Last Meeting: Nov. 30, 2013 (Champaign)
Northwestern 37, Illinois 34

Of Note...

· NU and Illinois are meeting for the 108th time since their first matchup back in 1892, which is tied for the 26th-most played series in FBS football. The teams have met every year since 1927 and from 1945-2008 competed for the Sweet Sioux Tomahawk Trophy, before making the shift to the Land of Lincoln prize in 2009.

· Northwestern OC Mick McCall and WR coach Dennis Springer each spent two seasons on the same coaching staff as Illinois head coach Tim Beckman while at Bowling Green in 2003 and 2004. McCall was the quarterbacks coach for the Falcons and Springer oversaw the running backs while Beckman was the defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. Illinois linebackers coach Mike Ward also was on that staff, coaching BG's defensive line.

· Illinois defensive line coach Greg Colby spent six years (2002-07) as defensive coordinator at Northwestern under Randy Walker and Pat Fitzgerald, helping guide NU to three seasons of bowl eligibility.

· Illinois has not won at Ryan Field since a 31-24 win on Nov. 23, 2002, losing four straight games in Evanston in the time since (NU's 2010 home game was played at Wrigley Field).

'CATS AND ILLINI CLASH WITH LAND OF LINCOLN TROPHY, BOWL ELIGIBILITY AT STAKE

Northwestern Game Notes

· Northwestern and Illinois are set to stage their annual rivalry game Saturday at Ryan Field with plenty on the line, as both teams enter the game with matching 5-6 records and in need of a victory on the final day of the regular season to gain bowl eligibility. Northwestern is 3-2 in the series since the teams began playing for the Land of Lincoln Trophy in 2009, prior to which they battled for the Sweet Sioux Tomahawk Trophy. Kickoff in Evanston is slated for 11 a.m. CT with ESPNU handling the national broadcast duties.

· In its quest to become bowl eligible for a sixth time in seven seasons, Northwestern was left needing three wins in three games following a one-point loss to Michigan on Nov. 8. The 'Cats assumed a playoff mindset ahead of their Nov. 15 trip to No. 15-ranked Notre Dame and took the first step in maintaining their postseason hopes by overcoming multiple 11-point deficits in South Bend and defeating the Irish, 43-40, in overtime. The win marked NU's sixth November victory over a top-20 opponent in the last seven years and served as a springboard to the Wildcats' 38-14 road win at Purdue the following week. Pat Fitzgerald is now 18-14 in his head coaching career in the month of November.

Wildcats to Honor 21 Seniors in Final Game at Ryan Field

· Before facing Illinois Saturday, NU will honor 21 'Cats taking the field for the final time in their home venue. The five-year class (below), which owns a career record of 33-29, features five current team captains and 11 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

HEAD COACH PAT FITZGERALD

Already the second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach at the age of 39, Pat Fitzgerald's nine seasons at the helm of Northwestern have been spent building upon the tradition he helped establish as a Hall-of-Fame linebacker for the Wildcats in the mid-1990's. Characterized by his motivational skills, enthusiasm and passion for all things Northwestern, Fitzgerald has shaped Chicago's Big Ten Team into one that consistently achieves excellence in all three phases of the student-athlete experience: academics, athletics and community outreach.

Taking over as head coach in 2006 after the sudden passing of his friend and mentor, Randy Walker, Fitzgerald provided leadership and stability in a trying time and has continued Walker's legacy of producing winning football teams while preparing young men for long-term success in life.

Beginning in 2008, Fitzgerald guided the Wildcats to five consecutive bowl berths, most recently in 2012 when NU capped a tremendous 10-win season with a landmark victory over Mississippi State in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl. The 2012 'Cats, who played in a New Year's Day bowl game for the third time in five years, earned a No. 17 year-end ranking in the USA Today/Coaches Poll, the best positioning for any Big Ten team.

Four of the last five senior classes to graduate from the Northwestern football program have set or tied the school record for most career wins by a five-year senior class, with the 2012 group going out as the winningest NU senior class in history with 40 victories to its credit. Likewise, Fitzgerald's Gator Bowl victory on Jan. 1, 2013, marked the 50th of his career, officially making him the winningest head coach in Northwestern Football history.

Away from the gridiron, Fitzgerald's players have achieved at the highest levels in the classroom, last fall placing 36 players on the Academic All-Big Ten team and collecting top national honors in the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the seventh time since 1998. Additionally, Fitzgerald's program ranked first among all FBS programs in the recently released multi-year Academic Progress Rating (APR), posting a score of 995 out of a possible 1,000 in the measure of player retention and eligibility.

As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald was the leader of a suffocating Wildcats defensive unit that led the nation in scoring defense and anchored NU's storybook run to the Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl. He capped the year by winning both the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards as the nation's top defensive player and also was the Big Ten, Chevrolet and Sports Illustrated Defensive Player of the Year. Fitzgerald accomplished all of this despite suffering a broken leg in the penultimate regular-season game.

Fitzgerald recovered from that injury and in 1996 he again led the Wildcats to a share of the Big Ten title. He repeated as recipient of the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards, becoming the first two-time winner of both honors and laying the groundwork for his selection in 2008 to the College Football Hall of Fame.

In May of 2011, NU Director of Athletics Jim Phillips announced that Fitzgerald and the school agreed to a new 10-year deal that will keep him on the Northwestern sidelines through 2020. The 10-year deal is unprecedented in Northwestern Athletics history.

"I'm humbled and appreciative of the commitment shown by Northwestern," said Fitzgerald. "With this support from our administration, our coaches and players expect to compete for championships."

FAMILIAR FACES SURROUND FITZGERALD

In a profession that is known for its year-to-year turnover, Pat Fitzgerald has assembled an assistant coaching staff that is characterized instead by its continuity. Consider:

- Fitzgerald retained all nine of his assistant coaches for the third straight offseason, making Northwestern the only FBS program in the country to boast the same full-time coaching staff in four consecutive years entering the 2014 campaign.
- Assistant head coach Jerry Brown's 22 years at Northwestern rank him in a tie for fifth among active FBS assistant coaches in terms of longest tenure at one school. Brown is a 1972 gradate of Northwestern's School of Education.
- All but one of Fitzgerald's assistants have coached at least five seasons with the Wildcats.

FIVE FIFTH-YEAR SENIORS ELECTED 2014 TEAM CAPTAINS

With summer workouts and training camp behind them, head coach Pat Fitzgerald and the Wildcats named the five individuals who are serving as team captains for the duration of the 2014 campaign. The quintet is composed entirely of fifth-year seniors, with three from the offensive side of the ball and two on defense. They are: S Ibraheim Campbell, LB Collin Ellis, OL Paul Jorgensen, QB Trevor Siemian and OL Brandon Vitabile. Vitabile is in his second year as a team captain after also earning the nod as a junior last season. (Note: Since the midseason retirement of Ellis due to injury, fifth-year senior LB Chi Chi Ariguzo has been serving as NU's second defensive captain.)

'CATS POST RECORD-SETTING PERFORMANCES IN CLASSROOM IN 2013-14

Long recognized as leaders among Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) programs in academic performance, Northwestern student-athletes achieved at record rates in the classroom during the 2013-14 academic year. Collectively, the members of the Northwestern football program posted a stellar team GPA of 3.04 for the entirety of 2013-14, tying the single-year program record established the year prior in 2012-13. The strong outcomes in 2013-14 elevated Northwestern's cumulative team GPA—which takes into account the career-long academic performance of all football student-athletes—to a remarkable 3.02.

BRANDON VITABILE GARNERS NFF NATIONAL-SCHOLAR ATHLETE DISTINCTION

Northwestern senior center Brandon Vitabile (Edison, N.J./Bishop Ahr) has been honored with one of the elite distinctions in college football, receiving selection into the National Football Foundation's National Scholar-Athlete Class of 2014, the organization announced Thursday. As one of 17 honorees from across the country and all levels of college football, Vitabile will be the recipient of an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and is recognized as a finalist for the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy, presented by Fidelity Investments.

Vitabile is the second Wildcat in three years to earn the distinction and the fourth in program history. The Campbell Trophy, now in its 25th year, recognizes an individual as the top football scholar-athlete in the nation and will be presented to one member of the Scholar-Athlete class Dec. 9 in New York City.

The 17 members of the 2014 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class, who own an average grade point average of 3.69, were chosen from a nationwide pool of 169 semifinalists.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

Vitabile has been a rock on the Northwestern offensive line during his tenure in Evanston, starting all 45 games of his career and serving as a two-year co-captain in 2013 and 2014. He was a Capital One Academic All-District honoree in 2013 and recorded a career GPA of 3.56, earning his undergraduate degree in economics with a minor in business institutions and a certificate in integrated marketing and communications.

RYAN FIELD GUESTS GET NEW LOOK AT WILDCATS FOOTBALL in 2014

Northwestern Athletics announced on June 9 significant upgrades to the in-stadium video display capabilities in Ryan Field, and recently completed installation of a high-definition quality videoboard that nearly triples the size of its predecessor. The project also called for the addition of two new LED ribbon boards overlooking both the north and south end zones.

The primary videoboard structure in the northeast corner of Ryan Field received the most substantial upgrade, increasing from 390 square feet of screen surface area to more than 1,100 square feet. A newly constructed on-campus control room directs a high-definition video feed to the 44-foot-long board, optimizing the viewing experience for Ryan Field attendees.

Behind the north end zone, an LED ribbon board measuring 138 feet in length will be installed on the facade of Walker Terrace, offering additional opportunities to display game information, spirit messaging and in-game promotions.

Finally, the ribbon board currently affixed to the south end zone seating structure also will be replaced in favor of a new LED displays to match the technology installed on Walker Terrace. Two south ribbon boards, one on either side of a fixed digit scoreboard, will span a combined 90 feet.

Northwestern's procurement of enhanced video display capabilities in Ryan Field was achieved in conjunction with Anthony James Partners (AJP), one of the leading audio/video consultants in the marketplace. AJP previously has been responsible for implementing displays at venues including Spartan Stadium and the Breslin Center (Michigan State), Ohio Stadium (Ohio State), Lambeau Field (Green Bay Packers) and many other professional and collegiate venues.

NEW ATHLETICS/RECREATION COMPLEX COMING TO NORTHWESTERN'S SCENIC LAKEFRONT

Northwestern University is in the early stages of construction of a major complex for athletic and recreational activities on the north end of its main Evanston campus. A large indoor multipurpose facility will provide room for major events, such as the University's annual new student convocation; indoor practice and a competition venue for intercollegiate sports; and space for recreation, club sports and intramurals. NU has already raised more than $170 million in support of the project.

BAND OF BROTHERS

→ Northwestern's 2014 roster features four sets of brothers, tied with Navy and Minnesota for the most in the country this season, and two of those sets of brothers were high school teammates in New Jersey. NU's brotherly tandems this season are:

Hayden Baker (Sr., OL)	Quinn Baker (R-Fr., WR)	Trout Valley, Ill.	Cary-Grove
Cameron Dickerson (Jr., WR)	Garrett Dickerson (Fr., SB)	Englewood, N.J.	Bergen Catholic
Jimmy Hall (Sr., LB)	Nate Hall (Fr., LB)	Toledo, Ohio	Sylvania Southview

HOME SWEET HOME

→ This season marked the first time the Wildcats opened a year with three straight home games since 2007, when NU's initial road test was played on Sept. 22 at Ohio State. This Saturday's trip to Happy Valley stands as the deepest into the month of September that Northwestern has gone before its first road game since the 1986 season, when NU also played its first road game on Sept. 27.

'CATS EARN A SPLIT OF NONCONFERENCE CONTESTS

→ Northwestern closed the door on the 2014 nonconference season in emphatic fashion, defeating No. 15/16 Notre Dame, 43-40, in South Bend. The Wildcats finished with a 2-2 mark outside of the Big Ten schedule this season, improving Pat Fitzgerald's all-time record in regular-season nonconference games (FBS or FCS) to 29-7 (.806).

ACTIVE NAVY SEAL TOM HRUBY MAKES ON-FIELD DEBUT FOR NORTHWESTERN

On Saturday, Nov. 8, against Michigan, a special member of the Northwestern Football program made his in-game debut for the Wildcats. Tom Hruby, 32, is an active Navy SEAL who has spent most of the last decade serving his country overseas. An Indiana native, Hruby enrolled at Northwestern last fall and has spent the last 18 months as a hard-nosed practice player for NU, seeing reps at defensive line, superback and on special teams. In his first-ever college football game, Hruby contributed on NU's punt return and kickoff return units.

NORTHWESTERN NAMED RECIPIENT OF AFCA ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT AWARD FOR EIGHTH TIME

On Monday (Nov. 24), it was announced that Northwestern, Duke, Notre Dame and Stanford will share the American Football Coaches Association's 2014 Academic Achievement Award, which is presented by the Touchdown Club of Memphis. The four football programs recorded a 100 percent graduation rate for members of their freshman football student-athlete class of 2007. This is Northwestern's eighth time winning the national since Big Ten teams became eligible to win the award in 1998, the most by any program in that timeframe.

2014 NORTHWESTERN OFFENSIVE NOTES

WILDCATS OFFENSE COMES TO LIFE

→ After scoring a combined 33 points in a three-game stretch between Oct. 18 and Nov. 8, Northwestern has found its groove on offense and averaged 40.5 points and 480.5 total offense yards per game in wins at Notre Dame and Purdue. In those two games, NU posted season highs for points (43 at Notre Dame, previously 29 vs. Penn State), rushing yards (263 at Notre Dame, previously 203 vs. Wisconsin) and total offense (547 at Notre Dame, previously 394 vs. NIU) and also recorded six plays of 30-plus yards after totaling only three through the first nine games.

SIEMIAN THRIVING UNTIL INJURY AT PURDUE

→ Without question of the catalysts behind NU's offensive resurgence, senior QB Trevor Siemian was on top of his game at Notre Dame when he threw for a season-high 284 yards on 30-of-48 passing. He then started strong against Purdue before succumbing to a second-quarter lower-body injury that could keep him out of his Senior Day game vs. Illinois. Siemian was 7-of-12 passing with 93 yards and a score before exiting the game in West Lafayette.

→ Siemian has officially made 14 starts in his career—with only three coming into this season—but, as detailed in the charts on page 1, leaves NU as one of the school's most prolific passers. The Florida native ranks fourth in career passing yards and completions, sixth in total offense and seventh in career touchdowns thrown despite sharing snaps with Kain Colter and Dan Persa during his first three years of action.

→ Siemian set career highs for passing attempts (50) and completions (32) against Minnesota on Oct. 11, marking the most pass attempts in a game by NU since throwing it 51 times vs. Iowa on Oct. 15, 2011, and the most by an individual QB at Northwestern since Mike Kafka's school-record 78 pass attempts in the 2010 Outback Bowl.

→ In a win at Penn State on Sept. 27, Siemian's 258 passing yards at Beaver Stadium were overshadowed by his unique rushing line of five carries for (-8) yards and three rushing TDs of 1-yard each. The performance marked the first time in college football since at least 1996 that a player rushed for three touchdowns while also finishing with negative net yardage. Before that game, Siemian's only previous rushing touchdown had come in NU's win in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl on Jan. 1, 2013.

OLIVER, ALVITI STEP UP IN SIEMIAN'S ABSENCE

→ Junior QB Zack Oliver came on in relief of Siemian against Purdue, making his third appearance of the season. Oliver had also spelled Siemian against against Northern Illinois—firing a 54-yard touchdown pass to Pierre Youngblood-Ary—and at Iowa, when he completed 1-of-6 pass attempts. Oliver finished 5-of-11 for 85 yards against the Boilermakers, also scoring his first career touchdown on a 1-yard rush in the fourth quarter.

→ Likewise, redshirt freshman QB Matt Alviti also played in his third game of the season at Purdue, typically providing a running threat out of the backfield. Alviti had seen limited snaps in his debut against Michigan and the following week at Notre Dame, when he scored his first career touchdown on a QB sneak in the opening quarter, but it was not until his third appearance at Purdue that he completed his first career pass attempt.

→ Alviti prepped at Maine South (Ill.) High School, where he compiled nearly 10,000 passing yards and more than 2,000 rushing yards in his career.

JACKSON RACES PAST 1,000-YARD MARK IN TRUE FRESHMAN CAMPAIGN

→ True freshman running back Justin Jackson has achieved a milestone in 2014 that had been met only 15 previous times in Northwestern Football history, and only one previous time by a freshman, surpassing 1,000 rushing yards on the season. Jackson is averaging 96.1 ground yards per game, and his 1,057 rushing yards this season are the fifth-most by a freshman in FBS this year and the third-most by a Power-5 conference freshman.

Top Freshman Running Backs in FBS

1. Jarvion Franklin (WMU) ..... 1,433 yds.
2. Samaje Perine (OKLA) ..... 1,428 yds.
3. Nick Chubb (UGA) ..... 1,152 yds.
4. Nick Wilson (ARIZ) ..... 1,085 yds.
5. Justin Jackson (NU) ..... 1,057 yds.

→ Jackson reached his milestone in impressive fashion at Purdue, going over the 1,000-yard mark on an NU season-long run of 68 yards that resulted in a fourth-quarter touchdown for the Wildcats. Jackson finished with 147 yards for the day, his fifth 100-yard rushing effort of the season.

→ The Wildcats featured a 1,000-yard rusher in 10 out of 12 seasons between 1995 and 2006, then went five seasons without one until Venric Mark rushed for 1,366 in 2012. Jackson's 1,057 yards are the second-most by an NU freshman in school history, behind only Tyrell Sutton's incredible 1,474-yard campaign in 2005.

→ Jackson also collected 149 yards on the ground at Notre Dame on Nov. 15, the most allowed by the Fighting Irish this season and the most by an individual against Notre Dame since Pittsburgh's Ray Graham netted 172 on Nov. 3, 2012, a span of 27 games.

→ Even with Jackson excelling as a freshman, senior Treyvon Green continues to make important contributions in the backfield and in the kicking game. Green has broken out for long runs of 45 and 44 yards against Notre Dame and Purdue, respectively, also finishing the Notre Dame game with 175 all-purpose yards thanks to a career-best 97 kick return yards.

→ Early in the year, Northwestern also received strong contributions from another true freshman tailback, Solomon Vault. The native of Gaithersburg, Md., averaged 4.1 yards per carry in six games in the early going but has been llimited by a series of lower-body injuries, missing the Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan and Notre Dame games.

PRATER SHINES IN SOUTH BEND

→ Senior Kyle Prater has come into his own in his final year with the Wildcats, leading the offense in receptions (51) and yards (535) this year after entering the season with only 19 catches for 113 yards in his career. The 6-foot-5 Prater keyed Northwestern's victory at Notre Dame with a career-high and NU season-high 10 receptions, totaling 81 yards and an outstanding 4-yard TD reception on a fade route. Prater also showed his value as a possession receiver on NU's drive toward a game-tying field goal, catching four passes for 37 yards and repeatedly managing to reach the sideline and stop the clock.

→ Prater, who has started all 11 games in 2014 after not starting in either of his first two seasons with the 'Cats, has compiled 22 catches for 249 yards and a touchdown in his last two outings.

VITALE A PRIME TARGET

→ Junior superback Dan Vitale remains one of NU's most versatile players and a matchup problem for many opponents, serving as a primary target of Trevor Siemian's throughout the year. Vitale is second on the squad in both receptions (38) and receiving yards (390) this season, setting single-season career highs in both categories. Over the last two weeks, Vitale has eclipsed both 100 career receptions and 1,000 career receiving yards, putting him in a position to challenge Drake Dunsmore's NU receiving records by a tight end.

→ Vitale went off for a career-high performance at Penn State, collecting 113 yards on seven receptions (16.1 yards per catch) to record his second career 100-yard receiving game and post what remains a season-high for NU in 2014.

ELSEWHERE IN THE RECEIVING CORPS...

→ Junior Cameron Dickerson also has brought good size and athleticism to the perimeter this season. Dickerson set a career high against Notre Dame with 97 receiving yards and now has been on the receiving end of Northwestern's two longest pass plays of the season (60 yards vs. Notre Dame, 54 yards vs. Northern Illinois).

→ Junior transfer Miles Shuler integrated himself in the Wildcats' offensive and special teams plans before missing the last three games with a hand injury. Shuler set career highs for receptions (6) and receiving yards (60) at Minnesota, one week after he scored his first touchdown as a Wildcat vs. Wisconsin when he took a reverse handoff and covered the 16 yards to the end zone.

→ Shuler, who arrived at NU last fall after spending his first two seasons at Rutgers, stands fourth on the team with 454 all-purpose yards on the year. He missed the Michigan game due to an injury to his hand.

→ Sophomore WR Mike McHugh made his fourth career reception in spectacular fashion at Iowa (Nov. 1). With the Wildcats driving in the third quarter, Trevor Siemian lofted a pass toward the front corner of the end zone, where McHugh managed to sky over his defender and get one hand to the ball at its highest point. McHugh collected possession on his way down while somehow landing one foot inside the boundary, completing a 24-yard reception and what is undoubtedly one of the catches of the year in college football.

→ Another Dickerson, Cameron's younger brother Garrett Dickerson, also has gotten in on the Wildcats attack as a true freshman. The 6-3, 235-pound superback caught his first career pass against Western Illinois, making an athletic 21-yard reception on a seam pattern. Dickerson, who also is used extensively in rushing and short yardarge situations, made his first career start against Notre Dame and caught two passes for 14 yards.

NAMES TO KNOW ON 'O'

→ Sophomore Warren Long has found a role as Northwestern's third-down and short-yardage tailback, coming up with a powerful run to on NU's successful two-point conversion in the fourth quarter at ND.

→ Northwestern's Brandon Vitabile earned the starting center job as a redshirt freshman in 2011 and never looked back, and now is in his fourth year as an anchor on the offensive line—and his second year as a Wildcats team captain. Vitabile has started all 49 games of his NU career and began this season as one of only eight offensive linemen in the country with an active streak of at least 38 games started.

→ Northwestern's Oct. 8 game vs. Michigan represented the first time this season that NU did not start the same five on the offensive line, with senior Jack Konopka assuming the starting right tackle spot in place of sophomore Eric Olson. Konopka started back-to-back games before sustaining an injury that kept him out of Saturday's game at Purdue.

→ The O-Line gave its most dominant effort of the season in a win over Wisconsin, when junior guard Matt Frazier was tabbed the team's Offensive Player of the Game for his physicality in helping NU's Justin Jackson rush for 162 yards against a stout Badgers defense—still the most allowed by Wisconsin this season.

PAIR OF WILDCATS ANNOUNCE RETIREMENT FROM FOOTBALL

On Thursday, Oct. 23, Northwestern sophomore Dwight White announced his decision to retire from football. White played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman in 2013 and started six games at cornerback.

White has been approved by the Big Ten Conference as a medical non-counter beginning in the 2015-16 academic year. He was the second NU cornerback with starting experience to be lost for the season after senior Daniel Jones suffered a season-ending injury prior to the start of training camp in August.

Only three weeks later, head coach Pat Fitzgerald announced at his weekly Monday press conference senior linebacker and 2014 co-captain Collin Ellis had played his final game as a Wildcat. A veteran of 38 games played with 148 tackles, 10.0 TFLs and four interceptions, Ellis was in his third season as a starter in the NU linebacking corps. He had played in five games this season but suffered recurring upper body injuries that prompted him to retire from the sport.

2014 NORTHWESTERN DEFENSIVE NOTES

→ Northwestern has coaxed its opponents into 12 turnovers over the last three games, most recently notching a season-high five takeaways against Purdue. Northwestern ranks No. 3 in the Big Ten and tied for 12th in the country with 26 turnovers (14 interceptions, 12 fumbles recovered) gained on the year.

→ Northwestern has recorded five or more takeaways in a game only seven times since 2000, with three of those instances coming against Purdue:

Rk	School	Date	G#		Opponent		Fum	Int	TO
1	Northwestern	2009-10-03	5	@	Purdue	W	5	1	6
2	Northwestern	2003-11-22	12	@	Illinois	W	2	4	6
3	Northwestern	2014-11-22	11	@	Purdue	W	3	2	5
4	Northwestern	2008-10-18	7		Purdue	W	2	3	5
5	Northwestern	2008-09-27	5	@	Iowa	W	4	1	5
6	Northwestern	2003-08-30	1	@	Kansas	W	3	2	5
7	Northwestern	2002-09-21	4	@	Navy	W	4	1	5

Nowhere have those takeaways been more critical for NU than in the red zone, where Northwestern has tallied a Big Ten-leading five red zone turnovers. The Wildcats continue to lead all Big Ten teams in red zone defense, allowing opponents to come away with points on only 75.6 percent of trips inside the 201.

→ Northwestern held Purdue to 61 net rushing yards, the third time this year the 'Cats have kept an opponent below 100 rushing yards in a game. NU limited Western Illinois to 84 yards and Penn State to 50 yards on the ground.

CAMPBELL A FORCE IN HOME STRETCH OF NU CAREER

→ Senior safety Ibraheim Campbell was honored Monday as the Big Ten's Co-Defensive Player of the Week after his second straight stellar performance for the Wildcats. Against Notre Dame, Campbell recorded a career-best two forced fumbles, including the strip of Notre Dame's Cam McDaniel with 1:28 remaining in the game that allowed NU to tie the score in regulation. One week later, Campbell recorded his third forced fumble in two games and added his 11th career interception in the fourth quarter.

→ With the pick against the Boilers, Campbell moved into a tie for third all-time on NU's career interceptions list and also has joined teammate Nick VanHoose in the top-5 all-time at NU in career pass breakups.

→ Campbell previously missed four straight games with a lower-body injury this season, but at Purdue the 'Cats secondary was without two other regular starters: cornerback Nick VanHoose and safety Traveon Henry. Standout redshirt freshman Godwin Igwebuike made his sixth start of the season at safety in place of Henry, while his classmate, Marcus McShepard, made his first career start for the injured VanHoose.

HALL ON THE BALL

→ Like Campbell, senior linebacker Jimmy Hall has come up with a series of big plays in recent weeks, contributing to four turnovers in two games. In NU's dramatic win at Notre Dame, Hall pounced on a pair of fumbles, one on Cam McDaniel's late fumble and the other in the NU end zone. One week later, Hall intercepted Purdue's Austin Appleby on the Boilermakers' first offensive series (Hall's third career pick), then forced and recovered a fumble later in the first half.

MAKING THE STOP

→ Northwestern now boasts two players with more than 300 career tackles in seniors Chi Chi Ariguzo (321) and Ibraheim Campbell (307). Ariguzo leads all Wildcats in tackles by a substantial margin with 92 on the year—ranking 13th in the Big Ten with 8.4 per game—and is closing in on his second career season of 100 or more tackles.

→ CB Nick VanHoose ranks second in the Big Ten standings and is 23rd nationally in passes defended, with 12 on the year and 1.2 per outing. VanHoose ranks fourth in NU history with 25 pass breakups, five behind current Chicago Bear Sherrick McManis ('09) in third.

→ Redshirt freshman Godwin Igwebuike made four consecutive starts at safety in place of injured senior Ibraheim Campbell before Campbell returned to the lineup vs. Michigan. In his first career start against Wisconsin, Igwebuike secured three interceptions, becoming the first NU player with three picks in the same game since Neil Little vs. Indiana in 1973. Igwebuike is one of seven FBS players with three picks in a game so far in 2014.

WALKER INHERITS STARTING MIDDLE LINEBACKER ROLE

→ Walker made his first career start on Sept. 27 at Penn State and, playing in his first Big Ten game, notched a team-leading eight tackles and secured his first career interception. Walker returned the pick 49 yards for a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter—the first "pick-six" ever registered against PSU QB Christian Hackenberg—and was tabbed the Co-Big Ten Freshman of the Week on Sept. 29.

→ Against Notre Dame, Walker again came up with an interception and long return, picking off a deflected ball and racing 65 yards to the 4-yard line and setting up a Northwestern second-quarter touchdown.

FRONT FOUR FACTS

→ Northwestern boasts a strong rotation of defensive ends, all of whom have at least one year of eligibility remaining after 2014. Most recently, juniors Deonte Gibson and Dean Lowry, who have a combined 15.0 career sacks, have earned the starting D-End spots, with sophomore Ifeadi Odenigbo (8.5 career sacks) and true freshman Xavier Washington entering the game primarily on opponent passing and third-down situations.

→ The true freshman Washington announced his presence in emphatic fashion in the fourth quarter at Penn State, drilling PSU QB Christian Hackenberg for his first career sack and forced fumble.

→ A recent spate of injuries has forced Northwestern to make adjustments on the interior, where juniors C.J. Robbins and Max Chapman were the most recent Wildcats to earn the starting nods at D-Tackle. Sophomore Greg Kuhar was stout throughout the campaign, starting eight games this season and making a career-high eight stops at Minnesota on Oct. 11, before suffering a season-ending injury at Notre Dame. Senior Chance Carter, who sat out the Michigan contest with an injury, and sophomore Connor Mahoney also have helped round out the rotation on the interior.

ODENIGBO ENTERS BIG TEN RECORD BOOKS

→ Sophomore defensive end Ifeadi Odenigbo proved to be too much for Western Illinois to handle in pass protection, allowing Odenigbo to tie a Big Ten Conference record with three forced fumbles in a single game. Before that game, the feat had been achieved only three times in league history (listed below) and was accomplished just once in FBS action for the duration of the 2013 season (Buffalo's Khalil Mack vs. Miami (Ohio), Nov. 13, 2013).

Three Forced Fumbles in One Game—
Big Ten Conference History

Ifeadi Odenigbo, NU vs. WIU (9/20/2014)
Bob Sanders, IOWA vs. MINN (11/15/2013)
Antoine Winfield, OSU at PITT (9/23/1995)
Jerry Hartman, MICH vs. IND (10/21/1967)

→ Odenigbo made his presence felt against the Badgers as well, forcing his way past Wisconsin tackle Rob Havenstein (6-8, 333 lbs.) to disrupt QB Joel Stave on a pass attempt. Odenigbo's QB hurry resulted in Jimmy Hall's interception that immediately set up NU's second touchdown in the game.

2014 NORTHWESTERN SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

JACK MITCHELL'S CLUTCH PERFORMANCE CLINCHES WIN AT ND

→ Nine games into his first season as NU's starting place-kicker, sophomore Jack Mitchell was putting together a successful but modest campaign, converting 8-of-10 field goal attempts with a long make of 29 yards. But Mitchell broke out in a big way at Notre Dame on Nov. 15, overcoming frigid temperatures and pressure-packed situations to lift the Wildcats to their 43-40 overtime win against the Irish and earn Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week accolades. Mitchell connected on 4-of-5 field goal attempts—all of which came after halftime—with makes from 31, 46, 45 and 41 yards, with the last two representing the game-tying and game-winning kicks.

→ Mitchell's 46-yarder was the longest made field goal by an NU kicker since Jeff Budzien's 47-yard effort at Iowa on Oct. 15, 2011. The four made field goals against the Irish tied a Big Ten single-game high this season and marked only the 10th instance of four or more made FGs in NU history.

→ Mitchell is now 13-of-17 on the season, placing him in a tie for fifth in the Big Ten with 1.18 made field goals per game.

→ A San Diego native, Mitchell also has played for the last two seasons on the baseball diamond for NU, starting 21 games in the outfield in 2014 and batting .257 with 10 RBI and 10 runs scored.

ON THE RETURN

→ Early in the second quarter at Purdue, senior Tony Jones caught a Boilermakers punt in traffic, broke a tackle and sprinted 64 yards for his first career punt return touchdown. The play was NU's first punt return for a touchdown since Venric Mark's 75-yard score at Penn State on Oct. 6, 2012.

→ The Wildcats have just eight punt returns on the season but currently lead the Big Ten in average yards per punt return (17.2).

PIN 'EM BACK

→ Recent weeks have seen former walk-on punter Chris Gradone and redshirt freshman Hunter Niswander battle for game reps at punter, though opportunities have been limited with Northwestern punting just a combined five times over the last two games. Gradone handled all five of those reps against the Fighting Irish and Boilermakers, with a long kick of 47 yards.

→ Gradone earned Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his effort against Western Illinois, when he averaged 44.2 yards per punt while landing six of seven attempts inside the opposing 20-yard line. Gradone then featured prominently in Northwestern's win over Wisconsin (Oct. 4), overcoming wet and windy conditions to produce a series of four straight punts downed at the opponent's 6-, 4-, 9- and 6-yard lines.

→ Niswander, who stands 6-foot-5, made his collegiate debut at Iowa with a 42-yard punt and against Michigan punted four times with a long of 43 yards.

SPECIAL TEAMS BLOCK PARTY

→ Nick VanHoose has become a valuable weapon in the kicking game this season, ranking in a four-way tie for first nationally with three blocked kicks in 2014. VanHoose has blocked one field goal and two PATs this season, and against Notre Dame returned the blocked PAT more than 90 yards for a two-point defensive conversion.

2014 HONORARY CAPTAINS

Each home game, Pat Fitzgerald and the Wildcats are fortunate to be joined in the pursuit of a victory by an honorary captain. The honoray captain traditionally delivers a message to the team following the squad's Friday afternoon walk-through, joins the team for dinner and on Saturday walks with NU's season-long captains to midfield for the pregame coin toss. Below is a look at those individuals who have served in this role so far in 2014:

2014 Northwestern Honorary Captains
Cal: Barry Gardner, Northwestern LB (1995-98), second-round NFL draft pick
Northern Illinois: Jean Yale, retiring NU Donor Relations & Event Coordinator
Western Illinois: Chris '70 & Courtney Combe '99 P, NU philanthropists
Wisconsin: Nathan Shanks, former Northwestern superback (2003-07)
Nebraska: Trai Essex, former NU OL, '05/'08 Super Bowl champion (Steelers)
Michigan: Barry Cofield, former NU DL, Super Bowl XLII champion
Illinois: Steve Wilson '74, Chairman/Pres./CEO of CF Holdings

CALIFORNIA	31
NORTHWESTERN	24

Northwestern's furious second-half rally came up just short at Ryan Field as California raced out to a big early lead, then held on for a 31-24 victory in the season-opener for both teams.

The loss was the first suffered in a season-opener during the head coaching tenure of Pat Fitzgerald, who began the day with an 8-0 career mark in NU season-openers. It also marked the end of Northwestern's 16-game home winning streak in nonconference play, which dated to the start of the 2008 season.

Cal got off to a fast start, receiving the opening kick and mounting an impressive 18-play drive that culminated on a fourth-and-goal play from the Wildcats' 2-yard line. After a timeout, quarterback Jared Goff put the visitors on the board with his two-yard touchdown pass in the flat to Bryce Treggs, finishing a drive that ate up more than six minutes of clock time.

After a Northwestern drive into Cal territory stalled on a failed fourth-and-1 conversion attempt, the Golden Bears took a 14-0 lead when they scored on a seven-yard pass by Goff to Kenny Lawler over the middle of the end zone. The Wildcats were forced to punt from the shadow of their own goal post on their ensuing drive, setting up a short field that Cal used to move into position for a 20-yard field goal that grew the lead to 17 points.

Northwestern's offense found a rhythm midway through the second half as Siemian found junior wideout Cameron Dickerson on the post pattern, with Dickerson breaking past the second line of defense and skirting 54 yards for NU's first touchdown of 2014.

The Bears answered in short order, however, when Goff went over the top on the ensuing play from scrimmage to hit a streaking Trevor Davis for a 76-yard touchdown pass, giving the visitors a 24-7 lead that they carried into the locker rooms.

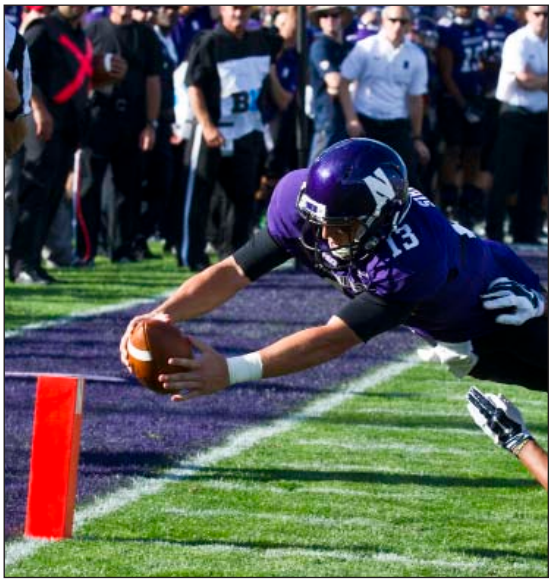

The score grew to 31-7 when Cal began their first possession of the second half one yard shy of midfield and covered the 49 yards to paydirt on 11 plays, the last of which was a 1-yard scoring run up the middle by Khalfani Muhammad.

True freshman Justin Jackson kept NU in the hunt with a powerful 7-yard scoring run to cut Northwestern's deficit to 31-14. On the ensuing 1st-and-10 play for the Bears, Collin Ellis recorded his third career INT against Cal, setting up a QB throwback play that saw Jayme Taylor set up Trevor Siemian for a 17-yard TD that pulled the hosts back within 10.

NU would make it a one-score game on a Jack Mitchell field goal with 5:18 remaining, but a last-gasp drive ended in an interception as California avoided a home-and-home series sweep.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS	23
NORTHWESTERN	15

After a scoreless first half on a sun-splashed afternoon at Ryan Field, Northwestern and Northern Illinois combined for 38 second-half points, but it was the visiting Huskies who had eight more to come out on top of the in-state showdown, 23-15.

NIU scored three second-half touchdowns, two of which came on passes from quarterback Drew Hare to wide receiver Da'ron Brown, and added a field goal. The Wildcats put up two scores of their own on touchdown passes from Trevor Siemian and Zack Oliver, but it was not enough to knock off the visitors from DeKalb.

Both defenses stood tall in the first 30 minutes of play. The Wildcats held the Huskies to 142 yards of total offense with an equal 71 yards coming both on the ground and through the air. The 'Cats made sure, however, that Northern Illinois was held scoreless in a first half for the first time since the 2011 MAC Championship game vs. Ohio.

NIU received the ball to begin the second half and it marched 60 yards downfield to break into the scoring column. Tyler Wedel kicked a 32-yard field goal that gave the visitors a three-point lead, the first of the day for either side, with 11:55 remaining in the third quarter.

Northwestern got its own offense on the board with a quick-strike drive later in the third quarter. After taking over on his own 40-yard line, Siemian marched the offense down on a four-play drive that took only 58 seconds to complete and culminated with Kyle Prater's first career touchdown catch. The senior hauled in a pair of passes for a combined 41 yards on the drive. Siemian was a perfect four-for-four on that drive as the 'Cats covered all 60 yards through the air.

The Huskies responded to their first deficit of the day by orchestrating a methodical drive of its own that ended with Hare finding Da'ron Brown for an 18-yard touchdown, his first of two. The 82-yard drive gave NIU a 10-7 lead, an advantage that grew to 23-7 late in the fourth quarter.

Siemian was knocked out during the next drive on a low hit and Zack Oliver came on in relief. Oliver led NU to the end zone once again when the redshirt junior found a streaking Pierre Youngblood-Ary for a 54-yard touchdown strike. It was the first career touchdown for both 'Cats. Oliver also found Cameron Dickerson in the end zone to convert for two points to bring the home team to within one score at 23-15. NU's Jack Mitchell attempted an onside kick, but it was covered up by Brown and the Huskies ran out the remaining 2:34 to grab the win.

GAME THREE: WESTERN ILLINOIS

WESTERN ILLINOIS	7
NORTHWESTERN	24

Northwestern earned its first win of the 2014 season against Western Illinois, receiving a trio of rushing touchdowns from true freshman tailbacks Solomon Vault (two) and Justin Jackson in a 24-7 Wildcats victory.

Jackson racked up a career-best 92 ground yards with a 4.4-yards-per-attempt average for the Wildcats, while Vault's touchdowns were the first of his young career. The duo of newcomers accounted for 123 of NU's 166 rushing yards on the day. Defensively, sophomore D-end Ifeadi Odenigbo filled the stat sheet with three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and one sack.

NU opened the scoring on its first series of the game with an efficient nine-play scoring drive, highlighted by Treyvon Green's season-long scamper of 25 yards. The Wildcats advanced to the 1-yard line, where they handed it off to Vault for the rookie's first career touchdown.

Western Illinois responded with a 10-play touchdown series, culminating in a four-yard QB rollout pass to wideout Joey Borsellino that leveled the score at seven.

After a defensive stop later in the quarter, redshirt freshman Keith Watkins II provided a spark when he came free on punt coverage and blocked a Western Illinois punt, providing a short field for the Wildcats offense. But the WIU defense came up with a stop on the sudden change, forcing a sack and forced fumble on a third-down pass attempt by Trevor Siemian.

With the score still even in the second quarter, Northwestern again had a short field to work with thanks to a sack and forced fumble by Odenigbo, who now boasts 6.5 sacks in his young career. The play set up a brief two-play scoring drive for Northwestern, which gained six yards on an end-around to Miles Shuler before Vault covered 11 yards on his way to a second touchdown on the afternoon.

Northwestern maintained a seven-point lead at halftime thanks to a blocked field goal by defensive end Max Chapman on the final play of the second quarter.

After intermission, Jackson followed his classmate Vault into the end zone, doing so on a nifty 21-yard run that featured a lethal juke past a WIU defender at the 15-yard line.

Northwestern's defense kept the WIU attack at bay for much of the remainder of the game, with Odenigbo and Deonte Gibson providing regular pressure off the edge for the Wildcats. The duo teamed up to get the ball back for the 'Cats with 4:22 left to play. Odenigbo forced his third fumble of the game on a third-down play and Gibson pounced on the ball to turn it back over to the offense.

GAME FOUR: PENN STATE

NORTHWESTERN	29
PENN STATE	6

Northwestern opened Big Ten play at Penn State with a dominating defensive performance, riding three rushing touchdowns from Trevor Siemian and a pick-six by Anthony Walker to a resounding 29-6 win, the Wildcats first victory over the Nittany Lions and at Beaver Stadium since 2004.

Northwestern's defense stole the show through the duration of the game, led by the coming out party of the redshirt freshman Walker. Making his first career start in his Big Ten Conference debut in place of the injured Collin Ellis, Walker registered eight tackles to go along with a game-changing interception return for touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Siemian recorded 21 completions on 37 attempts for 258 yards and one interception. Though the record will reflect just five rushing attempts for an eight-yard loss, three of those runs resulted in touchdowns on quarterback sneaks behind a surging offensive line. Junior superback Dan Vitale was a favorite target of Siemian's, hauling in seven receptions for a career-high 113 yards.

Norhwestern jumped to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter—becoming the first PSU opponent this season to get on the scoreboard in the opening period—with a pair of Siemian QB sneaks. Meanwhile, the Wildcats defense forced Penn State into three consecutive three-and-outs, setting the tone for what was to come in the game.

Penn State scored the only points of the third quarter with a field goal that cut it to a one-score game, but that all changed with Walker's 49-yard INT return for a touchdown. On Penn State's next play from scrimmage, another young Wildcat, true freshman Xavier Washington, came free to drill Hackenberg and force a fumble that was recovered by Connor Mahoney.

Mitchell would come on to convert a 23-yard field goal to extend NU's lead to 17, and the Northwestern defense came up with yet another stand when Greg Kuhar stuffed Bill Belton on a fourth-and-1 rush attempt, returning the ball to the Wildcats in excellent field position.

The next drive resulted in Siemian punching it in for his third rushing touchdown of the game to ice the contest, 29-6, midway through the fourth quarter. From there, NU stopped another Penn State fourth-down attempt in Nittany Lion territory and effectively burned up the clock on the ground to seal the victory.

GAME FIVE: WISCONSIN

17/16 WISCONSIN	14
NORTHWESTERN	20

On a cold and windy Saturday afternoon at Ryan Field, Northwestern edged No. 17/16 Wisconsin 20-14 in the Wildcats' inaugural game in the Big Ten West Division.

Safety Godwin Igwebuike, making his first career start, recorded three interceptions, the first three-pick performance by a Northwestern player since 1973, leading to NU's fourth consecutive home victory over Wisconsin and the team's second in-conference victory of the season in as many games.

Forty-five years after Mike Adamle put up a school-record 316 yards on the ground against Wisconsin, freshman Justin Jackson rushed for 162 yards, the first triple-digit performance of his young career. Jackson's 33 carries were the most by an NU tailback since Tyrell Sutton also had 33 against Indiana in 2007.

After Igwebuike denied the Badgers points on their opening drive with an interception in the end zone, the 'Cats put together a 75-yard drive that resulted in a Jack Mitchell's 22-yard field goal that gave NU the early lead.

Northwestern's defensive line continued its strong start on the Badgers' first drive of the second quarter, stopping Wisconsin just shy of midfield behind constant pressure on McEvoy. On the ensuing drive, Siemian rebounded from a sack to find Tony Jones on a 35-yard pass down the sideline, and Jackson continued to wear down Wisconsin's defense.

From there, the 'Cats converted on a pair of key fourth-down attempts, including a 7-yard pass from Siemian to Miles Shuler down to the Badgers' 10-yard line. Another Jackson run put Northwestern five yards out and Siemian found superback Dan Vitale on a crossing pattern in the back of the end zone on the following play to give the 'Cats a 10-point edge.

After five failed drives in the first half, Wisconsin found the end zone on its first try after halftime, moving quickly into the red zone on a 61-yard rush by Gordon. The junior tailback punched it in soon after to set the score at 10-7.

Later in the quarter, Ifeadi Odenigbo disrupted a Joel Stave pass attempt that was intercepted by Jimmy Hall, and on the next play from scrimmage the 'Cats covered the 16 yards to paydirt on a reverse play to Miles Shuler. Northwestern's advantage grew to 20-7 on another Mitchell field goal early in the fourth period.

With six minutes remaining in the game, Igwebuike again came up large for the 'Cats with a first-down interception in the end zone. Though Wisconsin would cut it to a one-score game late, Igwebuike sealed the victory with yet another pick near midfield.

GAME SIX: MINNESOTA

OCT. 11, 2014

NORTHWESTERN	17
MINNESOTA	24

Trailing 17-10 in the fourth quarter, Northwestern executed a 97-yard touchdown drive to tie the score, but Minnesota immediately responded by taking the ensuing kickoff back 100 yards to defeat the Wildcats, 24-17.

Freshman RB Justin Jackson surpassed the 100-yard for a second straight game, finishing with a game-best 106 yards on 23 attempts while adding four catches for 50 yards. NU held Minnesota's vaunted tailback David Cobb to 97 yards on 30 carries, just a 3.2 yard per carry average. QB Trevor Siemian set career highs for passing attempts (50) and completions (32), throwing for 269 yards with one touchdown through the air and another on the ground.

Minnesota scored first on a Mitch Leidner QB sneak, but NU responded by moving the ball across midfield and keeping the drive going with a 4th-and-1 pickup by Warren Long at the UM 21-yard line. Three plays later, Siemian floated a pass to a wide-open Justin Jackson for an 11-yard touchdown pass to level the score at seven.

It wouldn't stay that way for long after Minnesota connected on a 52-yard catch-and-run play to Maxx Williams, landing the Gophers on the Northwestern 5-yard line. Leidner then scored on his second QB sneak of the day to restore a seven-point lead for the Gophers.

Northwestern then put together its own lengthy scoring drive, which ended in a short Jack Mitchell just before halftime. Defenses ruled throughout the third quarter, with the Wildcats securing their ninth interception of the season when Nick VanHoose won a jump-ball near midfield. But neither team found a rhythm offensively and the score remained 14-10 as the game entered the fourth period.

NU came up with a key defensive stand to limit the Gophers to a field goal early in the quarter, keeping it a one-score ballgame. After a mishandled kickoff left the Wildcats with 97 yards to go in search of the game-tying touchdown, Siemian directed a stellar drive that saw him complete five of eight passes and move the ball down to the Gophers 10-yard line. An NU third-down pass fell incomplete in the end zone, but Minnesota was flagged for roughing the passer and unsportsmanlike conduct to place the ball on the 3-yard line. On second down, Siemian followed a powerful surge by his offensive line for a score, his fourth rushing touchdown of the season.

Minnesota had the answer, however, with a 100-yard touchdown return on the ensuing kickoff. The 'Cats had two more chances to drive down for another game-tying score, but the first drive stalled near midfield and the second ended on an intercepted Hail Mary pass.

GAME SEVEN: NEBRASKA

Oct. 18, 2014
Ryan Field
Attendance: 47,330

19/19 NEBRASKA	38
NORTHWESTERN	17

Despite two lengthy touchdown drives, another explosive performance from freshman RB Justin Jackson and a strong defensive effort for three quarters, Northwestern dropped a 38-17 decision to Nebraska at Ryan Field.

Jackson picked up 128 rushing yards and a pair of touchdowns, his third straight game over the century mark. QB Trevor Siemian completed 18 passes to eight different receivers, and junior safety Traveon Henry recorded a team-leading 12 tackles on the defensive side.

After Northwestern held the Cornhuskers off the board on the first drive of the game, the 'Cats took over at their own 11-yard line. On the ensuing 89-yard touchdown drive, Siemian completed five of his seven pass attempts, including two each to Kyle Prater and superback Dan Vitale. Jackson finished off the drive with a two-yard touchdown, his third rushing score of the year.

The Huskers responded with a lengthy drive of their own, going 47 yards to the Northwestern 22-yard line. Kicker Drew Brown's 39-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right, however, and the 'Cats took over with their seven-point lead still intact.

Nebraska needed only seven plays to go 80 yards for the tying touchdown five minutes into the second quarter. QB Tommy Armstrong Jr. rushed 17 yards on a keeper to set up Ameer Abdullah's one-yard touchdown run.

After the score, the two teams combined for four straight three-and-outs before NU converted on its second scoring drive of the game to reclaim the lead. Starting from their own 17-yard line, the 'Cats marched downfield and, after a roughing the passer penalty brought Northwestern to the 5-yard line, scored when Jackson received the handoff, juked his way forward and spun off a tackle attempt for his second TD of the game.

The Huskers wasted no time responding, using 38 seconds to tie the game with their second touchdown. With 1:14 remaining in the half, Northwestern began the following drive at their 34-yard line, picking up a pair of 15-yard gains on a pass interference penalty and Cameron Dickerson's first catch of the game two plays later. Siemian then threw a strike to Treyvon Green on a post route to put Northwestern 13 yards out, and kicker Jack Mitchell nailed a 29-yard field goal to give the 'Cats a 17-14 lead at halftime.

Nebraska struck first after the break on Abdullah's second 1-yard touchdown of the game with 4:27 left in the third quarter. The senior back then broke free for a 50-yard rush down to the 1-yard line on the following drive, setting up his third 1-yard score of the game, before taking it in for a fourth time to give Nebraska a 35-17 edge it wouldn't relinquish.

GAME EIGHT: IOWA

Nov. 1, 2014
Kinnick Stadium
Attendance: 66,887

NORTHWESTERN	7
IOWA	48

Northwestern traveled to Kinnick Stadium in search of a seventh win in its last 10 meetings with Iowa, but the Hawkeyes burst out of the gates with a 24-0 first-quarter lead and eventually defeated the 'Cats, 48-7, in a Big Ten West matchup.

True freshman running back Justin Jackson was Northwestern's top performer on offense, rushing for 96 yards on 24 attempts to fall just shy of a fourth-straight 100-yard rushing performance.

Iowa got off to a strong start with a 54-yard kickoff return on the game's first play, and on second down it was burly tailback Mark Weisman breaking free for 18 yards to the NU 8-yard line. Weisman scored two plays later to give the hosts an early 7-0 advantage.

A flea-flicker by the Hawkeyes on their next series went for 42 yards and set up an eventual 48-yard field goal by Iowa's Marshall Koehn, which extended the hosts' lead to 10 points.

With the Hawkeyes defense keeping Northwestern at bay, Iowa added to its cushion after QB Jake Rudock completed a 43-yard pass to Kevonte Martin-Manley to give Weisman an opportunity to score his second rushing touchdown of the day. Just minutes later, NU's deficit ballooned to 24 when a Chris Gradone punt was blocked and recovered for an Iowa touchdown with 3:39 left in the period.

The quarter ended on a positive for the Wildcats when Iowa's punt team mishandled a snap deep in its own territory, giving Northwestern the ball at the Hawkeyes' 18-yard line. Two running plays gave the 'Cats a first down, and Jackson punched it in from 1-yard out for his fifth rushing score of the season and NU's first points of the day.

Iowa had an answer on the ensuing drive, a 75-yard series that culminated in a 31-yard scoring strike by Rudock to Tevaun Smith, who won a 1-on-1 battle with his defender to come free in the end zone.

After the teams traded punts to open the second half, Northwestern put together a 10-play drive highlighted by a phenomenal leaping, one-handed catch by sophomore wideout Mike McHugh at the 4-yard line. But Jackson was stuffed on the 1-yard line on third down and Trevor Siemian's fourth-down pass into the end zone was broken up to preserve a 31-point lead for the Hawkeyes.

Iowa would add a field goal early in the fourth quarter and a late touchdown to account for the final 48-7 score.

GAME NINE: MICHIGAN

Nov. 8, 2014
Ryan Field
Attendance: 42,429

MICHIGAN	10
NORTHWESTERN	9

Northwestern's last-second rally came up one point short as the Wildcats were edged by Michigan, 10-9, at Ryan Field.

Trailing 10-3 following a 37-yard Michigan field goal with 3:10 remaining, NU embarked on a drive to attempt to tie the game. Starting from their own 26-yard line, the 'Cats methodically marched down the field. Trevor Siemian completed a pair of throws that resulted in first downs before Justin Jackson rushed for two more on third down to get the Wildcats to the Michigan 22.

A pass interference penalty on a ball intended for Cameron Dickerson gave NU first and goal at the 7 as the clock ticked under one minute remaining. Two plays later, Siemian took the shotgun snap and lobbed a ball to the left side of the end zone that Tony Jones hauled in for a touchdown with just three seconds remaining.

Northwestern opted to line up for a two-point conversion and go for the win and the Wolverines called a timeout. Following the timeout, Siemian rolled to his right out of the shotgun but slipped to the ground as the conversion failed, allowing Michigan to hold on for the one-point win.

Neither offense gained much traction across the 50-yard line in the first quarter, despite Siemian completing 6-of-9 passes in the period, with four of his completions going to senior wideout Kyle Prater. After Siemian was intercepted by Jake Ryan late in the first quarter, the NU defense responded to the sudden change by stuffing Michigan on a fourth-and-1 rush at the Wildcats 16-yard line, returning possession to Northwestern and keeping the game scoreless. It remained that way into the third quarter.

The first break of the second half went Northwestern's way when a Michigan shotgun snap to Devin Gardner hit Devin Funchess in motion. But the Wildcats could not cash in on the excellent field goal position, missing a 31-yard field goal wide to the left.

After NU forced a three-and-out on the ensuing Wolverines drive, the Wildcats mishandled the Michigan punt and the visitors were able to recover in prime field position. Two plays later, De'Veon Smith punched in the first touchdown of the game with a three-yard rush, giving Michigan a 7-0 advantage.

Senior safety Ibraheim Campbell did his best to provide a lift in his first game since Sept. 27, intercepting a Devin Gardner deep ball on the 6-yard line and returning it 79 yards to the Michigan 15. But two negative plays were followed by an intentional grounding call against the Wildcats, and NU was forced to punt it back to the Wolverines.
