STATE FARM STADIUM

With its retractable field and roof, Glendale's State Farm Stadium is unlike any other venue in North America.

The exterior design was the vision of renowned architect Peter Eisenman along with HOK Sport. The basic form of the design takes its cue from a barrel cactus and offers alternating vertical slots with smooth panels.

The stadium was constructed with a roof containing two large panels that retract to uncover the entire playing field.

The stadium's most unique feature is a rollout field consisting of a 152,000 square-foot concrete stadium floor with an embedded utility grid. The natural grass field rests in a retractable, 12-million pound tray outside the stadium until game day for maximum sun exposure and nourishment. The tray takes approximately 45 minutes to move inside the stadium and rests atop tracks as it rolls in and out on a steel wheel set powered by small electric motors.

The stadium has permanent seating for 63,000 but expands to hold approximately 73,000 for mega-events like the PlayStation® Fiesta Bowl, College Football National Championship game and the Super Bowl. The stadium has a total of 88 luxury suites on two levels, club seating for 7,000 with access to private club lounge areas, lower bowl seating for 29,000 and upper deck seating for approximately 26,000 accommodate patrons. All seats are individual chairs with armrests and cup holders.

The press box, located in the southwest corner, accommodates approximately 154 working media members. There is also a national television broadcast booth, a home coaches booth, a visiting coaches booth, an instant replay booth, an officials booth, a scoreboard and public address control booth, a stats booth and four radio booths.

The 2011 Bowl Championship Series (BCS) National Championship Game pitting Auburn and Oregon drew 78,603 fans, the largest crowd in the history of State Farm Stadium.

FIESTA BOWL TROPHY BY MOLINA

THE PLAN

In 2002 the Fiesta Bowl Board of Directors decided it needed a more unique trophy to compete with the trophies of the other national bowls – something that would make a statement. The original Fiesta Bowl Trophy was small, made of wood and slightly resembled the Heisman Trophy. Recognizing the need for something slightly more impressive, the board had in mind the perfect man for the job. Al Molina, a Fiesta Bowl Yellow Jacket Committee member, happened to be an internationally-recognized jeweler. They tasked Molina with, what would become, a masterpiece of a trophy. With no budget, no guidelines and free rein over the design, Molina and members of the executive committee set out to create a truly historical work of art. Molina, refusing to create anything short of a masterpiece, told the board he would make the trophy on his own "nickel."

THE CREATION

With just a little more than three months to bring the idea to life, a team of experts set to work under the leadership of Al Molina and head designer Christopher Olson, who is considered the "champion of the trophy." The trophy's foundation entailed an intricate fabrication of five different shades of marble and granite, upholding the stunning complexities of the trophy. The center column was created using lapis lazuli, one of the most sought after stones in the world. Created to simulate the Arizona sunset, it was hand-carved in 18-karat yellow, green, red, peach and white gold. The sterling silver dome alone, enhanced with multi-colored windows created in jeweler's enamel, took more than 96 hours to complete.

Todd McFarlane, Grammy- and Emmy-winning producer/director and founder of one of America's top action figure manufactures, McFarlane Toys, used his rare talent for detail and accuracy to create the football players. He cast the eight perfectly-designed players in sterling silver to live on each side and corner of the structure. Ken Wilson, a former Disney "Imagineer" and inventor of the infamous lightsabers used in Star Wars, created the one-of-a-kind LED lighting display within the trophy.

Weighing more than 200 pounds, the trophy design team knew even the strongest football team wouldn't be able to hold it up in celebration after their Fiesta Bowl victory. This realization sparked the idea of the removable football, but not just any ole' football. Made of 18-karat gold with jeweler's enameled Fiesta Bowl sunburst marks, this football flaunts 2,187 pavé-set diamonds. The stones weigh a total of 50 carats, making up the stripes on the extravagant football, which is two-thirds regulation size.

Not one element of the design was created at random. The compass on the base of the trophy signifies the path of life. The players at the base depict those who support and uphold the team while the players above represent those who guard and protect the ball. The Greek word Nyvk, meaning "the goddess of victory," is engraved on the curtain above the players. Designed in lotus flowers, the dome signifies purity of strength, power and heart of the victors. Finally, the perfection of the diamonds on the football represents the dedication of the winning team to their sport.

After more than 3,000 hours of work, along with a frantic two a.m. call to fix a crack in the dome the night before the big reveal, the Molina Design Team was ready to unveil the masterpiece – a trophy like none other in collegiate athletics.

GAME MATCHUP

TCU VS MICHIGAN

TCU JUNIOR CORNERBACK JOSH NEWTON #24

TCU

TCU THIS SEASON

The surprise of the season, the No. 3 TCU Horned Frogs enter the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl undefeated in the regular season after missing out on the past three Bowl Seasons. Led by Heisman finalist Max Duggan at quarterback, the Horned Frogs' explosive air-raid scheme is the sixth-highest scoring offense in the country at 40.3 points per game. Duggan leads the Big 12 in passing yards (3,321), passing touchdowns (30) and yards per completion (13.9). On the ground, junior Kendre Miller has rushed for 1,342 yards with his 17 rushing touchdowns ranking sixth nationally. Defensively, TCU is top 25 in pass efficiency defense, 15th in the nation with a plus-nine turnover margin and has amassed 14 interceptions including two pick-sixes.

MATCHUP HISTORY

The 2022 Vrbo Fiesta Bowl will mark the first-ever meeting between TCU and Michigan. TCU makes its second appearance in the Fiesta Bowl in program history, following a narrow 17-10 loss to Boise State in 2010.

TCU HEAD COACH

TCU is led by the 2022 Walter Camp Coach of the Year Sonny Dykes, who joined the Horned Frogs following four seasons as SMU's head coach. In leading TCU to its first bowl game since the 2018 Cheez-It Bowl in downtown Phoenix, Dykes has turned around the TCU program in his first season at the helm. The Horned Frogs' 12 victories heading into the Fiesta Bowl nearly matches the program's 16 total wins over the last three seasons.

MICHIGAN

MICHIGAN THIS SEASON

The Wolverines claimed their second-straight conference championship this year and will return to their second consecutive CFP Semifinal game. The Big Ten champs won 13 games in a season for the first time in program history and now look to secure their first National Championship since 1997. Led by sophomore quarterback J.J. McCarthy, the Michigan offense ranks seventh in the country with 40.1 points per game and features the nation's fifth-leading rushing attack with 243 rush yards per game. Michigan ranks third in the FBS in total defense and fifth in points per game, only allowing 13.3. The Wolverines are top 25 in pass efficiency defense and sport an impressive plus-eight turnover margin and 12 interceptions.

MATCHUP HISTORY

The 2022 Vrbo Fiesta Bowl will mark the first-ever meeting between TCU and Michigan. Michigan returns to the Valley of the Sun for its second Fiesta Bowl appearance in program history, the first being in 1986 with current head coach Jim Harbaugh playing quarterback for the Wolverines.

MICHIGAN HEAD COACH

In his eighth season at the helm of his alma mater, Big Ten Coach of the Year Jim Harbaugh has guided Michigan to back-to-back Big Ten Championships and CFP Semifinal appearances. He owns 74-24 record with the Wolverines, including five 10-win seasons, and a 103-45 overall coaching record in the FBS. Under Harbaugh's leadership, the 2022 Vrbo Fiesta Bowl will be Michigan's fourth berth in a New Year's Six Bowl in the last seven seasons.

GAME PREVIEW

VS

MICHIGAN

MICHIGAN SOPHOMORE QB J.J. MCCARTHY #9

The Vrbo Fiesta Bowl defines ground-breaking, tradition-smashing, copycat-inducing bowl game football. The Fiesta Bowl is nothing if not a game of firsts. You name it, it probably originated here. First prime-time national championship game. First BCS national championship game. First sideline marriage proposal after scoring a game-winning two-point conversion. (She said yes.) You cannot spell "first" without "Vrbo Fiesta Bowl."

Here we go again.

The game between No. 2 Michigan and No. 3 TCU in the College Football Playoff Semifinal provides a few more reasons to hoist a glass in celebration this New Year's Eve. The matchup marks the first meeting between two of the most storied programs in college football. Two of the founding fathers, if you will. Each school has been playing (and mostly winning) since the late 1800s. One will make its first appearance in the CFP National Championship Game shortly.

The historic first meeting is hardly the only milestone reached here. TCU (12-1) is the first school from Texas to make the CFP since this version of the playoff system was adopted in 2014. (And why did you have to bring up 2014, anyway? The Horned Frogs were passed over in the final rankings that year in what many in Fort Worth and in the college football world believed to be a questionable choice.) Be that as it may, TCU is present now, with first-year coach Sonny Dykes and Heisman Trophy finalist Max Duggan leading an offense that averaged 40.3 points and 473 yards per game in the regular season.

"I have been doing this now for right around 30 years, and this is the most enjoyable football team I've ever coached," said Dykes, who moved to the other side of the Metroplex this season after spending the last four at SMU. "Really enjoy being around these players. They are crazy competitive. They have a tremendous work ethic. I think they embody everything that is good about college football."

Michigan also is making some history in its second appearance here. The Wolverines (13-0) enter the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl ranked No. 2 in the final CFP poll for the second straight season, and both their 13 victories this year and 25 victories over the last two are program records, which says something for a 143-year-old program.

"Just proud of our team, what they have accomplished," said Head Coach Jim Harbaugh, who owns a piece of history here, having scored two touchdowns to lead the Wolverines to a 27-23 victory over Nebraska in the 1986 Fiesta Bowl. "To be 13-0, I mean, my mouth has a hard time even forming that. We're excited for the challenge, to advance, and to see how we'll stack up in the playoffs."

Smash the Fiesta piñata and be ready for something new. Sometimes, it is a quarterback.

Both Michigan and TCU rode the elevated performance of a pair of signal-callers who were not penciled into the starting lineup in fall camp. Michigan sophomore J.J. McCarthy made his first career start in the second game of the regular season while displacing Cade McNamara, who led the Wolverines to a 12-1 season and CFP berth before a semifinal loss to eventual national champion Georgia last season. McCarthy passed for 229 yards and three touchdowns in his first start, a 56-10 victory over Hawai'i, completing 11-of-12 attempts in a near flawless debut. McCarthy had a 300-yard, three-touchdown game against Indiana and passed for three touchdowns two other games, including the 45-23 rout of Ohio State to win the Big Ten East division. McCarthy enters the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl with 2,376 yards passing and 20 touchdowns against only three interceptions.

"You know I love my quarterback," Harbaugh said. "I don't think there is anyone better. Our guy, he just never gets flustered. He never gets rattled. I have never seen him nervous one time."

But Harbaugh also acknowledged TCU's Duggan and his remarkable ascension this season. He was No. 2 on the depth chart despite starting 40 games in the previous four seasons, and he played in the season opener only after starter Chandler Morris suffered a knee injury late in the third quarter of a 38-13 victory over Colorado.

Duggan underwent a nine-hour heart surgery in early 2020 after doctors discovered he had been born with a heart condition called Wolff-Parkinson-White syndrome. The procedure included catheters in his neck and groin, and two days later he underwent emergency surgery when a blood clot developed. Duggan suffered a broken bone and a torn tendon during the 2020 season and played through it, limping to class rather than wearing a prescribed walking boot to prevent photos from appearing on social media. Duggan passed for 3,321 yards and 30 touchdowns and rushed for 404 yards and six more scores.

"I love Max," TCU cornerback Josh Newton told Texas Monthly. "He doesn't talk. He's like a lion. When the lion roars, the lion doesn't roar like the hyena. When he roars, everybody gets big eyes. I love playing with Max. Pure dog."

Neither Duggan nor McCarthy did all the heavy lifting on that side of the ball, of course. Michigan halfback and Walter Camp Player of the Year finalist Blake Corum rushed for 1,463 yards and 18 touchdowns, with 10 straight 100-yard games before suffering a knee injury against Illinois. What may have been considered a major blow at some programs simply opened the door for Michigan's next man up, Donovan Edwards. Edwards rushed for 216 yards against Ohio State with a cast on his fractured right hand and followed that with 185 yards rushing against Purdue to win Big Ten Championship Game MVP honors. Edwards had touchdowns runs of 75 and 85 yards to subdue Ohio State, and he added a 27-yard scoring run against Purdue.

The Wolverines did all that work behind a veteran offensive line that returned three starters from the group that won the 2021 Joe Moore Award as the best unit in the country, and added 2021 Rimington Award finalist center Olu Oluwatimi, a transfer from Virginia. The Wolverines average 243 yards rushing per game and 5.6 yards per carry with 38 rushing touchdowns. They are sixth in the FBS in rushing yards per game and second in touchdowns. Wideout Ronnie Bell leads the team with 56 receptions for 754 yards. The Wolverines rank seventh in the NCAA in scoring offense at 40.1 points per game.

"The guys are relentless competitors," Harbaugh said, "and every day they are about taking care of business on and off the field. They work and compete. They have a tremendous mindset … They all pull in the same direction and are tremendous, relentless competitors. What I have been looking at from TCU, I think we are built a lot in the same way."

There are a lot of parallels between the two. Halfback Kendre Miller is the Horned Frogs' top running threat, and he also brings gaudy numbers into the CFP Semifinal at the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl in what has become a breakthrough season. Miller has rushed for 1,342 yards and 17 touchdowns with 6.2 yards per carry. He has scored at least one touchdown in every game this season and has seven 100-yard games this season. In the Horned Frogs' 18-point comeback in a 38-28 regular-season victory over Kansas State, he rushed for 153 yards and a pair of second-half scores.

Speaking of, both teams are here because of their ability to sneer at deficits. Michigan beat Illinois on a last-second field goal to remain undefeated going into the Ohio State game. TCU spent a little more time on the high wire, overcoming deficits of 18, 17, eight, seven and seven points to make it through the Big 12 regular season undefeated. The Frogs also won on a last-second field at Baylor.

It seems fitting that a game as big as a CFP semifinal would feature programs that produced such larger-than-life legends as Tom Harmon and Sammy Baugh, Charles Woodson and Tom Lilly, Tom Brady and Davey O'Brien.

"We're excited for the next challenge," Dykes said.

Leave it to the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl to provide the platform.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

EVERY GAME COUNTS
The College Football Playoff (CFP) determines the national champion of the top division of college football. The format fits within the academic calendar and preserves the sport's unique and compelling regular season.

SELECTION COMMITTEE
The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.

TRADITION
The New Year's holiday period belongs to college football, with two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl Game and Sugar Bowl.

CHAMPIONSHIP MONDAY
The two winning teams from the Playoff Semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. The national championship game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

UNIVERSAL ACCESS
No team qualifies automatically, so every Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) team has equal access to the CFP based on its performance during the season.

REVENUE
The format produces revenue for all FBS schools and for Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) conferences that meet a predetermined threshold of grants-in-aid.

GOVERNANCE
University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve as the Board of Managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the CFP office in Irving, Texas, carries out the day-to-day responsibilities.

SELECTION COMMITTEE
A dedicated group of high integrity football experts, with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the selection committee are Rob Mullens (chair), Gary Barta, Frank Beamer, Paola Boivin, Joe Castiglione, Ken Hatfield, Chris Howard, Ronnie Lott, Terry Mohajir, Ray Odierno, R.C. Slocum, Todd Stansbury and Scott Stricklin.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

SELECTION COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES
- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinal sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's Six bowls.
- Create competitive matchups.
- Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances in specific bowls.
- Consider geography.

PARTICIPANTS IN THE NEW YEAR'S SIX BOWLS
Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the College Football Playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the Playoff Semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's Six bowls.

When not hosting Playoff Semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.
