ABOUT CHASE FIELD

These sidelines aren't what football fans are accustomed to seeing. After all, there's a dugout behind the visitor's bench, a bullpen behind the northern endzone and a scoreboard that includes runs, hits and errors. Chase Field, home of the 2023 National League Champion Arizona Diamondbacks, is one of only a handful of Major League Baseball stadiums that has been configured to accommodate a football game.

Chase Field is the home of the 2023 National League Champion Arizona Diamondbacks, as well as the 2001 World Champions. One of the preeminent entertainment venues in the Valley, the stadium is hosting its 13th Rate Bowl (formerly known as the Cheez-It Bowl and Cactus Bowl).

Chase Field sits in the heart of downtown Phoenix, only 4.3 miles from Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport and easily accessible via the Light Rail. The stadium debuted in 1998 as the first Major League Baseball stadium to feature a swimming pool and the only sports facility in the world featuring a retractable roof, air conditioning and a natural turf playing field, which has since been converted to synthetic grass.

The bowl game is played on natural grass, which is installed over the stadium's standard surface. Following the bowl game, the 75,000 square feet of Bermuda Sports Sod will be donated to Western School of Science and Technology in west Phoenix, Arizona. The ballpark covers approximately 1,300,000 square feet, including the playing surface, and is divided into five levels: the field, main concourse, press level, suite club level and upper concourse.

FREQUENCY COORDINATION

Media members should pre-coordinate their wireless devices online by December 24. Download and complete the online Frequency Coordination Form by visiting www.MediaRoom.RateBowl.com. Following submission, the requesting media outlet will receive a confirmation email to print and bring to the stadium on game day when the process is completed by turning on the device, checking the approved frequency and tagging it at the frequency coordination location.

Media outlets that do not utilize the pre-coordination option should obtain a Frequency Coordination Form at the Media Center at the Camelback Inn and must initiate the same approval process on game day in the digital media room. To minimize the possibility of interference during the Rate Bowl, all wireless microphones, intercoms, wireless video cameras and IFBs must be frequency coordinated (preferably in advance) and tagged (game day) before they can be used at the Rate Bowl. Cellular telephones and pagers are exempt from frequency coordination. Frequency coordinators Karl Voss and Jim Cole will be attending Media Day and stationed outside the Digital Media Room (field level, north end) prior to the game to screen all necessary equipment and affix tags. # RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS

RUTGERS THIS SEASON

Rutgers had a strong finish to the regular season, winning three of its final four games. The Scarlet Knights earned victories over Minnesota and Maryland, the latter which clinched bowl eligibility. Rutgers' 41-14 rout of Michigan State in the regular season finale secured the Scarlet Knights' first back-to-back winning seasons since 2011-12. Rutgers earned its second straight bowl invitation with quarterback Athan Kaliakmanis directing the offense. Kaliakmanis has thrown for 2,459 passing yards this season, eighth-most in Rutgers history. Rutgers has a strong ground attack led by senior running back Kyle Monangai. Across 11 games this season, Monangai notched career highs across the board with 256 carries, 1,279 rushing yards and 14 total touchdowns.

MATCHUP HISTORY

Rutgers and Kansas State have faced off once before in the 2006 Texas Bowl where Rutgers defeated Kansas State, 37-10. Rutgers is making its second all-time Rate Bowl appearance, nearly two decades after a 45-40 loss to Arizona State in 2005.

RUTGERS HEAD COACH

Head Coach Greg Schiano is in his fifth season back and 16th overall as the head football coach at Rutgers. The New Jersey native previously led the Scarlet Knights to new heights from 2001-11 before returning to the sidelines in 2020. Schiano is the all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history and has directed the Scarlet Knights to six bowl championships.

KANSAS STATE WILDCATS

KANSAS STATE THIS SEASON

Kansas State is one of only eight FBS schools to win at least eight games in each of the past four seasons. Kansas State is a dominant rushing team behind the trio of DJ Giddens, who declared for the NFL Draft, Dylan Edwards and quarterback Avery Johnson. Kansas State entered conference championship weekend with the No. 18 rushing offense in the country at 204.5 yards per game. Kansas State averages 5.86 rushing yards per carry and 6.5 offensive yards per play – both of which are the top marks in school history. Johnson showcased his dual threat talents with his 548 rushing yards and six touchdowns to rank second on the team behind Giddens. Johnson also threw for 2,517 yards and 22 touchdowns.

MATCHUP HISTORY

Rutgers and Kansas State have faced off once before in the 2006 Texas Bowl where Rutgers defeated Kansas State, 37-10. The Wildcats are making their Rate Bowl record fifth appearance with a 3-1 mark in their previous trips.

KANSAS STATE HEAD COACH

In five seasons, Wildcats Head Coach Chris Klieman has led the Wildcats to a 39-24 record and he is tied for the second most wins in school history with Mike Ahearn (1905-10). Under Klieman's leadership, Kansas State has won eight or more games in four of five seasons, the only Big 12 program currently riding a streak of three eight-plus win seasons.

RATE BOWL GAME PREVIEW by Jack Magruder

WELCOME BACK RUTGERS.
HELLO AGAIN, KANSAS STATE.
IT HAS BEEN TOO LONG.

Rate Bowl headliners Kansas State and Rutgers are no strangers to spending winter break in the Valley of the Sun, and both have supplied signature moments in their go-West-young-men treks. The fact that the Wildcats and Scarlet Knights are meeting in the only bowl game matching teams from the realigned Big 12 and Big Ten conferences gives the 35th annual Rate Bowl a special significance. The light on the top of the tree, as it were.

Coral and jade are the traditional 35th anniversary gifts. We were rewarded with something more meaty. Something we can sink our teeth into – the 8-4 Wildcats and the 7-5 Scarlet Knights, toe-to-toe on a national stage. Old acquaintances are not forgotten around here. They simply find new ways to converge.

"Some of the best football this season was played in the Big Ten and the Big 12, and we are proud that the Rate Bowl is the only bowl game that annually matches teams from these outstanding conferences," Fiesta Sports Foundation Executive Director & CEO Erik Moses said.

It is said that the more things change, the more they stay the same, and those associated with college football have seen that play out. Squared. The college game has majored in remodeling and remuneration in the last several years. At the same time, there is a lot to be said for reliability and consistency. Enter Rutgers and Kansas State. These programs get it and both are on a winning trajectory.

The programs – and Head Coaches Chris Klieman at Kansas State and Greg Schiano at Rutgers – have become bowl magnets.

Kansas State is making its record fifth appearance in the Rate Bowl and its previous iterations, the most by any school. The Wildcats have won three of their previous four contests, most recently a 35-17 drubbing of new Big Ten member UCLA in the 2017 Cactus Bowl. The Wildcats also trounced Michigan, 31-14, in 2013, when wide receiver Tyler Lockett had three touchdown catches.

Rutgers has played here once, in 2005, in what was then known as the Insight Bowl. While the Scarlet Knights lost a wild 45-40 decision to hometown Arizona State, they used that appearance as a springboard to unparalleled postseason success. That was the first of the Scarlet Knights' school-record five consecutive bowl games under Schiano, and they have won seven of their last 10 postseason outings. Included was the first bowl victory in program history, a 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the 2006 Texas Bowl – the teams' only previous meeting.

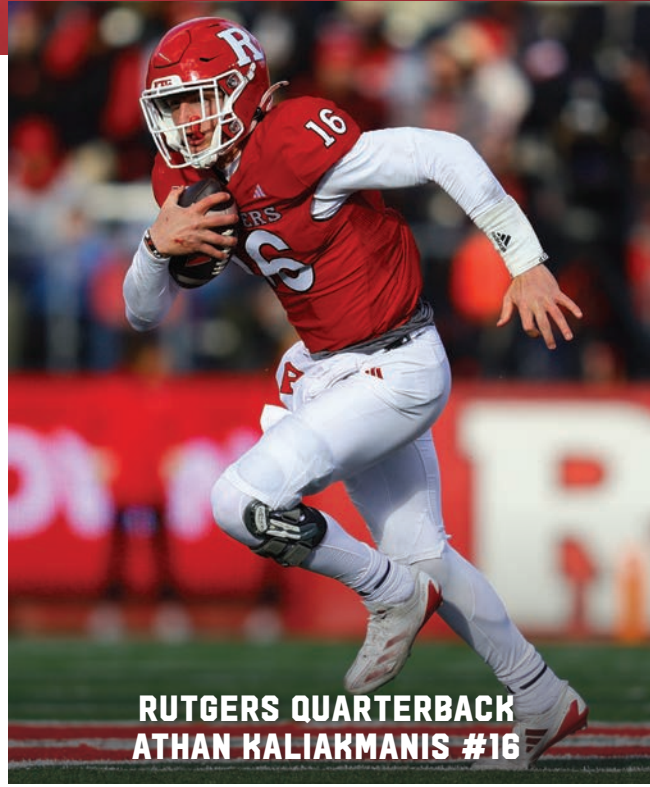

"These are tumultuous, difficult times in college athletics," Klieman said, "but when you get an opportunity to take your group of guys to a bowl game, especially something as special as the Rate Bowl, I think it galvanizes everybody and excites everybody."

Schiano is all in.

"It's important as a reward for the players for a job well done during the season," Schiano said of the bowl experience. "We work hard, but I make sure it's a reward. Ultimately, the competitive nature of our program is that we do everything to win. It will be an awesome challenge because Kansas State is a really, really good football team."

Move aside. Let the men go through.

Kansas State has played so well for the better part of four decades that Bowl Season is about "where and when," not "if." The Wildcats have appeared in 25 bowl games since 1993, tied for 16th among FBS schools and second in the Big 12. Kansas State is one of 15 Power 4 teams to make the postseason lineup in 13 of the last 15 seasons and have made bowls in five of Klieman's six seasons since he replaced legendary program builder Bill Snyder.

The Wildcats' postseason ties to the Arizona bowl scene go even deeper. They have played in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl three times, and they rolled past Syracuse, 35-18, in 1997 behind star quarterback Michael Bishop, who had 390 yards total offense and five touchdowns to cap an 11-1 season. That was considered the best win in program history at the time, and it was the first of six straight 11-win seasons. Snyder led the Wildcats to the first bowl victory in program history four years earlier, a 52-17 rout of Wyoming in the 1993 Copper Bowl played in Tucson.

Rutgers enters its second Rate Bowl contest looking to extend its bowl winning streak following a 31-24 comeback victory over Miami (Fla.) in the 2023 Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights are playing their third bowl game in the last four seasons, all since Schiano returned in 2020 for his second stint at the state university of New Jersey. Schiano had six winning seasons in his final seven in his initial run before being lured in 2012 to the NFL Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and during that run presided over one of the most successful stretches in the program's history that dates back to 1869.

The Scarlet Knights and Wildcats have shown a remarkable similarity in their approach this season. Each relies on a top-flight ball-carrier and looks to control the line of scrimmage, an old-school game. Both teams entered Bowl Season ranked in the top four in their league in rushing offense, averaging more than 175 yards per game on the ground, and the matchup could signal an intriguing battle in the trenches. The Wildcats were fifth in the Big 12 in total defense and first against the run.

KANSAS STATE QUARTERBACK AVERY JOHNSON #2

"We kind of do what it takes to win, but if we have our choice, we would like to be able to run the football," Schiano said. "In our conference you have to be able to do that. The weather gets pretty bad at the end of the year, evidenced by our last game (a 41-14 victory) at Michigan State. It was a snow globe the entire day."

Rutgers starts with senior Kyle Monangai, a First Team All-Big Ten pick, who rushed for 1,279 yards and 13 touchdowns in his second consecutive season with at least 1,200 yards and eight touchdowns. He has eight 100-yard games in his last 13, and he has shone brightly when it mattered most. He was the MVP of the Pinstripe Bowl after rushing for 163 yards and a touchdown, and he helped Rutgers clinch a second-straight winning season by rushing for 129 yards and a touchdown against Michigan State.

"Kyle Monangai is a fabulous player," Schiano said. "We've had a great time with him over the last five years. He's developed and become one of the best running backs in the country and has done a lot for Rutgers. The thing you love as a head coach is he's an even better person than he is a football player. He's a great example for our program."

Rutgers quarterback Athlan Kaliakmanis has passed for 2,459 yards and 17 touchdowns with only six interceptions, and wideout Dymere Miller has 57 receptions for 731 yards and four scores. Massive 6'8" offensive tackle Hollin Pierce, a second-team All-Big Ten pick, helped clear the way for an offense that has averaged 32.3 points per game. A roller-coaster season finished on an upswing by winning three of the last four games after an unprecedented spate of injuries contributed to a four-game losing streak after a 4-0 start.

While Kansas State will be without DJ Giddens, who was a Second Team All-Big 12 selection and rushed for 1,343 yards and seven touchdowns, the door is open for increased opportunities for sophomore Dylan Edwards under the bright Bowl Season lights. Edwards, a Colorado transfer, averaged 6.3 yards per carry – just under Giddens' 6.6 mark – and totaled 350 yards and three touchdowns. Edwards looks to soon reach the lofty standards set by Giddens and program icons such as Darren Sproles – perhaps the most underrated dual-purpose back in college football history – and Deuce Vaughn.

Wildcats quarterback Avery Johnson had 2,517 yards passing and 22 touchdowns this season, and he complemented Giddens with 548 yards rushing and six scores. A two-way contributor like Bishop, Johnson was the MVP in last year's 28-19 Pop-Tarts Bowl victory over North Carolina State. Offensive linemen Easton Kitty and Sam Hecht were Second Team All-Big 12 this season, as was tight end Garrett Oakley. Defensive lineman Brendan Mott was the Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Schiano said he found himself watching Kansas State from afar this season. Football guys do that. He noticed the ingredients of a successful program.

"I've caught some of their games," Schiano said. "A really, really good football team that plays the way that I love. I have the utmost respect. I have never really competed with (Coach Klieman), but I followed his teams as a fan. All those national championships he won at North Dakota State and then what he's been able to do at Kansas State. I love the way they play."

Call it the mutual admiration bowl.

"What a great opportunity to play a great team and a great program," said Klieman, whose resume includes seven national championships and one runner-up finish in eight seasons at North Dakota State, which competes in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision. "I have so much respect for Coach Schiano. Excited to get an opportunity to spend a little bit of time with him because he's one of those guys that I have looked up to throughout my time of coaching."
