SERIES HISTORY

Overall: Fort Hays State leads, 36-18

Current Streak: FHSU W7

Last Meeting: #5 Fort Hays State never trailed in a 71-44 victory over the Lions in the MIAA quarterfinals last season in Hays (3/3/21).

LOOKING AHEAD

The Tigers host Pittsburg State on Saturday, January 22 beginning at 2 p.m. before playing seven of their final 10 regular season games on the road.

QUICK HITS

- FHSU leads DII with an assist/turnover ratio of 1.48, while Jaden Hobbs tops all DII players at 4.57.
- Whitney Randall has scored in double figures in each of the last five games against Missouri Southern.
- A win Thursday would give the Tigers double-digit home wins for the 12th season in a row.
- Katie Wagner and Whitney Randall have both scored in double figures in each of the last five games this season.
- With 297 wins at FHSU, Tony Hobson ranks fifth in wins amongst MIAA head coaches. Nine more wins and he will tie ESU's Brandon Schneider (1998-10) for fourth with 306 wins.
- The Tigers are ranked second in this week's WBCA DII Coaches Poll for the second week in a row. FHSU is 2-1 all-time as the second-ranked team.
- Fort Hays State has now occupied each spot in the top five of the coaches poll at some point this season.

FORT HAYS STATE NOTES

Home is Where the Wins Are

- The Tigers have won double digit home games 11 years in a row. FHSU has won at least 10 home games in 12 of Hobson's 13 seasons at FHSU.
- FHSU has not lost more than two games at home since 2011-12.
- Fort Hays State has not lost consecutive home games since January 15 & 19, 2011 (PSU, ESU).
- The Tigers are 142-11 at home since the start of the 2012-13 season (.928 winning percentage).
- FHSU is 183-28 (.867) all-time at home under Tony Hobson, including a 112-23 record in conference games and a 71-5 mark in non-conference games.
- The Tigers finished 2018-19 with an 18-1 record inside Gross Memorial Coliseum, tied for the most home wins in a single season in program history (18-1 in 2014-15).

Opening the Year Right

- The Tigers opened the year with seven-straight wins this season, tied for the fourth-longest winning streak to open a season in program history.

Year	Consecutive Wins to Start Season
18-19	15
15-16	10
12-13	10
21-22	7
17-18	7
11-12	7
06-07	7
19-20	6
16-17	6
09-10	6

- The Tigers have won their last 18 season openers, the longest such streak in program history. FHSU is 36-17 in season openers in program history.
- Fort Hays State has also won its last 18 home openers, with the last loss coming at the start of the 2003-04 season (70-88 vs. Southwestern College). The Tigers are 26-4 in home openers since joining the NCAA Division II in 1992-93.

Non Conference? No Problem!

The Tigers have won their last 49 non-conference regular season games and 82 of their last 83. The streak is even longer at home, as the Tigers have not lost a regular season non-conference game inside Gross Memorial Coliseum since 2008, winning the last 61 such contests. Coach Hobson is 90-5 in regular season non-conference games, including a 63-2 mark at home.

Roster Breakdown

- Fort Hays State returns nine letterwinners and added five newcomers, including two DI transfers and three true freshmen.
- The Tigers bring back 88.6 percent of its offensive production after losing just four players that combined to score an average of 8.2 points per game.
- This year's roster consists of two seniors, one junior, two sophomores and nine freshmen. Years listed reflect number of years of eligibility remaining, not necessarily academic year.
- Players hail from five different states, including five players from Kansas and Nebraska, two from Oklahoma and one from Colorado and Iowa.
- 11 players signed with FHSU out of high school, while three players on the roster are transfers.

Player of the Week

Katie Wagner was named MIAA Athlete of the Week on November 17 after averaging 24.5 points and 12.0 rebounds per game and shooting 70.4 percent from the floor. She led the Tigers in points and rebounds in both wins during opening weekend, tallying a career-high 23 points and nine rebounds against SEOSU before racking up 26 points and 15 rebounds against USF. Both totals were personal-bests for the second-year freshman, who recorded her third double-double in the process. Fifteen of those points came in the fourth quarter on Saturday, helping the Tigers hold off a late Cougar run. It was the first 15-15 game by a Tiger since 2017.

Preseason Prognostications

Fort Hays State sits atop the preseason MIAA Coaches Poll and is tied for first with Central Missouri in the Media Poll. It is the second time the Tigers have topped the coaches preseason poll and the 10th year in a row the Tigers have been in the top five.

All-Conference Honors

Fort Hays State received six MIAA postseason awards last season, including first team honors to Jaden Hobbs and Whitney Randall, All-Defensive team honors to Cydney Bergmann, honorable mention status for Bergmann and Olivia Hollenbeck and Coach of the Year to Tony Hobson. It is the first time the Tigers have had multiple first team all-conference selections since 1994-95 (Kris Osthoff & Kristin Wiebe). Bergmann is the ninth Tiger to be listed on the MIAA All-Defensive team and the first since current assistant coach Paige Lunsford in 2015-16. Hollenbeck is the first Tiger freshman to earn all-conference status since Kate Lehman in 2011-12. This is Hobson's fourth MIAA Coach of the Year honor.

Milestones

- Whitney Randall eclipsed 1,000 career points in the MIAA Quarterfinals against Missouri Southern, becoming the 22nd Tiger to reach that milestone. She is the seventh player to do so under Hobson. It was the third consecutive year the Tigers have had an individual reach 1,000 career points (Kacey Kennett 2019-20, Tatyana Legette 2018-19).
- Jaden Hobbs went over 1,000 collegiate points in the regular season finale at Northwest Missouri State. She scored 308 points in two seasons at Oklahoma State and has scored 753 points over the last two seasons at FHSU.
- Hobbs dished out 155 assists last season, second-most in a single season at FHSU despite playing just 26 games. Her average of 6.0 assists per game is the most in a single season in Tiger history.
- Hobbs made 70 3-pointers in just 26 games last season, fifth-most in a single season at FHSU. She set the program record by hitting 44.9 percent from behind the arc.

FORT HAYS STATE NOTES

Trophy SZN

The Tigers won their third regular season MIAA championship over the last seven years. It is FHSU's 10th regular season conference title all-time and the 12th conference championship overall. Only one school has won more MIAA regular season titles since FHSU joined the league in 2006-07 (WU 4, FHSU 3, UCM 3, ESU 2, MWSU 2, PSU 1, NWMSU 1).

18 and Over

Fort Hays State reached 18 MIAA wins for the fourth time last season. That total has been reached by a conference team 12 times since the Tigers joined the MIAA (2006-07); four by the Tigers, three by UCM and once by five other schools.

20 Wins Now the Norm

The Tigers have now won at least 20 games in each of the last 10 seasons after doing so just eight times over the first 42 years of the program. FHSU had never recorded more than two consecutive 20-win seasons before the current streak began in 2011-12 (1989-90 and 1990-91, 2004-05 and 2005-06). Tony Hobson has coached the team to 10 of its 18 20-win seasons, more than all other coaches combined. The next-best active streak of 20-win seasons in the MIAA is five (UCM). It is also the longest active streak in all Division II.

Making it a Habit

After reaching the NCAA Tournament once in its first 23 years in the Association, Fort Hays State has now been selected to compete in the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship six times over the last seven seasons.

Nationally Recognized

- Fort Hays State is ranked second in this week's WBCA DII Coaches Poll.
- The Tigers spent three weeks ranked first in the WBCA DII Coaches Poll earlier this season. FHSU has been in the top spot of four poll releases during the DII era, including two in December 2015 and the two this season.
- This is the sixth season in which the Tigers have been ranked in the top five of the WBCA DII Coaches poll, with each coming over the last eight years.
- The Tigers been mentioned in the national polls in 10 straight seasons and 11 years overall.

Century Mark

FHSU has 25 100-point outings in its illustrious history.The 100-59 win over Rogers State two years ago (2/20/20) was the first time FHSU scored 100 points against a Division II opponent since 2013 (114-86 vs Newman, 1/26/13). 13 of those 100-point performances, more than half, have come under Hobson.

All-Time Winningest Head Coach

Tony Hobson won his 218th career victory at Fort Hays State University on January 5, 2019 against Southwest Baptist, giving him the most head coaching wins in program history.

Sharp Shooting Leads to Victory

The Tigers are 121-4 under coach Hobson when shooting 45 percent or better from the floor.

Overtime Specialists

The Tigers have won nine consecutive overtime contests, dating back to the final game of the 2012-13 season (3/9/13 vs UCM in KC).

Class of the Conference

The Tigers have 195 victories since the start of the 2014-15 season, the most of any MIAA program.The Tigers have reached the 20-win plateau in ten consecutive seasons, far and away the longest active stretch in the conference (UCM five seasons).

Tony Hobson enters his 14th season as head coach of the Fort Hays State women's basketball program in 2021-22. Hobson is one of the most successful collegiate women's basketball coaches in the nation, entering his 30th year overall with a career record of 695-211 (.767). He ranks ninth in win percentage among active coaches in NCAA Division II with a four-year college win percentage of .773 (493-145). Hobson is the winningest coach in program history, posting a record of 282-105 in 13 seasons at Fort Hays State (.729).

The Tigers have qualified for the NCAA DII Championship Tournament six times over the last seven years, including each of the last four. FHSU has twice reached the Central Region Championship game under Hobson in addition to three MIAA regular season titles and one MIAA Tournament championship.

Hobson helped the Tigers navigate an unprecedented season in 2020-21, leading the team to a 20-2 regular season record that consisted entirely of conference games. The Tigers tied the league record for MIAA wins in a season while winning the regular season title for the third time. FHSU advanced to the conference title game before playing in the Central Region semifinals, ultimately finishing the season with a 22-4 record. Jaden Hobbs was a WBCA All-America honorable mention selection, while Hobbs and Whitney Randall were both first team All-MIAA selections. Olivia Hollenbeck and Cydney Bergmann were both honorable mention All-MIAA picks with Bergmann also picking up All-Defensive Team honors. Randall was also named the MIAA Women's Winter Student-Athlete of the Year.

Hobson guided the Tigers to their third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Central Region Championship after the 2019-20 season. FHSU turned in a 23-7 record, finishing 13-6 in MIAA play and reaching the MIAA semifinals for the seventh time. The Tigers were ranked as high as fifth in the WBCA Coaches Poll and third in the D2SIDA Media Poll. Three Tigers earned All-MIAA honors, including second-teamer Kacey Kennett, Jaden Hobbs on the third team and Belle Barbieri receiving honorable mention status.

Hobson and the Tigers posted the best season in the programs NCAA Division II era in 2018-19 after winning both the MIAA regular season and tournament titles. FHSU finished the year 32-2, the most wins since the team joined the NCAA and the second-most in program history. The Tigers finished the season ranked fifth in the WBCA Coaches Poll, their best-ever finish in the DII era. FHSU was ranked as high as No. 3 in the coaches poll while reaching the top spot in the D2SIDA Media Poll. Five players earned All-MIAA status for the third time in the last four seasons, including the MIAA Player of the Year in Tatyana Legette. Hobson was named Coach of the Year by the MIAA for the third time, earned WBCA Central Region Coach of the Year honors while being a finalist for National Coach of the Year and was honored as the KBCA Women's Four-Year College Coach of the Year.

Hobson led the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years in 2017-18, earning his third NCAA Tournament victory before falling to eventual National Champion Central Missouri. The Tigers also reached the MIAA Championship game for the second time in history. The Tigers finished the season 26-7, compiling 20-plus wins for the seventh-straight season and totaling the third-most wins in program history. Five players were named All-MIAA.

Fort Hays State defeated a top-ranked team for the second year in a row in 2016-17, knocking off then No. 1 Emporia State (12/10/16). The Tigers advanced to the MIAA tournament for the sixth year in a row, moving on to Kansas City after a first round win over Missouri Southern. FHSU finished the season 22-8, recording the sixth-consecutive 20-win season, the longest such streak in program history.

The Tigers reached the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year in 2015-16, making it to the Central Region Quarterfinal round. The team picked up the No. 1 ranking in the WBCA Coaches Poll for the first time in program history midway through the season after defeating then No. 1 Emporia State (12/5/15), the first Tiger victory over a top-ranked team since joining the NCAA. In addition, Hobson picked up his second-straight MIAA Coach of the Year award.

Hobson guided the team to a record of 30-4 overall and the program's first MIAA Regular Season Championship in 2014-15. Fort Hays State hosted the Central Regional of the NCAA Tournament as the region's top seed and reached the Central Regional Final. It was the furthest Fort Hays State had ever advanced in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers reached the No. 2 ranking nationally during the regular season and finished at No. 8 in the final poll. Hobson earned MIAA Coach of the Year honors in 2015 for guiding FHSU to its first MIAA title. He was named WBCA Central Region Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the National Coach of the Year.

In 2013-14, Hobson hit two career coaching milestones, surpassing the 500-wins mark for a career, and winning his 100th game at FHSU. On Dec. 7, 2013, Hobson recorded his 500th career win in the 67-53 victory at Missouri Western. Hobson picked up his 100th win at FHSU in the regular season finale, a 55-39 victory over Northeastern State on Feb. 28, 2014.

Hobson has guided Fort Hays State to 11 MIAA Tournament appearances, including seven semifinal appearances, three championship games and one title in 2019. He has now led FHSU to nine consecutive 20-win seasons dating back to 2011-12 after there were just eight such seasons in the first 39 years of program history. He has led the Tigers to a pair of 30-win seasons.

Fort Hays State has seen 39 All-MIAA selections, including six first-team selections, under Hobson's guidance. He coached one of the best players in program history, Kate Lehman, who was the BennettRank.com NCAA Division II Player of the Year in 2015. She also earned All-America First Team honors from the WBCA, Daktronics, Division II Bulletin, and BennettRank.com in 2015. Lehman was a four-time All-MIAA honoree, including first team honors her final three years, and a four-time MIAA All-Defensive Team selection, earning Defensive Player of the Year honors her final three seasons. FHSU has had eight MIAA All-Defensive Team selections on Hobson's watch.

Hobson owns three NAIA National Championships as a coach, all collected in seven years as head coach at Hastings (Neb.) College. Hobson won back-to-back NAIA National Championships in his first two seasons (2001-02 & 2002-03) as head coach at Hastings and led the school to another National Championship in 2005-06. He was named NAIA Coach of the Year three times, all for the national championship seasons. The championship in 2001-02 was the first basketball championship at any college level, men or women, in the state of Nebraska. Hobson was an associate head coach at Hastings in 2000-01, hired a year early to take over the program the following year. He is a member of the Hastings Athletic Hall of Fame as both an athlete and coach, along with the three national championship teams he coached. He also received the Outstanding Alumni Coach Award from Hastings.

Hobson's teams reached the 30-win plateau in five of his seven years as head coach at Hastings College. The 34 wins recorded by the 2001-02 team are the most wins ever for a women's basketball team in the state of Nebraska. His teams qualified for the NAIA National Tournament all seven years and reached the Final Four in five of the seven years. He led Hastings College to Great Plains Athletic Conference regular season championships in 2004, 2006 and 2007 and conference tournament championships in 2002, 2003 and 2007. In his time at Hastings College, Hobson accumulated a record of 211-40.

Prior to his stint at Hastings College, Hobson was head women's basketball coach at Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kan., from 1997-2000. At BCCC, he accumulated a record of 78-22 in three seasons, guiding the Cougars to a KJCCC West Division Championship and Region VI Final Four appearance in 1998-99, and a Region VI Championship and fifth place finish at the NJCAA National Tournament in 1999-2000. The 1999-2000 team set a school record for wins in a season (34).

Hobson began his collegiate coaching career as the head coach of the Cloud County Community College women's basketball program from 1983-1989, where he compiled a record of 124-44 in six seasons. He guided the Thunderbirds to the Region VI finals in 1984-85 and 1985-86.

As a player, Hobson was a two-time all-conference and All-District II selection for Hastings College in 1980 and 1981. He played two seasons at Barton County Community College prior to the two years at Hastings College, garnering all-conference and all-region honors in 1979.

Hobson earned an associate's degree from Barton County Community College in 1979 and a bachelor's degree from Hastings College in Business Administration in 1981. He earned a master's degree in Sports Administration from the United States Sports Academy in Mobile, Ala., in 1989.

A native of Hardy, Neb., Hobson resides in Hays with his wife Becky. The couple has two children, Samantha and Cash, who both played golf at FHSU.
