COVERING ILLINOIS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The University of Illinois record book is your source for information on the Illini women's basketball program. The athletics communication staff is here to help you in your coverage of Illinois women's basketball, so don't hesitate to call any member of our staff if you need assistance during the course of the year.

STATE FARM CENTER

All media will enter the arena through the northeast entrance and will park in the northeast lot, located at the corner of Kirby and Fourth Streets.

After you enter the State Farm Center concourse, turn left to access the media room. We will have wireless internet available in the media room where all press can work postgame. Before every home game, you may secure game programs, media guides and pregame notes in the media room beginning two hours prior to tip-off.

COURTSIDE PHOTOGRAPHY

All photographers must work from within the designated areas behind the baselines of the playing court. The University of Illinois follows NCAA and Big Ten guidelines regarding event photography. Photo locations are first-come, first-served.

Strobes: Photographers wishing to use strobe equipment at Illinois home games must notify the Illinois athletics communication staff at least one week in advance of the game for which they are requesting. There is a charge for installation and/or use of such equipment. A maximum of two strobe units may be used for any individual game.

All photographs are to be used in coverage of Illinois basketball and cannot be sold for any commercial enterprise benefiting the photographer.

CREDENTIALS

Any member of the media wishing to cover the Fighting Illini this season must request, in writing, credentials from Jenny Dewar in the Athletics Communication Office. All requests must be in writing and be emailed (jdewar2@illinois.edu) to Jenny Dewar.

NO credential requests will be accepted over the phone. Be specific when requesting the type of credential needed, either media or photo. Any non-working people in possession of a media credential will be asked to turn over the credential and leave the press area. Media agencies that violate this policy may not be issued credentials for future games.

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of the University of Illinois' rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and an agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Illinois may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the UI may result in revocation of press credentials. The UI reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the internet. Season requests should be received by Nov. 1. Single-game requests should be made at least seven days prior to the date of the game.

ROAD GAME / NEUTRAL SITE CREDENTIALS

Illinois media wishing to cover the Illini on the road should direct their credential request to the athletics communication director of the host institution. Opponent contact information can be found in the opponent section (pages 6-7).

TELEPHONES

Any individual wishing to order phone lines for the season or for a single game should direct the request to AT&T (800-321-8152) during regular business hours. The street address for State Farm Center is 1600 South First Street, Champaign, IL 61820. No courtesy phone lines are provided.

POSTGAME INFORMATION

Media are strongly encouraged to use the official Illinois athletics website – FightingIllini.com – to access the box score following home games. Updated Illinois statistics will usually be available within 30 minutes of the conclusion of each game, except when traveling by commercial means. In that case, the stats may be updated later in the day.

All persons wishing to receive releases, stats or box scores should retrieve the information from the official UI athletics website at fightingillini.com. To receive releases via email, join the Big Ten email distribution list by signing up at http://office.bigten.org/media/medialist/index.php.

COVERING ILLINOIS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

WEBSITES

Media credentials are issued only for individuals who are affiliated with websites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, CNN/SI, CBS Sportsline, etc., for institutions that are conference members and non-conference opponents, and for the Big Ten Conference. The University of Illinois reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization.

WIRELESS ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available for media and photographers in both the arena and media room at State Farm Center. Media or photographers interested in gaining access to the wireless network must get a password for the "DIA-private" network from Jenny Dewar prior to the game.

FIGHTINGILLINI.COM

Illinois releases, statistics and live radio coverage of the Fighting Illini games are available on the official University of Illinois athletics web site, FightingIllini.com. Live audio and game highlights will be available for women's basketball, as well as men's basketball, volleyball, softball, baseball and gymnastics. Coaches' radio and TV show broadcasts will also be available on the site.

LIVE IN-GAME BLOGGING AND ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSIONS

Media agencies and representatives shall not transmit or display any real-time video or audio, while the event or live network presentation of the event is in progress. Photographs or any text-based accounts or descriptions of the event (including without limitation, any web log, blog, online journal or other web-based publication) during the event is only allowed with the advance written permission of the University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE

Illinois basketball practices will generally be open to the media with prior permission and with some restrictions, although Coach Matt Bollant reserves the right to close practices at his discretion. There will be one weekly media day during the season. Media interested in attending practice or media days should contact Jenny Dewar at least 24 hours in advance of when you want to attend to confirm the time and place. The women's basketball team often practices in the afternoons, however it is imperative that you inquire the day before to ensure the time and place of practice. It is more convenient in most cases for interviews to be conducted after practice, but they may also be completed at a different time if cleared and coordinated by Jenny Dewar.

The Illini will practice in the afternoon on weekdays, while practice times on weekends vary. Most practices will be held at the Ubben Basketball Practice Facility, except for occasional times when the team will practice at State Farm Center. Please note that the locker room area, weight room and training room are off-limits to members of the media. In order to avoid congestion on the floor area, media who attend practice are asked to watch from the balcony area on the second floor that overlooks the court at the Ubben Basketball Practice Facility. Please note that Illinois' game-day shootarounds are closed to the media and available only to television announcers broadcasting the game, when applicable.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interview requests for Illinois players and Illinois head coach Matt Bollant should be cleared through Jenny Dewar and the Illinois Athletics Communication Office. Please give at least 24 hours advance notice for interview requests.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The University of Illinois will utilize the media room located on the Mezzanine Level on the northeast side of State Farm Center for postgame interviews. Coaches and players from both teams will be brought to this area for interviews. If you need to interview an Illinois player who has not been requested for the interview room, please make specific arrangements with a member of the Illinois athletics communication staff. The normal schedule will be the opposing coach and selected players first, followed by Matt Bollant and Illinois players.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Head coach Matt Bollant will make occassional appearances at the press conferences held prior to Illinois' home men's basketball games. Contact Jenny Dewar for further details on Bollant's scheduled appearances at the press conference. These press conferences are held in the eighth-level media area of Memorial Stadium. The press conference also can be accessed via teleconference. Contact the Illinois athletics communication office for the conference phone number. Media parking is in the northwest State Farm Center parking lot. The DIA is not responsible for any parking tickets received.

BIG TEN COACHES TELECONFERENCE

Head coach Matt Bollant will appear on the Big Ten women's basketball teleconference, which is held prior to the Big Ten Tournament in early March. For call-in information, contact Chris Masters at the Big Ten (cmasters@bigten.org).

2016-17 SEASON OUTLOOK

NEW LOOK FOR THE ILLINI

Coming off of a 9-21 season in 2015-16, the 2016-17 Illini squad will have a new look as the team welcomes six new players in Ali Andrews, Brandi Beasley, Petra Holešínská, Courtney Joens, Cydnee Kinslow and Sarah Overcash. Senior Ashley McConnell and redshirt junior Kennedy Cattenhead will look to lead the young squad, also composed of sophomores Jaelyne Kirkpatrick, Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger.

WITTINGER'S WAYS

Now in her sophomore season, Alex Wittinger had quite the freshman debut. The Delano, Minnesota native, closed the season among Big Ten leaders for her 3.3 offensive rebounds and her 1.8 blocks per game. Wittinger was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice last season, and was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team following the year. Wittinger grabbed 193 rebounds last season, good for fifth all-time among Illinois freshmen, and her 50 rejections rank third on Illinois' all-time freshman records list. Wittinger averaged 10 points and 6.9 rebounds per game last season, scoring a career-high 27 points and grabbing a personal-best 15 rebounds at Minnesota. She posted four double-doubles on the season, and will look to improve on those numbers this year.

MCCONNELL'S SENIOR SEASON

Senior Ashley McConnell is Illinois' only senior this season. In her three seasons wearing the Orange and Blue, McConnell has made 65 appearances and earned eight starts. She has dished 37 assists and grabbed 24 steals while scoring 102 points.

RICE RETURNS

Sophomore Cierra Rice will return this season after being sidelined just before Big Ten play last year. Rice was off to a strong start last year as she had record two 20-point games in just 10 appearances. Rice averaged 13.6 points per game, dished 24 assists and swiped 11 steals last year.

CATTENHEAD STEPS UP

Redshirt junior Kennedy Cattenhead will look to continue her improvements from last season. After averaging just 1.1 points per game in her freshman year, Cattenhead showed major improvements last season. She averaged almost seven points per game and earned 27 starts for the Orange and Blue. Cattenhead was an important asset for the Illini as she also recorded 28 steals. After recording just seven assists in her freshman year, Cattenhead dished out 57 dimes last year.

NEWCOMERS

SET FOR A CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

The 2016-17 season will be an exciting one as the Illini are set to face a challenging slate of non-conference opponents before opening conference play in late December. Illinois will face 19 opponents who are coming off of postseason appearances, including 2016 WNIT Champion South Dakota. The Illini will take on three opponents for the first time in program history, beginning the home stretch with Marshall (Nov. 11), who returns nine players from last year's 21-12 season. The Orange and Blue will also match up against USC Upstate (Nov. 20) and Mercer (Nov. 22) for the first time. Meeting both teams for just the second time in program history, Illinois will travel to the 2016 Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament Champion George Washington (Dec. 4) and WNIT Champion South Dakota (Dec. 7). The nonconference slate will conclude with another set of road games as UI will head to Central Michigan (Dec. 19) and Ohio (Dec. 22) before opening Big Ten play.

Illinois will host a competitive slate of Big Ten opponents this season, including Iowa, (Dec. 28), Rutgers (Jan. 7), Nebraska (Jan. 15) and 2016 Big Ten Tournament Champion, Maryland (Jan. 26). The Orange and Blue will have several road contests during the month of January, including trips to Michigan State (Jan. 1), Iowa (Jan. 11), Minnesota (Jan. 18), Ohio State (Jan. 22) and Penn State (Jan. 29). The squad will return home in the month of February, with back-to-back games against Michigan (Feb. 1) and Purdue (Feb. 5). After a road game at Maryland (Feb. 9), the Illini will host Penn State on Feb. 14. Illinois will conclude regular season travel with games at Northwestern (Feb. 19) and Wisconsin (Feb. 22) before hosting Indiana in the regular season finale on Feb. 25.

BTN APPEARANCES

The Big Ten Conference announced game times and television information for the conference portion of the 2016-17 women's basketball season on Monday, Sept. 26, completing Illinois' 2016-17 schedule. All of Illinois' Big Ten contests will be available on the Big Ten Network or BTN Plus. Illinois will open conference play live on BTN Wednesday, Dec. 28, against Iowa at 3 p.m. CT at State Farm Center. The Illini will have two other televised home contests: Saturday, Jan. 7 against Rutgers, and Saturday, Feb. 25 against Indiana. Illinois will appear on BTN Plus for the remainder of the conference schedule.

STATE FARM CENTER

Illinois has an outstanding home in State Farm Center. Known as Assembly Hall from its construction in 1963 to 2013, the iconic arena was renamed State Farm Center on April 29, 2013, with the announcement of a 30-year, $60 million naming rights agreement. Fighting Illini women's basketball has called the arena home since 1981, except for five seasons from 1993-98.

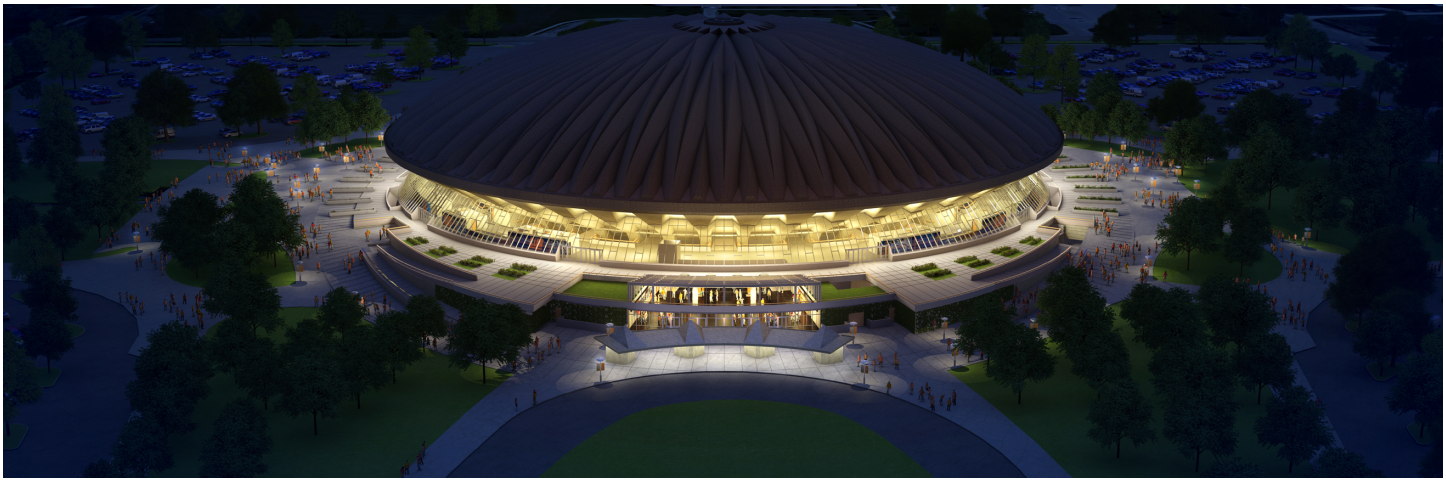

State Farm Center has recently undergone a major renovation that began after the 2013-14 season. Dubbed the Illinois Renaissance, the project includes a renovated seating bowl and the addition of four levels of premium seating; improved restrooms, concessions and a team store; air conditioning and many other amenities.

The historic building opened on March 2, 1963, and continues to attract attention for its design and construction. Four hundred feet across, it at one time was one of only two edge-supported domes in the world. The roof is supported by 614 miles of one-quarter-inch steel wire wrapped at the base of the dome under intensive pressure. The architect was Max Abramovitz, a distinguished University of Illinois alumnus. His firm also designed the United Nations Buildings, much of Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts and the University of Illinois' Krannert Center for the Performing Arts.

At Illini women's basketball games, young fans have a spot courtside where they can be loud in cheering on their favorite team. In addition, fans of all ages can celebrate their birthday with a courtside party for up to 10 people. For many games, birthday party space is sold out well in advance. The Illini band has taken ownership and pride over playing at Illini home games and traveling with the team to the postseason. The Blue Crew, the student support group for Illinois women's basketball, gives tremendous support to the Illini each game as well.

From rock shows to Broadway to family shows to Fighting Illini basketball and much more, State Farm Center has hosted the top names in show business as well as numerous university and community events. Performers and events include The Rolling Stones, Jay Z, Brad Paisley, Kenny Chesney, Garth Brooks, Elvis Presley, U2, Frank Sinatra, "Les Miserables," Bob Hope, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Aerosmith, Reba McEntire, Tina Turner, "Cats," University of Illinois commencement, The Harlem Globetrotters, Bruce Springsteen, "Sesame Street Live!" and countless others.

In seating capacity, State Farm Center ranks among the great arenas of major cities and is the largest arena in the state of Illinois outside of Chicago's United Center. Seating capacity for Fighting Illini basketball following State Farm Center renovations is 15,544.

UBBEN BASKETBALL PRACTICE COMPLEX

In October 1998, Illinois moved into the state-of-the-art Richard T. Ubben Basketball Complex on the campus of the University of Illinois. This $5.5 million dollar facility is a direct result of the university's commitment to excellence in athletics. It houses not only a full-sized practice court, but also locker rooms for the coaches and players, a players' lounge, video review room, training room and weight room. The 40,000-square-foot facility is home to everything the players need to make it through the day. After classes, players can spend time studying or using the computers in the video room. The locker room has lockers for each player and is adjacent to the players' lounge and video room. The Ubben Complex was spruced up in the summer of 2013 with the addition of graphical wall panels featuring the team's "Hard. Smart. Together." slogan and a mural on the west wall of the practice gym. New banners were also installed honoring the program's history. The locker room was upgraded in 2016, with the addition of new lighted lockers.

The Ubben Facility gives the Fighting Illini women a practice court all their own. The men have a separate practice gym on the east side of the buiding. Each side contains a full-length court and 10 hoops. The players enjoy their own locker room as well as a lounge – complete with two flat-panel televisions – study areas, computers, video rooms, conference rooms, strength and conditioning equipment, and a training room.

When it's time to get taped before practice, the players just walk across the hall to the fully equipped training room, which is located next to the practice court. In the area of strength and conditioning, the players have use of the weight room, which has free weights, Nautilus equipment, treadmills and a Stairmaster, at all hours.

HONORED JERSEY

Fighting Illini legend Ashley Berggren became the first University of Illinois women's basketball player to have her jersey raised to the Assembly Hall rafters during a ceremony at halftime of the Illinois-Penn State game on Feb. 22, 2009.

Berggren, who donned the Orange and Blue from 1994-98, is Illinois' all-time leading scorer, totaling 2,089 points during her career. She was Big Ten Player of the Year as a junior in 1997, leading the Illini to a Big Ten Championship and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. During her senior year of 1997-98, Berggren earned the Big Ten Medal of Honor and led the Orange and Blue to their second consecutive NCAA Sweet 16. She is the only Illini to be named first team All-Big Ten for three seasons, and also earned national recognition as an Associated Press Third Team All-American in 1998 and an honorable mention All-American in 1996 and 1997.

MATT BOLLANT

HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON AT ILLINOIS
15TH SEASON OVERALL
WINONA STATE (1994)

Now entering his fifth season as head coach of the University of Illinois, Matt Bollant has continues to revive a dormant Illini program after being a part of the best seasons in program history at each of his other four collegiate coaching stops. In just his first season with the program, Bollant led the Orange and Blue to the postseason for the first time in three years in 2013 and Illinois finished with a winning Big Ten record for the first time in 10 seasons. He also has spearheaded the composition of back-to-back top-25 recruiting classes during his first two recruiting years in Champaign.

Despite taking a step back in wins and losses, the Illini program began to change its culture in the 2013-14 season. The values of hard work, fundamentals, attention to detail and team unity began to pay off as Illinois was much more competitive down the stretch, including a 61-51 win at Michigan State. The Orange and Blue also broke the school record for three-pointers made with 202 and finished eighth and 13th nationally in steals and turnover margin, respectively. On the recruiting front, two Illini commits earned All-America honors, as Chatrice White became only the second McDonald's All-American in Illinois program history and Amarah Coleman earned honorable mention WBCA All-America honors.

The 2014-15 season saw the Illini post a 9-3 non-conference record, starting the season with a 5-0 record to mark the best non-conference record to start a season that the program has seen in 12 years. Freshman Chatrice White proved to be a weapon on the floor as she broke the Illinois Freshman All-Time Scoring and Blocked Shots records. With Bollant's coaching, the Illini earned a win over No. 9-ranked Kentucky at the Paradise Jam, and continued to upset No. 17 Iowa later in the season. Defensively, Illinois ranked among the top-15 in the nation, averaging more than 11 steals per game. Seniors Ivory Crawford and Brittany Carter played a major role in those numbers as they each ranked among the top-40 in the nation, individually. Bollant saw seven of his student-athletes earn All-Big Ten Academic honors following the season, proving that the program is headed in the right direction both on and off the court. Additionally, Bollant was recognized as the 2015 Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award recipient following the season.

In 2012-13, the Illini reached the Women's NIT quarterfinals and saw attendance at the Assembly Hall increase 80 percent from 2011-12 to an average of 1,926, the third-highest average attendance increase in Division I women's basketball. Illinois also defeated three ranked opponents: No. 6 Georgia, No. 24 Iowa and No. 24 Ohio State, with the win over the Buckeyes snapping their 31-game home winning streak. The win over the Hawkeyes also broke an eight-game skid against Iowa.

The Illini shattered the Big Ten record for steals, steals per game and turnovers forced in a conference season, and also broke school records for steals, turnovers forced and three-pointers made in a season. Senior forward Karisma Penn became one of the country's most dominant post players, averaging 19.2 points, 9.6 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.2 blocked shots per game with 50.6 percent field-goal shooting, all of which ranked in the top five in the Big Ten. She was named an Associated Press honorable mention All-American and also earned two national player of the week honors. Senior guard Adrienne GodBold earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors after posting 55 steals in 16 conference games and routinely guarding opponents' top offensive players.

Bollant's team continued to shatter school records during the 2015-16 season as the Illini made 224 three-point field goals to reset the school record for the fourth consecutive season. Senior Kyley Simmons was among Big Ten Conference leaders for her 77 treys on the year. Bollant continued to work with Chatrice White, helping her to an outstanding sophomore season in which she became the second-fastest Illini to score 1,000 career points (61 games). White led the Big Ten and was among the top-15 in the country for her 18 double-doubles on the year, and also earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors. Bollant's recruiting talents were once again on display as freshmen Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger came in with a bang. The two combined for four Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors throughout the season, and both earned spots in the Illini starting five. Although Rice was sidelined by injury prior to conference play, Wittinger went on to earn Big Ten All-Freshman recognition at the conclusion of the year. As a team, Bollant guided the Illini to a 4-0 start to the season for the second-straight year. In that stretch, his team earned back-to-back 90-point victories over UT Martin and Tennessee State, the first time an Illinois team has done so since 2013-14. Illinois' 55-point victory over Tennessee State marks the fourth largest margin of victory for an Illini team in program history. The Orange and Blue also handed Bollant his 50th win at Illinois in a 74-69 defeat of Central Michigan. Prior to the 2015-16 season, Bollant ranked 10th among active head coaches in the country for his career winning percentage. Not only that, but Bollant has a 100-percent graduation rate in his 14 years of head coaching.

Bollant came to Illinois after a successful five-year stint at Green Bay, where he guided the Phoenix to five straight Horizon League titles and four straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. He led Green Bay to a 148-19 record (.886 winning percentage) in five years, including an 85-5 mark in the Horizon League. The Phoenix were a combined 65-4 in his final two seasons in Green Bay, going 34-2 in 2010-11. Green Bay was ranked as high as No. 9 in the national polls in both 2010-11 and 2011-12, finishing the 2011 season with that ranking. In 2010-11, Green Bay went 4-0 against the Big Ten, defeating Minnesota, Wisconsin, Penn State and Michigan State. In 2011-12, the Phoenix downed Illinois 82-62 at the San Juan Shootout and had triumphs over No. 25 Georgia Tech - a team that reached the Sweet 16 - Marquette and Wisconsin.

Green Bay had four wins over ranked opponents in the last four seasons, including a 65-56 victory over No. 12/13 Michigan State in the 2011 NCAA second round. The Phoenix entered the tournament as a No. 5 seed, defeating the No. 4 Spartans to reach the Sweet 16 for the first time school history. Green Bay also defeated No. 21 Virginia 69-67 in the first round of the 2010 tournament.

Green Bay lost to Iowa State in Ames by just four points (60-56) in the NCAA second round in 2010. In 2012, Green Bay returned to the site for NCAA first and second round play. Entering the tournament as the No. 10 seed, the Phoenix defeated the No. 7 seed Cyclones on the their home floor, 71-57, before seeing a comeback fall short against No. 2 seed Kentucky (65-62) in the second round.

Bollant was named the Horizon League Coach of the Year for the fourth time in 2012, guiding Green Bay to a 31-2 record despite losing Horizon League co-Players of the Year Kayla Tetschlag and Celeste Hoewisch. Senior Julie Wojta was a finalist for the Wade Trophy and earned WBCA Second Team All-America honors.

Bollant has an .837 winning percentage as a collegiate coach, including a 134-36 record at Bryan (Tenn.) College from the NAIA level. He guided the Lady Lions to four straight NAIA Tournaments, reaching the Sweet 16 in 2005-06. Bryan reached the top 25 rankings each of his last four years, reaching as high as No. 11 at the end of the 2006-07 season. Bollant coached four Appalachian Athletic Conference Players of the Year.

Bollant was as an assistant coach under Kathi Bennett, the daughter of former Wisconsin men's coach Dick Bennett, for five seasons before becoming a collegiate head coach. He served three years under Bennett at Evansville, helping the Purple Aces to the 1999 NCAA Tournament, then followed her to Indiana, where the Hoosiers became the lowest seed (5) to win the Big Ten Tournament in 2002.

A 1994 graduate of Winona State University with a degree in business education, Bollant received a master's degree in education from American Intercontinental University. He served as both the varsity and junior varsity head coach of Depper Life Academy in the Philippines and spent three years as the head coach at Tigerton (Wis.) High School, guiding the Tigers to a 63-10 record and to three Central Wisconsin Conference Small School titles from 1994-97.

He and his wife, Kari, have two daughters, Abi and Regan.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"Matt is a great choice to lead the Illinois program. He will do a great job of building a program on and off the court that will make everyone associated with the University of Illinois proud."

– Bill Fennelly, Head Coach, Iowa State University

"I'm very happy for Matt. He's a first-class person. First and foremost, he's a very good guy. I have not coached against many tougher teams in my career than the Green Bay team we faced in the NCAA Tournament. Illinois made an excellent choice. I think he is a coach at the very top of our profession and I think he'll do a great job at Illinois."

– Matthew Mitchell, Head Coach, University of Kentucky

"Matt Bollant is a great hire for Illinois because of the regional connections he has in the Midwest. He's a coach that's similar to our associate head coach Vic Schaefer in getting a chance at his first BCS job. He'll do great in the Big Ten because his knowledge of the game is outstanding and he gets kids to play hard."

– Gary Blair, Head Coach, Texas A&M University

LAKALE MALONE

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/ RECRUITING COORDINATOR FIFTH SEASON INDIANA (1999)

LaKale Malone is in her fifth season with the Fighting Illini and will begin her second season as the program's associate head coach. Malone's recruiting talents have seen the Illini sign back-to-back top-25 classes and earn their best season record since 2007 in 2012-13, as the team went on to reach the quarterfinals of the Women's NIT. Malone now has reached the postseason in 10 of her 16 years as a college coach.

The Illini got off to one of the best starts that the Orange and Blue have seen in 12 years as the team went 5-0 to start the 2014-15 season and topped ninth-ranked Kentucky in the non-conference portion of the year. Malone's recruiting talents were put on display as freshman Chatrice White made a major impact for the Illini on the floor. White broke the Illinois all-time freshman scoring and blocked shots records on her way to Big Ten All-Freshman Team honors.

"She has been a recruiting coordinator at BCS schools for over nine years and is highly respected by AAU and high school coaches," head coach Matt Bollant said at the time of Malone's hire. "What I love most about her is that she has a great heart, both for our players and our staff. When I first talked to her, she said 'I want to get to know your vision because that's my vision.'"

In 2013-14, Malone mentored a young group of Illini players, helping them finish eighth in the nation in steals (11.0 per game) and 13th in turnover margin (+5.2 per game). Illinois also broke the school record for three-pointers made (202) for the second-straight season.

Malone helped guide the Illini to a fifth-place national ranking in steals per game (12.6) in 2012-13, breaking Big Ten records for steals in all games (417) and conference games (234). Illinois also broke school records for three-pointers made (184) and turnovers forced (773). The Orange and Blue finished tied for fifth in the Big Ten, their best finish in six years, and posted their first winning conference record in 10 years with a 9-7 mark in Big Ten play.

The 2015-16 season saw Malone continue to guide a young squad as she helped to mold five newcomers into significant contributing roles on the squad. Malone worked with freshman Cierra Rice who started the year by playing a key role in the Illini starting lineup. Rice was named Big Ten Player of the Week twice for her efforts on the court before being sidelined by a knee injury before the conference slate. With Malone's guidance, the Illini continued to be one of the top three-point shooting teams in the nation, led by senior Kyley Simmons who knocked down 77 on Illinois' school-record 224 three-pointers made. That number also marks the fourth consecutive season that the Orange and Blue have reset the school's season three-pointers record.

Prior to joining the staff at Illinois, Malone played a big role in signing multiple top-25 classes under head coach Gail Goestenkors at Texas, including four McDonald's All-Americans. The Longhorns advanced to the NCAA tournament in all five seasons Malone was an assistant, and produced eight All-Big 12 and 11 Academic All-Big 12 honorees. She helped recruit WNBA draft pick Brittainey Raven and signed Chassidy Fussell, who was on the 2012 Wade Trophy Watch List.

Before her time in Austin, Malone was an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator for Connie Yori at the University of Nebraska from 2003-07, helping build that program to a national level. She spearheaded the signing of a top-25 recruiting class in 2007 and helped develop 2010 first team All-American and first-round WNBA draft pick Kelsey Griffin. The Huskers advanced to the postseason all four years she was on staff.

Malone also served as an assistant at Wagner College (2000-01) and Bradley University (2001-03).

A four-year letterwinner at Indiana University, Malone graduated in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in accounting and marketing. She also holds a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Nebraska.

JODY MARTINEZ

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON
BETHEL (1990)

Jody Martinez is entering his second season with the Fighting Illini women's basketball program. In his first season with the team, Martinez helped to hone the skills of Illinois' post players, helping to guide All-Big Ten Second Team selection, Chatrice White to a Big Ten Conference leading 18 double-doubles over the course of the year. Under Martinez' guidance, Alex Wittinger was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice during the year, and was among league leaders for her rebounding numbers. She also earned Big Ten All-Freshman Team recognition. With Martinez' assistance, Illini post duo of White and Wittinger was also among league leaders in blocked shots per game during the season.

Martinez came to Illinois prior to the 2015-16 season, bringing 17 years of head coaching experience with him. He has led his teams to more than 400 wins in his head-coaching career.

Martinez came to Illinois from Southeastern University, where he led the Fire to a 25-7 record in the 2014-15 season and guided the program to its first-ever NAIA Division II Women's Basketball National Tournament. Prior to his stint at Southeastern, Martinez served as the head coach for the Bethel Pilots for 16 years.

"Jody is an outstanding basketball coach," head coach Matt Bollant said at the time of Martinez' hire. "I've sat behind his bench and watched his team play several times, and I was incredibly impressed every time I watched his team play. He is a great addition to our staff and I know the Champaign-Urbana community will love him and his family."

Martinez led the Lady Pilots to 20 or more wins in 15 of his 16 seasons at the helm of the program, and prior to his arrival in 1998, the program had never seen a winning season. Martinez guided the Lady Pilots to six NCCAA National Championship titles and made seven trips to the NAIA National Tournament including five elite eight appearances. His teams won three MCC regular season titles and an MCC tournament championship as well.

A member of the NCCAA and Bethel College halls of fame, Martinez began his basketball career as a standout for Bethel College. He finished his playing career as Bethel's leader in points, rebounds, blocks, steals, field goal percentage and games played. His numbers still sit among the school's top-10 and his 1,728 rebounds remain the program's best.

Martinez played professionally in Mexico in 1990 before returning to the sidelines at Bethel College. As an assistant for the men's basketball team, Martinez helped lead the Pilots to two NCCAA National Championships. After spending some time in the high school realm, Martinez returned to Bethel College in 1998 as the head coach of the Lady Pilots.

With Illinois, Martinez works specifically with post players in addition to assisting with recruiting efforts.

Martinez and his wife, Sonya, have two daughters, Hannah and Josalyn.

TIANNA KIRKLAND

ASSISTANT COACH
FIFTH SEASON
FERRIS STATE (2002)

Tianna Kirkland enters her fifth season as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois. Kirkland came to Illinois after serving five seasons as an assistant at the University of Michigan. She has been a key factor in helping Illinois sign back-to-back top-25 ranked recruiting classes and also helped guide the Illini to their best record since 2007 in 2012-13.

In 2016, Kirkland helped to bring in a signing class riddled with talent as the Illini signed Ali Andrews, the No. 14-ranked forward in the country. Andrews went on to earn unanimous AP First Team All-State honors and become the Courier News Player of the Year prior to stepping on Illinois' campus. The 2016 class also included the No. 2-ranked recruit from the state of Tennessee in Brandi Beasley and the No. 27-ranked point guard in the nation in Courtney Joens. Kirkland also helped guide the 2015-16 Illini squad to another record-breaking season as sophomore Chatrice White became the second-fastest Illini to score 1,000 career points. Combined with Kyley Simmons' team-leading 77 three-pointers on the year, Illinois broke the school's three-pointers record for the fourth consecutive season as the team hit 224 triples in 30 games.

"She's a great recruiter," Bollant said of Kirkland. "AAU coaches just think she is fantastic. Her contacts and her ability to get players will make a huge impact at Illinois. I love her heart for others, her desire to serve, her passion to go after things and her charismatic personality."

Kirkland helped land consecutive signing classes ranked in the top 25, including high school All-Americans Chatrice White and Amarah Coleman in November 2013. She also helped the Illini finish eighth in steals in the nation (11.0 per game) and 13th in turnover margin (+5.2 per game) in 2013-14, while breaking the school record for three-pointers made (202) for the second-straight season.

White helped to prove Kirkland's recruiting talents as she became one of Illinois' most impactful players from the moment she stepped on campus. White set the Illinois all-time freshman records for scoring and blocked shots in her first season, and went on to play for the U.S. FIBA World Championship team during the summer. Kirkland helped lead the Illini to a 5-0 regular season start, which included a win over No. 9-ranked Kentucky.

Kirkland had a big hand in recruiting at Michigan. In her five years under head coach Kevin Borseth, the Wolverines consistently improved culminating in a bid to the NCAA Tournament in 2012. That marked the fourth postseason berth in five years for Michigan, having been invited to the WNIT three of the previous four, reaching the semifinals in 2010.

Kirkland's Big Ten ties also include serving as an assistant at Eastern Michigan under current Michigan State head coach Suzy Merchant for the 2006-07 season. The Eagles were 16-13 overall, 10-6 in the Mid-American Conference that year. Kirkland had an emphasis on coaching post players at EMU as well as overseeing the team's academics, post-season workouts and strength and conditioning activities.

Kirkland has had two other stops to her coaching career, spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Butler University (2004-06) and two years as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan University (2002-04).

A native of Flint, Mich., Kirkland graduated from Ferris State University in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in applied biology. Kirkland was a four-year letterwinner in basketball while also lettering in track and field. She was team's leading scorer and rebounder in her final two seasons, helping the Bulldogs to a combined 74-37 record and the program's first-ever NCAA Division II Tournament appearance in 2000. Her number, 42, has been retired by the school.

Tianna Kirkland with her son, Gabriel

As a senior, Kirkland averaged 15.2 points and 9.7 rebounds per game, earning Women's Basketball Bulletin third-team All-American accolades, as well being named the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Player of the Year. Kirkland was also selected to the All-Great Lakes Region and GLIAC All-Defense first teams in her final season. She finished her career as the school's 10th-leading scorer (926 points), third-leading rebounder (705) and fourth in career field-goal percentage (.540, 350-of-648). She also left FSU ranked in the top 10 for blocks (fifth, 40) and free throws made (ninth, 226).

In track & field, Kirkland earned NCAA Division II All-America honors in the indoor and outdoor shot put and the discus in her final season. A two-time co-captain, Kirkland is the school record holder in all three events.

Kirkland also played for two semi-professional teams, the Flint Flames and Flint Monarchs.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Emily Esselman is in her first season as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Illinois Athletics Department. In her current role, Esselman works directly with the women's basketball and volleyball programs.

Prior to her time at Illinois, Esselman spent two years as an assistant at Hofstra University where she was responsible for the development of women's basketball, softball, women's soccer, men's and women's tennis, and women's golf.

Esselman served as assistant at Villanova University from May 2013 to July 2014 implementing strength and conditioning programs for women's volleyball, men and women's rowing, men's golf and the track and field throwers. She also assisted with football and men's and women's lacrosse.

Prior to Villanova, Esselman served as a volunteer assistant at the University of Northern Colorado from May 2010 to May 2013. She led the design and implementation of the strength programs for men and women's track and field and women's swimming and diving while assisting with football, softball and men and women's tennis.

Esselman earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2010 and a master's degree in sport and exercise science from Northern Colorado in 2013. She holds certifications from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA), and first aid, CPR and AED.

JENNY DEWAR

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS COMMUNICATION

Jenny Dewar is in her second year with Illinois Athletics Communications after spending five years at the University of Missouri. A native of Prospect Heights, Illinois, Dewar is currently the primary contact for Illinois Women's Basketball, Men's Golf and Soccer.

While at Mizzou, Dewar most recently worked with women's basketball and women's golf, in addition to being immersed in the credentialing operations for football. Dewar saw three postseason appearances with Mizzou Women's Basketball, and assisted with men's basketball game day operations.

In her time at Mizzou, Dewar also served as the contact for the soccer team as well as the gymnastics team. She hosted the 2011 Big 12 Gymnastics Championship in the Hearnes Center and accompanied the team to the 2011 and 2012 NCAA Regional Championships.

Dewar graduated from the University of Illinois in 2010 with a degree in Broadcast Journalism and a minor in Spanish. As a student at Illinois, Dewar assisted with the softball program, accompanying the team to the 2010 NCAA Softball Regional Tournament in Columbia, Missouri.

JOSH WHITMAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
FIRST YEAR AT ILLINOIS
ILLINOIS, 2001

Illinois alumnus Josh Whitman was hired as the university's 14th permanent director of athletics on February 17, 2016. On March 7, less than 48 hours following his first official day, Whitman made national headlines when he announced the hiring of coaching icon Lovie Smith as the new Fighting Illini football coach. Whitman's "We Will Win" mantra and message of unity, optimism, and bold action have rekindled the fire in the hearts of Illini fans everywhere.

"It is a dream come true for me to return to my alma mater as the next director of athletics," Whitman said after being hired at Illinois. "With strong leadership, a bold vision, daring integrity and an unparalleled commitment from a unified and active Illini Nation, together we can build an athletics program befitting our great institution. I will work tirelessly to achieve our goals. The future is bright for the Illini."

Whitman's Illinois heritage made him an appealing candidate for the position, UI Interim Chancellor Barbara Wilson said. "He impressed us all with his work ethic, his passion, his concern for the welfare of student-athletes and his commitment to diversity. He has a record of leaving programs under his leadership better and stronger than when he arrived."

Wilson commented on Whitman's record of improvements in facilities, increased fundraising activity and strategic organizational changes that positioned his programs for successful futures.

"He understands the business of modern college athletics, but he hasn't lost any of the sense of fun and joy that should be part of amateur sports," Wilson said. "At Illinois, we want to compete hard, act with integrity and give our student-athletes the kind of positive experiences that stay with them throughout their lives and careers. If you want to see what that looks like, you just have to look at the leadership and accomplishments of Josh Whitman."

University of Illinois President Tim Killeen said he was impressed in his personal meeting with Whitman by his integrity, experience and vision for leading the Illinois athletics program. "Josh has excelled at every level - student and professional athlete, attorney and athletic administrator," Killeen said. "Orange-and-blue is in his bloodstream, and he is committed to the U. of I. for the long run. He will take the Illini athletics program to great success, and he'll have all my support."

Big Ten Commissioner Jim Delany described the selection as an outstanding hire. "Josh is well-respected, very bright, and as an alum, knows what it means to be a member of the Fighting Illini," Delany said. "He will be a terrific addition to the university and the conference, and we look forward to working with him."

Prior to coming to Illinois, Whitman spent nearly six years as an athletics director at two universities, during which time Whitman's teams earned four national titles and 24 top-five team finishes, plus 34 conference championships.

The 37-year-old Whitman came to Illinois following almost two years as director of athletics at Washington University in St. Louis, a nationally recognized NCAA Division III program with 19 varsity sports and approximately 500 student-athletes. During Whitman's tenure, the program posted seven top-five NCAA finishes, a combined GPA of 3.35, and a graduation rate of 99 percent. Of the more than 450 Division III schools, Washington University ranked No. 1 in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup at the time of Whitman's departure.

Whitman has two Illinois degrees. He graduated with Bronze Tablet honors in 2001 while earning a bachelor's degree in finance. In 2008, he graduated summa cum laude from the Illinois College of Law. He was a four-year starting tight end and two-time First Team Academic All-American on the gridiron for Illinois. He then spent parts of four seasons as a player in the National Football League, including stints with the San Diego Chargers, Miami Dolphins, Seattle Seahawks and Buffalo Bills. He also worked in various administrative capacities with the Illinois athletic program while attending law school.

Before joining Washington University, Whitman served as the director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. Previously, he practiced law in Washington, D.C., with Covington & Burling LLP, a firm with a preeminent sports practice that represents, among many other clients, the NFL. He also served as a judicial law clerk on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

He remains a licensed attorney and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and a member of the Sports Lawyers Association.

Whitman grew up in West Lafayette, Indiana. He and his wife, Hope, reside in Champaign with their daughter, Tate.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

TIMOTHY L. KILLEEN
PRESIDENT

Timothy L. Killeen was named as the 20th president of the University of Illinois in November 2014 following a national search. He assumed office on May 18, 2015.

Beginning in 2012, he served as vice chancellor for research and president of the Research Foundation at the State University of New York, one of the nation's largest higher education systems with 64 campuses, 465,000 students, 88,000 faculty, and more than 7,600 degree and certificate programs.

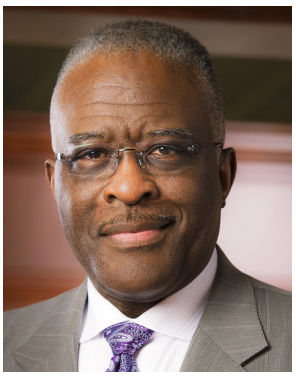

As president of SUNY's Research Foundation, Killeen was head of the nation's largest, most comprehensive university-connected research foundation, administering about $900 million annually across SUNY's 29 state-supported research campuses. In his dual role as vice chancellor for research, he was at the center of SUNY's strategy for research growth and works with campus leaders to increase basic, clinical and translational research.

Before joining SUNY, he served for four years as assistant director for the geosciences at the National Science Foundation. He also has served as Lyall Research Professor at the University of Colorado, as director and senior scientist for the National Center for Atmospheric Research, and spent more than 20 years as a faculty member and researcher at the University of Michigan, where he also served as associate vice president for research.

He was elected to the National Academy of Engineering in 2007. Killeen is a member and past president of the American Geophysical Union and a member of the American Meteorological Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and the New York Academy of Sciences.

A leading researcher in geophysics and space sciences, Killeen received his bachelor's degree and Ph.D. at University College London, where he earned his doctoral degree in atomic and molecular physics at the age of 23. He is a U.S. citizen and a native of Wales. His research has earned three achievement awards from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and he has received awards for teaching and research excellence from the University of Michigan College of Engineering. He has authored more than 150 publications in peerreviewed journals, along with more than 300 other publications and papers.

Killeen's wife, Roberta M. Johnson, was executive director of the National Earth Science Teachers Association and a clinical professor in the Department of Atmospheric and Environmental Sciences at the State University of New York at Albany. They have three children.

ROBERT J. JONES
CHANCELLOR

Robert J. Jones was named chancellor at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign on July 19, 2016. Jones, who served as president of the University at Albany, State University of New York (SUNY) since 2013, is an experienced and accomplished scientist and research university leader.

Jones' tenure at one of the SUNY system's leading research universities followed a 34-year career at the University of Minnesota, a Big Ten land-grant institution, where he began as a plant physiologist in the department of agronomy and plant genetics and rose through a series of academic administrative appointments, serving as senior vice president for academic administration at the University of Minnesota System from 2004 to 2013.

A Georgia native, Jones, 65, earned a bachelor's degree in agronomy from Fort Valley State College, a master's degree in crop physiology from the University of Georgia, and a doctorate in crop physiology from the University of Missouri, Columbia. He began his academic career as a faculty member at Minnesota and became an internationally respected authority on plant physiology. He is a fellow of the American Society of Agronomy and the Crop Science Society of America.

In addition to serving as chancellor of the Urbana university, Jones will be a vice president of the University of Illinois System, which also has universities in Chicago and Springfield. Jones' tenured faculty position will be in the Department of Crop Sciences, College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences (ACES). Jones is the first African-American scholar appointed as Urbana chancellor since the office was created in 1967.

During his tenure at UAlbany, Jones launched that university's largest and most strategic academic expansion in 50 years, including establishment of the nation's first integrated College of Emergency Preparedness, Homeland Security and Cybersecurity. He created the university's first College of Engineering and Applied Sciences, nurtured a deep academic affiliation with the historic Albany Law School, established the UAlbany's first vice presidency for health sciences and biomedical initiatives, and has started the conversation about reinvigorating the arts and humanities.

Throughout his distinguished career at the University of Minnesota System and on the Twin Cities campus, Jones held several progressively responsible positions at the Big Ten institution.

While senior VP for academic administration, Jones had administrative and budgetary responsibilities for public engagement initiatives central to the academic mission of the University including Minnesota's Extension Service and the Minnesota Agricultural Experiment Stations. He played a leadership role in establishing a new four-year campus in Rochester and established the University's first urban research and outreach/engagement center designed to help address challenges in an economically depressed urban community. The center was recently named after Dr. Jones.

Jones is married to Dr. Lynn Hassan Jones, a diagnostic radiologist. Together they have five children and two grandchildren.

Fighting Illini women's basketball has continued to show improvements over the course of head coach Matt Bollant's tenure. Once again, Illinois set a school record for three-pointers made in the 2015-16 season, knocking down 224 triples in 30 games. The Illini have now improved upon the program's best for the last four seasons under Bollant, and have been ranked among the best three-point shooting teams in the Big Ten. The Illini closed the 2015-16 campaign with an overall record of 9-20, going 2-16 in Big Ten play. Illinois started the season off with a 4-0 record for the second year under Bollant's coaching, scoring 90 points in consecutive games during that span.

Despite having a young team once again, Illinois saw its youth rise to the occasion as sophomore Chatrice White continued to build upon her successful freshman season. The Illini center led the Big Ten with her 18 double-doubles on the year and was among the top 15 players in the country for that number. She became the second-fastest Illini to reach 1,000 career points as she hit the millennium mark in her 61st game in the Orange and Blue. She grabbed 280 rebounds during the season, eighth on Illinois' single season list. A second team All-Big Ten honoree, White combined with freshman Alex Wittinger to create an intimidating post duo. The two were among Big Ten leaders for their blocked shots and rebounding numbers throughout the year, and Wittinger earned Big Ten All-Freshman Team honors following the season.

The Illini had a lot to be proud of off the court as well as White joined seniors Sarah Hartwell and Kyley Simmons, junior Ashley McConnell and sophomore Brooke Kissinger as the program's Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

Illinois graduated five seniors this year including Hartwell and Simmons in addition to Simone Law, Eriel Davis and Alexis Viliunas. While none of the five spent more than two years on the court for the Orange and Blue, each played an integral role for the Illini.

UI welcomed three freshmen to the roster prior to the season, all of who made a major impact on the court. Both Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors twice throughout the season. Rice started the year as a powerful force for the Illini, immediately positioning herself among the starting five. Rice earned her first weekly honor after posting her first-career 20-point performance against UT Martin. She put up 22 points at Miami to earn her second weekly award. Although her season was cut short by a knee injury, the Illini will look to Rice for significant contributions next season.

After making her first-career start against George Washington, Wittinger became a staple in the starting lineup for the rest of the 2015-16 season. Wittinger racked up two weekly conference honors as well, one coming after a career-best performance in her home state of Minnesota. Jaelyne Kirkpatrick proved to be a major contributor for the Illini as she played in all but one game during the year. Kirkpatrick averaged 3.7 points per game and finishing the season with 107 points. One of Kirkpatrick's most notable performances was against Minnesota, as she scored a career-high 11 points, and made three treys.

The theme of the season was three-pointers for Simmons and Kissinger, however. Both ranked among the top 16 in the Big Ten for their three-point field goals made on the year, and Simmons ranked among the top-50 in the nation for her triples. Simmons went only four games without making a trey this season, and finished with a season total of 77 three-pointers made. That number ranks fourth all-time at Illinois. Simmons was awarded the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award to finish off her career for the Orange and Blue.

The Illini started out strong this season with four consecutive wins at home, putting up more than 90 points against both UT Martin and Tennessee State in back-to-back contests. The Illini have not scored 90 or more points in consecutive games since the 2013-14 season. Illinois' 55-point victory over Tennessee State also marks the fourth largest margin of victory for an Illini team in program history.

The Illini played the first four games of the season at Parkland College due to construction at the State Farm Center. Although it wasn't home, the facility proved to give the Illini a major home court advantage. UI was finally back on its home court in the State Farm Center on Dec. 6, and earned a 76-67 victory over Lehigh. The Illini went on to win its next two games, opening the season with a 7-2 record in Champaign during the non-conference slate.

Illinois had a challenging schedule heading in to Big Ten play as Illinois hosted two tough opponents in South Dakota and George Washington before opening league play against No. 5 Maryland. Despite the tough competition, Illinois continued to fight. White matched the State Farm Center record and her career-high with seven rejections against South Dakota, and she earned her fifth-consecutive double-double against George Washington. An Illini player has not recorded five consecutive double-doubles since the 2013-14 season.

The Orange and Blue secured their first conference victory against Wisconsin in mid-January. The Illini got off to a 10-0 run to start the game and never looked back. Six Illini scored nine or more points each in the game, with four in double-figures, led by White and Wittinger who each put up 16 points on the day. Hartwell also added nine points, six rebounds and four assists to the team's success at home.

Illinois carried that momentum to Bloomington for an intense matchup against the Indiana Hoosiers. The Illini battled to hold on to their lead for much of the game, but a late Indiana run gave the Hoosiers a one-possession victory. A true team effort was put forth as every player who saw time on the court contributed at least one point during the game. White tallied her 100th career block in the contest, becoming just the seventh Illini to reach the 100-block mark in their career.

Illinois also rallied at Minnesota in late January, as Wittinger's career 27-point and 15-rebound performance helped carry the Orange and Blue over the Gophers for much of the contest. Once again, however, a late Minnesota push gave the Gophers the win.

UI grabbed its first road win of the year at Wisconsin, again led by White and Wittinger. White put up 28 points in the contest while Wittinger added 16 of her own. Kissinger went 3-for-3 from distance in the contest, adding nine points to Illinois' tally. The 76-56 push past the Badgers was Illinois' largest margin of victory over Wisconsin since Jan. 15, 2006 when the Illini won by a margin of 30 points.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

Although the season ended in the first round of the Big Ten Tournament, Illinois put on an impressive show. Kirkpatrick dished out a career-best eight assists, a number that also marked the most for an Illini in a Big Ten Tournament game. Simmons knocked down five three-pointers in the game, the most since Amber Moore also netted five against Penn State in the 2011 Big Ten Tournament Semifinal game. On her way to scoring her 1,000th career point, White led Illinois with 26 points on the day, the second-most for an Illini in a Big Ten Tournament game.

The future is bright for the Orange and Blue as Illinois will welcome six newcomers for the 2016-17 campaign. Ranked as the No. 14 forward in the country, Ali Andrews will come to the Illini after earning unanimous AP First Team All-State honors this season. She will join guard Brandi Beasley, who is the No. 2-ranked recruit out of the state of Tennessee, and Courtney Joens who is the No. 27-ranked point guard in the nation. Another First-Team All-State honoree, Sarah Overcash will join the Illini after helping her high school team to a state title this past season.

Illinois added freshmen Petra Holešínská and Cydnee Kinslow following the season as well. A native of Vracov, Czech Republic, Holešínská is a veteran player for the Czech Republic national team as she has helped the team to three national championship titles and a second place finish at the European Champion's Cup. Kinslow joins the Illini after spending a semester at Pepperdine. She was a varsity captain all four years of her high school career at Freedom High School (Oakley, Calif.) and helped her club team, the Cal Stars, to a 56-1 record during her career.

TEAM HIGHLIGHTS

• Illinois set a new school record with 224 three-pointers made, marking the fourth consecutive season that the Illini have reset the school's all-time best.

• The Illini started the year with four consecutive wins, starting the year 4-0 for the second-straight year under head coach Matt Bollant.

• In that stretch, the Illini earned back-to-back 90+-point victories with wins over UT Martin (94-74) and Tennessee State (98-43). The Illini have not scored 90 or more points in back-to-back games since the 2013-14 season. Illinois' 55-point victory over Tennessee State marks the fourth largest margin of victory for an Illini team in program history.

• The Orange and Blue handed head coach Matt Bollant his 50th win at Illinois in a 74-69 defeat of Central Michigan. Prior to the season, Bollant ranked 10th among active head coaches in the country for his career winning percentage. Not only that, but Bollant has a 100-percent graduation rate in his 20 years of head coaching.

• Illinois averaged 7.5 treys per game on the year, third in the league and 37th in the nation. The Orange and Blue also ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten for the fewest number of turnovers on the season (406). That number ranks 19th in the country.

• Illinois saw six players put up double-figure scoring numbers in two games this season. Prior to this year, UI had not seen its scoring production spread among that many players since the 2013 season.

INDIVIDUAL HIGHLIGHTS

• CHATRICE WHITE: Earned All-Big Ten Second Team honors

-scored her 1,000th point against Penn State at the Big Ten Tournament. She reached the milestone in just 61 games, becoming the second-fastest Illini to score 1,000 career points.

-recorded a Big Ten Conference leading 18 double-doubles on the season, which ranks third all-time on Illinois single-season list. That number ranks 13th in the nation this season as well.

-averaged seven defensive rebounds per game, second in the Big Ten and 28th in the nation. Her 9.3 rebounds per game ranked third in the league and 51st in the country.

• KYLEY SIMMONS: Earned the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award

-made a team-leading 77 three-pointers on the season, fourth all-time at Illinois. That number ranks fifth in the Big Ten and 54th in the country.

-knocked down seven three-pointers against Lehigh on Dec. 6, matching the State Farm Center Record set originally by Amber Moore in 2007.

•ALEX WITTINGER: Earned All-Big Ten Freshman Team recognition

-combined with CIERRA RICE for four Big Ten Freshman of the Week awards this year, the most for an Illini team since the 2009-10 season.

-combined with CHATRICE WHITE for an average of 3.9 blocks per game this season. White's 2.1 blocks per game rank third in the conference while Wittinger sits 5th for her 1.79 per game.

•SARAH HARTWELL: Nominated for the Allstate Good Works Team

GAME 5: MIAMI 73, ILLINOIS 64

Fighting Illini women's basketball dropped a hard-fought battle to the Miami Hurricanes in the annual Big Ten/ACC Challenge. Despite maintaining the lead for most of the contest, Illinois couldn't overcome a late deficit, falling 73-64. The Orange and Blue move to 2-1 in the all-time series with Miami. Freshman Cierra Rice put up double-figure scoring numbers for the third consecutive contest on Wednesday, and earned her second 20-point game of her career.

GAME 8: ILLINOIS 74, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 69

DEC. 12, 2015 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Fighting Illini women's basketball handed head coach Matt Bollant his 50th victory at Illinois, using an unselfish style of play to overcome Central Michigan, 74-69. Illinois improves to 7-1 on the year, continuing the best start for an Illinois team since the 2009-10 season. The underclassmen were the story on Saturday as freshman Alex Wittinger and sophomore Chatrice White both recorded double-doubles in the contest. Illinois' freshmen accounted for 32 of UI's total points.

GAME 9: MEMPHIS 81, ILLINOIS 75

DEC. 19, 2015 // ELMA ROANE FIELDHOUSE // MEMPHIS, TENN

Fighting Illini women's basketball fell to 7-2 on the season with an 81-75 loss at Memphis. Sophomore Chatrice White led the Orange and Blue with 28 points and 12 rebounds, earning her third-consecutive double-double and scoring more than 20 points for the fifth time this season. The Illini knocked down a season-best 12 three-pointers in the game, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Tigers.

GAME 10: SOUTH DAKOTA 85, ILLINOIS 76

DEC. 22, 2015 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Sophomore Chatrice White earned her fourth consecutive double-double and swatted a State Farm Center record seven blocks, however it wasn't enough to lift the Illini over South Dakota as the Coyotes handed Illinois it's first loss at home this season. The Illini (7-3) fell, 85-76, to South Dakota (9-4), despite knocking down 10 three-pointers and shooting better than 40-percent on the night.

GAME 11: GEORGE WASHINGTON 70, ILLINOIS 57

DEC. 28, 2015 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Despite battling to the finish, Fighting Illini Women's Basketball dropped its third consecutive game, falling 70-57 to George Washington in a hard-fought contest. Three Illini scored in double-digits and the Illini forced 25 Colonial turnovers, George Washington's second-highest total of the season. Freshmen Alex Wittinger and Jaelyne Kirkpatrick earned their first-career starts of the season in the game, and Wittinger recorded a career-high four steals to go along with it. Sophomore Chatrice White also earned her fifth-consecutive double-double on Monday, finishing with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

GAME 12: #6 MARYLAND 79, ILLINOIS 63

DEC. 31, 2015 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Six Illini scored eight or more points each in Illinois' Big Ten opener against the No. 6-ranked Maryland Terrapins, but it wasn't enough to secure the win. Maryland took a 79-63 victory over the Illini, improving to 12-1 on the season. Illinois fell to 7-5 on the season and 0-1 in Big Ten play. UI was led by sophomore Chatrice White who put up 14 points, and eight of nine Illini found the net in the contest. Illinois took five charges in the game, with three credited to redshirt senior Kyley Simmons.

GAME 18: INDIANA 68, ILLINOIS 66

JAN. 20, 2016 // ASSEMBLY HALL // BLOOMINGTON, IND.

Fighting Illini Women's Basketball battled to hold the lead over the Indiana Hoosiers for much of the game, but a late run gave Indiana a one-possession victory in the end. Illinois saw five players score in double-figures in the game, including sophomore Brooke Kissinger who matched her career-best with 12 total. Redshirt senior Kyley Simmons led the Illini with 16 total points, she was 4-for-6 from three overall, including a blazing 3-for-3 from distance in the first half.

GAME 19: PENN STATE 65, ILLINOIS 55

JAN. 23, 2016 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Chatrice White grabbed a career-best 18 rebounds at the annual Pack the House game, helping the Illini to a 41-36 advantage on the boards, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Penn State Lady Lions. Illinois fell, 65-56, to Penn State (Jan. 23), dropping to 8-11 overall and 1-7 in Big Ten Play. Penn State improved to 3-5 in league play. The Illini again shared the scoring efforts, seeing seven players put up at least two points on the day, led by freshman Alex Wittinger who finished with 14 points overall.

GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 21: #7 OHIO STATE 80, ILLINOIS 70

FEB. 1, 2016 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

The Fighting Illini gave the No. 7-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes a run for their money, knocking down a season-high 12 three-pointers to take an early lead in the game. Sophomore Brooke Kissinger knocked down five of those treys for a career-best 15 points, while Chatrice White led the Orange and Blue with 26 points. It wasn't enough, however, to hold off the Buckeyes as the Illini fell 80-70 on the night.

GAME 23: MICHIGAN 96, ILLINOIS 83

FEB. 7, 2016 // CRISLER CENTER // ANN ARBOR, MICH.

A career-high 35-point effort from sophomore Chatrice White led the Illini at Michigan, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Michigan Wolverines. White finished with 35 points and 11 rebounds to earn her 15th double-double of the season. White's 35 points mark the most for an Illini since Allison Curtin also scored 35 points against Iowa on March 3, 2001. She knocked down a career-best 11 free throws on 11-of-12 shooting from the line, and finished with two blocks and three steals overall.

GAME 24: INDIANA 80, ILLINOIS 68

FEB. 7, 2016 // STATE FARM CENTER // CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

Four Illini reached double-figure scoring numbers, led by redshirt senior Kyley Simmons who put up 20 points for the second time this season, but it wasn't enough as Indiana outlasted the Illini, 80-68. The Hoosiers improve to 8-5 in league play and 15-9 overall. Simmons finished just two points shy of her career-best, while freshman Alex Wittinger returned for the Illini to grab a team-leading 11 rebounds on the night.

GAME 26: ILLINOIS 76, WISCONSIN 65

FEB. 17, 2016 // KOHL CENTER // MADISON, WIS.

A 28-point effort from Chatrice White helped to lift the Illini over the Badgers in a dominating fashion, as Illinois earned its first road victory of the year. Three Illini put up double-figure scoring numbers in the 76-56 victory over Wisconsin. In addition to White's 28 points on the night, freshman Alex Wittinger contributed 16 points, and senior Kyley Simmons finished with 11. Brooke Kissinger was hot from distance going 3-for-3, while Simmons dished a game-high seven assists.

Assistant Coaches: Tianna Kirkland, Jody Martinez
Letterwinners: Sarah Hartwell, Simone Law, Cierra Rice, Ashley McConnell, Eriel Davis, Chatrice White, Kyley Simmons, Brooke Kissinger, Alex Wittinger, Alexis Viliunas*, Kennedy Cattenhead, Jaelyne Kirkpatrick
Highlights: The Illini started the year with four consecutive wins, starting the year 4-0 for the second straight year under head coach Matt Bollant. In that stretch, the Illini earned back-to-back 90-point victories with wins over UT Martin (94-74) and Tennessee State (98-43). The Illini have not scored 90 or more points in back-to-back games since the 2013-14 season. Illinois' 55-point victory over Tennessee State marks the fourth-largest margin of victory for an Illini team in program history. The Orange and Blue handed head coach Matt Bollant his 50th win at Illinois in a 74-69 defeat of Central Michigan.
