FORT HAYS STATE NOTES

Last Time Out

The No. 3 Tigers pulled away in the second half to advance to the MIAA semifinals after knocking off Missouri Western Thursday, 71-58. Taylor Rolfs scored 16 points, all of which came after halftime to provide a much-needed spark for the Tigers offense. Lanie Page led the way with 19 points and four blocks, including 12 points before intermission. It is the sixth time in the last seven years the Tigers have advanced to the conference semis. A full box score can be found on page 40.

Scouting the Ichabods

Washburn advanced to the semifinals after holding on to defeat Emporia State on Friday, 61-53. The win gave the 20-9 Ichabods a two-game winning streak. WU sits in the middle of the pack in the league offensively, ranking seventh with 68.5 points per game. However, they give up the third-fewest points in the MIAA, allowing just 61.9 points each outing. Second team All-MIAA performer Reagan Phelan leads the league with 4.8 assists per contest. Taylor Blue is one of three 'Bods averaging in double figures, putting up a team-best 12.3 every night.

Last Meeting with Washburn

The No. 3/1 Tigers handed Washburn its first conference loss of the season in Topeka back in January, 59-51. The Tigers scored 10-straight in the heart of the second quarter to start to pull away before leading by as many as 17 in the third frame. WU closed in quick within six in the fourth quarter, but the Tigers had an answer each time. Tatyana Legette scored a game-high 18 points, pushing her over the 1,000 point plateau for her career in her hometown. A full box score can be found on page 39.

All-Time vs the Ichabods

Washburn holds a 47-34 lead in the all-time series with Fort Hays State, including a 2-0 Ichabod lead in neutral site meetings. Washburn defeated the Tigers in their lone meeting in the MIAA Championships back in 2009, Fort Hays State's first game in an MIAA tournament. Hobson is 9-12 against the Ichabods.

Career vs WU (complete stats on page 9)

Kacey Kennett averages 7.8 points in five matchups with WU while Tatyana Legette averages 6.7 points in six meetings with the Ichabods.

Trophy SZN

The Tigers locked up the regular season MIAA Championship on the road at NSU back in February. It is the second MIAA title for the Tigers and their 10th conference championship all-time. The Tigers also clinched the 2014-15 regular season championship on the road in Oklahoma.

Adding Hardware

Five Tigers earned All-MIAA honors this season, including Player of the Year honors for Tatyana Legette and Coach of the Year honors for Tony Hobson. Legette was a first team performer, Kacey Kennett was named to the second team, Lanie Page picked up a spot on the third team and Belle Barbieri and Carly Heim were honorable mention. Legette is the second FHSU player to be named MIAA Player of the Year. It was Hobson's third MIAA Coach of the Year.

All About the Benjamins

The Tigers have won 101 games over the last four years, making Tatyana Legette and Carly Heim the first players in program history to win 100 or more games in their career.

Single L

The Tigers lost just one regular season game in 2018-19, the fewest losses in a regular season in program history.

Perfect 10

Fort Hays State is riding a 13-game winning streak heading into the weekend, giving the Tigers multiple non-consecutive double-digit winning streaks for just the second time in team history. The only other such occurrence came during the 1990-91 National Championship season. This is the 12th 10+ game winning streaks in program history.

311

The Tigers have won 11 games when ranked No. 3 in the country, more than any other ranking.

Triple Double-Double

Belle Barbieri posted three straight double-doubles late in the season, becoming the first Tiger with at least three straight since Kate Lehman put up eight consecutive double-doubles in January 2015.

28 Days Wins Later

The Tigers have won 28 games to date this season, third most in program history.

Saturday Night Live

The Tigers are 13-0 on Saturday this season. A win in the semis would be Hobson's 100th Saturday victory as a Tiger.

Show-Me Success

Fort Hays State is 39-36 in games played in Missouri under Hobson.

Quarter Century

This is the fifth time the program has won 25 or more contests and the fourth such occurrence in the last five seasons.

20 Wins Now the Norm

Fort Hays State reached the 20-win plateau for the eighth-consecutive season this year, continuing the program's record-breaking streak. FHSU had only recorded back-to-back 20-win seasons twice before the current streak began in 2011-12 (1989-90 and 1990-91, 2004-05 and 2005-06). In comparison, the Tigers recorded just eight 20-win seasons over the first 42 years of the program before reaching the milestone each of the last eight years. Tony Hobson has coached the team to eight of its 16 20-win seasons, the most for a single coach all-time.

18 and Over

The Tigers wrapped up the regular season with 18 conference victories, reaching 18 league wins for the third time in the last five years. That total has been reached by an MIAA team eight times since the Tigers joined the league in 2006-07, with no other institution winning 18-plus MIAA games more than once.

Great Eight

The Tigers won eight games in February, reaching eight wins in a month for the first time since January 2016.

Kansas City, Here They Come

The Tigers clinched a spot in their eighth-straight MIAA Tournament with their win over Pittsburg State, becoming the first team to clinch a trip to KC this season.

All They Do is WWWWWWWWWWWWWWWWin

The Tigers opened the year 15-0 for the first time in program history, surpassing the team's previous best start of 10-0 in 2012-13 and 2015-16. The win streak was the longest for the Tigers since they won 21-straight during the 2014-15 season.

All-Time Winningest Head Coach

FHSU's win over SBU was Tony Hobson's 218th career victory at Fort Hays State University, giving Hobson the most head coaching wins in program history. Helen Miles won 217 games in 15 seasons at FHSU (1971-86), while Hobson is in the midst of his 11th season as a Tiger.

MIAA Athlete of the Week^4

Tatyana Legette and Belle Barbieri combined to earn MIAA Athlete of the Week award four times this season, tied for the most for any program.

Legette Eclipses 1,000 Career Points

Tatyana Legette became the 20th member of the 1,000 point club at FHSU after scoring 18 points in her hometown of Topeka earlier this season against Washburn.

Nationally Recognized

Fort Hays State is ranked third in the latest WBCA Coaches poll and third in the D2SIDA Media poll. FHSU has now been mentioned in the national polls in seven straight seasons and eight years overall, achieving a top ranking of #1 in the nation in both polls in December 2015.

Central to the Story

The Tigers are ranked second in the latest set of NCAA Division II Central Region rankings after ranking first in the initial release last week. Southwestern Oklahoma State jumped into the top spot this week. FHSU is one of five MIAA programs listed in the top 10.

Sharp Shooting Leads to Victory

The Tigers are 86-3 under coach Hobson when shooting 45 percent or better from the floor.

There's No Place Like Home

The Tigers are 107-5 at home since the start of the 2012-13 season, losing no more than one game inside Gross Memorial Coliseum in each of the last six-plus years. FHSU is 148-22 all-time at home under Tony Hobson. The Tigers have won 23 straight home games dating back to last season, 2 shy of the program record.

Overtime Specialists

The Tigers have won eight consecutive overtime contests, dating back to the final game of the 2012-13 season (3/9/13 vs UCM in KC).

Turnovers, Turnovers

The Tigers rank first in Division II with just 10.7 turnovers per game while compiling a turnover margin of +7.72 so far this season, eighth-best in the country. They also rank first in fewest turnovers with just 310.

Give Me a Second Chance

Fort Hays State grabs an average of 14 offensive rebounds per game, tops in the MIAA and ranking 46th in the country. The Tigers have capitalized on those opportunities, scoring 14.6 second chance points per night.

Leaders in Division II...

The Tigers rank in the top 10 in the country in 11 statistical categories, including turnovers per game, turnover margin, fewest turnovers, assist/turnover ratio (1.32, eighth), blocked shots (150, eighth), blocks per game (5.2, sixth), fewest fouls (358, seventh), free throws made (470, eighth), personal fouls per game (12.3, seventh), scoring margin (22.2, sixth) and win percentage (96.6 percent, third).

...And the Conference

The Tigers have 131 victories since the start of the 2014-15 season, the most of any MIAA program. FHSU entered this season coming off the best four-year stretch in program history, winning 103 games in that span (103-24, 81%). The Tigers have reached the 20-win plateau in eight-straight seasons, far and away the longest active stretch in the conference (PSU five seasons).

Non Conference? No Problem!

The Tigers have won their last 34 non-conference regular season games and 67 of their last 68. The streak is even longer at home, as the Tigers have not lost a regular season non-conference game inside Gross Memorial Coliseum since 2008, winning the last 52 such contests. Coach Hobson is 77-5 in regular season non-conference games, including a 54-2 mark at home.

Home for the Holidays

Fort Hays State is 38-2 at home in the month of December under Hobson, with the last loss coming back in 2011 (12/7/11, Washburn 67-60). The Tigers have won 29 straight at home in December.

No Loss November

The Tigers are 57-5 in the month of November under Hobson, including 27-straight victories in the opening month of the regular season. They haven't lost in November since 2014 (at #10 Concordia St. Paul, 11/15/14, 70-68).

Opening the Year Right

FHSU is now 33-17 in season openers in program history after knocking off SMSU to open the year. Fort Hays State has won 15 straight home openers, with the last loss coming at the start of the 2003-04 season. The Tigers are 23-4 in home openers since joining the NCAA Division II in 1992-93.

Second is the Best

The Tigers were ranked second in both the coaches and media renditions of the 2018-19 MIAA Preseason Polls, sitting behind defending national champion Central Missouri in both rankings. FHSU finished third in the league in the regular season a year ago before finishing runner-up in the conference tournament.

Back for More

The Tigers return 11 letterwinners from a year ago, including four All-MIAA performers and four starters. Five returners started at least 15 contests a year ago and all 11 have appeared in at least 15 contests in a Tiger uniform. The FHSU returners accounted for more than 82 percent of the Tiger scoring a year ago (58.5 ppg return/71.3 ppg total).

Youth Movement

After graduating just one senior a year ago, the Tigers are still a relatively young group this season. Seniors Tatyana Legette and Carly Heim are joined by five juniors, four sophomores and three freshmen.

Tigers Match Quarter Scoring Record

Fort Hays State totaled an astounding 36 points in the third quarter against Missouri Valley this season, matching the team record and the MIAA record at the time (has since been broken by NSU).

She Don't Miss

Tatyana Legette is one of the most consistent shooters in program history, entering her senior season ranked third in career field goal percentage at 54.6 percent.

Thrice is Nice

After reaching the NCAA Tournament once in its first 23 years in the Association, Fort Hays State has now been selected to compete in the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship three times in the last four years.

Milestone Man

Tony Hobson became the second women's basketball coach at Fort Hays State to reach 200 victories with the win over Central Oklahoma last season. Hobson is the quickest to reach the milestone, doing so in less than 10 full seasons at the helm (Helen Miles, 15 seasons). Additionally, coach earned his 600th career victory against Tabor earlier this season (12/13/17), reaching the milestone in just 26 years as a collegiate head coach and averaging more than 23 wins per season.

Student Comes Before Athlete

The Tigers earned a spot on the 2017-18 WBCA Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll for the fourth-straight year last season. FHSU earned a cumulative GPA of 3.667, ranking 13th in the nation. The mark is the highest GPA during Hobson's tenure (3.628, 2011-12). This is the eighth time in Hobson's 10 years as head coach at Fort Hays State that the women's basketball team earned the WBCA Academic Top 25 honor. The team ranked 14th in 2009-10, 11th in 2010-11, 4th in 2011-12, 14th in 2012-13, 23rd in 2014-15, 22nd in 2015-16, 13th in 2016-17 and 13th again this year.

Century Mark

After dropping in 106 against Missouri Valley earlier this season, Fort Hays State now has 23 100-point games in its illustrious history, including 11 under Hobson.

Filling the Seats

The Tigers averaged 2,053 fans at each home game last season, yet again leading the MIAA. In addition to leading the league, FHSU finished second in Division II for the fourth year in a row last year. Fort Hays State has finished in the top-four in attendance each of the last six seasons, and has been in the top 10 for nine straight years.

WHY???

Ten of the 14 players on this year's roster have the letter Y in their first name.

Tony Hobson enters his 11th season as head coach of the Fort Hays State women's basketball program in 2018-19. Hobson is one of the most successful collegiate women's basketball coaches in the nation, entering his 27th year overall with a career record of 618-198 (.757). He ranks eighth in win percentage among active coaches in NCAA Division II with a four-year college win percentage of .759 (416-132). In 10 seasons at Fort Hays State, Hobson has a record of 205-92.

Hobson led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years in 2017-18, earning his third NCAA Tournament victory before falling to eventual National Champion Central Missouri. The Tigers also reached the MIAA Championship game for the second time in history. The Tigers finished the season 26-7, compiling 20-plus wins for the seventh-straight season and totaling the third-most wins in program history. Five players were named All-MIAA.

Fort Hays State defeated a top-ranked team for the second year in a row in 2016-17, knocking off then No. 1 Emporia State (12/10/16). The Tigers advanced to the MIAA tournament for the sixth year in a row, moving on to Kansas City after a first round win over Missouri Southern. FHSU finished the season 22-8, recording the sixth-consecutive 20-win season, the longest such streak in program history.

The Tigers reached the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year in 2015-16, making it to the Central Region Quarterfinal round. The team picked up the No. 1 ranking in the WBCA Coaches Poll for the first time in program history midway through the season after defeating then No. 1 Emporia State (12/5/15), the first Tiger victory over a top-ranked team since joining the NCAA. In addition, Hobson picked up his second-straight MIAA Coach of the Year award.

Hobson led Fort Hays State to the greatest season in the program's NCAA Division II history in 2014-15. He guided the team to a record of 30-4 overall and the program's first MIAA Regular Season Championship. Fort Hays State hosted the Central Regional of the NCAA Tournament as the region's top seed and reached the Central Regional Final. It was the furthest Fort Hays State had ever advanced in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers reached the No. 2 ranking nationally during the regular season and finished at No. 8 in the final poll. Hobson earned MIAA Coach of the Year honors in 2015 for guiding FHSU to its first MIAA title.

In 2013-14, Hobson hit two career coaching milestones, surpassing the 500-win mark for a career, and winning his 100th game at FHSU. On Dec. 7, 2013, Hobson recorded his 500th career win in the 67-53 victory at Missouri Western. Hobson picked up his 100th win at FHSU in the regular season finale, a 55-39 victory over Northeastern State on Feb. 28, 2014.

Hobson has guided Fort Hays State to eight MIAA Tournament appearances, including the tournament final in 2014-15. He has now led FHSU to six consecutive 20-win seasons dating back to 2011-12 after there were just eight such seasons in the first 39 years of program history. The Tigers earned their second-ever 30-win season in 2014-15. He also guided FHSU to the top 25 of the national rankings in each of the last five years, including the top 10 in three of those four years.

Fort Hays State has seen 31 All-MIAA selections, including five first-team selections, under Hobson's guidance. He coached one of the best players in program history, Kate Lehman, who was the BennettRank.com NCAA Division II Player of the Year in 2015. She also earned All-America First Team honors from the WBCA, Daktronics, Division II Bulletin, and BennettRank.com in 2015. Lehman was a four-time All-MIAA honoree, including first team honors her final three years, and a four-time MIAA All-Defensive Team selection, earning Defensive Player of the Year honors her final three seasons. FHSU has had eight MIAA All-Defensive Team selections on Hobson's watch.

Hobson owns three NAIA National Championships as a coach, all collected in seven years as head coach at Hastings (Neb.) College. Hobson won back-to-back NAIA National Championships in his first two seasons (2001-02 & 2002-03) as head coach at Hastings and led the school to another National Championship in 2005-06. He was named NAIA Coach of the Year three times, all for the national championship seasons. The championship in 2001-02 was the first basketball championship at any college level, men or women, in the state of Nebraska. Hobson was an associate head coach at Hastings in 2000-01, hired a year early to take over the program the following year. He is a member of the Hastings Athletic Hall of Fame as both an athlete and coach, along with the three national championship teams he coached. He also received the Outstanding Alumni Coach Award from Hastings.

Hobson's teams reached the 30-win plateau in five of his seven years as head coach at Hastings College. The 34 wins recorded by the 2001-02 team are the most wins ever for a women's basketball team in the state of Nebraska. His teams qualified for the NAIA National Tournament all seven years and reached the Final Four in five of the seven years. He led Hastings College to Great Plains Athletic Conference regular season championships in 2004, 2006 and 2007 and conference tournament championships in 2002, 2003 and 2007. In his time at Hastings College, Hobson accumulated a record of 211-40.

Prior to his stint at Hastings College, Hobson was head women's basketball coach at Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kan., from 1997-2000. At BCCC, he accumulated a record of 78-22 in three seasons, guiding the Cougars to a KJCCC West Division Championship and Region VI Final Four appearance in 1998-99, and a Region VI Championship and fifth place finish at the NJCAA National Tournament in 1999-2000. The 1999-2000 team set a school record for wins in a season (34).

Hobson began his collegiate coaching career as the head coach of the Cloud County Community College women's basketball program from 1983-1989, where he compiled a record of 124-44 in six seasons. He guided the Thunderbirds to the Region VI finals in 1984-85 and 1985-86.

As a player, Hobson was a two-time all-conference and All-District 11 selection for Hastings College in 1980 and 1981. He played two seasons at Barton County Community College prior to the two years at Hastings College, garnering all-conference and all-region honors in 1979.

Hobson earned an associate's degree from Barton County Community College in 1979 and a bachelor's degree from Hastings College in Business Administration in 1981. He earned a master's degree in Sports Administration from the United States Sports Academy in Mobile, Ala., in 1989.

Hobson is a native of Hardy, Neb. He and his wife, Becky, have two children, Samantha and Cash. Samantha played golf at FHSU for four years and Cash is now a member of the men's golf team at FHSU.
