the major leagues, 17 players were drafted in the first 10 rounds of the Major League Baseball amateur draft and six players have been drafted in the third round or higher.

McCormack was promoted to associate head coach in 1998, working with long-time FAU coach Kevin Cooney. Together, Cooney and McCormack won 658 games, appeared in seven NCAA regional tournaments, captured a regional championship in 2002 and advanced to the super regional that season. He joined the staff in 1991 after approaching Cooney about assuming the duties of recruiter. He has focused his attention on the pool of talent in the South Florida area. His first FAU recruiting class (1993) finished the season 41-17 and made a trip to the South Regional, where they fell to the eventual national champion.

Other accomplishments under McCormack include tying a national record for consecutive games won (34), and winning the Tuscaloosa Regional by defeating the nation's No. 3-ranked team, Alabama, in 2002. McCormack was recognized with the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year Award in 2003.

Before joining FAU, McCormack played for nearby Lynn University, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1990. At Lynn, McCormack earned All-Conference honors his junior year as a catcher and his senior season as a third baseman. He was named the All-Area Team MVP during his junior season. Prior to Lynn, he attended Indian River Community College and Pope John Paul II High School in Boca Raton.

Born in New York, McCormack has lived in South Florida for more than 30 years. He and his wife, Katrina, reside in Boca Raton and have two sons, Conor and Shane.
