FORT HAYS STATE NOTES

Making it a Habit

After reaching the NCAA Tournament once in its first 23 years in the Association, Fort Hays State has now been selected to compete in the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship eight times over the last 10 seasons.

20 Wins Now the Norm

- Fort Hays State reached 20 wins for a 13th-consecutive season last year, extending the longest active streak of 20-win seasons in Division II. It is tied for the sixth-longest active streak of 20-win seasons across all NCAA Divisions.
- FHSU reached the 20-win plateau just eight times over the first 42 years of the program before the current streak began in 2011-12, including no more than two consecutive 20-win campaigns during that time (twice).
- The next-best active streak of 20-win seasons in the MIAA is three (MVWSU, MSSU), while the next-best streak in DII is Drury with 11.
- Only five DI programs have longer active stretches of 20-win seasons, including UConn (31), Baylor (24), Stanford (23), Florida Gulf Coast (20) and Louisville (14).

Major Contributors Return

- The Tigers return 68.4 percent of their scoring offense from last season, 73.7 percent of their rebounding and 61.7 percent of their assists from a year ago.
- Seven players on this year's roster are entering at least their third year in the program. Katie DeGarmo and Olivia Hollenbeck are in their fifth year on the team, while Kate Dilsaver and Megan Earney are starting their fourth years as Tigers. Sasha Koenig, Ellie Stearns and Brooke Loewe are all beginning their third season in Hays.

Newcomers Ready to Go

- Second-year head coach Talia Kahrs added four players to the roster this year, including two transfers and two freshmen. Transfers include Bailey Wilborn (Wichita, Kan.), a senior that spent time at Maine and Wyoming, and Sarah Lawless (Shawnee, Kan.), a junior transfer from Cloud County CC. True freshmen on this year's team include Callie Ott (Omaha, Neb.) and Maddy Powell (Wake Forest, N.C.).

Home Sweet Home

- The women are 570-140 at home since Gross Memorial Coliseum opened in 1973, good for a winning percentage better than 80 percent.
- The Tigers have won at least 10 home games in 36 of the 51 seasons inside the Coliseum.
- FHSU has only two losing records at home during the GMC era.
- The Tigers are 29-5 in home openers during the NCAA DII era, including 18-straight wins from 2004 to 2021 before the Tigers lost on a buzzer beater to Minnesota State in the 2022 home opener.

Hollenbeck Named MIAA Athlete of the Week

Olivia Hollenbeck was named the first MIAA Athlete of the Week, presented by Southern Bank, of the 2024-25 season after averaging 24.0 points, 6.5 rebounds, 2.5 blocks and 2.5 steals per game in a pair of wins in St. Joseph, Mo. The graduate student opened the year with 29 points against Augustana, including 25 after halftime, one off her career-high of 30. She leads the MIAA and ranks ninth in DII with her 24.0 points per game. This is the first weekly MIAA honor for the four-time All-MIAA selection and it is the third time in the last four years that FHSU has had the first MIAA women's basketball Athlete of the Week of the season.

Last Meeting with Tabor

The Tigers used a dominant second half to cruise past Tabor last season in Hays, 65-41 (12/11/23). The teams were tied at 13 after the first quarter and the Tigers led by seven at halftime, 36-29, before FHSU held the Bluejays to just 12 second-half points. FHSU forced 22 turnovers thanks to 14 steals. Clary Donica led the team with 17 points, her most in a Tiger uniform, on 8-of-10 shooting. Katie DeGarmo and Emma Ruddle both added 10 points each. Full box score on page 36.

Career vs. the Bluejays

- Katie DeGarmo has scored in double figures in both of her career matchups with the Bluejays, averaging 13.0 ppg.
- Sasha Koenig recorded a career-high two rebounds and two assists in the 2022 game against Tabor.
- Ellie Stearns poked away a career-high four steals in the 2023 contest against Tabor.

Last Time Out

The Tigers opened their home schedule with a pair of 20-plus point wins, defeating Adams State 77-52 and beating MSU Denver 75-52. Katie Wagner led the Tigers with 19 points and 10 rebounds in the win over the Grizzlies before Talexa Weeter recorded her first career double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds against the Roadrunners. FHSU had four players score in double figures in both games. Full box scores on pages 35 and 36.

Scouting the Bluejays

Tabor is 5-2 so far this season, including a 3-0 record in KCAC play. The Bluejays were picked to win the league according to the KCAC Preseason Coaches and Media Polls. They have won their last three games after dropping two of three in early November. Tabor averaged 68.7 points per game, with three players averaging more than nine points per game. Lillie Veer is putting up 15.7 ppg, while Alyvia Owens averages 11.6 points per night.

FORT HAYS STATE NOTES

DeGarmo Named MIAA Championship Most Outstanding Player

Katie DeGarmo (formerly Wagner) posted three-straight double-doubles in the MIAA Championship tournament, averaging 19.3 points, 11.0 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 2.3 steals in three tournament games to earn Most Outstanding Player honors.

The Big 3-0

Fort Hays State reached the 30-win plateau for the fourth time in program history in 2021-22. FHSU has three 30-win seasons since 2014-15, while the rest of the MIAA has one 30-win campaign combined during that span (UCM 2017-18).

18 and Over

The Tigers have finished a season with at least 18 MIAA wins five times since joining the league in 2006-07, more than any other school during that span (UCM 4, MWVSU 3, UNK 2, MSSU 1, NWMSU 1, PSU 1, WU 1).

Trophy SZN

The Tigers won their fourth regular season MIAA championship and their second MIAA postseason tournament championship in 2021-22. FHSU now has 11 regular season conference title all-time and three conference tournament titles. No school has won more MIAA regular season titles since FHSU joined the league in 2006-07 (FHSU 4, WU 4, UCM 3, MWVSU 3, ESU 2, PSU 1, NWMSU 1, MSSU 1, UNK 1).

Century Mark

FHSU has 25 100-point outings in its illustrious history, most recently a 100-59 win over Rogers State (2/20/20), which was the first time FHSU scored 100 points against a Division II opponent since 2013 (114-86 vs Newman, 1/26/13).

Class of the Conference

The Tigers have 259 victories over the last 10-plus seasons (since 2014-15), the most of any MIAA program. The Tigers have reached the 20-win plateau in 13 consecutive seasons, far and away the longest active stretch in the conference (MWVSU, MSSU three seasons).

FORT HAYS STATE
Student Assistant Coach
2011-12 (1 season)

Talia Kahrs enters her second season as Head Women's Basketball Coach at Fort Hays State University in 2024-25. She was named the seventh head coach in program history in the spring of 2023 after serving as the primary assistant coach for 11 years. Kahrs has been associated with the women's basketball program for each of the last 16 seasons, including playing for the Tigers for three seasons (2008-11), serving as a student assistant coach for one year (2011-12), working as the assistant coach for Tony Hobson for 11 seasons (2012-23) and working as the head coach for one year (2023-present).

Kahrs led the Tigers to the NCAA Division II Central Region semifinals in her first season as head coach in 2023-24, turning in a record of 25-8. She helped the Tigers extend the longest active streak of 20-win seasons in NCAA Division II, doing so for the 13th-consecutive campaign. Fort Hays State reached the MIAA Championship Tournament title game after finishing in a tie for second in the league standings. She coached a pair of All-MIAA performers in Katie Wagner and Olivia Hollenbeck, with Wagner being named MIAA Player of the Year, first team All-MIAA, MIAA All-Defensive Team, MIAA Championship Tournament Most Outstanding Player, D2CCA All-Central Region first team, WBCA All-America honorable mention and the winner of the MIAA Ken B. Jones Award, which is given to the top student-athlete in the conference across all sports. The team posted the top GPA in the MIAA, finishing 13th in Division II with a team GPA of 3.755. 13 of her players have been listed on the MIAA Academic Honor Roll, three have earned the MIAA Academic Excellence Award, two have received the MIAA Scholar-Athlete Award and four have been named CSC Academic All-District honorees.

The Tryon, Neb. native came to Hays from Hastings College, where she redshirted her first year out of high school in 2007-08 and then transferred to be part of Tony Hobson's first team at FHSU in 2008-09. Competing at McPherson County High School during her prep career, Kahrs was nominated for McDonald's High School All-America consideration. She was the North Platte Telegraph Area Player of the Year multiple times and was an all-state selection in both basketball and volleyball. Kahrs (formerly Miller) played 52 games in three seasons for FHSU, but unfortunately saw portions of her collegiate playing career affected by injuries. She decided to become a student assistant coach in her final year of college (2011-12) and has been on the sidelines helping coach the Tigers into one of the most powerful programs in NCAA Division II ever since.

Kahrs helped FHSU become the winningest team in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association in her 12 years as an assistant or student assistant, guiding the Tigers to a record of 293-78. FHSU won at least 20 games in each of those seasons, including three seasons with 30 or more victories. Kahrs helped the Tigers to six MIAA Championships, including four regular season (2014-15, 2018-19, 2020-21, 2021-22) and two tournament (2019, 2022) titles as an assistant. She also helped the Tigers to the No. 1 seed in the Central Region of the NCAA Tournament four times and the Tigers have been in the NCAA Tournament seven of the last nine years. They were regional finalists three times in that span (2015, 2019, 2022).

The Tigers held the No. 1 ranking in the WBCA Top 25 Poll five times during Kahrs' time as an assistant, including twice during the 2015-16 season and three times during the 2021-22 season. The Tigers reached the Top 5 of the poll six out of the last eight years. Even with the program's great success on the court, the Tigers have been very successful in the classroom as well, ranking among the top 25 teams in cumulative GPA nine times since 2011-12. FHSU owned the best team GPA in NCAA Division II for 2021-22.

The Tigers garnered 42 All-MIAA selections in Kahrs' time as an assistant. She helped coach three players to All-America status in that span, including Kate Lehman, Tatyana Legette and Jaden Hobbs. Lehman was the 2015 MIAA Player of the Year and three-time Defensive Player of the Year while earning All-America First Team honors by four organizations and BennettRank.com NCAA Division II Player of the Year honors as a senior. Tatyana Legette was the MIAA Player of the Year in 2019 while earning a pair of All-American honors. Jaden Hobbs was a WBCA All-America selection in 2021.

Kahrs earned a bachelor's degree in Health and Human Performance with an emphasis in Teaching and Coaching from Fort Hays State University in 2012 before completing a master of science degree in Health and Human Performance at FHSU in 2015. She and her husband Garrett Kahrs have one daughter, Malaki.
