THE OPENING KICK

- The Fighting Illini will look to for win number five this Saturday when Purdue comes to Memorial Stadium to battle for the "Cannon" rivalry trophy. Illinois is looking for its second-straight win after topping Indiana 43-13 last week.
- Illinois has faced the toughest schedule in the nation thus far according to the official NCAA schedule strength rankings. Illinois' opponents have a combined record of 35-9 this season vs. Division I opponents (not counting their game vs. Illinois).
- Illinois' three losses this season (Missouri, Ohio State and Michigan State) have a combined record of 22-1, with all three teams ranked in the top-11 of the Oct. 24 BCS standings. Illinois led two of the three games at halftime (Missouri and Michigan State), and was on the verge of tying Ohio State late in the game before falling short in the red zone late in the fourth quarter.
- The Illinois defense has made big strides this year under new defensive coordinator Vic Koenning. Illinois currently ranks 15th nationally in points allowed (17.7 ppg), 19th in rushing yards allowed (112.4 ypg) and 23rd in total defense (315.1 ypg). At the end of last season, the Orange and Blue ranked 96th in scoring defense (30.2 ppg), 76th in rushing defense (154.4 ypg) and 91st in total defense (403.3 ypg).
- The Fighting Illini have yet to allow more than 26 points in a game this season despite facing the nation's toughest schedule. Illinois held the high-powered offenses of Missouri (23) and Michigan State (26) to season-low point totals and also held an Ohio State offense averaging 49.3 points per game to 24 points and an Indiana offense averaging 34.2 ppg to 13.
- The Illini defense has allowed just eight touchdowns on 25 opponent red zone trips (32.0 percent) and ranks third in the nation in red zone touchdown percentage defense behind only Alabama (30.4 percent) and West Virginia (30.8 percent).
- Illinois' defense has held its opposition to under 100 yards rushing four times in seven games this season (98 vs. Missouri, 46 vs. SIU, 65 at Penn St., 93 at Michigan St.) and seven times in the last two seasons. Through seven games, the Illini are allowing 112.4 ypg on the ground, which ranks 19th in the nation.
- Illinois ranks third in the nation in red zone scoring percentage, picking up points on 22 of its 23 trips inside the 20 this season (96 percent). The Illini have 11 touchdowns and 11 field goals in the red zone so far this season. The only time the Illini didn't convert a red zone trip into points was when the second half clock ran out at Michigan State with the Illini inside the 20.
- Doak Walker Award candidate Mikel Leshoure has topped the 100-yard mark in four games this season and in seven of Illinois' last 13 games dating back to last season. So far this season, Leshoure ranks third in the Big Ten and 14th in the nation in rushing with 108.4 ypg.
- Junior linebacker Martez Wilson leads Illinois and ranks in second in the Big Ten in tackles (9.1 tpg) and also ranks second on the team in tackles for loss (5.5) and sacks (2.0). Wilson has led the Illini in tackles in four of the last five games, posting 11 stops against Northern Illinois, nine against Ohio State and 12 each in the wins at Penn State and vs. Indiana.
- Redshirt-freshman QB Nathan Scheelhaase was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week for the third time this season after leading the Illini to the 43-13 win over Indiana last week. Scheelhaase was 13-of-21 for 123 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions and also rushed six times for 45 yards (7.5 ypc).
- Ray Guy Award and Campbell Award candidate Anthony Santella ranks fifth in the nation with an average of 46.5 yards on 33 punts. As a team, Illinois ranks fourth in the nation in net punting (41.45 ypk).

BATTLE FOR THE CANNON

- This week Illinois and Purdue will play for the coveted "Cannon." Purdue leads the traditional trophy series by a 30-25-2 mark.
- The "Cannon," more accurately known as the Purdue Cannon, made its first trip to Champaign-Urbana in 1905 when a group of Purdue students brought it to fire after a Boilermaker victory. Purdue won the game, 29-0, but the Cannon was never fired. Illinois student Quincy Hall found the Cannon hidden near the old Illinois Field. Hall and a group of Delta Upsilon brothers confiscated the Cannon and held it until 1943 when they donated it as a symbol of the UI-Purdue rivalry. Tomahawk Service and Leadership honorary at Purdue and Illini Pride of Illinois maintain the trophy when the respective school has won it.
- Illinois held the Cannon for a two-year stretch after victories over Purdue during the 2001 and 2002 seasons. The Cannon was last fired Nov. 4, 2001, at the Illinois football complex following the victory. The Boilers won back the trophy in 2003 and have retained possession of it for the last seven years. The two teams did not meet in 2007 and 2008.

PURDUE SERIES NOTES

- Saturday's game marks 86th meeting between the Illini and Boilers, dating back to 1890. The series with Purdue is the oldest in Illinois' 120-year history. Purdue was one of two teams played in Illinois' inaugural year of college football (the other was Illinois Wesleyan, which ended in 1912).
- Illinois leads the series 41-38-6 overall and 22-18-2 in Champaign. The Boilers have won the last five meetings, including a 42-31 win in 2006, the last time the two teams met in Champaign. Last season, Purdue won 24-14 in West Lafayette after the series took a two-year hiatus in 2007 and '08.
- This will be Ron Zook's fourth contest vs. Purdue, who is the only Big Ten team he has not beaten during his six seasons at Illinois, as he carries a 0-3 record vs. the Boilers. PU coach Danny Hope is in his second season with the Boilermakers and is 1-0 against the Illini.

HIGHLIGHTS AGAINST THE BOILERMAKERS

- Junior Mikel Leshoure ran for what was then a career-high 122 yards on 15 carries (8.1 ypc), including a 65-yard touchdown, in last year's game in West Lafayette. It was Leshoure's first career 100-yard game. He has had six more 100-yard games since then.
- Junior kicker Derek Dimke scored his first career point in the third quarter of last year's game at Purdue when he nailed an extra point. Since that game, Dimke has connected on 19-of-21 field goals and all 28 of his extra points.
- Sophomore receiver Jack Ramsey caught three passes for a career-high 44 yards in the 2009 meeting with Purdue as a redshirt-freshman.
- Senior punter Anthony Santella pinned the Boilers inside the 20 on four of five punts last year and averaged 44.8 yards per kick in the game.
- Current senior Travon Bellamy had his second-career interception in the 2006 matchup as a true-freshman, returning it 47 yards.
- The last time to the two teams met in Champaign in 2006 they combined for 73 points, marking the highest combined point total of the Illinois-Purdue series.

ILLINI DEFENSE IN HABIT OF SHUTTING DOWN HIGH POWERED OFFENSES

The Illini 'D' has held some of the top offenses in the nation in check this season:

- Illinois forced five turnovers, including four interceptions, and blocked two punts against Indiana on Oct. 23. The Hoosiers entered the game with the nation's fifth-ranked passing offense, but were held 40 yards below their average of 319 yards per game. The Illini also limited IU WR/KR Tandon Doss, who entered the game ranked first in the nation in all-purpose yards (202 ypg) to just 90 yards.
- The UI defense held No. 13 Michigan State 179 total yards below its season average and 132 yards below its rushing average. The Spartans were averaging 473 total yards per game and 225 yards on the ground – which both ranked in the top 15 in the nation – but were held to season-low totals of 294 total yards and 93 rushing yards by the Orange and Blue.
- In Illinois' 33-13 win at Penn State on Oct. 9, the defense held PSU to season lows of seven first downs, 235 total yards, 2-of-14 third-down conversions and 21:48 time of possession, and kept the Nittany Lions to only 65 rushing yards. Penn State had been averaging 138.2 yards per game on the ground entering the game. PSU's seven first downs marked its fewest since gaining six first downs against Iowa in 2004.
- On Oct. 2, No. 2 Ohio State came to town ranked third in the nation in scoring (49.3 ppg) and eighth in total offense (506.8 ypg), but managed just 24 points and 290 total yards against the stingy Illini defense.
- The Illini held the Buckeyes to just 77 yards passing in the game, marking the third-straight year they have held OSU, and Heisman candidate Terrelle Pryor, to under 100 yards passing (49 yards in 2008 and 82 yards in 2009). Pryor piled up 334 yards passing in Ohio State's next game against Indiana on Oct. 2.
- The UI defense held NIU running back Chad Spann to just 15 yards on 13 carries. Spann currently ranks 17th in the nation, averaging 106.8 ypg, and racked up 223 yards on 15 carries against Minnesota on Sept. 25, one week after the Fighting Illini shut him down.

THE BIG TEN'S RUSHING TEAM

- During the Ron Zook era (since 2005), Illinois leads the conference in rushing yards per game. The Illini's 196.3 yards per game (13,151 yards in 67 games) in the last 5+ seasons tops Wisconsin's 192.7 ypg (14,065 yards in 73 games) during that same time span.
- Illinois has posted three games of 200+ rushing yards this season, including a season-high 319-yard effort against Northern Illinois on Sept. 18 and 282 yards on the ground at Penn State on Oct. 9.
- Mikel Leshoure has run for 1,328 yards on 223 carries (6.0 ypc) since the mid-point of last season (13 games). Among Big Ten players, only Wisconsin's John Clay (1,567 yards on 272 carries, 5.8 ypc) has more rushing yardage since Oct. 24 of last season.

- The Illini led the conference in rushing yards per game in 2006 and 2007, and were second in 2009. So far this season, Illinois is averaging 195.43 ypg on the ground, which ranks 27th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten.
- The Fighting Illini averaged 200.4 yards per game on the ground in 2009, ranking 17th in the nation and marking the third time under head coach Ron Zook that the Illini averaged over 200 yards rushing as a team. It also marked the third time in the last five years that Illinois finished the season ranked among the NCAA Top 20.
- Leshoure's 6.8 yards per carry in 2009 led all BCS conference players with at least 100 attempts, and he and teammate Jason Ford (6.1 ypc) ranked 1-2 in the Big Ten in that category last season.

INJURY REPORT

- On the Mend: The injury bug hit the Illini hard heading into the 2010 season. Two probable starters are out for the season in OL Corey Lewis, who tore his left ACL during spring ball, and safety Supo Sanni, who ruptured his right Achilles in practice on Aug. 25. In addition, FS Steve Hull (ankle) has missed the last three games after being injured against Ohio State and is questionable for this week's game, as is RB Jason Ford (ankle), who sprained his ankle against Indiana last week.
- They're Back: Sophomore CB Terry Hawthorne (foot) missed the first four games of this season before returning to action Oct. 9 at Penn State. Senior WR Eddie McGee (missed NIU game with ankle injury) and bandit Nate Palmer (missed first three games with a toe injury) both returned against Ohio State after missing time earlier in the season. Junior FB/TE Zach Becker (feet) returned to action at Michigan State after missing the first five games and was in the starting lineup last week vs. Indiana.
- A pair of Illini defenders have returned from season-ending injuries last season. Linebacker Martez Wilson missed 11 games with a neck injury last season and received a medical redshirt, while cornerback Miami Thomas suffered a knee injury in training camp last year, missing the entire season. Both players went through preseason training camp without further issues. Wilson returned to action in the season-opener and has registered a team-high 64 tackles, 5.5 TFL, 2.0 sacks, three pass break-ups, two QB Hurries and one blocked punt through seven games this season. Thomas saw his first action of the season in the Sept. 18 game vs. NIU.

MORE DEFENSIVE NOTES

- The Illini defense has been much improved over last season. In the first seven games of 2009, the Illini allowed 2,911 total yards (415.9 ypg), 1,297 rushing yards (183.3 ypg) and 194 points (27.7 ppg). In seven games this season, the Illini have allowed 2,206 yards (315.1 ypg), 787 rushing yards (112.4 ypg) and 124 points (17.7 ppg).

A CLOSER LOOK AT ILLINOIS' DEFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

Category	2009 (Final Nat'l Rank)	2010 (Cur. Nat'l Rank)
Points Allowed (ppg)	30.2 (96)	17.7 (15)
Rushing Defense (ypg)	154.42 (76)	112.4 (19)
Total Defense (ypg)	403.3 (91)	315.1 (23)
Pass Efficiency Defense	142.77 (103)	116.52 (34)
Passing Defense (ypg)	248.83 (100)	202.7 (57)

- The Illini's defensive turnaround this season is even more impressive when field position is taken into account. Opponents have started 14 drives in plus territory but the UI defense has allowed just one touch-down and seven field goals on those 14 drives.
- The Orange and Blue defense also has been stingy after turnovers. Following the 15 Illini turnovers, the defense has allowed just 25 points (1 TD and 6 field goals).
- Illinois' defense forced five turnovers last week against Indiana (four interceptions and one fumble). It marked the first time in eight years that Illinois forced five turnovers in a game (five vs. Northwestern on Nov. 23, 2002). The Illini converted the five turnovers into 24 points (three touchdowns and 1 field goal).
- Two of the Illini INTs vs. the Hoosiers resulted in touchdowns. Patrick Nixon-Youman scored on a 68-yard interception return in the second quarter and Jonathan Brown scored on a 66-yard interception return in the fourth, marking the first time Illinois has had two pick-sixes in a game since Bobby Jackson and Christian Morton both returned INTs for touchdowns at Purdue in 2001.
- Defensive tackle Corey Liuget has been a beast all season and especially lately. Against Indiana, he had five tackles, one sack and five QB hurries while helping the defense force five turnovers. The week before at Michigan State, Liuget registered a career-high 11 tackles, marking the most tackles in a game by an Illini defensive lineman since DE Mike O'Brien had 12 stop vs. Missouri in 2002 and the most for a DT since Paul Marshall had 11 at Minnesota in 1996.
- Liuget dropped 30 pounds in the offseason to get down to 285 in hopes of being more mobile and harder to block. It seems to have paid off, as Liuget has 34 tackles, a team-high 7.0 TFLs and 3.0 sacks this season to go along with a team-high nine hurries and two PBUs.

- LB Nate Bussey had a career day for the Orange and Blue against Penn State, returning an interception 16 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and also tying his career high with eight tackles. Last week against Indiana, Bussey blocked the first punt of his career leading to an Illini safety. Bussey is third on the team in both tackles (6.3 tpg) and tackles for loss (4.5).
- Senior CB Travon Bellamy has saved his best season for last. Bellamy stepped up big when Terry Hawthorne missed the first four games with an injury and hasn't let up. His 6.1 tackles per game are fourth on the team and he already has eclipsed his previous season career-highs of 4.0 tackles for loss and five pass break-ups.
- Trulon Henry recorded a pair of interceptions in the 24-13 loss to the Buckeyes. He intercepted a Terrelle Pryor pass in the second quarter and picked off a Joe Bauserman pass in the third quarter. Henry became the first Illini defender in six years to tally two INTs in a game (Kelvin Hayden vs. Florida A&M in 2004).
- The three points allowed to Southern Illinois on Sept. 11 mark the lowest point total allowed by an Illinoi team since shutting out Western Illinois on Sept. 8, 2007.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

- Quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase has been named the Big Ten's Freshman of the Week three times already this season. First on Sept. 13 following his 14-of-18, 229 yard, 1 TD, 0 INT performance against SIU, then again on Oct. 11 after his 15-of-19, 151 yard, 1 TD, 0 INT game at Penn State and most recently on Oct. 25 following his 13-of-21, 123 yard, 2 TD, 0 INT game in the win over Indiana.
- Scheelhaase's 221.31 passer rating for the SIU game is the sixth-highest single-game efficiency rating in school history and his 115 rushing yards against NIU is the seventh-best rushing game by a QB in UI history.
- When Scheelhaase took the field for the first play against Missouri, he became just the third redshirt-freshman in Illinois history to start a season opener. Scott Weaver (1993) and Rich Weiss (1978) are the only other two redshirt-freshmen to take the first snap of a season.
- New offensive coordinator Paul Petrino's offense has shown its ball control-capabilities during the first half of this season. The team's opening drive of the year was a 17-play, 9:14 monster that resulted in a 21-yard field goal. The drive exceeded last year's longest drive by 1:54 and also tied last year's longest drive in terms of plays. Through seven games, Illinois has 18 scoring drives of 8+ plays and 15 scoring drives of 4+ minutes.
- The Illini offense was dominant in the win over Penn State on Oct. 9, gaining a season-high 437 yards, including 282 rushing yards. It was the third time this year that Illinois has rushed for 200+ yards and was the most rushing yards that PSU had allowed since Minnesota rolled up 288 rushing yards in 2004.
- Junior running back Mikel Leshoure has taken on a bigger load for the Illini offense this season. He had a career-high 27 carries for 119 yards against the Nittany Lions and is now averaging 20.4 carries per game this season. Entering the season, Leshoure had carried the ball 20+ times just once (21 carries vs. Michigan in 2009). In 2010, he has four 20+-carry games already and is still averaging a robust 5.3 yard per carry for the season.

- Leshoure had a string of four straight 100-yard games snapped earlier this season by Ohio State, a streak that tied him with J.C. Caroline and Robert Holcombe for the most consecutive 100+ rushing efforts in school history. His four 100+-yard games this season and seven career 100+-yard games are both tied for the 10th-most in school history.
- Junior receiver A.J. Jenkins tallied a career-high seven receptions for 76 yards, including an 18-yard TD, in the win at Penn State. Jenkins leads the Illini with 363 yards and three touchdowns on 27 catches so far this season.
- Junior running back Jason Ford had a four-yard touchdown pass to freshman Evan Wilson in the third quarter against Penn State, Ford's first career pass and Wilson's first career TD catch. It marked the first time an Illini non-quarterback threw a TD pass since Oct. 7, 2006, at Michigan State, when WR DaJuan Warren threw a 27-yard TD to Jody Ellis.
- Ford also had nine carries for 47 yards against PSU, pushing him over 1,000 career yards. He is the 37th player in Illinois history to surpass 1,000 career yards and currently has 1,056 yards.
- Junior running back Troy Pollard had a season-high eight carries for 55 yards against PSU, including a long of 20 yards. It marked his most productive rushing game since he posted a career-best 92 yards at Syracuse in 2007.
- Senior WR Jarred Fayson had a breakout game for the Illini against Ohio State, catching eight passes for 83 yards, setting career highs in both categories. Fayson also completed the first pass of his career, throwing a 23-yarder to quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase in the first quarter, and downed a punt on the one yard line on special teams. Fayson also had a 17-yard touchdown reception last week against Indiana, his first TD of the season. Fayson leads the team with 28 catches through seven games, which 20 of those grabs coming in the last four games.
- Weak-side tackle Jeff Allen anchors the Illini offensive line once again. The junior has started every game since the fourth game of his freshman season, giving him a team-high 28 consecutive starts.

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

- Illinois blocked two punts against the Hoosiers last week. Both came in the third quarter on back-to-back possessions, first by Martez Wilson and then by Nate Bussey. Bussey's occurred in the end zone, resulting in a safety. That marked the first safety by the Illini since Oct. 16, 2004, vs. Michigan.
- Junior Troy Pollard had a big day returning kicks against Indiana. Pollard took back three kickoffs for 92 yards (30.7 ypr) against the Hoosiers, including an Illinois season-long 44-yarder in the second quarter. Pollard is averaging 25.2 yards on eight returns this season and ranks fifth in the Big Ten with a 26.1 average during conference games.
- Junior kicker Derek Dimke has been outstanding, connecting on 14-of-16 field goals, including two from 50+, and 17-of-17 extra points this season. He had made 10 straight field goals, the third-longest streak in school history, until missing a 51-yarder against Indiana last week. For his career, Dimke has connected on 19-of-21 field goals and is a perfect 29-of-29 on extra points since taking over placekicking duties late last season.
- Dimke was named Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week after going 4-for-4 on field goals against Penn State Oct. 9, hitting from 50, 31, 41 and 38 yards. His 52-yard field goal against Missouri in the season-opener tied the sixth-longest field goal in school history and was the longest by an Illini since 2005. Dimke is currently tied for third in the nation with an average of 2.0 made field goals per game.
- In addition to his field goal success, Dimke also has excelled on kickoffs. He has booted 15 touchbacks and has a 65.9 yard average in 37 kickoffs this season, already exceeding last year's season total of 12 touchbacks. This marks Dimke's third year as the Illini kickoff specialist, as he took over duties midway through his freshman season.
- Senior punter Anthony Santella is having a stellar final season. He had a career-best 50.8 average on five punts against SIU, equaling the fifth-best single-game punting average in school history, then booted six punts against NIU for a 48.7 average, including a career-long 67-yarder, and has not let up since. Santella currently ranks fifth in the nation with a 46.5 average on 33 punts.
- Santella has vastly improved in each of his four seasons. He's gone from averaging 37.7 yards per punt in 2007 to 39.4 in 2008, 41.3 in 2009 and now 46.5 so far this season. He currently ranks fourth in the Illinois record books in career punting average (40.5), fourth in career yardage (8,406) and fifth in career punts (208).

The only change to the unit is sophomore long snapper Zak Pedersen, who saw his first action in the season opener against Missouri.

MISCELLANEOUS TEAM NOTES

- With Illinois' win at Penn State on Oct. 9, Illini coach Ron Zook became just the sixth coach ever to defeat both Penn State's Joe Paterno and Florida State's Bobby Bowden on the road. Zook defeated Bowden's Seminoles in 2004 while coaching at Florida. He joins Larry Coker (Miami), Foge Fazio (Pitt), Dennis Erickson (Miami), Tom O'Brien (Boston College) and Howard Schnellenberger (Miami) as the only coaches to defeat the two winningest coaches in college football history on the road. (source Stats, Inc.)
- The win at Penn State also made Zook just the fourth coach to ever post road victories at Ohio State, at Michigan and at Penn State in a career. Zook joins former Big Ten coaches Barry Alvarez (Wisconsin), Hayden Fry (Iowa) and Glen Mason (Minnesota) on the exclusive list.
- Zook, the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year, is in his sixth season as the Illinois head coach. Entering Saturday's game against Purdue, Zook has an overall head coaching record of 48-56 in eight-plus seasons at Florida and Illinois combined and is 25-42 in five-plus seasons at Illinois.
- Illinois picked up its first win at Penn State with the 33-13 victory on Oct. 9 after entering the game 0-6 all-time in Happy Valley. The Illini also handed the Nittany Lions their biggest Homecoming defeat since they fell by 20 to Navy in 1955.
- Nineteen Illini, including eight true-freshmen, have made their Fighting Illini debuts this season. True-freshmen LB Jonathan Brown, bandit Brandon Denmark, WR Spencer Harris, WR Ryan Lankford, WR Darius Millines, QB Miles Osei, FB Jay Prosch and TE Evan Wilson all have seen action this season. In addition, two transfers: FS Trulon Henry and FB Chris Willett; seven redshirt-freshmen: RB Bud Golden, FS Steve Hull, DE Tim Kynard, TE Justin Lattimore, FS Ben Mathis, QB Nathan Scheelhaase and DT Akeem Spence; and two sophomores: LS Zak Pedersen and TE Eddie Viliunas all have seen the field for the first time in their UI careers this season.
- Attendance at the Oct. 2 game against Ohio State was 62,870, marking the first sellout crowd at Memorial Stadium this season, the 73rd in school history and the 10th since 2007.
- In five-plus seasons, Zook-coached teams have defeated nine of the 10 teams in the Big Ten at least once, including wins over No. 1 Ohio State, No. 5 Wisconsin and No. 19 Penn State in 2007. The only opponent that has eluded the Illini in the past five years is Purdue, who was off the schedule in 2007 and 2008.
- After this year's 35-3 home-opening win over Southern Illinois on Sept. 11, Illinois has won 13 straight home openers and improved to 83-33-5 all-time in the first home game of the season.

Illinois senior punter Anthony Santella is on the list of semifinalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy - formerly named the Draddy Trophy - which is given annually to a senior or graduate student in his final year of eligibility who has outstanding football ability and has demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship. It the fourth-straight year that an Illini player has been named a semifinalist, as former Illini J Lemar (2007), Ryan McDonald (2008) and Jon Asamoah (2009) all were named to the National Scholar-Athlete Class. Santella graduated with a bachelor's degree in sport management in May 2010 with a 3.54 GPA on a 4.0 scale and currently is pursuing a master's degree in the same field.

CHANGING THINGS UP

- With the rash of injuries during training camp, the Illini made several position changes heading into the season. Sophomore Justin Green moved from running back to cornerback, redshirt-freshman Steve Hull switched from wide receiver to safety and sophomore Jack Ramsey went from wide receiver to cornerback and now back to receiver. All three have made big contributions at their new positions in the opening weeks. Green has started all seven games and has registered 31 tackles and four pass break-ups, Hull has nine tackles and Ramsey had two tackles at CB and also sees time returning punts and kicks.
- Junior Tavon Wilson also made a move during training camp, going from cornerback to strong safety. He has responded with 25 tackles, one interception, a half-TFL, a team-high five pass break-ups and two fumble recoveries this season.
- In addition, sophomore Eddie Viliunas, a former walk-on quarterback, was moved to tight end during 2010 spring ball. Viliunas has seen action in two-tight end sets during the first seven games this season.

ZOOK VISITS TROOPS ON USO TOUR

Illinois coach Ron Zook was among four college football coaches that visited U.S. troops in Europe and Southwest Asia as part of the 2010 USO Coaches Tour, May 22-31. Zook and Army's Rich Ellerson, Oregon's Chip Kelly and Harvard's Tim Murphy made eight stops in nine days on the tour. The coaches conducted autograph and photo sessions, and participated in panel discussions to help boost troop morale. They also oversaw athletic competitions with the troops. The tour was presented by the USO and Morale Entertainment. Video and photos from Zook's trip can be found at <http://www.fightingillini.com/sports/m-footbl/spec-rel/052510aaa.html>.

GAME NOTES

- Mikel Leshoure recorded his third-straight 100-yard rushing game of the season with 180 yards. It is his fourth consecutive 100-yard game overall, dating back to the 2009 season finale against Fresno State. Leshoure is the first Illini with 100 yards rushing in four straight games since Robert Holcombe in 1997.
- Leshoure's 180 yards were just four shy of his career best. He did set a career high with 24 carries, surpassing the 21 rushes he had last year against Michigan.
- Nathan Scheelhaase posted his first career 100-yard rushing performance, finishing with 115 yards on 16 carries. It is the first 100-yard rushing game by an Illini quarterback since 2008 when Juice Williams ran for 121 yards at Michigan, and is the seventh-highest single-game rushing total by a QB in Illinois history.
- With Leshoure and Scheelhaase both eclipsing 100 yards on the ground, it marked the first time the Illini had a pair of 100-yard rushers in a game since Leshoure and Jason Ford accomplished the feat last season against Michigan.
- The Illini ran for 319 yards total, surpassing 300 yards rushing for the second time in the last four games dating back to 2009. Illinois also averaged 6.5 yards per carry as a team.

GAME NOTES

- Ohio State entered today's game with the NCAA's third-ranked scoring offense (49.2 points per game) and the nation's eighth-ranked total offense unit (506.8 yards per game). But the Illini defense held the Buckeyes significantly below those figures, allowing totals of 24 points and 290 yards.
- This is the first time Ohio State has been held to under 300 yards since Oct. 17, 2009, at Purdue, when the Buckeyes finished with 287 yards.
- The Buckeyes, meanwhile, managed just 77 yards passing after entering the game with an average of 266.5 passing yards. OSU quarterback Terrelle Pryor had season-low totals of nine completions and 76 yards. It was Pryor's fewest completions and yards since Nov. 21, 2009, at Michigan, when he completed nine passes for 67 yards.
- Trulon Henry recorded a pair of interceptions today, the first INTs of the season for the Fighting Illini. He intercepted a Terrelle Pryor pass in the second quarter and picked off a Joe Bauseman pass in the third quarter. Henry is the first Illini defender in six years to tally two interceptions in a game, since Kelvin Hayden against Florida A&M in 2004.
- Jarred Fayson had a breakout game for the Illini. He caught eight passes for 83 yards, setting career highs in both categories. Fayson also completed the first pass of his career, throwing a 23-yarder to quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase in the first quarter.
- Mikel Leshoure had 80 yards rushing today, giving him 1,338 for his career. He is the 24th player in school history to surpass 1,300 career yards rushing, moving up three spots from his No. 27 ranking coming into today's game.
- Martez Wilson was the Illini's leading tackler for the second-straight game, registering nine tackles today, including two TFLs.
- Anthony Santella, the nation's second-ranked punter, had another impressive performance today. He averaged 47.0 yards on six punts, booting two over than 50 yards. Santella also had three punts downed inside the 20, doubling his season total to six.
- Michael Buchanan posted a career-high seven tackles, more than doubling his previous high of three tackles set in the opener against Missouri.

GAME NOTES

- Illinois picked up its first win at Penn State with a 33-13 victory after entering the game 0-6 all-time in Happy Valley. It also marked PSU's first Homecoming loss since a 6-4 defeat by Iowa on Oct. 23, 2004.
- Illinois' 20 points in the second quarter marks the third-highest scoring second quarter in Ron Zook's tenure with the Illini. The Orange and Blue also held PSU scoreless in the second half, the second time this season that Illinois has held an opponent scoreless in the second half.
- LB Nate Bussey had a career day for the Orange and Blue, returning an interception 16 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and also tying his career high with eight tackles. His INT return for a touchdown was the first for an Illini since Terry Hawthorne's pick-six at Minnesota in 2009.
- The Illini continued their red zone success on offense. Illinois converted all four of its chances in the red zone to scores (2 TD, 2 FG) and is now 16-for-16 this season in red zone scoring.
- The Illinois defense held PSU to season lows of seven first downs, 235 total yards, 2-of-14 third-down conversions and 21:48 time of possession. The Illini kept the Nittany Lions to only 65 rushing yards. The Nittany Lions' seven first downs are the their fewest since gaining six first downs against Iowa on Oct. 23, 2004.
- The Illini offense also was dominant, gaining a season-high 437 yards, including 282 rushing yards. It's the third time this year that Illinois has rushed for 200+ yards and the most rushing yards that PSU allowed since Minnesota rolled up 288 rushing yards on Oct. 2, 2004.
- Derek Dimke was 4-for-4 on field goals, hitting from 50, 31, 41 and 38 yards. The last time an Illini kicker hit four field goals was on Oct. 21, 2006, at Penn State, when Jason Reda hit four.

GAME NOTES

- The Illini continued their red zone success on offense. Illinois converted two of its three chances in the red zone to scores (two field goals) and is now 18-for-19 this season in red zone scoring, which ranks among the national leaders.
- The Illini was stout for much of today's game, holding Michigan State's vaunted rushing attack to only 93 yards on 31 carries, an average of 3.0 yards per carry. That is far short of MSU's season averages of 225.0 rushing yards per game and 5.8 yards per carry. In addition, MSU entered today's game averaging a whopping 473.2 yards per game in 2010 but the Illini defense limited them to just 294 yards, the first time the Spartans have been held under 350 yards this year.
- Illinois also won the first downs and time of possession battle, topping MSU 21-16 in first downs and 32:16-27:44 in time of possession.
- The Illini defense also stiffened in the red zone for much of the game, holding MSU to field goals on 2-of-3 red zone chances. The most notable was a third-quarter possession in which the Spartans got the ball on the Illinois 16 yard line after an interception but lost one yard on the drive and were forced to kick a field goal.
- Defensive tackle Corey Liuget shined in today's game, racking up a career-high 11 tackles, one TFL and a career-best two QB hurries. Fellow defensive tackle Akeem Spence also notched a career-best two TFLs and the first QB hurry of his career.
- Defensive end Michael Buchanan recorded his first sack of 2010 when he brought down MSU's Kurt Cousins in the first quarter. Cornerback Terry Hawthorne also recorded his first TFL of the season when he tackled MSU's LeVeon Bell behind the line in the fourth quarter.
- Kicker Derek Dimke continued a strong 2010 season, going 2-for-2 on field goals and booting three kickoffs for an average of 60.7 yards with two touchbacks. He now has 13 touchbacks this season, a career high for a season.

GAME NOTES

- Illinois' defense forced five turnovers, recording four interceptions while also forcing and recovering a fumble. It marked the first time in eight years that Illinois forced five turnovers in a game, since registering five takeaways against Northwestern on Nov. 23, 2002.
- The four interceptions were the most since Nov. 10, 2001, vs. Penn State, when Illinois also intercepted four passes.
- Illinois converted a total of 24 points off the five Indiana turnovers.
- Illinois' defense has allowed a total of only four touchdowns over the last three games.
- Two of the Illini INTs resulted in touchdowns: Patrick Nixon-Youman scoring on a 68-yard interception return, the 15th-longest interception return for a TD in school history, and Jonathan Brown scoring on a 66-yard interception return, the 16th-longest interception return for a TD in school history.
- Also registering picks were Terry Hawthorne and Tavon Wilson, who each tallied his first INT of the season and second of his career.
- In addition to the turnovers, Illinois also blocked two punts. Both came in the third quarter, first by Martez Wilson and followed by Nate Bussey. Bussey's occurred in the end zone, resulting in a safety. That marked the first safety by the Illini since Oct. 16, 2004, vs. Michigan.
- The blocked punts by Wilson and Bussey were the first by an Illini since Vontae Davis blocked a punt at Indiana on Sept. 22, 2007.
- With 77 rushing yards, Mikel Leshoure moved into the top-20 on the IU career rushing list. He ranks 18th with 1,617 yards after the IU game.

HEAD COACH RON ZOOK

RON ZOOK

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

6th SEASON // MIAMI (OH), 1976

- Ron Zook was named the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year after leading the Illini to the 2008 Rose Bowl. He was also the Big Ten Coach of the Year that same season.
- With his win at Penn State on Oct. 9, 2010, Zook became just the sixth coach in history to post road win against both Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden, the two winningest coaches in college football history.
- The University of Illinois has led the Big Ten in passing in 2008, rushing in 2007 and 2006; and was tops in sacks and tackles for loss in 2008. Illinois' middle linebackers have led the Big Ten in tackles in three of the last four seasons (Miller, 2008; Leman, 2006-07).
- Ron Zook is one of only two coaches in the nation (Jim O'Brien of N.C. State) to beat the two winningest coaches in college football history, Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden.
- Ron Zook has won games at both "The Big House" at Michigan and "The Horseshoe" at Ohio State. He is only the 13th Big Ten coach ever to accomplish the feat.
- The 2007 Fighting Illini made a seven-win improvement from the 2006 season, which was the biggest turnaround in college football that season.
- On Nov. 10, 2007, Ron Zook became the first coach in the nation in 10 years to defeat the Associated Press' No. 1 team on the road, when the Illini upset Ohio State, 28-21.
- The Illinois offense led the Big Ten in rushing for two consecutive years. In 2007, the Illini averaged 256.8 yards, which also ranked fifth in the nation. One year earlier, Illinois' 188.8 yards per game were good enough for 10th nationally. The Illini's 205.0 ypg in 2009 ranked 17th nationally.
- The Illini offense set 10 season and career records in 2007, including single-season rushing, season touchdowns, total offense and fewest quarterback sacks.
