...seeing it's freshman contribute 33% of its scoring

QUICK HITS

• MONDAY'S GAME: Illinois returns from a short holiday break to host George Washington in a 2 p.m. contest on Monday. The meeting will mark the first between the two schools, and can be watched live on FIGHTINGILLINI.com.

• LAST TIME OUT: Fighting Illini sophomore Chatrice White earned her fourth consecutive double-double and swatted a State Farm Center record seven blocks on Tuesday night, Dec. 22, however it wasn't enough to lift the Illini over South Dakota as the Coyotes handed Illinois its first loss at home this season. The Illini (7-3) fell, 85-76, to South Dakota (9-4), despite knocking down 10 three-pointers and shooting better than 40-percent on the night.

• SCOUTING GEORGE WASHINGTON: Receiving votes in last week's USA Today Coaches Poll, the Colonials will see the Illini after wins over Villanova and Iona. GWU is 8-3 on the season, including a win over then-No. 21 Iowa. George Washington is led by Jonquel Jones and Caira Washington who average 18.5 and 14.2 points, respectively. Jones also leads the team with more than 15 boards per game.

• COMING UP: Illinois will have a few days off before opening Big Ten Play against Maryland. The Illini host the Terps on New Year's Eve, and will give away free New Year's hats to fans at the door.

GO THE DISTANCE

The Illini have found success from beyond the arc to start the season, as they currently rank 13th in the country and first in the Big Ten in three-point field goals per game (8.8). Illinois has netted at least eight triples in seven games this season, and is the only Big Ten team to do so. Illinois has knocked down 10 triples in five games this season, the only school in the league to do so.

Redshirt senior Kyley Simmons certainly leads the charge from distance this season as she has knocked down four or more treys in four games this season. She has made at least one trey in nine games this year.

FIGHTING ILLINI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NOTES

BLOCK PARTY

As a team, the Illini have tallied 50 rejections on the season, averaging five per game. Illinois averaged almost four blocks a game last season, led by Chatrice White's freshman record 60 blocks. White is once again leading the charge as she is almost halfway to last year's tally with 28 blocks through 10 games. If she keeps up this pace, White could place herself atop the Illinois Season Blocks list currently led by Karisma Penn who rejected 78 shots in the 2010-11 season. White's 60 blocks last season ranks sixth all-time at Illinois. She is certainly holding up her end of the bargain as she swiped seven blocks against South Dakota, matching her career-best and the State Farm Center record set by Karisma Penn.

White has some help this season as freshman Alex Wittinger is also racking up the rejections. Wittinger has 16 total so far this season, including a season-best, six, against Lehigh.

WHITE'S WAYS

Sophomore Chatrice White has been making waves this season, starting the year off with back-to-back double-doubles. She didn't stop there, however, as she has put up 20 or more points in five games so far this season. White currently has 10 career 20+ point games and 12 career double-doubles.

- She has recorded a double-double in her last four games, which has not been done since Karisma Penn earned six-straight double-doubles in the 2010-11 season.
- The last Illini to start the season with consecutive double-doubles was Karisma Penn in the 2012-13 season (11 pts., 12 rbs. vs. Evansville; 29 pts., 16 rbs. vs. Bradley). Penn also recorded a double-double in three of the first four games of the year.
- Prior to Penn, Jenna Smith started the 2009-10 season out with four-straight double-doubles, and continued on to record a double-double in six of the first seven games.
- White currently ranks 2nd in the Big Ten and 22nd in the nation for her six double-doubles this season. She's No. 21 in the country for her seven defensive rebounds per game as well.

TOP OF THE LINE

FIGHTING FRESHMEN

The Illini freshman class is proving to be a major tool this season, as the three newcomers combine to average more than 25 points per game, just about a third of UI's total scoring (33.5%). Cierra Rice leads all freshmen averaging more than 13 points per game, while Alex Wittinger is crucial on the boards for the Illini, grabbing 5.7 per game. Illinois is one of just four Big Ten schools to see that type of production out of its incoming class. Only Nebraska and Michigan see more scoring from their freshmen (42% and 39%, respectively), while Penn State's freshman class contributes 30-percent of its scoring numbers.

GOING STREAKING

Speaking of double-digits, several Illini have been on a scoring streak with back-to-back double-figure scoring games. Chatrice White started the season with four consecutive double-digit scoring games, including three 20-point performances, while Kyle Simmons was previously on a five-game streak as well.

Name Current Double-digit scoring streak

Cierra Rice	8 games
Chatrice White	5 games

TOP 10 WINNINGEST

Now in his 14th season of head coaching, Matt Bollant came into the year with a .754 winning percentage. That number puts him 10th among all active head coaches in the country. Not only that, but Bollant has a 100-percent graduation rate during his 19 years of head coaching.

RECORDS FALL

Redshirt senior Kyley Simmons knocked down seven three-pointers, helping to lead Illinois over Lehigh on Dec. 6. She shot 70-percent from distance in the game, and her seven treys matched the State Farm Center single-game record set by Amber Moore in 2011. Simmons is currently shooting 48.5-percent from distance, good for first in the Big Ten and 15th in the nation.

DEFENSE IS KEY

Illinois' defense has largely contributed to its hot start to the year. UI has held three opponents to less than 32-percent shooting from the field, including holding Tennessee State to just 21.7-percent. Four Illini opponents have shot 25-percent or worse from distance as well this season. Illinois has also kept opponents away from the free-throw line as their 162 total fouls ranks 50th in the nation and fifth-best in conference.

DOUBLING UP

Six Illini reached double-figure scoring numbers in two games this season. The Illini first spread the production out against Tennessee State, seeing career-bests from Kennedy Cattenhead and Brooke Kissinger as well. The Illini again spread out the scoring against SIU on Dec. 8, seeing six players hit double-digits once again. Prior to Tennessee State, Illinois last saw six or more players reach double-figure scoring numbers was on Nov. 17, 2013 against Alcorn State. Seven players put up double-digits in that 112-28 victory.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK TIMES THREE

Cierra Rice has earned Big Ten weekly honors twice this season, the most for an Illini freshman since Karisma Penn received the honor four times in the 2009-10 season. She first garnered the award on Monday, Nov. 23, coming off of a 20-point performance against UT Martin and helping the Illini to a 94-74 win. Rice went 6-for-6 from the field against UT Martin, banking three triples on the day. She had a 6-for-7 performance from the charity stripe as well. The Grosse Pointe, Mich., native scored 21 points, dished five assists and grabbed five rebounds in the game, only tallying one turnover. She then earned her second nod on Dec. 7, after putting up 22 points against Miami and following up with a 12-point performance in Illinois' win over Lehigh.

HEAD COACH
MATT BOLLANT
50-54 // Fourth Season

Now entering his fourth season as head coach of the University of Illinois, Matt Bollant has begun to revive a dormant Illini program after being a part of the best seasons in program history at each of his other four collegiate coaching stops. In just his first season with the program, Bollant led the Orange and Blue to the postseason for the first time in three years in 2013 and Illinois finished with a winning Big Ten record for the first time in 10 seasons. He also has spearheaded the composition of back-to-back top-25 recruiting classes during his first two recruiting years in Champaign.

Despite taking a step back in wins and losses, the Illini program began to change its culture in the 2013-14 season. The values of hard work, fundamentals, attention to detail and team unity began to pay off as Illinois was much more competitive down the stretch, including a 61-51 win at Michigan State. The Orange and Blue also broke the school record for three-pointers made with 202 and finished eighth and 13th nationally in steals and turnover margin, respectively. On the recruiting front, two Illini commits earned All-America honors, as Chatrice White became only the second McDonald's All American in Illinois program history and Amarah Coleman earned honorable mention WBCA All-America honors.

The 2014-15 season saw the Illini post a 9-3 non-conference record, starting the season with a 5-0 record to mark the best non-conference record to start a season that the program has seen in 12 years. Freshman Chatrice White proved to be a weapon on the floor as she broke the Illinois Freshman All-Time Scoring and Blocked Shots records. With Bollant's coaching, the Illini earned a win over No. 9-ranked Kentucky at the Paradise Jam, and continued to upset No. 17 Iowa later in the season. Defensively, Illinois ranked among the top-15 in the nation, averaging more than 11 steals per game. Seniors Ivory Crawford and Brittany Carter played a major role in those numbers as they each ranked among the top-40 in the nation, individually. Bollant saw seven of his student-athletes earn All-Big Ten Academic honors following the season, proving that the program is headed in the right direction both on and off the court.

In 2012-13, the Illini reached the Women's NIT quarterfinals and saw attendance at the Assembly Hall increase 80 percent from 2011-12 to an average of 1,926, the third-highest average attendance increase in Division I women's basketball. Illinois also defeated three ranked opponents: No. 6 Georgia, No. 24 Iowa and No. 24 Ohio State, with the win over the Buckeyes snapping their 31-game home winning streak. The win over the Hawkeyes also broke an eight-game skid against Iowa.

The Illini shattered the Big Ten record for steals, steals per game and turnovers forced in a conference season, and also broke school records for steals, turnovers forced and three-pointers made in a season. Senior forward Karisma Penn became one of the country's most dominant post players, averaging 19.2 points, 9.6 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.2 blocked shots per game with 50.6 percent field-goal shooting, all of which ranked in the top five in the Big Ten. She was named an Associated Press honorable mention All-American and also earned two national player of the week honors. Senior guard Adrienne GodBold earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors after posting 55 steals in 16 conference games and routinely guarding opponents' top offensive players.

- Helped Chatrice White to set the new all-time freshman records for scoring and blocks
- Led Illinois to its first postseason berth in three years in 2012-13 and a winning Big Ten record for the first time in 10 years
- Guided the Illini to the quarterfinals of the 2013 Women's NIT and five wins over teams who were ranked or receiving votes, with two of those wins coming on the road.
- Helped Karisma Penn become an honorable mention All-American and Adrienne GodBold become the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year in 2012-13.

Alex Wittinger joins Rice in earing the weekly honor as she was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week on Dec. 13 after back-to-back double-digit scoring games against SIU and Central Michigan and her second-career double-double against CMU.

It is the first time since the award was developed in 2009-10 that Illinois has had two players receive Freshman of the Week honors.

THE ROARING TWENTIES

Illinois saw three players score at least 20 points against UT Martin as freshmen Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger each put up double-figure scoring numbers for the first time in their careers. Wittinger (20), Rice (21) and Chatrice White (26) combined for 67 of Illinois' 94 points in the game. The last time three Illini scored 20 or more points was UI's 95-69 win over Minnesota on Feb. 5, 2015. Wittinger also grabbed 11 rebounds in the contest, marking her first-ever double-double.

Cierra Rice continued to rack up the points, dropping 22 at Miami on Dec. 2. Rice is one of just three freshmen in Illinois history, dating back to 1980, to put up 20 or more points twice within the first five games of her career. Also on that list is sophomore Chatrice White, who scored 20 or more points in six games last season. Krista Reinking (1994-95) rounds out the total list. Reinking has four 20+ points games in her freshman season.

With two 20+ point games under her belt already, Rice is averaging almost 14 points per game. If she keeps up this type of production, Rice will etch her name among the all-time freshman records at Illinois.

FIGHTING ILLINI WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NOTES

BOLLANT'S 50TH

Head coach Matt Bollant earned his 50th victory at Illinois in a 74-69 defeat of Central Michigan. Bollant is currently 332-107 in his career. He has taken his teams to 12 postseason appearances in his head coaching career, including four NCAA Tournament appearances and a Sweet 16 appearance in 2011. The Illini earned a 7-1 start to the season, the best during Bollant's tenure at the helm of Illinois Women's Basketball.

RPI WATCH

Illinois has been making waves in the RPI this season, after spending several weeks ranked among the top-10. The Illini currently sit at No. 66 in the latest NCAA RPI. The Ratings Percentage Index (RPI), is used to rank teams based upon wins and losses and strength of schedule. There are several factors that determine the number, including winning percentage, opponents' winning percentages and opponents' winning percentage.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

With only two starters returning this season, the Illini have a few new faces in the starting lineup. Redshirt senior Kyley Simmons and sophomore Chatrice White are returning for a second year, but they are joined by first-time starters Sarah Hartwell, Kennedy Cattenhead and Cierra Rice. Three of the five starting Illini are underclassmen, while three of the five are also first-time starters.

A PROMISING FUTURE

The Illini are headed into the 2015-16 season with a positive outlook on things to come. The team returns starters Chatrice White and Kyley Simmons, and also brings back experienced returners in Kennedy Cattenhead, Sarah Hartwell, Brooke Kissinger and Ashley McConnell. Several Illini newcomers bring major promise, as Simone Law and Eriel Davis each have Division I playing experience under their belts. Illini freshmen Cierra Rice, Jaelyne Kirkpatrick and Alex Wittinger are a decorated incoming class as they are each ranked among the top-5 recruits in their home state.

ILLINI CRUISE PAST GREYHOUNDS IN EXHIBITION

Fighting Illini Women's Basketball started its season on a high note Saturday afternoon, tallying a 95-36 exhibition win over the University of Indianapolis at Parkland College. The Orange and Blue saw all nine players on the floor put up at least three points in the game, and the Illini assisted on 20 of 35 field goals in the contest. Illinois out rebounded the Greyhounds 38-26 and held UIndy to just under 23-percent shooting in the game. The Illini dropped 13 three-pointers in the contest, while shooting over 54-percent from the floor.

WHITE RETURNS FOR SUPER SOPHOMORE SEASON

Returning for her sophomore season, Chatrice White, expects no sophomore slump. She closed out the 2014-15 season averaging 14.5 points per game and a team-leading 7.0 rebounds per contest. She owns the Illinois freshman records for scoring and blocked shots as she led the team with 60 rejections.

ILLINI LOOKING FOR NEW CONTRIBUTORS

The Illini will have a few holes to fill in the absence of recent graduates Ivory Crawford and Brittany Carter. The two combined for an average of 23.6 points per game, and Carter led the team in steals, closing the season with 80. Crawford grabbed 64 steals herself last season, helping the Illini to a league-leading 11.2 steals per game.

NEWCOMERS

The Illini welcome a decorated class of freshman this year, including Parade All-American Cierra Rice, who was ranked as the No. 1 player out of Michigan. Ranked at No. 5 in the state of Minnesota, Alex Wittinger also joins the Illini this year. She grabbed 21 rebounds in her first outing with the Illini, an exhibition matchup against the AMW All Stars in Paris, France. Coming off of a stint with the Canadian National team, Jaelyne Kirkpatrick joins the Illini this season. She was ranked as the No. 1 guard in Canada.

The Illini also welcome some experience to the program this year in seniors Eriel Davis and Simone Law. Law comes to Illinois from Loyola-Chicago, where she earned First Team All-Horizon League honors and was twice named to the Horizon League All-Tournament Team. Davis, a native of Danville, returns to the Illini squad after two seasons. She was a member of the 2012-13 squad and assisted the team as a practice player prior to that.

ILLINI WELCOME JODY MARTINEZ

Head coach Matt Bollant announced the addition of Jody Martinez to the Illini staff over the summer. Martinez brings 17 years of head coaching experience with him, and he has led his teams to more than 400 wins in his head-coaching career. Martinez comes to Illinois from Southeastern University, where he led the Fire to a 25-7 record in the 2014-15 season and guided the program to its first-ever NAIA Division II Women's Basketball NIT. Prior to his stint at Southeastern, Martinez served as the head coach for the Bethel Pilots, where he led the Lady Pilots to 20 or more wins in 15 of his 16 seasons at the helm of the program, and prior to his arrival in 1998, the program had never seen a winning season. Martinez guided the Lady Pilots to six NCCAA National Championship titles and made seven trips to the NAIA National Tournament including five elite eight appearances. His teams won three MCC regular season titles and an MCC tournament championship as well.

ILLINI MAKE WAVES ON A NATIONAL STAGE

Illini sophomore Chatrice White and freshman Jaelyne Kirkpatrick were busy over the summer, competing at the FIBA U19 World Championships. Kirkpatrick competed for Canada, while White helped to bring home the gold on team USA. White averaged five points per game while in Russia, playing in seven games throughout the tournament.

TOUR DE FRANCE

The Illini packed in some extra practice over the summer, heading overseas to play a few games in France. The Illini faced off against Paris' professional team, the AMW All Stars, and also played two games against Bretigny Select. Freshmen Alex Wittinger, Jaelyne Kirkpatrick and Cierra Rice got a taste of competition, as they competed with their new teammates for the first time.

While across the pond, the Illini got to take some time to see the sights. Tour stops included the Eiffel Tower, Monaco, Lyon, and Nice.

A NEW HOME

After the 2013-14 season, the Fighting Illini had to vacate their home arena, State Farm Center, as the three-year, $169.5 million Illinois Renaissance renovation project began. The renovation includes the installation of premium seating, upgrades to team locker rooms, all concourses, concession and restroom facilities, and wider aisles and increased access for patrons with disabilities. In addition, air conditioning will be installed and grand entrances will be constructed on the arena's east and west sides. While most of the first year of construction's work was mechanical and infrastructure-related, fans will notice new, blue seats in the 200 level, which was formerly known as "C" section.

Fighting Illini women's basketball team improved to 2-0 on the season Sunday, Nov. 15, defeating Ohio, 62-53 inside Parkland College. Sophomore Chatrice White led the Illini with 22 points and 13 rebounds, securing her second double-double in as many games. The Illini capitalized on 25 Ohio fouls in the contest, shooting better than 76-percent from the charity stripe. The Bobcats, who returned three starters from last year's NCAA tournament team, came out strong from the first tip, taking an early lead in the game. The Orange and Blue trailed 23-11 at the end of the first quarter and Ohio led by as much as 13 early in the second quarter.

Three Illini tallied 20-point games on Saturday, as freshmen Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger joined sophomore Chatrice White to combine for 67 of Illinois 94 points. White has now put up double-figures in three-straight games, while Rice and Wittinger both earned their first-career 20-point games. The Illini saw four players record at least three assists, and every Illini who played put up at least three points in the game. As a team, Illinois hit 10 treys, and out rebounded the Skyhawks 43-30.

Fighting Illini women's basketball handed head coach Matt Bollant his 50th victory at Illinois on Sunday, using an unselfish style of play to overcome Central Michigan, 74-69. Illinois improves to 7-1 on the year, continuing the best start for an Illinois team since the 2009-10 season. The underclassmen were the story on Saturday as freshman Alex Wittinger and sophomore Chatrice White both recorded double-doubles in the contest. Illinois' freshmen accounted for 32 of UI's total points.
