QUICK HITTERS

• FDU opens Northeast Conference play with a pair of contests at the Stratis Arena against Saint Francis U and Robert Morris

• A win against Saint Francis U in the NEC opener would be the first time since the 2012-13 season against Wagner, 68-59 on Staten Island

• A win would also be the fourth in the last five meetings between the Knights and Red Flash. That would be the best stretch for the Knights since winning four in row from 2005-06 thru 2007-08

• FDU has made at least five 3-pointers or more in six straight games; the Knights did not do that in more than two straight games last season

*-NEC Tournament Team

SERIES SCORE

Thursday's clash will be the 60th meeting all-time between the Knights and Red Flash. The two schools have met every season since 1986. FDU is 3-3 in the last six games played at the Stratis Arena.

LAST TIME OUT

The Knights had a chance to tie Howard at the buzzer on a three-pointer at the buzzer but the shot from Rainey Cox did not go in and FDU lost 71-68. Four Knights were in double figures; led by Brianna Thomas' and Kiana Brown's 12 points. Courtney Blankenship had 11 and Peniel M'Bikata added a career-high 10. The game was close throughout, with 12 lead changes and eight ties. Both teams did not lead by more than seven at any point.

ABOUT SAINT FRANCIS U

The Red Flash enter with a 3-8 record and have lost four straight games. SFU sports the top scoring offense in the NEC at 80.2 points per game, which is 19 more than the next closest team. SFU also allows the most points in the NEC at 86.2. The Red Flash also lead the conference in assists per game (15.3), blocks (7.0) and steals (10.2). Jessica Kovatch leads the NEC in scoring at 21.5 per game and Ace Harrison is fourth at 14.2. Harrison leads the NEC in rebounding at 10.1 and sits second in field goal percentage at 53.9%.

PRESEASON POLL

The Knights were picked ninth in the Northeast Conference Preseason Poll, which is voted on by the league's head coaches. The last FDU basketball team to be picked ninth in the preseason poll was the men's team last season when they went on to win the NEC Tournament and reached the NCAA Tournament.

NEC TOURNAMENT

The Knights have made the NEC Tournament in back-to-back seasons and in six of the last nine years. FDU will try to make it back to the NEC Tournament for the third year in a row, which would be a first under Peter Cinella.

NEC OPENERS

The Knights will try to win the NEC opener for the second straight season, FDU beat St. Francis Brooklyn in last season's NEC opener. That would be the first time since the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons -- both of those wins came against Bryant.

AT HOME IN THE NEC

Last season the Knights went 6-3 at home, including a win over SFU. That was an improvement from 4-5 the previous year and 1-8 back in 2013-14.

WHERE POINTS COME FROM

FDU has scored 655 points this season. 53% (350) of those have come from inside the arc. 30% (201) have come from three-pointers and the remaining 104 have been scored via the free throw line. Compared to SFU, the Red Flash get 14% from the free throw line, 43% from three and 42% from two-point range.

700 CLUB

The game at Monmouth was the 700th for Peter Cinella as a head coach. He coached in 421 games at American International College (AIC) -- over 14 seasons -- and has coached in 279 at Fairleigh Dickinson.

TO THE LINE....

FDU has given its opponents 20+ free throw attempts in 3 of last 4 and 9-of-11 this season. FDU's opponents have made more free throws than the Knights have attempted through 11 games.

CLEANING THE GLASS

FDU is third in rebounds per game and third in the NEC in total rebounds at 422 this season. The Knights grab 15.5 OREB per game, which 1st in the NEC and top 40 nationally.

WILL TAKE THAT OFF YOU HANDS

The Knights are first in the NEC in turning over the opposition at 20.36 forced turnovers per game. That mark is 47th in DI.

2016-17 Fairleigh Dickinson Women's Basketball

Head Coach: Peter Cinella

10th Season at Fairleigh Dickinson
97-184 (.345) Record at FDU
388-314 (.552) Career Record (24 Seasons)

In 2015-16, Cinella and the Knights finished at 11-21 (8-10 NEC) and a second straight trip to the Northeast Conference Tournament. The Knights fell at No. 3 seed Robert Morris for the second straight season. Three Knights earned All-NEC honors; Erika Livermore (First Team), Kelsey Cruz (Second Team) and Madelynn Comly (Rookie Team).

Three seasons ago, Cinella guided the Knights to a 13-18 overall record, including an 8-10 mark in the Northeast Conference to finish in eight place for the second consecutive season. Cinella's squad lost a heartbreaker in the NEC Quarterfinals to top-seed and eventual champion Sacred Heart, 62-58, after leading most of the second half on the road. Last season, FDU missed the NEC Tournament for only the second time under Cinella, falling just short after finishing one game out of the eighth and final spot.

From 2008-12, Cinella coached one of the all-time greats in the program, Mariyah Laury. She graduated in 2012 as the second all-time leading scorer in program history with 1,920 points. A three-time All-NEC performer, Laury holds the NEC record for most points in a game with 42 at Monmouth (Feb. 11, 2012), which is also the record at the Multipurpose Activity Center. She also holds the Spiro Sports Center record at Wagner for most points after dropping 38 during her junior year (Feb. 7, 2011).

The Knights have made the NEC Tournament four times in Cinella's first six seasons, narrowly missing the postseason in 2009-10 and 2012-13. In 2010-11, he had his best season at FDU, going 14-16 and losing in the NEC Quarterfinals at top-seed Saint Francis Pa., 72-59.

In 2008-09, Cinella guided the Knights to a 10-20 overall record, including a 9-9 mark in NEC action to tie for sixth and earn a second straight trip to the NEC Tournament. In October 2009, Cinella was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame. He has a career record of 362-238 over 20 seasons.

- Six trips to the NEC Tournament in nine full seasons
- Coached Erika Livermore to Third Team All-Met honors in 2014-15
- Has coached seven different players to All-NEC Honors (1st, 2nd or Rookie Teams); Six of those were multiple All-NEC performers.

In 2007-08, Cinella led the Knights to a 9-9 record in the NEC, and the No. 5 seed in the NEC Tournament. The sixth head coach in school history ultimately guided FDU to its highest postseason seeding since 1997-98, as only the 2003-04 squad obtained equivalent placement in the eight-team bracket.

The veteran coach successfully made the jump from the Division II ranks to Division I during the 2007-08 season. On Feb. 9, FDU beat home-standing Saint Francis Pa., 69-59, to mark Cinella's 300th career victory.

Cinella joined the Knights after 14 years at American International College (Springfield, Mass.). He is the winningest coach at the Massachusetts-based D-II school, holding a record of 291-130.

Under his guidance, AIC earned nine NCAA Tournament berths, including two appearances in the Elite Eight and one trip to the NCAA Championship game (2006). All 14 seasons under Cinella saw winning records, including nine 20-win seasons.

Cinella started his career in 1991 as the Assistant Girls' Basketball Coach for Lee High School. That season, the Massachusetts Division II State Champions finished the season a perfect 25-0.

In 1992, he served as the assistant men's basketball coach at AIC and assistant women's basketball coach the following year before being promoted to head coach in 1994.

He coached six Division II All-Americans and his teams were ranked in the Top 25 for five out of his last six years. In 2002, he was named Northeast 10 and Northeast Region Coach of the Year.

NEED A BALANCED DIET

FDU is 2-3 when it has three players in double figures. The Knights even had four in double figures against Howard; Kiana Brown, Courtney Blankenship, Brianna Thomas and Peniel M'Bikata.

MASTER THIEVES

The Knights had 15 against Howard last time out. That was the 4th time this season that FDU has had double digit steals.

MY BALL!

The 15 steals by the Knights against Howard are the most since have 16 against NJIT back on 11/19/14. The total is also the second-highest by an NEC team this season.

40 IS THE NEW COOL

In both of FDU's wins this season, the Knights have grabbed at least 40 rebounds (58 v Longwood & 40 at NJIT). The Knights have only done that once since; 45 at Monmouth.

RETURNING ALL-LEAGUE

Madelynn Comly returns for her sophomore season after earning NEC All-Rookie honors a season ago. She averaged 5.1 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.9 assists.

OH WAIT, WRONG TEAM...

The Knights have turned the ball over 20+ times in each of their last eight games, after not doing that in any of its first three games. FDU ended last season turning ball over fewer than 20 times in six-of-eight.

LETTIN' THEM FLY

The Knights are averaging 6.1 three-pointers made per game so far this season. That is three more than they made per game all of last season. FDU has already taken 238 threes this season, compared to 375 in 32 games in 2015-16.

BEHIND THE LINE

The Knights shot 40% from 3-point range against Howard for the first time this season. It was not since shooting 47% (8-17) at St. Francis Brooklyn back on 2/8/16.

AFTER ONE

FDU has led at the end of the first quarter in four of its last six games and all but one of those leads have been by at least two possessions.

GOOD START...

The Knights got off to a 2-1 start for the first time since 2010-11. That was also the last time that FDU won three of its first five games in a season. The 2-3 start is still the best start for the Knights through five games since 2010-11.

LEADER FROM A DISTANCE

Brianna Thomas led the Knights in three-point shooting percentage last season (34%). It was the second time in her career that Thomas was the Knights' top shooter from three-point range.

NEC IMPROVEMENT

The Knights have improved their win total in the NEC in each of the last three seasons. From two in 2013-14, to seven in 2014-15 and to eight last season.

BEING DEFENSIVE

The Knights have a defensive rating of 92.5 so far this season, based on points allowed per 100 possessions. A rate of 100 pts/possessions is average. By that rating, the Knights are the third-best defensive team in the NEC. The biggest difference from last season being, FDU is forcing 4 more turnovers per game so far compared to last season.

IN WINS

In its 11 wins last season FDU has held opponents to 34.7% from the field -- 39.9 overall. Also held opponents to 26% from three-point range.

FINDING THE BUCKET

The 69 points that FDU scored versus Binghamton was the second-highest total this season for the Knights. It is also snapped a streak of four games scoring less than 60.

LESS THAN 60

The Knights have not won a game when scoring 60 or fewer points since beating Central Connecticut 55-53 (OT) back on 2/2/13. FDU has been held under 60 points in six of its eight losses this season.
