#ILLINI ON THE RUN

Illinois has seen several different trends pop up over the last few games.

- Alex Wittinger recorded five consecutive double-doubles in the first six games, a number that leads the Big Ten and is fifth in the nation.
- Wittinger is averaging 2.4 blocks per game this season, and recorded all of Illinois' rejections against Wake Forest. She has led the team in blocked shots in five games.
- As a team, the Illini have made all but two free throws in five of the last seven games. Illinois leads the Big Ten with a 75.5 free throw percentage, which is good for 32nd in the nation.
- Freshman Brandi Beasley and sophomore Jaelyne Kirkpatrick have each dished two or more assists in each of Illinois' last seven games.
- Illinois has had two or more players score in double-figures in six games this season, including a season-high five players in double-digits against both USC Upstate and Wake Forest. The performance against USC Upstate marks the first time five players have registered double-figures in a single game since Jan. 20, 2016 against Indiana.
- Illinois made a season-high eight three-pointers against USC Upstate this season. The Illini have knocked down four or more treys in all but one game this year.
- Illinois leads the Big Ten in three-point field goal percentage defense so far this year. The Illini have held five opponents to less than 27-percent shooting from beyond the arc, and allowed just one triple from Mercer in the contest.

BEASLEY IS KEY

Freshman Brandi Beasley has become a consistent force on the court for the Illini this season. Beasley has dished three or more assists in seven games this year, leading the team in dimes in five games. She currently has a team-leading 29 assists on the year.

She was the leading scorer for the Illini against George Washington, scoring 10 of Illinois' 15 points in the second quarter. She has reset her career-high scoring number in three games, and is among team leaders for her 8.3 points per game this year. Beasley has scored in double-digits in three games and earned her first career double-double against Wake Forest.

Beasley is also strong on the boards, she's second on the squad only to Alex Wittinger as she averages 6.5 rebounds per game.

JOENS FOR THREE

Freshman Courtney Joens has developed a habit of hitting three-pointers at just the right time this season. She has come hit two or more three-pointers in three games, and leads Illinois with 10 made this year. Joens has scored in double-figures off the bench three times this season.

GOING STREAKING

Sophomore Alex Wittinger opened the season posting five straight double-doubles in the first six games of the year. Wittinger's streak marks the second season in a row that Illinois has had a player record five consecutive double-doubles as Chatrice White also matched that number last season. Prior to White, the last time an Illini had recorded five in a row was during the 2010-11 campaign (Karisma Penn). Jenna Smith recorded seven-straight double-doubles at the end of the 2009-10 season.

FIGHTING FRESHMEN

As expected, Illinois has seen major contributions from its freshmen to open the season. Brandi Beasley, Ali Andrews and Petra Holešínská have all played significant roles in the Illini starting lineup this year. Sarah Overcash and Courtney Joens have also made contributions on the court for the Illini so far.

The Illini freshmen are accounting for 29.5 points per game so far this year, good for more than 50-percent (50.3) of Illinois' scoring, led by Beasley and Holesinska who average 8.3 points per game.

Illinois has seen three freshmen score in double-digits in two games this season, against both Wake Forest and USC Upstate. Prior to this year, the last time an Illinois squad saw that kind of production from its freshmen was Nov. 17, 2013 in a 112-28 victory over Alcorn State.

D-FENSE

The Illini have held four opponents to less than 30-percent shooting from the floor this year, including Fort Wayne who shot just 25.6-percent. The last time an Illinois team held four or more opponents to worse than 30-percent shooting was during the 2009-10 campaign when the Orange and Blue held eight opponents shot below 30-percent.

Illinois held both Marshall and UAPB to less than 30-percent shooting from the floor in consecutive games to start the season. The Illini have not held consecutive opponents to less than 30-percent shooting since the 2013-14 season when the Orange and Blue held Alcorn State to 15.3-percent shooting (11/17/13) and followed that up by holding SIU to 22.6-percent from the floor (11/21/13).

Illinois held just one opponent to less than 30-percent shooting last season (Tennessee State, .221), and two opponents to less than 30-percent during the 2014-15 campaign (Southern, .269; Murray State, .275).

The Illini are holding opponents to just 34.6-percent shooting this season, which ranks fourth in the Big Ten and 43rd in the country.

ILLINI OFF THE BENCH

Illinois has seen impressive productions from it's players off the bench so far this year. Redshirt junior Kennedy Cattenhead started the trend, coming off the bench to score 10 points in Illinois' season opener against Marshall. So far the Illini have seen double-digit production from at least one player off the pine in six of eight contests.

Illinois' bench is outscoring opponents by six points per game this year, averaging 17.9 points per game. Freshman Petra Holešínská is leading that charge, averaging 12 points per game when coming off the pine. Jaelyne Kirkpatrick posted 13 points off the bench against UAPB, but is a consistent part of the Illini starting lineup.

ON THE BOARDS

Illinois has been aggressive on the glass as of late, as the squad has grabbed 117 offensive rebounds through the first eight games. At this point last season, the Illini had tallied just 95 offensive

Illinois tallied a season-high 20 offensive rebounds against Wake Forest, the most for an Illini team since grabbing 21 against Rutgers on Feb. 21, 2015.

PERFECT START

The Illini started the season strong from the foul line this season, as six players are shooting 70-percent or better so far. Freshman Ali Andrews has been the most impressive as she is 24-for-28 (.857) from the line this year, which ranks third in the Big Ten.

The Illini were on fire from the free throw line against UAPB, making 18-of-19 shots good for 94.7 percent shooting. The last time the Illini shot better than that from the charity stripe was Jan. 3, 2014 against Wisconsin, going 4-for-4. The Illini made 21-of-22 attempts (95.5-percent) at Wisconsin (2/14/08).

The Orange and Blue have shot 85-percent or better in four games this season, and lead the Big Ten with their .755 free throw shooting percentage, a number that sits 32nd in the nation.

WITTINGER'S HOT START

Illinois' leading scorer, sophomore Alex Wittinger, is off to a strong start to the season. She leads the Illini averaging 13.0 points per game, and posted a Big Ten leading five-straight double-doubles in Illinois' first six games this year. Wittinger has recorded a double-double in three of her four career 20+ point games and was just one rebound away from a double-double when she dropped 21 points at No. 5 Ohio State last season (2/21/16).

Wittinger has recorded multiple blocks in five of Illinois' games this season, and has carded multiple blocks and multiple steals in two of those five matchups. She has posted multiple blocks and multiple steals in four career games.

HEAD COACH MATT BOLLANT 52-72 // Fifth Season

Now entering his fifth season as head coach of the University of Illinois, Matt Bollant has continues to revive a dormant Illini program after being a part of the best seasons in program history at each of his other four collegiate coaching stops. In just his first season with the program, Bollant led the Orange and Blue to the postseason for the first time in three years in 2013 and Illinois finished with a winning Big Ten record for the first time in 10 seasons. He also has spearheaded the composition of back-to-back top-25 recruiting classes during his first two recruiting years in Champaign.

Despite taking a step back in wins and losses, the Illini program began to change its culture in the 2013-14 season. The values of hard work, fundamentals, attention to detail and team unity began to pay off as Illinois was much more competitive down the stretch, including a 61-51 win at Michigan State. The Orange and Blue also broke the school record for three-pointers made with 202 and finished eighth and 13th nationally in steals and turnover margin, respectively. On the recruiting front, two Illini commits earned McDonald's All American in Illinois program history and Amarah Coleman earned honorable mention WBCA All-America honors.

The 2014-15 season saw the Illini post a 9-3 non-conference record, starting the season with a 5-0 record to mark the best nonconference record to start a season that the program has seen in 12 years. Freshman Chatrice White proved to be a weapon on the floor as she broke the Illinois Freshman All-Time Scoring and Blocked Shots records. With Bollant's coaching, the Illini earned a win over No. 9-ranked Kentucky at the Paradise Jam, and continued to upset No. 17 Iowa later in the season. Defensively, Illinois ranked among the top-15 in the nation, averaging more than 11 steals per game. Seniors Ivory Crawford and Brittany Carter played a major role in those numbers as they each ranked among the top-40 in the nation, individually. Bollant saw seven of his student-athletes earn All-Big Ten Academic honors following the season, proving that the program is headed in the right direction both on and off the court. Additionally, Bollant was recognized as the 2015 Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award recipient following the season.

In 2012-13, the Illini reached the Women's NIT quarterfinals and saw attendance at the Assembly Hall increase 80 percent from 2011-12 to an average of 1,926, the third-highest average attendance increase in Division I women's basketball. Illinois also defeated three ranked opponents: No. 6 Georgia, No. 24 lowa and No. 24 Ohio State, with the win over the Buckeyes snapping their 31-game home winning streak. The win over the Hawkeyes also broke an eight-game skid against lowa.

The Illini shattered the Big Ten record for steals, steals per game and turnovers forced in a conference season, and also broke school records for steals, turnovers forced and three-pointers made in a season. Senior forward Karisma Penn became one of the country's most dominant post players, averaging 19.2 points, 9.6 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.2 blocked shots per game with 50.6 percent field-goal shooting, all of which ranked in the top five in the Big Ten. She was named an Associated Press honorable mention All-American and also earned two national player of the week honors. Senior guard Adrienne GodBold earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors after posting 55 steals in 16 conference games and routinely guarding opponents' top offensive players.

Bollant's team continued to shatter school records during the 2015-16 season as the Illini made 224 three-point field goals to reset the school record for the fourth consecutive season. Senior Kyley Simmons was among Big Ten Conference leaders for her 77 threes on the year. Bollant continued to work with Chatrice White, helping her to an outstanding sophomore season in which she became the secondfastest Illini to score 1,000 career points (61 games). White led the Big Ten and was among the top-15 in the country for her 18 doubledoubles on the year, and also earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors. Bollant's recruiting talents were once again on display as freshmen Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger came in with a bang. The two combined for four Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors throughout the season, and both earned spots in the Illini starting five. Although Rice was sidelined by injury prior to conference play, Wittinger went on to earn Big Ten All-Freshman recognition at the conclusion of the year. As a team, Bollant guided the Illini to a 4-0 start to the season for the second-straight year. In that stretch, his team earned back-to-back 90-point victories over UT Martin and Tennessee State, the first time an Illinois team has done so since 2013-14. Illinois' 55-point victory over Tennessee State marks the fourth largest margin of victory for an Illini team in program history. The Orange and Blue also handed Bollant his 50th win at Illinois in a 74-69 defeat of Central Michigan. Prior to the 2015-16 season, Bollant ranked 10th among active head coaches in the country for his career winning percentage. Not only that, but Bollant has a 100-percent graduation rate in his 14 years of head coaching.

Bollant came to Illinois after a successful five-year stint at Green Bay, where he guided the Phoenix to five straight Horizon League titles and four straight trips to the NCAA Tournament. He led Green Bay to a 148-19 record (.886 winning percentage) in five years, including an 85-5 mark in the Horizon League. The Phoenix were a combined 65-4 in his final two seasons in Green Bay, going 34-2 in 2010-11. Green Bay was ranked as high as No. 9 in the national polls in both 2010-11 and 2011-12, finishing the 2011 season with that ranking. In 2010-11, Green Bay went 4-0 against the Big Ten, defeating Minnesota, Wisconsin, Penn State and Michigan State. In 2011-12, the Phoenix downed Illinois 82-62 at the San Juan Shootout and had triumphs over No. 25 Georgia Tech - a team that reached the Sweet 16 - Marquette and Wisconsin.

Green Bay had four wins over ranked opponents in the last four seasons, including a 65-56 victory over No. 12/13 Michigan State in the 2011 NCAA second round. The Phoenix entered the tournament as a No. 5 seed, defeating the No. 4 Spartans to reach the Sweet 16 for the first time school history. Green Bay also defeated No. 21 Virginia 69-67 in the first round of the 2010 tournament.

Green Bay lost to lowa State in Ames by just four points (60-56) in the NCAA second round in 2010. In 2012, Green Bay returned to the site for NCAA first and second round play. Entering the tournament as the No. 10 seed, the Phoenix defeated the No. 7 seed Cyclones on the their home floor, 71-57, before seeing a comeback fall short against No. 2 seed Kentucky (65-62) in the second round.

Bollant was named the Horizon League Coach of the Year for the fourth time in 2012, guiding Green Bay to a 31-2 record despite losing Horizon League co-Players of the Year Kayla Tetschlag and Celeste Hoewisch. Senior Julie Wojta was a finalist for the Wade Trophy and earned WBCA Second Team All-America honors.

Bollant has an .837 winning percentage as a collegiate coach, including a 134-36 record at Bryan (Tenn.) College from the NAIA level. He guided the Lady Lions to four straight NAIA Tournaments, reaching the Sweet 16 in 2005-06. Bryan reached the top 25 rankings each of his last four years, reaching as high as No. 11 at the end of the 2006-07 season. Bollant coached four Appalachian Athletic Conference Players of the Year.

Bollant was as an assistant coach under Kathi Bennett, the daughter of former Wisconsin men's coach Dick Bennett, for five seasons before becoming a collegiate head coach. He served three years under Bennett at Evansville, helping the Purple Aces to the 1999 NCAA Tournament, then followed her to Indiana, where the Hoosiers became the lowest seed (5) to win the Big Ten Tournament in 2002.

A 1994 graduate of Winona State University with a degree in business education, Bollant received a master's degree in education from American Intercontinental University. He served as both the varsity and junior varsity head coach of Depper Life Academy in the Philippines and spent three years as the head coach at Tigerton (Wis.) High School, guiding the Tigers to a 63-10 record and to three Central Wisconsin Conference Small School titles from 1994-97.

HOLEŠÍNSKÁ'S CAREER DAYS

Illini freshman Petra Holešínská had a breakout performance against Memphis, contributing 18 points on 6-of-12 shooting, including 3-for-6 from three-point range, in a season-high 23 minutes. Holešínská recorded more points in the first half against Memphis (13) than she did in her first two games combined (8). She also grabbed a career-best four steals in the contest.

She saw even more success in Illinois' victory over Fort Wayne as the Czech Republic, native, knocked down a career-best five three-pointers on 5-of-7 shooting from distance. She led the squad with 17 points in the contest, one short of her career high.

RICE'S RETURN

Sophomore Cierra Rice returned this season after being sidelined just before Big Ten play last year. Rice was off to a strong start last year as she had record two 20-point games in just 10 appearances. Rice averaged 13.6 points per game, dished 24 assists and swiped 11 steals last year. She played a career-high 40 minutes in her 2016-17 debut, contributing five points, four rebounds, an assist and two steals.

She put up double-figures in Illinois' victory over UAPB, knocking down nine of her 11 points in the fourth quarter to lift Illinois to victory. She also grabbed six rebounds and dished an assist in the matchup. Rice's return was shortlived, however, as she suffered a foot injury against Memphis that currently has her sidelined.

MCCONNELL'S SENIOR SEASON

Senior Ashley McConnell is Illinois' only senior this season. In her time wearing the Orange and Blue, McConnell has made 67 appearances and earned eight starts. She has dished 37 assists and grabbed 24 steals while scoring 102 points.

WITTINGER'S WAYS

Now in her sophomore season, Alex Wittinger had quite the freshman debut. The Delano, Minnesota, native closed the season among Big Ten leaders for her 3.3 offensive rebounds and her 1.8 blocks per game. Wittinger was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice last season, and was named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team following the year. Wittinger grabbed 193 rebounds last season, good for fifth all-time among Illinois freshmen, and her 50 rejections rank third on Illinois' all-time freshman records list. Wittinger averaged 10 points and 6.9 rebounds per game last season, scoring a career-high 27 points and grabbing a personal-best 15 rebounds at Minnesota. She posted four double-doubles on the season, and is looking to improve on those numbers this year.

EXHIBITION RECAP

Several Illini saw their first action in the State Farm Center as freshmen Ali Andrews and Brandi Beasley both earned spots among the starting lineup. It was a young group as the freshmen were joined in the lineup by sophomores Alex Wittinger, Jaelyne Kirkpatrick and Cierra Rice. Freshmen Petra Holešínská, Sarah Overcash and Courtney Joens also made their first appearances for the Illini in a 66-60 loss to Drury University. Wittinger was in double-figures before the end of the game as she put up 15 points and 13 rebounds before the final period. She also finished with two blocks and three steals. Beasley totaled 10 points, eight rebounds and four assists, while Andrews was also in double-figures, racking up 13 points. She added two blocks and three steals to her line. Rice tallied 10 points in her return for the Illini, and Kirkpatrick finished with eight points and four assists.

NEW LOOK FOR THE ILLINI

Coming off of a 9-21 season in 2015-16, the 2016-17 Illini squad will have a new look as the team welcomes six new players in Ali Andrews, Brandi Beasley, Petra Holešínská, Courtney Joens, Cydnee Kinslow and Sarah Overcash. Senior Ashley McConnell and redshirt junior Kennedy Cattenhead will look to lead the young squad, also composed of sophomores Jaelyne Kirkpatrick, Cierra Rice and Alex Wittinger.

CATTENHEAD STEPPING UP

Redshirt junior Kennedy Cattenhead will look to continue her improvements from last season. After averaging just 1.1 points per game in her freshman year, Cattenhead showed major improvements last season. She averaged almost seven points per game and earned 27 starts for the Orange and Blue. Cattenhead was an important asset for the Illini as she also recorded 28 steals. After recording just seven assists in her freshman year, Cattenhead dished out 57 dimes last year.

BTN APPEARANCES

The Big Ten Conference announced game times and television information for the conference portion of the 2016-17 women's basketball season on Monday, Sept. 26, completing Illinois' 2016-17 schedule. All of Illinois' Big Ten contests will be available on the Big Ten Network or BTN Plus. Illinois will open conference play live on BTN Wednesday, Dec. 28, against Iowa at 3 p.m. CT at State Farm Center. The Illini will have two other televised home contests: Saturday, Jan. 7 against Rutgers, and Saturday, Feb. 25 against Indiana. Illinois will appear on BTN Plus for the remainder of the conference schedule.

SET FOR A CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

The 2016-17 season will be an exciting one as the Illini are set to face a challenging slate of non-conference opponents before opening conference play in late December. Illinois will face 19 opponents who are coming off of postseason appearances, including 2016 WNIT Champion South Dakota. The Illini will take on three opponents for the first time in program history, beginning with Marshall (Nov. 11). The Orange and Blue also matched up against USC Upstate (Nov. 20) and Mercer (Nov. 22) for the first time. Meeting both teams for just the second time in program history, Illinois will travel to the 2016 Atlantic 10 Conference Tournament Champion George Washington (Dec. 4) and WNIT Champion South Dakota (Dec. 7). The nonconference slate will conclude with another set of road games as UI will head to Central Michigan (Dec. 19) and Ohio (Dec. 22) before opening Big Ten play.

Illinois will host a competitive slate of Big Ten opponents this season, including Iowa, (Dec. 28), Rutgers (Jan. 7), Nebraska (Jan. 15) and 2016 Big Ten Tournament Champion, Maryland (Jan. 26). The Orange and Blue will have several road contests during the month of January, including trips to Michigan State (Jan. 1), Iowa (Jan. 11), Minnesota (Jan. 18), Ohio State (Jan. 22) and Penn State (Jan. 29). The squad will return home in the month of February, with back-to-back games against Michigan (Feb. 1) and Purdue (Feb. 5). After a road game at Maryland (Feb. 9), the Illini will host Penn State on Feb. 14. Illinois will conclude regular season travel with games at Northwestern (Feb. 19) and Wisconsin (Feb. 22) before hosting Indiana in the regular season finale on Feb. 25.
