THE PROGRAM

MY CAPTAIN OH CAPTAIN

Hunter Cooley | Jr | RHP

Nicholas Toney | Jr | C

Hunter Cooley and Nick Toney serve as the team's 2022 captains.

Head Coach John McCormack

"I think this year's selections are a very good choice. You talk about role models, they are guys that do everything correctly, that teammates respect and I thought they were a fantastic choice. They have the pulse of the team. I listen to what they choose to tell me. They know the information I need and can help me get information to the team or to individuals as well. Both Hunter and Nick are high level human beings and good baseball players."

Captains Comments

Hunter Cooley

"It's an honor to be named captain and great to know that my teammates see me as a leader. I'm looking forward to a great 2022 season."

Nicholas Toney

"For me to be selected as a captain again means the world. I love this team and program with all my heart and I'm glad that my teammates have confidence in me to be a leader. We have a lot of talent on this team and I'm excited to see the great things we can accomplish this season."

John McCormack completed his 13th year atop Florida Atlantic University baseball as head coach in 2021, and 31st season with the program. He had previously served 11 years as associate head coach and seven years as an assistant coach, beginning in 1991.

In 2021, the Owls finished with 32 victories and a third-place finish in the C-USA East Division. The season started off with the team winning seven of their first eight, including a road win over then-No. 6 Florida at the Gators' brand new ballpark. At that point, many publications had the team ranked. A couple of stumbles ended non-conference play, but the opening Conference USA weekend was a four-game sweep of Marshall at home.

C-USA would end up being one of the better conferences in the country, with four eventual NCAA regional invites. The Owls would split or win the final five league sets outright, including against No. 19 Southern Miss (followed by a road mid-week win at Miami) to cap the regular season, finishing third in the division to earn the league's No. 5 seed. In Ruston at the C-USA Championship, three of the four games came against ranked foes, including a win over No. 16 Charlotte to eliminate the league's regular season champions.

Three Owls – Hunter Cooley, BJ Murray and Nolan Schanuel – earned All-C-USA honors, all being voted to the Second Team, while Schanuel was C-USA All-Freshman as well. He would also go on to being twice named Freshman All-America (by Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game) as well as Second Team ABCA All-Region. As a team, the Owls were the top defensive squad in the C-USA, with a .978 fielding percentage, and set a new season low in errors with 42 in 57 games (the previous lowest mark was 52 in 2016).

The 2020 campaign was unique to say the least, canceled after just 16 games due to the global coronavirus outbreak. The Owls started out the season 7-0 before embarking on one of the toughest stretches in program history, five games in six days, all against opponents ranked in the top 10 nationally. FAU ended that stretch with a convincing win over No. 6 Miami. The shortened season ended exactly a week later, with the final game a shutout win over Ivy League favorite Penn.

In 2019, McCormack led the Owls to a 22-8 mark – the most wins since joining C-USA, and in any league since 2003 – to earn the outright Conference USA regular season title and No. 1 seed in the C-USA Championship. For his efforts, he was voted as the Keith LeClair Coach of the Year, his first honor since the Owls joined C-USA, and he would also be selected as ABCA/Diamond Regional Coach of the Year for the Central Region, one of just eight coaches nationwide presented with the honor.

Overall, the Owls would finish 41-21, earn McCormack his 400th career win – in the C-USA semifinal round – and eventually put the team in position to be selected for another NCAA postseason berth. The team was chosen as the No. 2 seed in the Athens Regional, playing into June for the second straight year, also marking their fourth NCAA appearance in five years (and fifth in seven).

Six members of the team earned All-Conference honors, including First Teamers Blake Sanderson and Zach Schneider, and Pedro Pages was chosen C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. Pages and Francisco Urbaz would go on to be named ABCA/Rawlings All-Region, Schneider was recognized as NCBWA All-American (his second straight season earning national honors), and Mitchell Hartigan was selected as part of the Collegiate Baseball Freshmen All-American Team.

Five Owls would also go on to hear their name called in the 2019 MLB Draft, beginning with Pages' sixth round selection. Also chosen were Mike Ruff (11th round), Eric Rivera (14th), Vince Coletti (17th) and Blake Sanderson (31st), while Zach Schneider signed a free agent deal. Departures from the championship squad include the three junior draftees (Pages, Rivera and Ruff) along with 10 players honored on Senior Day.

Throughout the season, McCormack served as the NCAA Division I Chair for the American Baseball Coaches Association and this summer, was a manager for USA Baseball's 13U Athlete Development Program in Cary, North Carolina.

In addition, McCormack was inducted in late March to the Palm Beach County Hall of Fame, and will be a member of the FAU Athletics Hall of Fame's Class of 2019 as well.

The year prior, 2018, proved to be one of the best years in McCormack's tenure, as the Owls notched their most victories since 2004 (thus, the most since McCormack took over as head coach), finishing 43-19-1. They were 19-8-1 and slotted in third place in the Conference USA regular season standings, and later earn a bid into an NCAA Regional for the 13th time history, for the fourth time in the last six years, and fifth time under McCormack. At both postseason venues, the team went a combined 6-0 in elimination contests to make it to the decisive game at the respective sites. The Owls finished as C-USA Championship runners-up, and were second as well at the NCAA Regional in Gainesville, topping No. 1 Florida to force a winner-take-all matchup.

Tyler Frank finished his three-year FAU career with his third straight season earning C-USA accolades. He would not only be voted C-USA First Team, but also became the second Conference Defensive Player of the Year in program history. He earned ABCA First Team All-Region honors for the second consecutive year, and was named Third Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball. The junior became the second-highest draft selection in FAU history, going in the second round at No. 56 overall to the Tampa Bay Rays.

He was not alone, as six Owls in total were selected in the 2018 MLB Draft, the five others being: Cody Wilson (13th round), Kyle Marman (13th), Jake Miednik (20th), David Miranda (25th) and Matt Harris (33rd). That now makes 30 during McCormack's head coaching stint, and 94 all-time.

Miranda and Miednik, along with junior Owls' closer Zach Schneider, all picked up First Team All-C-USA nods as well, while Drew Peden was voted Second Team. Schneider would go on to join Frank as First Team All-Region, and become the 19th All-American in FAU history, as a Second Team choice by the NCBWA.

In 2017, McCormack picked up a milestone victory, when after an 8-2 win vs. Rice to clinch the series on April 2, he moved his career mark to 300-190-1. The Owls finished third in Conference USA during the regular season (18-12), and wrapped the year at 35-21-1 after advancing to the C-USA semifinal round. Four Owls earned conference recognition: Tyler Frank as a First Team member, Cameron Ragsdale and Jared Shouppe to the Second Team, and Eric Rivera as All-Freshman. Frank too became just the second player in FAU history to earn a tryout for the Team USA Collegiate National Team and would go on to be the first Owl to don a Team USA uniform, while he (First Team) and David Miranda (Second Team) earned ABCA/Rawlings All-South Central Region Honors. Third baseman Austin Langham was a Gold Glove Finalist by that same organization.

Junior righthander Alex House became the 24th Owl drafted since McCormack took over as head coach, and 88th in FAU history, when he was selected in the 24th round by the Houston Astros. Seven members of the Class of 2017 departed the program with multiple accolades.

In 2016, McCormack added more bullet points to his lengthy resume, with a 39-19 overall mark, the team's first C-USA regular season championship, and an NCAA Regional appearance. The squad had eight wins over nationally-ranked opponents, including three ranked No. 1 throughout the year.

The Owls had five players drafted and six in total join Major League farm systems, including shortstop C.J. Chatham, the highest pick in program history. He was chosen in the second round, No. 51 overall, by the Boston Red Sox. That came on the heels of possibly the most decorated seasons ever by an Owl, as he was named Conference USA Player of the Year, C-USA Defensive Player of the Year and as a First Team Louisville Slugger All-American. He was also a Golden Spikes Award semifinalist and Brooks Wallace semifinalist.

In addition to Chatham, the pitching trio of Brandon Rhodes, Marc Stewart and Cameron Ragsdale earned All-C-USA honors, and pitcher Nick Swan and catcher Tyler Frank were chosen to the conference's All-Freshman squad. Additionally, Ragsdale and Chatham earned All-Region honors, and Brett Lashley was chosen as the C-USA Scholar Athlete baseball representative as well.

McCormack led the 2015 squad to yet another NCAA Regional appearance and national recognition as the Owls ranked as high as No. 12 in the polls. FAU's 42-19 mark was to that point the best record under McCormack's direction as the Owls finished second in Conference USA and earned the No. 2 seed in the Gainesville regional. FAU saw six players drafted and a seventh sign a professional contract.

In FAU's first season in Conference USA in 2014, McCormack recorded his 200th win at the helm on May 16, defeating No. 30 UAB 3-1 in Boca Raton. Two players from that squad were drafted and two more signed professional contracts. The Owls also produced two All-Conference USA players in Brendon Sanger and Stephen Kerr, and Kerr earned Freshman All-American for his efforts.

The team ended its 2013 season with a 42-22 record, capturing its third Sun Belt Conference Tournament title, and were ranked No. 20 by Baseball America and Perfect Game, No. 22 by ESPN and No. 24 by Collegiate Baseball. The NCAA Regional finale marked the second time under McCormack's direction that FAU has advanced to an NCAA Regional final and his first 40+ win season as a head coach.

The Owls captured their second Sun Belt Conference title in a three-year span in 2012, winning 19 league games. The team led wire-to-wire for the conference championship in 2012. Two years prior, in McCormack's second year as head coach, he guided FAU to its first Sun Belt Conference regular-season championship. This achievement earned McCormack the league's Coach of the Year Award. The team culminated that season by advancing to the championship game of the NCAA Gainesville Regional.

In between, he led the team to a season-series victory over nationally-ranked Miami in 2011 -- the first time since the 1984 campaign that FAU had won the season series against the Hurricanes, and in 2018, swept the Hurricanes for the first time in program history.

During those early seasons as head coach, McCormack's teams featured a slew of strong bullpens, including first-team All-Sun Belt Conference selections Austin Gomber (2013), Andy Mee (2010), Hugh Adams (2013, 2011) and R.J. Alvarez (2012). Starting pitchers Mike Gipson (2010), Paul Davis (2011) and Ryan Garton (2012) all were drafted after earning postseason All-Conference honors.

To this point, a total of 131 FAU players that McCormack has recruited or coached at FAU have continued their professional baseball careers, including Austin Gomber, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2014 MLB Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals. Additionally, 32 of the 35 draftees were not drafted out of high school, continuing McCormack's outstanding track record of developing players after they come to Boca Raton.

A big part of FAU's success has been that passion for the Boca Raton area and the university, allowing the program to attract some of the best players in Florida. Having lived in Boca Raton for more than 30 years, McCormack realizes what a great area South Florida is and what it can provide student-athletes. In many cases, the talent was evident only to McCormack. FAU's baseball program has been built around the premise that McCormack would find athletes with the desire to win. The coaching staff would develop talent and the players would become better.

McCormack began this trend by playing an essential role in developing FAU's nationally-recognized program when he acted as recruiting coordinator for 16 seasons. During that time, his efforts brought in nine players that earned All-American honors, six that were named Freshmen

All-American and three conference Player of the Year selections. As of 2019, 11 of his former players have played in the major leagues, 17 players were drafted in the first 10 rounds of the Major League Baseball amateur draft and six players have been drafted in the third round or higher.

McCormack was promoted to associate head coach in 1998, working with long-time FAU coach Kevin Cooney. Together, Cooney and McCormack won 658 games, appeared in seven NCAA regional tournaments, captured a regional championship in 2002 and advanced to the super regional that season. He joined the staff in 1991 after approaching Cooney about assuming the duties of recruiter. He has focused his attention on the pool of talent in the South Florida area. His first FAU recruiting class (1993) finished the season 41-17 and made a trip to the South Regional, where they fell to the eventual national champion.

Other accomplishments under McCormack include tying a national record for consecutive games won (34), and winning the Tuscaloosa Regional by defeating the nation's No. 3-ranked team, Alabama, in 2002. McCormack was recognized with the AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year Award in 2003.

Before joining FAU, McCormack played for nearby Lynn University, where he received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1990. At Lynn, Mc-Cormack earned All-Conference honors his junior year as a catcher and his senior season as a third baseman. He was named the All-Area Team MVP during his junior season. Prior to Lynn, he attended Indian River Community College and Pope John Paul II High School in Boca Raton.

Born in New York, McCormack has lived in South Florida for more than 30 years. He and his wife, Katrina, reside in Boca Raton and have two sons, Conor and Shane.

Schanuel Named Preseason All-American

Nolan Schanuel, a sophomore on the Florida Atlantic University baseball team, has been named to the Perfect Game/Rawlings Preseason All-American team, as announced by the publication on Wednesday.

Schanuel, the Owls' 2021 freshman starting first baseman, batted third in the lineup much of the season, and led the everyday starters with a .343 batting average, hit .409 with runners in scoring position and had 24-multi-hit games. He is a third-team Perfect Game/Rawlings 2022 preseason honoree.

The Park Vista High School product ended his first collegiate campaign ranked at the top of the Conference USA leaderboard in nearly every hitting category. For his efforts, Schanuel was named Freshman All-America by Collegiate Baseball and by Perfect Game, and was one of just 13 players earning the Perfect Game First Team honors. He also was an ABCA/Rawlings Second Team All-Region and a Second Team All-C-USA selection.

"This is a great honor for Nolan and well deserved," said McCormack. "He is a terrific player, and I look forward to seeing him play this spring."

Schanuel began his collegiate career playing first base for the first time in his career, moving from a high school and travel ball outfielder to the position. He did so nearly flawlessly by committing just two errors in 454 chances and was a major factor in the Owls defense leading C-USA with a .978 fielding percentage. He also was a part of 38 double plays.

He undertook a similar challenge in the fall of 2022 by moving to the opposite corner, and when the season opens on Friday, Feb. 18 at home versus Minnesota, Schanuel is expected to be the Owls' starting third baseman. The move replaces B.J. Murray, who was drafted in 2021 by the Chicago Cubs and who led FAU with 14 home runs in 2021. Schanuel tallied the most total bases for the 2021 Owls with 68 hits, including 11 doubles, a triple and had 11 homers. His 11 homers is tops among the 2022 Owl returners.

Ostrander Garners 2021 Iron Owl

Braden Ostrander has been crowned the winner of the fall 2021 Florida Atlantic University Iron Owl.

Ostrander, a right-handed sophomore pitcher from Melbourne, Florida, won the hard-fought battle with a cumulative score of 312. When he hoists the coveted trophy on opening night, Friday, February 18, it will mark the first time a pitcher has earned the holistic honor since Austin Kirksey did so in the fall of 2016.

Ostrander captured the award in just his second year with the program, which is a feat in and of itself. Just one other sophomore has won the competition, and that was Lou Morrey in the competition's inaugural season (fall 2007). No freshman has earned the honor. The contest runs throughout the fall and challenges athletic ability, teamwork, mental toughness, and the final assessment - fall grade point average. Ostrander edged out fellow pitcher Hayden Compton, who accumulated 303 points, and outfielder Gabriel Rincones, Jr., who ended the competition with 302.5.

"I enjoyed being able to compete alongside my teammates throughout a challenge-filled week," said Ostrander. "Although it is great to be the individual champion, the real victory was being able to lead team Brown to a win."

While Ostrander captured the basketball and obstacle course competitions, he was the most consistent in the among 11 events scoring in the top-84% in seven events, including the gauntlet, basketball, garage run, 300-yard run, grip, obstacle course? and GPA. He clinched the Iron Owl by posting the second-highest GPA.

"I'm very happy for Braden," said John McCormack, who is in his 14th season as FAU's head coach and 32nd with the program. "He competed all the way through the competition, from the first thing to the last thing. His team won the team competition as well, so he was totally invested in it. It came right down to the end, and his GPA put him over the top. [It was] a good win and well deserved."

Team "Brown" captained by Ostrander and comprised of Brock Helverson, Jake Millan, Caleb Pendleton, Tibur Rivero, and Robert Wegielnik, walked away as the team champions, securing five of the 12 events. Team Brown tallied 56 points by winning: football, garage, 300-yard runs, test and the obstacle course events. They also finished second in the field goal competition. Team Brown's lowest finish was next to last in water polo. They were five points higher than the next-closest team led by Mitchell Hartigan and a full 30 points higher than the last place team.

Yes, he hails from SCOTLAND

Gabriel Rincones, Jr. son of former Seattle Mariners pitcher Gabriel Rincones Sr., was born in Boynton Beach, Florida, just 20 minutes north of FAU's Boca Raton campus; however his formative years were spent in Venezuela and Scotland. The junior outfielder/1B/DH lists Glenrothes, Scotland as his hometown.

He ditched the possibility of swinging a golf club at famed St. Andrews or a white willow at The Grange for the opportunity to play baseball.

That necessitated a move to the United States. Rincones, Jr. gained his prep experience at HB Plant High School in Tampa, Fla. He continued his career at the college level playing for St. Petersburg College where he was named FCSAA Region 8 Player of the Year (the top player among Florida junior colleges) and a First Team All-American after hitting .415 with six home runs and 43 RBI. He had a school-record 36-game hitting streak which came after a true freshman season that saw him bat .432 with four home runs and 28 RBI in just 24 games played.

Rincones, Jr. also played for Great Britain in the 2021 European Championship and was drafted after his sophomore season, in the 19th round, by the San Diego Padres.

Gabriel Rincones was a FCSAA Region 8 Player of the Year (the top player among Florida junior colleges) and a first team All-American after hitting .415 with six home runs and 43 RBI. Also played for Great Britain in the 2021 European Championship.

Pendleton Nation's 25th Best Collegiate Catcher

Caleb Pendleton was named by DI Baseball as the nation's 25th best catcher heading into the 2022 season.

The catcher made national headlines when in his debut, he hit two grand slams -in the same inning- in his first two collegiate at bats on Feb. 20 against UCF.

He bookended his freshman campaign with 4-for-5 effort against Middle Tennessee in the C-USA Tournament, hitting two home runs, knocking in three and scoring three.

Finished the year with eight home runs, 24 RBI, starting 28 of 31 games played behind the dish. Threw out eight base runners trying to steal, holding said runners to a success rate of just 68%

Respect - Top-10 at 3B, a Position He Has Yet to Play

FAU baseball received its second position player recognition of '22, with sophomore Nolan Schanuel being ranked No. 8 on the DI Baseball Preseason Player Power rankings on Monday.

Schanuel played first base as a freshman, but he is expected to hold down the hot corner in 2022 and may return to first on occasion.

The lefty also is a 2022 Perfect Game Preseason All-American after making an Owl impact both offensively and defensive in his first collegiate campaign. He led the FAU everyday starters in batting average, .OPS, hits, on-base percentage, RBIs and most importantly, runs scored. In his first season, he committed just two errors in 454 chances while making his fellow infielders look better in the process. He ended his true freshman campaign at the top of the C-USA leaderboard in nearly every hitting category while being named Freshman All-America by Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game (for the latter, he was one of just 13 players who earned First Team honors) ABCA/Rawlings Second Team All-Region, and Second Team All-C-USA.

Schanuel came to FAU as an outfielder, made the move to first in 2021 and spent his entire summer, with the Bethesda Big Train, as well as FAU's fall season working towards a move to third base.

Hart [igan] and Soul

Senior Mitchell Hartigan is the third FAU player recognized by DI Baseball. Hartigan found himself at No. 46 among the 150 outfielders named to the organization's Player Power rankings.

Hartigan, who joins Caleb Pendleton and Nolan Schanuel as ranked players by position, is a four-year letterwinner for the Owls. The local product has primarily played outfield, but also has seen time on the mound.

WHAT'S TRENDING

Golden Spikes Watch List - Nolan Schanuel has been named to the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List. The award honors the top amateur baseball player in the nation and is given each year to the player who best exhibits exceptional on-field ability and exemplary sportsmanship. Previous winners include Bryce Harper, Stephen Strasburg, and Kris Bryant. Schanuel is one of 45 players named on the watch list.

Multi-Hit Machine - Gabriel Rincones, Jr. has three straight multi-hit games. It's the third time this season he's racked up multiple hits in three straight. He has 24 multi-hit games this season to lead the Owls. On Tuesday against FGCU, the sophomore lined three consecutive singles to right field. Rincones, Jr. has also scored a run in seven straight games and nine of the last 10.

Senior Weekend/Final Homestand - This is the ninth and final home series of 2022. The Owls have won seven of the eight so far including non-conference opponents. They need three wins to tie the most home victories in a single season since John McCormack took over in 2009. The 2011 and 2017 teams both won 25 games at home.

Prior to Saturday's game, the careers of five players and three staff members will be celebrated with a pregame presentation beginning at 3:30 pm.

Tyler Krull, Director of Baseball Operations/Graduate Assistant
Michael Borriello, Director of Analytics and Data Strategy
Gabby Mayo, Head Graduate Manager and Video Coordinator
Tyler Burnham, lefthanded starting pitcher
Tyler Kelder, rightfielder and designated hitter
Brock Helverson, righthanded middle reliever
Shane Magrann, designated hitter, catcher, and righthanded pitcher
Nicholas Toney, catcher and team co-captain

Out-hitting the Opponent - The Owls are 26-3 this season when they out-hit their opponent and 4-15 when they get out-hit Schanuel Reaches the Century Mark - Nolan Schanuel recorded his 100th career RBI on May 7 against La. Tech in his 102nd career game.

Defense Thriving - The Owls have made one error or fewer in 27 straight games. In the first 19 games this season, they made two or more errors 10 times. FAU is 25-13 when they limit the defensive mistakes to one or fewer.

Seven Inning Game - The Owls are 26-1 when they lead after seven innings. Closer Robert Wegielnik has proven on more than one occasion that he's comfortable going two or three innings for a save. Most recently, he got the last nine outs to preserve the win over La. Tech last Sunday.

Martzolf's Career Night - Max Martzolf entered with one out and the bases loaded in the fifth inning on April 26 against FGCU. He was the Owls' fourth pitcher of the inning. He got out of the jam with a strikeout and a pop out and proceeded to pitch the next four innings without allowing a hit. He struck out 11 of the 14 batters he faced and allowed just one baserunner.

Takes a Few Innings to Settle In - The Owls' best inning, statistically, is the sixth where they are outscoring their opponents 47-20. Their next largest run differential is in the first inning (52-32).

Mr. Consistency - Tyler Burnham has been the Owls' most reliable starter this season in conference play. He was solid again last Sunday against La. Tech in six innings. He allowed one run on three hits and set a new season-high with seven strikeouts.

Opponents are hitting .164 against the lefty this season. The single-season record for average-against is .155 set by RJ Alvarez in 2012. Alvarez, however, pitched just 37.2 innings. Burnham is already up to 44.2 going into this weekend.

Burnham is just a few innings shy of the min. requirement to be included among the C-USA pitching leaders. The requirement is 1.0 IP/team game. Sunday will be game 52 meaning the graduate senior will need to pitch eight innings to make the leaderboard. He will likely reach the requirement in his last start on May 22 against Marshall.

His current ranks if he did meet the min. requirement would be:

- 6th in ERA
- 1st in opponent batting average
- 1st in hits allowed
- 1st in doubles allowed

WHAT'S TRENDING

GRAND SLAM - Shortstop Armando Albert hit his first home run as an Owl in the February 20 win over Minnesota. That home run just happened to be a grand slam which broke open what had been a 4-4 game. Oddly enough, the grand slam came on the one-year anniversary of teammate Caleb Pendleton hitting two grand slams in the same inning versus UCF.

Jalen DeBose C-USA Week #1 Hitter of the Week -

Sophomore centerfielder Jalen DeBose was named Conference USA Hitter of the Week following week one of the season. DeBose hit .500 (5-for-10) with an OPS of 1.683 in the Owls' first three games with three doubles, a home run and 10 RBI. On the Owls' opening Friday night, DeBose was the only Owl to record an RBI, going 1-for-4 on the day. On Saturday, he was 2-for-4 with a double and four RBI. The two-day total of five RBI matched his production for the entirety of 2021. On Sunday, he added five more to his RBI count for a total of 10 on the season, doubling his 2021 production in just three games. He was 2-for-2 on the day with another double and his first career home run, a line drive over the center field wall.

SENIOR CLASS Watch List - Hunter Cooley has been named to the 2022 SENIOR CLASS Watch List. Cooley is in his fourth year with the Owls and serves as a team co-captain.

Posey Watch List - Caleb Pendleton has been named to the 2022 Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year watch list, as announced by the Greater Wichita Sports Commission announced. Pendleton is one of 77 catchers from across the country on the list. As a freshman in 2021, Pendleton hit eight home runs and drove in 24. Behind the plate, he committed just three errors in 196 chances and cancelled out eight of 17 opponent steal attempts.

Nine Pitches, Nine Strikes- In the ninth inning of the April 2 win over Rice, Robert Wegielnik recorded an immaculate inning -- three consecutive strikeouts on nine pitches. The inning took 2 minutes and 40 seconds. Seven of the nine pitches were swings and misses and none touched the bat of the hitter. He nearly did it for a second time last Saturday againsts La. Tech. In the seventh inning, Wegielnik struck out the side on 10 pitches. The first eight were strikes before he missed with a ball.

Schanuel Named to Bragan Award Watch List - On Thursday, it was announced that Nolan Schanuel was named on the watch list for the Bobby Bragan Collegiate Slugger Award. Bobby Bragan, former major league baseball player, manager, and coach, established the Bobby Bragan Youth Foundation in 1991 as an effort to encourage children to stay in school and pursue their educational and career dreams. The award honors annually the most outstanding offensive baseball player on a Division One team in the country, based on personal integrity, athletic performance and academic achievement.

Rincones Times Three - Gabriel Rincones, Jr. blasted three home runs on Saturday April 30 against FIU. It had been 12 years since Eddie Cassidy was the last Owl to accomplish the feat back in June, 2010. Rincones, Jr. enters the weekend ranked 18th in Division I in RBI (60) and 16th in HR (17)

Preseason All-C-USA and KC Cup Winner Hunter Cooley

Senior co-captain Hunter Cooley has been named to the 2022 Conference USA Preseason baseball team, as announced by C-USA on Wednesday.

Cooley filled a variety of roles in 2021, but was moved into the rotation five weekends into the 2021 season, landing as the Friday night starter. It was a role that allowed the lefty to thrive. He was a Second Team All-Conference USA selection at season's end. He completed his campaign tied for second among C-USA teams with eight wins, while ranking 10th at that time with a 3.57 ERA. His 3.54 ERA in league play was seventh lowest, and his .259 average against ranked 13th. Cooley was second on the squad with 76.2 innings pitched, despite making only 10 starts, but his 17 total appearances were two off the team lead. He continued to be stingy issuing walks, with just 18 on the season, or 2.13 per nine innings. For his career, he only is a 2.18/9, fifth lowest in program history.

Cooley began his turn in the rotation on one day's notice, as he opened the USF road series with a seven-inning shutout outing, on four hits, with one walk and six strikeouts. He repeated that same exact stat line - 7 IP, 4 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 6 K - in the C-USA opener the next week against Marshall, but in a complete game effort. Cooley added another conference complete game victory, on the road at WKU (7 IP, 8 H, 3 R, 0 BB, 1 K). Twice, he had seven K's, in a road win over FIU, and in a win over No. 19 USM.

"We are happy for him. It is a well-deserved honor, and we are excited to see what he can do this year," said John McCormack, FAU's head coach.

HIT - Catcher/Pitcher Shane Magrann recorded a bit of an anomaly. He saw his first inning of work, versus Minnesota in the season opener, as a collegiate pitcher. He walked one, struck out one, and HIT one in that debut. In the bottom half of the inning he moved to the DH spot where he was promptly HIT. Becoming, what we believe to be the first FAU player to record HBP, both ways, in the same inning.

Owls at the Next Level - 13 former Owls earned a place in Major League organizations for the start of the 2022 season...

- Austin Gomber (P): Colorado Rockies (MLB)
- C.J. Chatham (INF): Reno Aces (Arizona Diamondbacks / Triple-A)
- Tyler Frank (INF): Bowling Green Hot Rods (Tampa Bay Rays / High-A)
- R.J. Alvarez (P): Syracuse Mets (New York Mets / Triple-A)

42 YEARS AND STILL REALIZING FIRSTS

When freshman #7 Dom Presto took the first this season, he became the first FAU baseball legacy. Presto, the son of Nick Presto, an FAU shortstop (1993-96) and 2010 FAU Athletics Hall of Fame member, and mother Melissa, also an FAU alumna and his brother Nicholas has worked with FAU football since 2016 as a student equipment manager. In 2023, the Owls are expecting to be joined by another, Tyler Murphy, who is the son of Tommy Murphy, an FAU shortstop (1998-2000) and major leaguer. His mother Debra is also an FAU alumna.

Pendleton makes

HISTORY!

On Saturday night, Feb. 20, Florida Atlantic true freshman catcher Caleb Pendleton did what has only been done seven times in recorded NCAA history since 1976 (and only once ever in MLB): hit two grand slams in the same inning. Moreover, Pendleton did it in the first two at-bats of his collegiate career. It was part of a 16-batter, 12-run second inning that eventually turned into a 20-15 FAU win over No. 24 UCF, on a weekend where the Owls took the series over the Knights, 2-1.
