OUR OPPONENTS

The Naval Academy tops the list as the oldest team the Owls will play at 146 years. FIU is the youngest program, starting football one year after Florida Atlantic. Five programs have been playing since the 1800s. Collectively, including FAU, the average program length is 85 years.

Opponent – First Season (Current Season)

at Maryland – 1892 (133rd season)
Florida A&M – 1907 (118th season)
at Florida International – 2002 (24th season)
Memphis – 1912 (113th season)
at Rice – 1912 (113th season)
UAB – 1991 (34th seasons)
at South Florida 1997 (28th season)
at Navy – 1879 (146th season)
Tulsa – 1895 (130th season)
at Tulane – 1893 (132nd season)
UConn – 1896 (129th season)
East Carolina – 1932 (93rd season)

Today's Game - Today's game marks the 300th time the Owls have taken the field since the program's inception on Sept. 1, 2001 versus Slippery Rock.

Record Breaking Season - Redshirt junior QB Caden Veltkamp is commanding Hagerty Family Football Head Coach Zach Kittley's Air Raid offense. Through 10 games, he is the nation's leader in completions with 284, 25 more than second place and just eight away from setting the single-season program record. Nationally, he is also sixth in passing yards (2,964) and tied for ninth in passing touchdowns (22). His most recent outing saw him break the program's single game completions record with 39, most by any player in the country this season, while also passing for a career high 375 yards.

Messer Connection - Redshirt junior wide receiver Easton Messer arrived from the same school as Veltkamp in January of 2025, and their on-field chemistry has continued to flourish. Messer has hauled in 83 receptions, second most in a season by an Owl and is currently second in the nation in that category, while also ranking 16th in receiving yards (847).

Racking Up Tackles - Redshirt junior LB Leon Hart Jr. has logged 25 tackles in the last two games, now at a team-leading 78 on the season. His 8.6 per game ranks T34th in Division I.

All-Around Platt - Redshirt junior WR Jayshon Platt has caught a touchdown in three straight games, the first Owl to do so since LaJohntay Wester in 2022, and has done so in four out of his last five appearances. Between his receiving yards (607), kick returns (497), and rushing (36), he is 15th in the nation in all-purpose yards per game (114.10).

Aggressive Offense - The Owls have gone for it on fourth down 55 times, 13 more than any other team in the nation.

THE SERIES

Versus UConn (0-2): Saturday's game marks the third meeting between the two schools and the first in Paradise. The two teams first met on a very cold Nov. 3, 2002 in Storrs, falling 61-14. The Owls returned to Connecticut in 2024 and were defeated 48-14. One thing is guaranteed, FAU will need more than two scores to prevail in 2025.

AN OWL WIN WOULD...

- Be the program's 130th win
- Be Hagerty Family Head Football Coach Zach Kittley's fifth career win
- Move the Owls to 5-5, one win away from bowl eligibility, and to 4-3 in American play.

Conference Affiliation History

Florida Atlantic University began playing football as an FCS member in 2001. In 2003, the Owls became the youngest team to earn an FBS victory (game 21), and the youngest to earn a playoff berth. FAU hosted and were defeated in the semifinal game by Colgate.

That same year, Florida Atlantic declared its intentions to move to the FBS level and joined the Sun Belt Conference. The Owls would begin playing an FBS schedule but did not reach full status until 2007. That same season FAU won its first conference championship, becoming the youngest startup program to earn a bowl berth, a bowl that the Owls won.

The Owls moved to Conference USA in 2013 and just five seasons later were atop the league with a perfect regular season, a CUSA Championship victory and the program's third bowl berth. FAU repeated its championship run in 2019.

2023 marked the third league for the Owls as they began to represent the American Athletic Conference, just 20 years after its first championship season.

Notes

Youngest Calling the Plays: Hagerty Family Head Football Coach Zach Kittley began fall camp at the age of 33. Now 34, he remains the youngest head coach in the game. The Texas native not only serves as the head coach, but also is also the Owls' offensive coordinator and QB coach. When teamed with defensive coordinator Brett Dewhurst, the head coach/OC and DC duo average an age of 34.3, which makes them the youngest playcalling team in the nation.

1. Florida Atlantic 34.3
2. North Texas 34.3
3. San Diego State 36.67
4. Texas State 37
5. East Carolina 38
6. Minnesota 38.33

Standing Tall Among FBS: At 6-7, Zach Kittley is the tallest among active FBS coaches. Conversely, App State's Dowell Loggains is 5-5. The same survey among FBS football SIDs also revealed he is the only FBS head coach that did not play college football.

The Touch: Redshirt sophomore running back Xavier Terrell has the touch. The back averaged more than 18 yards a carry a year ago and has the knack for making something happen. In fact, he has recorded a 20+ yard play in five of the six games he has played.

Paradise International: While more than 1,000 players have donned an FAU uniform, more than 83% hail from the state of Florida. 33 states and 472 high schools have been represented through the years. Internationally, six countries hold the honor of an FAU football players finding the Boca Raton field. This season players represent three countries: Germany, Canada (3) and the USA.

Season Opener on the Road: The Maryland contest marks the program's 10th season opener played on the road. The Owls have captured three of the previous nine contests beginning with a 20-19 win at Middle Tennessee back in 2003. That victory was the first win over an FBS program and came 22 games into the program's existence. One year later, FAU topped Hawaii in overtime for the 35-28 victory and were the only 2004 team to defeat the Rainbow Warriors at home. The Owls' last season-opening road victory was 33-21 win at UAB in 2010.

Son of a Coach: Zach Kittley openly credits his father, Wes, as the "best man I know." If he is going to emulate someone's career, his father's is the perfect example. Wes is in his 27th season as Texas Tech's men's and women's track and cross country coach and has coached at the collegiate level for more than four decades. Kittley moved to Lubbock after leading one of the most successful programs in the history of collegiate track and field. While at Abilene Christian University, Kittley won an unprecedented 29 national track and field championships, the most in Divisions I and II combined. Kittley won his first national championship in 1985 when his women's Wildcat squad won the Division II outdoor championship, a title he would win again in '86, '87 and '88. When ACU combined their programs in 1993, Kittley was selected to head the men's team, as well. He wasted no time taking a floundering men's program to an elite level, winning the Division II indoor title in his first season. His 15-year tenure at ACU included coaching 10 Olympic qualifiers, three Pan-American Games athletes, five World University Games athletes, 16 athletes who have qualified for the world championships and three United States national champions. In the fall of 2006, Kittley was honored by the Lone Star Conference for his coaching efforts while at ACU as he was named to the conference's Hall of Honor.

Owls Celebrating 25th Season

The Florida Atlantic Owls are celebrating their 25th football season in 2025, marking the silver anniversary season for the football program born from the vision of the late Howard Schnellenberger.

"This is an incredibly significant season and should be a celebration for all Florida Atlantic fans, alumni, students and staff," said Vice President and Director of Athletics Brian White. "We are proud to call ourselves the hometown team and we have been so grateful for the support from the tri-county area, especially here in Boca Raton, in building our football program. We are also grateful for the tireless work from the late Howard Schnellenberger, who along with the FAU Football Founders, helped guide and shape the formation of our program from the ground up. Now we're excited to see Hagerty Family Head Coach Zach Kittley lead a new era of football in paradise and carry on the legacy Coach Schnellenberger created."

The content series, which began during the summer, included historic highlights, great games, moments and players of the program that has claimed three conference championships since 2007 and combined for an impressive 4-1 record in bowl games. Visit @FAUFootball, @FAUAthletics, the FAU Athletics YouTube channel and "Inside the Owls Burrow."

The 2025 season also marks the 15th season of play at Flagler Credit Union Stadium, which opened its doors as FAU Stadium on Oct. 15, 2011 and remains the only major college football stadium with a view of the ocean just 1.8 miles away.

2025 Captains as Voted Upon by the Team.

"I'm excited about the leadership of these seven men and their willingness to serve as captains for the football season," said Kittley. "Whether they are new to Florida Atlantic or have been here since the day we came together, they have been leaders of our program. Their teammates showed that as well through their votes for captains. I look forward to their continued leadership of this program."

Coach Devin Santana Named to 30-Under-30 Lists

Devin Santana, defensive tackles coach for the Florida Atlantic football team, has been named by 247Sports to the '30Under30' list recognizing the top college football coaches in the nation under the age of 30.

Santana, 29, is part of Hagerty Family Head Football Coach Zach Kittley's inaugural staff and is working with an overhauled FAU's defensive line. He is one of three assistant coaches representing the American Conference on the list. Santana was previously with the Owls as a player, a member of the 2014 team.

Strong Arm - Starting quarterback Caden Veltkamp has been selected to the 2025 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Watch List, announced by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Educational Foundation Inc. on Tuesday.

This marks another preseason accolade for the redshirt junior QB, who is also on the Maxwell Award Watch List, Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch List and has been named to preseason All-Conference teams by various national outlets including Athlon and Phil Steele.

Named after one of the best signal callers in football history, the Unitas Golden Arm Award honors the top collegiate upperclassman quarterback based on both their on-field performance as well as their off-the-field character. Veltkamp, who is entering his first year with the Owls after winning the 2024 Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year, is well-positioned along with the 57 other QBs on the list, including three in the American Conference.

Head Coach Zach Kittley

cap a 9-5 season. Texas Tech has been bowl eligible in each of the last three years, with the Red Raiders beating Ole Miss in the Texas Bowl in 2022, beating California in the 2023 Independence Bowl, and going 8-4 this past season.

TEXAS TECH (2022-24; 2013-17)

Kittley was named the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at his alma mater on December 6, 2021, returning to Lubbock after beginning his coaching career as a student assistant in 2013 and rising to graduate assistant and assistant quarterbacks coach his final three seasons.

Working alongside former Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury in the development of Mahomes, Kittley tutored the future NFL MVP into becoming the nation's leading passer in 2016 and an eventual top-10 selection by the Kansas City Chiefs. Future NFL draft pick Davis Webb, now the quarterbacks coach for the Denver Broncos, was also in Lubbock during Kittley's first stint.

In Kittley's first season as the offensive coordinator in 2022, he cemented his reputation as a quarterback developer as Texas Tech's offense managed consistent numbers despite numerous injuries behind center. Each of the three Red Raider starters at quarterback threw for at least 1,000 yards as Texas Tech became just the second team since 1996 to have three different QBs throw for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

Texas Tech averaged 34.2 points per game in 2022 en route to an impressive 8-5 record that included a win in the TaxAct Texas Bowl over Ole Miss. The Red Raiders led the Big 12 and ranked ninth nationally in passing offense in 2022, averaging 302.0 yards per game through the air as part of a unit that was in the top-25 nationally and second in the Big 12 for total offense.

With significant injuries under center again in 2023, Kittley adapted his offense to a more balanced attack with junior running back Tahj Brooks, who became only the fifth Red Raider in program history to rush for at least 1,500 yards in a season. Brooks, an All-Big 12 first team honoree, ranked fourth in the nation in rushing yards to push the Red Raiders to another 5-4 mark in Big 12 play and a victory in the Radiant Technologies Independence Bowl over Cal.

This season, with a healthy Morton starting all 12 games at quarterback and Brooks amassing another 1,500 yards on the ground, the Red Raiders are 8-4 and ranked top-10 nationally in nearly every offensive metric, including 10th in total offense, eighth in scoring and ninth in passing. The team averaged 459.8 yards in total offense and scored 38.6 points per game to lead the Big 12 in each. Individually, Morton is top-10 nationally in yards per game and touchdowns, while Brooks has amassed 1,505 yards on the ground to rank third nationally in rushing average at 136.8 yards – the first back-to-back 1,500-yard rusher at Texas Tech in school history.

In total, five different quarterbacks have started under center during Kittley's 38 games as offensive coordinator the past three seasons, including two true freshmen at the time in Morton and Jake Strong. In games that Morton started last season and did not leave due to injury, the Red Raiders were 6-1 as he garnered honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades by the conference coaches after throwing for 1,757 yards and 15 touchdowns over his eight starts.

WESTERN KENTUCKY (2021)

Behind the arm of Zappe, who followed Kittley from Houston Christian to WKU, Kittley transformed the Hilltoppers into one of the nation's most explosive offenses, averaging an impressive 44.2 points per game and 535.3 yards of total offense. Western Kentucky closed the 2021 campaign as the FBS leader in passing yards per game (433.7) and first downs (384) and ranked second for both scoring offense and total offense and then 13th in red zone offense after scoring in 90.9 percent of their appearances inside the 20.

Just the sixth quarterback in FBS history to record at least 5,000 passing yards and 50 touchdowns, Zappe was named the Conference USA Most Valuable Player as well as the winner of the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. He was also a finalist for the prestigious Manning Award and a semi-finalist for both the Davey O'Brien and Zach Kittley was named Florida Atlantic's newest Hagerty Family Head Football Coach on December 2, 2024, putting at the helm one of the brightest and most innovative offensive minds in college football. Kittley came to Boca Raton after three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas Tech.

Career Summary

FLORIDA ATLANTIC (2025)

Kittley brings 12 years of Division I coaching experience to Florida Atlantic, beginning with his time as a student assistant and graduate assistant coach at Texas Tech from 2013 to 2017. His first full-time coaching appointment came at age 26 when he was named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Houston Christian (Houston Baptist) from 2018 to 2020. He moved to Western Kentucky as the offensive coordinator and QB coach in 2021 and returned to his alma mater in 2022 at the same position.

A highly-regarded developer of quarterbacks, Kittley, 34 (Aug. 14, 1991), has been the architect of the prolific offenses at each of his stops while coaching the likes of future NFL signal-callers Patrick Mahomes II, Bailey Zappe, and Davis Webb. In his seven seasons as an offensive coordinator, quarterback coach, and play-caller, Kittley's teams have averaged 457.3 yards and 34.8 points per game.

Each of his last four seasons have produced bowl-eligible teams, beginning in 2021 with Western Kentucky beating Appalachian State, 59-38, in the Boca Raton Bowl at Flagler Credit Union Stadium to Walter Camp Player of the Year awards. His 5,967 passing yards and 62 passing touchdowns were each single-season FCS records.

Zappe was the highest-drafted quarterback in WKU history when he was selected in fourth round of the 2021 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. Zappe has spent three years in the NFL with Patriots, Kansas City Chiefs and the Cleveland Browns.

The year prior to Kittley's arrival at WKU, the Hilltoppers went 5-7, averaging 19.0 points and 290.3 yards per game.

HOUSTON CHRISTIAN (2018-20)

Kittley was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Houston Christian in 2018 and spent three seasons constructing one of the top offenses in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

In the first season under Kittley, the Huskies doubled their offensive production from the year prior, racking up 4,337 yards of offense, 301 points and 41 touchdowns – 2,975, 150 and 18, respectively, in 2017.

Zappe led the nation with 35 passing touchdowns in 2019 as Houston Christian improved its record from 1-10 in 2018 to 5-7 in 2019. He ranked second in passing yards per game for a Huskies offense that was third nationally in passing offense with 334.3 yards per game through the air. Houston Christian also ranked second in the Southland Conference and 12th nationally after posting 426.6 yards of total offense that season.

During its COVID-shortened 2020 season, Houston Christian continually frustrated FBS opponents as Zappe, who later transferred to Western Kentucky after Kittley's hire, completed 65.6 percent of his passes for 1,833 yards and 15 touchdowns with only one interception over four games.

Florida Atlantic University

Florida Atlantic, with its largest campus in Boca Raton, Florida, is a dynamic, national public research university with campuses and sites strategically located along Florida's southeast coast stretching from Fort Pierce to Fort Lauderdale and situated between America's Everglades and the Atlantic Ocean. It is recognized as a university of first choice for:

- Excellence in undergraduate education and the student experience;
- Comprehensive graduate education;
- Visionary and globally relevant research;
- Transformative engagement with its global communities

Florida Atlantic is one of only 21 institutions nationwide recognized by the Carnegie Classification as both an 'R1: Very High Research Spending and Doctorate Production' university — the highest distinction for research excellence — and as an 'Opportunity University' in the new Student Access and Earnings category. With one of the nation's most diverse student bodies, Florida Atlantic offers 170 undergraduate and graduate degree programs to more than 31,000 students, with over one-third of those students being first-generation college students.

Florida Atlantic is designated a Hispanic-serving institution and ranked as a top public university by U.S. News & World Report. To enhance interdisciplinary and collaborative research, Florida Atlantic has established four university-wide research institutes focused on the University's strengths. These are dedicated to improving and addressing diseases of the brain, enhancing human health and quality of life, protecting the environment locally and globally, and using sensors to monitor the world around us.

Florida Atlantic's 10 colleges are: the Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters, the College of Business, the College of Education, the College of Engineering and Computer Science, the Graduate College, the Harriet L. Wilkes Honors College, the Charles E. Schmidt College of Medicine, the Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing, the Charles E. Schmidt College of Science, and the College of Social Work and Criminal Justice. Additionally, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute, the largest and most successful program of its kind in the United States, offers non-credit courses on a wide variety of subjects to people of retirement age.

Florida Atlantic is a primary member of the American Athletic Conference with nearly 500 student-athletes and 19 NCAA Division I teams.
