WEIGHT CLASS PREVIEW

The 2013-14 Fighting Illini wrestling team wrapped up the 2012-13 season with three All-Americans, a fifth place finish at the Big Ten Championships and a ninth place finish at the NCAA Championships. Ranked No. 10 by WIN Magazine in the preseason rankings, the Illini begin their season Saturday, Nov. 9 at the Loras Open in Dubuque, Iowa.

Illinois will be led by reigning NCAA and Big Ten Champion Jesse Delgado (125), as well as 2012 Big Ten Champion Mario Gonzalez (197) and 2013 NWCA Rookie of the Year Caleb Ervin (149). Three-time NCAA qualifier Tony Dallago (174) and 2011 NCAA qualifier Jackson Morse (165) also return for the Illini.

125

Reigning NCAA and Big Ten Champion Jesse Delgado returns at 125 pounds. Delgado tallied a record of 27-3 last season to tie for the 11th-best single-season win percentage in school history (.900). The two-time All-American scored the second-most dual points in 2013, and is ranked the No. 1 wrestler in his weight class in the both the WIN Magazine and InterMat preseason rankings.

133

Zane Richards takes over the starter role at 133 pounds after redshirting last season. The Carbondale, Ill. native compiled a 19-5 record in open tournaments last year, winning the Loras and Michigan State Open and placing second at the Northern Iowa Open.

141

After an injury to B.J. Futrell last season, Steven Rodrigues became the starter at 141 pounds. Rodrigues earned a 30-14 overall record, including a first place finish at the Loras Open and a 14-4 major decision victory in his Big Ten dual debut. Rodrigues looks to earn the starting spot once again, and will face off with John Fahy for the role. Fahy compiled a 14-2 record in his redshirt season, including a second place finish at the Harris Open and a third place finish at the Harold Nichols Cyclone Open.

149

Caleb Ervin returns as the starter at 149 pounds after receiving an at-large bid to the NCAA Championships last season. The 2013 NWCA Rookie of the Year posted an overall record of 22-14, including a first place finish at the Harris Open, and placed eighth at the 2013 Big Ten Championships.

NCAA and Big Ten Champion Jesse Delgado looks to defend his titles in the 2013-14 season.

157

After compiling a 23-4 overall record during his redshirt season, Zac Brunson is ready to represent the Illini as a starter in 2013-14. The Eugene, Ore. native won the Michigan State and Loras Open, and placed third at the Lindenwood and Northern Iowa Open last season.

165

After a redshirt season in 2012-13, Jackson Morse looks to start for the Illini, this time at 165 pounds. The Alto, Mich. native joined the starting lineup at 157 pounds in January of the 2010-11 season, and started in all but four duals in 2011-12. Morse finished seventh at the Big Ten Championships in 2011 and 2012, and was selected to the Amateur Wrestling News' All-Rookie team after qualifying for the NCAA Championships in 2011. Redshirt-sophomore Matt Nora also hopes to earn a spot in the starting lineup after serving as the squad's full-time starter at 157 pounds last season. The La Grange, Ill. native tallied an overall record of 12-14 and placed second at the Northern Iowa Open.

174

After serving as the team's 184-pound starter for three years, Tony Dallago is moving down a weight class and will compete at 174 pounds. The three-time NCAA qualifier recorded a team-high 10 pins in the 2012-13 season, which is tied for the sixth-most in a season in school history, and moved to number three on the all-time career pins list. Dallago compiled a 21-15 overall record, including a first place finish at the Loras Open and a third place finish at the Harold Nichols Cyclone Open.

184

Nikko Reyes and Jeff Koepke will face off for the starting role at 184 pounds for the 2013-14 season. Though Reyes, a redshirt-freshman, has yet to compete as an Illini, he boasts an impressive high school resume. The Fresno, Calif. is a two-time National High School Coaches Association Champion (2010 and 2011), as well as a Cadet National Champion (2009 and 2010). He was also crowned the Junior Nationals Champion in 2011. Koepke notched a 12-8 overall record last season, including a second place finish at the Harold Nichols Cyclone Open. The redshirt-sophomore competed in two duals and placed fourth at the Northern Iowa Open.

197

Two-time NCAA qualifier Mario Gonzalez returns as the starter at 197 pounds. Gonzalez recorded an overall record of 18-9 last season, including a third place finish at the 2013 Big Ten Championships. The 2012 Big Ten Champion reached a career-high No. 5 ranking in W.I.N magazine, and went 4-2 at the national tournament.

HWT

Chris Lopez returns as the starter at HWT. The Chicago, Ill. native became the full-time starter last season after an injury to Pat Walker, tallying an 11-16 record. Lopez placed fifth at both the Lindenwood Open and the Northern Iowa Open.

2012 Big Ten Champion Mario Gonzalez has his eye on an NCAA title in his final season at Illinois.

Redshirt-senior Tony Dallago looks to be a national contender in the 2013-14 season after moving down a weight class.

JIM HEFFERNAN

HEAD COACH // FIFTH SEASON

Jim Heffernan begins his fifth season as head coach after serving as the top assistant under Mark Johnson for 19 years – 17 at Illinois and two at Oregon State. The 1986 NCAA 150-pound champion and a four-time Big Ten Conference champion, Heffernan garnered the National Wrestling Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year honor in 2001 following the Illini's fifth-place national finish and second-place finish in the Big Ten.

During Heffernan's time in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois has finished in the top 10 at the NCAA championships on 11 occasions and in the top 15 in 14 of the last 17 seasons. Heffernan has been a major factor in the renaissance of the Illinois wrestling program, helping lead the team to its greatest prosperity since the post-World War II era.

Heffernan also has mentored eight individual national champions in the last 17 seasons. In 2013, 125-pounder Jesse Delgado joined Matt Lackey (165), Adam Tirapelle (149, 2001), John Lockhart (heavyweight, 2001), Carl Perry (141, 2000), Eric Siebert (150, 1998), Ernest Benion, Jr. (158, 1995) and Steve Marianetti (150, 1995) in earning NCAA titles since 1995.

Last season, Heffernan guided Illinois to a ninth-place finish at the NCAA Championships, where three Illini were crowned All-Americans, including NCAA Champion Jesse Delgado (125). Jordan Blanton (174) earned his third consecutive All-American honor, while Conrad Polz (165) earned his second. The Illini finished fifth at the Big Ten Championships, with Delgado being named Big Ten Wrestler of the Championships after taking the 125-pound conference title. Heffernan also guided B.J. Futrell in becoming Illinois' all-time leader in career pins.

Heffernan helped Illinois place seven wrestlers in the 2012 NCAA Championships, and garner four All-America finishes with Jordan Blanton earning his second honor of his career, after placing fourth at 174. B.J. Futrell also earned his second All-America honor, after pinning three opponents in the national championship on his way to taking sixth at 133. In both Jesse Delgado (125) and Conrad Polz' (165) first NCAA Championship, they placed seventh and eighth, respectively, earning their first honor while Tony Dallago (184) and Mario Gonzalez (197) both made it to the round of 12. The Illini also finished fourth at the Big Ten Championships, the highest place since the 2008-09 season while Gonzalez was crowned the conference champion at the 197 weight class for the first time since 2001.

Heffernan guided sophomore B.J. Futrell (125) to All-America honors in 2011 and a pair of Illini in 2009-10, with senior John Dergo (184) and sophomore Jordan Blanton (174) each taking fifth place at the NCAA Championships. Dergo had an incredible season, winning a Big Ten championship and finishing 36-4, including a 22-match winning streak from Dec. 12-March 18. Blanton rebounded from an early injury to finish third at the Big Ten Championships and out-perform his No. 10 seed at the NCAA Championships to earn his first career All-America honor.

Heffernan helped Illinois place nine wrestlers in the 2009 NCAA Championships, all by automatic berths in the first year of the individual RPI rankings, and garner three All-America finishes with Mike Poeta placing second at 157, Jimmy Kennedy taking fifth at 133 and heavyweight John Wise finishing seventh. Kennedy was one of the most impressive wrestlers as the tournament wore on, winning six straight matches after losing his pigtail bout to reach the consolation semifinals and eventually take fifth. Poeta won his second Big Ten title in 2009 and Kennedy had a career year, going 36-6. In addition, Illinois finished second at the Big Ten Championships, its best finish since 2005.

Poeta and Kennedy also starred for the Illini in 2008, finishing second and fourth, respectively, at the NCAA Championships. Poeta won his first Big Ten title after starting the season 22-0, while Kennedy put together an 11-match winning streak that included an undefeated Big Ten dual season.

In 2006-07, Kennedy finished the season ranked No. 9 at 133 pounds and Dergo ended the year No. 11 at 184, marking the first time since Carl Perry in 1997 that at least one true-freshman from Illinois ranked in the Top-20. The Illini qualified eight for the 2007 NCAA Championships and were led by Poeta, who notched a third-place finish at 157 pounds and garnered his first All-America honor.

In 2005-06, the tradition of excellence continued as the Illini took home their third-straight Midlands title, joining Iowa and Iowa State as the only three-peat champions. At Midlands, Alex Tirapelle (157) and Pete Freidl (184) took home individual titles, while Poeta (165) and Tyrone Byrd (197) grappled to runner-up finishes. Rounding out the top-eight finishes for Illinois were Donny Reynolds (174) in fifth and Troy Tirapelle (149) in seventh.

At Big Tens, the Fighting Illini finished second, just behind top-ranked Minnesota. In all, five Orange and Blue grapplers (Byrd, Freidl, Kyle Ott, Alex Tirapelle and Troy Tirapelle)

THE HEFFERNAN FILE

COLLEGE COACHING EXPERIENCE

- ❖ Illinois, head coach (2009-present)
- ❖ Illinois, assistant coach (1992-present)
- ❖ Oregon State, assistant coach (1990-92)
- ❖ Lehigh, assistant coach (1988-89)
- ❖ Iowa, graduate assistant (1987)

HONORS

- ❖ AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year Award (2003)
- ❖ NWCA Assistant Coach of the Year (1995 & 2001)
- ❖ Iowa's Male Athlete of the Year (1987)
- ❖ NCAA 150-pound Champion (1986)
- ❖ Four-time All-American, University of Iowa (1984-87)

INTERNATIONAL COACHING EXPERIENCE

- ❖ Cadet Wrestling Team, Istanbul, Turkey (1992)
- ❖ USA World Espoir Team (1989)

made conference finals appearances, each finishing second in their respective weight classes.

With the performance at the league tournament, the Illini became the only team to qualify all 10 wrestlers for NCAAs in Oklahoma City in 2006, marking the third time in school history all 10 grapplers made the trip to NCAAs (1995, 2000, 2006). Freidl took home All-America honors with a third-place finish, finishing his career a three-time All-American. On the year, Illinois finished second during the regular season in the Big Ten with a 10-2-1 overall record and 5-2-1 ledger in conference action.

The 2005 squad brought home Illinois' first Big Ten Conference tournament championship in 53 years as Alex Tirapelle (157) and Friedl (174) took home individual league crowns out of five total finalists for the Illini. For the second season in a row, the Illini won the Big Ten regular-season dual meet title with a near-perfect 7-0-1 record. The team finished sixth at the national tournament after qualifying nine wrestlers, while 125-pounder Ott made a repeat appearance in the finals.

The team matched 2004's achievement of five All-Americans in Ott (2nd, 125), Mark Jayne (7th, 133), Cassio Pero (7th, 141), Friedl (4th, 174) and Brian Glynn (3rd, 184).

In what served as a benchmark for the Illini program, the 2004 season served as a year of firsts as Heffernan helped guide the team to a Big Ten regular-season dual meet title and the first Midlands Tournament team title in program history. The squad concluded the season with a seventh-place finish at nationals, including a finals appearance by Ott at 125. The team brought home five All-America honors, a feat which tied 2004 national champion Oklahoma State, and was the most for Illinois since 1948.

During the 2003 season, Illinois took eight qualifiers to the NCAA Championships from a squad that had five freshmen competing most of the year. The 2003 team finished ninth overall with two national finalists. Matt Lackey finished his climb up the ladder with his win in the finals over Troy Letters for his first national title. Alex Tirapelle became the first Illinois freshman to make the finals as he ensured All-America honors with his second-place finish. For his efforts, Heffernan earned AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year honors in 2003.

In 2002, during a rebuilding year, Heffernan helped lead a reshaped starting lineup to a 12-4 record and 10th-place finish at nationals. With seven new starters, the Illini still managed to qualify nine wrestlers for NCAAs after a fifth-place finish at Big Tens, equaling the 2001 squad's NCAA representation. That year, the Illini crowned three All-Americans, following two straight seasons of awarding four All-Americans, and Heffernan was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA).

The Illinois wrestling team has progressively made school history year after year. In 2000, the team's sixth-place national finish was the best since 1958, only to be topped by the 2001 finish of fifth place, which was the highest since 1948. The 2001 team also took second at the Big Ten Championships, sent nine athletes to the NCAA Championships and posted a 12-2 dual meet record.

In 1996-97, Heffernan guided the Illini to a 14-1 dual meet record, a third-place finish at the Big Ten Championships and a ninth-place effort at the NCAA Championships. At the time, the third-place outing was the best in school history in 39 years.

Illinois has sent 123 wrestlers to the NCAA championships during Heffernan's tenure, an average of nearly seven qualifiers each year. During the past 16 seasons, the Illini have crowned 45 All-Americans and produced seven national champions (out of 17 finalists).

Heffernan also earned NWCA Assistant Coach of the Year honors in 1995 after Illinois posted a pair of national champions in Steve Marianetti (150) and Ernest Benion (158), a 13-2 dual record and a ninth-place finish at NCAAs.

A 1987 graduate of the University of Iowa, Heffernan was a four-time All-American, while being a member of three Hawkeye NCAA and four Big Ten championship teams. Heffernan captained the Hawkeyes as a senior and grabbed Iowa's Male Athlete of the Year honor in 1987.

Heffernan began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Iowa before becoming an assistant coach at Lehigh University in 1988. He remained at Lehigh until moving to Oregon State in 1990. He joined Johnson in Champaign in 1992.

He also coached the Cadet Wrestling Team at the world championships in Istanbul, Turkey, in 1992, and the USA World Espoir Team in 1989.

Heffernan graduated from national wrestling powerhouse St. Edward High School (Cleveland, Ohio), where he finished as a two-time high school state champion.

Heffernan and his wife, Rebecca, live in Champaign with their son, Sean, and daughter, Alex.

HEFFERNAN FAST FACTS

It is impossible to ignore the success that Illinois has had during the 22 years that Jim Heffernan has been on staff. In 1993, the Fighting Illini had posted two winning seasons in 10 years. Since then, the Orange and Blue have posted 18 straight seasons with a .500 record or better, and 14 top-15 national finishes.

- ❖ In 2005, Illinois won the Big Ten Championship for the first time since 1952.
- ❖ Led Illinois to a No. 1 national ranking in 2004.
- ❖ Heffernan was named the National Wrestling Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 1995 and 2001, and was the AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003.
- ❖ The 2005-06 season marked the third consecutive year that the Fighting Illini brought home the Midlands Tournament team title. The Illini join Iowa and Iowa State as the only teams to accomplish the three-peat.
- ❖ Heffernan has led Illinois to 14 top-15 finishes and 11 top-10 finishes at the NCAA Wrestling Championships in the last 17 years.
- ❖ Jesse Delgado became the eighth NCAA Champion during Heffernan's tenure at Illinois when he won the title in 2013. He joins Matt Lackey (2003), Adam Tirapelle (2001), John Lockhart (2001), Carl Perry (2000), Eric Siebert (1998), Ernest Benion, Jr. (1995) and Steve Marianetti (1995).
- ❖ In the last 17 years, Illinois has had 48 All-Americans, 36 of which came over the last 11 seasons. The five All-Americans in 2005 and 2004 ties the school record set in 1948.
- ❖ During Heffernan's 18-year tenure, UI has had an impressive 137 NCAA qualifiers, including 10 in 1995, 2000 and 2006, and nine in 1998, 1999, 2001, 2002, 2005 and 2009.

MARK PERRY

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH // THIRD SEASON

Mark Perry is in his third season on the Fighting Illini coaching staff after coming from Cal Poly, where he served as co-head coach in 2010-11 and as an assistant coach in 2009-10. In the summer of 2013, Perry coached the USA Wrestling Cadet National Team at the Cadet World Championships in Zrenjanin, Serbia.

Perry won a pair of NCAA titles at Iowa, taking the crown at 165 pounds in 2007 and 2008. He was a four-time All-American from 2005-08 and won a Big Ten title in 2007. He helped lead the Hawkeyes to an NCAA team national title in 2008 and was a team captain from 2005-08.

A native of Stillwater, Okla., Perry was the 17th four-time All-American and 14th two-time national champion in NCAA history. He defeated Michigan's Eric Tannenbaum in the championship match in 2008 and took down two-time defending champion Johny Hendricks of Oklahoma State in the 2007 finals. Perry also defeated Tannenbaum in the 2007 Big Ten championship match. Perry also won the Gorrarian Trophy after he pinned four opponents at the 2007 NCAA Championships.

He was named the NWCA Rookie of the Year in 2005 and the Iowa Athlete of the Year in 2007. Perry also was a four-time finalist at the Midlands Championships, winning two titles.

The former Hawkeye wrestler was an assistant coach at Penn State in 2008-09 before taking the position at Cal Poly in 2009. At Penn State, Perry helped a pair of wrestlers to freshman All-America honors and he has directed Mark Perry Wrestling Camps nationwide for the past four summers.

Perry earned his B.A. in art from Iowa in 2008. He was a two-time high school national champion at Blair Academy in New Jersey and

JEREMY HUNTER

ASSISTANT COACH // FIFTH SEASON

The 2000 NCAA Champion at 125 pounds, Jeremy Hunter begins his 13th season on the Illinois coaching staff and fifth as an assistant coach. Hunter wrestled post-collegiately for four years (2000-04), competing in two World Team Trials and the 2004 Olympic Trials, where he finished fourth at 55 kg.

Hunter has shown great versatility in his coaching, as he was a big factor in the success of NCAA Champion Jesse Delgado (125), often drilling with him in workouts. Hunter has also guided All-Americans Jimmy Kennedy (133), Mike Poeta (157) and John Wise (HWT).

A three-time All-American at Penn State University, Hunter ended his career ranked third all-time with 62 dual meet wins and 29 career pins. His 123 career victories are tied for fifth and his 14-5 NCAA Tournament record ranks ninth in the Nittany Lion record books. He placed fifth in 1998 and was the NCAA runner-up in 1999.

Hunter won a Big Ten title in 1999 and placed among the top three on four occasions during his Penn State career. He earned Big Ten Wrestler of the Year honors in 2000 after his second-straight 33-1 season and was the conference's Rookie of the Year in 1997. As a four-year starter, he led the Nittany Lions in scoring for three straight seasons and posted a string of 41-straight dual-meet wins.

Hunter recently married his wife, Leslie, and they have one son, Landan.

WYNN MICHALAK

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON

Three-time All-American and four-time Academic All-American Wynn Michalak enters his second season as volunteer assistant coach with the Fighting Illini. At Central Michigan University, he was a graduate assistant coach from 2008-2012 and has spent the last two years as a resident athlete at the Olympic Training Center.

Post collegiately, Michalak was the 2010 Hargobind International champion and was runner-up at the 2011 Shaheed Bhagat Singh International Open and Sunkist Kids International Open. At Central Michigan, Michalak was a three-time All-American and was the fourth individual in Mid-American Conference history to win four conference titles, the first Chippewa to accomplish the feat. The standout wrestler was also a three-time MAC Wrestler of the Year and the 2005 MAC Freshman of the Year. Michalak also earned the 2007 CMU Dick Enberg Inaugural Scholar-Athlete of the Year award, which is given to a junior student-athlete who has a minimum of 3.20 GPA and who has performed with distinction their sport and considered a team leader.

JIM ZIELINSKI

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
14TH SEASON

Veteran strength coach Jim Zielinski started at Illinois in the fall of 1999 as the head strength coach for the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. Zielinski also is in his sixth season as the head strength coach for the Illinois wrestling team after spending six years working with the football program. In 2002, Zielinski was named a master strength coach, the highest accolade in his field.

Over the past 14 seasons, Zielinski has been the main force behind the strengthening of the Illinois wrestling team, something that is evident in every aspect of the program.

Zielinski, a native of Rockford, Ill., graduated from Northern Illinois in 1986, where he was a defensive tackle under legendary coach Bill Mallory, father of former Illinois co-defensive coordinator Curt Mallory. Zielinski helped lead his squad to a win in the California Bowl in 1983. He earned a bachelor of science in business management with an emphasis in exercise physiology.

A 23-year veteran of the business, Zielinski joined Illinois' staff after stints at Oregon State (1995-99), Northern Illinois (1988-95) and Nebraska (1988). He is certified as a strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Zielinski and his wife, Teresa, who also is an Illinois native, have five children, James Edward, Alexandra Marie, Zachary, Christopher and Patrick Joseph.

HOPE HOWELL

ACADEMIC COUNSELOR
FIRST SEASON

Howell joined the Academic services staff in 2013, and will begin her first year working with the wrestling, cheerleading, men's cross country, men's track and field, and men's tennis teams.

Howell has worked as a Student-Athlete Learning Mentor at the University of Georgia, as well as a Learning Specialist at Ohio University. In April of 2012, Howell founded Athena Leadership, LLC., a program dedicated to offering leadership training for female athletes.

A native of Lithonia, Ga, Howell played softball for the University of Illinois from 2007-2010, where she earned All-Big Ten honors each year.

2012-13 IN REVIEW

POLZ NAMED TO NWCA ACADEMIC TEAM

Senior Conrad Polz was recently named to the 2013 National Wrestling Coaches Association's All-Academic Team. This is the second time in his career he's been named to the list. The individual All-Academic is based on both academic performance and athletic accomplishments, and wrestlers can qualify one of two different ways: with a 3.2 cumulative GPA and having been an NCAA qualifier or winning 60% of matches; or with a 3.0 cumulative GPA and having earned NCAA All-America honors.

DELGADO WINS FIRST NCAA TITLE

Illinois sophomore Jesse Delgado won the NCAA title at 125 pounds with his 7-4 decision over No.4 seed Nico Megaludis of Penn State. The Illini's title is the first ever at that weight in school history. Delgado is the first NCAA champion since Matt Lackey accomplished the feat in 2003. He finished the season with a 27-3 record and is the first Illini to win a Big Ten and NCAA title in the same year since Lackey in 2003. The squad finished ninth with 45.5 points and crowned three All-Americans including Conrad Polz (165) and Jordan Blanton (174).

DELGADO GIVEN CONFERENCE HONORS

For his efforts at the Big Ten Championships, sophomore Jesse Delgado was named Outstanding Wrestler of the Championships. It was the first time an Illini wrestler has earned the title outright.

DELGADO WINS BIG TEN TITLE AT 125

Third-seeded Jesse Delgado won his first career title with a 10-4 decision over top-seeded Iowa's Matt McDonough at the 2013 Big Ten Championships. The sophomore went undefeated at the event, defeating Eric Coufal (Nebraska) by a fall in 4:10, then took down No. 6 seed Camden Eppert (Purdue) with a 10-2 major decision. In the championship semifinals, Delgado defeated No. 2 Nico Megaludis (Penn State) by a 6-3 decision to advance to the final bout. The Illini grappler then defeated McDonough (Iowa) 10-4 for the crown.

PERRY NAMED AWN'S ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR

The Amateur Wrestling News announced their post season awards as Illinois assistant coach Mark Perry was named the 2013 Division I Assistant Coach of the Year. This is the first time Perry has earned the award. Perry was an integral part in sophomore Jesse Delgado winning the NCAA title as Delgado followed him to Champaign from Cal Poly. Since Perry has been at Illinois, they've finished in the top-10 in the nation in back-to-back years.

#11 ILLINI PLACE FIFTH AT BIG TENS

Sophomore Jesse Delgado dominated the field at the 2013 Big Ten Championships, winning his first conference title at 125. Delgado recorded a pin, major decision and two decisions to earn the first Big Ten title at 125 since 1945. Conrad Polz finished runner-up (165), Mario Gonzalez (197) placed third, while Daryl Thomas (133) and Jordan Blanton (174) took fourth. Tony Dallago (184) placed sixth while Caleb Ervin (149) finished eighth. Delgado, Thomas, Polz, Blanton, Dallago and Gonzalez qualified automatically for the NCAA Championships while Ervin notched an at-large bid to the national meet.

Illini Placewinners

- 1st: Jesse Delgado (125)
- 2nd: Conrad Polz (165)
- 3rd: Mario Gonzalez (197)
- 4th: Daryl Thomas (133), Jordan Blanton (174)

DELGADO NAMED BIG WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

Illinois sophomore All-American Jesse Delgado was named the Big Ten Wrestler of the Week, on Feb. 12, after the third-ranked Delgado upset No. 1 Matt McDonough (Iowa), 9-4, last Friday and scored a decision against Northwestern's Dominick Malone in teams win over Wildcats. This marks the second conference honor of his career and first this season.

#5 ILLINI WIN MIDLANDS TITLE

The Illini won the 2012 Midlands Championships after totaling 99.5 points and placing five wrestlers during the two day tournament. This is the first time Illinois has won the Midlands Championships since the 2005-06 season. Jesse Delgado (125), B.J. Futrell (141), Jordan Blanton (174), Conrad Polz (165) and Mario Gonzalez (197) placed in the top seven.

FUTRELL BECOMES ALL-TIME LEADER IN PINS

Two-time All-American B.J. Futrell became Illinois' all-time school record holder in career pins after going 3-0 at the Journeyman Duals. Futrell continues to improve upon his total falls, passing Adam Tirapelle (1998-01) who recorded 33.

THOMAS EARNS WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

Daryl Thomas earned Big Ten Wrestler of the Week honors on Nov. 27 after going undefeated and defeating two top-20 opponents at the Journeyman Duals. The 133 pounder earned a 22-7 tech fall in 5:45 over No. 14 Garrett Grey of Princeton before taking down No. 15 Geoffrey Alexander of Maryland 7-3.

#5 ILLINI DOMINATE JOURNEYMAN DUALS

The No. 5 Fighting Illini wrestling team began their dual season impressively as Illinois went 3-0 at the Journeyman Duals in Troy, N.Y. Illinois moved past Princeton 46-0, No. 15 Maryland 31-6 and No. 24 Binghamton 39-10 to finish the day undefeated.

DALLAGO EARNS WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

Tony Dallago earned the season's first Big Ten Wrestler of the Week honors on Nov. 6 after going 4-0 at the Loras Open and capturing the 184 title. The Harrisburg, Pa. native dominated the competition, recording wins by pins in all four of his bouts, including the fastest fall on the team in 23 seconds.

ILLINI DOMINATE LORAS OPEN

Seven Illini wrestlers won titles at the Loras Open last Saturday with five others placing in the top four in their respective brackets. The Illini racked up 14 pins and seven technical falls during the season opening tournament. Redshirt-freshman Dominic Olivieri took the title at 125 pounds, senior Daryl Thomas placed first at 133, redshirt-freshman Steven Rodrigues earned the top spot at 141, and junior Tony Dallago took the 184 title.

Top: Mario Gonzalez placed third at the Big Ten Championships.

Middle: B.J. Futrell became the all-time school record holder in career pins.

Right: Tony Dallago earned Big Ten Wrestler of the Week honors after winning the 184 title at the Loras Open.

YEAR	COACH	DUAL	BIG TEN	NCAA

Bold indicates Big Ten Championship seasons

* - Team championships were determined in the "Western Intercollegiate Wrestling, Gymnastics and Fencing Association," in an open meet, from 1912-1921. From 1922-1933 team championships were based on dual meet records. In 1926, the conference sponsored its own meet, but only individual champions were named until 1934, when a point system was adopted to name a team champion in that meet. ** - The NCAA officially began recognizing team championships in 1928.

THE HISTORY OF WRESTLING IN THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

A meeting of seven university presidents in 1895, at the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago, was the first development of what would become one of organized sports' most successful undertakings.

Those seven men established the principles for which the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives, more popularly known as the Big Ten Conference, was founded. Football and baseball were the most popular sports prior to 1900. Since then, many different athletic events have become popular on Big Ten campuses. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 12 championships for men and 11 for women.

The Big Ten began sponsoring wrestling in 1913, with Illinois and Minnesota tying for the first conference championship. Since then, the Big Ten has developed into the premier wrestling conference in the country. Big Ten teams have won 27 NCAA team championships and over 272 individual championships since the NCAA started sponsoring a national wrestling championship in 1928, including Iowa's three consecutive team titles from 2008-10. At the 2008 NCAA Championships, the top three teams represented the Big Ten. Similarly, in both the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons, three of the top-five finishing teams came from the Big Ten.

In 2013, over a third of the All-America honors awarded at the NCAA Championships (29 of 80) were given to Big Ten wrestlers. The 2014 Big Ten Championships will be held at the University of Wisconsin, while the 2014 NCAA Championships will be held in Oklahoma City, Okla.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

SAPORA BROTHERS // MOST VALUABLE WRESTLER

The Illini's most valuable wrestler receives the Sapora Brothers Most Valuable Wrestler Award, in honor of the national championship-winning brothers.

Joe Sapora earned three letters for the Illini from 1928-30. He also won two Big Ten titles and became Illinois' first national wrestling champion when he won the NCAA 115-pound title in 1929. He went on to win a second title at the same weight in 1930. Al Sapora earned three letters, from 1936-38, was a Big Ten champion and won the 1938 126-pound NCAA title.

INDIVIDUAL AWARDS

BIG TEN MEDAL OF HONOR

John Lockhart, an NCAA champion and three-time Academic All-American, was Illinois' Big Ten Medal of Honor winner in 2002.

In 1914, the Big Ten Conference endowed a Medal of Honor, to be awarded annually at each institution to the student demonstrating proficiency in scholarship and academics. The award takes into consideration academic excellence, athletic awards and contribution to the community.

In the 86-year history of the award, nine Fighting Illini wrestlers have earned the award, including national champions Al Sapora, Steve Marianetti, Eric Siebert and John Lockhart. Since the arrival of Mark Johnson and Jim Heffernan, the squad has produced four winners.

Lockhart was the most recent recipient of the award for the wrestling squad. He was a three-time All-American for the Illini whose national title at heavyweight in 2001 helped lead the team to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Lockhart placed third in 2002 and seventh in 2000 and completed his career with a 123-26 record. He also was a two-time Academic All-American, posting a 3.43 GPA in kinesiology. Currently, he is a resident at the Cleveland Clinic in Cleveland, Ohio.

Beginning in 1982, a woman athlete from each institution has also been awarded the Conference Medal of Honor. There has been one father-son UI Medal of Honor duo, Lee Sentman (track) in 1931 and his son, Lee Sentman III (fencing) in 1958. Gymnast Howard Beck (1974 and 1975) is the only two-time recipient of the award.

ILLINOIS DIKE EDDLEMAN ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

The University of Illinois Athlete of the Year was first given in 1940 to Bill Hapac, who played basketball and baseball. The award was given annually until it was discontinued in 1973. There were no awards given until 1982, when the Big Ten began a Conference Athlete of the Year, in which each school nominated a male and female athlete.

Since 1982, the University of Illinois has recognized a Male and Female Athlete of the Year. In 1993, the awards were renamed the Dike Eddleman Athlete of the Year awards in honor of the 11-time UI letterman and former Olympian. The awards are announced each June and presented at the annual Varsity "I" banquet in the fall.

HUFF HALL

Huff Hall is named for long-time Illinois athletic director and coach George Huff, who served as athletic director from 1901-1935. During that time, the athletic programs enjoyed unparalleled success, including 12 Big Ten wrestling titles. Illinois athletics enjoys a proud tradition in Huff Hall.

The gymnasium served as home for Illinois basketball from 1925-63. During that period, Fighting Illini teams won eight Big Ten championships and earned two NCAA Final Four appearances.

Huff Hall also was the longtime home of the Illinois High School state basketball tournament, creating the circus-like atmosphere that fostered the term “March Madness.” The facility also hosted nine IHSA state wrestling tournaments – in 1948, ’49, ’51, ’53, ’55, ’57, ’61, ’63 and ’65 – before the championships moved to the Assembly Hall (now State Farm Center). Collegiately, Huff Hall was the site of numerous championships, including the 1930, ’33, ’46, ’48 and ’58 Big Ten Wrestling championships. In 1940 and ’47, the Fighting Illini hosted the NCAA national wrestling championships at Huff Hall.

“HUFF HALL PROVIDES US WITH AN IDEAL VENUE TO COMPETE IN. IT’S LOUD AND THE FANS ARE CLOSE TO THE MAT, WHICH MAKES IT A GREAT ENVIRONMENT FOR WRESTLING.”

- Head Coach Jim Heffernan
