Dan Hartleb completed his 10th season as head coach at Illinois and 25th season on the Illini coaching staff in 2015. Hartleb ranks among the winningest coaches in school history, as he is currently third with 326 career victories. He has won a pair of Big Ten titles (2011, 2015) and owns a conference record of 151-108.

Hartleb took Illinois to its first-ever Super Regional in 2015 and has taken the Illini to an NCAA Regional in three of the past five years (2011, 2013, 2015). He has led Illinois to the Big Ten Tournament in eight of his 10 seasons at the helm, giving the Orange and Blue eight postseason appearances in the last 11 seasons and 15 in the last 20 years.

It was a record-setting 2015 season for Illini baseball under Hartleb, who was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year, ABCA Mideast Region Coach of the Year and a National Coach of the Year finalist. The team won 50 games, breaking the previous school record of 49 wins set in 1982.

Along the way the Illini reeled off a Big Ten-record 27-game winning streak from March 30-May 20, the longest in the nation in 2015. Illinois won its first outright conference title in 10 years, claiming the crown with a 21-1 record. The Illini's .955 winning percentage was the best by a league champion since 1966.

The Illini earned the No. 6 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament; becoming just the second Big Ten team to earn a national seed. Illinois went on to win its first-ever NCAA Regional, advancing to the Super Regional for the first time in school history. The Orange and Blue hosted both the Regional and Super Regional during a season in which the Illini won a school-record 25 games at Illinois Field.

Illinois swept the Big Ten individual awards for the first time in school history with first baseman David Kerian being named Player of the Year, left hander Tyler Jay selected as Pitcher of the Year and Dan Hartleb garnering Coach of the Year. Jay went on to earn first-team All-America honors while Kerian and pitcher Kevin Duchene were chosen as second-team All-Americans. The 2015 Illini pitching staff set school records with a 2.55 ERA, 449 strikeouts and 20 saves.

Immediately following the season a school-record nine players were selected in the MLB Draft, highlighted by Jay's selection at No. 6 overall by the Minnesota Twins to become the highest draft pick in Illini history. Illinois was tied for the third-most draft picks in the country in 2015.

During the 2014 season, Illinois posted its then-best Big Ten record at 17-7 during the conference's 24-game schedule era, finishing in third place and playing in the Big Ten Tournament. The Illini earned their most conference wins under Hartleb, which included a 10-2 mark in Big Ten road games. Six Illini earned All-Big Ten honors, while Adam Walton was named a Freshman All-American.

Illinois' pitching staff shined on the mound, setting the then-school record with a 3.25 team ERA. Tyler Jay garnered All-Region recognition and shined on the Team USA Collegiate National Team roster during the summer, going 2-0 with a save and no earned runs allowed in 16.2 innings of relief.

Hartleb also served on the coaching staff for the 2014 USA Baseball 14U National Team Development Program.

During the 2013 season, Illinois advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three years and finished 35-20, marking the most wins under Hartleb and since 2000 by an Illini squad. The Illini earned an at-large bid into the Nashville Regional, where they won their opening game before falling in their final two contests. Hartleb coached a pair of players to top national and conference honors, as Justin Parr was named an All-American and Big Ten Player of the Year and Kevin Duchene was picked as a Freshman All-American and Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Hartleb guided the Illini to Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships in 2011, and the squad advanced to the championship game of the NCAA Fullerton Regional. After a rocky start to the season, Illinois reversed course by winning 18 of their final 24 games to clinch a share of the regular-season Big Ten title, sweep through the Big Ten Tournament with a 3-0 record and go 2-2 at the NCAA Fullerton Regional as the No. 4 seed, eliminating No. 1 Cal State Fullerton and No. 3 Kansas State along the way.

After spending the first 10 years of his tenure at Illinois as the pitching coach, Hartleb earned the additional title of associate head coach in 2001, coordinating many administrative duties associated with the Illini baseball program. Following the 2005 Big Ten Championship season, ABCA Hall of Famer Richard "Itch" Jones retired and Hartleb was hired as the 10th coach in 136 years of Illinois Baseball. Hartleb coached under Jones for 17 years, two at Southern Illinois and 15 at Illinois.

During his time with the Illini, Hartleb has been instrumental in recruiting and developing 64 players who have signed minor league contracts, including six in 2015, one in 2014, three in 2013, two in 2012, four in 2011, three in 2009, two in 2008, four in 2007 and seven in 2005. Ten former Illini that played under Hartleb have reached the major leagues, with Tanner Roark (Washington Nationals) and Chris Robinson (San Diego Padres) adding their names to that list in 2013.

In addition, 29 former players have earned All-America honors on 64 different teams and 10 Illini freshmen have been named to Freshmen All-America teams. Four of Hartleb's pitchers have been named Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and Illinois has produced six Big Ten Players of the Year, along with 38 first-team All-Big Ten selections.

The Illini also have achieved a great deal of success in the classroom in Hartleb's 10 years as head coach, earning six NCAA Public Recognition Awards, an honor bestowed on the highest-achieving schools in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR). Illinois also has ranked in the 90th percentile of all baseball programs in eight of Hartleb's 10 seasons.

In addition to developing Illinois' batteries throughout the years, Hartleb also has helped bring some of the top recruiting classes in the nation to Champaign in recent years. Anderson turned down a sixth-round offer from the Kansas City Royals in 1997 to attend Illinois after being recruited by Hartleb, and James Morris, a 23rd-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Reds in 2005, turned down a draft offer from the Anaheim Angels in 2001 to do the same. Hartleb's 1994 recruiting class, which included the core of the 1998 Big Ten championship team, also will go in the books as one of the finest classes ever recruited to Illinois.

Hartleb began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Southern Illinois University in 1989-90. A two-year letterwinner at SIU, Hartleb finished his playing career with a .305 batting average. As a senior, Hartleb appeared in 56 contests as a catcher. Hartleb transferred to Southern Illinois from John A. Logan Community College, where he was a junior college all-star catcher. At Hamilton High School in Hamilton, Ohio, Hartleb was a standout athlete in both baseball and football. He was inducted into Hamilton High School's Hall of Fame in February 2002.

A 1989 graduate of SIU with a B.S. in advertising, Hartleb received his M.S. in higher educational administration from SIU in May 1996. He and his wife, Gina, were married in December 1993 and reside in Champaign with their children, Zakary David and Haley Noel.

Drew Dickinson completed his fourth year as Illinois' pitching coach in 2015, after serving two stints as a volunteer assistant coach in 2009 and 2011. Dickinson oversees the development of Illinois' record-setting pitching staff and is instrumental in recruiting for the Fighting Illini. He has been an integral part of Illinois' first Super Regional appearance in 2015 and three NCAA Regional berths in the last five years (2011, 2013, 2015).

Dickinson has lowered Illinois' team ERA each year, highlighted by the 2015 Illini pitching staff's 2.55 ERA that shattered the 3.25 ERA record his staff set the year before in 2014. The 2015 Illini also broke the school record for strikeouts (449 K) and ERA in Big Ten games (2.87 ERA), as Dickinson earned Skippers Dugout's Division I Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In the 2015 final NCAA stat rankings, Illinois ranked fifth in ERA (2.55) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (3.48) and fourth in walks allowed per nine innings (2.08) and WHIP (1.13), which led the Big Ten in each category.

Dickinson helped mold Tyler Jay into the No. 6 overall MLB draft pick by the Minnesota Twins, making him the highest draft pick in Illini history. Jay was a first-team All-American and 2015 Big Ten Pitcher of the Year, while Kevin Duchene was a fifth round draft pick and second-team All-American in 2015.

Immediately following the season a school-record nine players were selected in the MLB Draft, which was tied for the third-most draft picks in the country in 2015. Five pitchers – Jay, Duchene, Nick Blackburn, Rob McDonnell and Drasen Johnson – were drafted, while John Kravetz was a free agent sign.

During the 2014 season, Illinois' pitching staff shined on the mound, setting the then-school record with a 3.25 team ERA, breaking the mark of 3.43 from 1976. In the final NCAA stat rankings, Illinois ranked seventh in strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.92), eighth in walks allowed per nine innings (2.37), 40th in WHIP (1.25) and 49th in ERA (3.25), which was the fourth-best earned run average in the Big Ten.

The 2014 Illini hurlers also set a school record in Big Ten play (24-game schedule) for strikeouts (157), surpassing their mark of 135 from 2013. The 157 strikeouts also rank as the most punch outs in any Big Ten season, topping the previous mark of 155 during a 32-game season in 1997.

In 2013, Dickinson's young pitching staff, which featured two freshmen and a sophomore in the postseason rotation, lowered its ERA by more than a run from 2012 from 4.77 ERA to 3.76 ERA, which ranked as the lowest mark since 1976 (3.43 ERA). His staff nearly boasted a 2:1 strikeout-to-walk ratio (316 K to 162 BB) and held opponents to a .267 average.

Dickinson was a part of Illinois' magical run to the 2011 Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships, serving as a volunteer assistant and first-base coach. In 2010, he served as the pitching coach for the Schaumburg Flyers of the independent Northern League. Dickinson was Illinois' volunteer assistant coach in 2009 while he finished his degree after a seven-year professional playing career.

Dickinson hit the recruiting trail and found immediate success after his hiring in August 2011, landing a pair of top-30 pitchers in the state of Illinois in lefty Kevin Duchene and right-hander Nick Blackburn, as well as projectable lefties Tyler Jay and J.D. Nielsen. He added depth with the 2013 class, including top-30 pitcher/outfielder Cody Sedlock and two-way players Ryne Roper and Matthew James.

In 2012, Dickinson guided the Illini pitching staff to its best ERA since 2005 with a 4.77 mark, 0.20 lower than in 2011. Illinois also posted a 1:1 hits to innings pitched ratio (464:464), compared to 533 hits in 499 2/3 innings in 2011. Before last season, the last time an Illinois staff had a 1:1 or better ratio in those categories was in 2000, when Dickinson and volunteer assistant coach Jason Anderson were part of the staff.

Dickinson returned to Illinois as a volunteer assistant in 2011 after spending a year with Schaumburg and helped guide the Illini staff to its lowest ERA since 2005, besting the 2009 team's mark. He assisted the development of a staff that helped lift Illinois to Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships in the same season for the first time in school history and an appearance in the NCAA Fullerton Regional championship game.

Following Dickinson's professional career, he served as Illinois' volunteer assistant coach in 2009, helping guide the Illini pitching staff to its lowest ERA since 2005. He then served as pitching coach for the Northern League's Schaumburg Flyers in 2010, leading them to the third-best ERA in the league after finishing last the three previous years. He also helped guide freshman hurler Will Strack to third-team All-Big Ten honors as he went 6-1 with a 3.84 ERA.

A 2009 graduate of Illinois, Dickinson holds a B.S. in communication. He was selected in the 28th round by the Oakland Athletics in the 2002 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Dickinson is one of the best pitchers in Illinois history, earning third-team All-American honors by Collegiate Baseball and Big Ten Pitcher of the Year honors in 2001, and third-team Collegiate Baseball All-American laurels again in 2002. He shares the school records for career wins and wins in a Big Ten season, and holds the UI record for innings pitched in a Big Ten season.

In addition, he ranks third in career strikeouts and fifth in career innings pitched, and his 53 strikeouts in Big Ten play in both 2001 and 2002 are tied for third in school history. Dickinson also holds the record for innings pitched in a Big Ten season with 63 in 2002, and his 148 Big Ten innings rank third in school history. He pitched 115 1/3 innings in 2001 - third-most in school history - and 114 2/3 in 2002 - fourth-most in school history.

Dickinson was a two-time All-Big Ten first-team selection and reached the double-A level with the Oakland A's. He was a 2003 Midwest League all-star and was named a Top 25 Prospect in the A's system in 2004.

ADAM CHRIST

ASSISTANT COACH // FIRST SEASON

Adam Christ joined the Fighting Illini as an assistant coach in July 2015 after spending the past seven seasons at Minnesota State. He will work with the position players and serve as the third base coach.

Named an assistant coach at Minnesota State in the summer of 2008, Christ was promoted to associate head coach in 2012. During his time with the Mavericks, Minnesota State accrued a 306-86 overall record for a .781 winning percentage.

In his seven seasons in Mankato, Minnesota State made seven NCAA postseason tournament appearances, won four Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference regular-season titles, four NSIC tournament titles, claimed four NCAA regional titles and posted NCAA DII National Championship tournament finishes of seventh (2010), third (2012), second (2013) and third (2014).

KYLE HUDSON

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH // SECOND SEASON

Kyle Hudson is in his second as a volunteer assistant coach with the Illini in 2016. A native of Mattoon, Illinois, Hudson was a two-sport athlete and three-year letterwinner in both baseball and football at Illinois from 2005-08.

Hudson shined on both the baseball and football fields at Illinois before being drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the fourth round of the 2008 MLB First-Year Player Draft. His baseball accolades include an ABCA third-team All-America honor, ABCA first-team All-Region laurel and unanimous first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2008. He also was a standout wide receiver, playing in the 2008 Rose Bowl and beginning his career as the University of Illinois' Newcomer of the Year in 2005.

Hudson ranks second on Illinois' career batting average list with a .376 mark, behind only Darrin Fletcher's .392 average. He ranks third in school history in career steals (66) and fourth in career Big Ten batting average (.361). He holds the Illinois record for career steals in Big Ten play (36), steals in a Big Ten season (25) and the second-most steals in a season (40), a total that tied the school record at the time.

Hudson was called up by the Orioles in 2011 and played 14 career MLB games, collecting four hits, three runs, two RBI and two stolen bases. He spent the majority of his minor league career in the Orioles organization (2008-12) followed by minor league stints with Texas Rangers, Tampa Bay, Philadelphia and Los Angeles Angels organizations.

WILL KRUG

STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH // FIRST SEASON

One year removed from starting for the Illini's 2015 Big Ten and Regional championship team, Will Krug enters his first season as a student assistant coach in 2016. Krug helped the Illini secure its first ever NCAA Regional crown by hitting .600 with five runs, two doubles, a triple and two steals during three Regional wins. He was named to the All-Tournament team as Illinois moved on to its first NCAA Super Regional.

The Park Ridge, Illinois, native hit .281 in 168 career games over four years for the Illini. He was an All-Big Ten second team outfielder in 2014 and led the team in hits (69) and multi-hit games (23) along with ranking fourth with a .307 average and fifth with 24 RBI.

Krug also shined off the field as a two-time Academic All-Big Ten and Big Ten Sportsmanship honoree. He was named a Senior CLASS Award candidate, the top student-athlete award in the country, during his senior season.

Krug Started 139 games during his four-year career, including 53 as a junior and 49 as a senior. He finished with 154 hits, 21 doubles, two homers, 53 RBI and 45 stolen bases.
