2012 SEASON PREVIEW

After a strong finish in the 2011 season, in her fourth season at the helm, head coach Tonja Buford-Bailey believes the 2012 Illinois women's track and field squad will remain competitive at the conference and national level with a balanced team effort. Following a year where Illinois athletes collected nine total All-American distinctions, eight All-Big Ten selections, an individual Big Ten indoor title in the 400m, four broken school records, and points being scored at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships, the Orange and Blue are looking to compete strong.

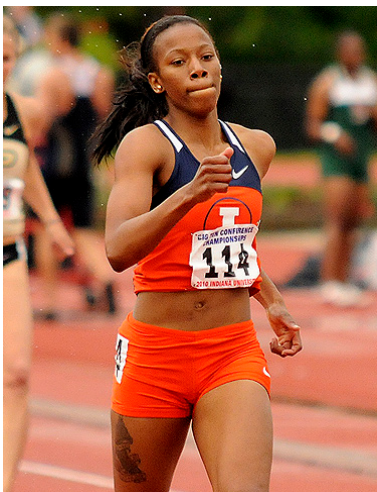

"The mentality is a lot different from last year," Buford-Bailey said. "I want us to come out of the gate right away. The standards are a lot higher this year. We won't except being on the lower end of the spectrum in the conference. I want to be in the top three in indoors and outdoors. I'm looking for everyone to step up. It's a team effort in order to win championships, everyone needs to contribute. It's all about contributing, you have to be a great competitor."

SPRINTS

Despite the loss of All-American Tamika Robinson, and Big Ten point scorer Cheria Morgan, the Illini return many of the contributors back among the sprinters, Buford-Bailey sees several athletes who can double-up in events and maximize their ability to score points. The Illini are looking to bolster their performances in multiple events while working with the same girls.

"We put a lot of scholarship money and significant importance in that we need athletes who can do multiple events and can step up to the plate when it counts," said Buford-Bailey.

At the forefront of the sprint squad is All-American senior Ashley Kelly. She is coming off a superb year after breaking the indoor school record in the 400m, winning the indoor Big Ten title in the same event and earning All-American honors. She was also a member of the 4x100 relay team that captured second-team All-American honors.

Senior Ashley Kelly

"Ashley Kelly is the most important sprinter because she's proven to be a national contender and All-American," said Buford-Bailey. "She broke the school record last year in the 400 and has bigger goals this year. She's the main contributor to our sprints group."

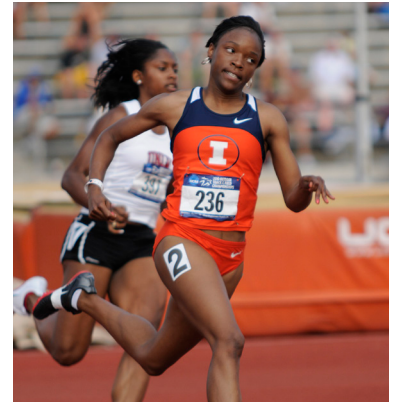

Kelly will have help in freshman Ashley Spencer. Buford-Bailey sees Spencer as being another versatile athlete for the Illini as Spencer won the 400m and 1,600m relay races as a senior at Lawrence North High School in Indianapolis, Ind. In addition to Spencer, sophomore Jessica Ejlesime, who transferred to Illinois from the University of Oklahoma, will be looked upon to contribute especially on the Big Ten level. She will look to run the 60m hurdles and 200m for the Illini this season.

Having suffered a hamstring injury last year, senior Latoya Griffith is excited to compete strong again after she qualified individually for the 2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships in the 400m hurdles and as part of the 4x400m relay. Along with Griffith, sophomore Breeana Coleman, a transfer from University of Arkansas, will compete for the Fighting Illini in the 60m hurdles, 60m dash and 4X100 relay. Coleman is coming off a great year as a SEC finalist in the indoor and outdoor hurdles.

"Ashley Spencer can do a lot of different events," said Buford-Bailey. "She can be very valuable across the board for us this year. She is definitely a star and isn't going to be afraid to compete. Latoya is also back and is healthy and very motivated."

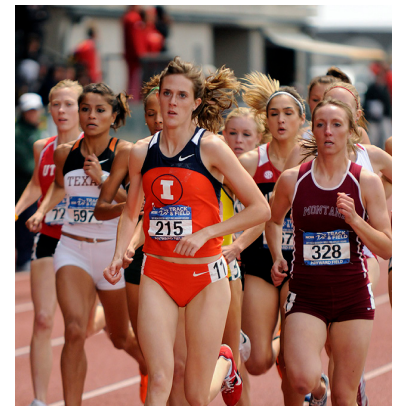

Senior Ryisha Boyd

Having qualified as a part of the 4X400m relay at the 2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships and scoring in Big Tens last season, senior Ryisha Boyd will play a large role for the Orange and Blue. Buford-Bailey is excited from what she has seen thus far in Boyd's training this year.

"Boyd has had a phenomenal fall training," Buford-Bailey said. "She has always been a Big Ten scorer for us and a national qualifier in the relays. She's somebody who we're hoping to be a big contributor."

MIDDLE/LONG DISTANCE

The Illini are looking to capitalize on the success they had in the middle and long distances last year. Junior Stephanie Morgan picked up second-team All-Big Ten honors by grabbing the runner-up spot in the 800m in the indoor Big Ten Championships. Morgan, along with sophomore Samantha Murphy scored fourteen points for the Illini in the 800m race. Buford-Bailey is excited to add to the recent success with sophomore Amanda Duvendack and senior Jayla McArthur.

Junior Stephanie Morgan

"Amanda had a very good fall season of training," Buford-Bailey said. "She will be a contributor in the 800m and 600m. Jayla has also had an incredible fall season of training and will be a major

Along with the middle distance runners, the Illini will have a strong group in their distance runners. Juniors Courtney Yeager and Amber Stack will look to pace the Orange and Blue. Freshmen Chloe Schmidt and Alyssa Schneider along with sophomore Katie Porada will also contribute. Schmidt was a five-time Pennsylvania state champion and six-time runner-up at the state meet while Schneider was a three-time 1,600m conference champion at Barlett High School.

“It’s a young group in Alyssa, Chloe, and Katie”, said Buford-Bailey. “I’d like them to bounce back from cross-country and have a good indoor season. Hopefully that will catapult them into the outdoor season with success.”

FIELD EVENTS

In his fourth season as the assistant coach, Mike Erb’s field events will be led with a strong pole vaulting group. Coming off a fantastic freshman season where she broke the school record with a vault of 12-11 ½ (3.95m) at last year’s Big Ten Championships, sophomore Stephanie Richartz is looking to continue to improve.

“She is our biggest contributor”, Buford-Bailey said. “As a freshman she scored in the top four for both indoor and outdoor and qualified for nationals”.

Junior Elizabeth Eitzen will also be a factor in the pole vault. After scoring in the outdoor conference meet last year, she along with Richartz are looking to dominate in the event.

In the jumps, both junior Kawanna Brooks and senior Kendall McCaugherty will play a role. Brooks scored at the Big Ten outdoor meet in the long jump and McCaugherty recorded the highest mark in the high jump for Illinois last season. Brooks will also participate in the triple jump. New to the multi-event’s team is junior Marissa Golliday. After participating in the relays and middle distances, Golliday will be looked upon to score for the Illini in the pentathlon and heptathlon.

Sophomores Kristen Wilson and Mariah Smith will be leading the way for the Orange and Blue in the throwing events. Wilson comes off of the best weight throw for the Illini last year in the indoor season while Smith earned all-state honors in the discus and was an Illinois state finalist in shot put during her high-school career and hopes to continue that success for the Illini.

TRACK & FIELD FACILITIES

ILLINOIS TRACK AND SOCCER STADIUM

The original Illinois Track and Soccer Stadium was built in 1987 at a cost of $2.2 million. The first meet at the stadium was the Illinois Invitational on April 18, 1987. The stadium has played host to a number of meets, including the Big Ten Outdoor Track and Field Championships in 2008, 1997 and 1990.

Major renovations began on the Illinois Track and Field Stadium in October of 1998, with phase one of the project already being completed. At a cost of $1.2 million, JJR Architects of Chicago installed lighting for the entire stadium, built a separate throwing area for field events and adapted the grass field inside the track to facilitate soccer. A new scoreboard is the newest feature at the stadium and phase two of the renovation calls for the addition of 8,000 permanent seats, locker rooms, a press box, rest rooms and concessions.

The outdoor track is just steps away from the Bielfeldt Athletic Administration Building, where the track and field coaching offices are located.

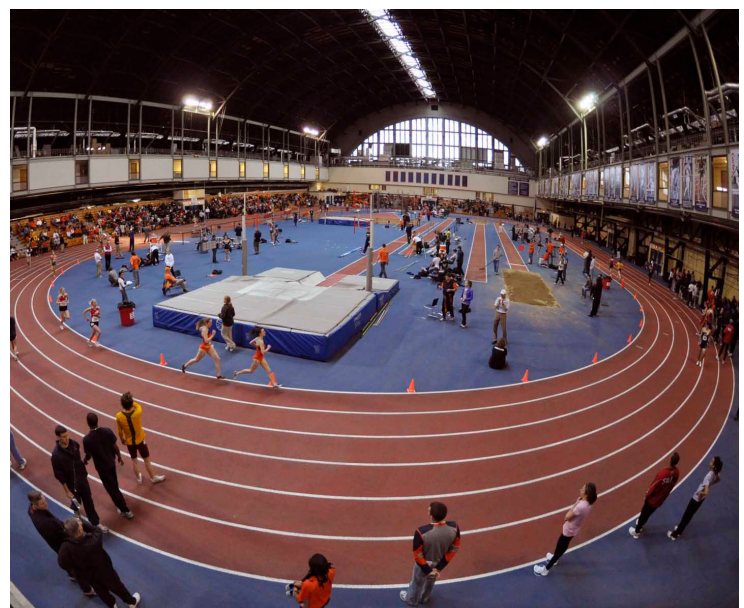

ARMORY TRACK

Competition during the indoor season takes place at the Armory Track, adjacent to Huff Hall. The Armory, built in 1914, was originally designed to house the University ROTC programs. The center of the roof is over 100 feet off the floor and encapsulates over 62,000 square feet of open space.

Though the ROTC programs are still part of Armory Building, the Armory has become better known for its indoor track & field facility. The current track is six lanes around with 11 lanes on the straightaway.

The track & field facility underwent a $1.2 million renovation after the 2003 season. On the track, the project included a new 13mm thick, Beynon Encapsulated Polyurethane 200m running surface and seating for over 1400 spectators. In the field, the project included two opposing long/triple jump and pole vault runways, and a shot/weight area that features a cement circle recessed into the floor.

OUTDOOR - PRELIMINARY ROUND OF CHAMPIONSHIP

The NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Track and Field Committee has decided to trim the NCAA preliminary format from four regional championships to a pair of preliminary qualifying sites, eliminating the Mideast and Midwest regionals, and extend the meet from two to three days. Illinois has been placed in the West Region and will head to Mike A. Myers Track & Soccer Stadium in Austin Texas from May 24-26 for the meet. The East Preliminary Round of Championship will be hosted by the University of North Florida at Hodges Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla.

NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Outdoor Track and Field
Regional Alignment

Qualification to the Preliminary Round competition of the Championship is based on the descending order list for the season, segregated by east and west sites, and prepared solely from the mandatory submission of meet results during the season and adhering to the Qualifying Regulations published in the Championship Handbook. For each individual event contested at each of the Championship Preliminary Round competitions, the top 48 declared student-athletes will be accepted into the competition. For each relay event contested at each of the Championship Preliminary Round competitions, the top 24 declared relay teams will be accepted into the competition.

Qualifying to the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships is accomplished through performance in the Preliminary Round competition at each site for events contested at those competitions. Twelve competitors from each individual event and a minimum of eight teams from each relay event advance from each Preliminary Round site to the Final Championship Meet. Qualification, through competition in an event at a Preliminary Round competition, is required to participate in that event at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Any individual or relay team must remain eligible for advancement throughout all rounds of the Championships.

Qualification for the Heptathlon and Decathlon events of the Championship is accomplished through a student-athlete's position on the national descending order list. Based upon declarations, made before the Preliminary Round competition, twenty-four student-athletes will be accepted to the final championship meet in each event.

The 2012 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships will be held June 6-9 at Drake Stadium in Des Moines, Iowa.

TONJA BUFORD-BAILEY

HEAD COACH // FOURTH SEASON

Tonja Buford-Bailey, one of the greatest athletes in Illinois and Big Ten women's track and field history, enters her fourth season as head women's track and field coach and her ninth season overall on the Illinois coaching staff.

During the 2011 season, the Illini women collected nine total All-America distinctions and eight All-Big Ten selections, including an individual Big Ten indoor title in the 400m, while also breaking four school records and a Drake Relays record. She also saw the Illini score points at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships and led the Orange and Blue to a fourth-place finish at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. Tamika Robinson (60m hurdles) and Ashley Kelly (outdoor 400m) each earned first-time All-America honors after placing in the top eight at their respective national meets.

Buford-Bailey also assisted with the men's program for the second year, coaching the sprints and hurdles in 2011. Andrew Riley won his second career national title, as he raced to victory in the indoor 60m hurdles with a personal-best time of 7.58. Riley completed an undefeated season in the event with the win, which included a third-straight Big Ten title, and scored 10 team points for the Illini, who tied for 22nd at nationals, the highest indoor finish by an Illinois squad since 1998 (17th). Her athletes also scored 18 points at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, helping Illinois tie for 12th, which marked the highest finish by an Illini squad in 23 years.

During the 2010 season, Buford-Bailey continued her role as head women's track and field coach while also assisting the Illinois men's squad as the sprints and hurdles coach. She coached hurdler Andrew Riley to the NCAA title in the 110m hurdles along with guiding Tamika Robinson to All-America honors in the 100m hurdles at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Illinois also received a national title in the indoor 3,000m and four total Big Ten titles from Angela Bizzarri and All-America honors in the shot put at both national meets from Aja Evans with Buford-Bailey at the helm.

In her first season as head coach, Buford-Bailey was honored as the USTFCCCA Head Coach of the Year for the Midwest Region, after directing the Fighting Illini to a 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championships, the program's best team finish since tying for 10th in 2002. The team also finished fourth at the NCAA Midwest Regional Championships, the best in school history.

Under the guidance of Buford-Bailey in 2009, Illinois had a national champion in Angela Bizzarri (5,000m), two All-Americans in Deserea Brown (400m hurdles) and Aja Evans (shot put), and a total of eight athletes qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. She also helped Illinois athletes win a total of four titles at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, coaching Brown to the 400m hurdles title, Melissa Bates to the 400m title and the 4x400m relay to a runner-up finish. Bates, who was one of four Illini in the 400m final at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, saw drastic improvement in her first season as a 400m runner, improving her time by nearly four seconds to 53.39 and qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the first time. In total, Buford-Bailey has coached five individual Big Ten champions.

In addition, virtually every sprinter and hurdler on the Illinois roster achieved a personal-best time in the 2009 season under the direction of Buford-Bailey. Tamika Robinson had a very successful sophomore year, improving in the hurdles and sprints. She bested her personal record in the 60m, the 60m hurdles and 100m hurdles, while scoring at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships in the 60m, 60m hurdles and 4x100m relay and becoming a Regional qualifier in the 100m hurdles. Paris Streeter improved her 400m time by over two seconds to 54.65 and scored at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, while narrowly missing the Regional qualifying mark. As a freshman, Latoya Griffith bettered her 400m hurdles time from 59.90 to 57.87 and placed third at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, second at the NCAA Midwest Regional Championships and qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The 4x400m relay team of Omoye Ugiagbe, Ryisha Boyd, Brown and Bates broke the indoor school record at the Alex Wilson Invitational with a time of 3:35.13, while the foursome of Brown and three freshmen, Boyd, Ashley Kelly and Latoya Griffith, timed 3:38.41 at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships to place second.

Buford-Bailey was promoted to succeed her former coach, the legendary Gary Winckler, who retired following the 2008 season. Winckler spent 23 seasons as head women's track and field coach, winning a total of 11 Big Ten team titles and coaching Illini athletes to a total of 321 All-America accolades. Buford-Bailey began to take over head coaching responsibilities during the 2008 season, when she served as associate head coach. She joined the Illinois staff as an assistant in 2004 and is certified as a USATF Level II coach in the sprints and hurdles.

"It's very gratifying any time you can appoint one of your own as a head coach," former athletic director Ron Guenther said. "Tonja was an outstanding athlete and Olympian while competing, and has done a fantastic job for the University of Illinois. She has a passion for coaching and had a great mentor in Gary Winckler."

Buford-Bailey coached Illini athletes to a successful 2008 season, starting with Tiara Armstrong winning the 60m title at the Big Ten Indoor Championships with a personal-best time of 7.41 seconds. Briana Cunningham also won a conference title in 2008, following Buford-Bailey's footsteps by winning the 400m hurdles crown at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships on her home track at the UI Track Stadium. Cunningham improved drastically under the direction of Buford-Bailey, lowering her 400m hurdles PR from 59.15 to 57.90 and competing at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Buford-Bailey helped standout hurdler LaNeisha Waller finish her Illinois career on a high note, as Waller competed in the 100m hurdles at the U.S. Olympic Team Trials and ran a personal-best time of 13.11 seconds in the quarterfinal. Waller also competed in the hurdles at the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the second consecutive year after placing fifth at the NCAA Midwest Regional Championships with a wind-aided time of 12.94. Waller was one of Buford-Bailey's most versatile athletes, as she was fourth in the 100m hurdles at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, sixth in the long jump and led off the 4x100m relay that finished third and posted a season-best time of 44.85 which nearly qualified for the NCAA Championships.

Buford-Bailey was on three U.S. Olympic teams, winning a bronze medal in 1996.

Buford-Bailey is in her fourth year as head coach and ninth year overall at Illinois.

Armstrong and Waller scoring in the 100 meters and as members of the Big Ten champion 4x100m relay. Waller and Holder finished second and fourth in the 100m hurdles at Big Ten's, while Cunningham and Alondra Cooper rounded out the Illini quartet of finalists in the 400m hurdles. Waller went on to earn her first trip to the NCAA Outdoor Championships by finishing fourth at the NCAA Midwest Regionals in the 100m hurdles. The Illini also qualified for nationals in the 4x100m relay.

The summer of 2007 was an eventful one for Buford-Bailey, as she was selected to coach the female sprinters and hurdles at the Pan American Junior meet held in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Buford-Bailey's squad racked up nine of the 23 medals needed to win the team title (six gold, one silver, two bronze).

In her first season as a coach in 2004, Buford-Bailey made an immediate impact as the Illini boasted their first 400m hurdles Big Ten champion in seven years, took home the 4x400m Big Ten title for the first time since 1996 and finished third at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships.

During the 2005 season, Buford-Bailey's runners continued to have success on the track with the Illinois women finishing second at the Big Ten Indoor Championships in Ann Arbor, Mich. That same year Illinois won its second-straight 4x400m conference title on the way to winning the 2005 Big Ten Outdoor Championships. The next season, Waller became the 2006 Big Ten champion in the 60m hurdles.

During her career at Illinois, Buford-Bailey was a 10-time All-America selection and won a Big Ten-record 25 individual and team titles. She finished as a four-time Big Ten Athlete of the Year award winner and was named Athlete of the Championships three times. Buford-Bailey also received the prestigious University of Illinois Dike Eddleman Female Athlete of the Year award in 1992 and 1993. In 1992, she won the NCAA 400-meter hurdles outdoor title, and received a selection to the UI All-Decade team. Buford-Bailey became the first Illini female athlete to make the U.S. Olympic team.

Buford-Bailey was a three-time Olympian, earning a bronze medal in the 400m hurdles at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta to become the first female Illini athlete to win an Olympic medal. She also made the Olympic teams in 1992 and 2000. In addition, Buford-Bailey was the first woman in history to break the 53-second mark in the 400m hurdles, doing so on two occasions. She closed out the 1995 season ranked second in the world and her mark of 52.62 seconds in the 400m hurdles still remains third on the all-time world list.

Buford-Bailey is married to former NFL wide receiver Victor Bailey. The two wed in October 1995 and have one son, Victor Jr. (13), and a daughter, Victoria (8).

In 2007, Buford-Bailey's sprinters and hurdlers delivered solid performances at the Big Ten Indoor Championships hosted by Illinois at the Armory track. Armstrong ran a then-personal best in the 60m and 200m, finishing third in the 60m behind Illini standout Yvonne Mensah. Waller finished second in the 60m hurdles, running a personal-best 8.15 seconds and automatically qualifying for the NCAA Championships. Waller was also a finalist in the 60m, capping of an Illini 2-3-5 finish.

Buford-Bailey's pupils kept things rolling in the 2007 outdoor season, with 100m hurdlers Waller and Nikkita Holder both running season bests at the Kansas Relays. The Illini captured another conference title at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, with

JEREMY RASMUSSEN

ASSISTANT COACH - DISTANCE

FIFTH SEASON

Jeremy Rasmussen is in his fifth season as Illinois assistant women's track and field coach and women's cross country coach.

On the track in 2011, Rasmussen coached Chantelle Groenewoud to her first career All-America honors in the 3,000m steeplechase while Stephanie Morgan picked up Honorable Mention All-America honors in the 1,500m.

Both athletes recorded the second-fastest times in school history in their respective events. Morgan was a second-team All-Big Ten selection following her runner-up finish in the indoor 800m, and Groenewoud grabbed the accolade in the steeplechase at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. Elizabeth Boyle broke the school record twice in the 10,000m during the season for the second consecutive year and in school history the distance squad scored in all the distance events at the Big Ten Championships.

At the 2010 Midwest Regional Cross Country Championships, Stephanie Morgan led the team and finished 20th overall to earn All-Region honors with the sixth-fastest 6K time in Illinois history. Morgan is the seventh Illini runner to earn the accolade under Rasmussen while senior Chantelle Groenewoud, a two-time All-Region runner, finished one spot outside the top 25 at the regional meet.

Under Rasmussen's guidance, the 2010 track season was highlighted by Angela Bizzarri's third national title and four Big Ten titles from the nine-time All-American. Bizzarri won the indoor 3,000m national crown, completing the circuit as a cross country, indoor and outdoor national champion, which only seven other women have done in NCAA history. She also successfully doubled at both conference championships, winning the 3,000m and 5,000m titles at the indoor meet and the 1,500m and 5,000m at the outdoor meet. For her accomplishments, Bizzarri received her third consecutive Dike Eddleman Award as Illinois' female athlete of the year.

Rasmussen's distance crew also accomplished a first for Illinois at the 2010 Big Ten Outdoor Championships by scoring in all four distance events, with Bizzarri in the 1,500m and 5,000m, Groenewoud and Maddie Aufmann in the 3,000m steeplechase, and Elizabeth Boyle in the 10,000m. In total, five distance runners qualified for the NCAA Preliminary Round of Championship, making Illinois one of 13 programs to be represented in every distance event at the prelims.

At the 2009 NCAA Cross Country Championships, the Illini notched their third consecutive top-12 finish under Rasmussen's guidance, a feat accomplished by only six other teams. The Orange and Blue placed 12th as a team, while senior Angela Bizzarri became the first Illinois women's cross country runner to ever win the NCAA cross country title, posting a school-record time of 19:46 in her victory. The Mason, Ohio, native was named the USTFCCCA National Cross Country Athlete of the Year and the Midwest Region Athlete of the Year along with winning the Honda Sports Award.

Along with Rasmussen's success at the national meet in 2009, the Illini also recorded their third consecutive runner-up finish at the NCAA Midwest Regional Championships and their best finish (2nd) at the Big Ten Championships since 2005. The top four runners, Bizzarri, sophomore Kristin Sutherland, Boyle and Groenewoud, each earned All-Region honors for the second consecutive season. Those four runners also took home All-Big Ten accolades, with Bizzarri and Sutherland garnering first team honors and Boyle and Groenewoud taking home second team honors, marking the most All-Big Ten performers in program history.

During the 2009 track season, Rasmussen guided Bizzarri to her first national title with her victory in the 5,000m at the 2009 NCAA Outdoor Championships. She became the seventh national champion in school history, was named the USTFCCCA Midwest Region Track Athlete of the Year, notched her second consecutive NCAA Mideast Regional title and won the first Big Ten title of her career at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. She also took third in the 5,000m at the USA Championships with a personal-best and school-record time of 15:33.02. In 2008, Illinois took 10th at the NCAA Cross Country Championships, led by Bizzarri (6th) and senior Katie Engel (22nd). Bizzarri earned All-America accolades for the third consecutive season while Engel notched her first All-America honors, marking the first time two Illini earned the award in one season.

At the 2008 NCAA Midwest Regional, Illinois finished second behind Minnesota with Bizzarri, Engel, Groenewoud, Sutherland and Boyle earning All-Region honors. Illinois also fared well at the 2008 Big Ten Championships in Ann Arbor, Mich., under Rasmussen's tutelage, finishing in fourth place for the second consecutive season in one of the most competitive conference meets in the country. Engel and Bizzarri finished sixth and seventh, respectively, to take home first-team All-Big Ten honors.

Rasmussen also coached freshmen Danelle Woods and Groenewoud to appearances at the NCAA Outdoor Championships in the 3,000m steeplechase in 2008, after Woods was NCAA Mideast Regional champion in the event and Groenewoud was close behind in second. Bizzarri, Woods and Groenewoud all earned All-Region honors.

Rasmussen guided the Illini to a sixth-place finish at the 2007 NCAA Cross Country Championships, the program's second-best finish in school history, and a successful showing at the 2007 NCAA Midwest Regional Championships, where Illinois took second place behind All-Region runners Bizzarri, Engel and Woods.

At the 2007 Big Ten Championships in Columbus, Ohio, Illinois finished fourth thanks to Bizzarri, a first-team All-Big Ten selection; Engel, a second-team All-Big Ten selection; and Woods, the 2007 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Rasmussen led the Illini cross country squad to a top-10 national ranking for the duration of the 2007 season and a top-15 ranking during the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Rasmussen joined the Illini in the summer of 2007 after spending the previous three seasons working with the men's and women's track and field and cross country teams at Arizona State. A former student-athlete for the Sun Devils, Rasmussen was elevated to assistant coach in the 2006 season after serving as a graduate assistant for two seasons and as a volunteer coach during the 2003-04 season.

As a member of the Arizona State staff, Rasmussen helped the Sun Devil distance corps become one of the nation's elite. The women's cross country team finished second at the Pac-10 Championships each of Rasmussen's three years with the program. In addition, Rasmussen helped guide the Sun Devils to a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championships in 2005 and 13th-place finish in 2006.

A star in the steeplechase as a student-athlete, Rasmussen has worked with several of the top steeplers in the nation in recent years, including four-time Pac-10 steeplechase champion Aaron Aguayo and women's champions Amy Hastings, Anna Masinelli and Brooke Bennett. Prior to the 2006 cross country season, Rasmussen also worked with Lisa Aguilera when she won the 3,000m steeplechase at the 2006 USA Track & Field Championships.

Prior to his coaching and administrative duties, Rasmussen starred for the Sun Devils in both cross country and track and field. The 2000 Pac-10 champion in the 3,000m steeplechase and runner-up in both 2001 and 2002, Rasmussen helped the 2001 ASU men break the 100-point barrier at the conference competition for the first time in program history. In cross country, Rasmussen assisted the men's team in making history as the 1999 squad advanced to its first NCAA Championships appearance, placing 14th.

A Minnesota native and graduate of Mountain Ridge High School in Glendale, Ariz., Rasmussen earned his bachelor's degree in computer information systems from Arizona State in 2003 and his master's in higher education from ASU in 2006. Rasmussen is certified as a USA Track and Field Level II coach.

Rasmussen and his wife, Annamarie, were wed in December 2010 and reside in Champaign.

MIKE ERB

ASSISTANT COACH

FOURTH SEASON

Mike Erb is in his fourth season with the Illinois women's track and field staff as assistant coach, working primarily with the field event athletes.

In 2011, Erb coached Kelly Washington to a runner-up finish in the heptathlon at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, marking her first All-Big Ten honors. She totaled a personal-best 5,221 points, which ranks fourth on the Illinois all-time list. Freshman Stephanie Richartz also broke the indoor and outdoor school records in the pole vault while scoring points in the event at both conference meets. Kendall McCaugherty also scored in the high jump at the outdoor conference meet and reached the NCAA West Preliminary Round along with Richartz.

During the 2010 season, Evans earned her fourth and fifth career All-America accolades in the shot put under Erb's tutelage. Evans also was voted Field Co-Athlete of the Championships after notching the Big Ten Indoor Championships record and resetting her own school record in the shot put. Along with Evans, Erb helped multi-event athlete Alecia Beckford-Stewart to a pair of Big Ten runner-up finishes in the pentathlon and heptathlon.

In 2009, Erb coached Evans to back-to-back All-America performances in the shot put at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Track & Field Championships where she placed fifth at each. After taking second at the Big Ten Indoor Championships, Evans won the shot put title for the second consecutive Big Ten Outdoor Championships. She also represented the Fighting Illini at the USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

In addition to Evans' accomplishments, Erb guided Beckford-Stewart, Jessica Penney and Alexandria Smith to successful seasons. Beckford-Stewart scored for the Illini in the heptathlon and Penney scored in the long jump at both the Big Ten Indoor and Outdoor Championships, while Smith scored in the triple jump at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships. Penney also was a provisional NCAA qualifier in the long jump during the indoor season. Beckford-Stewart competed at the Canadian Track & Field Championships, and Smith qualified for the USA Junior Track & Field Championships.

Erb came to Champaign-Urbana after successful coaching stints at Marquette and the University of Redlands. He spent the 2008 season as an assistant coach at Marquette, where he was responsible for coaching the men's and women's long and triple jumpers as well as the multi-event athletes.

Prior to his time with the Golden Eagles, Erb was the head men's and women's cross country and track and field coach at the University of Redlands in California from 2002 through 2007. In his time at Redlands, Erb guided the men's track and field program from a last place conference finish to consecutive top-10 finishes at the NCAA Division III Championships in 2006 and 2007. With the Bulldogs, Erb coached four NCAA champions, eight All-Americans, 20 NCAA Championships qualifiers and 152 All-Conference performers. He also coached Corey White, the 2005 USATF Junior National javelin champion.

Erb coached Kelly Washington to a runner-up finish in the heptathlon at the 2011 Big Ten Outdoor Championships.

Erb working with Alecia Beckford-Stewart, who scored in the multi-events at both the Big Ten Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

Erb received his undergraduate degree in environmental science in 1998 from Allegheny College in Pennsylvania, where he was a decathlete and jumper from 1994-1998, earning two conference titles in the triple jump. He also received his Master of Arts in Higher Education Administration from Redlands in 2005.

Erb is certified as a USATF Level II coach in the jumps and throws and is a USATF Level I instructor. He is also an experienced clinician, coaching and speaking at track and field camps and clinics around the country.

BRYAN CARREL

POLE VAULT COACH

NINTH SEASON

Bryan Carrel enters his ninth season as a volunteer coach for the Illinois women's track and field team, working primarily with the pole vaulters. Carrel also has spent ten years as a volunteer assistant for the Illini men's program. During his coaching tenure, Carrel has helped coach a pair of NCAA qualifiers in the event, including Andrew Zollner, who competed for Illinois at three consecutive NCAA Outdoor Championships from 2007-09. He also coached Stephanie Richartz who broke the school pole vault record last season and as a freshman scored in the top four for both indoor and outdoors as well as qualified for nationals. Sophomore Elizabeth Eitzen also scored marks which sit in the top-10 all-time.

In 2009, Zollner notched a career-best mark of 17-3 and placed second at the NCAA Mid-east Regional Championships to qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the third year in a row.

In 2008, Zollner vaulted over 17 feet for the first time in his career with a mark of 17-1 at the NCAA Mid-east Regional Championships to qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the second consecutive year. Freshman Will Schaeffer had a personal-best height of 16-2 3/4 at the Big Ten Championships to just miss the scoring column. On the woman's side, Pintaro and Ziegler both set career-best indoor marks of 12-7 1/2 at the Carle/Health Alliance Invitational.

During the 2007 season, Carrel guided three Illini pole vaulters, Amanda Pintaro, Jackie Ziegler and Ashley Whittaker, to the NCAA Mid-east Regional Championships, as all three also scored for Illinois at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships.

Prior to his time at Illinois, Carrel enjoyed nine years in the coaching profession, spending eight seasons at Indiana State as a pole vault and jumps coach and one season at Central Michigan.

A four-time national qualifier in the pole vault during his collegiate career at Indiana State, Carrel is still the ISU outdoor school record holder in the event and was ranked among the top pole vaulters in the country during both his prep and collegiate careers. Carrel is a 1996 graduate of Indiana State with a degree in education.

Prior to his enrollment at Indiana State, Carrel spent four years with the United States Marine Corps and is a veteran of the Persian Gulf War. In addition to his coaching duties, Carrel also is a Technical Sales Representative of pole vault equipment for Gill Athletics.

Carrel and his wife, Lori, have two sons, Brandon and Tyler.

TIARA ARMSTRONG

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

FOURTH SEASON

Tiara Armstrong is in her fourth season as a volunteer assistant coach with the women's track and field team, working with the sprinters. Last season, she helped the 4x100m relay squad earn a trip to the NCAA Championships along with a third-place finish at the Big Ten Championships.

In 2009, she helped the Fighting Illini to a 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championships, the program's best team finish since tying for 10th in 2002, and a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Mid-east Regional Championships, the best in school history.

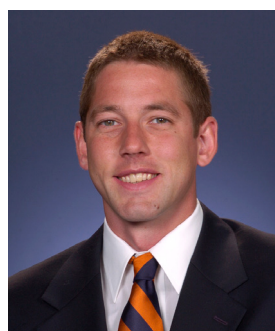

Armstrong lettered for the Illini from 2005-2008, graduating in the spring of 2008 with a degree in community health. She was one of Illinois' most consistent performers in her four years wearing the Orange and Blue, as a constant Big Ten scorer in the sprinting events. She closed out her Illini career memorably, winning the 60m title at the 2008 Big Ten Indoor Championships with a personal-best time of 7.41 seconds. Armstrong also was third in the 200m at the indoor championships, running a personal-best time of 24.18 at the Iowa State Classic.

In the 2008 outdoor season, Armstrong was third in the 100m and fifth in the 200m at the Big Ten Championships, solidifying her position as one of the top sprinters in the conference. She also led off the 4x100m relay that was third at Big Ten's and posted a season-best time of 44.85 to just miss qualifying for the NCAA Championships.

At the 2007 Big Ten Outdoor Championships, Armstrong ran the first leg of the champion 4x100m relay, was runner-up in the 100m and sixth in the 200m to help lead the Illini to a team title. She also scored in both sprinting events at the 2008 indoor championships, placing third in the 60m and eighth in the 200m.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, Armstrong was named to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District 5 Second Team in 2008, and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors three times. She also was Illinois' Big Ten Sportsmanship Award honoree at the 2008 outdoor championships.

ADAM BRAY

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST SEASON

Adam Bray will assist the Illinois women's cross country and track and field team after spending the past two seasons assisting the men's squad at Illinois. During his time with the Illini men, the cross country squad placed fifth at the 2010 NCAA Midwest Regional, matching their highest finish since 2002.

Before coming to Illinois, Bray served as an volunteer assistant at the University of Maryland and the University of Akron. At Maryland, his main focus was on the men's and women's cross country and track and field middle-distance and distance runners. He spent a year as the graduate assistant for the Zips during the 2005-06 seasons. During that time, the Zips won the Mid-American Conference cross country, indoor and outdoor track team titles. He also worked as an academic counselor in the athletic department at Kent State during the 2006-07 season.

Bray was a member of the University of Akron track and field and cross country teams from 2000-2005 where he was a four-year letterwinner and captain. He graduated from the University of Akron in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in education, and went on to receive his master's degree from Akron in sports science in 2006. Originally from Ohio, he currently resides in Urbana, Ill.

KELLY WASHINGTON

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

FIRST SEASON

Kelly Washington is in her first season as an volunteer assistant coach with the women's track and field program and will focus on field events and multi-events.

Washington competed for the Illini from 2008-2011. In 2011, Washington was runner-up in the heptathlon at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships, marking her first All-Big Ten honors. She totaled a personal-best 5,221 points, which ranks fourth on the Illinois all-time list.

RANDY BALLARD

ATHLETIC TRAINER

11TH SEASON

Randy Ballard enters his 11th season as an athletic trainer for the women's cross country and track and field programs. Ballard also serves as the athletic trainer for the Illinois volleyball team. A 1999 graduate of Kansas State University, Ballard earned his master's degree in kinesiology from The University of Texas in 2001.

The Concordia, Kan. native is no stranger to working with world-class athletes. Ballard has worked as an athletic trainer several times for the USA Track & Field teams. Most recently, he served as an athletic trainer for USA Track and Field at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China.

The previous year, Ballard was an athletic trainer for the 2007 U.S. Track & Field World Championships team in Osaka, Japan. He also served as the Head athletic trainer at the 2006 Cross Country World Championships in Fukuoka, Japan.

He has also served as therapist for numerous Olympians and world champions including Perdita Felicien, Bershawn Jackson, and Lauren Williams.

Prior to Illinois, Ballard spent three seasons as a student athletic trainer for the Kansas State athletic program before moving to Texas. In Austin, Ballard worked primarily with the Longhorn football and men's track and field programs.

Randy is married to wife Lori, and has a daughter, Avery.

2011 SEASON IN REVIEW

During the 2011 track season, Illinois athletes collected nine total All-America distinctions and eight All-Big Ten selections, including an individual Big Ten indoor title in the 400m, while also breaking four school records and a Drake Relays record. In her third season at the helm, head coach Tonja Buford-Bailey saw the Illini score points at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships and led the Orange and Blue to a fourth-place finish at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships and a seventh-place effort at the Big Ten Indoor Championships.

The Illini began their indoor campaign at home in the middle of January with the Illini Open, where the squad captured nine individual event titles. They followed up that performance with a pair of home meet victories the next two weekends, which included 12 individual titles at the Illini Classic and nine individual crowns at the Illinois Intercollegiate.

At the Mevo Invitational, junior Ashley Kelly timed 53.59 in the 400m, breaking Yvonne Harrison's old school record mark of 53.80 from 1998. The Orange and Blue next competed at the Tyson Invitational, the squad's final competition before the conference championship.

Illinois scored 61 points and placed seventh at the Big Ten Indoor Championships in West Lafayette, Ind., just eight points shy of a top-four finish. Kelly won her first career Big Ten title in the 400m, Illinois' first indoor champion in the event since Harrison in 1998. Sophomore Stephanie Morgan also picked up second-team All-Big Ten honors by grabbing the runner-up spot in the 800m. Tamika Robinson (60m hurdles) and Samantha Murphy (800m) each turned in top-three finishes while freshman Stephanie Richartz broke the school record in the pole vault by clearing a height of 12-11 1/2 (3.95m).

Robinson competed for Illinois at the NCAA Indoor Championships, placing seventh overall in the 60m hurdles and scoring two points. The Chicago, Ill., native garnered All-America accolades for the second time in her career and first time during the indoor season. She advanced to the event final with a personal-best time of 8.12 during prelims, which ranks third in school history behind Perdita Felicien (7.90) and Susanna Kallur (8.00).

Following a weekend off between seasons, the outdoor campaign started off strong, as senior Elizabeth Boyle broke the 10,000m school record at the Stanford Invitational and the Illini helped the conference win the inaugural Big Ten/SEC Challenge at the end of March. The 4x400m relay shined at the next meet, posting a season-best mark of 3:36.33 at the LSU Invitational.

At the Sea Ray Relays, Illinois took home the 4x200m relay title and crossed the line as the top collegiate team in the 4x800m relay. Richartz broke the outdoor pole vault record the following weekend at the Polytan Invitational, where the Illini also won event titles in the 1,500m and 100m hurdles.

Morgan highlighted the Drake Relays, as eclipsed a 20-year-old record in her 1,500m victory. She ran a personal-best mark of 4:15.90, which was the fastest time in the history of the event at the meet and the second-fastest time in school history. The Orange and Blue also competed at the Stan Lyons Invitational that weekend and picked up three event titles in the final regular season meet.

Illinois finished fourth at the Big Ten Outdoor Championships in Iowa City, scoring 90 points overall, while six Illini earned second-team All-Big Ten honors. Kelly placed second in a pair of events (200m, 400m) and as part of the 4x100m relay with senior Cheria Morgan, sophomore Kayla Smith and Robinson while seniors Kelly Washington (heptathlon) and Chantelle Groenewoud (3,000m steeplechase) each reached the podium with second-place showings in their respective events. Richartz also broke her own school record in the pole vault, clearing a height of 13-3 3/4 (4.06m) and placing third in the event.

After the conference meet, the Illini sent 16 athletes to the NCAA West Preliminary Round of Championship in Eugene, Ore. Six athletes in five events punched their tickets to the national meet during the three days of competition at Hayward Field. Groenewoud nabbed a third trip to nationals in the steeplechase, and the 4x100m relay of Morgan, Kelly, Robinson and senior Melissa Bates advanced for the second-straight season. Robinson snagged a return trip in the 100m hurdles while Morgan (1,500m) and Kelly (400m) qualified for the first time in individual events. Boyle also wrapped up her Illini career by resetting her own school record in the 10,000m with a time of 34:28.50.

At the NCAA Outdoor Championships, the Illini took home one first-team honor, five second-team nods and a pair of honorable mention All-American awards for their performances at nationals in Des Moines, Iowa. Kelly, who scored the Illini's one team point, earned her first career All-America awards, collecting first-team honors for placing eighth in the 400m and second-team laurels for as part of the 4x100m relay, which placed 13th overall in the NCAA semifinal. Robinson, who finished her career as a three-time All-American, tallied second-team honors as part of the relay and an honorable mention distinction in the 100m hurdles.

Bates and Cheria Morgan became All-Americans for the first time, picking up second-team honors on the 4x100m relay, while Groenewoud was tabbed a second-team All-American after finishing 12th in the 3,000m steeplechase, marking her first career accolade. Stephanie Morgan rounded out the awards with an honorable mention selection in the 1,500m.
