MEDIA INFORMATION

Game Notes: Media members can receive the Pioneer Basketball game notes via email by contacting Assistant Director of Media Relations Chris Smith at christopher.smith726@du.edu.

Credentials: Media interested in obtaining season or game credentials should contact Chris Smith via email (christopher.smith726@du.edu), office phone (303-871-7555).

The Rodney Billups Show: The Rodney Billups Show returns for its second season each Monday from 6-6:30 p.m. MT on ESPN Radio 1600 AM. Tyler Maun hosts the show, which is broadcast from The Pioneer restaurant, located just south of the DU campus.

DU on ALTITUDE: The Pioneers will make 11 appearances on Altitude TV. Todd Romero (Play-by-play) and Greg Lackey (color) will call all the home action.

Interviews During The Week: All interview requests must be arranged through Chris Smith in the Denver Media Relations Office. Please contact Smith to arrange interviews during the week. Smith can be reached via email (christopher.smith726@du.edu), office phone (303-871-7555). Practice is open, but arrangements must be made in advance if you are planning on shooting B-roll footage. Coach Billups and Denver scholar-athletes are available for interviews on non-game days following practice or through special arrangements with Chris Smith.

Post-game Interviews: Postgame interviews will be conducted at a designated site following a 10-minute cooling-off period. Denver head coach Rodney Billups and selected players will be available for interviews. Media requests for both Denver and opposing coaches and players should be made to the DU men's basketball SID. Opponent requests will be forwarded to the visiting SID. The DU men's basketball locker room is closed to the media.

Camera Procedures: Photographers must work within the designated areas. Photographers may shoot from the right side of each end line of Magness Arena. Requests to photograph from any other location must be made in advance to the University of Denver Athletic Media Relations Department. The University of Denver reserves the right to accept or reject credential requests.

Radio: All radio stations wishing to broadcast from Magness Arena should contact the University of Denver Athletic Media Relations Office at least one week prior to the event. Space will be provided for the official radio station of the visiting team; others will be accommodated as space permits. Phone lines must be arranged for all stations in advance.

Directions to DU: Take I-25 to the South University Boulevard exit. Proceed south to the first stop light (Buchtel Boulevard). Go through the Buchtel Boulevard intersection to the next block south (Jewell Avenue). Take a right on Jewell and proceed west approximately one-half block to the east entrance to the Ritchie Center. Media parking is just east of Joy Burns Arena (the easternmost part of the Ritchie Center) in lot 401.

Preseason Honors

- Both Rosga and Amigo received preseason recognition from the Summit League this year.
- Amigo was selected to the first team after averaging a team-high 15.5 points per game last year and 7.1 rebounds.
- Rosga was a second-team selection after putting up 15.3 points as a sophomore.

Welcome to the Family

- The Pioneers signed three players for the upcoming 2018-19 campaign.
- Taelyr Gatlin, Jase Townsend and JaVonni Bickham are set to join the team.
- Hailing from Minneapolis, Minn., Bickham brings some size and athleticism to the front court for Denver in the coming years. The 6-foot-7 forward has starred over the past few seasons at the Minnehaha Academy.
- Bickham posted averages of 18.0 points, 9.0 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 2.0 blocks as a junior. He is already the school's all-time leading scorer.
- Gatlin brings a unique blend of size, speed and athleticism for a point guard to the Pioneers in 2018-19.
- The Akota, Tenn. native has been a star at Brighton High School these last few years, leading the team in scoring for three straight seasons.
- The 6-foot-3 guard averaged team highs in points (17.8), rebounds (4.3), assists (5.5) and steals (3.6) as a junior. Gatlin was also named team MVP, district MVP and district tournament MVP.
- The athletic guard is also a member of the 1,000-point club at his school, as well as holds the school record for most assists in a game with 13.
- Townsend, a Dallas native, comes to the Crimson and Gold from Skyline High School.
- As a junior, the 6-foot-3 guard averaged 18.4 points per game to go with 4.2 rebounds and 3.2 assists.
- The sweet-shooting Skyline standout posted a 53 percent field-goal percentage, 85 percent free-throw percent and a 44 percentage from beyond the arc.

In Our Defense

- Denver proved to be a tough out last year when they dialed up the defense.
- The Pioneers posted a 15-1 record last season when allowing fewer than 80 points in a contest.
- DU allowed 65.4 points per game in its wins last year.
- The Crimson and Gold's 35.7 3-point percentage defense ranked first in the Summit League in 2016-17.

We Just Getting Started Here

- Head coach Rodney Billups enters his second season at the helm of the program.
- Billups posted a 16-14 record in his first year as head coach of the Pioneers in 2016-17.
- The second-year coach brought a style not seen at DU before, having the team average 75.8 points a game, the most it has scored per game for a season since going Division I back in 1998.
- Billups also showed his ability to get his teams to play hard on both ends of the floor with Denver seeing huge improvements in field-goal defense, rebounding margin and rebounding totals.

RODNEY BILLUPS

HEAD COACH • SECOND SEASON

DENVER, COLO.

DENVER (2005)

Rodney Billups will enter his second season with the University of Denver men's basketball team in 2017-18.

In his debut season in 2016-17, the former Pioneer standout led the Pioneers to a 16-14 record, including a record of 8-8 in the Summit League. The eight league wins tied the most the program has had in league play since joining the league back in 2013.

Billups brought a new type of style to Denver which resulted in DU averaging a 75.8 points per contest, the most it has since going Division I back in 1998.

The Crimson and Gold also continued to show its outside touch under the first-year coach, finishing second in the Summit League in 3-point percentage at 40.2, which also was good for 13th in all of the NCAA.

Under Billups, the Pioneers showed huge improvement on the glass, finishing second in the Summit League in rebounding margin at plus-4.2.

Both Joe Rosga and Daniel Amigo saw their respective games reach new heights during the 2016-17 campaign under Billups, with both posting career highs in numerous statistical categories. Amigo's breakout year resulted in a second-team All-Summit League selection, while Rosga got honorable mention for a second straight season.

Billups comes to Denver after spending six seasons on Tad Boyle's staff at the University of Colorado.

During his first two years (2010-12) in Boulder, Billups was the director of basketball operations where he was an integral part of the behind-of-the-scenes success of back-to-back school-bests 24-win campaigns with travel, scheduling, and the day-to-day operations of the program.

When he was promoted to the coaching staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2012-13 season, the Buffaloes didn't skip a beat. Billups continued CU's excellence enjoying their finest seasons with a 21-win campaign in 2012-13, and another 23 victories in 2013-14, the third-most victories in school history.

During Billups's tenure with the coaching staff, the Buffaloes' have accumulated 130 victories, which have included five of CU's nine 20+ winning seasons in school history. The Buffaloes' have had six-straight seasons of post-season play (2010-2016) and three-straight NCAA Tournament berths (2011-14) and a fourth appearance in 2016.

Over the last six seasons, Billups has coached a number of CU student-athletes to conference excellence.

In CU's first year of the Pac-12, Andre Roberson (first team, All-Defensive, All-Tournament team), Carlton Brown (second team, tournament's Most Outstanding Player), and Spencer Dinwiddie (freshman team), all garnered all-conference honors.

In year two of the conference, Roberson (first team, Defensive Player of the Year, All-Defensive team); Dinwiddie (first team) and Josh Scott (All-Freshman team) earned post-season accolades. In the third year, Scott continued CU's prominence among the elite Pac-12 Conference players, as he was selected to the first team, while Askia Booker was an honorable mention selection, as to, Wesley Gordon to the honorable mention freshman team. Booker was also named to the Pac-12 All-Tournament team.

During his previous six years on the staff, Billups has also helped mentored four former CU student-athlete standouts to the next step professionally in their respective basketball careers.

Alec Burks, a sophomore was CU's second-ever lottery pick, was selected No. 12 overall by the Utah Jazz in the 2011 NBA Draft, while Andre Roberson left after his junior year, was the No. 26 overall selection by the Minnesota Timberwolves in 2013 (later traded to Oklahoma City).

Spencer Dinwiddie, also a junior, was drafted by the Detroit Pistons in the 2014 NBA Draft (second round, No. 38 overall); and Cory Higgins, the school's all-time co-leader in points, played with the Charlotte Bobcats during the 2011-12 season.

Billups is the younger brother of former CU great Chauncey Billups, who played with the Buffaloes from 1995-97.

The younger Billups is also a Colorado native, graduating from George Washington High School in 2001. He was a three-year standout at the University of Denver from 2002-05.

At DU, Billups averaged 10.2 points, 6.4 assists, and 3.2 rebounds per game during his 2004-05 senior campaign. In addition to leading the Sun Belt Conference in assists, he also ranked 17th nationally in that category. Billups was named an All-SBC third team selection in 2004-05, the same season he helped the Pioneers win 20 games and a National Invitation Tournament berth.

Billups' 199 assists in his senior season, ranked third all-time in school history, while his 58 steals, was seventh. During his three years at DU, Billups was fourth in assists (418) and fifth in steals (154).

For his career, he averaged 8.5 points, in addition to 4.6 assists, 2.7 rebounds and 1.7 steals per game.

In 2004-05, Billups was named co-recipient of the Floyd M. Theard Jr. Memorial Award. An award presented each year to the DU men's basketball player who best displays the qualities of leadership, scholarship and sportsmanship.

Billups earned his business management degree from DU in 2005. After his collegiate days, he played professional basketball for ASK Riga in Latvia (2005-06), where he led the league in steals and assists. He also played one year in Finland (2006-07).
